c. The record or any part thereof may be disclosed to a qualified researcher, a staff member of the facility, or an employee of the department when the administrator of the facility or the secretary of the department deems it necessary for the treatment of the client, maintenance of adequate records, compilation of treatment data, or evaluation of programs.

d. Information from the records may be used for statistical and research purposes if the information is abstracted in such a way to protect the identity of individuals.

3. All central records for each client in residential facilities shall be kept on uniform forms distributed by the department. The central record shall accurately summarize each client's history and present condition.

4. The client, if competent, or his parent or legal guardian if the client is incompetent, shall be supplied with a copy of the client's central record upon request.

(4) LIABILITY FOR VIOLATIONS.—Any person who violates or abuses any rights or privileges of clients provided by this act shall be liable for damages as determined by law. Any person who acts in good-faith compliance with the provisions of this act shall be immune from civil or criminal liability for actions in connection with evaluation, admission, habilitative programming, education, treatment, or discharge of a client. However, this section shall not relieve any person from liability if such person is guilty of negligence, misfeasance, nonfeasance, or malfeasance.

(5) NOTICE OF RIGHTS.—Each client, if competent, or parent or legal guardian of each client if the client is incompetent, shall promptly receive from the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services a written copy of this act. Each client able to comprehend shall be promptly informed in clear language of the above legal rights of mentally retarded persons.

(6) RESIDENT GOVERNMENT.—Each residential facility shall initiate and develop a program of resident government to hear the views and represent the interests of all clients served by the facility. The resident government shall be composed of residents elected by other residents, staff advisors skilled in the administration of community organizations, and a representative of the district Human Rights Advocacy Committee. The resident government shall work closely with the district Human Rights Advocacy Committee and the district administrator to promote the interests and welfare of all residents in the facility.

393.14 Multiyear plan.—

(1) The department is authorized to begin implementation of the provisions of this act within the limits of current appropriations. The '[department]' shall develop a multiyear plan which will provide for the phased-in implementation of the provisions of this act. The plan shall specify and operationalize the documented relationships between resource expenditures and client improvement. The multiyear plan for implementation shall be presented to the Legislature by January 1, 1976. The plan shall include, but not be limited to:

(a) An analysis and inventory of existing programs, facilities, and services dealing with the retarded and other developmentally disabled.

(b) A survey and analysis outlining the needs of the system of care for the retarded to accomplish the purpose and intent of this act. This analysis shall include:

1. Comprehensive information relating to the conceptual basis and statement of criteria which will be used for the identification and categorization of all '[department]' clients and the expected level and amount of service each category of client will require.

2. A description of the present client population, based on the above criteria.

3. Client population forecasts.

4. Client profiles.

5. Service area resources, needs, and capabilities.

6. Residential and nonresidential community programs.

7. An analysis of the future functions of institutions and their profile.

8. An analysis of the space, service program needs, and personnel and staffing ratios required by current acceptable standards.

9. An analysis of the financing necessary to implement needs, which shall include a statement of the actual cost necessary to implement each program and the actual cost of each unit of service to the client for both institutional and community placements.

(c) A plan for the coordination of the state's service, programs, and facilities for the retarded.

(d) An overall plan for facility design, which shall include the estimated cost, which will best serve the retarded, and which will integrate institutional services with community-based programs and facilities.

(e) A detailed study of methods to implement alternatives to institutionalization and how those methods can best be utilized.

(f) A multiple-year fiscal plan demonstrating the overall cost of implementation of this act as well as providing single fiscal year expenditures required in the interim towards complete implementation. This part of the plan shall include an estimate of the payments the '[department]' will expect to receive from those who are determined to be able to pay for all or part of the services they receive. The plan shall provide a suggested family income schedule which shall determine a family's contribution toward the care of a retarded child.

(2) Each year, commencing with the 1977 fiscal year, the department shall render a written report to the Legislature updating the plan, making recommendations for modification or improvement, and giving a detailed analysis of the manner and method, including funding, by which the Legislature can continue to implement the overall goals of the plan.

History.—s. 10, ch. 75-259.

Note.—Bracketed word substituted by the editors for "division" (of Retardation of the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services). See s. 3, ch. 75-48, which abolished the division and assigned its functions to the department.

393.15 Legislative intent; definition, Group-Living Home Trust Fund.—

(1) The Legislature finds and declares that the development of community-based treatment facilities for the retarded, autistic, or other developmentally disabled is desirable and recommended and should be encouraged and fostered by the state. The Legislature further recognizes that the development of such homes is financially difficult for private individuals, due to initial expenditures required to adapt existing structures to the special needs of the retarded, autistic, and other developmentally disabled clients who may come to reside in such homes. Therefore, it is the intent of the Legislature by this act to develop a loan trust fund to provide support and encouragement in the establishment of community-based group living homes for the retarded, autistic, and other developmentally disabled.

(2) As used in this act, "group-living home" means any residential facility operated, approved, or contracted with under the authority of the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services, housing not less than 4 or more than 16 mentally retarded, autistic, or developmentally disabled persons. A group-living home may be a nonprofit corporation, partnership, or sole proprietorship.

(3) There is created a Group-Living Home Trust Fund in the State Treasury to be used by the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services for the purpose of granting loans to eligible group-living homes for the initial costs of development of the group-living homes. Loans shall be made only to those group homes which are in compliance with the zoning regulations of the local community. Costs of development may include structural modification, the purchase of equipment and fire and safety devices, and the purchase of insurance. Such costs shall not include the actual construction of a group-living home.

(4) The department may grant to an eligible group-living home a lump sum loan in one payment not to exceed the cost to the group-living home of providing 2 months' care and maintenance to each mentally retarded, autistic, or developmentally disabled person to be placed in the home by the department. Loans granted to group-living homes shall not be in lieu of payment for maintenance and care provided, but shall stand separate and distinct. The department shall promulgate rules, as provided in chapter 120, to determine the standards under which a group-living home shall be eligible to receive a loan as provided in this section.

(5) Any loan granted by the department under this section shall be repaid by the group-living home within 5 years. A group-living home operating as a nonprofit corporation meeting the requirements of s. 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code shall submit to the department a statement setting forth the residential service it has provided during the year together with such other information as the department by rule shall require, and, upon approval of each such annual statement, the department shall forgive 20 percent of the outstanding principal balance of such loans granted prior to October 1, 1976, and shall forgive 20 percent of the principal and interest of such loans granted on or after October 1, 1976.

(6) If any group-living home which has received a loan under this section ceases to accept, or provide care and maintenance to, persons placed in the home by the department, or if such home shall file papers of bankruptcy, at that point in time the loan shall become an interest-bearing loan at the rate of 5 percent per annum on the entire amount of the initial loan which shall be repaid within a 1-year period from the date on which the home ceases to provide care or files papers in bankruptcy, and the amount of the loan due plus interest shall constitute a lien in favor of the state against all real and personal property of the group-living home. The lien shall be perfected by the appropriate officer of the department by executing and acknowledging a statement of the name of the home and the amount due on the loan and a copy of the promissory note, which shall be recorded by the department with the clerk of the circuit court in the county wherein the home is located. If the home has filed a petition for bankruptcy, the department shall file and enforce the lien in the bankruptcy proceedings. Otherwise, the lien shall be enforced in the manner provided in s. 85.011. All funds received by the department from the enforcement of the lien shall be deposited in the Group-Living Home Trust Fund.

393.16 Intermediate care facilities; definition; trust fund.—

(1) As used in this section, "facility" means any residential intermediate care facility for mentally retarded and other developmentally disabled persons which is operated by a corporation for profit or nonprofit corporation, by a partnership, or by a sole proprietorship; which is operated, approved, or contracted with under the authority of the department; and which houses not fewer than 4 or more than 25 mentally retarded or developmentally disabled persons.

(2) The Intermediate Care Facilities Trust Fund is established in the State Treasury to be administered by the department for the purpose of granting loans to eligible facilities for the initial costs of operating the facilities, not including costs of structural modification, the purchase of equipment or fire and safety devices, the purchase of insurance, or the actual construction of a facility.

(3) The department may grant to an eligible facility a lump sum loan in one payment, not to exceed 75 percent of the operating costs of the facility for up to 6 months' care and maintenance for each mentally retarded or developmentally disabled person to be placed in the facility by the department. Loans granted to facilities shall not be in lieu of payment for maintenance and care provided. Each such loan shall be used to provide programs and services as required under the federal regulations providing standards for intermediate care facility services (45 C.F.R. s. 249.13) and shall be granted to a facility only upon the completion of a facility licensure and certification survey conducted by the department. The department shall adopt rules establishing the minimum standards under which a facility may receive a loan under this section.

(4) Any loan granted under this section shall be repaid at no interest by the facility within 6 months of the receipt by the facility of its initial Medicaid payment.

(5) If any facility which has received such a loan ceases to accept, or to provide care and maintenance to, persons placed in the facility by the department or if any such facility files papers of bankruptcy, the loan shall become an interest-bearing loan, at the rate of 5 percent per annum on the entire amount of the loan, which shall be repaid within a 3-month period from the date on which the facility ceases to provide care or files papers in bankruptcy; and the amount of the loan due, plus interest, shall constitute a lien in favor of the state against all real and personal property of the facility. The lien shall be perfected by the appropriate officer of the department by executing and acknowledging a statement of the name of the facility and the amount due on the loan and a copy of the promissory note, which shall be recorded by the department with the clerk of the circuit court in the county wherein the facility is located. If the facility has filed a petition for bankruptcy, the department shall file and enforce the lien in the bankruptcy proceedings; otherwise, the lien shall be enforced in the manner provided in s. 85.011. All funds received by the department from the enforcement of such lien shall be deposited in the Intermediate Care Facilities Trust Fund.

(6) The corporation, partnership, or sole proprietor operating a residential intermediate care facility shall execute an agreement prepared by the department that any funds received pursuant to this section shall be used solely for operating costs.

(7) It is the intent of the Legislature that no facility receive more than $160,000 pursuant to the provisions of this section.

(8) All facilities with approved certificates of need prior to July 1, 1979, regardless of the size of said facility, shall be eligible to benefit from the provisions of this section.

History.—ss. 1-3, ch. 79-172.

Note.—The word "operating" was substituted for "of" by the editors.

393.20 Raymond C. Philips Research and Education Unit at Sunland Training Center at Gainesville.—

(1) There is created at the Sunland Training Center in Gainesville a research and education unit. Such unit shall be named the Raymond C. Philips Research and Education Unit. The functions of such unit shall include:

(a) Research into the etiology of mental retardation and developmental disabilities;

(b) Ensuring that new knowledge is rapidly disseminated throughout the Retardation Program Office system of the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services;

(c) Diagnosis of unusual conditions and syndromes associated with retardation in clients identified throughout the Sunland system;

(d) Evaluation of families of clients with mental retardation of genetic origin in order to provide them with genetic counseling aimed at preventing the recurrence of the disorder in other family members;

(e) Ensuring that health professionals in the Gainesville Sunland Training Center have access to information systems that will allow them to remain updated on newer knowledge and maintain their postgraduate education standards; and

(f) Enhancing staff training for professionals throughout the department in the areas of genetics and developmental disabilities and in all aspects of retardation.

(2) The Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services shall have the authority to contract for the supervision and management of the Raymond C. Philips Research and Education Unit, and such contract shall include specific program objectives.

(3) The department shall conduct an ongoing evaluation and prepare an annual report to be submitted to the Governor and Legislature not later than April 1 each year reflecting the extent of implementation of program objectives and functions of the unit as provided in this section.

394.451 Short title.—This part shall be known as "The Florida Mental Health Act" or "The Baker Act."

History.—s. 1, ch. 71-131.

394.453 Legislative intent.—It is the intent of the Legislature to authorize and direct the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services to evaluate, research, plan, and recommend to the Governor and the Legislature programs designed to reduce the occurrence, severity, duration, and disabling aspects of mental, emotional, and behavioral disorders. The department is directed to implement and administer mental health programs as authorized and approved by the Legislature, based on the department's annual program budget. It is the further intent of the Legislature that programs of the department shall coordinate the development, maintenance, and improvement of receiving and community treatment facilities within the programs of the district mental health boards as authorized by the Community Mental Health Act, part IV of this chapter. Treatment programs shall include, but not be limited to, comprehensive health, social, educational, and rehabilitative services to persons requiring intensive short-term and continued treatment in order to encourage them to assume responsibility for their treatment and recovery. It is intended that patients shall be provided with emergency service and temporary detention for evaluation when required; that patients be admitted to treatment facilities on a voluntary basis when extended or continuing care is needed and unavailable in the community; that involuntary placement be provided only when expert evaluation determines that it is necessary; and that individual dignity and human rights be guaranteed to all persons admitted to mental health facilities. It is further the intent of the Legislature that the least restrictive means of intervention be employed based on the individual needs of each patient within the scope of available services. Nothing in this act shall be construed to affect any policies relating to admission to hospital staff.

394.455 Definitions.—As used in this part, unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

(1) "Hospital" means a public or private hospital or institution or part thereof licensed by the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services and equipped to provide inpatient care and treatment facilities, or any hospital under the supervision of the department.

(2) "Mental health professional" means an individual licensed or authorized to practice medicine or osteopathy under the laws of this state who has primarily diagnosed and treated mental and nervous disorders for a period of not less than 3 years inclusive of psychiatric residency; a psychologist licensed pursuant to chapter 490 who has not less than 1 year of clinical experience postlicensure in the diagnosis and treatment of mental and nervous disorders; or, in counties in which individuals having such qualifications are not available, a physician licensed pursuant to chapter 458 or chapter 459 who has diagnosed and treated mental and nervous disorders. For the purposes of initiating emergency admissions under s. 394.463(1)(b)3., initiating court-ordered evaluation pursuant to s. 394.463(2)(b)2., and certifying and testifying that a patient manifests criteria for involuntary placement pursuant to the provisions of s. 394.467(2)(b)2. and (3)(a), "mental health professional" also means a registered nurse with a masters or doctoral degree in psychiatric nursing and 2 years of postmasters clinical experience under the supervision of a physician possessing the above-stated experience in diagnosis of mental and nervous disorders.

(3) "Mentally ill" means having a mental, emotional, or behavioral disorder which substantially impairs the person's mental health.

(4) "Department" means the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services.

(5) "Secretary" means the secretary of the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services.

(6) "Mental health board" means the board within a board district established in accordance with the provisions of the Community Mental Health Act, part IV of this chapter, for the purposes of administering the community mental health program.

(7) "Board district" means that area over which a single mental health board has jurisdiction for administering mental health programs as provided by the Community Mental Health Act, part IV of this chapter, and may consist of one or more services districts.

(8) "Facility" means any state-owned or state-operated hospital or state-aided community facility designated by the department to be utilized for the evaluation, diagnosis, care, treatment, training, or hospitalization of persons who are mentally ill, and any other hospital within the state approved and designated for such purpose by the department.

(9) "Community facility" means a facility which receives funds from the state under the Community Mental Health Act, part IV of this chapter.

(10) "Receiving facility" means a facility designated by the department to receive patients under emergency conditions or for psychiatric evaluation and to provide short-term treatment, and also means a private facility when rendering services to a private patient pursuant to the provisions of this act.

(11) "Treatment facility" means a state-owned, state-operated, or state-supported hospital, center, or clinic designated by the department for the treatment and hospitalization of persons who are mentally ill, including facilities of the United States Government, and also means a private facility when rendering services to a private patient pursuant to the provisions of this act. Patients treated in facilities of the United States Government shall be solely those whose care is the responsibility of the Veterans' Administration.

(12) "Private facility" means any hospital or facility operated by a nonprofit corporation or association or a proprietary hospital approved by the department.

(13) "Patient" means any mentally ill person who seeks hospitalization under this part, or any person for whom such hospitalization is sought.

(14) "Administrator" means the chief administrative officer of a receiving or treatment facility or his designee.

(15) "Staff member" means an employee of a receiving or treatment facility who has been designated as a staff member by the department.

(16) "Law enforcement officer" means any city police officer, officer of the State Highway Patrol, sheriff, or deputy sheriff.

(17) "Guardian" means a natural guardian of a minor or a legal guardian appointed by a court to maintain custody and control of the person or of the property of an incompetent.

(18) "Representative" means a person appointed to receive notice of proceedings for and during hospitalization and to take actions for and on behalf of the patient.

(19) "Court," unless otherwise specified, means the circuit court.

(20) "Judge," unless otherwise specified, means the judge of the Circuit Court or the judge designated to act under this act by the chief judge of a circuit.

(21) "Clinical record" means all parts of the record required to be maintained and includes all medical records, progress notes, charts, admission and discharge data, and all other information recorded by a facility which pertains to the patient's hospitalization and treatment.

(22) "Express and informed consent" means consent voluntarily given in writing after sufficient explanation and disclosure of the subject matter involved to enable the person whose consent is sought to make a knowing and willful decision without any element of force, fraud, deceit, duress, or other form of constraint or coercion.

Note.—Chapter 490, which provided for licensing of psychologists, was repealed by s. 3, ch. 76-168, as amended by s. 1, ch. 77-457, effective July 1, 1979.

Note.—This cross-reference is erroneous.

394.457 Operation and administration.—

(1) ADMINISTRATION.—The Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services, is designated the "Mental Health Authority" of Florida. The department shall exercise executive and administrative supervision over all mental health facilities, programs, and services.

(2) RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE DEPARTMENT.—The department is responsible for the planning, evaluation, and coordination of a complete and comprehensive statewide program of mental health including community services, receiving and treatment facilities, child services, research, and training. The department is also responsible for the implementation of programs and coordination of efforts with other departments and divisions of the state government, county and municipal governments, and private agencies concerned with and providing mental health services. It is responsible for establishing standards, providing technical assistance, and exercising supervision of mental health programs of state-supported community facilities and other facilities for the mentally ill. It shall stimulate research by public and private agencies, institutions of higher learning, and hospitals in the interest of the elimination and amelioration of mental illness. The department may contract for residential and nonresidential services to be provided by receiving and treatment facilities and shall promulgate rules to implement any such services.

(3) POWER TO CONTRACT.—The department may contract to provide, and be provided with, services and facilities in order to carry out its responsibilities under this part with the following agencies: district mental health boards; public and private hospitals; clinics; laboratories; departments, divisions and other units of state government; the state colleges and universities; the community colleges; private colleges and universities; counties, municipalities, and any other governmental unit, including facilities of the United States Government; and any other public or private entity which provides or needs facilities or services. Services contracted for by the department may be reimbursed by the state at a rate up to 100 percent. The department shall make periodic audits and inspections to assure that the contracted services are provided and meet the standards of the department.

(4) APPLICATION FOR AND ACCEPTANCE OF GIFTS AND GRANTS.—The department may apply for, and accept any funds, grants, gifts, or services made available to it by any agency or department of the Federal Government or any other public or private agency or individual in aid of mental health programs. All such moneys shall be deposited in the state treasury and shall be disbursed as provided by law.

(5) RULES AND REGULATIONS; PERSONNEL.—

(a) The department shall adopt rules and regulations necessary for administration of this part in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act, chapter 120.

(b) The department shall, by regulation, establish standards of education and experience for professional and technical personnel employed in mental health programs.

(6) HEARING OFFICERS.—

(a) One or more hearing officers shall be assigned by the Division of Administrative Hearings to conduct hearings for continued involuntary placement.

(b) Hearings on requests for orders authorizing continued involuntary placement filed in accordance with s. 394.467(4) shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of s. 120.57(1), except that any order entered by the hearing officer shall be final and subject to judicial review in accordance with s. 120.68, except that orders concerning patients committed after successfully pleading not guilty by reason of insanity shall be governed by the provisions of s. 394.467(5).

(7) PAYMENT FOR CARE OF PATIENTS.—Fees and fee collections for patients in treatment facilities shall be according to s. 402.33.

(8) DESIGNATION OF TREATMENT FACILITIES.—Florida State Hospital located at Chattahoochee, Gadsden County; G. Pierce Wood Memorial Hospital located at Arcadia, DeSoto County; South Florida State Hospital located at Hollywood, Broward County; and Northeast Florida State Hospital located at Macclenny, Baker County; and such other facilities as may be established by law or designated by the department in order to ensure availability of the least restrictive environment, including facilities of the United States Government, if such designation is agreed to by the appropriate governing body or authority, are designated as treatment facilities.

(9) DESIGNATION OF APPROVED PRIVATE PSYCHIATRIC FACILITIES.—Private psychiatric facilities may be approved by the department to provide emergency admission, court-ordered evaluation, and treatment on an involuntary basis. Such facilities are authorized to act in the same capacity as receiving and treatment facilities and are subject to all the provisions of this part, except that patients shall have the right to a hearing for continued involuntary placement every 90 days according to established hearing procedures set forth herein.

Note.—Former s. 965.01(3), s. 402.10.

394.458 Introduction or removal of certain articles unlawful; penalty.—

(1)(a) Except as authorized by law or as specifically authorized by the person in charge of each hospital, it is unlawful to introduce into or upon the grounds of any mental health hospital under the supervision or control of the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services, or to take or attempt to take or send therefrom, any of the following articles, which are hereby declared to be contraband for the purposes of this section:

1. Any intoxicating beverage or beverage which causes or may cause an intoxicating effect;
2. Any controlled substance as defined in chapter 893; or
3. Any firearms or deadly weapon.

(b) It is unlawful to transmit to, or attempt to transmit to, or cause or attempt to cause to be transmitted to, or received by, any patient of any hospital any article or thing declared by this section to be contraband, at any place which is outside of the grounds of such hospital, except as authorized by law or as specifically authorized by the person in charge of such hospital.

(2) Whoever violates any provision of this section is guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 1, ch. 75-253; s. 201, ch. 77-147; s. 1, ch. 77-174.

394.459 Rights of patients.—

(1) RIGHT TO INDIVIDUAL DIGNITY.—The policy of the state is that the individual dignity of the patient shall be respected at all times and upon all occasions, including any occasion when the patient is taken into custody, detained, or transported. Procedures, facilities, including jails, vehicles, and restraining devices utilized for criminals or those accused of crime shall not be used in connection with the noncriminal mentally ill except for the protection of the patient or others. If, in an emergency, a mentally ill person is placed in a jail, such a facility may be used only as long as the emergency exists and in no case, except felony criminal cases, longer than 5 days. In criminal cases, a jail may be used as an emergency facility no longer than 45 days. Treatment shall be provided to the patient by his mental health professional or the receiving facility staff. No person who is receiving treatment for mental illness in a facility shall be deprived of any constitutional rights. However, if such a person is adjudicated incompetent pursuant to the provisions of this part, his rights may be limited to the same extent the rights of any incompetent person are limited by general law.

(2) RIGHT TO TREATMENT.—

(a) The policy of the state is that the department shall not deny treatment for mental illness to any person, and that no services shall be delayed at a receiving or treatment facility because of inability to pay.

(b) It is further the policy of the state that the least restrictive available treatment be utilized based on the individual needs and best interests of the patient.

(c) Each person who is admitted to a receiving or treatment facility, and each person who remains at a facility for a period in excess of 12 hours, shall be given a physical examination by a health practitioner authorized by law to give such examinations within 24 hours after arrival at any such facility.

(3) RIGHT TO EXPRESS AND INFORMED PATIENT CONSENT.—

(a) All persons entering a facility shall be asked to give express and informed consent for treatment after disclosure to the patient if he is competent, or his guardian if he is a minor or is incompetent, of the purpose of the treatment to be provided, the common side effects thereof, alternative treatment modalities, the approximate length of care, and that any consent given by a patient may be revoked orally or in writing prior to or during the treatment period by the patient or his guardian. If a voluntary patient refuses to consent to or revokes consent for treatment, such patient shall be discharged within 3 days or, in the event the patient meets the criteria for involuntary placement, such proceedings shall be instituted within 3 days. If any patient refuses treatment and is not discharged as a result, treatment may be rendered such patient in the least restrictive manner on an emergency basis, upon the written order of a mental health professional when such mental health professional determines treatment is necessary for the safety of the patient or others. If any patient refuses to consent to treatment or revokes consent previously provided, and if, in the opinion of the patient's mental health professional, the treatment not consented to is essential to appropriate care for such patient hereunder, then the administrator shall immediately petition the hearing examiner for a hearing to determine the competency of the patient to consent to treatment. If the hearing examiner finds that the patient is incompetent to consent to treatment, he shall appoint a guardian advocate, who shall act on the patient's behalf relating to provision of express and informed consent to treatment. A guardian advocate appointed pursuant to the provisions of this act shall meet the qualifications of a guardian contained in part IV of chapter 744, except that no mental health professional, department employee, or facility administrator shall be appointed.

(b) In addition to the provisions of paragraph (a), in the case of surgical procedures requiring the use of a general anesthetic or electroconvulsive treatment, and prior to performing the procedure, written permission shall be obtained from the patient, if he is legally competent, from the parent or guardian of a minor patient, or from the guardian of an incompetent patient. The facility administrator or his designated representative may, with the concurrence of the patient's attending physician, authorize emergency surgical treatment if such treatment is deemed lifesaving and permission of the patient and his guardian or representative cannot be obtained.

(c) When the department is the legal guardian or representative of a patient, or is the custodian of a patient whose physician is unwilling to perform surgery based solely on the patient's consent and whose parent or legal guardian is unknown or unlocatable, a court of competent jurisdiction shall hold a hearing to determine the appropriateness of the surgical procedure. The patient shall be physically present, unless the patient's medical condition precludes such presence, represented by counsel, and provided the right and opportunity to be confronted with, and to cross-examine, all witnesses alleging the appropriateness of such procedure. In such proceedings, the burden of proof by clear and convincing evidence shall be on the party alleging the appropriateness of such procedure.

(4) QUALITY OF TREATMENT.—

(a) Each patient in a facility shall receive treatment suited to his needs, which shall be administered skillfully, safely, and humanely with full respect for his dignity and personal integrity. Each patient shall receive such medical, vocational, social, educational, and rehabilitative services as his condition requires to bring about an early return to his community. In order to achieve this goal the department is directed to coordinate its mental health programs with all other programs of the department.

(b) If a patient is able to secure the services of a private mental health professional, he shall be allowed to see his mental health professional at any reasonable time. In addition, any patient's attending mental health professional may utilize the services of a consulting mental health professional for the purpose of aiding in evaluation, diagnosis, and treatment. Such consultant may be reimbursed in a manner to be determined by the department within available funds, for services related to this act. The department shall establish rules designed to facilitate examination and treatment by private mental health professionals on a consulting basis.

(5) COMMUNICATION, ABUSE REPORTING, AND VISITS.—

(a) Each patient in a facility has the right to communicate freely and privately with persons outside the facility unless it is determined that such communication is likely to be harmful to the patient or others.

(b) Each patient shall be allowed to receive, send, and mail sealed, unopened correspondence, and no patient's incoming or outgoing correspondence shall be opened, delayed, held, or censored by the facility unless there is reason to believe that it contains items or substances which may be harmful to the patient or others, in which case the administrator may direct reasonable examination of such mail and may regulate the disposition of such items or substances.

(c) If a patient's right to communicate is restricted by the administrator, written notice of such restriction shall be served on the patient and his guardian or representatives, and such restriction shall be recorded on the patient's clinical record with the reasons therefor. The restriction of a patient's right to communicate shall be reviewed at least every 90 days.

(d) The department shall establish reasonable rules governing visitors, visiting hours, and the use of telephones by patients in the least restrictive possible manner.

(e) Each patient receiving mental health treatment shall have ready access to a telephone in order to report an alleged abuse. The facility staff shall verbally and in writing inform each patient of the procedure for reporting abuse. A written copy of said procedure, including the telephone number of the abuse registry and reporting forms, shall be posted in plain view.

(f) The department shall adopt rules providing a procedure for reporting abuse. Facility staff shall be required, as a condition of employment, to become familiar with the procedures for reporting of abuse.

(6) CARE AND CUSTODY OF PERSONAL EFFECTS OF PATIENTS.—A patient's right to his clothing and personal effects shall be respected. The administrator may take temporary custody of such effects when required for medical and safety reasons. Custody of such personal effects shall be recorded in the patient's clinical record.

(7) VOTING IN PUBLIC ELECTIONS.—A patient in a facility who is eligible to vote according to the laws of the state has the right to vote in the primary and general elections. The department shall establish rules and regulations to enable patients to obtain voter registration forms, applications for absentee ballots, and absentee ballots.

(8) EDUCATION OF CHILDREN.—The department shall provide education and training appropriate to the needs of all children in treatment facilities. Efforts shall be made to provide this education and training in the least restrictive setting available.

(9) CLINICAL RECORD; CONFIDENTIALITY.—A clinical record for each patient shall be maintained. The record shall include data pertaining to admission and such other information as may be required under rules of the department. Unless waived by express and informed consent by the patient or his guardian or attorney, the privileged and confidential status of the clinical record shall not be lost by either authorized or unauthorized disclosure to any person, organization, or agency. The clinical record shall not be a public record and no part of it shall be released, except:

(a) The record may be released to mental health professionals, attorneys, and government agencies as designated by the patient, his guardian, or his attorney. A medical discharge summary of the clinical record of any patient committed to, or to be returned to, the Department of Corrections from the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services shall be released to the Department of Corrections without charge upon its request. The Department of Corrections shall treat such information as confidential and shall not release such information except as provided in this section.

(b) The record shall be produced in response to a subpoena or released to persons authorized by order of court, excluding matters privileged by other provisions of law.

(c) The record or any part thereof may be disclosed to a qualified researcher, a staff member of the facility, or an employee of the department when the administrator of the facility or secretary of the department deems it necessary for treatment of the patient, maintenance of adequate records, compilation of treatment data, or evaluation of programs.

(d) Information from the clinical records may be used for statistical and research purposes if the information is abstracted in such a way as to protect the identity of individuals.

(10) HABEAS CORPUS.—

(a) At any time, and without notice, a person detained by a facility, or a relative, friend, guardian, representative, or attorney on behalf of such person, may petition for a writ of habeas corpus to question the cause and legality of such detention and request that the circuit court issue a writ for release. Each patient admitted to a facility for involuntary placement shall receive a written notice of the right to petition for a writ of habeas corpus.

(b) A patient or his guardian or representatives may file a petition in the circuit court in the county where the patient is hospitalized alleging that the patient is being unjustly denied a right or privilege granted herein or that a procedure authorized herein is being abused. Upon the filing of such a petition, the circuit court shall have the authority to conduct a judicial inquiry and to issue any appropriate order to correct an abuse of the provisions of this part.

(11) TRANSPORTATION.—If neither the patient nor any person legally obligated or responsible for the patient is able to pay for the expense of transporting the patient to a treatment facility, the governing board of the county from which the patient is hospitalized shall arrange for such required transportation. The department shall promulgate rules and regulations to insure safe and dignified transportation for all patients.

(12) DESIGNATION OF REPRESENTATIVES; NOTICE OF ADMISSION.—

(a) At the time a patient is admitted to a facility, the names and addresses of two representatives or one guardian shall be entered in the patient's clinical record.

1. A treatment facility shall give written notice of the patient's admission to his guardian or representatives.

2. A receiving facility shall give notice of admission to the patient's guardian or representatives by telephone or in person within 24 hours.

(b) If the patient has no guardian, he may designate one representative; the second representative, or both in the absence of designation of one representative by the patient, shall be selected by the facility. The first representative selected by the facility ity shall be made from the following in the order of listing:

1. The patient's spouse;
2. An adult child;
3. Parent;
4. Adult next of kin;
5. Adult friend;
6. Appropriate human rights advocacy committee as defined in s. 20.19; or
7. The department.

The second representative selected by the facility shall be without regard to the order of listing, except that the department shall only be selected as the representative of last resort in cases where the patient is receiving service in a state-operated facility. If the facility can locate only one person from the categories listed above, it shall only be required to select one representative.

(c) The patient shall be consulted with regard to the appointment of a representative and have authority to request that an appointed representative be replaced.

(d) Unless otherwise provided, notice to the patient's guardian or representatives shall be served by registered or certified mail or receipted hand delivery, and the date on which such notice was mailed shall be entered on the patient's clinical record.

(13) LIABILITY FOR VIOLATIONS.—Any person who violates or abuses any rights or privileges of patients provided by this act shall be liable for damages as determined by law. Any person who acts in good faith in compliance with the provisions of this part shall be immune from civil or criminal liability for his actions in connection with the admission, diagnosis, treatment, or discharge of a patient to or from a facility. However, this section shall not relieve any person from liability if such person is guilty of negligence.

394.460 Rights of mental health professionals.—No mental health professional shall be required to accept patients for treatment of mental, emotional, or behavioral disorders. Such participation shall be voluntary.

394.461 Facilities; transfers of patients.—

(1) RECEIVING FACILITY.—The Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services may designate any community facility as a receiving facility for emergency, short term treatment and evaluation. The governing board of any county is authorized to contract with the department or with the mental health board of a board district, with the approval of the department, to set aside an area of any facility of the department to function, and be designated, as the receiving facility. Any other facility within the state, including a federal facility, may be so designated by the department at the request of and with the consent of the governing officers of the facility.

(2) TREATMENT FACILITY.—Any state-owned, state-operated, or state-supported facility may be designated by the department as a treatment facility. Any other facility, including a federal facility, may be so designated by the department at the request of, or with the consent of, its governing officers.

(3) TRANSFERS OF PATIENTS.—

(a) Any patient who has been admitted to a treatment or receiving facility on a voluntary basis and is able to pay for treatment in a private facility may apply to the department for transfer at his expense to such private facility. A patient may apply to the department for transfer from a private facility to a public facility. An involuntary patient may be transferred at the discretion of the department or upon application by the patient or the guardian of said patient.

(b) When the medical needs of the patient or efficient utilization of the facilities of the department require, a patient may be transferred from one facility of the department to another or, with the express and informed consent of the patient and his guardian or representatives, to a facility in another state.

(c) When any patient is to be transferred, notice shall be given to his guardian or representatives prior to the transfer.

(a) There shall be established separate and secure facilities within the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services for the treatment of any person:

1. Who has been determined to need treatment for a mental illness;
2. Who:
  - a. Has charges pending;
  - b. Has been convicted of a criminal offense;
  - c. Has been acquitted of a criminal offense by reasons of insanity; or
  - d. Is serving sentence for a criminal offense; and
3. Who has been determined by the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services to:
  - a. Be dangerous to himself or others; or
  - b. Present a clear and present potential to escape.

(b) Such separate and secure facilities shall be maximum-security-grade buildings located on grounds distinct in location from other treatment facilities for persons who are mentally ill.

394.463 Admission for emergency or evaluation.—

(1) EMERGENCY ADMISSION.—

(a) Criteria.—A person may be admitted to a receiving facility on emergency conditions if there is reason to believe that he is mentally ill and because of his illness is:

1. Likely to injure himself or others if allowed to remain at liberty; or
2. In need of care or treatment and lacks sufficient capacity to make a responsible application on his own behalf, and an ex parte order is obtained authorizing the admission.

(b) Initiation of proceeding.—An emergency admission may be initiated as follows:

1. A judge may enter an ex parte order stating that a person appears to meet the criteria for emergency admission, giving the findings on which that conclusion is based and directing that a law enforcement officer take the person into custody and deliver him to the nearest receiving facility for emergency examination and treatment. The order of the court shall be made a part of the patient's clinical record; or

2. A law enforcement officer may take a person who appears to meet the criteria for emergency admission into custody and deliver him to the nearest receiving facility for emergency examination and treatment. The officer shall execute a written report detailing the circumstances under which the person was taken into custody, and the report shall be made a part of the patient's clinical record; or

3. A mental health professional may execute a certificate that he has examined a person within the preceding 48 hours and finds that the person appears to meet the criteria for emergency admission, stating the observations upon which that conclusion is based. The mental health professional's certificate shall authorize a law enforcement officer to take the person into custody and deliver him to the nearest available receiving facility for emergency examination and treatment. The law enforcement officer shall execute a written report detailing the circumstances under which the person was taken into custody. The report and mental health professional's certificate shall be made a part of the patient's clinical record.

(c) Emergency examination.—A patient who is admitted for an emergency examination and treatment by a receiving facility shall be examined by a mental health professional without unnecessary delay, and may be given such treatment as is indicated by good medical practice.

(d) Release of patient.—At any time the examining mental health professional concludes that the patient need not be retained in a receiving facility or that further evaluation is not necessary, the patient shall be discharged immediately unless the patient is under criminal charges, in which case he shall be returned to the custody of a law enforcement officer. The patient must be released within 48 hours of his admission except when the examining mental health professional concludes that there is reason to believe that the patient may require evaluation or treatment, in which case, unless the patient voluntarily gives express and informed consent to evaluation or treatment, a proceeding for court-ordered evaluation or involuntary placement shall be initiated.

(2) COURT-ORDERED EVALUATION.—

(a) Criteria.—A person may be admitted to, or retained in, a receiving facility for evaluation if there is reason to believe that he is mentally ill and because of his illness is:

1. Likely to injure himself or others if allowed to remain at liberty; or

2. In need of care or treatment which, if not provided, may result in neglect or refusal to care for himself and that such neglect or refusal poses a real and present threat of substantial harm to his well being.

(b) Initiation of proceeding.—A court-ordered evaluation may be initiated as follows:

1. Any person may file with the court a petition, executed under oath and supported by affidavits of two additional persons, requesting an evaluation of a person located in the county who is alleged to meet the criteria for a court-ordered evaluation; or

2. Any person may file with the court a petition executed under oath alleging that a person in the county meets the criteria for a court-ordered evaluation. The petition must be accompanied by the certificate of a mental health professional stating that he has examined the patient within the preceding 5 days and has found that the patient may be mentally ill and requires placement in a receiving facility for full evaluation.

(c) Notice; hearing on petition.—The judge shall set a hearing on the petition and shall serve notice of the time and place of such hearing on the patient, his guardian, if one has previously been appointed, and the person, if any, having custody and control of the patient. In the absence of a guardian, two other representatives for the service of the notice shall be designated by the court, one of whom, other than the person who filed the petition, shall be selected in the following order:

1. The patient's spouse;
2. An adult child;
3. Parent;
4. Adult next of kin;
5. Adult friend;
6. Appropriate human rights advocacy committee as defined in s. 20.19; or
7. The department.

The second representative shall be selected from the above list without regard to the order of listing, except that the department shall only be selected as the representative of last resort in cases where the patient is receiving services in a state-operated facility. The court shall make such efforts, as in its discretion it determines reasonable in view of the emergency, to contact the persons listed above in the order listed. The court shall notify any other person, including any persons whose names appear in the patient's court file, that the judge believes has a concern for the patient's welfare. The hearing shall be set within 5 days of the date of mailing the notice with a copy of the petition attached. The court shall grant a continuance upon application by the patient, his guardian, or a representative if such continuance is found necessary to permit preparation for the hearing. The hearing may be waived in writing by the patient. The patient and his guardian or representatives shall be informed of the right to counsel by the judge, and, if the patient cannot afford an attorney to represent him at the hearing, the judge shall appoint one. The patient shall be consulted with regard to the appointment of a representative and have authority to request that an appointed representative be replaced.

(d) Order for evaluation.—After a hearing or, if the hearing is waived by express and informed consent of the patient or his guardian, after a review of all evidence, if the judge is satisfied that immediate evaluation is necessary, he shall issue an order to any law enforcement officer, if other less restrictive means are not available, to deliver the patient to a receiving facility for evaluation. If the judge is satisfied that evaluation is necessary, but that the patient need not be retained in a receiving facility immediately for his own safety or that of others, he may order the patient to appear at a designated receiving facility at a specified time within 3 days. If the patient fails to appear at the specified time, the order of the court, countersigned by the administrator of the facility to show that the person did not appear as ordered, shall authorize and direct any law enforcement officer to take the person into custody and deliver him to the specified receiving facility.

(e) Evaluation by a receiving facility.—A patient who is admitted to a receiving facility may be detained for a period not to exceed 5 days. The staff members of all receiving facilities shall encourage patients to apply for voluntary placement if placement appears necessary. Within the 5-day evaluating period one of the following actions shall be taken based on the individual needs of the patient:

1. The patient shall be released;
2. The patient shall be released for outpatient treatment by a community facility;
3. The patient shall give express and informed consent to placement as a voluntary patient; or
4. Proceedings for involuntary placement shall be initiated.

The least restrictive form of treatment shall be made available when determined by a receiving facility mental health professional to be necessary.

(3) DISCHARGE OF PATIENT.—At any time the patient is found not to require retention in a receiving facility for emergency treatment or evaluation, the receiving facility shall discharge the patient unless the patient is under criminal charges, in which case he shall be returned to the custody of a law enforcement officer. Notice of the discharge shall be given to the patient's guardian or representatives, to any mental health professional who executed a certificate admitting the patient to the receiving facility, and to any court which ordered the patient's evaluation.

394.465 Voluntary admissions.—

(1) AUTHORITY TO RECEIVE PATIENTS.—

(a) A facility may receive for observation, diagnosis, or treatment any individual 18 years of age or older making application by express and informed consent for admission or any individual age 17 or under for whom such application is made by his parent or guardian pursuant to s. 394.467. If found to show evidence of mental illness and to be suitable for treatment, such person 18 years of age or older may be admitted to the facility.

(b) A facility may admit for evaluation, diagnosis, or treatment any individual who makes application by express and informed consent therefor; however, any individual age 17 or under may be admitted only after a hearing to verify the voluntariness of the consent. If such individual is under 18 years of age, his parent or guardian may apply for his discharge, and the administrator shall release the patient within 3 days of such application for discharge.

(2) RIGHT OF VOLUNTARY PATIENTS TO DISCHARGE.—

(a) A facility shall discharge a voluntary patient who has sufficiently improved so that retention in the facility is no longer desirable. A patient may also be discharged to the care of a community facility. A voluntary patient or his guardian, representative, or attorney may request discharge in writing at any time following admission to the facility. This request may be submitted to a member of the staff of the facility for transmittal to the administrator. If the patient, or another on his behalf, makes an oral request for release to a staff member, such request shall be immediately entered in the patient's clinical record, and the patient must within 8 hours be given counseling and assistance in preparing a written request. If a written request is submitted to a staff member, it shall be delivered to the administrator within 16 hours. Within 3 days of delivery of a written request for release to the administrator, the patient must be discharged from the facility or a plan instituted for a discharge of the patient. Such plan shall be approved by the patient. If the administrator determines that the patient meets the criteria for involuntary placement, proceedings for involuntary placement must be initiated within 3 days of delivery of the written request, exclusive of weekends and legal holidays. If the patient was admitted on his own application and the request for discharge is made by a person other than the patient, the discharge may be conditioned upon the express and informed consent of the patient. If the patient is under the age of 18, his parent or guardian may act for him.

(b) If the administrator, upon the advice of the patient's attending mental health professional, determines that the patient needs to be transferred to a long-term treatment facility and the patient refuses to go as a voluntary patient, the administrator shall be authorized to file a petition for involuntary placement.

(3) NOTICE OF RIGHT TO RELEASE.—At the time of his admission and each 6 months thereafter, a voluntary patient and his guardian or representatives shall be notified in writing of his right to apply for a discharge.

(4) TRANSFER TO VOLUNTARY STATUS.—

Staff members of all treatment facilities shall encourage an involuntary patient to give express and informed consent to transfer to voluntary status unless the patient is under criminal charge, or unless the patient is unable to understand the nature of voluntary placement, or unless voluntary placement would be harmful to the patient, in which case a finding to this effect shall be entered in the patient's clinical record. Any involuntary patient who applies shall be transferred to voluntary status immediately, unless such transfer would not be in the best interest of the patient, in which case such finding shall be entered in the patient's clinical record and shall be subject to review every 90 days. When transfer to voluntary status occurs, notice shall be given to the patient and his guardian or representatives and, if the patient is involuntarily placed under an order of court, to the court which entered such order.

(5) TRANSFER TO INVOLUNTARY STATUS.—A patient who has given express and informed consent to be hospitalized as a voluntary patient and, upon arrival at the treatment facility, refuses to remain as a voluntary patient may be detained by the treatment facility for a period not to exceed 3 days while the administrator of the treatment facility initiates procedures for involuntary placement.

394.467 Involuntary placement.—

(1) CRITERIA.—

(a) A person who is acquitted of criminal charges because of a finding of not guilty by reason of insanity may be involuntarily hospitalized pursuant to such finding if he is mentally ill and, because of his illness, is manifestly dangerous to himself or others pursuant to s. 394.901.

(b) Any other person may be involuntarily placed if he is mentally ill and, because of his illness, is:

1. Likely to injure himself or others if allowed to remain at liberty, or

2. In need of care or treatment which, if not provided, may result in neglect or refusal to care for himself, and such neglect or refusal poses a real and present threat of substantial harm to his well being.

(2) ADMISSION TO A TREATMENT FACILITY.—A patient may be involuntarily placed in a treatment facility, after notice and hearing, upon recommendation of the administrator of a receiving facility where the patient has been admitted for examination or evaluation. When a patient is not an inpatient in a receiving facility, the administrator of a designated receiving facility may make a recommendation for involuntary placement of a patient who has been given an examination, evaluation, or treatment by staff of the receiving facility or a private mental health professional. The hearing may be waived by express and informed consent in writing by the patient. The recommendation must be supported by the opinions of two mental health professionals, at least one of whom shall be a physician, who have personally examined the patient within the preceding 5 days that the criteria for involuntary placement are met. Such recommendation shall be entered on an involuntary placement certificate, which certificate shall authorize the receiving facility to retain the patient pending transfer to a treatment facility or completion of a hearing. The certificate shall be filed with the court in the county where the patient is located and shall serve as a petition for a hearing regarding involuntary placement. A copy of the certificate shall also be filed with the department, and copies shall be served on the patient and his guardian or representatives, accompanied by:

(a) A written notice, in plain and simple language, that the patient or his guardian or representative may apply at any time for a hearing on the issue of the patient's need for involuntary placement if he has previously waived such a hearing.

(b) A petition for such hearing, which requires only the signature of the patient or his guardian or representative for completion.

(c) A written notice that the petition may be filed with a court in the county in which the patient is hospitalized at the time the certificate is executed and the name and address of the judge of such court.

(d) A written notice that the patient or his guardian or representative may apply immediately to the court to have an attorney appointed if the patient cannot afford one.

The petition may be filed in the county in which the patient is involuntarily placed at any time within 6 months of the date of the certificate. The hearing shall be held in the same county, and one of the patient's physicians at the facility shall appear as a witness at the hearing. If the hearing is waived, the court shall order the patient to be transferred to the least restrictive type of treatment facility based on the individual needs of the patient, or, if he is at a treatment facility, that he be retained there. However, the patient can be immediately transferred to the treatment facility by waiving his hearing without awaiting the court order. The involuntary placement certificate shall serve as authorization for the patient to be transferred to a treatment facility and as authorization for the treatment facility to admit the patient. The treatment facility may retain a patient for a period not to exceed 6 months from the date of admission. If continued involuntary placement is necessary at the end of that period, the administrator shall apply to the hearing examiner for an order authorizing continued involuntary placement.

(3) PROCEDURE FOR HEARING ON INVOLUNTARY PLACEMENT.—

(a) If the patient does not waive a hearing or if the patient, his guardian, or a representative files a petition for a hearing after having waived it, the judge shall serve notice on the administrator of the facility in which the patient is placed and on the patient. The notice of hearing must specify the date, time, and place of hearing; the basis for detention; and the names of examining mental health professionals and other persons testifying in support of continued detention and the substance of their proposed testimony. The judge may serve notice on the state attorney of the judicial circuit of the county in which the patient is placed, who shall represent the state. The court shall hold the hearing within 5 days unless a continuance is granted. The patient, his guardian or representative, or the administrator may apply for a change of venue for the convenience of parties or witnesses or because of the condition of the patient. Venue may be ordered changed within the discretion of the court. The patient and his guardian or representative shall be informed of the right to counsel by the court. If the patient cannot afford an attorney, the court shall appoint one. The patient's counsel shall have access to facility records and to facility personnel in defending the patient. One of the mental health professionals who executed the involuntary placement certificate shall be a witness. The patient and his guardian or representative shall be informed by the judge of the right to an independent expert examination by a mental health professional. If the patient cannot afford a mental health professional, the judge shall appoint one. If the court concludes that the patient meets the criteria for involuntary placement, the judge shall order that the patient be transferred to a treatment facility or, if the patient is at a treatment facility, that he be retained there or that he be treated at any other appropriate facility or service on an involuntary basis. The judge shall consider testimony and evidence regarding the patient's competence to consent to treatment. If the judge finds that the patient is incompetent to consent to treatment, he shall appoint a guardian advocate who shall act on the patient's behalf relating to the provision of express and informed consent to treatment. The order shall adequately document the nature and extent of a patient's mental illness. The judge may adjudicate a person incompetent pursuant to the provisions of this act at the hearing on involuntary placement. The treatment facility may accept and retain a patient admitted involuntarily for a period not to exceed 6 months whenever the patient is accompanied by a court order and adequate documentation of the patient's mental illness. Such documentation shall include a psychiatric evaluation and any psychological and social work evaluations of the patient. If further involuntary placement is necessary at the end of that period, the administrator shall apply to the hearing examiner for an order authorizing continued involuntary placement.

(b) The court shall provide a court order, a psychiatric evaluation, and other adequate documentation of each patient's mental illness to the administrator of a treatment facility whenever a patient is ordered for involuntary placement, whether by civil or criminal court. The administrator of a treatment facility may refuse admission to any patient directed to its facilities on an involuntary basis, whether by civil or by criminal court order, who is not accompanied at the same time by adequate orders and documentation.

(4) PROCEDURE FOR CONTINUED INVOLUNTARY PLACEMENT.—

(a) If continued placement of an involuntary patient is necessary, the administrator shall, prior to the expiration of the period during which the treatment facility is authorized to retain the patient, request an order authorizing continued involuntary placement. This request shall be accompanied by a statement from the patient's mental health professional justifying the request and a brief summary of the patient's treatment during the time he was involuntarily placed. In addition, the administrator shall submit an individualized plan for the patient for whom it is requesting continued involuntary placement. Notification of this request for retention shall be mailed to the patient and his guardian or representative along with a completed petition, requiring only a signature, for a hearing regarding the continued hospitalization and a waiver of hearing form. The waiver of hearing form shall require express and informed consent and shall state that the patient is entitled to a hearing under the law; that he is entitled to be represented by an attorney at the hearing and, if he cannot afford an attorney, that one will be appointed; and that, if it is shown at the hearing that the patient does not meet the criteria for involuntary placement, he is entitled to be released. If the patient or his guardian or representative does not sign the petition, or if the patient does not sign a waiver within 15 days, the hearing officer shall notice a hearing with regard to the patient involved in accordance with s. 120.57(1).

(b) Any time continued involuntary placement is requested, the hearing officer may, on his own motion, notice a hearing.

(c) Any time continued involuntary placement is requested by the administrator, the administrator may request a hearing, and the hearing officer shall hold a hearing within 30 days of such request.

(d) The administrator shall not transfer any patient to voluntary status when he has reasonable cause to believe that the patient is dangerous to himself or others. In any case in which the administrator has reasonable cause to believe that an involuntary patient is dangerous to himself or others, the administrator shall request continued involuntary placement. In any case in which a request for continued involuntary placement is necessary, but the administrator after reviewing the case believes there is not reasonable cause to believe that the patient meets the criteria for involuntary placement at the time of application for transfer to voluntary status and the patient needs continued placement, the patient shall be transferred to a voluntary status.

(e) If the patient or his guardian or representative returns the signed petition noted in paragraph (a), the hearing officer shall notice a hearing in accordance with s. 120.57(1). The patient and his guardian or representative shall be informed of the right to counsel by the hearing officer. In the event a patient cannot afford counsel in a hearing before a hearing officer, the public defender in the county where the hearing is to be held shall act as attorney for the patient. The hearing shall be conducted in accordance with chapter 120.

(f) If the patient by express and informed consent waives his hearing or if at a hearing it is shown that the patient continues to meet the criteria for involuntary placement, the hearing officer shall sign the order for continued involuntary placement. The treatment facility shall be authorized to retain the patient for a period not to exceed 1 year. The same procedure shall be repeated prior to the expiration of each additional 1-year period the patient is retained.

(g) If continued involuntary placement is necessary for an individual admitted while serving a criminal sentence, but whose sentence is about to expire, or for an individual involuntarily placed while a minor, but who is about to reach the age of 18, the administrator shall petition the hearing officer for an order authorizing continued involuntary placement.

(h) At any hearing hereunder, the hearing examiner shall consider testimony and evidence regarding the patient's competence to consent to treatment. If the hearing examiner finds that the patient is incompetent to consent to treatment, he shall appoint a guardian advocate who shall act on the patient's behalf relating to the provision of express and informed consent to treatment. If the hearing examiner finds the patient is competent to consent to treatment, then the patient's competence shall be restored, and any guardian advocate previously appointed shall be discharged.

(5) CONDITIONAL RELEASE OF CRIMINALLY CHARGED OR CONVICTED PATIENTS.—In the case of any patient who has been committed according to the provisions of s. 925.10 or s. 945.12, the committing court may order a conditional release based on an appropriate system of community follow-up, in which case the court may order the patient to appear periodically in a community clinic to insure the patient is following a prescribed treatment regimen.

History.—s. 9, ch. 71-131; s. 8, ch. 73-133; ss. 3, 4, ch. 74-233; s. 1, ch. 75-305; s. 17, ch. 77-121; s. 205, ch. 77-147; s. 1, ch. 77-174; ss. 2, 8, ch. 77-312; s. 19, ch. 78-95; s. 1, ch. 78-197; s. 9, ch. 79-298; s. 2, ch. 79-336.

394.468 Admission and release procedures.—Admission and release procedures and treatment policies of the department are governed solely by this act. Such procedures and policies shall not be subject to control by court procedure rules. The matters within the purview of this act are deemed to be substantive, not procedural.

History.—s. 9, ch. 77-312.

394.469 Discharge of patients.—

(1) POWER TO DISCHARGE.—At any time a patient is found no longer to meet the criteria for involuntary placement, the administrator may:

(a) Discharge the patient, unless the patient is under a criminal charge, in which case he shall be transferred to the custody of the appropriate law enforcement officer;

(b) Transfer the patient to voluntary status on his own authority or at the patient's request, unless the patient is under criminal charge; or

(c) Place an improved patient, except a patient under a criminal charge, on convalescent status in the care of a community facility.

(2) NOTICE.—Notice of discharge or transfer of status shall be given to the patient, his guardian or representatives, and, if the patient's involuntary placement was by order of a court, the court which entered such order.

(3) CONVALESCENT STATUS; INVOLUNTARY PLACEMENT.—An improved patient may be placed on convalescent status for a period of up to 1 year in the care of a less restrictive community facility when such action is in the best interest of the patient. Notice of the patient's placement on convalescent status shall be given to the patient and his guardian or representatives, to the community facility, and, if the patient's involuntary placement was by order of a court, to the court which entered the order. Placement on convalescent status shall include provisions for continuing responsibility by a community facility, including a plan for treatment on an outpatient basis. The administrator of the treatment facility from which the patient is given convalescent status may, at any time during the continuance of such convalescent status, return the patient to the treatment facility when the condition of the patient requires. An involuntary patient may be returned for the remainder of his authorized treatment period, and the treatment facility shall have up to 1 additional month during which to apply for continued involuntary placement.

394.471 Validity of prior involuntary placement orders.—No involuntary placement of a mentally ill person, lawful before January 1, 1972, shall be deemed unlawful because of the enactment of this part. The department shall establish reasonable rules to require the administrator of each treatment facility to apply for an order authorizing continued involuntary placement of any patient for whom involuntary placement is necessary and who was initially involuntarily placed under an order of a court prior to July 1, 1972. Such prior orders, unless superseded by an order under this part, shall remain valid until July 1, 1973, after which all such orders shall be null and void and of no effect, and every patient retained shall become a voluntary patient unless previously placed on involuntary status pursuant to procedures under this part. Nothing in this part invalidates any order appointing a guardian or determining incompetency.

History.—s. 11, ch. 71-131; s. 11, ch. 79-298.

394.473 Attorneys' and mental health professionals' fees.—

(1) In case of indigency of any person for whom an attorney is appointed pursuant to the provisions of this part, the attorney shall be entitled to a reasonable fee to be determined by the circuit judge and paid from the general fund of the county from which the patient was involuntarily detained. In case of indigency of any such person, the court may appoint a public defender. The public defender shall receive no additional compensation other than that usually paid his office.

(2) When any person who previously retained an attorney is adjudged incompetent, the guardian of such incompetent shall be required to pay a reasonable fee to such attorney retained by the incompetent.

(3) In case of indigency of any person for whom the appearance of a mental health professional is required in a court hearing pursuant to the provisions of this act, the mental health professional, except a mental health professional who is classified as a full-time employee of the state or who is receiving remuneration from the state for his time in attendance at the hearing, shall be entitled to a reasonable fee to be determined by the court and paid from the general fund of the county from which the patient was involuntarily detained.

394.475 Acceptance, examination, and involuntary placement of Florida residents from out-of-state mental health authorities.—

(1) Upon request of the state mental health authorities of another state, the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services is authorized to accept as patients, for a period of not more than 15 days, persons who are and have been bona fide residents of Florida for a period of not less than 1 year.

(2) Any person received pursuant to subsection (1) shall be examined by the staff of the state facility where such patient has been accepted, which examination shall be completed during the said 15-day period.

(3) If upon examination such a person requires continued involuntary placement, a petition for a hearing regarding involuntary placement shall be filed with the circuit judge of the county wherein the treatment facility receiving the patient is located or the county where the patient is a resident.

(4) During the pendency of the examination period herein provided for and the pendency of the involuntary placement proceedings herein provided for, such person may continue to be detained by the treatment facility unless the circuit judge having jurisdiction enters his order to the contrary.

History.—s. 14, ch. 71-131; s. 25, ch. 73-334; s. 206, ch. 77-147; s. 13, ch. 79-298.

394.477 Residence requirements.—No person shall be involuntarily placed in a facility under the provisions of this part who has not been a bona fide resident of the state continuously for 1 year immediately preceding his involuntary placement. However, any person not a bona fide resident of the state may be involuntarily placed in a treatment facility pending transfer of said person back to the state of his residence. An indigent nonresident patient shall be transferred to the state of his residence at the expense of the county from which he was involuntarily placed. The treatment facility, with the approval of the department, shall retain any nonresident who cannot be transferred subject to the provisions of this part.

History.—s. 15, ch. 71-131; s. 14, ch. 79-298.

394.478 Autopsy of deceased patient.—In every case where a person is committed to and received as a patient in the Florida State Hospital, and shall die while a patient therein, it is lawful for the superintendent of the Florida State Hospital, and he may hold and perform, or cause to be held and performed, an autopsy on such deceased patient, when such deceased patient leaves surviving him no relative or guardian, or when said superintendent shall be unable to communicate with or contact any relative or guardian of such deceased patient for the purpose of procuring consent to such autopsy, and when in the judgment and discretion of the superintendent of the Florida State Hospital, such autopsy is in the interest of medical science necessary or desirable.

Note.—Former s. 394.19.

394.4781 Residential care for psychotic and emotionally disturbed children.—

(1) DEFINITIONS.—As used in this section:

(a) "Psychotic or severely emotionally disturbed child" means a child so diagnosed by mental health professionals who have specialty training and experience with children. Such a severely emotionally disturbed child or psychotic child shall be considered by this diagnosis to benefit by and require residential care as contemplated by this section.

(b) "Department" means the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services.

(2) FUNDING OF PROGRAM.—The department shall provide for the purposes of this section such amount as shall be set forth in the annual appropriations act as payment for part of the costs of residential care for psychotic or severely emotionally disturbed children.

(3) ADMINISTRATION OF THE PROGRAM.—

(a) The department shall provide the necessary application forms and office personnel to administer the purchase-of-service program.

(b) The department shall review such applications monthly and, in accordance with available funds, the severity of the problems of the child, the availability of the needed residential care, and the financial means of the family involved, approve or disapprove each application. If an application is approved, the department shall contract for or purchase the services of an appropriate residential facility in such amounts as are determined by the annual appropriations act.

(c) The department is authorized to promulgate such rules as are necessary for the full and complete implementation of the provisions of this section.

(d) The department shall purchase services only from those facilities which are in compliance with standards promulgated by the department.

PART II

INTERSTATE COMPACT ON MENTAL HEALTH

- 394.479 Interstate compact on mental health.
- 394.480 Compact administrator.
- 394.481 Supplemental agreements with other states.
- 394.482 Payment of financial obligations imposed by compact.
- 394.483 Authorized actions by administrator.
- 394.484 Transmission of copies of act adopting compact.

394.479 Interstate compact on mental health.

—The Interstate Compact on Mental Health is hereby enacted into law and entered into by this state with all other states legally joining therein in the form substantially as follows:

INTERSTATE COMPACT ON MENTAL HEALTH

The contracting states solemnly agree that:

ARTICLE I

The party states find that the proper and expeditious treatment of the mentally ill and mentally deficient can be facilitated by cooperative action, to the benefit of the patients, their families, and society as a whole. Further, the party states find that the necessity of and desirability for furnishing such care and treatment bears no primary relation to the residence or citizenship of the patient but that, on the contrary, the controlling factors of community safety and humanitarianism require that facilities and services be made available for all who are in need of them. Consequently, it is the purpose of this compact and of the party states to provide the necessary legal basis for the institutionalization or other appropriate care and treatment of the mentally ill and mentally deficient under a system that recognizes the paramount importance of patient welfare and to establish the responsibilities of the party states in terms of such welfare.

ARTICLE II

As used in this compact:

(a) "Sending state" shall mean a party state from which a patient is transported pursuant to the provisions of the compact or from which it is contemplated that a patient may be so sent.

(b) "Receiving state" shall mean a party state to which a patient is transported pursuant to the provisions of the compact or to which it is contemplated that a patient may be so sent.

(c) "Institution" shall mean any hospital or other facility maintained by a party state or political subdivision thereof for the care and treatment of mental illness or mental deficiency.

(d) "Patient" shall mean any person subject to or eligible as determined by the laws of the sending state, for institutionalization or other care, treatment, or supervision pursuant to the provisions of this compact.

(e) "After-care" shall mean care, treatment, and services provided a patient, as defined herein, on convalescent status or conditional release.

(f) "Mental illness" shall mean mental disease to such extent that a person so afflicted requires care and treatment for his own welfare, or the welfare of others, or of the community.

(g) "Mental deficiency" shall mean mental deficiency as defined by appropriate clinical authorities to such extent that a person so afflicted is incapable of managing himself and his affairs, but shall not include mental illness as defined herein.

(h) "State" shall mean any state, territory or possession of the United States, the District of Columbia, and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico.

ARTICLE III

(a) Whenever a person physically present in any party state shall be in need of institutionalization by reason of mental illness or mental deficiency, he shall be eligible for care and treatment in an institution in that state irrespective of his residence, settlement or citizenship qualifications.

(b) The provisions of paragraph (a) of this article to the contrary notwithstanding, any patient may be transferred to an institution in another state whenever there are factors based upon clinical determinations indicating that the care and treatment of said patient would be facilitated or improved thereby. Any such institutionalization may be for the entire period of care and treatment or for any portion or portions thereof. The factors referred to in this paragraph shall include the patient's full record with due regard for the location of the patient's family, character of the illness and probable duration thereof, and such other factors as shall be considered appropriate.

(c) No state shall be obliged to receive any patient pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (b) of this article unless the sending state has given advance notice of its intention to send the patient; furnished all available medical and other pertinent records concerning the patient; given the qualified medical or other appropriate clinical authorities of the receiving state an opportunity to examine the patient if said authorities so wish; and unless the receiving state shall agree to accept the patient.

(d) In the event that the laws of the receiving state establish a system of priorities for the admission of patients, an interstate patient under this compact shall receive the same priority as a local patient and shall be taken in the same order and at the same time that he would be taken if he were a local patient.

(e) Pursuant to this compact, the determination as to the suitable place of institutionalization for a patient may be reviewed at any time and such further transfer of the patient may be made as seems likely to be in the best interest of the patient.

ARTICLE IV

(a) Whenever, pursuant to the laws of the state in which a patient is physically present, it shall be determined that the patient should receive after-care or supervision, such care or supervision may be provided in a receiving state. If the medical or other appropriate clinical authorities having responsibility for the care and treatment of the patient in the sending state shall have reason to believe that after-care in another state would be in the best interest of the patient and would not jeopardize the public safety, they shall request the appropriate authorities in the receiving state to investigate the desirability of affording the patient such after-care in said receiving state, and such investigation shall be made with all reasonable speed. The request for investigation shall be accompanied by complete information concerning the patient's intended place of residence and the identity of the person in whose charge it is proposed to place the patient, the complete medical history of the patient, and such other documents as may be pertinent.

(b) If the medical or other appropriate clinical authorities having responsibility for the care and treatment of the patient in the sending state and the appropriate authorities in the receiving state find that the best interest of the patient would be served thereby, and if the public safety would not be jeopardized thereby, the patient may receive after-care or supervision in the receiving state.

(c) In supervising, treating, or caring for a patient on after-care pursuant to the terms of this article, a receiving state shall employ the same standards of visitation, examination, care, and treatment that it employs for similar local patients.

ARTICLE V

Whenever a dangerous or potentially dangerous patient escapes from an institution in any party state, that state shall promptly notify all appropriate authorities within and without the jurisdiction of the escape in a manner reasonably calculated to facilitate the speedy apprehension of the escapee. Immediately upon the apprehension and identification of any such dangerous or potentially dangerous patient, he shall be detained in the state where found pending disposition in accordance with law.

ARTICLE VI

The duly accredited officers of any state party to this compact, upon the establishment of their authority and the identity of the patient, shall be permitted to transport any patient being moved pursuant to this compact through any and all states party to this compact, without interference.

ARTICLE VII

(a) No person shall be deemed a patient of more than one institution at any given time. Completion of transfer of any patient to an institution in a receiving state shall have the effect of making the person a patient of the institution in the receiving state.

(b) The sending state shall pay all costs of, and incidental to, the transportation of any patient pursuant to this compact, but any two or more party states may, by making a specific agreement for that purpose, arrange for a different allocation of costs as among themselves.

(c) No provision of this compact shall be construed to alter or affect any internal relationships among the departments, agencies and officers of and in the government of a party state, or between a party state and its subdivisions, as to the payment of costs, or responsibilities therefor.

(d) Nothing in this compact shall be construed to prevent any party state or subdivision thereof from asserting any right against any person, agency or other entity in regard to costs for which such party state or subdivision thereof may be responsible pursuant to any provision of this compact.

(e) Nothing in this compact shall be construed to invalidate any reciprocal agreement between a party state and a nonparty state relating to institutionalization, care or treatment of the mentally ill or mentally deficient, or any statutory authority pursuant to which such agreements may be made.

ARTICLE VIII

(a) Nothing in this compact shall be construed to abridge, diminish, or in any way impair the rights, duties, and responsibilities of any patient's guardian on his own behalf or in respect of any patient for whom he may serve, except that where the transfer of any patient to another jurisdiction makes advisable the appointment of a supplemental or substitute guardian, any court of competent jurisdiction in the receiving state may make such supplemental or substitute appointment and the court which appointed the previous guardian shall upon being duly advised of the new appointment, and upon the satisfactory completion of such accounting and other acts as such court may by law require, relieve the previous guardian of power and responsibility to whatever extent shall be appropriate in the circumstances; provided, however, that in the case of any patient having settlement in the sending state, the court of competent jurisdiction in the sending state shall have the sole discretion to relieve a guardian appointed by it or continue his power and responsibility, whichever it shall deem advisable. The court in the receiving state may, in its discretion, confirm or reappoint the person or persons previously serving as guardian in the sending state in lieu of making a supplemental or substitute appointment.

(b) The term "guardian" as used in paragraph (a) of this article shall include any guardian, trustee, legal committee, conservator, or other person or agency however denominated who is charged by law with power to act for or responsibility for the person or property of a patient.

ARTICLE IX

(a) No provision of this compact except Article V shall apply to any person institutionalized while under sentence in a penal or correctional institution or while subject to trial on a criminal charge, or whose institutionalization is due to the commission of an offense for which, in the absence of mental illness or mental deficiency, said person would be subject to incarceration in a penal or correctional institution.

(b) To every extent possible, it shall be the policy of states party to this compact that no patient shall be placed or detained in any prison, jail or lockup, but such patient shall, with all expedition, be taken to a suitable institutional facility for mental illness or mental deficiency.

ARTICLE X

(a) Each party state shall appoint a "compact administrator" who, on behalf of his state, shall act as general coordinator of activities under the compact in his state and who shall receive copies of all reports, correspondence, and other documents relating to any patient processed under the compact by his state either in the capacity of sending or receiving state. The compact administrator or his duly designated representative shall be the official with whom other party states shall deal in any matter relating to the compact or any patient processed thereunder.

(b) The compact administrators of the respective party states shall have power to promulgate reasonable rules and regulations to carry out more effectively the terms and provisions of this compact.

ARTICLE XI

The duly constituted administrative authorities of any two or more party states may enter into supplementary agreements for the provision of any service or facility or for the maintenance of any institution on a joint or cooperative basis whenever the states concerned shall find that such agreements will improve services, facilities, or institutional care and treatment in the fields of mental illness or mental deficiency. No such supplementary agreement shall be construed so as to relieve any party state of any obligation which it otherwise would have under other provisions of this compact.

ARTICLE XII

This compact shall enter into full force and effect as to any state when enacted by it into law and such state shall thereafter be a party thereto with any and all states legally joining therein.

ARTICLE XIII

(a) A state party to this compact may withdraw therefrom by enacting a statute repealing the same. Such withdrawal shall take effect one year after notice thereof has been communicated officially and in writing to the governors and compact administrators of all other party states. However, the withdrawal of any state shall not change the status of any patient who has been sent to said state or sent out of said state pursuant to the provisions of the compact.

(b) Withdrawal from any agreement permitted by Article VII(b) as to costs or from any supplementary agreement made pursuant to Article XI shall be in accordance with the terms of such agreement.

ARTICLE XIV

This compact shall be liberally construed so as to effectuate the purposes thereof. The provisions of this compact shall be severable and if any phrase, clause, sentence or provision of this compact is declared to be contrary to the constitution of any party state or of the United States or the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this compact and the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance shall not be affected thereby. If this compact shall be held contrary to the constitution of any state party thereto, the compact shall remain in full force and effect as to the remaining states and in full force and effect as to the state affected as to all severable matters.

History.—s. 1, ch. 71-219.

394.480 Compact administrator.—Pursuant to said compact, the Secretary of Health and Rehabilitative Services shall be the compact administrator who, acting jointly with like officers of other party states, shall have power to promulgate rules and regulations to carry out more effectively the terms of the compact. The compact administrator is hereby authorized, empowered, and directed to cooperate with all departments, agencies, and officers of and in the government of this state and its subdivisions in facilitating the proper administration of the compact of any supplementary agreement or agreements entered into by this state thereunder.

History.—s. 2, ch. 71-219.

394.481 Supplemental agreements with other states.—The compact administrator is hereby authorized and empowered to enter into supplementary agreements with appropriate officials of other states pursuant to Articles VII and XI of the compact. In the event that such supplementary agreements shall require or contemplate the use of any institution or facility of this state or require or contemplate the provision of any service by this state, no such agreement shall have force or effect until approved by the head of the department or agency under whose jurisdiction said institution or facility is operated or whose department or agency will be charged with the rendering of such service.

History.—s. 3, ch. 71-219.

394.482 Payment of financial obligations imposed by compact.—The compact administrator, subject to the approval of the Comptroller, may make or arrange for any payments necessary to discharge any financial obligations imposed upon this state by the compact or by any supplementary agreement entered into thereunder.

History.—s. 4, ch. 71-219.

394.483 Authorized actions by administrator.—The compact administrator is hereby directed to consult with the immediate family representatives or guardian of any proposed transferee and, in the case of a proposed transferee from an institution in this state to an institution in another party state, to take no final action without approval of the committing court, if any.

History.—s. 5, ch. 71-219.

394.484 Transmission of copies of act adopting compact.—Copies of this act shall upon its approval be transmitted by the Department of State to the governor of each state, the Attorney General and the Administrator of General Services of the United States, and the Council of State Governments.

History.—s. 6, ch. 71-219.

PART III

CHILDREN'S RESIDENTIAL AND DAY TREATMENT CENTERS

- 394.50 Children's residential and day treatment centers.
- 394.56 Voluntary admission to a center; procedure; etc.
- 394.57 Involuntary admission to a center; procedure; etc.
- 394.58 Records.
- 394.59 Payment for care and treatment of patients.
- 394.60 Transfer of patients.
- 394.61 Discharge of voluntary patients.
- 394.62 Age limit.

394.50 Children's residential and day treatment centers.—There are established in this state children's residential and day treatment centers which shall be under the supervision and control of the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services. The purpose of the centers shall be to provide for evaluation, care, treatment, and education of emotionally, mentally, or behaviorally disturbed children. The department is authorized to develop children's residential and day treatment centers and children's programs in such locations as it deems appropriate and within the limits of funds appropriated by the Legislature.

History.—s. 1, ch. 59-383; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 207, ch. 77-147; s. 2, ch. 78-434.

(1) Application for admission to a residential or day treatment program shall be made to the center on forms provided by the department. Applications should be signed by the parent or legal guardian of the applicant or, in absence of such, the person or agency having legal custody of the applicant. A child 12 years or older has the same right to volunteer for treatment without parental consent as specified in s. 394.465(1)(b). An application for admission to a residential or day treatment program shall be accompanied by a certificate signed by a physician licensed or authorized to practice in Florida under chapter 458 and by any comprehensive community mental health center director or mental health clinic director, designated receiving facility, licensed clinical psychologist, or social or child care agency director. The certificate shall be based on an examination conducted not more than 15 days prior to the date of application. The application shall contain the history of and the results of any examinations of the applicant and a diagnosis of the applicant's condition, and it shall state that admission to the center, including related evaluation, treatment, and educational programs, would, in the physician's opinion, be beneficial to the child.

(2) Upon receipt of the application, the director of a center shall, on the basis of the certificate and any other evaluation methods he determines, accept or reject the applicant as a patient in the center. The director of the center shall determine the order of admission of applicants. The ability to pay shall never be a prerequisite to admission, evaluation, treatment, and education in a center.

History.—s. 7, ch. 59-383; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 4, ch. 70-432; s. 1, ch. 70-439; s. 25, ch. 73-334; s. 213, ch. 77-147; s. 3, ch. 78-434.

394.57 Involuntary admission to a center; procedure; etc.—Whenever any child in the state is believed to be severely emotionally, mentally, or behaviorally disturbed and voluntary admission is not possible, the involuntary admission criteria and procedures established in s. 394.467 shall be followed. In the event a child has been a patient in a children's residential or day treatment center on a voluntary basis and it becomes necessary to initiate involuntary proceedings, the criteria and procedures established in s. 394.467 shall be followed by the director of the center.

History.—s. 8, ch. 59-383; s. 5, ch. 70-432; s. 25, ch. 73-334; s. 23, ch. 78-414; s. 4, ch. 78-434.

394.58 Records.—The order of involuntary hospitalization shall be forwarded to the center. This shall be accompanied by a copy of the medical and psychiatric examination and a social history of the child.

History.—s. 9, ch. 59-383; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 214, ch. 77-147; s. 5, ch. 78-434.

394.59 Payment for care and treatment of patients.—Fees and fee collections for patients at a residential or day treatment center shall be based on the provisions of s. 402.33.

History.—s. 10, ch. 59-383; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 215, ch. 77-147; s. 4, ch. 78-332; s. 6, ch. 78-434.

394.60 Transfer of patients.—If the director of a center upon advice of his clinical staff determines that any child at the center is not responding to or benefiting from the treatment and education programs at the center and that such child is in need of further care, rehabilitation, special training, education, and treatment and would be more suitably cared for, rehabilitated, trained, educated, and treated at another of the state facilities under the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services, the center shall request the child's transfer to the proper facility. Transfers of such child to a mental health facility or retardation facility shall follow the procedures as set forth in part I of chapter 394 and chapter 393, respectively.

394.61 Discharge of voluntary patients.—

(1) When a child has been a patient at a center and subject to care, treatment, and education, and the director, upon advice of his professional staff, is of the opinion that the child has sufficiently improved or will no longer benefit from care, treatment, and education at the center, the director may issue a certificate of discharge and discharge the child from the center.

(2) The director of the center shall discharge a child within 5 days of receipt of written request from the parent or legal guardian for discharge, unless the discharge is, in the opinion of the center staff, unsafe for the patient or others; in which case, the director of the center shall initiate proceedings for involuntary hospitalization within 3 days of the delivery of the written request. A center is authorized to retain a child after proceedings for involuntary admission have been initiated pending the outcome of the judicial decision. Upon discharge of a child who was involuntarily admitted, a copy of the certificate of discharge shall be mailed to the circuit judge who ordered the child's involuntary admission. A copy of the discharge certificate shall also be sent by registered or certified mail to the parent or guardian of the child. Upon the filing and docketing of the certificate, the case shall be terminated. In the event the parent or legal guardian cannot be found or refuses to accept custody of the discharged child, the child shall be placed in the care and custody of an appropriate community agency. If no community agency is willing or able to accept care and custody of the child, the circuit court of the judicial district from which the child was originally admitted shall place the child in the care and custody of the department. The circuit court may make such other order as it deems in the best interest of the child.

394.65 Short title.—This part IV of this chapter shall be known as as "The Community Mental Health Act."

History.—s. 1, ch. 70-109.

394.66 Legislative intent.—It is the intent of the Legislature to:

(1) Organize and finance community mental health services in local communities throughout the state through locally administered and locally controlled community mental health programs.

(2) Better utilize existing resources at both the state and local levels in order to improve the effectiveness of necessary mental health services.

(3) Integrate state-operated and community mental health programs into a unified mental health system.

(4) Insure that all mental health professions are appropriately utilized in such mental health programs to provide a means for participation by local governments in the determination of the need for, and the allocation of, mental health resources.

(5) Establish a uniform ratio of state government responsibility and local participation in financing mental health services.

(6) Provide a means of allocating state mental health funds according to community needs.

(7) Insure that, to the maximum degree feasible, the districts of the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services are the focal point of all district board activities, including budget submissions, grant applications, contracts, and other arrangements that can be effected at the district level.

(8) Include community mental health care as a component of the integrated delivery system of the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services.

(9) Involve local citizens in the administration of community mental health services on a policy-making level.

(10) Insure nonduplication of the activities of the staffs of the district administrator and the mental health board or boards.

History.—s. 2, ch. 70-109; s. 30, ch. 75-48; s. 1, ch. 76-221.

394.67 Definitions.—When used in this part, unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

(1) "Service district" means a community service district as established by the department pursuant to s. 20.19(4)(a) for the purpose of providing community mental health services.

(2) "Governing body" means the chief legislative body of a county, a board of county commissioners, or boards of county commissioners in counties acting jointly, or their counterparts in a charter government.

(3) "District plan" or "plan" means the mental health plan adopted by a mental health board and approved by the district administrator and governing bodies in accordance with this part.

(4) "Department" means the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services.

(5) "Program office" means the Mental Health Program Office of the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services.

(6) "Advisory council" means a district advisory council as created by s. 20.19(5).

(7) "Patient fees" means compensation received by a community mental health facility for services rendered to clients from any source of funds, including city, county, state, federal, and private sources.

(8) "Local matching funds" means funds received from governing bodies of local government, including city commissions, county commissions, district school boards, special tax districts, private hospital funds, private gifts, both individual and corporate, and bequests and funds received from community drives or any other sources.

(9) "Federal funds" means funds expended by a community mental health facility from federal sources for mental health facilities and programs. This is exclusive of federal funds that are deemed eligible by the Federal Government and are eligible through state regulation for matching purposes.

(10) "Mental health board" or "board" means the board within a Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services district or subdistrict established in accordance with provisions of this part for the purposes of coordinating community mental health programs.

(11) "Board district" means that area over which a single mental health board has jurisdiction for coordinating mental health programs as provided in this part. There may be more than one board district in a service district.

(12) "District administrator" means the person appointed by the Secretary of Health and Rehabilitative Services for the purpose of administering a department service district as set forth in s. 20.19.

(13) "Term" means a 2-year term of appointment on a mental health board.

(14) "Community mental health facility" means any facility in which all or any portion of the programs or services set forth in subparagraphs 394.75(2)(c)5. and 394.75(2)(e)2. and subsection 394.75(3) are carried out.

History.—s. 3, ch. 70-109; s. 2, ch. 76-221; s. 132, ch. 77-104.

394.69 District mental health boards.—Mental health boards shall be established as hereinafter provided to coordinate mental health services within department service districts or subdistricts as set forth in s. 20.19.

(1) Each district administrator shall initiate and coordinate the reorganization of the mental health board within his district.

(2) The district administrator shall decide if a mental health board shall be established within a subdistrict.

(3) In instances in which board district boundaries are altered, board responsibilities set forth in this part shall be transferred to the appropriate board on the effective date of this section.

(4) The total state funding of the operating budget of the board or boards within any Health and Rehabilitative Services district shall not exceed $125,000 and shall conform to the matching requirements of s. 394.76. The total operating budget, including all state, local, and federal funds, for the boards in a service district with only one board shall be no greater than $200,000, and the total operating budget, including all state, local, and federal funds, for the boards in a service district with two or more boards shall be no greater than $225,000.

(5) Each board shall comply with the provisions for incorporation of nonprofit corporations as set forth in chapter 617.

394.70 Method of appointment of mental health boards.—

(1) The mental health board shall be appointed by the governing body or bodies having jurisdiction in the board district. In its selection and appointment of the board, the governing body shall adhere to the following:

(a) First priority shall be given to individuals with a demonstrated commitment to the mental health of the general public.

(b) At least one member of a local governing body or bodies within the board district shall be a member of the mental health board. At least one member of the mental health board shall be a physician or psychiatrist.

(c) The terms of members of the board shall be for 2 years and shall be staggered. Vacancies by resignation or expiration of term shall be filled by the governing body or bodies which made the original appointment.

(d) When a person qualifies for membership on the board because he holds a specified office, membership on the board ceases when the term of office ceases. No person shall be appointed for more than four successive terms or 8 successive years on the board.

(e) No member of the board shall serve as a full-time or part-time employee of the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services or as an employee or a member of a board of a community mental health facility or as an employee of the district mental health board.

(2)(a) The board shall consist of not fewer than 10 or more than 21 members who shall be as fairly representative as possible of a broad range of community mental health interests.

(b) When more than one governing body exists within the board district, each governing body shall be entitled to that number of appointments to the board as fairly represents its county's percentage of population in the board district. However, each county in the district or subdistrict shall have no less than one member.

(c) Each member of the board shall have a weighted vote, with no member having less than one vote, which weighted vote shall be determined by the following formula:

1. The representation of each governing body shall constitute a percentage of the total board votes equal to its county's percentage of the population of the board district as a whole.

2. The total number of votes assigned to the representation of each governing body shall be divided among that governing body's appointees to the board.

(d) In the event that a board member fails to attend two-thirds of the regular board meetings during the course of a year, it shall be the responsibility of the governing body by whom the member was appointed to designate a replacement. In addition, each board shall have a provision in its bylaws for defining misfeasance and malfeasance of duty. The board shall petition the governing body to replace any member guilty of either misfeasance or malfeasance.

(3) Board members shall serve without pay, but shall be entitled to travel and per diem expense as authorized by s. 112.061.

(4) Each board shall designate one of its members to serve as treasurer who, before he assumes office, shall post with the Department of State a surety bond in an amount to be set by the department with a surety approved by the department. Such bond shall be conditioned on the faithful discharge of the duties of the office and be made payable to the Governor.

History.—s. 6, ch. 70-109; s. 1, ch. 74-147; s. 5, ch. 76-221; s. 1, ch. 77-174.

394.71 Duties of board.—Subject to the provisions of this part and the regulations of the department, each mental health board:

(1) Shall review and evaluate the mental health needs, services, and facilities of its area of jurisdiction and prepare a district plan and budget based on its evaluation.

(2) Shall receive and disburse such funds as are entrusted to it by law or otherwise, including funds from both private and public sources, charitable foundations, and agencies of the Federal Government.

(3) Shall contract for state funds with the district administrator for the coordination and disbursement of such funds as provided in this part.

(4) Shall report to the governing body as to a program of community mental health services and facilities and submit an annual report to the governing body.

(5) May appoint a director of mental health for the board district.

(6) Shall schedule meetings with local governments, community and citizen groups, and service providers, no less than once a year, to enhance information exchange and access to decision making. Such meetings shall be advertised in a newspaper of general circulation in the board district, at least one time, no more than 10 days and no less than 7 days prior to such meeting. It is intended that such meetings shall be widely publicized.

History.—s. 7, ch. 70-109; s. 6, ch. 76-221.

394.72 Staff.—

(1) The board director appointed by the board shall meet such standards of training and experience as the department shall require by regulation. Applicants for such positions need not be residents of the city, county, or state and may be employed on a full-time or part-time basis. If a board is unable to secure the services of a person who meets the standards of the department, the board may select an alternate administrator, subject to the approval of the district administrator.

(2) The staff of the district administrator shall not duplicate the activities of the staff of the district mental health board.

(3) No board staff member shall also be on the staff of a mental health service provider.

History.—s. 8, ch. 70-109; s. 1, ch. 70-439; s. 7, ch. 76-221.

394.73 Joint mental health programs in two or more counties.—

(1) Subject to rules and regulations established by the department, any county within a board district shall have the same power to contract for mental health services as the department has under existing statutes.

(2) In order to carry out the intent of this part and to provide mental health services in accordance with the district plan, the counties within a board district may enter into agreements with each other for the establishment of joint mental health programs. The agreements may provide for the joint provision or operation of services and facilities or for the provision or operation of services and facilities by one participating county under contract with other participating counties.

(3) When a board district comprises two or more counties or portions thereof, it shall be the obligation of the mental health board to submit to the governing bodies, prior to the budget submission date of each governing body, an estimate of the proportionate share of costs of mental health services proposed to be borne by each such governing body.

(4) Any county desiring to withdraw from a joint program may submit to the board and to the district administrator a resolution requesting withdrawal therefrom together with a plan for the equitable adjustment and division of the assets, property, debts, and obligations, if any, of the joint program. Unless all participating counties agree to an earlier withdrawal, no county participating in a joint program may withdraw therefrom without the consent of the district administrator or earlier than 2 years after submission of the withdrawal resolution to the district administrator.

394.74 Contracts for services.—

(1) Each mental health board, with the approval and subject to regulations of the department, and when funds are available for such purposes, is authorized to contract for state funds on a matching basis in the establishment and operation of local mental health programs with any hospital, clinic, laboratory, institution, or other appropriate service agency. Any such contract may be entered into notwithstanding that a local director of the mental health program is a member of the medical or consultant staff of such hospital, clinic, laboratory, institution, or other appropriate service agency.

(2) Contracts shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

(a) A provision that all programs must be available to the residents of the service district without regard to race, creed, color, national origin, age, sex, or ability to pay.

(b) Evidence of the availability of local matching funds.

(c) A requirement that the plan and budget of the board must conform to the department regulations and the priorities established thereunder.

(d) Standard contract forms shall be developed by the department for use between:

1. The district administrator and district mental health boards;

2. District mental health boards and community mental health service providers.

(3) Nothing in this part shall prevent any city or combination of cities from owning, financing, and operating a mental health program by entering into arrangements with the board to provide and be reimbursed for services provided as part of the district plan.

History.—s. 10, ch. 70-109; s. 9, ch. 76-221.

394.75 The board district plan.—

(1)(a) The board shall prepare a district mental health plan. The plan shall reflect both the program priorities established by the department and the needs of the district. The plan will include a list of the mental health services and the service providers which will receive state and county funds. A schedule, format, and procedure for plan development and review shall be promulgated by the department.

(b) The plan shall be submitted to the district administrator and to the governing bodies for review, comment, and approval.

(2) The plan shall:

(a) Describe the proposed objectives and programs.

(b) Set forth:

1. The sources of local matching funds.

2. Priorities for the services included in the plan for the next fiscal year.

(c) Provide:

1. The basis for reimbursement pursuant to the provisions of this part.

2. A plan for the coordination of services in such manner as to insure effectiveness and avoid duplication, fragmentation of services, and unnecessary expenditures.

3. For the most appropriate and economical use of all existing public and private agencies and personnel.

4. For the fullest possible and most appropriate participation by existing programs, state hospitals and clinics, public and private general and psychiatric hospitals, city, county, and state health and family service agencies, drug abuse and alcoholism programs, probation departments, physicians, psychologists, social workers, public health nurses, and all other public and private agencies and personnel which are required to, or may agree to, participate in the plan.

5. An inventory of all public and private mental health resources within the board district.

(d) Specify all other mental health services in addition to those included under the provisions of this part which the board district wishes to continue to operate in the next fiscal year and the estimated costs of such services.

(e) Include:

1. Provisions for evaluating mental health services in the board district. Program evaluations shall include studies of progress toward attainment of objectives, relative cost, and effectiveness of alternative comparable forms and patterns of services.

2. A projection of board district needs for mental health services for the succeeding 3-year period. The plan shall provide for the orderly and economical development of those services and shall indicate priorities and anticipated expenditures and revenues.

(3) The plan may include, but not be limited to, the establishment of any of the following services:

- (a) Inpatient services;
- (b) Outpatient services;
- (c) Partial hospitalization services, such as day care, night care, or weekend care;
- (d) Emergency services 24 hours per day available within one of the three services listed in paragraphs (a), (b), and (c);
- (e) Consultation and education services available to community agencies and professional, personnel, and information services to the general public;
- (f) Diagnostic services, including screening of persons referred for admission to state hospitals.
- (g) Rehabilitative services, including vocational and educational programs;
- (h) Precare and aftercare services in the community, including foster home placement, home visiting, and halfway houses;
- (i) Training; and
- (j) Research and evaluation.

(4) In developing the plan, optimum use shall be made of federal, state, and local funds which may be available for mental health planning.

(5) All departments of state government and all local public agencies shall cooperate with officials to assist them in mental health planning. Each district administrator shall, upon request and availability of staff, provide consultative services to the local mental health directors, governing bodies, and mental health boards.

History.—s. 11, ch. 70-109; s. 1, ch. 70-439; s. 10, ch. 76-221; s. 2, ch. 77-372.

394.76 Financial provisions.—

(1) The district administrator shall inform the board of which services included in the adopted district plan would be funded by the state.

(2) When allocating funds for mental health services, the district administrator shall use the following priorities:

(a) Plans shall be funded to continue all existing approved services in accordance with other provisions of this part.

(b) Plans shall be funded to expand existing programs or to establish new programs as determined by the district plans within the limits of available funds.

(3) If in any fiscal year the approved appropriation is insufficient to finance the programs and services specified by this part, the department shall have the authority to determine the amount of state funds available to each service district for such purposes in accordance with the priorities in both the state and district plans.

(4) The state's share of financial participation shall be determined by the following formula:

(a) The state's share shall be a percentage of the net balance determined by deducting from the total operating cost of services and programs as specified in subsection 394.75(3):

1. Those expenditures which are not reimbursable as provided in subsection (7).

2. Federal grants, excluding funds earned under title XX of the Social Security Act.

3. Inpatient fees and third party payments for services rendered to individual eligible inpatients for which reimbursement has been requested from the state.

(b) It is the intent to establish a uniform funding percentage of 75 percent state financial participation for all community-based, state-aided mental health and alcoholism prevention, treatment, and control programs by October 1, 1974. Effective October 1, 1974, the state's annual share of financial participation shall be 75 percent of the net balance, determined in accordance with paragraph (a).

(c) In order to be qualified for receipt of any state matching funds, there must be in existence within the board district applying for such funds those services described in paragraphs 394.75(3)(a)-(f). In addition, the board applying for such funds must submit annually to the district administrator a budget in such a form as prescribed by the department specifying how such funds will be used. The district administrator shall integrate such board district budgets into a single budget document for submission to the Secretary of Health and Rehabilitative Services. Upon application, the district administrator may allow a board to provide, or contract for the providing of, services identified in paragraphs 394.75(3)(a)-(f), upon a showing that such services are needed within the district and that establishment of the other services would be impractical.

(d) The expenditure of 100 percent of all third-party payments and fees for non-inpatient services shall be considered as eligible for state financial participation if such expenditures are in accordance with subsection (7).

(5) The district administrator is authorized to make investigations and to require audits of expenditures. The district administrator may authorize the use of private certified public accountants for such audits. Audits shall follow department guidelines.

(6) Claims for state reimbursement shall be made, utilizing a purchase of service approach, in such form and in such manner as the department shall determine.

(7) Expenditures subject to state reimbursement shall include expenditures for approved salaries of personnel; approved facilities and services provided through contract; operation, maintenance, and service cost; depreciation of facilities; and such other expenditures as may be approved by the district administrator. They shall not include expenditures for compensation to members of a community mental health board, except actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of official duties, or expenditures for a purpose for which state reimbursement is claimed under any other provision of law.

(8) Expenditures for capital improvements relating to construction of, additions to, purchase of, or renovation of a community mental health facility may be made by the state, provided said expenditures or capital improvements are part and parcel of a community mental health plan adopted by a board district and approved by the district administrator. Nothing shall prohibit the use of said expenditures for construction of, additions to, renovation of, or purchase of facilities owned by a county, city, or other governmental agency of the state or a nonprofit entity. Such expenditures shall be subject to the provisions of subsections (4) and (6) above.

(9) State funds for community mental health services shall be matched by local matching funds on a three to one basis respectively. Governing bodies within a district or subdistrict shall be required to participate in the funding of mental health services under the jurisdiction of said governing body. The amount of the participation shall be at least that amount which, when added to other available local matching funds, is necessary to match state funds.

History.—s. 12, ch. 70-109; s. 1, ch. 70-439; s. 111, ch. 71-355; ss. 1, 2, ch. 72-386; s. 1, ch. 74-291; s. 11, ch. 76-221; s. 33, ch. 77-312; ss. 3, 5, ch. 77-372.

394.77 Control of costs.—The department shall establish, for the purposes of control of costs:

(1) A uniform management information system and cost accounting system for use by providers of community mental health services.

(2) A uniform reporting system with uniform definitions and reporting categories.

History.—s. 13, ch. 70-109; s. 1, ch. 70-439; s. 12, ch. 76-221.

394.78 Operation and administration.—

(1) The Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services shall administer this part and shall adopt rules and regulations necessary for its administration.

(2)(a) The department shall, by regulation, establish standards of education and experience for professional and technical personnel employed in mental health programs.

(b) Rules and regulations of the department shall be adopted in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act under chapter 120.

(3) The district administrator shall review the district plan to determine that:

(a) It complies with the state plan, the requirements of this part, and the standards adopted under this part;

(b) The most effective and economical use will be made of available public and private mental health resources in the service district;

(c) Adequate provisions have been made for review and evaluation of the services provided in the service district.

(4) The district administrator and district governing bodies shall require modifications in the district plan which they deem necessary to bring the plan into conformance with the provisions of this part. Each governing body shall have the authority to require necessary modification to only that portion of the district plan which affects mental health programs and services within the jurisdiction of said governing body.

(5) In unresolved disputes regarding this part or rules established pursuant to this part, providers and boards will adhere to formal procedures as provided by the rules and regulations established by the department.

History.—s. 14, ch. 70-109; s. 1, ch. 70-439; s. 13, ch. 76-221; s. 4, ch. 77-372.

394.79 State plan.—

(1) The program office shall prepare a state plan which shall be in conformity with federal requirements. The state plan shall be annually revised, shall consider the community mental health needs set forth in the district plans, shall list core programs, and shall include a system of priorities for allocating state mental health funds to the service district.

(2) The program office shall consult with the local district administrators and mental health boards in developing the state plan.

(3) The state plan shall be reviewed and revised as necessary to provide a basis for allocating mental health funds throughout the state. The state plan and the system of priorities shall encourage innovations by community mental health programs.

History.—s. 15, ch. 70-109; s. 1, ch. 70-439; s. 14, ch. 76-221.

394.80 Authorization to appropriate funds.—

The several cities and counties of this state are authorized to appropriate funds to support all or any portion of the cost of services and construction not met through support by the state or federal governments.

History.—s. 16, ch. 70-109.

394.81 Current state financial aid continued.

—The department shall continue to provide financial aid to all programs and facilities which are receiving state aid on December 31, 1976, if:

(1) The board district within which the program or facility is located provides the minimum required services, as defined in s. 394.75(3)(a)-(f); or

(2) The district administrator is satisfied that such services will be provided within a reasonable period, or is satisfied that the other provisions of s. 394.76(4)(c), are applicable; and

(3) There is no decrease in local funds and local financial participation in the program.

PART V

HOSPITALIZATION AND TREATMENT OF CRIMINALS, INSANITY ACQUITTEES, AND PERSONS INCOMPETENT TO STAND TRIAL

394.901 Involuntary hospitalization of persons adjudicated not guilty by reason of insanity.

394.905 Program for treatment of patients involuntarily hospitalized because incompetent to stand trial.

394.906 Use of chemical weapons; restrictions.

394.901 Involuntary hospitalization of persons adjudicated not guilty by reason of insanity.—

(1) CRITERIA.—A person who is acquitted of criminal charges because of a finding of not guilty by reason of insanity may be involuntarily hospitalized pursuant to such finding if he is mentally ill and, because of his mental illness, is manifestly dangerous to himself or others.

(2) PROCEDURE FOR ADMISSION.—Any court order directing the hospitalization of a person adjudicated not guilty by reason of insanity shall adequately document the nature and extent of the patient's mental illness. Such documentation shall include a psychiatric evaluation. In addition, other documentation may be provided, to the extent possible, by at least one state-employed psychiatrist, psychologist, or physician, a psychiatrist, psychologist, or physician as designated by the district mental health board, or a community mental health center psychiatrist, psychologist, or physician. Every person acquitted of criminal charges by reason of insanity shall be admitted for hospitalization and treatment in accordance with the provisions of this section. The treatment facility may accept and retain a patient so admitted for a period not to exceed 6 months whenever the patient is accompanied by a court order and adequate documentation of the patient's mental illness. Such documentation shall include a psychiatric evaluation and any psychological and social work evaluations of the patient and shall document the results of any criminal investigation on the patient. If further hospitalization is necessary at the end of the patient's authorized treatment period, the administrator shall apply to the hearing examiner for an order authorizing continued hospitalization.

(3) PROCEDURE FOR CONTINUED HOSPITALIZATION.—

(a) If continued hospitalization of a patient admitted pursuant to this section is necessary, the administrator shall, prior to the expiration of the period during which the treatment facility is authorized to retain the patient, request an order authorizing continued hospitalization. This request shall be accompanied by a statement from the patient's physician justifying the request and a brief summary of the patient's treatment during the time he was hospitalized. In addition, the administrator shall submit an individualized plan for the patient for whom continued hospitalization is requested. Notification of this request for retention shall be mailed to the patient and his guardian or representative along with a completed petition for a hearing regarding the continued hospitalization and a waiver-of-hearing form. The waiver-of-hearing form shall state that the patient is entitled to a hearing under the law; that he is entitled to be represented by an attorney at the hearing and, if he cannot afford an attorney, that one will be appointed; and that, if it is shown at the hearing that the patient does not meet the criteria for involuntary hospitalization specified in subsection (1), he is entitled to be released. If the patient or his guardian or representative does not file the petition, or if the waiver is not returned within 15 days, the hearing officer shall notice a hearing with regard to the patient involved in accordance with s. 120.57(1).

(b) Any time continued hospitalization is requested, the hearing officer may, on his own motion, notice a hearing.

(c) Any time continued hospitalization is requested by the administrator, the administrator may request a hearing, and the hearing officer shall hold a hearing within 30 days of such request.

(d) The administrator shall not transfer any patient to voluntary status when he has reasonable cause to believe that the patient is manifestly dangerous to himself or others. In any case in which the administrator has reasonable cause to believe that an involuntary patient is manifestly dangerous to himself or others, the administrator shall request continued hospitalization. In any case in which a request for continued hospitalization is necessary, but the administrator after reviewing the case believes there is not reasonable cause to believe that the patient meets the criteria for involuntary hospitalization at the time of application for transfer to voluntary status and the patient needs continued hospitalization, the patient shall be transferred to a voluntary status.

(e) If the patient or his guardian or representative returns the signed petition noted in paragraph (a), the hearing officer shall notice a hearing in accordance with s. 120.57(1). The patient and his guardian or representative shall be informed by the hearing officer of the right to counsel. In the event a patient cannot afford counsel in a hearing before a hearing officer, the public defender in the county where the hearing is to be held shall act as attorney for the patient. The hearing shall be conducted in accordance with chapter 120.

(f) If the hearing is waived or if at a hearing it is shown that the patient continues to meet the criteria for involuntary hospitalization, the hearing officer shall sign the order for continued hospitalization. The treatment facility shall be authorized to retain the patient for a period not to exceed 1 year. The same procedure shall be repeated prior to the expiration of each additional 1-year period the patient is retained.

(4) RELEASE OF PATIENTS COMMITTED PURSUANT TO AN ACQUITTAL BY REASON OF INSANITY.—

(a) The committing court shall retain jurisdiction in the case of any patient committed to a mental hospital pursuant to this section.

(b) The administrator shall not release any such patient without first notifying the state attorney from the committing county at least 30 days in advance of the anticipated date of release. The state attorney may request a hearing before a hearing officer to be held within 15 days. A continuance not to exceed 5 days may be granted at the discretion of the hearing officer. The state attorney from the committing county shall represent the interest of the state at such hearing. The patient and his guardian or representative shall be informed of the right to counsel by the hearing officer. In the event a patient cannot afford counsel in a hearing before a hearing officer, the public defender in the county where the patient is being held or a court-appointed attorney shall act as attorney for the patient. If, at a hearing, it is shown that the patient continues to meet the criteria for involuntary hospitalization specified in subsection (1), the hearing officer shall sign the order for continued hospitalization pursuant to paragraph (3)(f). If, at a hearing, it is shown that the patient does not continue to meet such criteria for involuntary hospitalization, the hearing officer shall sign an order allowing the release of the patient. However, no patient who has been committed in a criminal case shall be released from a mental hospital except by order of the committing court.

(c) In all proceedings under this subsection, both the patient and the state attorney shall have the right to a hearing before the committing court. In these proceedings, evidence may be presented by the hospital administrator, the state attorney, and the patient. The patient shall have the right to counsel. In the event a patient cannot afford counsel, the public defender of the county in which the proceedings arise or court-appointed counsel shall act as attorney for the patient. After hearing all the evidence, the judge shall deliberate and render a decision based exclusively on whether the patient continues to meet the criteria for involuntary hospitalization specified in subsection (1). If the patient does not meet the criteria, the judge shall find that the patient should be released. The hearing provided for herein shall be held within 60 days from the date of the request for such hearing; otherwise, the patient shall be released in accordance with the order of the hearing officer.

(5) CONDITIONAL RELEASE OF INSANITY ACQUITTEE PATIENTS.—In the case of any patient who has been committed according to the provisions of this section, the committing court may order a conditional release based on an appropriate system of community follow-up, and such release shall specify responsibility for the receipt of follow-up treatment and reports to the court for failure to comply with the order of the court. In such case, the court shall order the patient to appear periodically in a community clinic to ensure that the patient is following a prescribed treatment regimen.

(1) It is the intent of the Legislature that treatment programs for those patients found to be incompetent to stand trial and, therefore, involuntarily hospitalized in certain mental health facilities under the Florida Rules of Criminal Procedure be provided in such manner as to insure the full protection of the rights of said patients as set forth in part I of chapter 394. It is further intended by the Legislature that facilities or parts of facilities in which such patients who are found to be dangerous or present a security risk are placed for purposes of treatment be established and available for use at the earliest possible time and that said facilities or parts of facilities be made secure in order to control the ingress and egress of the facility and to protect the patient, hospital personnel, other patients, and citizens in adjacent communities.

(2) The Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services is authorized and directed to locate, establish, and maintain, by not later than January 1, 1977, a secure and separate unit or units for the treatment of patients who, under the Florida Rules of Criminal Procedure, have been involuntarily hospitalized for reason of having been determined by the court to be incompetent to stand trial and who have been found by the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services to have the clear and present potential to escape or to cause severe injury to themselves or others. The unit or units shall be sufficient to accommodate the number of patients involuntarily hospitalized under the conditions noted above and shall be designed and administered so that ingress and egress may be strictly controlled by staff responsible for unit security. Such security staff shall be independent of treatment staff and shall meet or exceed the uniform minimum standards for employment and training of correctional officers established by the Correctional Standards Council under the provisions of ss. 944.581-944.593. The Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services may contract with the Department of Corrections or any law enforcement unit of county or local government or with any entity licensed under chapter 493, whichever shall cost less, for the provision of security services in said units, should such an arrangement prove effective, cost beneficial, and not detrimental to treatment.

(3) Any current provisions of law to the contrary notwithstanding, the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services, in consultation with the Department of Administration, for purposes of expediting the implementation of this act, shall have the sole responsibility for the appointment of architects and engineers, approval of plans, and awarding of contracts to make available the secure and separate mental health treatment unit or units provided under subsection (2). The provisions of s. 287.055, regarding a public emergency shall apply, and the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services is authorized to contract for the use or reuse of plans.

(4) The Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services is authorized to promulgate rules, enter into contracts, and do such things as may be necessary and incidental to assure compliance with and to carry out the provisions of this act in accordance with the above stated legislative intent.

394.906 Use of chemical weapons; restrictions.—

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Chemical weapon" means any shell, cartridge, bomb, gun, or other device capable of emitting chloroacetophenone (CN), chlorobenzal-malononitrile (CS) or any derivatives thereof in any form, or any other agent with lacrimatory properties, and shall include products such as that commonly known as "mace."

(b) "Institutional security officer" means a staff member who meets the requirements of s. 394.851(2) and who is responsible for providing security to a facility and patients and personnel therein, for the enforcement of rules, and for the investigation of unauthorized activities.

(c) "Forensic unit" means a secure mental health facility which is used for any patient:

1. Who has been determined to need treatment for a mental illness;
2. Who:
  - a. Has charges pending;
  - b. Has been convicted of a criminal offense;
  - c. Has been acquitted by reason of insanity of a criminal offense; or

d. Is serving a sentence for a criminal offense; and

3. Who has been determined by the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services:

- a. To be dangerous to himself or others; or
- b. To present a clear and present potential to escape.

(2) In case of emergency and when necessary to provide protection and security to any patient or to the personnel, equipment, buildings, or grounds of a facility, an institutional security officer may, when authorized by the administrator of the forensic unit or his designee when the administrator is not present, use a chemical weapon against a patient housed in a forensic unit; however, such weapon shall be used only to the extent necessary to provide such protection and security. Under no circumstances shall any such officer carry a chemical weapon on his person except during the period of the emergency for which its use was authorized. All chemical weapons shall be placed in secure storage when their use is not authorized as provided in this section.

395.01 Definitions.—As used in this chapter:

(1) "Hospital" means any establishment that offers:

(a) Services more intensive than those required for room, board, personal services, and general nursing care; and

(b) Facilities and beds for use beyond 24 hours by 10 or more nonrelated individuals requiring diagnosis, treatment or care for illness, injury, deformity, infirmity, abnormality disease or pregnancy, and regularly makes available at least: clinical laboratory services, diagnostic X-ray services, treatment facilities for surgery, or obstetrical care or other definitive medical treatment of similar extent, and one registered nurse on duty at all times.

However, the provisions of this chapter do not apply to any institution conducted by or for the adherents of any well-recognized church or religious denomination for the purpose of providing facilities for the care or treatment of the sick who depend exclusively upon prayer or spiritual means for healing in the practice of the religion of such church or denomination.

(2) "Person" means any individual, firm, partnership, corporation, company, association, or joint stock association, and the legal successor thereof.

(3) "Governmental unit" means the state, or any county, municipality, or other political subdivision or any department, division, board or other agency of any of the foregoing.

(4) "Licensing agency" means the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services.

(5) "Ambulatory surgical center" means a facility the primary purpose of which is to provide elective surgical care, in which the patient is admitted to and discharged from said facility within the same working day, and which is not part of a hospital. However, a facility existing for the primary purpose of performing terminations of pregnancy, an office maintained by a physician for the practice of medicine, or an office maintained for the practice of dentistry shall not be construed to be an ambulatory surgical center.

History.—s. 1, ch. 24091, 1947; s. 11, ch. 25035, 1949; ss. 1, 2, ch. 57-80; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-24; s. 218, ch. 77-147; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

395.02 Purpose.—The purpose of this chapter is to provide for the development, establishment, and enforcement of standards:

(1) For the care and treatment of individuals in hospitals or ambulatory surgical centers and,

(2) For the construction, maintenance, and operation of hospitals or ambulatory surgical centers, which, in the light of advancing knowledge, will promote safe and adequate treatment of such individuals in hospitals or ambulatory surgical centers.

History.—s. 2, ch. 24091, 1947; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 2, ch. 77-24; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

Note.—As amended, effective October 1, 1977. Repealed by s. 3, ch. 76-168, as amended by s. 1, ch. 77-457, effective July 1, 1982, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this section prior to that date.

395.03 Licensure.—After December 31, 1947, in the case of a hospital, and after January 1, 1978, in the case of an ambulatory surgical center, no person or governmental unit acting severally or jointly with any other person or governmental unit shall establish, conduct, or maintain a hospital or ambulatory surgical center in this state without a license under this law.

History.—s. 3, ch. 24091, 1947; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 3, ch. 77-24; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

§395.04 Application for license; disposition of fees; expenses.—

(1) An application for a license shall be made to the licensing agency upon forms provided by it and shall contain such information as the licensing agency reasonably requires, which may include affirmative evidence of ability to comply with such reasonable standards, rules and regulations as are lawfully prescribed hereunder.

(2) Each application for a hospital or ambulatory surgical center license, or renewal thereof, shall be accompanied by a license fee, in accordance with the following schedule:

(a) The annual license fee required of a hospital or ambulatory surgical center facility licensed by this chapter shall be at the rate of $1 per bed; except that the minimum license fee hereunder shall be $35 and the maximum fee $200.

(b) Such fees shall be payable to the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services to be deposited with the State Treasurer into the General Revenue Fund.

(3) The expenses of the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services incurred in carrying out the provisions of this chapter shall be paid from moneys appropriated for that purpose. The Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services shall include a sufficient amount in its legislative budget request to properly carry out the provisions of this chapter.

History.—s. 4, ch. 24091, 1947; s. 1, ch. 61-33; s. 7, ch. 67-520; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 4, ch. 77-24; s. 219, ch. 77-147; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

§395.045 Minimum standards for clinical laboratory test results and diagnostic X-ray results.—

(1) Each hospital or ambulatory surgical center licensed under this chapter and each nursing home licensed under chapter 400, as a requirement for issuance or renewal of its license, shall establish minimum standards for acceptance of results of clinical laboratory tests performed outside of the hospital, ambulatory surgical center, or nursing home. Such minimum standards shall require licensure of the clinical laboratory under the provisions of chapter 483 or adherence to standards and procedures comparable to licensure requirements which assure the quality and accuracy of the clinical laboratory test as determined by the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services and which are subject to the approval of the hospital medical staff and the board of trustees of the hospital and such other standards as are deemed necessary by the hospital, ambulatory surgical center, or nursing home. Results of clinical laboratory tests performed prior to admission which meet the minimum standards shall be accepted in lieu of routine examinations required upon admission and clinical laboratory tests which may be ordered by a physician for patients of the hospital, ambulatory surgical center, or nursing home.

(2) Each hospital or ambulatory surgical center licensed under this chapter and each nursing home licensed under chapter 400, as a requirement for issuance or renewal of its license, shall establish minimum standards for acceptance of results of diagnostic X rays performed outside of the hospital, ambulatory surgical center, or nursing home. Such minimum standards shall require licensure or registration of the source of ionizing radiation under the provisions of chapter 290. Diagnostic X-ray results which meet the minimum standards shall be accepted in lieu of routine examinations required upon admission and diagnostic X rays which may be ordered by a physician for patients of the hospital, ambulatory surgical center, or nursing home.

§395.05 Issuance and renewal of license.—

Upon receipt of an application for license and the license fee, the licensing agency shall issue a license if the applicant and hospital or ambulatory surgical center facilities meet the requirements established under this law. New hospitals or hospitals that are in substantial compliance with this chapter and with the regulations of the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services may be issued provisional licenses; however, such provisional licenses shall not be granted for a period of more than 1 year. A license, unless sooner suspended or revoked, shall be renewable annually upon payment of that fee prescribed by s. 395.04(2), payable and expendable as set out in s. 395.04, and upon filing by the licensee, and approval by the licensing agency, of an annual report upon such uniform dates and containing such information in such form as the licensing agency prescribes by regulations. Each license shall be issued only for the premises and persons or governmental units named in the application and shall not be transferable or assignable except with the written approval of the licensing agency. Licenses shall be posted in a conspicuous place on the licensed premises.

Note.—As amended by ch. 77-24, effective October 1, 1977. Repealed by s. 3, ch. 76-168, as amended by s. 1, ch. 77-457, effective July 1, 1982, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this section prior to that date.

§395.06 Denial or revocation of license.—The licensing agency is authorized to deny, suspend, or revoke a license in any case in which it finds that there has been a substantial failure to comply with the requirements established under this law.

History.—s. 6, ch. 24091, 1947; s. 1, ch. 69-267; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 220, ch. 77-147; s. 1, ch. 77-457; s. 19, ch. 78-95.

§395.065 Hospital disciplinary powers.—

(1) The medical staff of any hospital licensed pursuant to this chapter is authorized to suspend, deny, revoke, or curtail the staff privileges of any staff member for good cause, which shall include, but not be limited to:

- (a) Incompetence.
- (b) Negligence.
- (c) Being found an habitual user of intoxicants or drugs to the extent that the physician is deemed dangerous to himself or others.
- (d) Being found liable by a court of competent jurisdiction for medical malpractice.

However, the procedures for such actions shall comply with the standards outlined by the Joint Commission of Accreditation of Hospitals and the Principles of Participation in the Federal Health Insurance Program for the Aged.

(2) There shall be no liability on the part of, and no cause of action of any nature shall arise against, any hospital, hospital medical staff, or hospital disciplinary body or its agents or employees for any action taken in good faith and without malice in carrying out the provisions of this section.

395.0653 Use of hospital and staff.—

(1) Any hospital licensed under this chapter in considering and acting upon applications for staff membership or professional clinical privileges shall not deny the application of a qualified doctor of medicine licensed under chapter 458, doctor of osteopathy licensed under chapter 459, doctor of dentistry licensed under chapter 466, <sup>1</sup>or doctor of podiatry licensed under chapter 461 for such staff membership or professional clinical privileges within the scope of his respective licensure solely because the applicant is licensed under any of said chapters.

(2) Nothing herein shall restrict in any way the authority of the medical staff of the hospital to review for approval or disapproval all applications for appointment and annual reappointment to all categories of staff and make recommendations on each to the governing authority, including delineation of privileges to be granted in each case. In making such recommendations and in delineation of privileges, each applicant shall be considered on an individual basis pursuant to criteria applied equally to all other disciplines.

(3) Within 180 days after July 1, 1979, the governing body of every hospital shall set standards and procedures to be applied by the hospital and its medical staff in considering and acting upon applications for staff membership or professional privileges. These standards and procedures shall be available for public inspection.

395.066 Prohibition of interference with prescription of amygdalin (laetrile).—No hospital or health facility shall interfere with the physician-patient relationship by restricting or forbidding the use of amygdalin (laetrile), when prescribed or administered by a physician licensed under chapter 458 or chapter 459 and requested by a patient, unless the substance as prescribed or administered by the physician is found to be harmful by the State Boards of Medical Examiners and Osteopathic Medical Examiners in a hearing conducted under the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act, chapter 120. Furthermore, no hospital or health facility shall remove the staff privileges of a physician solely because said physician prescribed or administered amygdalin (laetrile) to a patient under the conditions set forth in this act.

395.067 Prohibition of interference with prescription of dimethyl sulfoxide (DMSO).—No hospital or health facility shall interfere with the physician-patient relationship by restricting or forbidding the use of dimethyl sulfoxide (DMSO) when prescribed or administered by a physician licensed under chapter 458 or chapter 459 and requested by a patient, unless the substance as prescribed or administered by the physician is found to be harmful by the State Boards of Medical Examiners and Osteopathic Medical Examiners in a hearing conducted under the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act, chapter 120. Furthermore, no hospital or health facility shall remove the staff privileges of a physician solely because said physician prescribed or administered dimethyl sulfoxide (DMSO) to a patient under the conditions set forth in this act.

(1) The licensing agency shall adopt, amend, promulgate, and enforce rules in accordance with the provisions of chapter 120 with respect to all hospitals or ambulatory surgical centers, or different types of hospitals or ambulatory surgical centers, to be licensed hereunder. However, it is understood that no rule shall be promulgated hereunder by the licensing agency which would have the effect of denying a license to a hospital, ambulatory surgical center, or other institution required to be licensed hereunder solely by reason of the school or system of practice employed or permitted to be employed by physicians therein, provided, such school or system of practice is recognized by the laws of this state; nothing in the preceding part of this sentence shall be construed to limit the powers of the licensing agency to provide and require minimum standards for the maintenance and operation of those hospitals or ambulatory surgical centers, and the treatment of patients in those hospitals or ambulatory surgical centers, which receive federal aid, to meet minimum standards related to such matters in said hospitals or ambulatory surgical centers which may now or hereafter be required by appropriate federal officers or agencies in pursuance of federal law or promulgated in pursuance of federal law.

(2) The licensing agency shall promulgate and adopt initial rules with respect to ambulatory surgical centers no later than October 1, 1977.

reasonable time, under the particular circumstances not to exceed 1 year from the date of such promulgation, within which to comply with such rules and regulations and minimum standards.

History.—s. 8, ch. 24091, 1947; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

395.09 Inspections and consultations.—

(1) The licensing agency shall make or cause to be made such inspections and investigations as it deems necessary. The licensing agency may prescribe by regulations that any licensee or applicant desiring to make specified types of alterations or additions to its facilities or to construct new facilities shall, before commencing such alteration, addition, or new construction, submit plans and specifications therefor to the licensing agency for preliminary inspection and approval or recommendation with respect to compliance with the regulations and standards herein authorized. The licensing agency shall approve or disapprove the plans and specifications within 60 days after receipt of the plans review fee payment as required in subsection (2). The licensing agency may be granted one 15-day extension for the review period, if the secretary of the department so approves. If the licensing agency fails to act within the specified time, it shall be deemed to have approved the plans and specifications. When the licensing agency disapproves plans and specifications, it shall set forth in writing the reasons for said disapproval. Necessary conferences and consultations may be provided as necessary.

(2) The licensing agency is authorized to charge a fee, not to exceed one-half of 1 percent of the estimated construction cost or the actual cost of review, whichever is less, for services rendered in conducting the review of plans and specifications for each new project, in an amount sufficient to cover the costs of purchasing necessary additional architectural and engineering services to meet the requirements of this section. Fee payment shall accompany the initial submission of final plans and specifications. Notwithstanding any other provisions of law to the contrary, all money received by the licensing agency pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be deemed to be trust funds, to be held and applied solely for the operations required under this section.

(3) When the licensing agency determines that a county or municipality is qualified to inspect and review plans and specifications, the licensing agency may delegate to that county or municipality the authority to review and approve plans and specifications, based upon the statewide standards of the licensing agency. The time limits for approval or disapproval of plans and specifications by the licensing agency established in subsection (1) shall apply to the county or municipality. When such county or municipal approval is used in lieu of licensing agency approval, the fee charged by the licensing agency for such services shall be waived.

July 1, 1982, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this section prior to that date.

395.105 Hospital rules; chiropractor access to diagnostic reports.—Each hospital shall adopt rules and regulations pursuant to chapter 120 which provide for reasonable access by licensed chiropractors to the reports of diagnostic X-rays and laboratory tests of institutions licensed pursuant to this chapter, subject to the same rules and regulations as licensed physicians. However, nothing contained in the provisions of this section shall require a hospital to grant staff privileges to a chiropractor.

395.12 Information confidential.—Information received by the licensing agency through filed reports, inspection, or as otherwise authorized under this law, shall not be disclosed publicly in such manner as to identify individuals or hospitals, except in a proceeding involving the question of licensure.

History.—s. 12, ch. 24091, 1947; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

395.13 Annual report of licensing agency.—The licensing agency shall prepare and publish an annual report of its activities and operations under this law.

History.—s. 13, ch. 24091, 1947; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

395.15 Penalties.—Any person establishing, conducting, managing, or operating any hospital or ambulatory surgical center without a license under this law shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction, shall be fined not more than $100 for the first offense and not more than $500 for each subsequent offense, and each day of a continuing violation after conviction shall be considered a separate offense.

History.—s. 15, ch. 24091, 1947; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 8, ch. 77-24; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

395.16 Injunction.—Notwithstanding the existence or pursuit of any other remedy, the licensing agency may, in the manner provided by law upon the advice of the Department of Legal Affairs which shall represent the licensing agency in the proceedings, maintain an action in the name of the state for injunction or other process against any person or governmental unit to restrain or prevent the establishment, conduct, management, or operation of a hospital or ambulatory surgical center without a license under this law.

History.—s. 16, ch. 24091, 1947; ss. 11, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 9, ch. 77-24; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

395.171 Use of term "hospital" or "ambulatory surgical center" prohibited.—It shall be unlawful for any person, persons, associations, copart-nerships, corporations, or institutions to use or advertise to the public in any way or by any medium whatsoever their facility as a "hospital" or "ambulatory surgical center" unless such facility shall have first secured a license under the provisions of this chapter. Nothing in this chapter shall apply to veterinary hospitals or to commercial business establishments using the word "hospital" or "ambulatory surgical center" as a part of a trade name; provided no treatment of human beings is done or performed on the premises of such establishments.

395.176 Rebates prohibited; penalties.—

(1) It is unlawful for any person to pay or receive any commission, bonus, kickback, or rebate or engage in any split-fee arrangement in any form whatsoever with any physician, surgeon, organization, agency, or person, either directly or indirectly, for patients referred to a hospital or an ambulatory surgical center licensed under this chapter.

(2) The Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services shall adopt rules which assess administrative penalties for acts prohibited by subsection (1). In the case of an entity licensed by the department, such penalties may include any disciplinary action available to the department under the appropriate licensing laws. In the case of an entity not licensed by the department, such penalties may include:

(a) A fine not to exceed $1,000;

(b) If applicable, a recommendation by the department to the appropriate licensing board that disciplinary action be taken.

History.—s. 2, ch. 79-106.

395.19 Treatment of sexual assault victims.—

All hospitals licensed under this chapter that provide emergency room services may arrange for the rendering of appropriate medical attention and treatment to victims of sexual assault through:

(1) Such gynecological, psychological, and medical services as are needed by the victim.

(2) The administration of medical examinations, tests, and analyses required by law enforcement personnel in the gathering of evidence required for investigation and prosecution.

(3) The training of medical support personnel competent to provide the medical services and treatment as described in subsections (1) and (2).

Such hospitals may also arrange for the protection of the victim's anonymity while complying with the laws of this state and the encouragement of the victim to notify law enforcement personnel and cooperate with them in apprehending the suspect.

History.—s. 1, ch. 75-182; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

395.20 Itemized patient bill; form and content prescribed by the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services.—

<sup>2</sup>(1) Within 7 days following discharge or release from confinement in a hospital or nursing home, or within 7 days after the earliest date at which the loss or expense from the confinement or service may be determined, which in the case of long-term confinement may be the monthly charge, the hospital or nursing home providing the service shall submit to the patient, or to his survivor or legal guardian as may be appropriate, an itemized statement detailing in language comprehensible to an ordinary layman the specific nature of charges or expenses incurred by the patient, which in the initial billing shall contain a statement of specific services received and expenses incurred for each such item of service, enumerating in detail the constituent components of the services received within each department of the hospital or nursing home and including unit-price data on rates charged by the hospital or nursing home as may be prescribed by the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services. This statement shall not include charges of hospital-based or nursing home-based physicians if billed separately.

(2) On each such itemized statement there shall appear the words "A FOR-PROFIT (or NOT-FOR-PROFIT or PUBLIC) HOSPITAL (or NURSING HOME) LICENSED BY THE STATE OF FLORIDA" or substantially similar words sufficient to identify clearly and plainly the ownership status of the hospital or nursing home.

<sup>2</sup>(3) In any billing for hospital or nursing home services subsequent to the initial billing for such services, the patient or his survivor or legal guardian may elect, at his option, to receive a copy of the detailed statement of specific services received and expenses incurred for each such item of service as provided in subsection (1).

(4) No physician, dentist, hospital, or nursing home may add to the price charged by any third party except for a service or handling charge representing a cost actually incurred as an item of expense; however, the physician, dentist, hospital, or nursing home is entitled to fair compensation for all professional services rendered. The amount of the service or handling charge, if any, shall be set forth clearly in the bill to the patient.

History.—ss. 1, 2, ch. 75-187; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457; ss. 1, 2, ch. 79-198.

Note.—Section 2, ch. 79-198, provides that, if chapter 395 is repealed in accordance with the intent expressed in the Regulatory Reform Act of 1976, as amended by chapter 77-457, or as subsequently amended, it is the intent of the Legislature that s. 1, ch. 79-198, shall also be repealed on the same date as is therein provided.

cf.—s. 400.141 Administration and management of nursing facilities.

395.202 Patient records; copies; examination.—

(1) Any licensed hospital shall, upon request, and only after discharge of the patient, furnish to any person admitted therein for care and treatment or treated thereat, or such person's guardian, curator, personal representative, or anyone designated by such person in writing, a true and correct copy of all records in the possession of the hospital, except progress notes and consultation report sections of a psychiatric nature concerning the care and treatment performed therein by the hospital, provided the person requesting such records agrees to pay a reasonable charge for the copying of said records, and further shall allow examination of the original records in its possession, or microfilms or other suitable reproductions of the records, upon such reasonable terms as shall be imposed to assure that the records shall not be damaged, destroyed, or altered.

(2) The provisions of this act shall not apply to any hospital whose primary function is to provide psychiatric care to its patients.

History.—ss. 1, 9, ch. 78-171.

395.21 Effective date of rules.—Any ambulatory surgical center which is in operation at the time of promulgation of any applicable rules under this chapter shall be given a reasonable time under the particular circumstances, not to exceed 1 year from the date of such promulgation, within which to comply with such rules.

History.—s. 11, ch. 77-24.

395.22 Insurance coverage.—No individual or group health insurance policy providing coverage on an expense incurred basis, nor individual or group service or indemnity type contract issued by a non-profit corporation, nor any self-insured group health benefit plan or trust, of any kind or description, shall be issued unless coverage provided for any service performed in an ambulatory surgical center is provided if such service would have been covered under the terms of the policy or contract as an eligible in-patient service.

(1) Each hospital licensed by the state shall offer, in writing, a cytologic examination for cancer of the cervix and an examination by manual palpation to determine the possible existence or possible signs of cancer of the breast to every female patient 18 years of age or older who is admitted to said hospital, unless such examinations are considered contraindicated or inappropriate by the attending physician, or unless the patient's hospital records indicate that such tests were performed within the preceding 12 months. Every patient to whom the tests are offered shall have the right to refuse in writing on the advice of a physician or on her own judgment.

(2) Each hospital shall provide to the female patient a printed form which contains both the offer and a space for indicating consent or refusal, and such form shall include a list indicating the charges for these tests and any other accompanying charges. Such a consent or refusal shall be informed consent or refusal, evidenced by the patient's signature, and made a part of the patient's hospital record.

(3) The results of such examinations and an explanation of the results shall be provided to the patient and made a part of her hospital record. The hospital record shall indicate when the tests are not applicable.

(4) No hospital shall be liable in damages for a patient's failure to seek medical attention based on test results, nor shall a hospital be liable for a patient's informed consent or refusal to undergo the tests.

(5) The provisions of this act shall not apply to any hospital whose primary function is to provide psychiatric care to its patients.

- 395.505 Rules; public hearings; investigations; subpoena power.
- 395.507 Uniform system of financial reporting.
- 395.508 Hospital costs and finances; analyses, studies and reports.
- 395.509 Review of hospital budgets, rates, and charges.
- 395.511 Quality assurance programs.
- 395.512 Budget; expenses; assessments; hospital cost containment program account.
- 395.513 Program accountability.
- 395.514 Penalty.

395.501 Short title.—This part shall be known and may be cited as the "Health Care Cost Containment Act of 1979."

History.—s. 1, ch. 79-106.

395.502 Definitions.—As used in this act:

(1) "Commissioner" means the Insurance Commissioner.

(2) "Board" means the Hospital Cost Containment Board created by s. 395.503.

(3) "Consumer" means any person other than a person who administers health activities, provides health services, has a fiduciary interest in a health facility or other health agency, or has a material financial interest in the rendering of health services.

(4) "Major health care purchaser" means 1 of the 10 largest private employers in the state, a commercial health insurer, or a hospital service plan corporation licensed under chapter 641.

(5) "Cross-subsidization" means that the revenues from one type of hospital service are sufficiently higher than the costs of providing such service as to offset some of the costs of providing another type of service in the hospital. Cross-subsidization results from the lack of a direct relationship between charges and the costs of providing a particular hospital service or type of service.

(6) "Department" means the Department of Insurance.

(7) "Hospital" means a health care institution as defined in s. 395.01(1), but shall not include any health care institution providing services for those who rely primarily upon treatment by prayer or spiritual means in accordance with the creed or tenets of any church or denomination.

(8) "State health planning agency" means the agency designated by the Governor to perform the health planning and development functions prescribed by s. 1523, Pub. L. No. 93-641, the National Health Planning and Resources Development Act of 1974.

(9) "Health systems agency" means the agency defined in s. 381.493(3)(h).

History.—s. 1, ch. 79-106.

395.503 Hospital Cost Containment Board.—

(1) MEMBERSHIP.—There is created the Hospital Cost Containment Board, which shall be located for administrative and budgetary purposes in the Department of Insurance. The board shall be composed of nine members and shall include three major health care purchasers including at least two representatives of the health insurance industry, three health care providers including at least two hospital administrators, and three consumers, one of whom shall represent the elderly. The Insurance Commissioner, the President of the Senate, and the Speaker of the House of Representatives shall appoint the board. The Insurance Commissioner shall appoint one major health care purchaser, one health care provider, and one consumer who represents the elderly. The President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives shall each appoint one major health care purchaser who represents the health insurance industry, one health care provider who shall be a hospital administrator, and one consumer.

(2) TERMS; VACANCIES.—Members of the board shall serve for terms of 4 years each. No member shall serve on the board for more than two consecutive terms. A vacancy shall be filled by the appointing authority within not more than 60 days from the date in which the vacancy occurs, which appointment shall be for the remainder of the unexpired term.

(3) OFFICERS; MEETINGS; COMPENSATION.—The members of the board shall elect a chairman and vice chairman from its members biennially. The chairman and vice chairman of the board shall serve 2-year terms. The board shall meet as frequently as its duties require, but not less than four times a year, except that the first meeting shall be called by the Insurance Commissioner prior to August 1, 1979. The board shall keep minutes of its meetings and adopt procedures for the governing of its meetings, minutes, and transactions. Five members shall constitute a quorum, but a vacancy on the board shall not impair its power to act. No action of the board shall be effective unless five members concur therein. The members of the board shall be remunerated at the rate of $50 per diem while on official board business and shall be reimbursed for their expenses while on official business for the board in accordance with the provisions of s. 112.061.

(4) STAFF; FACILITIES; EQUIPMENT.—Upon recommendation of the board, the Insurance Commissioner shall employ such staff as are necessary to fulfill the responsibilities and duties of the board. The staff shall be assigned to the board on a full-time basis. The staff of the board shall be subject to the career service law, chapter 110. The board may contract with persons outside the board for services necessary to carry out its activities when this will promote efficiency, avoid duplication of effort, and make best use of available expertise. The board may apply for and receive and accept grants, gifts, and other payments, including property and service, from any governmental or other public or private entity or person, and may make arrangements as to the use of these receipts, including the undertaking of special studies and other projects relating to hospital health care costs.

(5) COMMITTEES.—The board may create committees from its membership, and may create such ad hoc advisory committees in specialized fields, related to the functions of hospitals, as it deems necessary. The members of any ad hoc advisory committee shall be entitled to reimbursement for expenses incurred, including travel expenses.

History.—s. 1, ch. 79-106.

395.504 Powers and duties of board.—To properly carry out its authority, the board shall:

(1) Require the submission by hospitals of such financial and accounting data as the board deems necessary in order to have available the statistical information necessary to properly conduct budget reviews. Such data shall include, but not be limited to, necessary operating expenses, appropriate expenses incurred for rendering services to patients who cannot or do not pay, all properly incurred interest charges, and reasonable depreciation expenses based on the expected useful life of the property and equipment involved. The board shall also obtain from each hospital a current schedule of charges as well as any subsequent amendments or modifications of that schedule as it may desire.

(2) When reviewing the budget under this part for each hospital, take into account the recommendations of appropriate health systems agencies and the designated state health planning agency to ensure compliance with ss. 381.493-381.498, the Health Facilities and Health Services Planning Act.

(3) Conduct studies for and provide its findings to the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services with respect to the financial feasibility of applications for certificates of need filed pursuant to ss. 381.493-381.498. In addition, the board shall make recommendations to any health systems agency with regard to new capital expenditures within that agency's geographic jurisdiction.

(4) Advise on the integration of the requirements of state health care cost containment efforts with other state health regulations, such as certification of need and federal requirements pertaining to the delivery of health services.

(5) Consult with and make recommendations to the commissioner with respect to analyses and studies of hospital health care costs and related matters which may be undertaken by the board.

History.—s. 1, ch. 79-106.

395.505 Rules; public hearings; investigations; subpoena power.—In addition to the powers granted to the board elsewhere in this part, the board is authorized to:

(1) Adopt, amend, and repeal rules respecting the exercise of the powers conferred by this part which are applicable to the promulgation of rules.

(2) Hold public hearings, conduct investigations, and subpoena witnesses, papers, records, and documents in connection therewith. The board may administer oaths or affirmations in any hearing or investigation.

(3) Exercise, subject to the limitations and restrictions herein imposed, all other powers which are reasonably necessary or essential to carry out the expressed objects and purposes of this part.

History.—s. 1, ch. 79-106.

395.507 Uniform system of financial reporting.—

(1) The board shall, by rule, after consulting with appropriate professional and governmental advisory bodies and holding public hearings, and considering existing and proposed systems of accounting and reporting utilized by hospitals, specify a uniform system of financial reporting based on a uniform chart of accounts developed after considering the American Hospital Association Chart of Accounts, the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants Hospital Audit Guide, and generally accepted accounting principles. However, this provision shall not be construed to authorize the board to require hospitals to adopt a uniform accounting system. As a part of such uniform system of financial reporting, the board may require the filing of any information relating to the cost, to both the provider and the consumer, of any service provided in such hospital except the cost of a physician's services which is billed independently of the hospital.

(2) For the purposes of this section, and in order to allow meaningful comparisons, the board shall, by rule, classify hospitals according to characteristics, including, but not limited to, size, range of services provided, special services offered, cost centers, and duration of care.

(3) In establishing such uniform reporting procedures, the board shall, among other issues, take into consideration the need for financial data which reflects the average bill per day and the average bill per stay billed by the hospital and the degree of cross-subsidization by cost center.

(4) When appropriate, the reporting system shall be structured so as to establish and differentiate costs incurred for patient-related services rendered by hospitals, as distinguished from those incurred in connection with educational research and other non-patient-related activities, including, but not limited to, charitable activities of such hospitals.

(5) When more than one licensed hospital is operated by the reporting organization, the information required by this section shall be reported for each hospital separately.

(6) All reports filed under this part, except privileged medical information, shall be open to public inspection.

(7) The board shall have the right of inspection of hospital books, audits, and records, including records of individual or corporate ownership.

(8) All hospitals shall submit reports to the board on forms adopted by the board and based on the system promulgated by the board. The system shall be initially effective at such time and date as the board shall direct, but no earlier than January 1, 1980. In determining the initial effective date and subsequent dates for reporting requirements, the board shall consider both the immediate need for uniform facility reporting information to effectuate the purposes of this part and the administrative and economic difficulties which hospitals face in compliance, but in no event shall such effective date be later than July 1, 1980. The board shall require such interim reports as it deems desirable to utilize whatever portions of the uniform system that are available prior to July 1, 1979.

History.—s. 1, ch. 79-106.

Note.—The word "holding" was inserted by the editors.

395.508 Hospital costs and finances; analyses, studies and reports.—

(1) The board shall from time to time undertake analyses and studies relating to hospital health care costs, making maximum use of health systems agencies and the designated state health planning agency whenever possible, and to the financial status of any hospital or hospitals subject to the provisions of this part and may publish and disseminate such information as it deems desirable in the public interest.

(2) The board shall also prepare and file such summaries and compilations or other supplementary reports based on the information filed with the board hereunder as will advance the purposes of this part.

History.—s. 1, ch. 79-106.

395.509 Review of hospital budgets, rates, and charges.—

(1) The board shall have the power to initiate, upon timely receipt of the reports required herein, such reviews or investigations of hospital budgets, rates, and charges as the board deems necessary. For purposes of budget, rate, and charge comparison, the board may establish classes or groupings of hospitals according to characteristics, including, but not limited to, size, range of services provided, special services offered, cost centers, and duration of care. The board may also establish statistical indicators to serve as measures of comparison with respect to the relative efficiency of hospital performance. Such statistical indicators shall include, but not be limited to, the percentage increase in rates for the current year over the preceding year for each hospital.

(2) The board is empowered to review any hospital's projected annual revenues and the rates and charges proposed by the hospital to generate those revenues. At least annually, the board shall publish and disseminate to the public an in-depth study comparing the rates and charges and other relevant information of all hospitals, both statewide and by county.

(3) The board is authorized to review the budget of any hospital at a public hearing if it finds that the hospital's rates and charges or other statistical indicators as the board may define are in the upper 20 percent of such indicators for all hospitals in its class or group. However, this authorization shall not be construed to limit the authority of the board to hold public hearings pursuant to s. 395.505(2).

(4) The board may publish its findings in connection with any review conducted under this section and shall publish its findings in connection with any hearings conducted under this section in the newspaper of largest general circulation in the county in which the hospital is located.

(5) In conducting reviews of budgets, rates, and charges under this part, the board shall consider the need for increased efficiency in hospital operation, the need to close surplus beds or to convert them to meet unfilled needs, and the need to discontinue existing services which are unnecessarily duplicative of services available in the area served by the hospital.

(6) Physicians who provide services within a hospital are exempt from the provisions of this part, provided that they bill for their services independently of the hospital.

History.—s. 1, ch. 79-106.

395.511 Quality assurance programs.—Each hospital shall maintain a quality assurance program, which program shall include monitoring of the necessity of admission, appropriateness of the length of stay, proper utilization of services, and the evaluation of the quality of services rendered.

History.—s. 1, ch. 79-106.

395.512 Budget; expenses; assessments; hospital cost containment program account.—

(1) The board shall biennially prepare a budget which shall include an estimate of income and expenditures for administration and operation of the hospital cost containment program for the biennium, to be submitted to the Governor for transmittal to the Legislature for approval. Subject to the approval of the Legislature, expenses of the program shall be financed by assessments against hospitals in an amount to be determined biennially by the board, but not to exceed 0.04 percent of each hospital's gross operating costs for the provision of hospital services for its last fiscal year ending on or before June 30 of the preceding calendar year, except that for the fiscal biennium 1979-1981 this act shall constitute legislative authorization for expenditures and positions by the board within the above-stated limits. Beginning October 1, 1979, the assessments shall be levied and collected quarterly. All moneys collected are to be deposited by the Treasurer in the Hospital Cost Containment Trust Fund in the general fund, which account is hereby created.

(2) Any amounts raised by the collection of assessments from hospitals provided for in this section which are not required to meet appropriations in the budget act for the current fiscal year shall be available to the board in succeeding years.

History.—s. 1, ch. 79-106.

395.513 Program accountability.—On or before March 1 of each year, the board shall prepare and transmit to the Governor and the Legislature a report of hospital cost containment program operations and activities for the preceding year. This report shall include copies of summaries, compilations, and supplementary reports required by the act, together with such facts, suggestions, and policy recommendations as the board deems necessary. The board shall specifically state its findings and recommendations on the following issues:

(1) The extent to which Florida hospitals are meeting guidelines and goals established by the national voluntary effort program for reducing the rate of increase in hospital rates;

(2) The extent to which cross-subsidization affects the rates and charges for different types of hospital services; and

(3) Whether the Legislature should vest in the board additional authority to regulate hospital rates.

History.—s. 1, ch. 79-106.

395.514 Penalty.—Any hospital which refuses to file reports or other information required to be filed under the provisions of this part shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 a day<sup>1</sup> for each day in violation, to be fixed, imposed, and collected by the board. Each day in violation shall be considered a separate offense. Knowing and willful falsification of a report required under this act shall be grounds for removal of a hospital's license under s. 395.06.

History.—s. 1, ch. 79-106.

396.012 Short title.—This chapter shall be known and cited as the "Comprehensive Alcoholism Prevention, Control, and Treatment Act."

History.—s. 1, ch. 71-132.

396.022 Findings and declaration of purposes.—

(1) Alcohol abuse and alcoholism are increasing throughout the country and in Florida. Alcohol abuse can seriously impair health and lead to chronic and habitual alcoholism. Alcoholism is recognized as an illness or disease that requires attention and treatment through health and rehabilitative services.

(2) Alcoholism prevention, treatment, and control programs should, whenever possible, be community based; provide a comprehensive range of services, including emergency treatment, under proper medical auspices on a coordinated basis; and be integrated with, and involve, the active participation of a wide range of public and nongovernmental agencies, especially community mental health programs.

(3) Existing laws have not been adequate to prevent alcohol abuse or to provide sufficient education, treatment, and rehabilitation services for the alcoholic. Increasing education, treatment, and rehabilitation services and closer coordination of efforts offer the best possibility of reducing alcohol abuse and alcoholism. A major commitment of health and social resources is required to institute an adequate and effective state program for the prevention and treatment of alcohol abuse and alcoholism.

(4) The criminal law is not an appropriate device for preventing or controlling health problems. Dealing with public inebriates as criminals has proved expensive, unproductive, burdensome, and futile.

The recognition of this fact and the concurrent establishment of modern public health programs for the medical management of alcohol abuse and alcoholism will facilitate early detection and prevention of alcoholism and effective treatment and rehabilitation of alcoholics and early diagnosis and treatment of other concurrent diseases.

(5) Handling alcohol abusers and alcoholics primarily through health and other rehabilitative programs relieves the police, courts, correctional institutions, and other law enforcement agencies of a burden that interferes with their ability to protect citizens, apprehend law violators, and maintain safe and orderly streets.

(6) Voluntary treatment for alcoholism is more appropriate than involuntary treatment. Civil commitment should be used only where an alcoholic is in immediate danger of serious harm or if he presents a substantial danger to other persons.

(7) There is a need to establish and maintain a comprehensive program for the control of drunkenness and the prevention and treatment of alcoholism throughout Florida.

(8) An alcoholic, except in specified instances enumerated herein, shall be treated as a sick person and provided adequate and appropriate medical, psychiatric, and other humane rehabilitative treatment services for his illness. All public officials in the state shall take cognizance of this legislative policy and this chapter shall be construed in a manner consistent therewith.

396.032 Definitions.—For the purposes of this chapter:

(1) "Department" means the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services.

(2) "Secretary" means the Secretary of Health and Rehabilitative Services.

(3) "Treatment and research center" means any center or facility maintained and operated by the state which conducts treatment and rehabilitative programs and services for alcoholics.

(4) "Treatment resource" means any public or private facility, service, or program providing treatment or rehabilitation services for alcoholics, including, but not limited to, detoxification centers, licensed hospitals, community mental health centers, clinics or programs, halfway houses, and rehabilitation centers.

(5) "Alcoholic" means any person who chronically and habitually uses alcoholic beverages to the extent that it injures his health or substantially interferes with his social or economic functioning, or to the extent that he has lost the power of self-control with respect to the use of such beverages.

(6) "Peace officer" means any state, county, or municipal public safety officer, including policemen, sheriffs, deputy sheriffs, members of any county public safety department, members of the highway patrol, or any other public safety officers having the power of arrest.

(7) "Physician" means a doctor of medicine or a doctor of osteopathic medicine, and shall include, unless otherwise specified herein, an intern or resident enrolled in an intern or resident training program affiliated with an approved medical school, hospital, or other facility through which such programs are normally conducted.

History.—s. 3, ch. 71-132; s. 134, ch. 77-104; s. 225, ch. 77-147.

396.042 Duties and functions of the department.—

(1) It shall be the duty of the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services to formulate and effect a plan for the prevention, care, treatment, and rehabilitation of alcoholics.

(2) In formulating and effecting the plan defined in subsection (1), the department shall:

(a) Furnish such aid to alcoholics in any manner which, in its judgment, will afford the greatest benefit to said alcoholics, and shall have the power in this connection to make suitable arrangements with hospitals or clinics which in its discretion shall be deemed advisable to afford proper treatment, care, or rehabilitation of alcoholics.

(b) Provide services through existing mental health centers, clinics, and other appropriate treatment resources.

(c) Carry on educational and informational programs on alcoholism for the benefit of the general public, alcoholics, professional persons, or others who care for or may be engaged in the care and treatment of alcoholics.

(d) Cooperate with physicians and treatment resources in making arrangements for the treatment and care of indigent alcoholics, and may arrange for payment for hospital care on a cost basis for such indigent alcoholics.

(e) Formulate, undertake, and carry out a research and evaluation program on alcoholism; participate in, cooperate with, and assist, as in its discretion shall be deemed advisable, other properly qualified agencies, including any agency of the Federal Government, schools of medicine, and hospitals or clinics, in planning and conducting research on the prevention, care, treatment and rehabilitation of alcoholics.

(f) Serve as a clearing house for information relating to alcoholism.

(g) Develop, encourage, and foster statewide, regional, and local plans and programs in the field of alcoholism, which, whenever possible, will be carried out through the services and programs provided under the Community Mental Health Act, part IV of chapter 394.

(h) Review, comment upon, and assist public agencies and local governments with applications for grants or other funds for services for alcoholics to be submitted to the Federal Government.

(i) Prepare, or advise the Governor in the preparation of, a comprehensive alcoholism plan for inclusion in the comprehensive health plan to be submitted for federal funding pursuant to the Comprehensive Health Planning and Public Health Services Amendments of 1966, Public Law 91-616, and other bills providing for federal funding and support.

(j) Enlist the assistance of public and voluntary health, education, welfare, and rehabilitation agencies in a concerted effort to prevent and to treat alcoholism; and

(k) Encourage alcoholism rehabilitation programs in businesses and industries in the state.

History.—s. 4, ch. 71-132; s. 226, ch. 77-147.

396.052 Treatment and rehabilitation program.—

(1) The Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services shall employ a variety of treatment methods and shall provide or arrange for a variety of treatment facilities in order that the needs of persons afflicted with alcoholism and of persons who are intoxicated and in need of emergency medical and other care may be fully and expeditiously met. To the fullest extent possible the department shall utilize the facilities, and coordinate its programs with the programs, of community mental health centers presently existing or hereafter to be established. Treatment services and facilities shall include but need not be limited to the following:

(a) Emergency medical-social services and facilities. Facilities and services to render emergency medical care, including detoxification, and emergency social services shall be open 24 hours every day, and shall be located conveniently near population centers so as to be quickly and easily accessible to patients. Such facilities and services shall provide for the immediate physical and social needs, including the needs for medication and shelter of intoxicated persons, and shall also provide for initial examination, diagnosis, and referral. Each such facility or service shall be affiliated with, or constitute a part of, the general medical service of a licensed hospital or other medical facility, but need not be physically a part of such hospital or facility.

(b) Outpatient facilities, including, but not limited to, clinics, vocational rehabilitation services and community mental health centers.

(c) Intermediate care services, including, but not limited to, partial hospitalization and supportive residential facilities, such as community mental health centers, foster home placement, hostels, and halfway houses. The intermediate care facilities may be operated by, or may be jointly operated with, state or local, public or private, agencies approved by the department.

(d) Inpatient short term or extended care facilities for diagnostic study, intensive study, treatment, and rehabilitation of alcoholics. The facilities may be part of licensed hospitals, mental hospitals, or community mental health centers, and may be provided to inmates of any correctional facility. The Florida Alcoholism Treatment and Research Center at Avon Park in Highlands County, created under former chapter 396, shall continue as a treatment, training, and research center operated by the department.

(2) The department, subject to applicable provision of law, may arrange for the use of local and private treatment facilities on a cooperative basis, by contractual, cost-sharing, or other method of joint or shared support, whenever the director, subject to the policies of the department, considers this to be the most effective and economical course to follow. Authority is granted to the division to accept, receive, administer, and expend any moneys or materials, gifts, or grants from whatever source and to contract for services with, or make grants to, any governmental units, agencies, or departments, federal, state, or local, and any treatment resource having available approved treatment, rehabilitation, or educational services relating to alcoholism.

396.062 Acceptance for treatment; regulations.—The Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services shall adopt, amend, promulgate, and enforce such rules and regulations as may be deemed necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter. In establishing such rules and regulations the department shall be guided by the following standards:

(1) A patient shall be initially assigned to, or transferred to, outpatient or intermediate rather than inpatient care, unless he is found to require inpatient care for medical reasons, or unless he is found to be likely to inflict physical harm on himself or others if not admitted.

(2) Whenever possible, a patient shall be treated on a voluntary, rather than an involuntary, basis.

(3) No person shall be denied treatment solely because he has withdrawn from an inpatient or outpatient facility against medical advice on one or more prior occasions, or because he has relapsed one or more times after earlier treatment.

History.—s. 6, ch. 71-132; s. 228, ch. 77-147.

(1) Any person who is intoxicated in a public place and who appears in need of help, if he consents to the proffered help, may be assisted to his home or to an appropriate treatment resource, whether public or private, by a peace officer. Any person who is intoxicated in a public place and appears to be incapacitated shall be taken by the peace officer to a hospital or other appropriate treatment resource. A person shall be deemed incapacitated when he appears to be in immediate need of emergency medical attention, or when he appears to be unable to make a rational decision about his need for care.

(2) In detaining an intoxicated person and taking him to a treatment resource, the peace officer shall proceed whenever possible with the consent of the intoxicated person. If the person appears to be incapacitated and refuses his consent, he may be taken to a hospital or other appropriate treatment resource against his will, but unreasonable force shall not be used; or, for his own protection, he may be detained in protective custody by the police or public safety authority in any municipal or county jail or other detention facility for up to 72 hours. In addition, nothing contained in this section shall prevent the use of any municipal or county jail or other detention facility as a treatment resource in the same manner and to the same extent as is authorized by the other provisions of this chapter. If such protective custody is utilized and if the detention facility is not also a treatment resource, the officer in charge of the detention facility shall, within the first 8 hours of detention, notify the nearest treatment resource of the detention of the intoxicated person. It shall be the duty of the treatment resource, if necessary and appropriate, to arrange for the transportation from the detention facility to an appropriate treatment facility. The department, through any of its agencies, including the district mental health boards, shall annually notify in writing each municipal and county public safety office of the name, address, and phone number of the treatment resource nearest each detention facility.

(3) Any person who is brought to a treatment resource shall be examined by a physician as soon as possible. The physician in charge of the treatment resource may admit a person as a patient or refer him to another facility for diagnosis or treatment. The treatment resource may provide emergency help to a person who is not admitted as a patient.

(4) Any person who at the time of admission to a treatment resource is incapacitated shall remain at the facility until he is no longer incapacitated, but not longer than 96 hours after his admission as a patient. Any person admitted to a treatment resource who is not incapacitated at the time of admission, or any person who is no longer incapacitated, may consent to remain at the treatment resource for as long as the person in charge believes warranted, but any patient who is not incapacitated shall be free to leave the facility at any time.

(5) Any person who is not admitted to a treatment resource or who is not referred to another resource and who has no funds may be taken to his home, if he has one.

(6) When a patient is admitted to a treatment resource, his family or next of kin shall be notified as promptly as possible. If a patient who is not incapacitated requests that there be no notification, his request shall be respected.

(7) The peace officer, in detaining an intoxicated person or in taking him to a treatment resource, shall be deemed to be taking him into protective custody. A taking into protective custody under this section shall not be considered an arrest for any purpose, and no entry or other record shall be made to indicate that he has been arrested or has been charged with a crime.

(8) A peace officer and any public safety office or agency who or which acts under this section shall be considered as acting in the conduct of their official duty and shall not be held criminally or civilly liable for false arrest or false imprisonment.

(9) If the physician in charge of the treatment resource determines that such a course is for the patient's benefit, a patient in a treatment resource shall be encouraged to agree to further diagnosis and to voluntary treatment at suitable inpatient, outpatient, or intermediate care facilities.

History.—s. 7, ch. 71-132; s. 1, ch. 74-257; s. 1, ch. 76-79.

(1) Any person may voluntarily apply for treatment for alcoholism directly to any treatment resource. The disability of minority for persons under 18 years of age is removed for the purpose of obtaining rehabilitative or medical treatment for alcoholism or alcohol abuse from a private physician licensed to practice medicine under chapter 458 or chapter 459 or from a hospital, public clinic, treatment resource, or facility administered, authorized, or licensed by the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services. Consent to such treatment by a minor shall have the same force and effect as though it were executed by a person who has reached his majority. Any such consent shall not be subject to later disaffirmance by reason of minority.

(2) The administrator in charge of any public inpatient, outpatient, or intermediate facility, subject to the rules and regulations established by the director, may determine who shall be admitted for treatment. Private treatment resources may establish their own admission policies, including provisions for payment for services.

(3) Upon his discharge from, or upon leaving, a public treatment facility, a patient shall be encouraged to consent to appropriate outpatient, intermediate care, or other aftercare treatment. If it appears to the administrator in charge of the treatment facility, upon the advice of the attending physician, that the patient is an alcoholic who requires such help, the division may arrange for assistance in obtaining supportive services and residential facilities, such as maintenance in a hostel or halfway house operated by the department or by any other state or private agency.

History.—s. 8, ch. 71-132; s. 2, ch. 76-79.

396.092 Emergency commitment of alcoholics.—

(1) A person may be admitted to a treatment resource for emergency care and treatment upon application accompanied by the certificate of one licensed physician. The application may be made by any one of the following: The certifying physician, the patient's spouse or guardian, any relative of the patient, or any other responsible person. The application shall state facts to support the need for immediate commitment, including factual allegations showing that the person to be committed has threatened, attempted, or actually inflicted physical harm upon himself or another. The physician's certificate shall state that he has examined the person within 2 days of the certificate date and shall set out the facts to support the physician's conclusion that the person is an alcoholic who has lost the power of self-control with respect to the use of alcoholic beverages and that unless immediately committed he is likely to inflict physical harm upon himself or others.

(2) The administrator in charge of a treatment resource may refuse an application if in his opinion the application and certificate fail to sustain the grounds for commitment. Upon acceptance of the application by the administrator in charge of the facility, the person shall be transported to the facility by a peace officer, health officer, the applicant for commitment, the patient's spouse, or the patient's guardian. The person shall be retained at the facility that admitted him, or be transferred to any other appropriate treatment resource, until discharged pursuant to subsection (3).

(3) The attending physician shall discharge any person committed pursuant to this section when he determines that the grounds for commitment no longer exist, but no person committed pursuant to this section shall be retained in any facility for more than 5 days. If, however, a petition for involuntary commitment pursuant to s. 396.102 has been filed within such 5 days, and if the administrator in charge of a facility finds, upon the advice of the attending physician, that grounds for emergency commitment still exist, he may retain the person until the petition has been heard and determined, but in no event longer than 20 days following the filing of the petition.

History.—s. 9, ch. 71-132.

396.102 Involuntary treatment of alcoholics.—

(1) A person may be ordered to an appropriate treatment resource other than a state-operated mental hospital by the Circuit Court upon the petition of his spouse or guardian, any next of kin, a physician, the head of any state treatment and research center, the sheriff of the county where such person resides or is found, the chief of police of the municipality in which such person resides or is found, or any three citizens of the state. The petition shall allege:

(a) That the person is an alcoholic who has lost the power of self-control with respect to the use of alcoholic beverages, and

(b)1. That he has threatened, attempted or actually inflicted physical harm on himself or others, or

2. That he is in need of care and that by reason of chronic alcoholism his judgment has been so impaired that he is incapable of appreciating his need for care and of making a rational decision in regard thereto. A mere refusal to undergo treatment shall not, however, by itself constitute evidence of lack of judgment with respect to the need for care.

The petition shall be accompanied by a certificate of a licensed physician who has examined the person within 2 days of the submission of the petition. The certificate shall set forth the physician's findings in support of the allegation of the petition. If the person whose commitment is sought has refused to submit to an evaluation, the fact of such refusal shall be alleged in the petition.

(2) Upon receipt of the petition, the court shall fix a date for a hearing on the issues no later than 10 days from the date the petition was received. The court shall give notice of the hearing to the petitioner, to the person whose commitment is sought, to his next of kin other than the petitioner, to his parents or legal guardian if he is a minor, to the head of the facility to which he has been committed if he has been committed for emergency care, and to any other person whose presence the court deems advisable. Copies of the petition and certificate shall be delivered to all of the parties, together with the notice of hearing.

(3) At the hearing the court shall hear all relevant testimony, including the testimony of at least one physician, either in person or by an affidavit, who has examined the person whose commitment is sought. The person whose commitment is sought shall be present unless the court has reason to believe that his presence is likely to be injurious to him; in this event the court shall appoint a guardian ad litem to represent him throughout the proceeding. The court shall examine the person whose commitment is sought in open court or, if it be deemed advisable, out of court. If the person whose commitment is sought has refused to be examined by a physician, he shall be afforded an opportunity to consent to examination by a court-appointed physician. If he refuses and there is sufficient evidence to believe that the allegations of the petition are likely to be true, or, in any case, if the court believes that more evidence is necessary, the court may make a preliminary order committing the person to an appropriate treatment resource for a period of not more than 5 days for purposes of further evaluation. If after hearing all relevant evidence, including the results of any case findings, the court finds that the grounds for involuntary commitment have been met by clear and convincing proof, the court shall make a final order stating its findings and ordering the person to treatment at or through a treatment resource deemed appropriate by the court. However, with respect to the state treatment and research center, the court shall be guided and restricted by the admission policies and procedures relating to such facilities established by the department. If the court, after the hearing, determines that the person should be ordered to treatment by reason of alcoholism, the court shall seek advice as to available treatment resources from the board district in the court's jurisdiction established under part IV of chapter 394, the Community Mental Health Act, and may seek such assistance from any other appropriate community agency or treatment resource. If, in the course of the hearing, the court has reason to believe that the person, because of mental illness other than, or in addition to, alcoholism, is likely to injure himself or others if allowed to remain at liberty, or is in need of care or treatment and lacks sufficient capacity to make a responsible application on his own behalf, the court may initiate involuntary hospitalization proceedings under the provisions of part I of chapter 394.

(4) A person ordered to treatment pursuant to this section shall remain under the treatment designated by the court for a period of 30 days unless sooner discharged. At the end of the 30-day period, he shall automatically be discharged unless the treatment resource, prior to the expiration of such period, obtains a court order for his recommitment upon the same grounds set forth in subsection (1) for a further period of 90 days unless sooner discharged. If a person has been committed because he is an alcoholic who is likely to inflict physical harm on himself or others, the treatment resource shall apply for recommitment unless such likelihood no longer exists.

(5) A person recommitted under the provisions of subsection (4) who has not been discharged by the treatment resource before the end of the 90-day period shall automatically be discharged at the expiration of that period unless the treatment resource, prior to the expiration of such period, obtains a court order on the grounds set forth in subsection (1) for recommitment for a further period not to exceed 6 months. Further recommitment orders for a period not to exceed 6 months for each such order may be obtained on the grounds set forth in subsection (1) if the person has not been discharged.

(6) Upon receipt of a petition for recommitment pursuant to subsection (4) or subsection (5), the court shall fix a date for hearing no later than 10 days from the date the petition was received. Notice of the application and the date of the hearing fixed by the court shall be served on the petitioner, on the person whose commitment is sought, on his next of kin, on the original petitioner under subsection (1), if different from the petitioner for recommitment, on one of his parents or on his legal guardian if he is a minor, and on any other person whose presence the court deems advisable. At the hearing the court shall proceed in the same manner set forth in subsection (3).

(7) The treatment resource may require any person committed under the provisions of this chapter to undergo such treatment as in its judgment will benefit him, including treatment at any inpatient, outpatient, or intermediate care facility.

(8) A person committed to the custody of a treatment resource for care shall be discharged at any time prior to the end of the period for which he has been committed when the following conditions are met:

(a) In the case of an alcoholic committed on the grounds of likelihood of infliction of physical harm upon himself or others, when such likelihood no longer exists;

(b) In the case of an alcoholic committed on the grounds of need of treatment and care, accompanied by incapacity to make a determination respecting such need, either when such incapacity no longer exists or when it is evident that further treatment and care will not bring about further significant improvements in such person's condition.

(9) The person whose commitment or recommitment is sought shall be informed of his right to contest the application, to be represented by counsel at every stage of any and all proceedings relating to his commitment and recommitment, and to have counsel appointed for him by the court or provided for him by the court, if he wants the assistance of counsel and is financially unable to obtain counsel. If the court believes that the person needs the assistance of counsel, the court shall appoint counsel for him regardless of his wishes. Further, the person whose commitment or recommitment is sought shall be informed of his right to be examined by a physician of his choice. If the person is financially unable to obtain a physician and requests examination by a physician, a physician shall be appointed or provided by the court.

(10) A person committed under the provisions of this chapter may at any time seek to be discharged from commitment by writ of habeas corpus.

History.—s. 10, ch. 71-132; s. 25, ch. 73-334; s. 2, ch. 74-257; s. 3, ch. 76-79.

396.105 Involuntary treatment of habitual abusers.—Upon the petition of any treatment resource, spouse, guardian, or next of kin, a person determined by the court to be an habitual abuser may be committed by the court, after notice and hearing as provided in this chapter, to outpatient treatment for not more than 120 days or to inpatient treatment for not more than 60 days, or both, subject to recommitment pursuant to s. 396.102(4). For the purpose of this section, "habitual abuser" means any person who has been treated for alcoholism under the provisions of s. 396.072, s. 396.082, s. 396.092, or

s. 396.102 three or more times during the 12 months prior to the hearing.

History.—s. 4, ch. 76-79.

396.112 Records of alcoholics and intoxicated persons.—

(1) The registration and other records of emergency services and of other treatment resources, whether inpatient, intermediate or outpatient, utilized under this chapter shall remain confidential, and information which has been entered in the records shall be considered privileged information.

(2) No part of the treatment records shall be disclosed without the consent of the person to whom it pertains, but appropriate disclosure may be made without such consent to treatment personnel for use in connection with his treatment and to counsel representing the person in any proceeding held pursuant to s. 396.102. Disclosure may also be made without consent upon court order for purposes unrelated to treatment after application showing good cause therefor. In determining whether there is good cause for disclosure, the court shall weigh the need for the information to be disclosed against the possible harm of disclosure to the person to whom such information pertains.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsections (1) and (2), the secretary or his designees may open patients' records for purposes of significant research into the causes and treatment of alcoholism. The secretary shall not open such records, however, unless application is made by a researcher or research agency of professional repute, and unless the need for the records and the significance of the research for which they are to be used has been demonstrated to his satisfaction. Records shall not be opened under this subsection unless adequate assurances are given that patients' names and other identifying information will not be disclosed by the applicant.

History.—s. 11, ch. 71-132.

396.122 Visitation and communication of patients.—

(1) Subject to reasonable regulations regarding hours of visitation established by the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services or by the agency in charge of a facility, alcoholics who are either voluntary or involuntary patients in any inpatient facility under this chapter shall be allowed opportunity for adequate consultation with counsel, and as much opportunity for continuing contact with family and friends as is consistent with an effective institutional program.

(2) The department may make reasonable rules regarding the use of the telephone by patients and the receipt of mail and other communications by patients in such facilities.

History.—s. 12, ch. 71-132; s. 229, ch. 77-147.

396.131 Criminal commitment.—A person charged with or convicted of a crime may be committed to an appropriate treatment resource in accord with the provisions of law relating to probation, parole, or other disposition of persons charged with or convicted of criminal offenses.

History.—s. 13, ch. 71-132.

(1) Fees and fee collections for the care, maintenance, or treatment of alcoholics under any provision of this chapter shall be according to s. 402.33. However, the payment thereof, in advance or otherwise, shall never be a prerequisite to the care, maintenance, and treatment of any person under any circumstances whatsoever. In cases of commitments to treatment and research centers, such charges and expenses shall be fixed or approved by the board of county commissioners of the county wherein the patient is or has been committed. Any suit or action instituted by the state or any political subdivision thereof for the recovery of such charges and expenses against the person or his duly authorized personal representative, parent or legal guardian, shall be brought by the state attorney of the judicial circuit in which said person was committed or by the Department of Legal Affairs or both such state attorney and Department of Legal Affairs, as the case may be, as party plaintiff.

(2) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this chapter, a private hospital or private facility, whether an outpatient or an inpatient unit, shall not be required to accept any person for treatment through commitment proceedings or otherwise, unless adequate arrangements for payment of the cost of such services are made.

(3) Any person assisted under this chapter or his responsible relatives may be required to contribute toward the cost of his subsistence, care or treatment, to the extent provided in applicable law and regulations. No person may be discriminated against on the basis of indigence.

History.—s. 14, ch. 71-132; s. 5, ch. 78-332.

396.151 False information or lack of probable cause to secure involuntary treatment; penalty.—

(1) Any person who knowingly furnishes false information for the purpose of securing the involuntary treatment of any individual to any facility for the treatment of alcoholism shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, or by fine not exceeding $5,000, or both.

(2) Any individual who, without probable cause for believing a person to be an alcoholic:

(a) Causes or conspires with or assists another to cause the involuntary treatment of any such person under this chapter, or

(b) Causes or conspires with or assists another to cause the denial to any person of any right accorded to him under this chapter shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, or by fine not exceeding $5,000, or both.

(3) Any individual who, without probable cause for believing a person to be an alcoholic, executes a petition, application, or certificate, pursuant to this chapter, by which such individual secures or attempts to secure the involuntary treatment or involuntary restraint of any such person shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, or by fine not exceeding $5,000, or both.

396.1515 Immunity from personal liability.—

The Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services or the administrator of any treatment facility acting pursuant to the provisions of this chapter shall be entitled to rely in good faith upon the representations made for admission by any individual or any certification with respect to any individual made by a licensed physician. All persons acting in good faith, reasonably and without negligence in connection with the preparation or execution of petitions, applications, certificates or other documents or the apprehension, detention, discharge, examination, transportation, or treatment of an individual under the provisions of this chapter shall be free from all liability, civil or criminal, by reason of such acts.

No county, municipality, or other political subdivision of this state shall adopt any local law, ordinance, resolution, or regulation having the force of law rendering public intoxication in and of itself or being a common drunkard or being found in enumerated places in an intoxicated condition, an offense, a violation, or the subject of criminal or civil penalties or sanctions of any kind. Nothing herein contained shall affect any laws, ordinances, resolutions, or regulations against drunken driving, driving under the influence of alcohol, or other similar offenses that involve the operation of motor vehicles, machinery or other hazardous equipment.

History.—s. 17, ch. 71-132; s. 1, ch. 73-263; s. 4, ch. 74-257.

396.171 Advisory council.—In order to comply with any requirements or conditions for receipt of federal moneys provided by any present or future acts of Congress, the department may create an advisory council, or designate an existing advisory council, for the purpose of consulting with and advising the department in carrying out the provisions of this chapter.

History.—s. 18, ch. 71-132; s. 4, ch. 78-323.

397.011 Purpose and intent of chapter; disposition of convicted offenders.—

(1) It is the purpose of this chapter to encourage the fullest possible exploration of ways by which the true facts concerning drug abuse and dependence may be made known generally and to provide a comprehensive program of human renewal for drug dependents in rehabilitation centers and aftercare programs. This program is designed to assist in the rehabilitation of persons dependent on the drugs controlled by chapter 893. It is further designed to protect society against the social contagion of drug abuse and to meet the need of drug dependents for medical, psychological, and vocational rehabilitation, while at the same time safeguarding their individual liberties.

(2) It is the intent of the Legislature to provide an alternative to criminal imprisonment for individuals capable of rehabilitation as useful citizens through techniques not generally available in state or local prison systems. For a violation of any provision of chapter 893, Florida Comprehensive Drug Abuse Prevention and Control Act, relating to possession of any substance regulated thereby, the trial judge may, in his discretion, require the defendant to participate in a drug rehabilitation program approved or regulated by the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, provided the director of such program approves the placement of the defendant in such program. Such required participation may be imposed in addition to or in lieu of any penalty or probation otherwise prescribed by law, provided the total time of such penalty, probation, and program participation shall not exceed the maximum length of sentence possible for the offense.

History.—s. 1, ch. 70-183; s. 3A, ch. 71-222; s. 135, ch. 77-104.

(1) "Department" means the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services.

(2) "Drug dependent" means a person who is dependent upon, or by reason of repeated use is in imminent danger of becoming dependent upon, any substance controlled under chapter 893.

(3)(a) "DATE center" means a drug abuse treatment and education center, and includes, but is not limited to, the following:

1. A residential rehabilitation center, which is a live-in facility operating 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, staffed by professional and para-professional persons offering therapeutic programs for drug dependent persons.

2. A nonresidential day care center, which is a facility offering therapeutic programs operated by trained professional and para-professional persons for treatment of drug dependent persons who are able to live in their own homes in the community.

3. An education information center, which is an information center facility offering education and information to drug dependent persons, their families, and the general community, but which engages in no direct treatment. Such a center may make referrals to approved treatment facilities.

4. A communication center or rap house, which is a program oriented toward youth with the goal of prevention of drug dependency. Such a center may make referrals to appropriate treatment facilities.

5. A hot line, which is a telephone installed to respond to requests for information about drugs, drug treatment facilities, and emergency treatment centers.

6. A drug dispensing program, which is the scheduled dispensing or administering of drugs, including methadone, pursuant to a permit or license issued by an appropriate federal authority.

(b) "DATE center" shall not include the following:

1. "Nursing homes" or "homes" as that term is defined in s. 400.021(7).

2. Drug abuse education program established pursuant to s. 233.067.

(4) "Detoxification" means the administering of methadone or other drug in decreasing doses, pursuant to federal permit, as a substitute narcotic drug to reach a drug free state in a period not to exceed 21 days in order to withdraw an individual who is dependent on heroin or other morphine-like drugs from the use of these drugs.

(5) "Drug abuser" means a person who is so habitually dependent on the use of controlled substances as to have lost the power of self-control with respect to their use, and

(a) Who is dangerous to himself or others as a result of such abuse, or

(b) Whose judgment has been so impaired as a result of such abuse that he cannot rationally appreciate his need for care.

(6) "Treatment resource" means any licensed public or private facility, service, or program providing treatment or rehabilitation services for drug abusers, including, but not limited to, a residential rehabilitation center; a nonresidential day care center; a community mental health center, clinic or program; or a drug-dispensing program.

(7) "Controlled substances" means the substances listed in the following subsections of s. 893.03:

(1) SCHEDULE I.—Paragraphs (a) and (b) and subparagraphs 1., 2., 3., 7., 8., 13., and 14. of paragraph (c).

(2) SCHEDULE II.—Subparagraphs 1., 2., and 3. of paragraph (a) and paragraphs (b) and (c).

(3) SCHEDULE III.—Paragraph (a).

(4) SCHEDULE IV.—Paragraphs (a), (f), (h), and (k).

History.—s. 1, ch. 70-183; s. 1, ch. 71-222; ss. 1, 4, 5, ch. 72-302; s. 1, ch. 73-154; s. 23, ch. 73-331; s. 1, ch. 74-172.

397.031 Duties of department.—The Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services, herein after referred to as "department," shall:

(1) Formulate a comprehensive plan for diagnosis, treatment, and education in the areas of drug abuse and dependence and revise such plan from time to time.

(2) Promote, develop, establish, coordinate, and conduct unified programs for education, prevention, diagnosis, treatment, and rehabilitation in the field of drug abuse and dependence and for cooperation with other federal, state, local, and private agencies.

(3) Provide public education and training and disseminate and gather information relating to drug abuse and dependency.

(4) Promote, develop, establish, coordinate, and conduct through the department or any approved agency, public or private, unified programs for education, prevention, diagnosis, research, treatment, aftercare, community referral, and rehabilitation in the field of drug abuse and dependency and, within the amount made available by appropriation, to implement and administer such programs.

(5) Establish a funding program for the dissemination of available federal, state, and private funds to units of state or local government or private organizations which establish and implement approved local drug abuse education or treatment programs.

(6) Promulgate rules and regulations for the implementation of the authority and responsibilities within this chapter, and employ persons responsible for implementing the purposes of this chapter.

(7) Establish guidelines and provide for the systematic and comprehensive evaluation of the effectiveness of various programs licensed by the department.

History.—s. 2, ch. 70-183; s. 1, ch. 70-439; s. 2, ch. 71-222; s. 20, ch. 79-12.

397.041 Hospital and outpatient facilities for drug dependents.—

(1) The department shall have the authority to designate facilities within the department to be used exclusively or partially for the treatment of drug dependents. These facilities may be operated as inpatient or outpatient programs.

(2) The department shall establish procedures whereby persons who are drug dependents may seek admission to these programs on a voluntary basis.

(3) The department shall have the authority to contract with other governmental or private agencies for additional treatment facilities or programs. The department is encouraged to establish these programs on a regional basis with emphasis on prevention and preventive education.

(4) Any person within the care or custody of any division of the department may be transferred for treatment to any program for hallucinogenic, barbiturate, or narcotic drug abuse problems approved by the department.

(5) No person who voluntarily enters any hospital or outpatient facility or program for treatment of drug dependency shall be retained in such facility or program against his will, nor shall such volunteer be confined in or assigned to any penal institution.

History.—s. 3, ch. 70-183; s. 1, ch. 70-439.

397.051 Applications for treatment of drug dependency.—

(1) Any drug dependent who wishes to submit himself for treatment and cure may apply to the department for admission to drug treatment programs operated or approved by the department.

(2) Drug dependents who submit themselves for voluntary treatment shall be admitted to programs within the financial and space capabilities of the department.

(3) The department shall establish a fee system for treatment and the fees shall be assessed in accordance with the person's ability to pay.

History.—s. 4, ch. 70-183; s. 1, ch. 70-439.

397.052 Involuntary treatment.—

(1) A person may be ordered to treatment at an appropriate treatment resource by the Circuit Court upon the petition of his spouse, a parent or guardian, any next of kin, a physician, the head of any state treatment facility or rehabilitation center, the sheriff of the county where such person resides or is found, or any three citizens of the state.

(a) The petition shall allege that the person:

1. Is a habitual abuser of controlled substances not pursuant to a lawful prescription;

2. Has lost the power of self-control with respect to the use of such controlled substances; and

3. Has threatened, attempted, or actually inflicted, physical harm on himself or others, or is in need of medical treatment and care and, by reason of drug abuse, his judgment has been so impaired that he is incapable of appreciating his need for care and of making a rational decision in regard thereto. A mere refusal to undergo treatment shall not, however, by itself constitute evidence of lack of judgment with respect to the need for care.

(b) The petition shall be accompanied by a certificate of a physician and a certificate of a person possessing training and experience in drug abuse treatment and rehabilitation, said certificates to be based on an examination of the drug abuser made within 10 days prior to the filing of the petition. The certificates shall set forth their findings in support of the allegations of the petition. If the person whose treatment is sought has refused to submit to an examination, the fact of such refusal shall be alleged in the petition.

(2) Upon receipt of the petition, the court shall fix a date for a hearing on the issues no later than 10 days from the date the petition was received. The court shall give notice of the hearing to:

(a) The petitioner;

(b) The person whose treatment is sought, his next of kin other than the petitioner, and his parents or legal guardian, if he is a minor; and

(c) To any other person whose presence the court deems advisable.

Copies of the petition and certificate shall be delivered to all of the parties, together with the notice of hearing.

(3) At the hearing, the court shall hear all relevant testimony, including testimony of those providing certificates pursuant to subsection (1). The person whose treatment is sought shall be present unless the court has reason to believe that his presence is likely to be injurious to him; in this event, the court shall appoint a guardian ad litem to represent him throughout the proceeding. The court shall examine the person whose treatment is sought in open court or, if it is deemed advisable, out of court. If the person whose treatment is sought has refused to be examined, he shall be afforded an opportunity to consent to examination by a court-appointed physician and by a person possessing training and experience in drug abuse treatment and rehabilitation appointed by the court. If he refuses and there is sufficient evidence to believe that the allegations of the petition are likely to be true, or, in any case, if the court believes that more evidence is necessary, the court may preliminarily order the person to an appropriate treatment resource for a period of not more than 5 days for purposes of an examination. If, after hearing all relevant evidence, including the results of any case findings, the court finds that the grounds for court-ordered treatment have been met by clear and convincing proof, the court shall make a final order stating its findings and ordering the person to treatment at or through a treatment resource deemed appropriate by the court. Except in the case of a person who is ordered to treatment on the grounds that he is likely to inflict physical harm upon himself or others, the court shall not order a person's treatment unless there is sufficient evidence that an appropriate treatment resource is available.

(4) A person ordered to treatment pursuant to this section shall remain under the treatment designated by the court for a period of 30 days unless sooner discharged. At the end of the 30-day period, he shall automatically be discharged unless the treatment resource, prior to the expiration of such period, obtains renewal of the order for treatment upon the same grounds set forth in subsection (1) for a further period of 90 days unless sooner discharged. If a person has been ordered to treatment because he is a drug abuser who is likely to inflict physical harm on himself or others, the treatment resource shall apply for a renewal of the order to treatment unless such likelihood no longer exists.

(a) A person reentered to treatment, who has not been discharged by the treatment resource before the end of the 90-day period, shall automatically be discharged at the expiration of that period unless the treatment resource, prior to the expiration of such period, obtains a court order on the grounds set forth in subsection (1) for renewal of the order for treatment for a further period not to exceed 6 months.

(b) Upon receipt of a petition for renewal of the order for treatment, the court shall fix a date for hearing no later than 10 days from the date the petition was received. Notice of the application and the date of the hearing fixed by the court shall be served on:

1. The petitioner;

2. The person whose treatment is sought, his next of kin, and one of his parents or his legal guardian if he is a minor;

3. The original petitioner, if different from the petitioner for renewal of the order for treatment; and

4. Any other person whose presence the court deems advisable.

At the hearing the court shall proceed in the manner previously set forth herein.

(5) A person ordered to treatment in, and who is in the custody of, a treatment resource for care shall be discharged at any time prior to the end of the period for which he has been ordered to treatment when one of the following conditions are met:

(a) In the case of a drug abuser ordered to treatment on the grounds of likelihood of infliction of physical harm upon himself or others, when such likelihood no longer exists; or

(b) In the case of a drug abuser ordered to treatment on the grounds of need of treatment and care, accompanied by incapacity to make a determination respecting such need, either when such incapacity no longer exists or when it is evident that further treatment and care will not bring about further significant improvements in such person's condition.

(6) The person whose treatment is sought shall be informed of his right to contest the application, to be represented by counsel at every stage of proceedings relating to his order to treatment, and to have counsel appointed for him by the court, if he desires the assistance of counsel and is financially unable to obtain counsel. If the court believes that the person needs the assistance of counsel, the court shall appoint counsel for him regardless of his wishes. Further, the person for whom treatment is sought shall be informed of his right to be examined by a physician and a person of his choice who possesses training and experience in drug-abuse treatment and rehabilitation. If the person is financially unable to obtain such services and requests such examinations, the court shall provide payment for the required examinations.

(7) A person ordered to treatment under the provisions of this chapter may at any time seek to be discharged from treatment by writ of habeas corpus.

History.—s. 2, ch. 74-172.

397.053 Records of drug abusers.—

(1) The registration and other records of treatment resources, whether inpatient, intermediate, or outpatient, shall remain confidential, and information which has been entered in the records shall be considered confidential information.

(2) No part of the treatment records shall be disclosed without the consent of the person to whom it pertains, but appropriate disclosure may be made without consent to treatment personnel for use in connection with the treatment of such person and to counsel representing the person in any proceeding held pursuant to s. 397.052. Disclosure may also be made without consent upon court order for purposes unrelated to treatment after application showing good cause therefor. In determining whether there is good cause for disclosure, the court shall weigh the need for the information to be disclosed against the possible harm of disclosure to the person to whom such information pertains.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, the secretary of the department or his designee may open patients' records for purposes of significant research into the causes and treatment of drug abuse. The secretary shall not open such records, however, unless application is made by a researcher or research agency of professional repute, and unless the need for the records and the significance of the research for which they are to be used has been demonstrated to his satisfaction. Records shall not be open under this subsection unless adequate assurances are given that patients' names and other identifying information will not be disclosed by the applicant.

397.054 Visitation and communication of patients.—

(1) Subject to reasonable regulations regarding hours of visitation established by the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services or by the agency in charge of a facility, drug abusers who are either voluntary or involuntary patients in any inpatient facility under this chapter shall be allowed opportunity for adequate consultation with counsel, and as much opportunity for continuing contact with family and friends as is consistent with an effective treatment program.

(2) The facility may make reasonable rules regarding the use of the telephone by patients and the receipt of mail and other communications by patients in such facilities.

History.—s. 2, ch. 74-172; s. 231, ch. 77-147.

397.055 Payment for care.—

(1) Fees and fee collections for the care, maintenance, or treatment of drug abusers under any provision of this chapter shall be according to s. 402.33. However, the payment thereof, in advance or otherwise, shall never be a prerequisite to the care, maintenance, and treatment of any person under any circumstances whatsoever in a public facility. Any suit or action instituted by the state or any political subdivision thereof for the recovery of such charges and expenses against the person or his duly authorized personal representative, parent, or legal guardian shall be brought by the state attorney of the judicial circuit in which said person was ordered to treatment or by the Department of Legal Affairs or by both such state attorney and Department of Legal Affairs.

(2) Notwithstanding any other provision to the contrary in this chapter, a private hospital or private facility, whether an outpatient or an inpatient unit, shall not be required to accept any person for treatment through court proceedings or otherwise.

(3) Any person assisted under this chapter or his responsible relatives may be required to contribute toward the cost of his subsistence, care, or treatment to the extent provided in applicable law and regulations. No person may be discriminated against on the basis of indigence.

History.—s. 2, ch. 74-172; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 6, ch. 78-332.

397.056 False information or lack of probable cause to secure an order to treatment; penalty.—

(1) Any person who knowingly furnishes false information for the purposes of securing an order to treatment for any person for the treatment of drug abuse is guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(2) Any person who, without probable cause for believing a person to be a drug abuser, causes or conspires with or assists another to cause any person to be ordered to treatment under this chapter, or causes or conspires with or assists another to cause the denial to any person of any right accorded to him under this chapter, is guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

(3) Any person who, without probable cause for believing a person to be a drug abuser, executes a petition, application, or certificate pursuant to this chapter by which such individual causes or attempts to cause any person to be ordered to treatment is guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

397.057 Immunity from personal liability.—

The administrator of any treatment resource acting pursuant to the provisions of this chapter shall be entitled to rely in good faith upon the recommendations made for admission by any individual, or any certification with respect to any individual, filed in conjunction with judicial proceedings for involuntary treatment of a drug abuser. All persons acting in good faith, reasonably, and without negligence in connection with the preparation or execution of petitions, applications, certificates, or other documents or the apprehension, detention, discharge, examination, transportation, or treatment of a person under the provisions of this chapter shall be free from all liability, civil or criminal, by reason of such acts.

History.—s. 2, ch. 74-172.

397.061 Department's cooperation with courts.—The department may, within its resources, cooperate with any court of proper jurisdiction in treating, counseling, examining, or otherwise aiding a person before the court with a narcotic, barbiturate, or hallucinogenic drug problem, or may aid the court with whatever resources are available in meeting whatever stipulations the court may make for probation of such individual.

History.—s. 5, ch. 70-183.

397.071 Program classification.—The department shall classify drug abuse programs according to character and range of services provided. Whenever it deems distinctions in its standards, rules, and regulations to be appropriate as among different classes of DATE centers, it may make such distinctions.

History.—s. 3, ch. 71-222; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

397.081 License required.—

(1) It is unlawful to operate or maintain a DATE center without first being licensed by the department.

(2) With each application for license for a DATE center submitted to the department there shall be included a comprehensive outline of the proposed rehabilitative program.

History.—s. 3, ch. 71-222; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

397.091 Expiration of license and renewal; regular and interim licenses.—

(1) A regular license issued for operation of a DATE center, unless sooner suspended or revoked, shall expire 12 months from the date of issue, unless the same shall have been renewed prior thereto for the next succeeding year. A license shall be renewed upon the filing of application for such renewal on forms prescribed by the department.

(2) Licensed operators against whom a revocation or suspension proceeding is pending at the time of license renewal shall be issued an interim license effective until final disposition by the department of such revocation proceedings. If the final order of the department is appealed from, the court before whom the appeal is taken may order the extension of the interim license for a period of time to be specified in said order.

(3) Interim licenses for not to exceed 90 days may be issued by the department to those applicants who have substantially complied with all the requirements for regular licensing and for which action has been initiated to satisfy all requirements. Interim licenses shall be renewed only in cases of extreme hardship and in which the failure to fully comply with the requirements was not caused by the applicant. The obligations of the interim licensee are the same as those of a regular licensee.

History.—s. 3, ch. 71-222; s. 2, ch. 73-154; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

397.092 Refusal of license; revocation.—The department shall have authority to deny, suspend, or revoke a DATE center license for cause. All hearings shall be held within the county in which the licensee or applicant operates or applies for license to operate a DATE center as defined in s. 397.021(3).

History.—s. 3, ch. 71-222; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457; s. 19, ch. 78-95.

397.093 Procedure for reinstatement of revoked or suspended license.—When a license has been revoked or suspended, the licensee, if he has not previously had a license revoked or suspended under this chapter, may at any time after the determination has become final request an opportunity to show that the reasons for the revocation or suspension of license have been corrected and that the license should be reinstated. No licensee who has previously had a license suspended or revoked under this chapter may request a license reinstatement prior to 1 year after the determination becomes final.

History.—s. 3, ch. 71-222; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457; s. 19, ch. 78-95.

397.094 Violations.—Any person establishing, conducting, managing, or operating any DATE center without proper license under this chapter shall be subject to injunctive proceedings to restrain and enjoin the operation of any DATE center in violation of the provisions hereof.

History.—s. 3D, ch. 71-222; s. 2, ch. 72-302; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

397.095 Right of entry and inspection.—The department or any duly designated officer or employee thereof shall have the right to enter upon and into the premises of any DATE center licensed pursuant to this chapter at any reasonable time in order to determine the state of compliance with the provisions of this chapter and any rules and regulations in force pursuant thereto. Such right of entry and inspection shall also extend to any premises which the department has reason to believe is being operated or maintained as a DATE center without a license, but no such entry or inspection of any premises shall be made without the permission of the owner or person in charge thereof, unless a warrant is first obtained from the Circuit Court authorizing same. Any application for a DATE center license made pursuant to this chapter shall constitute permission for and complete acquiescence in any entry or inspection of the premises for which the license is sought in order to facilitate verification of the information submitted on or in connection with such application.

History.—s. 3, ch. 71-222; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

397.096 Information confidential.—Information received by authorized persons employed by, or volunteering services to, a DATE center or received by the licensing agency through files, reports, inspection, or as otherwise authorized under this chapter shall be deemed privileged and confidential information and shall not be disclosed in such a manner as to identify individuals.

History.—s. 3, ch. 71-222; s. 3, ch. 72-302; s. 1, ch. 76-132; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

397.098 Drug dispensing programs; prohibitions.—Drug dispensing programs which do not provide supporting rehabilitative programs such as counseling, therapy, or vocational rehabilitation are prohibited and shall not be licensed as provided herein. Any violation of this provision shall be subject to injunctive proceedings in accordance with s. 397.094.

History.—s. 6, ch. 72-302; s. 4, ch. 73-154; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

397.099 Removal of disabilities of minors in order to obtain rehabilitative or medical treatment.—The disability of nonage of minors is removed for the purpose of obtaining rehabilitative or medical treatment for drug abuse or dependency from a private physician licensed to practice medicine under chapter 458 or chapter 459 or a hospital, public clinic, or facility administered, authorized, or licensed by the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services. Consent to treatment by a minor shall have the same force and effect as though it was executed by a person who has reached the legal age of majority. Any such consent shall not be subject to later disaffirmance by reason of minority.

History.—s. 7, ch. 72-302; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

397.10 Legislative intent.—It is the intent of the Legislature to provide a meaningful alternative to criminal imprisonment for individuals capable of rehabilitation as useful citizens through techniques and programs not generally available in state or federal prison systems or programs operated by the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services. It is the further intent of the legislature to encourage trial judges to use their discretion to refer persons charged with, or convicted of, violation of laws relating to drug abuse or violation of any law committed under the influence of a narcotic drug or medicine to a state-licensed drug rehabilitation program in lieu of, or in addition to, imposition of criminal penalties.

397.11 Definitions.—As used in ss. 397.10-397.20:

(1) "Drug rehabilitation program" means a drug rehabilitation program licensed under the provisions of this chapter.

(2) "Department" means the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services.

History.—s. 2, ch. 73-350.

397.12 Reference to drug abuse program.—When any person, including any juvenile, has been charged with or convicted of a violation of any provision of chapter 893, or of a violation of any law committed under the influence of a controlled substance, the court, Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services, Department of Corrections, or Parole and Probation Commission, whichever has jurisdiction over that person may, in its discretion require the person charged or convicted to participate in a drug rehabilitation program licensed by the department under the provisions of this chapter. If referred by the court, said referral may be in lieu of, or in addition to, final adjudication, imposition of any penalty or sentence, or any other similar action. If the accused so desires final adjudication, his constitutional right to trial shall not be denied. The court may consult with or seek the assistance of any agency, public or private, or any person concerning such a referral. Assignment to a drug program may be contingent upon budgetary considerations and availability of space.

(1) The order of referral of any person under the provisions of s. 397.12 shall be in writing and shall be signed by the referral source. The order shall specify the name and address of the drug rehabilitation program to which the person is referred, the date upon which the person's participation in the program shall commence, and the maximum length of time the person may be required to participate in the program. In no event shall the total time of the penalty, probation, and program participation exceed the maximum length of sentence possible for the offense of which the person is charged or convicted.

(2) One copy of the order of referral shall be sent by registered mail to both the department and to the drug rehabilitation program director.

History.—s. 4, ch. 73-350; s. 2, ch. 74-340.

397.14 Attendance records; notification to the referral source.—Each drug rehabilitation program to which a person is referred under the provisions of ss. 397.10-397.20 shall keep an accurate daily record of attendance of those persons referred. If any referred person does not attend in any 3 or more consecutive days, the program director shall immediately notify the source which referred such person.

History.—s. 5, ch. 73-350; s. 2, ch. 74-340.

397.15 Refusal to admit.—The director of any drug rehabilitation program licensed under the provisions of this chapter may refuse to admit any person referred to the program under the provisions of ss. 397.10-397.20. Refusal to admit shall be communicated immediately and in writing to the source proposing such referral.

History.—s. 6, ch. 73-350; s. 2, ch. 74-340.

397.16 Expulsion from program.—The director of any drug rehabilitation program may expel any person referred to the program under the provisions of ss. 397.10-397.20 when, in the judgment of the director, the person is not cooperative with the program. The expulsion of any such person shall be communicated immediately in writing to the source which referred the person expelled. If referred by the court, the court shall reassess and determine the appropriate sentence or adjudication.

History.—s. 7, ch. 73-350; s. 2, ch. 74-340.

397.17 Successful completion of program.—When any person successfully completes a drug rehabilitation program to which he was referred under the provisions of ss. 397.10-397.20, such completion may be satisfaction in full of all penalties for violation of the law regarding which he was charged or convicted.

History.—s. 8, ch. 73-350.

397.18 Method of payment.—The Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services shall maintain a separate account for the purpose of reimbursing drug rehabilitation programs for expenses of treating persons referred to the program under the provisions of ss. 397.10-397.20. The provisions of s. 216.292 to the contrary notwithstanding, funds appropriated shall be spent only for the purposes of ss. 397.10-397.20. All payments shall be contingent on the availability of funds.

History.—s. 9, ch. 73-350; s. 2, ch. 74-340.

397.19 Requirements of participation in fund.—In order to receive funds from the Drug Abuse Trust Fund, the drug rehabilitation program shall correctly and properly submit the daily attendance records for each month for each referred person to the department not later than the fifteenth day of the succeeding month. The program director shall review all daily attendance records, and shall certify the accuracy of the records with his notarized signature.

History.—s. 10, ch. 73-350.

397.20 Reimbursement schedule.—Every drug rehabilitation program participating under the provisions of ss. 397.10-397.20 shall be reimbursed for the expense of participation of referred persons in their programs in the following manner:

(1) If the program is classified as a residential rehabilitation center pursuant to s. 397.021(3)(a)1., the program shall receive from the drug abuse program the amount of $5 per day for each person referred. Payment for treatment shall be reimbursable for 90 days, and may be granted for an additional 90 days upon the written recommendation of the treatment director and approval of the referral source.

(2) If the program is classified as a nonresidential day care center pursuant to s. 397.021(3)(a)2., the program shall receive from the drug abuse program $2 per day for each person referred. Payment for treatment shall be reimbursable for 90 days, and may be granted for an additional 90 days upon the written recommendation of the treatment director and approval of the referral source.

History.—s. 11, ch. 73-350; s. 1, ch. 74-340; s. 1, ch. 77-174.

(1) The term "division" shall mean the Division of Hotels and Restaurants of the Department of Business Regulation.

(2) The term "elevator" shall mean all machinery, construction, apparatus, and equipment used in raising and lowering a car, cage, or platform vertically between permanent rails or guides, and shall include all elevators, power dumbwaiters, escalators, gravity elevators, moving walks, endless belt man lifts, powered lifts for sewage pump stations and other lifting or lowering apparatus permanently installed between rails or guides, but shall not include hand operated dumbwaiters, construction hoists, or other similar temporary lifting or lowering apparatus, provided that the provisions of this chapter shall not be applicable to elevators, dumbwaiters, escalators, gravity elevators, or other lifting apparatus or device installed and operating in private residences while such premises are used solely as private residences.

(3) The term "inspector" shall mean an inspector qualified by the division to inspect elevators and lifting apparatus in the state.

(4) The term "alteration" of an elevator shall mean a change in the use, classification, operation, control, motor, brake, character of power supply, capacity, dead weight of car or counterweights, car travel, speed, sizes or number of hoists or counterweight ropes, guide rails, car or counterweight safety devices, or safety governors, application for which is filed with the division under the provisions of this chapter.

(5) The term "existing installation" of an elevator shall mean an installation before July 1, 1971.

(6) The term "new installation" of an elevator, shall mean a complete elevator, dumbwaiter, escalator, or special equipment installation, the application for which is filed with the division after July 1, 1971.

399.02 General requirements.—

(1) The requirements of this chapter shall apply to all installations of elevators, as defined, as hereinafter specified.

(2) The division shall adopt an elevator safety code the same as or similar to the latest revision of the "American Standard Safety Code for Elevators, Dumbwaiters and Escalators," which is hereinafter referred to as the "Elevator Safety Code."

(3) The division only shall have the power to grant exceptions or permit the uses of other devices or methods as may be provided by the Elevator Safety Code.

(4) All new and existing elevators shall have a serial number assigned by the division painted on or attached to the elevator car in plain view and also to the driving mechanism. This serial number shall be shown on all required certificates.

(5)(a) A permit shall be obtained from the Division of Hotels and Restaurants before erecting or constructing new elevators, moving such apparatus from one hoistway to another, or before making alterations to existing equipment.

(b) The contractor, company, or individual employed to do the work, shall submit an application for a permit accompanied by specifications and drawings showing the proposed construction, hoistway and elevator construction, and mode of operation in such form as the division may prescribe.

(6)(a) The manufacturer, constructor, or contractor of the elevator, dumbwaiter, escalator, moving walk, endless belt man lift, or powered lift for sewage pump station shall be responsible for failure of the equipment or of any part thereof until the elevator has been approved by the division and put in service. The manufacturer, constructor, or contractor shall be responsible for all tests of new and altered equipment until the installation has been approved by the division.

(b) The owner or his duly appointed agent shall be responsible for the safe operation and proper maintenance of the elevator, dumbwaiter, escalator, moving walk, endless belt man lift, or powered lift for sewage pump station after it has been approved by the division and placed in service. The owner or his agent shall make periodic inspections, maintain in proper working order all parts of the elevator installation, and make and be responsible for all tests and inspections which the division may require. However, if the responsibilities referred to above are specifically transferred by the terms of a lease, the responsibilities of the owner of the equipment may be assigned to a tenant or lessee who is the user of the equipment.

History.—s. 2, ch. 24096, 1947; s. 2, ch. 57-227; ss. 16, 35, ch. 69-106; ss. 2-4, ch. 71-228; s. 1, ch. 74-17; s. 4, ch. 77-109; s. 3, ch. 78-235.

(1) All new elevators, dumbwaiters, and escalators shall be designed and installed in accordance with the requirements of the Elevator Safety Code.

(2) All alterations to, and relocations of, elevators, dumbwaiters, and escalators, installed after the adoption of this act, shall meet the requirements of the Elevator Safety Code.

(3) Elevators, dumbwaiters and escalators installed before July 1, 1971, may be used without being rebuilt to comply with the requirements of the Elevator Safety Code; provided, however, all such elevators shall be maintained in a safe operating condition and shall be subject to inspections and tests required by s. 399.08.

(4) Elevators, dumbwaiters and escalators, moved from one shaft or location to another, shall conform to the requirements of the Elevator Safety Code.

(5)(a) Existing installations may be altered to obtain the advantage of any provisions of the Elevator Safety Code, provided the safety requirements covering such provisions are met.

(b) Where alterations are made to existing installations, any part of the installation which is directly affected as to safety, due to the alteration, shall comply with the requirements of the Elevator Safety Code, subject also to the following subsections.

(6) Where an increase is made in the contract load, the installation shall meet the requirements of the Elevator Safety Code for car and counterweight safeties, interlocks, and terminal stopping devices.

(7) Where an increase is made in the contract speed, the installation shall meet the requirements of the Elevator Safety Code for car and counterweight safeties, buffers, speed governor, interlocks, and terminal stopping devices.

(8) Where any change is made in the method of operation, or type of control, the installation shall meet the requirements of the Elevator Safety Code for interlocks and terminal stopping devices.

(9) Where any change is made in the classification, the installation shall meet all of the requirements of the Elevator Safety Code.

(10)(a) Damaged or defective parts shall be wholly or partially replaced at the discretion of the division; broken parts subject to bending, tension, or torsional stresses, and parts upon which the support of the car depends, shall not be welded.

(b) Ordinary repairs or replacement on existing installations may be made with parts equivalent in material, strength and design to those replaced. Such repairs and replacements need not conform to the requirements of this chapter.

History.—s. 3, ch. 24096, 1947; s. 3, ch. 57-227; ss. 16, 35, ch. 69-106; ss. 5, 6, ch. 71-228.

399.035 Passenger elevator accessibility requirements for the physically handicapped.—

(1) Passenger elevators in buildings on which construction is begun after October 1, 1978, shall be made accessible to physically handicapped persons in accordance with the standard "Suggested Minimum Passenger Elevator Requirements for the Handicapped" of the National Elevator Industry,

Inc. (July 1976 edition, as revised May 1977), with the following exceptions:

(a) Floor level numbers or letters, essential control designation symbols, and communication system identification markings on the inside control panel of the elevator car shall be raised a minimum of .025 inch, and a Braille symbol which is raised a minimum of .025 inch shall be placed directly adjacent to each such control marking and at a minimum of 15 inches in height. No control marking may be recessed.

(b) In a building having one or more passenger elevators which do not provide access to every floor level, every pair of passenger elevator hallway call buttons in the building shall be marked with Arabic and Braille symbols which indicate floor levels to which access is provided. Such symbols shall be placed directly above each pair of call buttons. In all other buildings, hallway call buttons need not be marked with Arabic or Braille symbols.

(c) Door jamb markings shall be a minimum of 2 inches high and raised a minimum of .025 inch.

(d) Each elevator shall have a handrail on one wall, preferably the rear wall. The rail shall be smooth with no sharp edges and shall not be more than 1½ inches wide. Its minimum length shall be 1 inch less than the width of the car wall. The inside surface of the rail shall be 1½ inches clear of the car wall. The distance from the top of the rail to the car floor shall be at least 31 inches and not more than 33 inches. Padded or tufted material or decorative materials such as wallpaper, vinyl, cloth, or the like shall not be used on handrails.

(e) Each passenger elevator in a building covered by this section shall be available for the use at all times by authorized persons to assist the physically handicapped in the event of emergency evacuation. All the requirements of rules 211.3 and 211.4 of the American National Standards Institute standard ANSI 17.1b-1973 shall be complied with to meet the requirements of this paragraph.

(f) Any building more than three stories high shall contain at least one conveniently located passenger elevator which will accommodate an ambulance stretcher 76 inches long and 24 inches wide in the horizontal position.

(g) The exception provided in the "Suggested Minimum Passenger Elevator Requirements for the Handicapped" in paragraph 6 of the standard for elevators in schools, institutions, or other buildings specifically authorized by local authorities is not applicable in this state.

(2) This section supersedes all other state laws and regulations and local ordinances and regulations affecting the accessibility of passenger elevators to the physically handicapped, and the standards established by this section may not be modified by municipal or county ordinance.

History.—s. 1, ch. 78-235.

(1) To carry out the provisions and the intent and purpose of this chapter, the division is authorized, and its duty shall be, to appoint and fix salaries of the necessary state elevator inspectors on a merit basis, and may delegate to such inspectors such powers and authority as may be necessary to enable them to effectively discharge their duties, provided, however, that no person shall be appointed to such position unless he has had 7½ years practical experience in the construction, installation, or inspection of elevators.

(2)(a) No other person shall be authorized to act as an inspector of elevators, unless he holds a current certificate of competency from the division as provided in this section.

(b) Initial application for a certificate of competency shall be in writing, stating school education of applicant, employment history, and present employer, and shall be accompanied by a fee of $10. Except as otherwise provided in this section, the eligibility of applicants for a certificate of competency shall be determined by written and practical examinations, such examinations to be given under the supervision of the division. The examinations shall cover the construction, installation, operation, maintenance, and repair of elevators and their appurtenances.

(c) Each certificate of competency shall be issued for a calendar year and shall expire at the end of the year unless renewed by the division. Each application for annual renewal of a certificate of competency shall be accompanied by a renewal fee of $5.

(3) Certificates of competency shall be issued to applicants who have successfully completed examinations for inspector, and any certificate holder may make inspections required by s. 399.05, when employed by the division, or an insurance company, in accordance with regulations of the division.

(4) Certificates of competency may be revoked by the division for cause.

History.—s. 4, ch. 24096, 1947; s. 11, ch. 25035, 1949; s. 4, ch. 57-227; ss. 1, 2, ch. 61-194; s. 1, ch. 65-421; ss. 16, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 7, ch. 71-228; s. 9, ch. 78-95.

399.05 Permit to erect; fees; inspection and tests of new, moved, or altered installations.—

(1)(a) Before any permanent elevator shall be erected, removed to a different location, or whenever any changes or repairs are made which alter its construction or the classification, grade or rated lifting capacity thereof, detailed plans and specifications of the said apparatus, in duplicate, shall be submitted to the division for approval, the permit fee required under paragraph (b) shall be paid, and a permit obtained from the division for such work. Where plans and specifications are submitted to, and approved by the division, a permit for the erection or other work shall be issued upon payment of the permit fee required by paragraph (b). A final inspection shall be made of the apparatus when installed or repairs completed, before final approval shall be given by the division. The elevator shall not be operated until such final inspection and approval be given, unless a temporary permit be granted by the said division.

(b) Each applicant for a permit from the division pursuant to paragraph (a) shall pay the division a fee which shall be deposited in the Hotel and Restaurant Trust Fund, established under s. 509.072, and which shall be based on the cost of the installation. Fees shall be set by rule by the division and shall not exceed $50.

(2) The operation or use of any new, altered, or moved elevator is prohibited until such equipment has passed tests and inspection as required by this section and a certificate to this effect has been issued in accordance with s. 399.07.

(3) The person or firm installing, moving, or altering elevators shall notify the division in writing, at least 7 days before completion of the work and shall, in the presence of a representative of the division, subject the new, moved, or altered portions of the equipment to tests required to show that such equipment meets the requirements of this chapter.

399.06 Registering of existing installations, reports of inspectors; annual license fees.—

(1) Every inspector shall forward to the division a full report of each inspection made of any elevator, as required to be made by him under the provisions of s. 399.05, showing the exact condition of the said elevator. If this report indicates that the said elevator is in a safe condition to be operated, the division shall issue a certificate of operation for a capacity not to exceed that named in the said report of inspection, which certificate shall be valid for 1 year after the date of inspection unless the certificate is suspended or revoked by the division. No elevator may lawfully be operated on or after January 1, 1948, without having such a certificate conspicuously posted thereon; where there is an elevator cab it shall be posted conspicuously therein.

(2) If any elevator be found which, in the judgment of an inspector, is dangerous to life and property, or is being operated without the operating certificate required by s. 399.07, such inspector may require the owner or user of such elevator to discontinue its operation, and the inspector shall place a notice to that effect conspicuously on or in such elevator. Such notice shall designate and describe the alteration or other change necessary to be made in order to insure safety of operation, date of inspection, and time allowed for such alteration or change. Such inspector shall immediately report all facts in connection with such elevator to the division. In the event a certificate has been issued for such elevator, the said certificate shall be suspended and not renewed until such elevator has been placed in safe condition. In such case, where an elevator has been placed out of service, the owner or user of such elevator shall not again operate the same until repairs have been made and authority given by the division to resume operation of the said elevator.

(3) The owner or user of every elevator, escalator, dumbwaiter, moving walk, endless walk, endless belt man lift, or powered lift for sewage pump station subject to this chapter shall pay to the division an annual license or inspection fee, which will be deposited in the Hotel and Restaurant Trust Fund, as established under s. 509.072, as a prerequisite to issuance of a certificate of operation pursuant to subsection (1) and which shall be based upon the type of installation and the number of floors served thereby. Fees shall be set by rule by the division and shall not exceed $50.

ch. 79-164; s. 2, ch. 79-342.

399.07 Certificates.—

(1) A certificate shall be issued by the division where inspections and tests as required by s. 399.05 show that elevators are installed in accordance with the requirements of this chapter.

(2) Certificates shall be printed on a 6-inch wide by 9-inch high card and suitably framed in metal with a glass cover.

(3) Certificates shall show the serial number of the elevator for which it is issued, as required in subsection (4) of s. 399.02.

(4) The required certificate shall be posted in a conspicuous location in the elevator car, and on, near, or plainly visible from the dumbwaiter, escalator, amusement device, or special equipment.

(5) The division may permit the temporary use of any elevator, dumbwaiter, or escalator, for passenger or freight service during the installation or alteration, under the authority of a limited certificate, issued by it for each class of service. Such limited certificate shall not be issued until the elevator shall have been tested under contract load, the hoistway is fully enclosed, the hoistway doors and interlocks are installed, the car is completely enclosed, including door or gate and top, all electrical safety devices are installed and properly functioning, and terminal stopping equipment is in place for a safe runby and proper clearance. When cars are provided with temporary enclosures, the operating means shall be by constant pressure push button or lever type switch. The car speed shall not exceed 150 feet per minute. The governor tripping speed shall not exceed 175 feet per minute.

(6) Limited certificates shall be issued for a period not to exceed 30 days. Such certificates may be renewed at the discretion of the division.

(7) Where a limited certificate is issued, a notice bearing the information that the equipment has not been finally approved shall be conspicuously posted on, near, or visible from each entrance to such elevator, dumbwaiter or escalator.

(8) The required certificate shall contain a provision informing any person who enters the elevator that it is unlawful to smoke or ignite any substance when said elevator is in operation and shall further indicate the penalty for violation of said law. This subsection shall only apply to certificates issued after October 1, 1974.

History.—s. 7, ch. 24096, 1947; s. 11, ch. 25035, 1949; ss. 16, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 11, ch. 71-228; s. 2, ch. 74-115.
cf.—s. 823.12 Smoking in elevators unlawful.

399.08 Routine inspections, tests, and maintenance.—

(1) Elevators as defined under s. 399.01 shall be inspected by an inspector at least once each calendar year.

(2) Whenever the division shall, from inspection of any elevator, determine that in the interest of the public safety such elevator or any part or appliance thereof, is out of order and in an unsafe condition contrary to the requirements of this chapter the division shall have the power to order the discontinuance of the use of any such elevator and to compel the person, firm, or corporation having control or possession or use thereof to discontinue such use until such elevator or part or appliance thereof, has been satisfactorily repaired or replaced so that the said elevator is in a safe and proper condition as required by this chapter.

(3) The division shall certify the inspection of each elevator which, after inspection, is judged to be in conformity with the requirements of this chapter. This certification shall be in the form of an endorsement of the certificate required in s. 399.07, and shall include the date of the inspection and the name of the inspector.

(4) When an elevator service contract or public liability insurance policy is maintained for an elevator, the division may accept, in lieu of the inspection provided for in this section, an annual elevator inspection report made pursuant to such service contract or public liability insurance policy for said elevator. The division shall make such regulations as it deems appropriate to assure the adequacy of such inspection.

History.—s. 8, ch. 24096, 1947; ss. 16, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 11, ch. 71-157; s. 12, ch. 71-228.

399.10 Enforcement of law.—It shall be the duty of the division to enforce the provisions of this chapter.

History.—s. 10, ch. 24096, 1947; ss. 16, 35, ch. 69-106.

399.11 Penalties.—

(1) Whoever violates any of the provisions of this chapter, or the rules and regulations of the division, as herein provided for, or who shall fail or neglect to pay the fees herein provided for, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

(2) Whoever continues to operate his elevator or other lifting or lowering apparatus, after notice to discontinue its use as set forth in subsection (2) of s. 399.06, shall be likewise fined $25 for each day the said elevator or lifting or lowering apparatus has been operated after the service of the said notice, in addition to the fines above set forth.

(3) All fines collected under this chapter shall be forwarded to the division, which shall pay the same into the State Treasury to the credit of the division.

(4) Whoever commences the erection, removal to a different location, or alteration of any elevator for which a permit is required by s. 399.05 of this chapter without having obtained from the division a permit therefor shall pay to the division a civil penalty of $50 in addition to the fee specified for such permit.

History.—s. 11, ch. 24096, 1947; s. 10, ch. 26484, 1951; s. 4, ch. 65-421; ss. 16, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 346, ch. 71-136.

399.12 Construction of law.—Nothing contained in this chapter shall be construed to prevent the inspection of elevators by dealers in elevators or elevator equipment, or inspectors for insurance companies, but such inspection shall not be in lieu of the state inspection, as provided in this chapter, unless such inspector shall have qualified with the division as herein provided.

399.13 Municipalities or counties, cooperation with.—The division may enter into cooperative agreements with municipalities or counties which maintain their own elevator inspection departments whereby such municipalities or counties may issue permits for the erection, alteration or repair of elevators and may provide the regular inspection of elevators as contemplated by this chapter. Each such agreement shall include provision that the municipality or county shall furnish promptly to the division a copy of each permit issued by it for erection, alteration, or repair of an elevator and a copy of each final inspection report made after completion of such erection, alteration, or repair; and may include such provisions as the division deems necessary for the efficient and proper administration of this chapter. The division may make inspections of elevators in such municipalities or counties for the purpose of determining that the provisions of this chapter are being met; and may cancel its agreement with any municipality or county which it finds has failed to comply substantially with such agreement and the provisions of this chapter.

400.011 Purpose.—The purpose of this chapter is to provide for the development, establishment, and enforcement of basic standards for the health, care, and treatment of persons in nursing homes and related health care facilities, and for the construction, maintenance, and operation of such institutions which will insure safe and adequate care, treatment, and health of persons in such facilities.

History.—s. 1, ch. 69-309; s. 1, ch. 70-361; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

400.021 Definitions.—When used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Department" means the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services.

(2) "Administrator" means the licensed individual who has the general administrative charge of a facility.

(3) "Manager" or "supervisor" means the individual in charge of homes for aged, homes for special services, and related health care facility homes.

(4) "Facility" means any institution, building, residence, private home, or other place, whether operated for profit or not, including those places operated by a county or municipality, which undertakes through its ownership or management to provide for a period exceeding 24-hour nursing care, personal care, or custodial care for 3 or more persons not related to the owner or manager by blood or marriage, who by reason of illness, physical infirmity, or advanced age require such services, but shall not include any place providing care and treatment primarily for the acutely ill. A facility offering services for less than 3 persons shall be within the meaning of this definition if it holds itself out to the public to be an establishment which regularly provides such services.

(5) "Nursing home facility" means any facility which provides nursing services as defined in chapter 464 and is licensed according to this chapter.

(6) "Home for special services" means a related health care facility which provides specialized health care services, including personal and custodial care, but not continuous nursing services.

(7) "Related health care facility home" means a facility for the aged, home for special services, or other home as defined in rules and regulations of the department.

(8) "Nursing service" means such services or acts as may be rendered, directly or indirectly, to and in behalf of a person by individuals as defined in s. 464.021.

(9) "Custodial service" means care for a person which entails observation of diet and sleeping habits and maintenance of a watchfulness over the general health, safety, and well-being of the aged or infirm.

(10) "Existing facilities" means those licensed facilities which were in operation, or those proposed facilities which began construction or renovation of a building under final plans approved by the department, for the purpose of operating such facilities prior to July 7, 1970.

(11) "New facility" means those facilities which were constructed or renovated for the purpose of operating an institution according to architectural plans approved by the department subsequent to July 7, 1970.

History.—s. 2, ch. 69-309; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 2, ch. 70-361; s. 1, ch. 70-439; ss. 21, 25, ch. 75-233; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 234, ch. 77-147; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

§ 400.022 Patients' rights.—

(1) All nursing home facilities shall adopt and make public a statement of the rights and responsibilities of the patients residing in such facilities and shall treat such patients in accordance with the provisions of said statement. The statement shall insure each patient the following:

(a) The right to civil and religious liberties, including knowledge of available choices and the right to independent personal decision, which will not be infringed upon, and the right to encouragement and assistance from the staff of the facility in the fullest possible exercise of these rights.

(b) The right to have private communications with any person of his or her choice.

(c) The right to present grievances on behalf of himself, herself, or others to the facility's staff or administrator, to governmental officials, or to any other person, without fear of reprisal, and to join with other patients or individuals within or outside of the facility to work for improvements in patient care.

<sup>2</sup>(d) The right to manage his or her own financial affairs or to delegate such responsibility to the facility, but only to the extent of the funds held in trust by the facility for the patient. A quarterly accounting of any transactions made on behalf of the patient shall be furnished to the patient or the person responsible for the patient.

(e) The right to be fully informed, in writing, prior to or at the time of admission and during his or her stay, of services not covered under Title XVIII or Title XIX of the Social Security Act or not covered by the basic per diem rates.

(f) The right to be adequately informed of his or her medical condition and proposed treatment, unless otherwise indicated by his or her physician, and to participate in the planning of all medical treatment, including the right to refuse medication and treatment, unless otherwise indicated by his or her physician, and to know the consequences of such actions.

(g) The right to receive adequate and appropriate health care consistent with established and recognized practice standards within the community and with rules as promulgated by the department.

(h) The right to have privacy in treatment and in caring for personal needs, confidentiality in the treatment of personal and medical records, and security in storing and using personal possessions.

(i) The right to be treated courteously, fairly, and with the fullest measure of dignity and to receive a written statement of the services provided by the facility, including those required to be offered on an as-needed basis.

(j) The right to be free from mental and physical abuse and from physical and chemical restraints, except those restraints authorized in writing by a physician for a specified and limited period of time or as are necessitated by an emergency. In case of an emergency, restraint may only be applied by a qualified licensed nurse who shall set forth in writing the circumstances requiring the use of restraint, and, in the case of use of a chemical restraint, a physician shall be consulted immediately thereafter.

(k) The right to be transferred, reclassified, or discharged only for medical reasons, for the welfare of other patients, or for nonpayment for his or her stay and the right to be given reasonable advance notice of any transfer or discharge, except in the case of an emergency as determined by a licensed professional on the staff of the nursing home.

(l) The right to freedom of choice in selecting a health care facility.

(m) The right to have copies of the facility's rules and regulations and an explanation of his or her responsibility to obey all reasonable rules and regulations of the facility and to respect the personal rights and private property of the other patients.

(2) Each nursing home shall provide a copy of the statement required by subsection (1) to each patient or his or her guardian at or before the patient's admission to a facility and to each staff member of a facility. Each such facility shall prepare a written plan and provide appropriate staff training to implement the provisions of this section.

(3) Any violation of the patient's rights set forth in this section shall constitute grounds for action by the department under the provisions of s. 400.102.

<sup>2</sup>Note.—Section 9, ch. 79-268, provides that, if part I of ch. 400 is repealed in accordance with the intent expressed in the Regulatory Reform Act of 1976, as amended by ch. 77-457, or as subsequently amended, it is the intent of the Legislature that ch. 79-268 shall also be repealed on the same date as is therein provided.

400.041 Nursing facilities; categories for licensing.—For the administration of this chapter, facilities shall be licensed in the following categories.

(1) Nursing home.

(2) Home for special service.

(3) Such other health-related categories as may be defined by rules and regulations issued by the department.

History.—s. 3, ch. 69-309; s. 3, ch. 70-361; s. 21, ch. 75-233; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

400.051 Homes or institutions exempt from the provisions of this chapter.—

(1) The following shall be exempt from the provisions of this chapter:

(a) Any facility, institution, or other place operated by the Federal Government or agency thereof.

(b) Any institution which offers its services primarily for medical treatment or surgery and is licensed by the state.

(2) Any facility or institution operated only for persons who rely exclusively upon treatment by prayer or spiritual means, in accordance with the creed or tenets of any organized church or religious denomination, shall be exempt only from any requirement of this chapter or rule and regulation adopted pursuant thereto requiring medical examinations or medical treatment of residents or patients therein.

History.—s. 4, ch. 69-309; s. 4, ch. 70-361; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

400.062 License required; fee; disposition; display, etc.—

(1) It is unlawful to operate or maintain a facility without first obtaining from the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services a license authorizing such operation.

(2) Separate licenses shall be required for facilities maintained in separate premises, even though operated under the same management. However, a separate license shall not be required for separate buildings on the same grounds.

(3) The annual license fee required of a facility licensed by this chapter shall be at the rate of $2 per bed. The minimum license fee hereunder shall be $26, and the maximum fee shall be $300, no part of which shall be returned. The annual license fee shall be comprised of two parts. Part I of the license fee shall be the basic license fee, which shall not exceed $75 per facility. Part II shall be the patient protection fee, which shall not exceed $225 per facility. Funds generated by license fees collected in accordance with this section shall be divided between both parts in the following manner:

(a) To a maximum of $75, half of the fee collected from any facility shall be a basic license fee and shall be deposited in the General Revenue Fund.

(b) A maximum of $225 generated from fees collected hereunder shall be deposited in the Patient Protection Trust Fund that shall be established by the Department of Administration. Funds so deposited shall be appropriated in a grants-in-aid category and directed to the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services specifically to pay, in accordance with the provisions of s. 400.063, for the appropriate alternate placement, care, and treatment of a patient removed from a nursing home facility on a temporary, emergency basis.

(4) Counties or municipalities applying for licenses under this chapter shall be exempt from the payment of license fees provided herein.

(5) The license shall be displayed in a conspicuous place inside the facility.

(6) A license shall be valid only in the hands of the individual, firm, partnership, association, or corporation to whom it is issued, and shall not be subject to sale, assignment or other transfer, voluntary or involuntary, nor shall a license be valid for any premises other than those for which originally issued.

History.—s. 5, ch. 70-361; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 235, ch. 77-147; s. 1, ch. 77-457; ss. 2, 9, ch. 79-268.

Note.—Section 9, ch. 79-268, provides that, if part I of ch. 400 is repealed in accordance with the intent expressed in the Regulatory Reform Act of 1976, as amended by ch. 77-457, or as subsequently amended, it is the intent of the Legislature that ch. 79-268 shall also be repealed on the same date as is therein provided.

400.063 Patient Protection Trust Fund.—

(1) The Department of Administration shall establish a Patient Protection Trust Fund for the purpose of collecting and disbursing funds generated from the license fees as provided for in s. 400.062(3)(b). Such funds shall be directed to the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services to pay for the appropriate alternate placement, care, and treatment of patients who are removed from a nursing home facility in which the department determines that existing conditions or practices constitute an immediate danger to the health, safety, or security of the nursing home patients.

(2) Any patient receiving care and treatment in an appropriate alternate placement as provided for in this section shall be returned to the facility from which he was removed, and funds expended on his behalf as provided for in this section shall be terminated within 2 days after the department certifies that the condition or conditions requiring the patient's removal have been corrected and that the necessary relicensure or recertification has been accomplished.

(3) Funds authorized under this section shall be expended on behalf of all patients transferred to an alternate placement, at the usual and customary charges of the facility used for the alternate placement, provided that no other source of private or public funding is available, and the state shall only be liable for the cost of such alternate placement to the extent that funds are available in the Patient Protection Trust Fund. However, such funds shall not be expended on behalf of a patient who is eligible for Title XIX of the Social Security Act, if the alternate placement accepts Title XIX of the Social Security Act.

(4) The department is authorized to promulgate rules necessary to implement the provisions of this section.

(5) If part I of this chapter is repealed in accordance with the intent expressed in the Regulatory Reform Act of 1976, as amended by chapter 77-457, Laws of Florida, or as subsequently amended, it is the intent of the Legislature that this section shall also be repealed on the same date as is therein provided.

History.—ss. 3, 9, ch. 79-268.

Note.—See ch. 79-190, which transferred many powers and duties of the Department of Administration elsewhere.

† 400.071 Application for license.—

(1) Application for license as required by s. 400.062 shall be made to the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services on forms furnished by it, and shall be accompanied by the appropriate license fee.

(2) The application shall be under oath and shall contain the following:

(a) The name and address of the applicant if an individual; if the applicant is a firm, partnership, or association, the name and address of every member thereof; if the applicant is a corporation, its name and address and the name and address of its director and officers and of each person having at least a 10 percent interest in the corporation; and the name by which the facility is to be known.

(b) The name of any person whose name is required on the application under the provisions of paragraph (a) and who owns at least a 10 percent interest in any professional service, firm, association, partnership, or corporation providing goods, leases, or services to the facility for which the application is made, and the name and address of the professional service, firm, association, partnership, or corporation in which such interest is held.

(c) The location of the facility for which a license is sought and an indication, as in the original application, that such location conforms to the local zoning ordinances.

(d) The name of the person or persons under whose management or supervision the facility will be conducted and the name of its licensed administrator.

(e) The number and type of residents for which maintenance, care, or nursing is to be provided.

(f) Information relating to the number, experience, and training of the employees of the facility and of the moral character of the applicant and employees which the department requires by regulation.

(3) The applicant shall submit evidence which establishes the good moral character of the applicant, manager, supervisor, and administrator.

(4) The applicant shall furnish satisfactory proof of financial ability to operate and conduct the home in accordance with the requirements of this chapter and all rules and regulations promulgated hereunder.

(5) If the applicant offers continuing-care agreements as defined in chapter 651, proof shall be furnished that such applicant has obtained a certificate of authority as required for operation under that chapter. This provision shall not apply prior to 12 months from the date of the adoption of the rules by the Department of Insurance as contemplated by s. 651.101.

as defined in chapter 651, must agree to accept recipients of Title XIX of the Social Security Act on a temporary, emergency basis. The persons who the department may require such facilities to accept are those recipients of Title XIX of the Social Security Act who are residing in a facility in which existing conditions constitute an immediate danger to the health, safety, or security of the nursing home facility's patients.

History.—s. 6, ch. 69-309; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; ss. 5, 6, ch. 70-361; s. 1, ch. 70-439; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 2, ch. 76-201; s. 236, ch. 77-147; s. 2, ch. 77-323; s. 1, ch. 77-457; ss. 4, 9, ch. 79-268.

Note.—Section 9, ch. 79-268, provides that, if part I of ch. 400 is repealed in accordance with the intent expressed in the Regulatory Reform Act of 1976, as amended by ch. 77-457, or as subsequently amended, it is the intent of the Legislature that ch. 79-268 shall also be repealed on the same date as is therein provided.

cf.—s. 395.045 Minimum standards for clinical laboratory test results and diagnostic X rays.

† 400.102 Action by department against facility; grounds.—

(1) Any of the following conditions shall be grounds for action by the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services against a facility:

(a) An intentional or negligent act materially affecting the health or safety of residents of the facility;

(b) Misappropriation or conversion of the property of a resident of the facility;

(c) Violation of provisions of this chapter or of minimum standards, rules, or regulations promulgated pursuant thereto; and

(d) Any act constituting a ground upon which application for a license may be denied.

(2) If the department has reasonable belief that any of the said conditions exist, it shall take the following action:

(a) In the case of an applicant for original licensure, denial action as provided in s. 400.121;

(b) In the case of an applicant for relicensure or a current licensee, administrative action as provided in s. 400.121, or injunctive action as authorized by s. 400.125; and

(c) In the case of a facility operating without a license, injunctive action as authorized in s. 400.125.

History.—s. 8, ch. 70-361; s. 1, ch. 70-439; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 237, ch. 77-147; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

† 400.111 Expiration of license; renewal.—

<sup>2</sup>(1) Licenses issued for the operation of a facility, unless sooner suspended or revoked, shall expire 1 year from the date of issuance. Sixty days prior to the expiration date, an application for renewal shall be submitted to the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services, and licenses shall be renewed upon the filing of an application on forms furnished by the department if the applicant has first met the requirements established under this chapter and all rules and regulations promulgated hereunder. New facilities which are in substantial compliance with this section and with the rules of the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services, but which have deficiencies, may be issued conditional licenses pending correction of deficiencies.

(2) Licensees against whom a revocation or suspension proceeding is pending at the time of license renewal may be issued a conditional license effective until final disposition by the department of such proceedings. If judicial relief is sought from the aforesaid administrative order, the court having jurisdiction may issue such orders regarding the issuance of a conditional permit during the pendency of the said judicial proceeding.

History.—s. 10, ch. 69-309; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 7, ch. 70-361; s. 1, ch. 70-439; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 238, ch. 77-147; s. 1, ch. 77-457; ss. 5, 9, ch. 79-268.

Note.—Section 9, ch. 79-268, provides that, if part I of ch. 400 is repealed in accordance with the intent expressed in the Regulatory Reform Act of 1976, as amended by ch. 77-457, or as subsequently amended, it is the intent of the Legislature that ch. 79-268 shall also be repealed on the same date as is therein provided.

(1) The Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services may deny, revoke, or suspend a license or impose an administrative fine, not to exceed $500 per violation per day, for a violation of any provision of s. 400.102 (1)(a), (b), or (d). All hearings shall be held within the county in which the licensee or applicant operates or applies for a license to operate a facility as defined herein.

(2) The department, as a part of any final order issued by it under the provisions of this chapter, may impose such fine as it deems proper, except that such fine shall not exceed $500 for each violation. Each day a violation of this chapter occurs shall constitute a separate violation and shall be subject to a separate fine, but in no event shall any fine aggregate more than $5,000. A fine may be levied pursuant to this section in lieu of and notwithstanding the provisions of s. 400.23.

(3) The department may issue an order immediately suspending or revoking a license when it determines that any condition in the facility presents a danger to the health, safety, or welfare of the patients in the facility.

(4) The department may impose an immediate moratorium on admissions to any facility when the department determines that any condition in the facility presents a threat to the health, safety, or welfare of the patients in the facility.

(1) The Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services may institute injunction proceedings in a court of competent jurisdiction to:

(a) Enforce the provisions of this chapter or any minimum standard, rule, regulation, or order issued or entered into pursuant thereto; or

(b) Terminate the operation of a home where any of the following exist:

1. Failure to take preventive or corrective measures in accordance with any order of the department.

2. Failure to abide by any final order of the department once it has become effective and binding.

3. Any violation as provided in s. 400.121 constituting an emergency requiring immediate action.

(2) Such injunctive relief may include temporary and permanent injunction.

§ 400.141 Administration and management of nursing facilities.—Every facility shall comply with all applicable standards, rules, and regulations of the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services and shall:

(1) Be under the administrative direction and charge of a licensed administrator, supervisor, or manager.

(2) Have available the regular, consultative, and emergency services of physicians licensed by the state.

(3) Provide for the access of its residents to dental and other health-related services, recreational services, rehabilitative services, and social-work services appropriate to their needs and conditions and not directly furnished by the facility. When a geriatric outpatient nurse clinic is conducted in accordance with rules adopted by the department, outpatients attending such a clinic shall not be counted as part of the nursing facility's general patient population, nor shall the nursing staff of the geriatric outpatient clinic be counted as part of the nursing staff of the facility, until the case load exceeds 15 a day.

(4) Maintain its premises and equipment and conduct its operations in a safe and sanitary manner.

(5) If the facility furnishes food service, provide a wholesome and nourishing diet sufficient to meet generally accepted standards of proper nutrition for its residents and provide such therapeutic diets as may be prescribed by attending physicians. In making rules and regulations to implement this subsection, the department shall be guided by standards recommended by nationally recognized professional groups and associations with knowledge of dietetics.

(6) Keep full records of resident admissions, discharges and medical and general health status, including medical records, personal and social history, and identity and address of next of kin or other persons who may have responsibility for the affairs of the residents. The records shall be open to inspection by the department.

(7) Keep such fiscal records of its operations and conditions as may be necessary to provide information pursuant to this chapter.

cf.—s. 395.20 Itemized patient bill; form and content to be prescribed by the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services.

(1) The presence of each resident in a facility shall be covered by a contract, executed at the time of admission or prior thereto by the facility and the resident or his designee or legal representative. Each party to the contract shall be entitled to a duplicate original thereof, and the facility shall keep on file all contracts which it has with residents. The facility shall not destroy or otherwise dispose of any such contract until 5 years after its expiration or such longer period as may be provided in the rules and regulations of the department.

(2) Each contract to which this section applies shall contain express provision specifically setting forth the services and accommodations to be provided by the facility, the rates or charges therefor, and any other matters which the parties deem appropriate.

(3) No contract or any provision thereof shall be construed to relieve any facility of any requirement or obligation imposed upon it by this chapter or standards, rules, or regulations in force pursuant thereto.

History.—s. 14, ch. 69-309; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 13, ch. 70-361; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

§400.162 Property and personal affairs of patients.—

(1) The admission of a resident to a facility and his presence therein shall not confer on the facility or its owner, administrator, manager, supervisor, employees, or representatives any authority to manage, use, or dispose of any property of the resident; nor shall such admission or presence confer on any of the aforementioned persons any authority or responsibility for the personal affairs of the resident, except what may be necessary for the safety and orderly management of the facility.

(2) No facility and no owner, administrator, manager, supervisor, employee, or representative thereof shall act as guardian, trustee, or conservator for any resident of the facility or any of such resident's property.

(3) A facility shall provide for the safekeeping of personal effects, funds, and other property of the resident in the facility. Whenever necessary for the protection of valuables, or in order to avoid unreasonable responsibility therefor, the facility may require that they be excluded or removed from the facility and kept at some place not subject to the control of the facility.

(4) A facility shall keep complete and accurate records of all funds and other effects and property of its residents received by it for safekeeping.

<sup>2</sup>(5) Any funds or other property belonging to or due to a resident or expendable for his account which are received by a facility shall be trust funds, shall be kept separate from the funds and property of the facility, and shall be used or otherwise expended only for the account of the resident. The facility shall post a surety bond with the clerk of the circuit court in the county in which the facility is located in an amount equal to twice the average monthly balance in the patient trust fund during the prior year or $5,000, whichever is greater. The bond shall be executed by the facility as principal and a surety company authorized and licensed to do business in the state as surety. The bond shall be conditioned upon the faithful compliance of the facility with the provisions of this section and shall run to the Governor for the benefit of any resident injured by the facility's violation of the provisions of this section. However, as an alternative to posting a surety bond, the facility may enter into a self-insurance agreement to pool its liability for patient trust funds with one or more other facilities in accordance with rules adopted by the department. Funds contained in the pool shall run to any resident suffering financial loss as a result of the facility's violation of the provisions of this section. Such funds shall be awarded to any resident in an amount equal to the amount that the resident can establish by affidavit or other adequate evidence was deposited in trust with the facility and which could not be paid to the resident within 30 days of the resident's request. The department shall promulgate rules with regard to the establishment, organization, and operation of such self-insurance pools. Such rules shall include, but shall not be limited to, requirements for monetary reserves to be maintained by such self-insurers to assure their financial solvency. Moneys or securities received as advance payment for care shall at no time exceed the cost of care for a 6-month period. At least every 3 months, the facility shall furnish the resident and the guardian, trustee, or conservator, if any, for the resident a complete and verified statement of all funds and other property to which this subsection applies, detailing the amounts and items received, together with their sources and disposition. In any event, the facility shall furnish such a statement annually and upon the discharge or transfer of a resident. Any governmental agency or private charitable agency contributing funds or other property on account of a resident also shall be entitled to receive such statement annually and upon discharge or transfer and such other report as it may require pursuant to law.

<sup>2</sup>(6) In the event of a patient's death, a facility shall place all trust funds of the patient in an interest-bearing account until such time as the trust funds are disbursed pursuant to the provisions of the Florida Probate Code. Such trust funds shall be kept separate from the funds and the property of the facility and from the funds and property of the residents of the facility. In the event the trust funds of the deceased patient are not disbursed pursuant to the provisions of the Florida Probate Code within 2 years of the patient's death, the trust funds shall be deposited in the Patient Protection Trust Fund and expended as provided for in s. 400.063.

Note.—Section 9, ch. 79-268, provides that, if part I of ch. 400 is repealed in accordance with the intent expressed in the Regulatory Reform Act of 1976, as amended by ch. 77-457, or as subsequently amended, it is the intent of the Legislature that ch. 79-268 shall also be repealed on the same date as is therein provided.

cf.—s. 395.20 Itemized patient bill.

§400.17 Bribes, kickbacks, etc., prohibited.—

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Kickback" means that part of the payment for items or services which is returned to the payor by the provider of such items or services with the intent or purpose to induce the payor to purchase the items or services from the provider.

(b) "Bribe" means any consideration corruptly given, received, promised, solicited, or offered to any individual with intent or purpose to influence the performance of any act or omission.

(2) Whoever furnishes items or services directly or indirectly to a nursing home patient and solicits, offers, or receives any:

(a) Kickback or bribe in connection with the furnishing of such items or services or the making or receipt of such payment; or shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, or by fine not exceeding $5,000, or both.

(b) Return of part of an amount given in payment for referring any such individual to another person for the furnishing of such items or services;

(3) No person shall, in connection with the solicitation of contributions to nursing homes, willfully misrepresent or mislead anyone, by any manner, means, practice, or device whatsoever, to believe that the receipts of such solicitation will be used for charitable purposes, if such is not the fact.

(4) Solicitation of contributions of any kind in a threatening, coercive, or unduly forceful manner by or on behalf of nursing homes by any agent, employee, owner, or representative of a nursing home shall be grounds for denial, suspension, or revocation of the license for any nursing home on behalf of which such contributions were solicited.

(5) The admission, maintenance, or treatment of a nursing home patient whose care is supported in whole or in part by state funds shall not be made conditional upon the receipt of any manner of contribution or donation from any person. However, this shall not be construed to prohibit the offer or receipt of contributions or donations to a nursing home which are not related to the care of a specific patient. Contributions solicited or received in violation of this subsection shall be grounds for denial, suspension, or revocation of a license for any nursing home on behalf of which such contributions were solicited.

400.176 Rebates prohibited; penalties.—

(1) It is unlawful for any person to pay or receive any commission, bonus, kickback, or rebate or engage in any split-fee arrangement in any form whatsoever with any physician, surgeon, organization, agency, or person, either directly or indirectly, for patients referred to a nursing home licensed under this chapter.

(2) The Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services shall adopt rules which assess administrative penalties for acts prohibited by subsection (1). In the case of an entity licensed by the department, such penalties may include any disciplinary action available to the department under the appropriate licensing laws. In the case of an entity not licensed by the department, such penalties may include:

(a) A fine not to exceed $1,000;

(b) If applicable, a recommendation by the department to the appropriate licensing board that disciplinary action be taken.

History.—s. 2, ch. 79-106.

400.18 Closing of nursing facility.—

(1) Whenever a facility voluntarily discontinues operation, and during the period when it is preparing for such discontinuance, it shall inform the department and the local health systems agency of the district wherein the facility is located within 90 days of the discontinuance of operation. The facility also shall inform the resident or the next of kin, legal representative, or agency acting on the resident's behalf of the fact, and the proposed time, of such discontinuance and give at least 90 days' notice so that suitable arrangements may be made for the transfer and care of the resident. In the event any resident has no such person to represent him, the facility shall be responsible for securing a suitable transfer of the resident prior to the discontinuance of operation. The department shall be responsible for arranging for the transfer of those patients requiring transfer who are receiving assistance under s. 409.266.

(2) A representative of the department shall be placed in a facility 30 days prior to the voluntary discontinuance of operation, or immediately upon notice from the department of involuntary discontinuance of operation of a facility to:

(a) Monitor the transfer of patients to other facilities.

(b) Insure that the rights of patients are protected.

(3) Immediately upon discontinuance of operation of a facility, the owner shall surrender the license therefor to the department, and the license shall be canceled.

History.—s. 17, ch. 69-309; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 15, ch. 70-361; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 4, ch. 76-201; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

400.19 Right of entry and inspection.—

(1) The department and any duly designated officer or employee thereof shall have the right to enter upon and into the premises of any facility licensed pursuant to this chapter at any reasonable time in order to determine the state of compliance with the provisions of this chapter and rules in force pursuant thereto. The right of entry and inspection shall also extend to any premises which the department has reason to believe is being operated or maintained as a facility without a license, but no such entry or inspection of any premises shall be made without the permission of the owner or person in charge thereof, unless a warrant is first obtained from the circuit court authorizing same. Any application for a facility license or renewal thereof, made pursuant to this chapter, shall constitute permission for and complete acquiescence in any entry or inspection of the premises for which the license is sought, in order to facilitate verification of the information submitted on or in connection with the application.

(2) The department shall annually conduct at least one unannounced inspection to determine compliance by the nursing home facility with statutes, and with rules promulgated under the provisions of those statutes, governing minimum standards of construction, quality and adequacy of care, and rights of patients. The giving or causing to be given of advance notice of such unannounced inspections by an employee of the department to any unauthorized person shall constitute cause for suspension of not less than 5 working days according to the provisions of chapter 110.

History.—s. 18, ch. 69-309; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 17, ch. 70-361; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 5, ch. 76-201; s. 1, ch. 77-457; ss. 35, 36, ch. 79-190.

Note.—Section 36, ch. 79-190 (C.S. for H.B.'s 1604 and 1649), provides that, if ch. 400 is repealed in accordance with the intent expressed in the Regulatory Reform Act of 1976, as amended by ch. 77-457, or as subsequently amended, it is the intent of the Legislature that s. 61 of this act shall also be repealed on the same date as is therein provided. As a result of floor amendments to C.S. for H.B.'s 1604 and 1649, s. 61 was renumbered as s. 35 and is probably the section intended.

§ 400.191 Availability, distribution, and posting of reports and records.—

(1) The department shall, within 60 days from the date of an annual inspection visit or within 30 days from the date of any interim visit, forward the results of all inspections of nursing home facilities to:

(a) The regional nursing home ombudsman committee in whose district the inspected facility is located.

(b) At least one public library or, in the absence of a public library, the county seat in the county in which the inspected facility is located.

(c) The district administrator of the department in whose district the inspected facility is located.

(d) The health systems agency in whose district the inspected facility is located.

(2) Each nursing home facility shall maintain as public information, available upon request, records of all cost and inspection reports pertaining to that facility that have been filed with, or issued by, any governmental agency. Copies of such reports shall be retained in said records for not less than 5 years from the date said reports are filed or issued.

(3) Any records, reports, or documents which by state or federal law or regulation are deemed confidential shall not be distributed or made available for purposes of compliance with this section unless and until such confidential status expires.

(4) Any records of a nursing home facility determined by the department to be necessary and essential to establish lawful compliance with any rules or standards shall be made available to the department on the premises of the facility.

(5) Every nursing home shall:

(a) Post, in a sufficient number of prominent positions in the nursing home so as to be accessible to all residents and to the general public, a concise summary of the last inspection report pertaining to the nursing home and issued by the department, with references to the page numbers of the full reports, noting any deficiencies found by the department and the actions taken by the nursing home to rectify such deficiencies and indicating in such summaries where the full reports may be inspected in said nursing home.

(b) Upon request, provide to any person who has completed a written application with an intent to be admitted to, or to any resident of, such nursing home, or to any relative, spouse, or guardian of such person, a copy of the last inspection report pertaining to the nursing home and issued by the department, provided the person requesting such report agrees to pay a reasonable charge to cover copying costs.

History.—s. 6, ch. 76-201.

Note.—This section was created subsequent to the enactment of ch. 76-168, and is therefore presumed to be excluded from the blanket repeal of Part I by that act.

Note.—See ch. 79-227, which repealed provisions relating to the State Board of Examiners of Nursing Home Administrators and created the Board of Nursing Home Administrators.

§ 400.20 Licensed nursing home administrator required; limitation on number of facilities to be subject to administrator's supervision.—

(1) No nursing home shall operate except under the supervision of a licensed nursing home administrator, and no person shall be a nursing home administrator unless he is the holder of a current license as provided by law.

(2) If the facilities involved are of a class or classes found by the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services to be of a character, size, and type of operation making it reasonable for a single administrator, manager, or supervisor to perform such functions effectively for more than one facility, such administrator, manager, or supervisor of a facility may function as an administrator, manager, or supervisor for not more than three facilities. As part of the classifications made pursuant to this section, the department shall determine and fix specific limits on the number of facilities of particular classes which may be supervised by the same individual acting as administrator, manager, or supervisor. No administrator, manager, or supervisor shall accept employment in violation of this subsection, and no owner of a facility shall knowingly employ any person in violation thereof.

History.—s. 19, ch. 69-309; s. 18, ch. 70-361; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 242, ch. 77-147; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

§ 400.23 Rules; minimum standards; fee for review of plans.—

(1) It is the intent of the Legislature that rules published and enforced pursuant to this chapter shall include standards by which a reasonable and consistent quality of patient care may be insured and the results of such patient care can be measured and by which safe and sanitary nursing homes can be provided. It is further intended that a minimum amount of the time of professionals providing nursing home care be required to insure compliance with the reporting requirements of these rules.

(2) Pursuant to the intention of the Legislature, the department shall publish and enforce rules to implement the provisions of this chapter, which shall include reasonable and fair minimum standards in relation to:

(a) The location and construction of the facility; including plumbing, heating, lighting, ventilation, and other housing conditions which will insure the health, safety, and comfort of residents, including an adequate call system. Separate standards shall be provided for physical plant of new and existing facilities. The department shall enforce the applicable uniform fire safety standards established by the State Fire Marshal pursuant to s. 633.05(8).

(b) The number and qualifications of all personnel, including management, medical, and nursing personnel, and aides, orderlies and support personnel, having responsibility for any part of the care given residents.

(c) All sanitary conditions within the facility and its surroundings, including water supply, sewage disposal, food handling, and general hygiene which will insure the health and comfort of residents.

(d) The equipment essential to the health and welfare of the residents.

(e) A uniform accounting system.

(f) The care, treatment, and maintenance of residents and measurement of the quality and adequacy thereof.

(3) Not later than January 1, 1979, the department shall promulgate rules establishing uniform procedures for the evaluation of nursing home facilities, measuring the degree of each facility's compliance with the standards set forth in this section, as indicated by inspection results. Such procedures shall include a detailed listing of the types, and degree of severity or unacceptability, of deficiencies which inspections might indicate. The department shall further devise a system of rating nursing home facilities based upon the deficiencies noted in the inspection process. Such a system shall include two rating categories entitled A and C. A ratings shall be assigned to nursing homes which meet minimum standards. C ratings shall be assigned to nursing homes which do not meet minimum standards and are therefore issued conditional licenses. The rating assigned to each nursing home facility on the basis of its immediately prior inspection shall be deemed a part of the results and findings of that inspection and shall be conspicuously posted within the nursing home facility to which it applies. For purposes of review and comment, ratings assigned to facilities shall be forwarded by the department to the regional nursing home ombudsman committee in whose district the facility is located. A nursing home facility may appeal the assignment of a particular rating to the department within 20 days after notice of its assignment.

<sup>2</sup>(4) Not later than December 1, 1976, the department shall promulgate rules to provide that, when the minimum standards established under subsection (2) are not met, such deficiencies shall be classified according to the nature of the deficiency. The department shall indicate the classification on the face of the notice of deficiencies as follows:

(a) Class I deficiencies are those which the department determines present an imminent danger to the patients or guests of the nursing home facility or a substantial probability that death or serious physical harm would result therefrom. The condition or practice constituting a class I violation shall be abated or eliminated immediately, unless a fixed period of time, as determined by the department, is required for correction. Notwithstanding the provisions of s. 400.121(8), a class I deficiency is subject to a civil penalty in an amount not less than $1,000 and not exceeding $5,000 for each and every deficiency. A fine may be levied notwithstanding the correction of the deficiency.

(b) Class II deficiencies are those which the department determines have a direct or immediate relationship to the health, safety, or security of the nursing home facility patients, other than class I deficiencies. A class II deficiency is subject to a civil penalty in an amount not less than $500 and not exceeding $1,000 for each and every deficiency. A citation for a class II deficiency shall specify the time within which the deficiency is required to be corrected. If a class II deficiency is corrected within the time specified, no civil penalty shall be imposed, unless it is a repeated offense.

(c) Class III deficiencies are those which the department determines to have an indirect or potential relationship to the health, safety, or security of the nursing home facility patients, other than class I or II deficiencies. A class III deficiency shall be subject to a civil penalty of not less than $100 and not exceeding $500 for each and every deficiency. A citation for a class III deficiency shall specify the time within which the deficiency is required to be corrected. If a class III deficiency is corrected within the time specified, no civil penalty shall be imposed, unless it is a repeated offense.

(6) The department shall approve or disapprove the plans and specifications within 60 days after receipt of the plans review fee payment, as required in subsection (7). The department may be granted one 15-day extension for the review period, if the secretary of the department so approves. If the department fails to act within the specified time, it shall be deemed to have approved the plans and specifications. When the department disapproves plans and specifications, it shall set forth in writing the reasons for said disapproval. Necessary conferences and consultations may be provided as necessary.

(7) The department is authorized to charge a fee, not to exceed 0.5 percent of the estimated construction cost or the actual cost of review, whichever is less, for services rendered in conducting the review of plans and specifications for each new project, in an amount sufficient to cover the costs of purchasing necessary additional architectural and engineering services to meet the requirements of this section. Fee payment shall accompany the initial submission of final plans and specifications. Notwithstanding any other provisions of law to the contrary, all money received by the department pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be deemed to be trust funds, to be held and applied solely for the operations required under this section.

(8) When the department determines that a county or municipality is qualified to inspect and review plans and specifications, the department may delegate to that county or municipality the authority to review and approve plans and specifications based upon the statewide standards of the department. The time limits for approval or disapproval of plans and specifications by the department established in subsection (6) shall apply to the county or municipality. When such county or municipal approval is used in lieu of departmental approval, the fees charged by the department for such services shall be waived.

Note.—Section 9, ch. 79-268, provides that, if part I of ch. 400 is repealed in accordance with the intent expressed in the Regulatory Reform Act of 1976, as amended by ch. 77-457, or as subsequently amended, it is the intent of the Legislature that ch. 79-268 shall also be repealed on the same date as is therein provided.

1400.241 Prohibited acts; penalties for violations.—

(1) It is unlawful for any person or public body to establish, conduct, manage, or operate a home as defined in this chapter without obtaining a valid current license.

(2) It is unlawful for any person or public body to offer or advertise to the public, in any way by any medium whatever, nursing home care or service or custodial services without obtaining a valid current license. It shall be unlawful for any holder of a license issued pursuant to the provisions of this chapter to advertise or hold out to the public that it holds a license for a facility other than that for which it actually holds a license.

(3) Violation of any provision of this chapter or of any minimum standard, rule, or regulation adopted pursuant thereto shall constitute a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083. Each day of a continuing violation shall be considered a separate offense.

1400.25 Educational program authorized.—

The Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services may conduct a clinic or seminar at such times and places as shall be convenient for the greatest number at which information may be offered in the general field of health education, management, and other subjects that will increase the knowledge and efficiency of applicants or licensees hereunder. The State Board of Examiners of Nursing Home Administrators must approve the educational content of such clinic or seminar if it is intended to satisfy the educational requirements of the Board of Examiners of Nursing Home Administrators.

Note.—See ch. 79-227, which repealed provisions relating to the State Board of Examiners of Nursing Home Administrators and created the board of Nursing Home Administrators.

1400.261 Duty of Board of Examiners of Nursing Home Administrators.—The Florida State Board of Examiners of Nursing Home Administrators of the Department of Professional and Occupational Regulation shall consult and advise with the department in matters of policy affecting administration of this chapter.

History.—s. 20, ch. 70-361; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

Note.—See ch. 79-227, which repealed provisions relating to the State Board of Examiners of Nursing Home Administrators and created the Board of Nursing Home Administrators.

Note.—See ch. 79-36, which changed the name of the "Department of Professional and Occupational Regulation" to the "Department of Professional Regulation."

1400.29 Annual report of nursing home facilities.—On or before January 1, 1977, and annually thereafter, the department shall publish a report, available to the public, which shall include, but not be limited to:

(1) A list by name and address of all nursing home facilities in this state.

(2) Whether such nursing home facilities are proprietary or nonproprietary.

(3) The rating of each nursing home facility.

(4) The name of the owner or owners.

(5) The total number of beds.

(6) The number of private and semiprivate rooms.

(7) The religious affiliation, if any, of such nursing home facility.

(8) The languages spoken by the administrator and staff of such nursing home facility.

(9) The number of full-time employees and their professions.

(10) Whether or not such nursing home facility accepts Medicare or Medicaid patients.

(11) Recreational and other programs available.

History.—s. 9, ch. 76-201.

Note.—This section was created subsequent to the enactment of ch. 76-168, and is therefore presumed to be excluded from the blanket repeal of Part I by that act.

1400.301 Legislative intent.—The Legislature finds and declares that conditions in nursing homes in Florida are such that the personal and health care needs of residents are not insured either by regulation of the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services or the good faith of the nursing home industry. Furthermore, there is no formal mechanism whereby a nursing home resident or his representative may make a complaint against a nursing home facility or its employees. The Legislature declares further that concerned citizens are more effective advocates of the rights of others than government agencies. It is the intent of the Legislature, therefore, to provide an alternative to the present method of correcting nursing home deficiencies, by establishing voluntary citizen nursing home ombudsman committees at the state and district levels to receive, investigate, and resolve complaints against nursing home facilities. It is the intent of the Legislature that the environment in nursing home facilities should be conducive to the dignity and independence of residents.

History.—s. 24, ch. 75-233; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 6, ch. 77-401; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

1400.304 Establishment of a State Nursing Home Ombudsman Committee; duties; membership.—

(1) There is hereby created in the office of the Governor a State Nursing Home Ombudsman Committee hereafter referred to as "State Ombudsman Committee."

(2) The duties of the State Ombudsman Committee shall be:

(a) To help establish and coordinate the district ombudsman committees throughout the state.

(b) To serve as an appellate body in receiving from the district ombudsman committees complaints not resolved at the district level.

(c) To develop procedures for eliciting, receiving, responding to, and resolving complaints made by, and on behalf of, nursing home facility residents.

(d) To elicit and coordinate state, local, and voluntary organizational assistance for the purpose of improving the care received by residents of a nursing home facility.

(e) To prepare an annual report to the President of the Senate, the Speaker of the House, and the Governor containing an appraisal of the problems of nursing home facility residents and recommendations for improving nursing home facility care and treatment.

(3) The State Ombudsman Committee shall be composed of nine members appointed by the Governor, to include the following: One physician who includes in his practice elderly patients; one registered nurse; one nursing home administrator; one licensed pharmacist; one dietitian; two representatives who are, or represent, nursing home residents; one attorney; and one professional social worker. The Governor shall elicit nominations from related professional organizations. Except for the nursing home administrator, the registered nurse, and the licensed pharmacist, each member of the State Ombudsman Committee shall certify to having no association with a nursing home facility for reward or profit.

(4) All members shall serve for 2-year terms, except that at the time of first appointment four of the members shall be appointed to 2-year terms and four of the members shall be appointed to a 1-year term. A member may serve two consecutive terms. Any vacancy which occurs shall be filled by the Governor. The term of any member missing three consecutive regular meetings without cause shall be declared vacant.

(5) The State Ombudsman Committee shall elect from its second-year members a chairman for a term of 1 year. The chairman shall select a secretary from among the members. The secretary shall chair the committee in the absence of the chairman.

(6) The State Ombudsman Committee shall meet upon the call of the chairman, at least quarterly or more frequently as needed.

(7) Members shall receive no compensation but shall be reimbursed for per diem and travel expenses as provided for in s. 112.061.

(8) The State Ombudsman Committee is authorized to call upon appropriate agencies of state government for such professional assistance as may be needed in the discharge of its duties, including assistance from any adult protective services programs of the department as provided for under ss. 409.026 and 828.043.

ch. 76-168, as amended by s. 1, ch. 77-457, effective July 1, 1982, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this section prior to those dates.

§1400.307 District nursing home ombudsman committees; duties; membership.—

(1) There shall be at least one nursing home ombudsman committee in each of the districts of the department.

(2) The duties of the district ombudsman committee are:

(a) To serve as a third-party mechanism for protecting the health, safety, welfare, and civil and human rights of residents of a nursing home facility.

(b) To discover, investigate, and determine the existence of abuse and neglect in any nursing home facility and to use the procedures provided for in s. 827.09 when applicable.

(c) To elicit, receive, respond to, and resolve complaints made by, or on behalf of, nursing home residents.

(d) To review, for their effect on the rights of nursing home residents, all existing or proposed rules and regulations relating to nursing homes.

(e) To enter any nursing home facility, with or without prior notice, pursuant to an investigation to obtain information regarding a specific complaint or problem.

(f) To review Medicaid patients' personal property and money accounts pursuant to an investigation to obtain information regarding a specific complaint or problem.

(3) Each district ombudsman committee shall be composed of 12 members appointed by the Governor from the district, to include the following: One medical doctor whose practice includes a substantial number of geriatric patients; one registered nurse; one nursing home administrator; one licensed pharmacist; one dietitian; five nursing home residents or representative consumer advocates for nursing home residents; one attorney; and one professional social worker. The Governor shall elicit nominations from related professional organizations. Except for the nursing home administrator, pharmacist, and nurse, each member of the committee shall certify to having no association with a nursing home facility for reward or profit.

(4) All members shall serve 2-year terms, except that at the time of first appointment six of the members shall be appointed to 2-year terms and six of the members shall be appointed to 1-year terms. A member may serve two consecutive terms. Any vacancy which occurs shall be filled by the Governor. The term of any member missing three consecutive regular meetings without cause shall be declared vacant.

(5) The district ombudsman committee shall elect from its second-year members a chairman for a term of 1 year. The chairman shall select a secretary from among the members of the committee. The secretary shall chair the committee in the absence of the chairman.

(6) The district ombudsman committee shall meet upon the call of the chairman, at least once a month or more frequently as needed to handle emergency situations.

(7) A member of a district ombudsman committee shall receive no compensation but shall be reimbursed for travel expenses both within and outside the county of residence in accordance with the provisions of s. 112.061.

(8) The district ombudsman committees are authorized to call upon appropriate agencies of state government for such professional assistance as may be needed in the discharge of their duties. All state agencies shall cooperate with the district ombudsman committees in providing requested information and agency representatives at committee meetings.

History.—s. 27, ch. 75-233; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 136, ch. 77-104; s. 8, ch. 77-401; s. 1, ch. 77-457; s. 4, ch. 78-323; s. 2, ch. 78-393.

Note.—Repealed by s. 4, ch. 78-323, effective October 1, 1981, and by s. 3, ch. 76-168, as amended by s. 1, ch. 77-457, effective July 1, 1982, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this section prior to those dates.

• 400.311 Procedures for receiving complaints.—

(1) The State Ombudsman Committee shall establish state and district procedures for receiving complaints against a nursing home facility or its employee.

(2) These procedures shall be posted in full view in every nursing home facility. Every resident or representative of a resident shall receive, upon admission to a nursing home facility, a printed copy of the procedures of the state and the district ombudsman committees.

History.—s. 28, ch. 75-233; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 9, ch. 77-401; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

• 400.314 Investigation of complaints.—

(1) A district ombudsman committee shall investigate any complaint of a resident or resident's representative based on an action by an administrator or employee of a nursing home facility which might be:

- (a) Contrary to law.
- (b) Unreasonable, unfair, oppressive, or unnecessarily discriminatory, even though in accordance with law.
- (c) Based on a mistake of fact.
- (d) Based on improper or irrelevant grounds.
- (e) Unaccompanied by an adequate statement of reasons.

(f) Performed in an inefficient manner.

(g) Otherwise erroneous.

(2) In an investigation, both the state and district ombudsman committees have the authority to:

(a) Make inquiries and obtain information as is necessary to carry out the purposes of this act.

(b) Enter without notice to inspect the premises of a nursing home facility for purposes of investigating a specific complaint.

(c) Hold hearings.

History.—s. 29, ch. 75-233; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 10, ch. 77-401; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

• 400.317 Procedures for resolving a complaint.—

(1) Any complaint deemed valid and requiring remedial action by the district ombudsman committee shall be identified and brought to the attention of the nursing home administrator in writing. Upon receipt of such document, the administrator, in concurrence with the committee chairman, shall establish target dates for taking appropriate remedial action. If, by the target date, the remedial action is not completed or forthcoming the committee may:

(a) Extend the target date if the committee has reason to believe such action would facilitate the resolution of the complaint.

(b) Make public the complaint, the committee's recommendations, and the response of the nursing home facility; however, in no case shall the names of individuals involved in the complaint be disclosed.

(c) Refer the complaint to the State Ombudsman Committee.

(2) Upon referral from the district ombudsman committee, the State Ombudsman Committee assumes the responsibility for the disposition of the complaint. If a nursing home facility fails to take action on a complaint found valid by the State Ombudsman Committee, the state committee may:

(a) Make public the complaint, the committee's recommendations, and the response of the nursing home facility; however, in no case shall the names of the individuals involved in the complaint be disclosed.

(b) Recommend to the department changes in rules and regulations for inspecting and licensing nursing home facilities.

(c) Refer the complaint to the state attorney for prosecution if there is reason to believe the nursing home facility or its employee is guilty of a criminal act.

(d) Recommend to the department that the nursing home no longer receive payments under the State Medical Assistance Program (Medicaid).

(e) Recommend that the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services initiate procedures for revocation of license in accordance with chapter 120.

History.—s. 30, ch. 75-233; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 244, ch. 77-147; s. 11, ch. 77-401; s. 1, ch. 77-457; s. 19, ch. 78-95.

• 400.321 Confidentiality.—

(1) All matters before the state or district nursing home ombudsman committees concerning abuse or denial of rights of an individual client of a nursing home facility shall be confidential and exempt from the provisions of chapter 119. All other matters before the committee shall be open to the public and subject to chapter 119.

(2) Members of any nursing home ombudsman committee shall not be required to testify in any court with respect to matters held to be confidential under s. 400.414 except as may be necessary to enforce the provisions of this act.

History.—ss. 31, 32, ch. 75-233; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 12, ch. 77-401; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

400.324 Immunity.—Any person making a complaint pursuant to this act who does so in good faith shall be immune from any liability, civil or criminal, that otherwise might be incurred or imposed.

History.—s. 33, ch. 75-233; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

to that date.

400.327 Penalty.—Anyone knowingly or willfully taking action against a person making a complaint under this act is guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.083.

History.—s. 34, ch. 75-233; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

400.33 Legislative intent.—It is the intent of the Legislature to encourage the development of programs for community-based care for the elderly as an alternative to institutionalization. The Legislature finds and declares that routine health care provided on an outpatient basis is one such program, the availability of which would fill an unmet need, improve the quality and quantity of health care available to elderly persons while minimizing the cost of such care, and reduce the incidence of unnecessary or premature institutionalization of elderly persons. The purpose of this act is to encourage the development of geriatric outpatient nurse clinics to make such services available. The Legislature intends that existing and available nursing facility treatment rooms be used for geriatric outpatient nurse clinics in order that the cost of such programs be kept low.

History.—s. 1, ch. 77-401.

400.331 Definitions.—As used in this act:

(1) "Geriatric patient" means any patient who is 60 years of age or older.

(2) "Geriatric outpatient nurse clinic" means a site for the provision of health care to geriatric patients on an outpatient basis, which is staffed by a registered nurse or by a physician's assistant.

(3) "Department" means the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services.

(4) "Nursing facility" means a facility licensed under this part.

History.—s. 2, ch. 77-401.

400.332 Funds received not revenues for purpose of medical assistance program.—Any funds received by a nursing home in connection with its participation in the geriatric outpatient nurse clinic program shall not be considered as revenues for purposes of cost reports under the medical assistance program as set forth in s. 409.266.

History.—s. 4, ch. 77-401.

400.333 Evaluation and report.—

(1) The department shall evaluate the effectiveness of geriatric outpatient nurse clinics to determine:

(a) The feasibility and desirability of continuing to encourage the development of such clinics;

(b) The suitability of nursing facilities as the location for such clinics;

(c) The appropriateness of having such clinics conducted by registered nurses or physicians' assistants; and

(d) The impact of a rural or urban location on such clinics.

(2) This evaluation shall cover the period October 1, 1977, through September 30, 1978, and shall include the following items:

(a) A description of clinic facilities, equipment, personnel, and patient eligibility criteria;

(b) A summary of numbers and types of clients served, type of care provided, and cost per patient, including direct and indirect costs; and

(c) Such other factors as the department deems necessary for an accurate analysis of the costs and benefits associated with the establishment and operation of geriatric outpatient nurse clinics.

(3) The results of the evaluation shall be reported to the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives not later than January 1, 1979. The department shall report annually, in a like fashion, the ongoing experience of geriatric outpatient nurse clinics in the state, for as long as such reports are deemed appropriate by the department.

PART II

ADULT CONGREGATE LIVING FACILITIES

400.401 Short title; purpose.

400.402 Definitions.

400.404 Facilities to be licensed; exemptions.

400.407 License required; fee, display.

400.411 Application for license.

400.414 Denial, suspension, revocation of license; grounds.

400.417 Expiration of license; renewal; conditional license or permit.

400.421 Injunction proceedings authorized.

400.424 Contracts.

400.427 Property and personal affairs of residents.

400.431 Closing of facility.

400.434 Right of entry and inspection.

400.437 Ad hoc committee on congregate living facilities.

400.441 Rules establishing minimum standards.

400.444 Construction and renovation; requirements.

400.447 Prohibited acts; penalties for violation.

400.451 Existing facilities to be given reasonable time to comply with rules and standards.

400.401 Short title; purpose.—

(1) This act may be cited as the "Adult Congregate Living Facilities Act."

(2) The purpose of this act is to provide for the development, establishment, and enforcement of basic standards which will insure safe and adequate care of persons in adult congregate living facilities providing personal services.

History.—ss. 1, 2, ch. 75-233.

400.402 Definitions.—When used in this part, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Department" means the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services.

(2) "Secretary" means the Secretary of the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services.

(3) "Administrator" means an individual who has general administrative charge of an adult congregate living facility.

(4) "Adult congregate living facility," hereinafter referred to as "facility," means any institution, building or buildings, residence, private home, boarding home, home for the aged, or other place, whether operated for profit or not, which undertakes through its ownership or management to provide, for a period exceeding 24 hours, one or more personal services for four or more adults, not related to the owner or administrator by blood or marriage, who require such services. A facility offering personal services for fewer than four adults shall be within the meaning of this definition if it holds itself out to the public to be an establishment which regularly provides such services. This definition shall not apply to transient rentals as defined in s. 212.03 or to college dormitories.

(5) "Existing facility" means any facility in operation or under a construction or renovation contract prior to July 1, 1975.

(6) "New facility" means any facility constructed or renovated after June 30, 1975.

(7) "Personal services" means services in addition to housing and food service which include, but are not limited to: Personal assistance with bathing, dressing, ambulation, housekeeping, supervision, emotional security, and any other related service which the department may define. Personal service does not include medical services.

History.—s. 3, ch. 75-233.

400.404 Facilities to be licensed; exemptions.—

(1) For the administration of this part, facilities to be licensed by the department shall include all adult congregate living facilities as defined in this part.

(2) The following shall be exempt from the provisions of this part:

(a) Any facility, institution, or other place operated by the federal government or any agency thereof.

(b) Any institution which offers its services primarily for medical treatment or surgery and is licensed by the state.

(c) Any facility licensed under part I.

History.—ss. 4, 5, ch. 75-233.

400.407 License required; fee, display.—

(1) It is unlawful to operate or maintain a facility without first obtaining from the department a license authorizing such operation.

(2) Separate licenses shall be required for facilities maintained in separate premises, even though operated under the same management. A separate license shall not be required for separate buildings on the same grounds.

(3) The annual license fee required of a facility shall be determined by the department, but shall not exceed $100.

(4) Counties or municipalities applying for licenses under this act shall be exempt from the payment of license fees.

(5) The license shall be displayed in a conspicuous place inside the facility.

(6) A license shall be valid only in the possession of the individual, firm, partnership, association, or corporation to whom it is issued and shall not be subject to sale, assignment, or other transfer, voluntary or involuntary, nor shall a license be valid for any premises other than that for which originally issued.

History.—s. 6, ch. 75-233; s. 8, ch. 79-12.

400.411 Application for license.—

(1) Application for license shall be made to the department on forms furnished by it and shall be accompanied by the appropriate license fee.

(2) The applicant shall furnish satisfactory proof of financial ability to operate and conduct the facility in accordance with the requirements of this part.

(3) If the applicant offers continuing care agreements as defined in chapter 651, proof shall be furnished that such applicant has obtained a certificate of authority as required for operation under that chapter. This provision shall not apply prior to 12 months from the date of the adoption of the rules by the Department of Insurance as contemplated by s. 651.101.

History.—s. 7, ch. 75-233; s. 3, ch. 77-323.

400.414 Denial, suspension, revocation of license; grounds.—

(1) The department may deny, revoke, or suspend a license or impose an administrative fine in the manner provided in chapter 120.

(2) Any of the following actions by a facility or its employee shall be grounds for action by the department against a facility:

(a) An intentional or negligent act materially affecting the health or safety of a resident of the facility.

(b) Misappropriation or conversion of the property of a resident of the facility.

(c) Violation of the provisions of this act or of any minimum standards or rules promulgated hereunder.

(3) The department shall be responsible for all investigations and inspections conducted pursuant to the provisions of this act.

History.—s. 8, ch. 75-233.

400.417 Expiration of license; renewal; conditional license or permit.—

(1) Licenses issued for the operation of a facility, unless sooner suspended or revoked, shall expire 1 year from the date of issuance. Sixty days prior to the expiration date, an application for renewal shall be submitted to the department, and licenses shall be renewed upon the filing of an application on forms furnished by the department if the applicant has first met the requirements established under this act and all rules promulgated hereunder. The facility shall file with the application satisfactory proof of financial ability to operate and conduct the facility in accordance with the requirements of this part.

(2) Licensees against whom a revocation or suspension proceeding is pending at the time of license renewal may be issued a conditional license effective until final disposition by the department of such proceedings. If judicial relief is sought from the final disposition, the court having jurisdiction may issue a conditional permit for the duration of the judicial proceeding.

History.—s. 9, ch. 75-233.

400.421 Injunction proceedings authorized.—

(1) The department may institute injunction proceedings in a court of competent jurisdiction to:

(a) Enforce the provisions of this act or any minimum standard, rule, or order issued or entered into pursuant thereto; or

(b) Terminate the operation of a facility where any of the following exist:

1. Failure to take preventive or corrective measures in accordance with any order of the department.

2. Failure to abide by any final order of the department once it has become effective and binding.

3. Violation of any provision of this act or of any rule or standard promulgated pursuant thereto, which violation constitutes an emergency requiring immediate action.

(2) Such injunctive relief may be temporary or permanent.

History.—s. 10, ch. 75-233.

400.424 Contracts.—

(1) The presence of each resident in a facility shall be covered by a contract, executed at the time of admission or prior thereto, between the facility and the resident or his designee or legal representative. Each party to the contract shall be provided with a duplicate original thereof, and the facility shall keep on file all such contracts. The facility shall not destroy or otherwise dispose of any such contract until 5 years after its expiration, or such longer period as may be provided in the rules of the department.

(2) Each contract shall contain express provisions specifically setting forth the services and accommodations to be provided by the facility, the rates or charges, and other matters which the parties deem appropriate. The purpose of any advance payment and a refund policy for such payment shall be covered in the contract.

(3) No contract, or any provision thereof, shall be construed to relieve any facility of any requirement or obligation imposed upon it by this act or by standards or rules in force pursuant thereto.

History.—s. 11, ch. 75-233.

400.427 Property and personal affairs of residents.—

(1) The admission of a resident to a facility and his presence therein shall not confer on the facility or its owner, administrator, employees, or representatives any authority to manage, use, or dispose of any property of the resident; nor shall such admission or presence confer on any of such persons any authority or responsibility for the personal affairs of the resident, except what may be necessary for the safe and orderly management of the facility or for the safety of the resident.

(2) A facility or owner, administrator, employee, or representative thereof may not act as the court-appointed guardian, trustee, or conservator for any resident of the facility or any of such resident's property.

(3) A facility, upon mutual consent with the resident, shall provide for the safekeeping in the facility of personal effects or funds of the resident not in excess of $100. A facility shall keep complete and accurate records of all such funds and personal effects received for safekeeping.

(4) Any funds or other property belonging to or due to a resident, or expendable for his account, which are received by a facility shall be trust funds which shall be kept separate from the funds and property of the facility and other residents, or shall be specifically credited to such resident. Such trust funds shall be used or otherwise expended only for the account of the resident. Upon request, but not more often than once every 3 months unless upon order of a court of competent jurisdiction, the facility shall furnish the resident and his guardian, trustee, or conservator, if any, a complete and verified statement of all funds and other property to which this subsection applies, detailing the amount and items received, together with their sources and disposition. In any event, the facility shall furnish such statement annually and upon the discharge or transfer of a resident. Any governmental agency or private charitable agency contributing funds or other property to the account of a resident shall also be entitled to receive such statement annually and upon the discharge or transfer of the resident.

History.—s. 12, ch. 75-233.

400.431 Closing of facility.—

(1) Whenever a facility voluntarily discontinues operation, it shall inform the department in writing at least 80 days prior to the discontinuance of operation. The facility shall also, at such time, inform each resident or the next of kin, legal representative, or agency acting on each resident's behalf, of the fact and the proposed time of such discontinuance. In the event a resident has no person to represent him, the facility shall be responsible for referral to an appropriate social service agency for placement.

(2) Immediately upon discontinuance of the operation of a facility, the owner shall surrender the license therefor to the department, and the license shall be canceled.

History.—s. 13, ch. 75-233.

400.434 Right of entry and inspection.—Any duly designated officer or employee of the department shall have the right to enter upon and into the premises of any facility licensed pursuant to this act, at any reasonable time, in order to determine the state of compliance with the provisions of this act and of rules or standards in force pursuant thereto. The right of entry and inspection shall also extend to any premises which the department has reason to believe is being operated or maintained as a facility without a license, but no such entry or inspection of any premises shall be made without the permission of the owner or person in charge thereof, unless a warrant is first obtained from the circuit court authorizing same. Any application for a facility license or renewal thereof made pursuant to this act shall constitute permission for, and complete acquiescence in, any entry or inspection of the premises for which the license is sought, in order to facilitate verification of the information submitted on or in connection with the application.

History.—s. 14, ch. 75-233; s. 1, ch. 77-174.

400.437 Ad hoc committee on congregate living facilities.—

(1) An ad hoc committee shall be appointed by the secretary when major revisions are being considered for this act or for the rules and minimum standards implementing its provisions. The ad hoc committee shall assist the department in reviewing all rules, standards, and procedures and shall recommend changes as appropriate.

(2) The ad hoc committee shall be composed of at least 15 members which shall include the following:

- (a) Five residents of facilities.
- (b) Five owners or administrators of facilities.
- (c) Five members representing the department.

(3) Members of the ad hoc committee shall receive no compensation but shall be reimbursed for per diem and travel expenses by the department in accordance with the provisions of s. 112.061.

History.—s. 15, ch. 75-233.

400.441 Rules establishing minimum standards.—Pursuant to the intention of the Legislature to provide safe and sanitary facilities, the department shall promulgate, publish, and enforce rules to implement the provisions of this act, which shall include reasonable and fair minimum standards in relation to:

(1) The maintenance of facilities, not in conflict with the provisions of chapter 553, relating to plumbing, heating, lighting, ventilation, and other housing conditions, which will insure the health, safety, and comfort of residents and protection from fire hazard, including adequate provisions for fire alarm and other fire protection suitable to the size of the structure.

(2) The number and qualifications of all personnel having responsibility for the care of residents.

(3) All sanitary conditions within the facility and its surroundings, including water supply, sewage disposal, food handling, and general hygiene, and maintenance thereof, which will insure the health and comfort of residents.

(4) The care and maintenance of residents.

History.—s. 16, ch. 75-233.

400.444 Construction and renovation; requirements.—The requirements for the construction and renovation of a facility shall comply with the provisions of chapter 553 which pertain to building construction standards, including plumbing, electrical code, glass, manufactured buildings, accessibility for the physically disabled, and the state minimum building code.

History.—s. 17, ch. 75-233; s. 3, ch. 79-152.

400.447 Prohibited acts; penalties for violation.—

(1) It is unlawful for any person or public body to offer or advertise to the public, in any way by any medium whatever, personal services as defined in this act, without obtaining a valid current license. It is unlawful for any holder of a license issued pursuant to the provisions of this act to advertise or hold out to the public that it holds a license for a facility other than that for which it actually holds a license.

(2) Any person found guilty of violating subsection (1) shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.083. Each day of continuing violation shall be considered a separate offense.

History.—s. 18, ch. 75-233.

400.451 Existing facilities to be given reasonable time to comply with rules and standards.—

Any facility as defined in this act which is in operation on July 1, 1975, or at the time of promulgation of any applicable rules or standards adopted pursuant to this act, may be given a reasonable time, not to exceed 6 months, within which to comply with such rules and standards.

History.—s. 19, ch. 75-233.

PART III

HOME HEALTH AGENCIES

400.461 Short title; purpose.

400.462 Definitions.

400.464 Agencies to be licensed.

400.467. License required; fee; display.

400.471 Application for license.

400.474 Denial, suspension, revocation of license; grounds.

400.477 Expiration of license; renewal; conditional license or permit.

400.481 Injunction proceedings authorized.

400.484. Right of inspection.

400.487 Establishment and review of plan of treatment.

400.491. Clinical records.

400.494 Information confidential.

400.497 Rules establishing minimum standards.

400.501 Prohibited acts; penalties for violation.

400.504 Agencies to be given reasonable time to comply with rules and standards.

400.461 Short title; purpose.—

(1) This act shall be known and may be cited as the "Home Health Services Act."

(2) The purpose of this act is to provide for the development, establishment, and enforcement of basic standards which will insure the safe and adequate care of persons receiving health services in their own homes.

History.—ss. 36, 37, ch. 75-233.

400.462 Definitions.—When used in this part, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Department" means the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services.

(2) "Home health agency," hereinafter referred to as "agency," means any public agency or private organization, or a subdivision of such an agency or organization, whether operated for profit or not, which provides home health services.

(3) "Home health services," hereinafter referred to as "services," means health and medical services and medical supplies furnished to an individual by a home health agency or by others under arrangements with the agency, on a visiting basis, in a place of residence used as an individual's home. Such services may include, but are not limited to, the following:

- (a) Part-time or intermittent nursing care.
- (b) Physical, occupational, or speech therapy.
- (c) Medical social services, homemaker services, home health aide services, and nutritional guidance.
- (d) Medical supplies, other than drugs and biologicals prescribed by a physician, and the use of medical appliances.

History.—s. 38, ch. 75-233.

400.464 Agencies to be licensed.—Any agency providing home health services as defined in this act shall be licensed by the department to operate in this state. However, any agency or organization operated by an agency of the federal government shall be exempt from the provisions of this act.

History.—s. 39, ch. 75-233.

400.467 License required; fee; display.—

(1) It is unlawful to operate an agency without first obtaining from the department a license authorizing such operation.

(2) The annual license fee required of an agency shall be in an amount determined by the department but shall not exceed $100. However, counties or municipalities applying for licenses under this part shall be exempt from the payment of license fees.

(3) The license shall be displayed in a conspicuous place inside the agency and shall be valid only in the possession of the individual, firm, partnership, association, or corporation to whom it is issued and shall not be subject to sale, assignment, or other transfer, voluntary or involuntary, nor shall a license be valid for any agency other than that for which originally issued.

History.—s. 40, ch. 75-233.

400.471 Application for license.—

(1) Application for license shall be made to the department on forms furnished by it and shall be accompanied by the appropriate license fee.

(2) The applicant shall file with the application satisfactory proof that the agency is in compliance with this act and any rules and minimum standards promulgated hereunder and proof of financial ability to operate and conduct the agency in accordance with the requirements of this act.

(3) The department shall not issue a license to a home health agency which fails to receive a certificate of need under the provisions of ss. 381.493-381.497.

History.—s. 41, ch. 75-233; s. 7, ch. 77-400.

400.474 Denial, suspension, revocation of license; grounds.—

(1) The department may deny, revoke, or suspend a license or impose an administrative fine in the manner provided in chapter 120.

(2) Any of the following actions by an agency or its employee shall be grounds for action by the department against an agency:

- (a) Violation of provisions of this act or of any minimum standards or rules promulgated hereunder.

- (b) An intentional or negligent act materially affecting the health or safety of a patient.

History.—s. 42, ch. 75-233.

400.477 Expiration of license; renewal; conditional license or permit.—

(1) Licenses issued for the operation of an agency, unless sooner suspended or revoked, shall expire 1 year from the date of issuance. Sixty days prior to the expiration date, an application for renewal shall be submitted to the department on forms furnished by the department, and licenses shall be renewed if the applicant has first met the requirements established under this act and all rules promulgated hereunder. The agency shall file with the application satisfactory proof that the agency is in compliance with this act and all rules and minimum standards promulgated hereunder and satisfactory proof of financial ability to operate and conduct the agency in accordance with the requirements of this act.

(2) Agencies against whom a revocation or suspension proceeding is pending at the time of license renewal may be issued a conditional license effective until final disposition by the department of such proceedings. If judicial relief is sought from the final disposition, the court having jurisdiction may issue a conditional permit for the duration of the judicial proceeding.

History.—s. 43, ch. 75-233.

400.481 Injunction proceedings authorized.—The department may institute injunction proceedings in a court of competent jurisdiction when violation of the provisions of this act or of any minimum standards or rules promulgated hereunder constitutes an emergency affecting the immediate health and safety of a patient.

History.—s. 44, ch. 75-233.

400.484 Right of inspection.—Any duly authorized officer or employee of the department shall have the right to make such inspections and investigations as are necessary in order to determine the state of compliance with the provisions of this act and of rules or standards in force pursuant thereto. The right of inspection shall also extend to any agency which the department has reason to believe is being operated as an agency without a license, but no such inspection of any agency shall be made without the permission of the owner or person in charge thereof unless a warrant is first obtained from a circuit court authorizing same. Any application for an agency license or renewal thereof made pursuant to this act shall constitute permission for any inspection of the agency for which the license is sought, in order to facilitate verification of the information submitted on or in connection with the application.

History.—s. 45, ch. 75-233.

400.487 Establishment and review of plan of treatment.—

(1) A plan of treatment shall be established for each patient receiving care or treatment provided by a licensed nurse or by a physical, occupational, or speech therapist, by the physician who is responsible for the care of the patient. The original plan of treatment shall be signed by the physician and reviewed by the physician in consultation with agency personnel involved in providing services to the patient, at such intervals as the severity of the patient's illness requires, but in any instance, at least every 2 months.

(2) Each patient shall be provided, upon request and prior notification of the physician responsible for the care of the patient, a copy of the plan of treatment established and maintained for that patient by the home health agency.

History.—s. 46, ch. 75-233.

400.491 Clinical records.—The home health agency shall maintain for each patient a clinical record which includes the services the agency provides directly and those provided through arrangement with another agency. Such records shall contain pertinent past and current medical, nursing, social and other therapeutic information, the plan of treatment, and other such information as is necessary for the safe and adequate care of the patient. When home health services are terminated, the record shall show the date and reason for termination.

History.—s. 47, ch. 75-233.

400.494 Information confidential.—Information received by persons employed by, or providing services to, a home health agency or received by the licensing agency through reports or inspection shall be deemed privileged and confidential information and shall not be disclosed to any person other than the patient without the written consent of that patient or his guardian.

History.—s. 48, ch. 75-233.

400.497 Rules establishing minimum standards.—Pursuant to the intent of the Legislature to provide safe and adequate home health services, the department shall promulgate, publish, and enforce rules to implement the provisions of this act within 90 days of the effective date of this act, which shall include reasonable and fair minimum standards in relation to:

- (1) Scope of services to be provided.
- (2) The qualifications and minimum training requirements of all agency personnel.
- (3) Procedures for administering drugs and biologicals.
- (4) The desirability and practicality of accepting patients for services.
- (5) Insuring that the services provided by a home health agency are in accordance with the plan of treatment established for each patient.

History.—s. 49, ch. 75-233.

400.501 Prohibited acts; penalties for violation.—

(1) It is unlawful for any person or public body to offer or advertise to the public, in any way by any medium whatever, home health services as defined in this act without obtaining a valid current license. It is unlawful for any holder of a license issued pursuant to the provisions of this act to advertise or hold out to the public that it holds a license for an agency other than that for which it actually holds a license.

(2) Any person found guilty of violating subsection

(1) shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.083. Each day of continuing violation shall be considered a separate offense.

History.—s. 50, ch. 75-233.

400.504 Agencies to be given reasonable time to comply with rules and standards.—Any agency as defined in this act which is in operation as of July 1, 1975, or at the time of promulgation of any applicable rules or standards adopted pursuant to this act may be given a reasonable time, not to exceed 1 year from the date of publication, within which to comply with such rules and standards and obtain a license. Any home health agency operating and providing services in the state and having a provider number issued by the U. S. Department of Health, Education, and Welfare on or before April 30, 1976, shall not be denied a license on the basis of not having received a certificate of need.

History.—s. 51, ch. 75-233; s. 10, ch. 76-201.

PART IV

ADULT DAY CARE CENTERS

- 400.55 Purpose.
- 400.551 Definitions.
- 400.552 Centers to be licensed.
- 400.553 Exemptions.
- 400.554 License required; fee; exemption; display.
- 400.555 Application for license.
- 400.556 Denial, suspension, revocation of license; grounds.
- 400.557 Expiration of license; renewal; conditional license as permit.
- 400.558 Injunction proceedings authorized.
- 400.559 Closing of center.
- 400.56 Right of entry and inspection.
- 400.561 Ad hoc committee on adult day care centers.
- 400.562 Rules establishing standards.
- 400.563 Construction and renovation; requirements.
- 400.564 Prohibited acts; penalty for violation.
- 400.565 Existing centers to be given reasonable time to comply with rules and standards.

400.55 Purpose.—The purpose of this part is to develop, establish, and enforce basic standards for adult day care centers in order to assure that a protective environment and preventive, remedial, and restorative services are provided.

History.—s. 1, ch. 78-336.

400.551 Definitions.—When used in this part, unless the context otherwise requires:

- (1) "Department" means the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services.
- (2) "Owner/operator" means any individual who has general administrative charge of an adult day care center.
- (3) "Adult day care center," hereinafter referred to as "center," means any building or buildings, or other place, whether operated for profit or not, which undertakes through its ownership or management to provide, for a part of the 24-hour day, basic services to three or more adults, not related to the owner/operator by blood or marriage, who require such services.

(4) "Basic services" shall include, but not be limited to, providing a protective setting, social activities, leisure-time activities, self-care training, rest, nutritional services, and, when possible, speech and physical therapy.

(5) "Supportive and optional services" include, but are not limited to, direct transportation services, legal consultation, consumer education, and referrals for follow-up services.

(6) "Participant and program data" shall include, but not be limited to, number of participants, frequency of participation, distance traveled, hours of operation, number of referrals from a center to other programs, facilities or institutions, and incidence of illness.

History.—s. 2, ch. 78-336.

400.552 Centers to be licensed.—For the administration of this part, facilities to be licensed by the department shall include all adult day care centers as defined in this part which are not otherwise exempt as provided in s. 400.553.

History.—s. 3, ch. 78-336.

400.553 Exemptions.—The following shall be exempt from the provisions of this part:

(1) Any facility, institution, or other place operated by the federal government or any agency thereof.

(2) Any federally funded congregate meals program.

(3) Any adult congregate living facility licensed by the state.

(4) Any nursing home facility licensed by the state.

History.—s. 4, ch. 78-336.

400.554 License required; fee; exemption; display.—

(1) It is unlawful to operate or maintain a center without first obtaining from the department a license authorizing such operation. The department is responsible for licensing adult day care centers in accordance with the provisions of this part.

(2) Separate licenses shall be required for centers maintained on separate premises, even though operated under the same management. Separate licenses shall not be required for separate buildings on the same grounds.

(3) The annual license fee required of a center shall be determined by the department, but shall not exceed $75.

(4) County-operated or municipally operated centers applying for licensure under this part shall be exempt from the payment of license fees.

(5) The license shall be displayed in a conspicuous place inside the center.

(6) A license shall be valid only in the possession of the individual, firm, partnership, association, or corporation to whom it is issued and shall not be subject to sale, assignment, or other transfer, voluntary or involuntary; nor shall a license be valid for any premises other than that for which originally issued.

History.—s. 5, ch. 78-336.

400.555 Application for license.—

(1) Application for license shall be made to the department on forms furnished by it and shall be accompanied by the appropriate license fee unless the applicant is exempt from payment of the fee as provided in s. 400.554(4).

(2) The applicant for licensure shall furnish satisfactory proof of financial ability to operate and conduct the center in accordance with the requirements of this part.

(3) The applicant for licensure shall furnish proof of adequate liability insurance coverage.

History.—s. 6, ch. 78-336.

400.556 Denial, suspension, revocation of license; grounds.—

(1) The department may deny, revoke, or suspend a license or impose an administrative fine in the manner provided in chapter 120.

(2) Either of the following actions by a center or its employee shall be grounds for action by the department against a center or its employee:

(a) An intentional or negligent act materially affecting the health or safety of participants in the center.

(b) A violation of the provisions of this part or of any standards or rules promulgated hereunder.

(3) The department shall be responsible for all investigations and inspections conducted pursuant to the provisions of this part.

History.—s. 7, ch. 78-336.

(1) A license issued for the operation of a center, unless sooner suspended or revoked, shall expire 1 year from the date of issuance. At least 60 days prior to the expiration date, an application for renewal shall be submitted to the department. Licenses shall be renewed, upon the filing of an application on forms furnished by the department, if the applicant has first met the requirements established under this part and all rules promulgated hereunder. The center shall file with the application satisfactory proof of financial ability to operate and conduct the facility in accordance with the requirements of this part.

(2) Licensees against whom a revocation or suspension proceeding is pending at the time of license renewal may be issued a conditional license effective until final disposition by the department of such proceedings. If judicial relief is sought from the final disposition, the court having jurisdiction may issue a conditional permit for the duration of the judicial proceeding.

History.—s. 8, ch. 78-336.

(1) The department may institute injunction proceedings in a court of competent jurisdiction to:

(a) Enforce the provisions of this part or any standard, rule, or order issued or entered into pursuant thereto; or

(b) Terminate the operation of a center where any of the following exist:

1. Failure to take preventive or corrective measures in accordance with any order of the department.

2. Failure to abide by any final order of the department once it has become effective and binding.

3. Violation of any provision of this part or of any rule or standard promulgated pursuant thereto, which violation constitutes an emergency requiring immediate action.

(2) Such injunctive relief may be a temporary or permanent injunction.

History.—s. 9, ch. 78-336.

400.559 Closing of center.—

(1) Whenever a center voluntarily discontinues operation, it shall inform the department in writing at least 30 days prior to the discontinuance of operation. The center shall also, at such time, inform each participant of the fact and the proposed time of such discontinuance.

(2) Immediately upon discontinuance of the operation of a center, the owner/operator shall surrender the license therefor to the department and the license shall be canceled.

History.—s. 10, ch. 78-336.

400.56 Right of entry and inspection.—Any duly designated officer or employee of the department shall have the right to enter upon and into the premises of any center licensed pursuant to this part, at any reasonable time, in order to determine the state of compliance with the provisions of this part and of rules or standards in force pursuant thereto. The right of entry and inspection shall also extend to any premises which the department has reason to believe are being operated or maintained as a center without a license, but no such entry or inspection of any premises shall be made without the permission of the owner/operator in charge thereof unless a warrant is first obtained from the circuit court authorizing same. Any application for a center license or renewal made pursuant to this part shall constitute permission for, and complete acquiescence in, any entry or inspection of the premises for which the license is sought in order to facilitate verification of the information submitted on or in connection with the application.

History.—s. 11, ch. 78-336.

400.561 Ad hoc committee on adult day care centers.—

(1) An ad hoc committee shall be appointed by the secretary when major revisions are being considered for this part or for the rules and standards implementing its provisions. The ad hoc committee shall assist the department in reviewing all rules, standards, and procedures and shall recommend changes as appropriate.

(2) The ad hoc committee shall be composed of at least 11 members which shall include the following:

(a) Four owners/operators of centers.

(b) Four members representing the department.

(c) Three members of the general public.

(3) Members of the ad hoc committee shall receive no compensation, but shall be reimbursed for per diem and travel expenses by the department in accordance with the provisions of s. 112.061.

(4) In the year following July 1, 1978, the ad hoc committee may convene as often as is necessary for the performance of its duties.

History.—s. 12, ch. 78-336.

400.562 Rules establishing standards.—

(1) Pursuant to the intention of the Legislature to provide safe and sanitary facilities and healthful programs, the department, within 1 year of July 1, 1978, shall promulgate and publish rules to implement the provisions of this part, which shall include reasonable and fair standards. Any conflict between these standards and those that may be set forth in local, county, or city ordinances shall be resolved in favor of those having statewide effect. Such standards shall relate to:

(a) The maintenance of centers, not in conflict with the provisions of chapter 553, and based upon the size of the structure and number of participants, relating to plumbing, heating, lighting, ventilation, and other building conditions, including adequate meeting space, which will insure the health, safety, and comfort of participants and protection from fire hazard.

(b) The number and qualifications of all personnel having responsibility for the care of participants.

(c) All sanitary conditions within the center and its surroundings, including water supply, sewage disposal, food handling, and general hygiene, and maintenance thereof, which will insure the health and comfort of participants.

(d) Programs and basic services promoting and maintaining the health of participants and encouraging leisure and recreational activities, interaction, and communication among participants.

(e) Transportation and other supportive and optional services.

(f) Data and information relative to participants and programs.

(2) Enforcement of standards pursuant to the promulgation of rules under this part shall not take effect until 6 months following the promulgation of such rules.

History.—ss. 13, 18, ch. 78-336.

400.563 Construction and renovation; requirements.—The requirements for the construction and the renovation of a center shall comply with the provisions of chapter 553 which pertain to building construction standards, including plumbing, electrical code, glass, manufactured buildings, accessibility for the physically disabled, and the state minimum building code.

History.—s. 14, ch. 78-336; s. 4, ch. 79-152.

400.564 Prohibited acts; penalty for violation.—

(1) It is unlawful for any person or public body to offer or advertise to the public, in any way, by any medium whatever, basic services as defined in this part, without obtaining a valid current license. It is unlawful for any holder of a license issued pursuant to the provisions of this part to advertise or hold out to the public that it holds a license for a center other than that for which it actually holds a license.

(2) Any person convicted of violating the provisions of subsection (1) is guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.083. Each day of continuing violation shall be considered a separate offense.

History.—s. 15, ch. 78-336.

400.565 Existing centers to be given reasonable time to comply with rules and standards.—Any center as defined in this part which is in operation on July 1, 1978, or at the time of promulgation of any applicable rules or standards adopted pursuant to this part, may be given a reasonable time, not to exceed 6 months from the promulgation of such rules, within which to comply with such rules and standards.

History.—s. 16, ch. 78-336.

PART V HOSPICES

- 400.601 Definitions.
- 400.602 Licensure required; display, transferability of license.
- 400.603 Certificate-of-need holders; time for compliance with requirements for licensure.
- 400.604 Exemptions.
- 400.605 Administration; forms; fees; rules; fines.
- 400.606 License; application; renewal; conditional license or permit.
- 400.607 Denial, suspension, or revocation of license; grounds.
- 400.608 General requirements for hospice programs.
- 400.609 Components of hospice programs of care.
- 400.610 Administration and management of a hospice program.
- 400.611 Interdisciplinary records of care.
- 400.612 Right of inspection.
- 400.613 Patient record information confidential.
- 400.614 Prohibited acts; penalties for violation.
- 400.615 Rules.

(1) "Department" means the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services.

(2) "Hospice" or "hospice program" means an autonomous, centrally administered nonprofit, as defined in chapter '617, medically directed, nurse-coordinated program providing a continuum of home, outpatient, and homelike inpatient care for the terminally ill patient and his family. It employs an interdisciplinary team to assist in providing palliative and supportive care to meet the special needs arising out of the physical, emotional, spiritual, social, and economic stresses which are experienced during the final stages of illness and during dying and bereavement. This care is available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week and is provided on the basis of need regardless of inability to pay.

(3) "Hospice care team" means an interdisciplinary nary team which is a working unit composed by the integration of the various helping professions and lay persons providing hospice care. Such team shall, as a minimum, consist of a physician licensed pursuant to chapter 458 or chapter 459, a nurse licensed pursuant to chapter 464, a social worker, <sup>2</sup>a member of the clergy or a counselor, and volunteers.

(4) "Hospice services" means items and services furnished to an individual by a hospice, or by others under arrangements with such a program, in a place of temporary or permanent residence used as the terminally ill individual's home for the purpose of maintaining that individual at home; or, if the terminally ill individual needs short-term institutionalization, the services shall be furnished in cooperation with those contracted institutions or in the inpatient facility of the hospice program.

(5) "Medically directed" means that the delivery of medical care is directed by a hospice physician licensed pursuant to chapter 458 or chapter 459 who is employed by the hospice for the purposes of providing ongoing palliative care as a participating care giver on the hospice care team.

(6) "Palliative care" means the reduction or abatement of pain and other troubling symptoms by appropriate coordination of all elements of the hospice care team needed to achieve needed relief of distress.

(7) "Patient" means the terminally ill individual receiving hospice services.

(8) "Terminally ill" refers to a medical prognosis of limited expected survival, of 1 year or less at the time of referral to a hospice, of an individual who is experiencing an illness for which therapeutic strategies directed toward cure and control of the disease alone outside the context of symptom control are no longer appropriate.

History.—s. 1, ch. 79-186.

<sup>1</sup>Note.—Reference to ch. 617 was substituted for "417" by the editors to correct an obvious typographical error.

(1) On or after July 1, 1980, no public or private agency or person shall establish, conduct, or maintain a hospice program or organization providing hospice services or hold itself out to the public as a hospice without first obtaining a license therefor from the department.

(2) The license shall be displayed in a conspicuous place inside the hospice program office; shall be valid only in the possession of the individual, firm, partnership, association, or corporation to whom it is issued; and shall not be subject to sale, assignment, or other transfer, voluntary or involuntary, nor shall a license be valid for any hospice other than that for which originally issued.

History.—s. 3, ch. 79-186.

Any public or private agency or person who has obtained a certificate of need for a hospice program but who, by July 1, 1980, will only have the hospice home-care program operational, shall be licensed as a hospice under this act; however, if by January 1, 1981, such hospice program has not fully implemented the homelike inpatient hospice care and outpatient hospice care portions of the hospice program, the license will immediately be revoked.

History.—s. 4, ch. 79-186.

400.604 Exemptions.—Services provided by a hospital, nursing home, or other health care facility, health care provider, or care giver shall not be considered to constitute a hospice program of care unless such facility, health care provider, or care giver establishes a free-standing or distinct hospice unit, staff, facility, and services to provide hospice home care, homelike inpatient hospice care, and outpatient hospice care under a separate and distinct administrative authority of a hospice program.

History.—s. 5, ch. 79-186.

400.605 Administration; forms; fees; rules; fines.—The administration of this act is vested in the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services, which shall:

(1) Prepare and furnish all forms necessary under the provisions of this act in relation to applications for licensure or renewals thereof.

(2) Collect in advance (and the applicant so served shall pay to it in advance) at the time of filing an application for a license or at the time of renewal of a license a fee of $100.

(3) Adopt rules, within the standards of this act, necessary to effect the purposes of this act.

(4) Impose administrative fines pursuant to this act, not to exceed $1,000 per fine, for any violation of the provisions of this act.

History.—s. 2, ch. 79-186.

400.606 License; application; renewal; conditional license or permit.—

(1) An application shall be filed on a form prescribed by the department and shall be accompanied by the appropriate license fee as well as satisfactory proof that the hospice is in compliance with this act and any rules and minimum standards promulgated hereunder and proof of financial ability to operate and conduct the hospice in accordance with the requirements of this act.

(2) A license issued for the operation of a hospice program, unless sooner suspended or revoked, shall expire 1 year from the date of issuance. Sixty days prior to the expiration date, an application for renewal shall be submitted to the department on forms furnished by the department, and the license shall be renewed if the applicant has first met the requirements established under this act and all rules promulgated hereunder and has provided the information described in subsection (1) in addition to the application.

(3) A hospice program against which a revocation or suspension proceeding is pending at the time of license renewal may be issued a conditional license effective until final disposition by the department of such proceedings. If judicial relief is sought from the final disposition, the court having jurisdiction may issue a conditional permit for the duration of the judicial proceeding.

(4) The department shall not issue a license to a hospice which fails to receive a certificate of need under the provisions of ss. 381.493-381.497, as amended by ch. 79-186, Laws of Florida.

History.—s. 6, ch. 79-186.

400.607 Denial, suspension, or revocation of license; grounds.—

(1) The department may deny, revoke, or suspend a license or impose an administrative fine, which shall not exceed $1,000 per violation, in the manner provided in chapter 120.

(2) Any of the following actions by a hospice program or any of its employees shall be grounds for action by the department against a hospice program:

(a) Violation of provisions of this act or of any standards or rules promulgated hereunder.

(b) An intentional or negligent act materially affecting the health or safety of a patient.

History.—s. 7, ch. 79-186.

(1) A hospice care program shall coordinate its services with those of the patient's primary or attending physicians.

(2) A hospice shall coordinate its services with professional and nonprofessional services already in the community. A hospice program may contract out for some elements of its services for a patient and family; however, direct patient care must be maintained with the patient and the hospice care team so that overall coordination of services, which is responsive and appropriate to the patient and family needs, can be maintained by the hospice care team.

(3) A hospice care team shall be responsible for inpatient, outpatient, and home-care aspects of care.

(4) Any inpatient facility shall be under the direct and sole administration of the hospice program.

(5) Hospice care shall provide symptom control provided by a hospice care team skilled in medical and psychosocial management of distressing signs and symptoms.

(6) The hospice shall have a medical director, licensed pursuant to chapter 458 or chapter 459, who shall have responsibility for medical direction of the care and treatment of patients and their families rendered by the hospice care teams.

(7) Hospice care will be available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

(8) A hospice program shall have a bereavement program which shall provide a continuum of supportive and therapeutic services for the family, including formal and informal individual, family, and group treatment modalities used as needed to support the bereaved family.

(9) A hospice program shall foster independence of the patient and his family by providing training, encouragement, and support so that the patient and family can care for themselves as much as possible.

(10) The unit of care in a hospice program shall be the patient and family.

(11) A hospice program will provide a continuum of care and a continuity of care givers throughout the length of care for the patient and to the family through the bereavement period.

(12) A hospice program of care shall not impose the dictates of any value or belief system on its patients and their families.

(13) Admission to a hospice program shall be made by a physician licensed pursuant to chapter 458 or chapter 459 and shall be dependent on the expressed request and informed consent of the patient and family.

(14) Accurate and current records shall be kept on all patients and their families.

(15) A professional nurse licensed pursuant to chapter 464 shall be employed on a full-time basis by the hospice as a patient care coordinator to supervise and coordinate the palliative and supportive care for patients and families provided by a hospice care team.

History.—s. 8, ch. 79-186.

400.609 Components of hospice programs of care.—Each hospice program shall consist of three components or modes of care which afford the terminally ill individual and the family of the terminally ill individual a range of service delivery which can be tailored to specific needs of the patient and family at any point in time. These three components are:

(1) HOSPICE HOME CARE.—This form of delivery of services shall be the primary form of care. The services of the hospice home care program shall be of the highest quality and shall be provided by the interdisciplinary, interactive qualified hospice team members.

(2) INPATIENT HOSPICE CARE.—The inpatient facility is a backup to hospice home care and shall primarily be used only for short-term stays. The hospice facility shall be designed in such a manner to provide comfort, warmth, safety, privacy, and dignity for the terminally ill patient and the family. Every possible accommodation shall be made to avoid creating an institutional atmosphere. The facility shall provide as homelike an atmosphere as practicable. There shall be a continuum of care and a continuity of care givers between the hospice home program and the inpatient aspect of care to the extent practicable.

(3) OUTPATIENT HOSPICE CARE.—The hospice outpatient service shall meet the same standards of quality as applied to inpatient care and hospice home care, considering the inherent differences between inpatients and outpatients with respect to their needs and modes of treatment. The hours for daily operation and the location of the place where the services are provided shall be determined, to the extent practicable, by the accessibility of such services to the patients and families served by the hospice program.

History.—s. 9, ch. 79-186.

400.610 Administration and management of a hospice program.—

(1) A hospice program shall have a clearly defined organized governing body, consisting of a minimum of seven persons who are representative of the local community at large, which has autonomous authority for the conduct of the hospice program.

(2) The hospice program shall have a director, administrator, or manager who shall be responsible for the overall coordination and administration of the hospice program.

History.—s. 10, ch. 79-186.

400.611 Interdisciplinary records of care.—

An up-to-date, interdisciplinary record of care being given and patient and family status shall be kept. Records shall contain pertinent past and current medical, nursing, social, and other therapeutic information and such other information that is necessary for the safe and adequate care of the patient and the family. Notations regarding all aspects of care for the patient and family shall be made in the record. When services are terminated, the record shall show the date and reason for termination.

History.—s. 11, ch. 79-186.

400.612 Right of inspection.—Any duly authorized officer or employee of the department shall have the right to make such inspections and investigations as are necessary in order to determine the state of compliance with the provisions of this act and of rules or standards in force pursuant hereto. The right of inspection shall also extend to any hospice program which the department has reason to believe is being operated as a hospice without a license, but no such inspection of any hospice shall be made without the permission of the owner or person in charge thereof unless a warrant is first obtained from a circuit court authorizing same. Any application for a license or renewal thereof made pursuant to this act shall constitute permission for any inspection of the hospice for which the license is sought in order to facilitate verification of the information submitted on or in connection with the application.

History.—s. 12, ch. 79-186.

400.613 Patient record information confidential.—Information received by persons employed by, or providing services to, a hospice or received by the licensing agency through reports or inspection shall be deemed privileged and confidential information and shall not be disclosed to any person other than the patient or the family without the written consent of that patient, the patient's guardian, or the patient's family.

History.—s. 13, ch. 79-186.

(1) It is unlawful for any person or public body to offer or advertise to the public in any way by any medium whatever to be a hospice as defined in this act without obtaining a valid current license. It is unlawful for any holder of a license issued pursuant to the provisions of this act to advertise or hold out to the public that it holds a license for a hospice program other than that for which it actually holds a license.

(2) Any person found guilty of violating subsection (1) is guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.083. Each day of a continuing violation shall be considered a separate offense.

History.—s. 14, ch. 79-186.

400.615 Rules.—The department shall, by January 1, 1980, promulgate applicable rules and standards in furtherance of the purpose of this act and may amend such rules as may be necessary. The rules shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

(1) The qualifications of professional and ancillary personnel in order to adequately furnish hospice care;

(2) Standards for the organization and quality of patient care;

(3) Procedures for maintaining records; and

(4) Provision for contractual arrangements for professional and ancillary hospice services.

MEDICAL TELECOMMUNICATIONS AND TRANSPORTATION

PART I EMERGENCY TELECOMMUNICATION SYSTEMS

(ss. 401.013-401.027)

PART II EMERGENCY MEDICAL SERVICES GRANTS (ss. 401.101-401.121)

PART III MEDICAL TRANSPORTATION SERVICES (ss. 401.21-401.47)

PART I

EMERGENCY TELECOMMUNICATION SYSTEMS

- 401.013 Legislative intent.
- 401.015 Statewide regional emergency medical telecommunication system.
- 401.018 System coordination.
- 401.021 System director.
- 401.024 System approval.
- 401.027 Federal assistance.

401.013 Legislative intent.—It is the intention and purpose of the Legislature that a statewide system of regional emergency medical telecommunications be developed whereby maximum use of existing radio channels is achieved in order to more effectively and rapidly provide emergency medical service to the general population. To this end, all emergency medical service entities within the state are directed to provide the Division of Communications of the Department of General Services with any information the division requests for the purpose of implementing the provisions of s. 401.015, and such entities shall comply with the resultant provisions established pursuant to this part.

History.—s. 1, ch. 73-254.

401.015 Statewide regional emergency medical telecommunication system.—The Division of Communications of the Department of General Services is authorized and directed to develop a statewide system of regional emergency medical telecommunications. For the purpose of this part, the term telecommunications shall mean those voice, data, and signaling transmissions and receptions between emergency medical service components, including, but not limited to: ambulances; rescue vehicles; hospitals or other related emergency receiving facilities; emergency communications centers; physicians and emergency medical personnel; paging facilities; law enforcement and fire protection agencies; and poison control, suicide, and disaster control centers. In formulating such a system, the division shall divide the state into appropriate regions and shall develop a program which shall include, but not be limited to, the following provisions:

- (1) A requirements provision, which shall state the telecommunications requirements for each emergency medical entity comprising the region.
- (2) An interfacility communications provision, which shall depict the telecommunications interfaces between the various medical service entities which operate within the region and state.

(3) An organizational layout provision, which shall include each emergency medical entity and the number of radio operating units (base, mobile, handheld, etc.) per entity.

(4) A frequency allocation and use provision, which shall include on an entity basis each assigned and planned radio channel and the type of operation (simplex, duplex, half duplex, etc.) on each channel.

(5) An operational provision, which shall include dispatching, logging, and operating procedures pertaining to telecommunications on an entity basis and regional basis.

(6) An emergency medical service telephone provision, which shall include the telephone and the numbering plan throughout the region for both the public and interface requirements.

History.—s. 2, ch. 73-254.

401.018 System coordination.—

(1) The statewide system of regional emergency medical telecommunications shall be developed by the Division of Communications, which division shall be responsible for the implementation and coordination of such system into the state telecommunications plan. The division shall adopt any necessary rules and regulations for implementing and coordinating such a system.

(2) The Division of Communications shall be designated as the state frequency coordinator for the special emergency radio service.

History.—s. 3, ch. 73-254.

401.021 System director.—The director of the Division of Communications is designated as the director of the statewide telecommunications system of the regional emergency medical service and, for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this part, is authorized to coordinate the activities of the telecommunications system with other interested state, county, local, and private agencies.

History.—s. 4, ch. 73-254.

401.024 System approval.—From July 1, 1973, no emergency medical telecommunications system shall be established or present systems expanded without prior approval of the Division of Communications.

History.—s. 5, ch. 73-254.

401.027 Federal assistance.—The director of the Division of Communications is authorized to apply for and accept federal funding assistance in the development and implementation of a statewide emergency medical telecommunications system.

History.—s. 6, ch. 73-254.

PART II

EMERGENCY MEDICAL SERVICES GRANTS

- 401.101 Short title.
- 401.104 Legislative intent.
- 401.107 Definitions.
- 401.111 Emergency medical services grant program; authority.
- 401.113 Department; powers and duties.
- 401.117 Grant agreements; conditions.
- 401.121 Rules and regulations.

401.101 Short title.—This part shall be known and may be cited as the "Florida Emergency Medical Services Grant Act of 1973."

History.—s. 1, ch. 73-262.

401.104 Legislative intent.—It is the legislative intent that emergency medical services are essential to the health and well-being of all citizens and that private and public expenditures for adequate emergency medical services represent a constructive and essential investment in the future of the state and our democratic society. A major impediment to the provision of adequate and economic emergency medical services to all citizens is the inability of governmental and private agencies within a service area to respond cooperatively in order to finance the systematic provision of such services. This grant program is established to encourage and assist such cooperative efforts.

History.—s. 2, ch. 73-262.

401.107 Definitions.—As used in this part, unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

(1) "Department" means the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services.

(2) "Local agency" means the board of county commissioners of the various counties in the state.

(3) "Emergency medical services" means the provision of medical care and transportation to sick, injured, or otherwise incapacitated persons on the streets, highways, waterways, or airways of this state.

History.—s. 3, ch. 73-262; s. 245, ch. 77-147.

401.111 Emergency medical services grant program; authority.—The Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services is hereby authorized to make grants to local agencies in accordance with any agreement entered into pursuant to this part. These grants shall be designed to assist said agencies in providing emergency medical services. The cost of administering this program shall be paid by the department from funds appropriated to it.

History.—s. 4, ch. 73-262; s. 246, ch. 77-147.

401.113 Department; powers and duties.—

Grants made under the provisions of this part shall be contingent upon the local agency providing a sum equal to the grant amount. In addition, grants shall be disbursed in accordance with the conditions set forth in s. 401.117 and under such terms and subject to such conditions as the department may establish. The appropriation for this grant program shall be divided into two parts with 60 percent of the available appropriation used to fund applications from local agencies in counties with less than 50,000 residents while the remaining 40 percent shall be used to fund applications from local agencies in counties with more than 50,000 residents. An application from more than one local agency for a joint program shall qualify the applicants to receive funds from their category individually or from the population category of their combined resident population. Resident population shall be determined by the latest official state estimate prepared pursuant to s. 23.019. If, after 9 months of any fiscal year, the applications in either category do not equal or exceed the amount of money allocated to that category, the remainder of the funds may be applied for by any applicant.

History.—s. 5, ch. 73-262; s. 1, ch. 77-174.
cf.—s. 11.031 Official census.

401.117 Grant agreements; conditions.—The Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services shall use the following guidelines in developing the procedures for grant disbursement:

(1) The need for emergency medical services and the requirements of the population to be served.

(2) All emergency vehicles and attendants must conform to state standards established by law or regulation of the department.

(3) All vehicles shall contain minimum equipment and supplies as required by law or regulation of the department.

(4) All vehicles shall have at a minimum a direct communications linkup with the operating base and hospital designated as the primary receiving facility.

(5) Emphasis shall be accorded to applications that contain one or more of the following provisions:

(a) Services provided on a county, multicounty, or areawide basis.

(b) A single provider, or a coordinated provider, method of delivering services.

(c) Coordination of all communication links, including police, fire, emergency vehicles, and other related services.

History.—s. 6, ch. 73-262; s. 247, ch. 77-147.

401.121 Rules and regulations.—The department is authorized to make rules and regulations necessary to carry out the purposes of this part, including funds and assistance to nonprofit volunteer ambulance organizations desiring to comply with the Florida Emergency Medical Services Act of 1973.

History.—s. 7, ch. 73-262.

PART III

MEDICAL TRANSPORTATION SERVICES

- 401.21 Short title.
- 401.23 Definitions.
- 401.24 Emergency and nonemergency medical transportation services; state plan.
- 401.25 Emergency or nonemergency medical transportation service license.
- 401.26 Medical transportation service vehicle permits.

- 401.46 Advanced life support services, certification.
- 401.47 Paramedics.

401.21 Short title.—Sections 401.21-401.47 shall be known and may be cited as the "Florida Emergency and Nonemergency Medical Services Act."

History.—s. 1, ch. 73-126; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457; ss. 3, 10, ch. 79-280.

401.23 Definitions.—As used in this act, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise:

(1) "Ambulance" means any private or publicly owned land, air, or water vehicle that is designed, constructed, reconstructed, maintained, equipped, or operated for, and is used for, or intended to be used for, air, land, or water transportation of persons who are in need of emergency medical attention.

(2) "Emergency medical technician (EMT)" means any person who possesses a valid basic emergency medical technician's certificate issued pursuant to the provisions of this act.

(3) "Ambulance driver" means any person who possesses a valid emergency ambulance driver's certificate issued pursuant to the provisions of this act.

(4) "License" means any authorization to provide ambulance or nonemergency medical transportation services issued pursuant to the provisions of this act.

(5) "Permit" means any authorization issued pursuant to the provisions of this act for a vehicle to be operated as an ambulance or as a nonemergency medical transportation vehicle.

(6) "Certificate" means any authorization issued pursuant to the provisions of this act to a person to act as an emergency medical technician, an emergency ambulance driver, or a paramedic.

(7) "Department" means the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services.

(8) "Secretary" means the secretary of Health and Rehabilitative Services.

(9) "Paramedic" means a person certified by the department to administer advanced life-support techniques, based on accepted national standards.

(10) "Responsible supervision" means direct physician supervision through two-way voice communication or, when such voice communication is unavailable, through established standing orders, developed and supervised by a licensed physician.

(11) "Established standing orders" means written orders, developed and supervised by a licensed physician, outlining the steps to be followed for handling a particular medical situation or resolving a particular medical problem.

(12) "Advanced life support" means treatment of life-threatening medical emergencies through the use of techniques such as intubation, drugs, intravenous fluids, telemetry, and cardiac defibrillation, by a qualified person.

(13) "Physician" means a physician licensed under the provisions of chapter 458 or chapter 459.

(14) "Advanced life-support services/fire rescue" means any fire department which provides advanced life-support services, but which does not routinely transport those persons receiving such services.

(15) "Nonemergency medical transportation vehicle" means any privately or publicly owned land, air, or water vehicle that is designed, constructed, reconstructed, maintained, equipped, or operated for, and is used for, or intended to be used for, air, land, or water transportation of persons with non-emergency conditions requiring specialized transportation, including a vehicle operated by a wheelchair ambulance service company.

History.—s. 3, ch. 73-126; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 248, ch. 77-147; s. 1, ch. 77-347; s. 1, ch. 77-457; ss. 1, 4, 10, ch. 79-280.

Note.—The word "persons" was inserted by the editors.

Note.—The words "a vehicle operated by a" were inserted by the editors.

401.24 Emergency and nonemergency medical transportation services; state plan.—The department is responsible for the improvement and regulation of emergency and nonemergency medical transportation services. In addition to the duties otherwise imposed by this act, it shall develop and periodically revise a comprehensive state plan for emergency and nonemergency medical transportation services. The state plan shall include, but not be limited to:

(1) Procedures for facility and system planning.

(2) Requirements for the operation and coordination of ambulances, nonemergency transportation vehicles, and other medical care components.

(3) The definition of areas of responsibility for regulation and planning.

History.—s. 4, ch. 73-126; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457; ss. 5, 10, ch. 79-280.

§401.25 Emergency or nonemergency medical transportation service license.—

(1) Every person, firm, corporation, association, or governmental entity owning or acting as agent for the owner of any business or service which furnishes, operates, conducts, maintains, advertises, engages in, proposes to engage in, or professes to engage in the business or service of transporting sick, injured, handicapped, or otherwise incapacitated persons upon the streets, highways, waterways, or airways of this state shall submit a written application to the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services. Hospitals transporting their own patients in their own vehicles are exempt from this section if they do not charge a fee for this service.

(2) The application shall include:

(a) The name and business address of the operator and owner of the ambulance service, nonemergency medical transportation service, proposed ambulance service, or proposed nonemergency medical transportation service.

(b) The name under which the applicant will operate.

(c) A list of the names and addresses of all officers, directors, and shareholders.

(d) A description of each vehicle to be used, including the make, model, year of manufacture, mileage, motor and chassis numbers, passenger capacity, size, and gross weight of each vehicle; state or federal aviation or marine registration number where applicable; and the color scheme, insignia, name, monogram, or other distinguishing characteristics to be used to designate the applicant's vehicle or vehicles.

(e) The location and description of each place from which the emergency or nonemergency medical transportation service will operate.

(f) A statement reasonably describing the geographic area or areas to be served by the applicant.

(g) Such other information as the department deems reasonable and necessary.

(3) The department shall issue a license for operation within 60 days of the filing of the application to any applicant complying with the following requirements:

(a) The applicant has paid the fees required by s. 401.34.

(b) The ambulances, equipment, vehicles, drivers, attendants, and services meet the requirements of this act, including appropriate rules and regulations.

(c) The applicant has furnished evidence of adequate insurance coverage for claims arising out of injury or death of persons and damage to the property of others resulting from any cause for which the owner of said business or service would be liable. The applicant shall provide insurance in such sums and under such terms as required by the department.

(d) The applicant has obtained a certificate of public convenience and necessity from the county commission in each county in which the applicant will operate.

(4) The department is authorized to suspend or revoke a license at any time if it determines that the licensee has failed to maintain compliance with the requirements prescribed for operating an emergency or nonemergency medical transportation service.

(5) Licenses issued in accordance with the provisions of this act shall be valid for a period of 1 year from the date of issuance.

(6) The requirements for renewal of any license issued under the provisions of this act shall be the same as requirements current at the time of renewal for original licensure.

(7) The department shall issue temporary licenses to applicants presently providing emergency or nonemergency medical transportation service but not meeting required standards, valid for a period not to exceed 1 year, when it determines that there is no other such service available in an area and that the public interest, safety, and convenience will be served. As a condition for the issuance of a temporary license, the applicant must initiate appropriate steps to insure that the business or service meets the prescribed standards within 1 year from the date of issuance of the license.

(8) The governing body of each county is authorized to adopt ordinances providing reasonable standards for certificates of public convenience and necessity for emergency or nonemergency medical transportation services.

History.—ss. 5, 16, ch. 73-126; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 249, ch. 77-147; s. 1, ch. 77-457; s. 19, ch. 78-95; ss. 6, 10, ch. 79-280.

(1) Every emergency or nonemergency medical transportation service licensed under the provisions of this act shall possess a valid permit for each ambulance or vehicle in use. Application for such permits shall be made upon forms and in accordance with procedures prescribed by the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services.

(2) Prior to issuing an original or a renewal permit for a vehicle, the department shall inspect each vehicle and determine whether it meets all requirements of vehicle design, construction, communications, medical equipment and supplies, and sanitation prescribed in this act for such vehicle and in regulations promulgated by the department.

(3) The department is authorized to suspend or revoke a permit if it determines that the vehicle or its equipment fails to meet the requirements specified in this act or in the regulations of the department.

(4) Permits issued in accordance with the provisions of this section shall be valid for a period of 1 year from the date of issuance.

(5) The requirements for renewal of any permit issued under the provisions of this act shall be the same as requirements current at the time of renewal for an original permit.

(6) The department may issue a temporary permit for any vehicle not meeting required standards, valid for a period not to exceed 1 year, when it determines that there is no other emergency or nonemergency medical transportation service available in an area and that the public interest, safety, and convenience will be served. As a condition for the issuance of a temporary permit, the emergency or nonemergency medical transportation service owner must initiate appropriate steps to insure that within 1 year the vehicle will conform to the prescribed regulations.

1401.27 Certification and standards for personnel.—

(1) After January 1, 1974, every ambulance not specifically excluded from the provisions of this act, when transporting a sick, injured, wounded, incapacitated, or helpless person, shall be occupied by at least two persons, one of whom holds either a valid emergency medical technician's certificate or a medical or registered nursing license, as provided for in chapters 458, 459, or chapter 464. In addition, the driver shall possess a valid emergency ambulance driver's certificate.

(2) Any person desiring certification as an emergency medical technician or an emergency ambulance driver shall make application to the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services upon forms provided by the department. The department shall determine whether the applicant meets the prescribed qualifications for certification as set forth in this section and in the regulations promulgated by the department and issue a certificate if the applicant meets the qualifications.

(3) An applicant for an emergency medical technician's certificate must:

(a) Have completed an emergency medical technician training program of at least 80 hours or its equivalent, approved by the department.

(b) Complete any appropriate refresher training as required by the department.

(c) Be free from addiction to alcohol or any narcotic drug.

(d) Be free from any physical or mental defect or disease which might impair the applicant's ability to attend an ambulance.

(e) Have taken and passed an examination for emergency medical technicians, developed or required by the department.

(f) Hold a valid American Heart Association Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation (CPR) course card or its equivalent.

(4) An applicant for an emergency ambulance driver's certificate must meet all standards required of an emergency medical technician, except the 80-hour training required in paragraph (3)(a) and the requirements of paragraphs (3)(e) and (f), and in addition:

(a) Must have completed, when applicable, within the past 2 years, a defensive driving course or a flight safety or water vehicle operator's safety course, approved by the department.

(b) Must hold, if applicable, a valid Florida chauffeur's license.

(c) Must hold a Federal Aviation Administration instrument flight reference rating or marine certificate, if applicable.

(d) Must hold a valid American Red Cross Standard First Aid and Personal Safety Course Card or its equivalent.

(5) Emergency medical technician and emergency ambulance driver's certificates are valid for a period of 3 years from the date of issuance and may be renewed if the holder meets the prescribed qualifications at the time of renewal.

(6) The department is authorized to suspend or revoke a certificate at any time if it determines that the holder fails to meet the prescribed qualifications.

(7) A provisional certification may be issued to an applicant upon completion of such training as required by the department, and such provisional certification shall be conditioned upon the applicant's taking the steps necessary to undertake the next available examination for certification developed or required by the department, for which the applicant is eligible or qualified. The department shall revoke a provisional certification of an applicant who fails to pass or appear for the next available examination for which the applicant is eligible or qualified.

to that date.

401.31 Inspection and examination.—

(1) In order to carry out the requirements of this act, the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services shall inspect each emergency and each nonemergency medical transportation service licensee, including ambulances, vehicles, equipment, personnel, records, premises, and operational procedures, at reasonable times and whenever such inspection is deemed necessary by the department, but in no event less frequently than once a year. The periodic inspection required by this section shall be in addition to other state or local motor vehicle safety inspections required for ambulances or other motor vehicles under general law or ordinance.

(2) The department shall, in the course of the inspections provided for in subsection (1), determine the continuing compliance of each business, ambulance, vehicle, emergency medical technician, and driver with the requirements of this act and the rules promulgated by the department.

History.—s. 11, ch. 73-126; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 255, ch. 77-147; s. 3, ch. 77-347; s. 1, ch. 77-457; ss. 8, 10, ch. 79-280.

401.32 Transfer or assignment.—No certificate, permit, or license issued under the provisions of this act shall be assignable or transferable by the person to whom issued, except upon approval by the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services. A transfer or assignment shall be conducted in the same manner and subject to the same application, investigation, fees, and standards as original applications.

History.—s. 12, ch. 73-126; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 256, ch. 77-147; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

401.33 Exemptions.—

(1) The following vehicles or ambulances are exempt from the provisions of this act:

(a) A privately owned vehicle not ordinarily used in the business of transporting persons who are sick, injured, wounded, incapacitated, or helpless.

(b) A vehicle rendering services as an ambulance in the event of a major catastrophe or emergency when ambulances with permits based in the locality of the catastrophe or emergency are incapacitated or insufficient in number to render the services needed.

(c) Ambulances based outside this state, except that any such ambulance receiving a person within this state for transport to a location within this state shall comply with the provisions of this act.

(2) Volunteer personnel operating any ambulance owned and operated by a volunteer emergency squad chartered by the state as a corporation not for profit prior to October 1, 1973, or a volunteer emergency squad operated by county commissions which shall be approved by the department as to suitability and need to serve areas having a population not in excess of 5,000 persons, shall be exempt from the provisions of s. 401.27, provided the competence of the volunteers is certified to by two physicians licensed by chapters 458 or 459 practicing in the county in which the volunteer squad operates and the volunteer squad serves an area defined by the department having a population not in excess of 5,000 persons. The department shall define with geographic certainty the boundaries of service for the area served by such volunteer squads. The exemption provided by this subsection shall expire January 1, 1976.

(3) The provisions of chapter 79-280, Laws of Florida, shall not apply to public bus system vehicles.

401.35 Rules.—In consultation with appropriate representatives of emergency medical teams employed by public agencies and nonemergency medical transportation services, the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services shall promulgate rules necessary to carry out the purposes of this act. These rules shall provide at least:

(1) Minimum standards governing the sanitation and maintenance of emergency and nonemergency medical transportation vehicles.

(2) Minimum standards governing emergency medical technician and driver training and qualifications.

(3) Minimum standards for ambulance equipment and supplies at least as comprehensive as those promulgated by the American College of Surgeons, including provisions for two-way communications.

(4) Minimum standards at least equal to those recommended by the United States Department of Transportation governing vehicle design and construction.

(5) On or before January 1, 1978, minimum standards for design and construction of vehicles providing advanced life-support services, standards for equipment, and vehicle staffing standards.

History.—s. 15, ch. 73-126; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 257, ch. 77-147; s. 5, ch. 77-347; s. 1, ch. 77-457; ss. 8, 10, ch. 79-280.

401.355 Licenses exempt from regulation by Florida Public Service Commission.—Notwithstanding any other provision of law, vehicles required to be licensed under this act shall not be subject to regulation under chapter 323 or chapter 350, and all statutory powers, duties, and functions of the Florida Public Service Commission with respect to such vehicles are hereby declared to be void and inoperative.

History.—s. 11, ch. 79-280.

401.36 Liability.—No act or omission of any emergency medical technician, paramedic, or ambulance driver, done or omitted in good faith while rendering emergency medical service under the responsible supervision and control of a licensed physician to a person who is deemed by them to be in immediate danger of serious injury or loss of life, shall impose any liability upon the licensee, emergency medical technician, ambulance driver, paramedic, or supervising physician; upon any hospital; or upon any federal, state, county, city, or other local government unit or its employees. This section does not relieve the licensee, emergency medical technician, driver, paramedic, physician, or hospital from liability while rendering such emergency care if such licensee, emergency medical technician, driver, paramedic, physician, or hospital is guilty of negligence.

History.—s. 17, ch. 73-126; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 6, ch. 77-347; s. 1, ch. 77-457; s. 95, ch. 79-164.

401.37 Consent.—No licensee, emergency medical technician, driver, paramedic, physician, or hospital licensed in this state shall be subject to civil liability based solely upon failure to obtain consent in rendering emergency medical, surgical, hospital, or health services to any individual regardless of age when the patient is unable to give his consent for any reason and there is no other person reasonably available who is legally authorized to consent to the providing of such care.

History.—s. 18, ch. 73-126; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 7, ch. 77-347; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

401.38 Participation in federal programs.—The department shall develop federal funding proposals and apply for all federal funds available to carry out the purposes of this act. The department is authorized to participate in those federal programs aimed at the delivery of emergency medical services or nonemergency medical transportation services and shall include such programs in its comprehensive plan.

History.—s. 19, ch. 73-126; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457; ss. 8, 10, ch. 79-280.

401.39 Additional regulations.—Nothing in this act shall be construed as preventing any county or city, whether acting jointly or independently, from enacting additional regulations not in contravention of the provisions of this act.

History.—s. 20, ch. 73-126; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

401.40 Service operated by funeral establishment.—Any emergency or nonemergency medical transportation service operated out of a facility licensed under chapter 470 shall keep its records separate from those of the funeral establishment and maintain a separate phone number.

History.—s. 21, ch. 73-126; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 1, ch. 77-457; ss. 8, 10, ch. 79-280.

401.41 Penalties.—

(1) Any person violating, or failing to comply with, any provision of this act is guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

(2) Each day that a violation of this act is committed or permitted to continue shall constitute a separate and distinct offense under this section.

History.—s. 22, ch. 73-126; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

401.42 Injunctive relief.—The secretary may cause to be instituted a civil action for injunctive relief in an appropriate circuit court to prevent violation of any provision of this act or any rule or regulation adopted by the department pursuant to the provisions of this act.

History.—s. 22, ch. 73-126; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

401.43 Fraudulently obtaining services from ambulance licensee.—Whoever, willfully and with intent to defraud, obtains or attempts to obtain services from an ambulance service licensee is guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 23, ch. 73-126; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

401.44 Turning in a false alarm.—Whoever summons an ambulance or reports that an ambulance is needed when such person knows or has reason to know that the services of an ambulance are not needed is guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 24, ch. 73-126; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

to that date.

(1) No person shall be denied treatment for any emergency medical condition which will deteriorate from a failure to provide such treatment at any hospital licensed under chapter 395 that operates an emergency department providing emergency treatment to the public.

(2) A hospital or its employees or any physician or dentist responding to an apparent need for emergency treatment pursuant to this section shall not be held liable in any action arising out of a refusal to render emergency treatment or care if reasonable care is exercised in determining the condition of the person and in determining the appropriateness of the facilities and the qualifications and availability of personnel to render such treatment.

History.—s. 26, ch. 73-126; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

401.46 Advanced life support services, certification.—

(1) Any person, firm, corporation, association, or governmental entity which seeks to provide or is now providing advanced life-support services as an ambulance or fire rescue service shall be certified by the department as having met minimum standards promulgated by the department, which shall include, but shall not be limited to, standards for intensive care vehicles, staffing requirements for such intensive care vehicles, and such other requirements necessary to maintain acceptable standards for advanced life-support services. Advanced life-support services/fire rescue vehicles may retain their fire department identity and may use color schemes, insignia, names, monograms, or other distinguishing characteristics which are acceptable to the fire department to designate such vehicles as advanced life-support vehicles.

(2) Any emergency medical services system employing or utilizing paramedics to perform advanced life-support procedures must employ, or contract with, a medical director, who shall be a licensed physician, to supervise, and accept responsibility for the medical performance of, the emergency medical technicians and paramedics functioning for that emergency medical services system.

History.—s. 8, ch. 77-347; s. 2, ch. 79-280.

(1) On January 1, 1978, the department shall establish, by rule, educational and training criteria and examinations for the certification of paramedics which shall require proficiency in providing cardiopulmonary resuscitation and defibrillation, the administration of drugs, and the performance of other necessary procedures to administer advanced life-support services. The department shall allow 1 year from the date on which the rules authorized under this subsection are published for affected persons to comply with such rules and standards. In carrying out the provisions of this section and prior to public hearings as provided in chapter 120, the department shall consult with employees, who represent no less than nine public employers who are certified by a licensed physician or local medical society, whichever is applicable, and who are performing advanced life support service as members of the employers' emergency medical team. Said rules shall be published at least 3 months prior to the effective date of this section. Provisional certification as provided in section 401.27(7) shall not be applicable to this section.

(2) Any person desiring certification as a paramedic shall make application to the department on forms provided by the department. The department shall issue certification as a paramedic to those persons who meet the qualifications established in rules promulgated by the department.

(3) Paramedics shall administer advanced life-support services only under the responsible supervision of a licensed physician.

(4) Any person who has not been certified by the department as having met the qualifications for certification as a paramedic and who holds himself out as a paramedic is guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.084 or by fine not exceeding $500.

History.—s. 9, ch. 77-347.

402.16 Proceedings by department.—

(1) Whenever it becomes necessary for the welfare and convenience of any of the institutions now under the supervision and control of the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services, or which may hereafter be placed under the supervision and control of said department, to acquire private property for the use of any of said institutions, and the same cannot be acquired by agreement satisfactory to the said department and the parties interested in, or the owners of said private property, the department is hereby empowered and authorized to exercise the right of eminent domain, and to proceed to condemn the said property in the same manner as provided by law for the condemnation of property.

(2) Any suit or actions brought by the said department to condemn property as provided in this section shall be brought in the name of the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services, and it shall be the duty of the Department of Legal Affairs to conduct the proceedings for, and to act as counsel for the said Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services.

402.161 Authorization for sale of property.—

(1) The <sup>1</sup>[department] is authorized to sell any real or personal property that it acquired by way of donation, gift, contribution, bequest, or devise from any person, persons, or organizations when such real or personal property is determined by the <sup>1</sup>[department] not to be necessary for use in connection with the work of the <sup>1</sup>[department]. All proceeds derived from the sale of such property shall be transmitted to the State Treasury to be credited to the department.

(2) The department is authorized to use for <sup>1</sup>[department] purposes any moneys realized from the sale of any such real or personal property. It is expressly declared to be the intention of the Legislature that such moneys are appropriated to the department and may be used by it for <sup>1</sup>[department] purposes. However, such moneys shall be withdrawn in accordance with law. Such moneys are appropriated to the use of the department in addition to other funds which have been or may otherwise be appropriated for <sup>1</sup>[department] purposes.

History.—s. 1, ch. 69-268; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 70-255; s. 1, ch. 70-439; s. 17, ch. 78-433.

Note.—Bracketed word substituted by the editors for "division" (of Family Services). See s. 3, ch. 75-48, which abolished the division and assigned its functions to the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services.

Note.—Former s. 409.065.

402.17 Claims for care and maintenance; trust property.—The Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services shall protect the financial interest of the state with respect to claims which the state may have for the care and maintenance of clients of the department. The department shall hold in trust and administer money of clients and property designated for the personal benefit of clients.

(1) CLAIMS FOR CARE AND MAINTENANCE.—

(a) The department shall perform the following acts:

1. Receive and supervise the collection of sums due the state.

2. Bring any court action necessary to collect any claim the state may have against any client, former client, guardian of any client or former client, executor or administrator of the client's estate, or any person against whom any client or former client may have a claim.

3. Obtain a copy of any inventory or appraisal of the client's property filed with any court.

4. Obtain from the Social and Economic Services Program Office a financial status report on any client or former client, including the ability of third parties responsible for such client to pay all or part of the cost of the client's care and maintenance.

5. Petition the court for appointment of a guardian or administrator for an otherwise unrepresented client or former client should the financial status report or other information indicate the need for such action. The cost of any such action shall be charged against the assets or estate of the client.

6. Represent the interest of the state in any litigation in which a client or former client is a party.

7. File claims with any person, firm, or corporation or with any federal, state, county, district, or municipal agency on behalf of an unrepresented client.

8. Represent the state in the settlement of the estate of deceased clients or in the settlement of estates in which a client or a former client against whom the state may have a claim has a financial interest.

(b) The Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services may charge off accounts if it certifies that the accounts are uncollectible after diligent efforts have been made to collect them. If the department certifies an account to the Department of Legal Affairs, setting forth the circumstances upon which it predicates the uncollectibility, and if the Department of Legal Affairs concurs, the account shall be charged off.

(2) MONEY OR OTHER PROPERTY RE-

CEIVED FOR PERSONAL USE OR BENEFIT OF ANY CLIENT.—The department shall perform the following acts:

(a) Accept and administer in trust any money or other property received for personal use or benefit of any client.

(b) Deposit the money in banks qualified as state depositories.

(c) Withdraw the money and use it to meet current needs of clients.

(d) As trustee, invest in the manner authorized by law for fiduciaries money not used for current needs of clients.

(3) DEPOSIT OF FUNDS RECEIVED.—Funds received by the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services in accordance with s. 402.33 shall be deposited into a trust fund for the operation of the department.

(4) DISPOSITION OF UNCLAIMED TRUST FUNDS.—Upon the death of any client affected by the provisions of this section, any unclaimed money held in trust by the department or by the State Treasurer for him shall be applied first to the payment of any unpaid claim of the state against the client, and any balance remaining unclaimed for a period of 1 year shall escheat to the state as unclaimed funds held by fiduciaries.

(5) LEGAL REPRESENTATION.—To the extent that the budget will permit, the Department of Legal Affairs shall furnish the legal services to carry out the provisions of this section. Upon the request of the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services, the various state and county attorneys shall assist in litigation within their jurisdiction. The said department may retain legal counsel for necessary legal services which cannot be furnished by the Department of Legal Affairs and the various state and county attorneys.

(6) DEPOSIT OR INVESTMENT OF FUNDS OF CLIENTS.—

(a) The Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services may deposit any funds of clients in its possession in any bank in the state or may invest or reinvest such funds in bonds or obligations of the United States for the payment of which the full faith and credit of the United States is pledged. For purposes of deposit only, the funds of any client may be mingled with the funds of any other clients.

(b) The interest or increment accruing on such funds shall be the property of the clients and shall be used or conserved for the personal use or benefit of the individual client. Such interest shall not accrue to the general welfare of all clients. The department shall establish rules governing reasonable fees for the cost of administering such accounts and for establishing the minimum balance eligible to earn interest.

Note.—Former s. 965.08.

402.18 Welfare trust funds created; use of.

(1) All moneys now held in any auxiliary, canteen, welfare, donated, or similar fund in any state institution under the jurisdiction of the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services shall be deposited in a welfare trust fund, which fund is hereby created in the State Treasury, or in a place which the department shall designate. The money in the fund of each institution of the department is hereby appropriated for the benefit, education, and general welfare of clients in that institution. The general welfare of clients includes, but is not limited to, the establishment of, maintenance of, employment of personnel for, and the purchase of items for resale at canteens or vending machines maintained at the state institutions and for the establishment of, maintenance of, employment of personnel for, and the operation of canteens, hobby shops, recreational or entertainment facilities, or other like facilities or programs at the institutions.

(2) All moneys now held in any auxiliary, canteen, welfare, donated, or similar fund in any district of the department shall be deposited in a welfare trust fund which is hereby created in the State Treasury, or in a place which the department shall designate. Money in the fund of each district of the department is hereby appropriated for the purpose for which the donor intended. Absent specific intentions of donor, such moneys shall be used for programs for the benefit, education, and general welfare of all clients of the department.

(3) The department shall deposit in a welfare trust fund all net proceeds from the operation of canteens, vending machines, hobby shops, and other such facilities designated as accruing to a specific welfare trust fund, and any moneys which may be assigned to a specific welfare trust fund by clients or others. The moneys of said fund shall constitute a trust held by the department for the benefit and welfare of the clients of the department.

(4) Any contraband found upon, or in the possession of, any client of the department shall be confiscated and liquidated, and the proceeds thereof shall be deposited in a welfare trust fund.

(5) The department may invest in the manner authorized by law for fiduciaries any money in a welfare trust fund which is not necessary for immediate use. The interest earned and other increments derived from such investments shall be deposited in the welfare trust fund.

History.—s. 1, ch. 65-194; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 2, ch. 79-269.

402.181 State Institutions Claims Fund.

(1) There is created a State Institutions Claims Fund, available for the purpose of making restitution for property damages and direct medical expenses for injuries caused by escapees or inmates of state institutions under the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services or the Department of Corrections. There shall be a separate fund in the State Treasury which shall be the depository of all funds used for this purpose by all institutions under the supervision and control of the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services and the Department of Corrections.

(2) Claims for restitution may be filed with the Department of Legal Affairs at its office in accordance with regulations prescribed by the department. The department shall have full power and authority to hear, investigate, and determine all questions in respect to such claims and is authorized to pay individual claims up to $1,000. Claims in excess of this amount shall continue to require legislative approval.

History.—s. 1, ch. 72-120; s. 1, ch. 77-117; s. 9, ch. 77-120; s. 10, ch. 77-320; s. 16, ch. 79-3.

402.19 Photographing records; destruction of reports, etc.; effect as evidence.—The Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services may authorize each of the agencies under its supervision and control to photograph, microphotograph, or reproduce on film or prints, such correspondence, documents, records, data, and other information as the department shall determine, and which is not otherwise authorized to be reproduced under chapter 119, whether the same shall be of a temporary or permanent character and whether public, private, or confidential, including that pertaining to patients or inmates of the agencies, and to destroy any of said documents after they have been reproduced. Photographs or microphotographs in the form of film or prints made in compliance with the provisions of this section shall have the same force and effect as the originals thereof would have, and shall be treated as originals for the purpose of their admissibility in evidence. Duly certified or authenticated reproductions of such photographs or microphotographs shall be admitted in evidence equally with the original photographs or microphotographs.

Note.—Former s. 272.22.

402.20 County contracts authorized for services and facilities in mental health and retardation programs.—The boards of county commissioners are authorized to provide monetary grants and facilities, and to enter into renewable contracts, for services and facilities, for a period not to exceed 2 years, with public and private hospitals, clinics, and laboratories; other state agencies, departments, or divisions; the state colleges and universities; the community colleges; private colleges and universities; counties; municipalities; towns; townships; and any other governmental unit or nonprofit organization which provides needed facilities for the mentally ill or retarded. These services are hereby declared to be for a public and county purpose. The county commissioners may make periodic inspections to assure that the services or facilities provided under this chapter meet the standards of the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services.

Note.—Former s. 965.071.

402.21 Care and assistance of persons suffering from chronic renal diseases; establishment of programs in kidney disease control.—

(1) The Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services shall:

(a) Establish a program for the assistance of persons suffering from chronic renal disease and assist in the development and expansion of programs for the care and treatment of persons suffering from chronic renal diseases, including dialysis and other medical procedures and techniques which will have a life-saving effect in the care and treatment of persons suffering from these diseases.

(b) Develop standards for determining eligibility for care and treatment under this program.

(c) Assist in the development of programs for the prevention of chronic renal diseases.

(d) Assist in the establishment of screening programs and early diagnostic facilities.

(e) Make use of available funds and programs of the department to obtain financial assistance for persons qualified for such assistance who are suffering from chronic renal diseases.

(f) Assist in equipping dialysis centers.

(g) Institute and carry on an educational program among physicians, hospitals, county health departments, and the public concerning chronic renal diseases, including the dissemination of information and the conducting of educational programs concerning the prevention of chronic renal diseases and the methods for the care and treatment of persons suffering from these diseases.

(h) Contract with existing facilities for the provision of care as outlined.

(2) Nothing in this section shall be construed to commit the state to provide direct financial assistance to patients requiring chronic dialysis therapy.

History.—s. 1, ch. 71-139; s. 266, ch. 77-147.

402.22 Education program for students who reside in residential care facilities operated by the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services.—

(1) LEGISLATIVE INTENT.—

(a) The Legislature recognizes that the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services has under its residential care students with critical problems of physical impairment, emotional disturbances, social maladjustments, mental impairment, and learning impairment.

(b) The Legislature recognizes the vital role of education in the rehabilitation of such students. It is the intent of the Legislature that all such students shall benefit from educational services and shall receive such services.

(c) It is the intent of the Legislature that educational services shall be coordinated with appropriate and existing diagnostic and evaluative, social, follow-up, and other therapeutic services of the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services so that the effect of the total rehabilitation process is maximized.

(d) It is the intent of the Legislature that, as educational programs for students in residential care facilities are implemented by the district school board, educational personnel in the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services residential care facilities who meet the qualifications for employees of the district school board shall be employed by the district school board.

(2) EDUCATION PLAN.—District school boards shall establish educational programs for all students age 5 through 18 under the residential care of the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services and may provide for students below age 5 as provided for in s. 232.01(1)(f). Funding of such programs shall be pursuant to s. 236.081.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of chapters 393, 394, and 959, the services of the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services and those of the Department of Education and district school boards shall be mutually supportive and complimentary of each other. The education programs provided by the district school boards shall meet the standards prescribed by the State Board of Education and the district school board. Decisions regarding the design and delivery of Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services treatment or habilitative services shall be made by interdisciplinary teams of professional and paraprofessional staff of which appropriate district school system administrative and instructional personnel shall be invited to be participating members. The requirements for maintenance of confidentiality as prescribed in chapters 39, 393, 394, and 959 shall be applied.

(4) Students age 18 and under who are under the residential care of the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services beginning with the 1979-1980 fiscal year and who receive an education program shall be calculated as full-time equivalent student membership in the appropriate cost factor as provided for in s. 236.081(1)(c). Residential care facilities of the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services shall include, but not be limited to, Sunland Centers, state mental health facilities, and youth services programs (residential and day programs). For students in these residential care facilities who receive their education from the district school board during the 1979-1980 fiscal year, full-time equivalent student membership shall be allocated through the Florida Education Finance Program for the district school system. For students in these residential care facilities who receive their education from the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services during the 1979-1980 fiscal year, full-time equivalent student membership shall appear in the appropriate Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services institutional budget entities as a special category appropriation. During the 1979-1980 fiscal year, the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services may contract with local school districts for the assumption of the provision of instruction and special education services, in lieu of providing the service. Beginning with the 1980-1981 fiscal year, all students shall receive their education program from the district school system, and funding shall be allocated through the Florida Education Finance Program for the district school system.

(5) Students committed to the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services and placed in youth services residential and day programs, with the exception of students committed to the Florida School for Boys at Okeechobee, shall be assigned to the educational alternatives or other basic or special programs as appropriate provided by the district school board in the county in which the youth services facility is located. The school board of Okeechobee County shall generate by FTE the funding necessary for the students committed to the Florida School for Boys at Okeechobee to be assigned to and to participate in the educational programs provided by the Indian River Community College and by intergovernmental agreement. Such funds shall be transferred to the Indian River Community College.

(6) Instructional and special education services which are provided to youth services clients in the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services residential care facilities by local school districts shall not be less than the level of contact hours provided during the 1978-1979 fiscal year. Instructional and special educational services which are provided to mental health and retardation clients in the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services residential care facilities by local school districts shall not be less than 180 days or 900 hours; however, the 900 hours may be distributed over a 12-month period.

(7) The State Board of Education and the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services shall have the authority to promulgate rules to be effective during 1979 through 1982 fiscal years, which shall assist in the orderly transfer of the instruction of students from Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services residential care facilities to the district school system or, in the case of the Florida School for Boys at Okeechobee, to the Indian River Community College, and in implementing the specific intent as stated in this act.

History.—ss. 1, 2, ch. 71-350; s. 4, ch. 79-184.

402.301 Legislative intent and declaration of purpose and policy.—It is the legislative intent to protect the health, safety, and well-being of the children of the state. Toward that end, it is the purpose of this act to establish statewide minimum standards for the care and protection of children in child care facilities, to insure maintenance of these standards, and to approve county administration and enforcement to regulate conditions in such facilities through a program of licensing. It shall be the policy of the state to insure protection of children under care in child care facilities and to encourage and assist in the improvement of child care programs. It is the further legislative intent that the freedom of religion of all citizens shall be inviolate. Nothing in this act shall give any governmental agency jurisdiction or authority to regulate, supervise or in any way be involved in any Sunday School, Sabbath School, religious services, or any nursery service or other program conducted during religious or church services primarily for the convenience of those attending such services.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-113; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

402.302 Definitions.—As used in this act:

(1) "Department" means the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services.

(2) "Secretary" means the secretary of the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services.

(3) "Child care" means the care, protection, and supervision of a child for a period of less than 24 hours a day on a regular basis which supplements for the child, in accordance with his individual needs, daily care, enrichment opportunities, and health supervision and for which a payment, fee, or grant is made for care.

(4) "Child care facility" includes any child care center or child care arrangement which provides child care for more than five children unrelated to the operator and which receives a payment, fee, or grant for any of the children receiving care, wherever operated, and whether or not operated for profit. The following are not included: public schools and nonpublic schools which are in compliance with the Compulsory School Attendance Law, chapter 232; summer camps having children in full-time residence; summer day camps; and Bible Schools normally conducted during vacation periods.

(5) "Family day care home" means an occupied residence in which day care is regularly provided for no more than five preschool children and elementary school children from more than one unrelated family, including preschool children living in the home and preschool children received for day care who are related to the resident caregiver. Elementary school siblings of the preschool children received for day care may also be cared for outside of school hours provided the total number of children, including the caregiver's own and those related to her, does not exceed 10.

(6) "Operator" means any person ultimately responsible for the overall operation and administration of a child care facility, whether or not he is the owner.

(7) "Local licensing agency" means any agency or individual designated by the county to license child care facilities.

History.—s. 2, ch. 74-113; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

402.305 Licensing standards.—The state minimum standards shall be designed to protect the health, sanitation, safety, and well-being of all children under care by ensuring competent personnel, adequate physical surroundings, and healthful food. All standards established under this act shall be in accordance with the appropriate minimum standards used by the state fire marshal for child care facilities. The minimum standards for child care facilities shall include the following areas:

(1) PERSONNEL.—Minimum standards for child care personnel, whether employees or volunteers, which shall include minimum age requirements, periodic health examinations, minimum levels of training in first aid, and ratios of personnel to children.

(2) PHYSICAL FACILITIES.—Minimum standards for building conditions, indoor play space, outdoor play space, napping space, bathroom facilities, food preparation facilities, outdoor equipment, and indoor equipment.

(3) SANITATION AND SAFETY.—Minimum standards for sanitary and safety conditions, first aid treatment, and emergency procedures.

(4) NUTRITIONAL PRACTICES.—Minimum standards for the provision of meals or snacks of a quality and quantity to assure that the nutritional needs of the child are met.

(5) ADMISSIONS AND RECORD KEEPING.—Requirements for preadmission and periodic health examinations, requirements for immunizations, requirements for maintaining emergency information and health records on all children. Any child shall be exempt from medical or physical examination or medical or surgical treatment upon written request of the parent or guardian of such child who objects to the examination and treatment. However, the laws, rules, and regulations relating to contagious or communicable diseases and sanitary matters shall not be violated.

History.—s. 5, ch. 74-113; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

402.306 Designation of licensing agency.—

(1) Any county whose licensing standards meet or exceed state minimum standards may:

(a) Designate a local licensing agency to license child care facilities in the county; or

(b) Contract with the department to delegate the administration of state minimum standards in the county to the department.

(2) Child care facilities in any county whose standards do not meet or exceed state minimum standards shall be subject to licensing by the department under state minimum standards.

History.—s. 6, ch. 74-113; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

402.307 Approval of licensing agency.—

(1) Within 30 days after the promulgation of state minimum standards, each county shall provide the department with a copy of its standards if they differ from the state minimum standards. At the same time, each county shall provide the department with the administrative procedures it intends to use for the licensing of child care facilities.

(2) The department shall have the authority to determine if local standards meet or exceed state minimum standards. Within 60 days after the county has submitted its standards and procedures, the department, upon being satisfied that standards required by this act have been met, shall approve the local licensing agency.

(3) Approval to issue licenses for the department shall be renewed annually. For renewal, the local licensing agency shall submit to the department a copy of the licensing standards and procedures applied. An onsite review may be made if deemed necessary by the department.

(4) If, following an onsite review, the department finds the local licensing agency is not applying the approved standards, the department shall report the specific violations to the county commission of the involved county which shall investigate the violations and take whatever action necessary to correct them.

(5) The licensing of child care facilities, either by a local licensing agency or the department under the provisions of this act, shall become effective as of July 1, 1975. Those licensing procedures in operation shall continue until that date.

(6) To insure that accurate statistical data are available, each local licensing agency shall report annually to the department the number of child care centers under its jurisdiction, the number of children served, the ages of children served, and the number of revocations or denials of licenses.

History.—s. 7, ch. 74-113; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

402.308 Issuance of license.—

(1) ANNUAL LICENSING.—After July 1, 1975, every child care facility in the state shall have a license which shall be renewed annually.

(2) STATE ADMINISTRATION OF LICENSING.—In any county in which the department has the authority to issue licenses, the following procedures shall be applied:

(a) Application for a license or for a renewal of a license to operate a child care facility shall be made in the manner and on the forms prescribed by the department.

(b) Prior to the renewal of a license, the department shall reexamine the child care facility, including in that process the examination of the premises and those records of the facility as required under s. 402.305 to determine that minimum standards for licensing continue to be met.

(c) The department shall coordinate all inspections of child care centers. A child care facility is not required to implement a recommendation of one agency that is in conflict with a recommendation of another agency if such conflict arises due to uncoordinated inspections. Any conflict in recommendations shall be resolved by the secretary of the department within 15 days after written notice that such conflict exists.

(d) The department shall issue or renew a license upon being satisfied that all standards required by this act have been met.

(3) LOCAL ADMINISTRATION OF LICENSING.—In any county in which there is a local licensing agency approved by the department, the following procedures shall apply:

(a) Application for a license or for renewal of license to operate a child care facility shall be made in the manner and on the forms prescribed by the local licensing agency.

(b) Prior to the renewal of a license, the agency shall reexamine the child care facility, including in that process the examination of the premises and records of the facility as required in s. 402.305 to determine that minimum standards for licensing continue to be met.

(c) The local agency shall coordinate all inspections of child care facilities. A child care facility is not required to implement a recommendation of one agency that is in conflict with a recommendation of another agency if such conflict arises due to uncoordinated inspections. Any conflict in recommendations shall be resolved by the county commission or its representative within 15 days after written notice that such conflict exists.

(d) The local licensing agency shall issue a license or renew a license upon being satisfied that all standards required by this act have been met.

History.—s. 8, ch. 74-113; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

to that date.

402.309 Provisional license.—

(1) The local licensing agency or the department, whichever is authorized to license child care facilities in a county, may issue a provisional license to applicants for a license or to licensees who are unable to conform to all the standards provided for in this act.

(2) No provisional license may be issued unless the operator makes adequate provisions for the health and safety of the child and unless the local licensing agency or the department finds that a need exists for the services offered by the child care facility.

(3) The provisional license shall in no event be issued for a period in excess of 1 year and shall not be subject to renewal.

(4) The provisional license may be suspended if periodic inspection made by the local licensing agency or the department indicates that insufficient progress has been made toward compliance.

History.—s. 9, ch. 74-113; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

402.310 Hearings upon denial or revocation of license.—

(1) When the department has reasonable cause to believe that grounds for the denial or revocation of a license exist, it shall determine the matter in accordance with procedures prescribed in chapter 120. When the local licensing agency has reasonable cause to believe that grounds for the denial or revocation of a license exist, it shall notify the applicant or licensee in writing, stating the grounds upon which the license is being denied or revoked. If the applicant or licensee makes no written request for a hearing to the local licensing agency within 15 days from receipt of such notice, the license shall be deemed denied or revoked.

(2) If a request for a hearing is made to the local licensing agency, a hearing shall be held within 30 days and shall be conducted by an individual designated by the county commission.

(3) An applicant or licensee shall have the right to appeal a decision of the local licensing agency to a representative of the department. Any required hearing shall be held in the county in which the child care program is being operated or is to be established. The hearing shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of chapter 120.

History.—s. 10, ch. 74-113; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-117; s. 1, ch. 77-457; s. 19, ch. 78-95.

402.311 Inspection.—A licensed child care facility shall accord to the department or the local licensing agency, whichever is applicable, the privilege of inspection, including access to facilities and staff and to those records required in s. 402.305, at reasonable times during regular business hours, to insure compliance with the provisions of this act.

History.—s. 11, ch. 74-113; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

to that date.

<sup>1</sup>402.312 License required.—After July 1, 1975, the operation of a child care facility without a license is prohibited. The department or the local licensing agency is empowered to seek an injunction in the circuit court where the facility is located against the continuing operation of a child care facility for the following reasons:

(1) There is any violation of the standards applied under this act which threatens harm to any child in the child care facility.

(2) A licensee has repeatedly violated the standards provided for under this act.

(3) A child care program continues to have children in attendance after the closing date established by the department or the local licensing agency.

History.—s. 12, ch. 74-113; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

(1) Family day care homes may be licensed under this act if they are presently being licensed under an existing county licensing ordinance or if the board of county commissioners passes a resolution that family day care homes be licensed. If not subject to license, family day care homes may report annually to the department the following information: the name and address of the home, the name of the operator, the number of children served, and the availability of emergency care.

(2) This information shall be included in a directory to be published annually by the department to inform the public of available child care facilities.

(3) Family day care home operators may avail themselves of supportive services offered by the department.

History.—s. 13, ch. 74-113; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

<sup>1</sup>402.314 Supportive services.—The department shall provide consultation services, technical assistance, and in-service training, when requested and as available, to operators, licensees, and applicants to help improve programs and facilities for child care, and shall work cooperatively with other organizations and agencies concerned with child care.

History.—s. 13, ch. 74-113; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

(1) If the county designates a local agency to be responsible for the licensing of child care centers, the county shall bear the costs involved.

(2) The state will bear the costs of the licensing of child care centers when contracted to do so by a county or when directly responsible for licensing in a county which fails to meet or exceed state minimum standards.

History.—s. 15, ch. 74-113; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

to that date.

(1) The provisions of this act shall not apply to a child care facility which is an integral part of church or parochial schools conducting regularly scheduled classes, courses of study, or educational programs accredited by, or by a member of, an organization which publishes and requires compliance with its standards for health, safety, and sanitation. However, such facilities shall meet minimum requirements of the applicable local governing body as to health, sanitation, and safety.

(2) Any county or city with state or local child care licensing programs in existence on July 1, 1974 will continue to license the child care facilities as covered by such programs, notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1), until and unless the licensing agency makes a determination to exempt them.

(3) Any child care facility covered by the exemption provisions of subsection (1), but desiring to be included in this act, is authorized to do so by submitting notification to the department. Once licensed, such facility cannot withdraw from the act and continue to operate.

History.—s. 16, ch. 74-113; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

402.32 School health services program.—

(1) This section shall be known and may be cited as the "School Health Services Act of 1974."

(2) The Legislature finds that health services conducted as a part of the total school health program should be carried out to appraise, protect, and promote the health of students. School health services supplement, rather than replace, parental responsibility and are designed to encourage parents to devote attention to child health, to discover health problems, and to encourage use of the services of their physician, dentist, and community health agencies.

(3) The following words and phrases shall have the following meanings for the purpose of this section:

(a) "Screening" means presumptive identification of unknown or unrecognized disease or defects by the application of tests that can be given with ease and rapidity to apparently healthy persons.

(b) "Physical examination" means a thorough evaluation of medical status of an individual.

(c) "Emergency health needs" means onsite management and aid for illness or injury pending student return to classroom or release to parent, guardian, designated friend, or designated health care provider.

(4) The duties of the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services shall be:

(a) To employ, contract for, and supervise health service personnel for each school in the district in accordance with the state plan; however, in matters of coordination of health service programs with other school programs, the principal of each school shall have immediate supervisory authority over the health personnel working in that school.

(b) To carry out health appraisal and screening programs which include periodic review and analysis of health-related records, observation, and screening tests, consistent with sound health practices. Screening shall include vision, hearing, growth and development, nutrition, dental health, mental health, and communicable diseases.

(c) To meet emergency health needs.

(d) When definitive diagnosis or treatment is indicated, to consult with parents or guardians, when appropriate, regarding the need for medical attention by the family physician, dentist, or other specialist, as the case may require.

(e) To follow up on children referred for further diagnosis and treatment.

(f) When indicated by screening, to provide children with physical examinations and to refer children to appropriate medical and dental treatment, in cooperation with the private medical and dental community whenever possible. Parents or guardians of such students shall, within 30 calendar days, report to the appropriate school personnel the action taken to satisfy the cited medical or dental needs.

(g) In cooperation with school personnel, to counsel students and parents in matters regarding health programs and practices.

(h) To maintain records by school on the incidence of health problems, corrective measures taken, and such other information as may be needed to plan and evaluate health programs. Records on individual students shall remain confidential in accordance with law and regulations of the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services and the State Board of Education.

(i) To aid in the diagnosis and evaluation of children for placement in exceptional child programs and in the reevaluation at periodic intervals of the children placed in such programs.

(j) In cooperation with the Department of Education, to promulgate the rules and regulations necessary for the implementation of this section.

(k) In cooperation with school officials, to provide assistance to school personnel in such areas as health education programs, identification of children with health problems, and working with children with special health problems.

(5) Each district school board, and the Department of Education where applicable, shall have the duty:

(a) To coordinate the educational aspects of the school health services program with the Comprehensive Health Education Act of 1973 and to include health services and health education as part of the school districts' comprehensive educational plan.

(b) To cooperate with the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services in the provision of health services to children.

(c) To provide physical facilities at each school for the health services program.

(d) To provide inservice health training for school personnel.

(e) To cooperate with public health personnel in counseling students and parents in matters regarding health programs and practices.

(f) To examine each public school child, at the proper age, for scoliosis.

(6) Nonpublic schools may request to participate in the school health services program. Nonpublic schools voluntarily participating in the school health services program shall comply with paragraphs (b)-(e) of subsection (5).

(7) At the beginning of each school year, parents or guardians will be requested to provide their written permission for medical or physical examination, screening, and treatment. Any child shall be exempt from medical or physical examination, screening, and treatment if his parent or guardian does not provide such permission. However, the laws, rules, and regulations relating to contagious or communicable diseases and sanitary matters shall not be violated.

(8) School health services shall be implemented in annual increments so that all children will be served. Expenditures for school health services shall be accounted for by county in accordance with standards established by the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services or as provided for by law.

(9) In the absence of negligence, no person shall be liable for any injury caused by an act or omission in the administration of school health services.

History.—ss. 1-7, 9, ch. 74-356; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 2, ch. 78-245; s. 15, ch. 79-288.

402.33 Department authority to charge fees for services provided.—

(1) It is the intent of the Legislature that whenever practical the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services shall require:

- (a) The client;
- (b) Parents, if the client is a minor; or
- (c) Spouse of the client and third party payors to participate in the cost of services or to pay fees for services provided by the department.

(2) The Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services may at its discretion and in accordance with rules and regulations established by the department charge fees for any service provided by the department. Fees will be reasonably related to the cost of providing the service and the client's ability to pay unless:

- (a) The fee is set by Florida Statutes.
- (b) An adjustment is necessary to assure maximum utilization of federal funds.

(3) Annually, the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services shall determine or establish the:

(a) Cost of providing services for which charges will be made.

(b) Uniform criteria for determining ability to pay or to participate in the cost of service.

(4) All persons receiving services for which fees have been established pursuant to this act shall be liable for the actual cost of the service provided. The department shall only collect from third-party payors or from clients or parents or spouse of the client fees consistent with the client's, parents', or spouse's ability to pay. Parents of minors receiving services in a program for which fees have been established shall pay fees consistent with their ability to pay unless the service was requested by the minor without parental consent. The department is authorized to require financial information from clients, parents, legal guardians, or other financially responsible persons in order to determine ability to pay in accordance with uniform criteria.

(5) The department shall actively assist clients in securing benefits from third party payors. Eligibility for departmental programs does not reduce otherwise payable obligations of third party payors who shall be billed and liable for the total cost of the service. Revenue received by the department from third party payors to cover cost of services provided shall be deducted from the total cost of providing services to the client. In no event shall a fee charged to a client exceed the difference between the total cost of providing services to the client and the revenue received from third party payors.

(6) Payment of charges shall not be a prerequisite to treatment or care.

(7)(a) Upon recordation with the clerk of the circuit court in the county in which the property is located, unpaid fees shall constitute a lien upon all property, both real and personal, of any client who has received any service for which the department charges fees. Such services shall constitute a claim against the client to be determined by the department. Said liens and claims shall be enforced on behalf of the state by the department. The lien and claim herein created shall be continuing obligations until 3 years after the client's demise, unless earlier satisfied.

(b) Upon the death of a client against whom the department has a claim, a caveat may be filed without cost by the department. In the event that the department effects recovery, the Clerk of the Circuit Court shall be reimbursed the statutory filing fee for caveats.

History.—ss. 1-6, ch. 75-190; s. 1, ch. 76-210; s. 1, ch. 77-174.

402.34 Body corporate.—The department is a body corporate and shall adopt and have a corporate seal. It shall have the power to contract and be contracted with, to sue and be sued in actions in ex contractu but not in torts, and to have and to possess corporate powers for all purposes necessary to administer this chapter. The department shall have the power to accept payment for services rendered pursuant to rules and regulations of the department.

History.—s. 1, ch. 69-268; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 70-255; s. 17, ch. 78-433.

Note.—Former s. 409.055.

402.35 Employees.—All personnel of the <sup>1</sup>[Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services] shall be governed by rules and regulations adopted and promulgated by the Department of Administration relative thereto except the director and persons paid on a fee basis. The <sup>2</sup>[Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services] may participate with other state departments and agencies in a joint merit system. No federal, state, county, or municipal officer shall be eligible to serve as an employee of the <sup>1</sup>[Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services].

History.—s. 1, ch. 69-268; ss. 19, 31, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 70-255; s. 17, ch. 78-433.

402.36 Controlled substances therapeutic research.—

(1) SHORT TITLE.—The provisions of this section shall be known and may be cited as the "Controlled Substances Therapeutic Research Act."

(2) LEGISLATIVE INTENT; PURPOSE.—The Legislature finds that recent research has shown that the use of cannabis may alleviate the nausea and ill-effects of cancer chemotherapy and may alleviate the ill-effects of glaucoma. The Legislature further finds that there is a need for further research and experimentation with regard to the use of cannabis under strictly controlled circumstances. It is for this purpose that the Controlled Substances Therapeutic Research Act is hereby enacted.

(3) DEFINITIONS.—As used in this section:

(a) "Secretary" means the Secretary of the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services, or his designee.

(b) "Cannabis" means those substances defined as such in s. 893.02(2), tetrahydrocannabinols, or a chemical derivative of tetrahydrocannabinols.

(c) "Practitioner" means a physician licensed pursuant to chapter 458 or chapter 459, provided such physician holds a valid federal controlled substance registry number.

(4) CONTROLLED SUBSTANCES THERAPEUTIC RESEARCH PROGRAM.—

(a) There is established within the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services a controlled substances therapeutic research program. The program shall be administered by the secretary. The department shall adopt rules necessary for the proper administration of this section. In adopting rules, the department shall take into consideration pertinent rules and regulations promulgated by the federal Drug Enforcement Administration, the Food and Drug Administration, and the National Institute on Drug Abuse.

(b) Except as provided in paragraph (5)(d), the controlled substances therapeutic research program shall be limited to cancer chemotherapy patients and glaucoma patients, who are certified to the Patient Qualification Review Board by a practitioner as being involved in a life-threatening or sense-threatening situation and who are not responding to conventional controlled substances or where the conventional controlled substances administered have proven to be effective but where the patient has incurred severe side effects.

(5) PATIENT QUALIFICATION REVIEW BOARD.—

(a) The secretary shall appoint a Patient Qualification Review Board to serve at his pleasure. The board shall be comprised of:

1. A physician licensed pursuant to chapter 458 and certified by the American Board of Ophthalmology;

2. A physician licensed pursuant to chapter 458 and certified by the American Board of Internal Medicine and also certified in the subspecialty of medical oncology;

3. A physician licensed pursuant to chapter 458 and certified by the American Board of Psychiatry; and

4. A physician licensed pursuant to chapter 459 and certified by the American Osteopathic Association Board of Ophthalmology and Otorhinolaryngology or by the American Osteopathic Association Board of Internal Medicine and certified in the subspecialty of medical oncology.

(b) Members of the board may be reimbursed for their attendance at meetings as authorized by s. 112.061.

(c) The Patient Qualification Review Board shall review all applicants for the controlled substances therapeutic research program and their licensed practitioners and certify their participation in the program. The board shall additionally certify practitioners and state-operated licensed pharmacies for participation regarding the distribution of cannabis pursuant to subsection (6).

(d) The Patient Qualification Review Board may include other disease groups for participation in the controlled substances therapeutic research program after pertinent medical data have been presented by a practitioner to both the secretary and the board.

(6) DISTRIBUTION OF CONTROLLED SUBSTANCE.—

(a) The secretary shall apply to contract with the National Institute on Drug Abuse for receipt of cannabis pursuant to regulations promulgated by the National Institute on Drug Abuse, the Food and Drug Administration, and the Drug Enforcement Administration.

(b) The secretary shall cause such analyzed cannabis to be transferred to a certified state-operated pharmacy for distribution to a certified patient upon the written prescription of the certified practitioner pursuant to this section.

(7) REPORT.—The secretary, in conjunction with the Patient Qualification Review Board, shall report his findings and recommendations to the Governor, the President of the Senate, and the Speaker of the House of Representatives, regarding the effectiveness of the controlled substances therapeutic research program prior to April 1 of each year.

(8) EXCEPTIONS TO CHAPTER 893.—

(a) The enumeration of cannabis, tetrahydrocannabinols, or a chemical derivative of tetrahydrocannabinols in s. 893.03(1) as a Schedule I controlled substance does not apply to the use of cannabis, tetrahydrocannabinols, or a chemical derivative of tetrahydrocannabinols by certified patients pursuant to the provisions of this section.

(b) Cannabis, tetrahydrocannabinols, or a chemical derivative of tetrahydrocannabinols shall be considered Schedule II substances as enumerated in s. 893.03(2) only for the purposes enumerated in this section.

(9) CONFIDENTIALITY OF PATIENT'S IDEN-

TITY.—The identity of any patient certified pursuant to this section for participation in the controlled substances therapeutic research program shall be confidential and shall not be disclosed under any circumstances.

History.—s. 1, ch. 78-413; s. 1, ch. 79-209.

(1) The Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services shall function as a medical manpower clearinghouse to assist in the placement of health care providers in medically underserved communities, and, in acting as such a clearinghouse, the department shall coordinate its efforts with the Community Hospital Education Council of the Board of Regents in such a manner as to avoid duplication of efforts. The department shall collect, store, classify, and distribute current information pertaining to the medical manpower needs of communities and the availability of medical manpower to serve in such communities. As part of its clearinghouse function, the department shall contract with an outside entity or entities to develop and operate programs to recruit individual health care providers for relocation in medically underserved communities.

(2) A grant program is hereby created through which communities or other entities meeting established criteria may receive funds for the purpose of identifying and assisting needed health care providers to relocate and establish practice in medically underserved communities. Grants shall be made by the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services. The department shall adopt rules, on or before October 1, 1978, which specify the criteria that communities or other entities must meet to be eligible to receive grants. The rules shall require that funds distributed pursuant to this section shall be matched in an equal amount by the recipient; however, the recipient's matching effort may be in the form of contributions in-kind, including commodities, facilities, and services. The department shall also adopt rules, on or before October 1, 1978, which specify permitted uses of grant moneys received under this section. Such rules shall specify that grant moneys received pursuant to this subsection shall not be used to purchase or construct a clinic or other treatment facilities; provided, however, that a recipient's in-kind matching effort may be in the form of provision of facilities for medical treatment.

(3) The Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services may adopt such rules as are required to carry out the functions assigned to it by this section.

History.—s. 6, ch. 78-331.

403.011 Short title.—This act shall be known and cited as the "Florida Air and Water Pollution Control Act."

History.—s. 2, ch. 67-436.

403.021 Legislative declaration; public policy.—

(1) The pollution of the air and waters of this state constitutes a menace to public health and welfare, creates public nuisances, is harmful to wildlife, fish and other aquatic life, and impairs domestic, agricultural, industrial, recreational, and other beneficial uses of air and water.

(2) It is declared to be the public policy of this state to conserve the waters of the state and to protect, maintain, and improve the quality thereof for public water supplies, for the propagation of wildlife, fish and other aquatic life, and for domestic, agricultural, industrial, recreational, and other beneficial uses, and to provide that no wastes be discharged into any waters of the state without first being given the degree of treatment necessary to protect the beneficial uses of such water.

(3) It is declared to be the public policy of this state and the purpose of this act to achieve and maintain such levels of air quality as will protect human health and safety, and, to the greatest degree practicable, prevent injury to plant and animal life and property, foster the comfort and convenience of the people, promote the economic and social development of this state and facilitate the enjoyment of the natural attractions of this state.

(4) It is declared that local and regional air and water pollution control programs are to be supported to the extent practicable as essential instruments to provide for a coordinated statewide program of air and water pollution prevention, abatement and control for the securing and maintenance of appropriate levels of air and water quality.

(5) It is hereby declared that the prevention, abatement, and control of the pollution of the air and waters of this state are affected with a public interest, and the provisions of this act are enacted in the exercise of the police powers of this state for the purpose of protecting the health, peace, safety, and general welfare of the people of this state.

(6) The Legislature finds and declares that control, regulation, and abatement of the activities which are causing or may cause pollution of the air or water resources in the state and which are or may be detrimental to human, animal, aquatic, or plant life, or to property, or unreasonably interfere with the comfortable enjoyment of life or property be increased to insure conservation of natural resources, to insure a continued safe environment, to insure purity of air and water, to insure domestic water supplies, to insure protection and preservation of the public health, safety, welfare, and economic well-being, to insure and provide for recreational and wildlife needs as the population increases and the economy expands, and to insure a continuing growth of the economy and industrial development.

(7) The Legislature further finds and declares that:

(a) Compliance with this law will require capital outlays of hundreds of millions of dollars for the installation of machinery, equipment, and facilities for the treatment of industrial wastes which are not productive assets and increased operating expenses to owners without any financial return and should be separately classified for assessment purposes.

(b) Industry should be encouraged to install new machinery, equipment and facilities as technology in environmental matters advances, thereby improving the quality of the air and waters of the state and benefiting the citizens of the state without pecuniary benefit to the owners of industries, and the Legislature should prescribe methods whereby just valuation may be secured to such owners and exemptions from certain excise taxes should be offered with respect to such installations.

(c) Facilities as herein defined should be classified separately from other real and personal property of any manufacturing or processing plant or installation, as such facilities contribute only to general welfare and health and are assets producing no profit return to owners.

(d) In existing manufacturing or processing plants it is more difficult to obtain satisfactory results in treating industrial wastes than in new plants being now planned or constructed and that with respect to existing plants in many instances it will be necessary to demolish and remove substantial portions thereof and replace the same with new and more modern equipment in order to more effectively treat, eliminate or reduce the objectionable characteristics of any industrial wastes and that such replacements should be classified and assessed differently from replacements made in the ordinary course of business.

(8) The Legislature further finds and declares that the public health, welfare, and safety may be affected by disease-carrying vectors and pests. The department shall assist all governmental units charged with the control of such vectors and pests. Furthermore, in reviewing applications for permits, the department shall consider the total well-being of the public and shall not consider solely the ambient pollution standards when exercising its powers, if there may be danger of a public health hazard.

History.—s. 3, ch. 67-436; s. 1, ch. 78-98.

403.031 Definitions.—In construing this chapter, or rules and regulations adopted pursuant thereto, the words, phrases or terms, unless the context otherwise indicates, shall have the following meanings:

(1) "Department" is the Department of Environmental Regulation.

(2) "Pollution" is the presence in the outdoor atmosphere or waters of the state of any substances, contaminants, noise, or man-made or man-induced alteration of the chemical, physical, biological, or radiological integrity of air or water in quantities or at levels which are or may be potentially harmful or injurious to human health or welfare, animal or plant life, or property, or unreasonably interfere with the enjoyment of life or property, including outdoor recreation.

(3) "Waters" shall include, but not be limited to rivers, lakes, streams, springs, impoundments, and all other waters or bodies of water, including fresh, brackish, saline, tidal, surface or underground. Waters owned entirely by one person other than the state are included only in regard to possible discharge on other property or water. Underground waters include, but are not limited to, all underground waters passing through pores of rock or soils or flowing through in channels, whether man-made or natural.

(4) "Contaminant" is any substance which is harmful to plant, animal or human life.

(5) "Wastes" means sewage, industrial wastes, and all other liquid, gaseous, solid, radioactive, or other substances which may pollute or tend to pollute any waters of the state.

(6) "Treatment works" and "disposal systems" means any plant or other works used for the purpose of treating, stabilizing, or holding wastes.

(7) "Sewerage system" means pipelines or conduits, pumping stations, and force mains, and all other structures, devices, appurtenances, and facilities used for collecting or conducting wastes to an ultimate point for treatment or disposal.

(8) "Installation" is any structure, equipment, facility, or appurtenances thereto, or operation which may emit air or water contaminants in quantities prohibited by rules of the department.

(9) "Plant" is any unit operation, complex, area, or multiple of unit operations that produce, process, or cause to be processed any materials, the processing of which can, or may, cause air or water pollution.

(10) "Source" is any and all points of origin of the item defined in subsection (4), whether privately or publicly owned or operated.

(11) "Person" means the state or any agency or institution thereof, any municipality, political subdivision, public or private corporation, individual, partnership, association, or other entity, and includes any officer or governing or managing body of any municipality, political subdivision, or public or private corporation.

(12) "Effluent limitations" means any restriction established by the department on quantities, rates, or concentrations of chemical, physical, biological, or other constituents which are discharged from sources into waters of the state.

History.—s. 4, ch. 67-436; ss. 26, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 71-36; s. 2, ch. 71-137; s. 153, ch. 71-377; s. 1, ch. 73-46; s. 112, ch. 73-333; ss. 1, 2, ch. 74-133; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 72, ch. 79-65.

403.045 Pollution Control Board.—The head of the Department of Pollution Control is the Pollution Control Board. The board shall be composed of five citizens appointed by the Governor, subject to confirmation by the Senate. The members of the board shall serve at the pleasure of the Governor.

History.—s. 26, ch. 69-106; s. 2, ch. 71-137.

Note.—The Pollution Control Board was impliedly abolished by ss. 8 and 26, ch. 75-22.

403.051 Meetings; hearings and procedure.

(1) The department shall cause a transcript of the proceedings at all meetings to be made.

<sup>1</sup>(2) A quorum of the Pollution Control Board shall consist of three members for all hearings and meetings except those held for the purpose of adopting, amending, or repealing a rule, or required by s. 403.121, which shall require a quorum of four, and a majority vote of the entire board shall be required to take action on any matter before the board.

(3)(a) Any department planning, design, construction, modification, or operating standards, criteria, and requirements for treatment works, disposal systems, and sewerage systems for wastes from any source shall be promulgated as a rule or regulation.

(b) The department shall not withhold the issuance of a permit to consider matters not addressed by the permit application or to consider standards, criteria, and requirements not adopted as required by paragraph (a).

History.—s. 6, ch. 67-436; ss. 26, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 70-84; s. 2, ch. 71-137; s. 1, ch. 71-138; s. 154, ch. 71-377; s. 1, ch. 72-223; s. 1, ch. 74-308; s. 14, ch. 78-95.

Note.—The board was impliedly abolished by ss. 8 and 26, ch. 75-22.

403.061 Department; powers and duties.

The department shall have the power and the duty to control and prohibit pollution of air and water in accordance with the law and rules and regulations adopted and promulgated by it, and for this purpose to:

(1) Approve and promulgate current and long-range plans developed to provide for air and water quality control and pollution abatement.

(2) Hire only such employees as may be necessary to effectuate the responsibilities of the department.

(3) Utilize the facilities and personnel of other state agencies, including the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services, and delegate to any such agency any duties and functions as the department may deem necessary to carry out the purposes of this act.

(4) Secure necessary scientific, technical, research, administrative, and operational services by interagency agreement, contract, or otherwise. All state agencies, upon direction of the department, shall make these services and facilities available.

(5) Accept state appropriations, loans and grants from the Federal Government and from other sources, public or private, which loans and grants shall not be expended for other than the purposes of this act.

(6) Exercise general supervision of the administration and enforcement of the laws, rules, and regulations pertaining to air and water pollution.

(7) Adopt, modify, and repeal rules and regulations to carry out the intent and purposes of this act. Any rules or regulations adopted pursuant to this act shall be consistent with provisions of federal law, if any, relating to control of emissions from motor vehicles, effluent limitations, pretreatment requirements, or standards of performance.

(8) Issue such orders as may be necessary to effectuate the control of air and water pollution and enforce the same by all appropriate administrative and judicial proceedings.

(9) Adopt a comprehensive program for the prevention, control, and abatement of pollution of the air and waters of the state, and from time to time review and modify such program as necessary.

(10) Develop a comprehensive program for the prevention, abatement, and control of the pollution of the waters of the state. In order to effect this purpose, a grouping of the waters into classes may be made in accordance with the present and future most beneficial uses. Such classifications may from time to time be altered or modified. However, before any such classification is made, or any modifications made thereto, public hearings shall be held by the department.

(11) Establish ambient air quality and water quality standards for the state as a whole or for any part thereof, and also standards for the abatement of excessive and unnecessary noise. The department shall cooperate with the Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles in the development of regulations required by s. 316.272(1).

(12)(a) Cause field studies to be made and samples to be taken out of the air and from the waters of the state periodically and in a logical geographic manner so as to determine the levels of air quality of the air and water quality of the waters of the state.

(b) Determine the source of the pollution whenever a study is made or a sample collected which proves to be below the air or water quality standard set for air or water.

(13) Require persons engaged in operations which may result in pollution, to file reports which may contain information relating to locations, size of outlet, height of outlet, rate and period of emission and composition and concentration of effluent, and such other information as the department shall prescribe to be filed relative to pollution.

(14) Establish a permit system whereby a permit may be required for the operation, construction, or expansion of any installation that may be a source of air or water pollution and provide for the issuance and revocation of such permits and for the posting of an appropriate bond to operate.

(a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, the Department of Environmental Regulation may authorize, by rule, the Department of Transportation to perform any activity requiring a permit from the Department of Environmental Regulation covered by this chapter, upon certification by the Department of Transportation that it will meet all requirements imposed by statute, rule, or standard for environmental control and protection as such statute, rule, or standard applies to a governmental program. To this end, the Department of Environmental Regulation may accept such certification of compliance for programs of the Department of Transportation, may conduct investigations for compliance, and, if a violation is found to exist, may take all necessary enforcement action pertaining thereto, including, but not limited to, the revocation of certification. The authorization shall be by rule of the Department of Environmental Regulation, shall be limited to the maintenance, repair, or replacement of existing structures, and shall be conditioned upon compliance by the Department of Transportation with specific guidelines or requirements which are set forth in the formal acceptance and deemed necessary by the Department of Environmental Regulation to assure future compliance with this chapter and applicable department rules. Failure of the Department of Transportation to comply with any provision of the written acceptance shall constitute grounds for its revocation by the Department of Environmental Regulation.

(b) The provisions of chapter 120 shall be accorded any person where substantial interests will be affected by an activity proposed to be conducted by the Department of Transportation pursuant to its certification and the Department of Environmental Regulation's acceptance. If a proceeding is conducted pursuant to s. 120.57, the Department of Environmental Regulation may intervene as a party. Should a hearing officer of the Division of Administrative Hearings of the Department of Administration submit a recommended order pursuant to s. 120.57, the Department of Environmental Regulation shall issue a final department order adopting, rejecting, or modifying the recommended order pursuant to such action.

(15) Consult with any person proposing to construct, install, or otherwise acquire a pollution control device or system, concerning the efficacy of such device or system, or the pollution problem which may be related to the source, device, or system. Nothing in any such consultation shall be construed to relieve any person from compliance with this act, rules and regulations of the department, or any other provision of law.

(16) Encourage voluntary cooperation by persons and affected groups to achieve the purposes of this act.

(17) Encourage local units of government to handle pollution problems within their respective jurisdictions on a cooperative basis, and provide technical and consultative assistance therefor.

(18) Encourage and conduct studies, investigations, and research relating to pollution and its causes, effects, prevention, abatement and control.

(19) Make a continuing study of the effects of the emission of air contaminants from motor vehicles on the quality of the outdoor atmosphere of this state and the several parts thereof, and make recommendations to appropriate public and private bodies with respect thereto.

(20) Collect and disseminate information and conduct educational and training programs relating to pollution.

(21) Advise, consult, cooperate, and enter into agreements with other agencies of the state, the Federal Government, other states, interstate agencies, groups, political subdivisions, and industries affected by the provisions of this act, rules, or policies of the department.

(22) Adopt, modify and repeal rules governing the specifications, construction, and maintenance of industrial reservoirs, dams, and containers which store or retain industrial wastes of a deleterious nature.

(23) Adopt rules and regulations to insure that no detergents are sold in Florida after December 31, 1972, which are reasonably found to have a harmful or deleterious effect on human health or on the environment. Any regulations adopted pursuant to this subsection shall apply statewide. Subsequent to the promulgation of such rules and regulations, no county, municipality, or other local political subdivision shall adopt or enforce any local ordinance, special law, or local regulation governing detergents which are less stringent than state law or regulation. Regulations, ordinances, or special acts adopted by a county or municipality governing detergents shall be subject to approval by the department, except that regulations, ordinances, or special acts adopted by any county or municipality with a local pollution control program approved pursuant to s. 403.182 shall be approved as an element of the local pollution control program.

(24)(a) Establish a permit system to provide for spoil site approval, as may be requested and required by local governmental agencies as defined in s. 403.1822(1), or mosquito control districts as defined in s. 388.011(2), to facilitate these agencies in providing spoil sites for the deposit of spoil from maintenance dredging of navigation channels, port harbors, turning basins, and harbor berths, as part of a federal project, when the agency is acting as sponsor of a contemplated dredge and fill operation involving an established navigation channel, harbor, turning basin, or harbor berth. A spoil site approval granted to the agency shall remain in effect up to 10 years from date of approval.

(b) This subsection shall apply only to those maintenance dredging operations initiated after July 1, 1977, where the United States Army Corps of Engineers is the prime dredge and fill agent and the local government entity is acting sponsor for the operation, and shall not require the redesignation of approved spoil sites under such previous operations.

(25) Establish and administer a program for the restoration and preservation of bodies of water within the state. The department shall have the power to acquire lands, to cooperate with other applicable state or local agencies to enhance existing public access to such bodies of water, and to adopt all rules necessary to accomplish this purpose.

(26) Perform any other act necessary to control and prohibit air and water pollution, and to delegate any of its responsibilities, authority, and powers, other than rulemaking powers, to any state agency now or hereinafter established.

403.0615 Water resources restoration and preservation.—

(1) This section may be cited as the "Water Resources Restoration and Preservation Act."

(2) The Department of Environmental Regulation shall establish a program to assist in the restoration and preservation of bodies of water and to enhance existing public access when deemed necessary for the enhancement of the restoration effort. This program shall be funded from the General Revenue Fund, from funds available from the Pollution Recovery Fund, and from available federal moneys.

(3) The department shall adopt, by rule, criteria for the allocation of restoration and preservation funds. Such criteria shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

- (a) The degree of water quality degradation;
- (b) The degree to which sources of pollution which have contributed to the need for restoration or preservation have been abated;

(c) The public uses which can be made of the subject waters;

(d) The ecological value of the subject waters in relation to other waters proposed for restoration and preservation;

(e) The implementation by local government of regulatory or management programs to prevent further and subsequent degradation of the subject waters; and

(f) The commitment of local government resources to assist in the proposed restoration and preservation.

(4) There is hereby created the Water Resources Restoration and Preservation Trust Fund for the deposit and disbursement of funds available from the Pollution Recovery Fund and from federal moneys in accordance with the provisions of this act.

(5) The provisions of this act are for the benefit of the public and shall be liberally construed to accomplish the purposes set forth in this act.

History.—ss. 1, 4, 5, ch. 77-369; s. 2, ch. 79-130.

403.062 Pollution control; underground water, lakes, etc.—The department and its agents shall have general control and supervision over underground water, lakes, rivers, streams, canals, ditches, and coastal waters under the jurisdiction of the state insofar as their pollution may affect the public health or impair the interest of the public or persons lawfully using them.

History.—s. 2, ch. 29834, 1955; ss. 26, 35, ch. 69-106.

Note.—Former s. 381.43; s. 381.251.

403.081 Performance by other state agencies.—All state agencies, including the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services, shall be available to the Department of Environmental Regulation to perform, at its direction, the duties required of the Department of Environmental Regulation under this act.

History.—s. 9, ch. 67-436; ss. 19, 26, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 269, ch. 77-147.

403.085 Sanitary sewage disposal units; advanced and secondary waste treatment; industrial waste, ocean outfall, inland outfall or disposal well waste treatment.—

(1) Neither the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services nor any other state agency, county, special district, or municipality shall approve construction of any ocean outfall or disposal well for sanitary sewage disposal which does not provide for secondary waste treatment and, in addition thereto, advanced waste treatment as deemed necessary and ordered by the Department of Environmental Regulation.

(2) Sanitary sewage disposal treatment plants which discharge effluent through ocean outfalls or disposal wells on July 1, 1970, shall provide for secondary waste treatment and, in addition thereto, advanced waste treatment as deemed necessary and ordered by the Department of [Environmental Regulation] by January 3, 1974. Failure to conform by said date shall be punishable by a fine of $500 for each 24-hour day or fraction thereof that such failure is allowed to continue thereafter.

(3) Neither the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services nor any other state agency, county, special district, or municipality shall approve construction of any ocean outfall, inland outfall, or disposal well for the discharge of industrial waste of any kind which does not provide for secondary waste treatment or such other treatment as is deemed necessary and ordered by the Department of Environmental Regulation.

(4) Industrial plants or facilities which discharge industrial waste of any kind through ocean outfalls, inland outfalls, or disposal wells on July 1, 1971, shall provide for secondary waste treatment or such other waste treatment as deemed necessary and ordered by January 1, 1973, by the Department of <sup>1</sup>[Environmental Regulation]. Failure to conform by said date shall be punishable as provided in s. 403.161(2).

History.—ss. 1, 2, ch. 70-82; s. 2, ch. 71-137; s. 1, ch. 71-274; s. 270, ch. 77-147; s. 74, ch. 79-65.

Note.—Bracketed words substituted by the editors for words "Pollution Control." See s. 8, ch. 75-22, which transferred the Department of Pollution Control to the Department of Environmental Regulation.

403.086 Sewage disposal facilities; advanced and secondary waste treatment.—

(1)(a) Neither the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services nor any other state agency, county, special district, or municipality shall approve construction of any facilities for sanitary sewage disposal which do not provide for secondary waste treatment and, in addition thereto, advanced waste treatment as deemed necessary and ordered by the Department of Environmental Regulation.

(b) No facilities for sanitary sewage disposal constructed after the effective date of this act shall dispose of any wastes into Old Tampa Bay, Tampa Bay, Hillsborough Bay, Boca Ciega Bay, St. Joseph Sound, Clearwater Bay, Sarasota Bay, Little Sarasota Bay, Roberts Bay, Lemon Bay and Punta Gorda Bay or any bay, bayou, or sound tributary thereto without providing advanced waste treatment approved by the Department of Environmental Regulation.

(c) No facilities for sanitary sewage disposal constructed after June 14, 1978, shall dispose of any wastes by deep well injection without providing for secondary waste treatment and, in addition thereto, advanced waste treatment deemed necessary by the Department of Environmental Regulation to protect adequately the beneficial use of the receiving waters.

(2) Any facilities for sanitary sewage disposal existing on July 1, 1971, shall provide for secondary waste treatment by January 1, 1973, and, in addition thereto, advanced waste treatment as deemed necessary and ordered by the Department of <sup>1</sup>[Environmental Regulation]. Failure to conform by said date shall be punishable by a civil penalty of $500 for each 24-hour day or fraction thereof that such failure is allowed to continue thereafter.

(3) This section shall not be construed to prohibit or regulate septic tanks or other means of individual waste disposal which are otherwise subject to state regulation.

Note.—Bracketed words substituted by the editors for words "Pollution Control." See s. 8, ch. 75-22, which transferred the Department of Pollution Control to the Department of Environmental Regulation.

403.087 Permits; general issuance; denial; revocation; prohibition; penalty.—

(1) No stationary installation which will reasonably be expected to be a source of air or water pollution shall be operated, maintained, constructed, expanded, or modified without an appropriate and currently valid permit issued by the department, unless exempted by department rule. In no event shall a permit for a water pollution source be valid for more than 5 years. However, upon expiration, a new permit may be issued by the department in accordance with this act and the rules and regulations of the department.

(2) The department shall adopt, amend, or repeal rules, regulations, and standards for the issuance, denial, and revocation of permits.

(3) The department shall issue permits on such conditions as are necessary to effect the intent and purposes of this section.

(4) The department shall issue permits to construct, operate, maintain, expand, or modify an installation which may reasonably be expected to be a source of pollution only when it determines that the installation is provided or equipped with pollution control facilities that will abate or prevent pollution to the degree that will comply with the standards or rules promulgated by the department, except as provided in s. 403.088, and which will comply with the prohibitions in s. 124.41 of volume 40 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

(5) The department may require an application fee of not more than $20 per application.

(6) A permit issued pursuant to this section shall not become a vested right in the permittee. The department may revoke any permit issued by it if it finds that the permit holder:

(a) Has submitted false or inaccurate information in his application;

(b) Has violated law, department orders, rules, or regulations, or permit conditions;

(c) Has failed to submit operational reports or other information required by department rule or regulation; or

(d) Has refused lawful inspection under s. 403.091.

(7) Violation of this section shall be punishable as provided in this chapter.

History.—s. 1, ch. 71-203; s. 4, ch. 74-133; s. 14, ch. 78-95.

403.0875 Citation of rule.—In addition to any other provisions within this part or any rules promulgated hereunder, the permitting agency shall, when requesting information for a permit application pursuant to this part or such rules promulgated hereunder, cite a specific rule. If a request for information cannot be accompanied by a rule citation, failure to provide such information cannot be grounds to deny a permit.

History.—s. 7, ch. 79-161.

403.088 Water pollution operation permits; temporary permits; conditions.—

(1) No person, without written authorization of the department, shall discharge into waters within the state any waste which, by itself or in combination with the wastes of other sources, reduces the quality of the receiving waters below the classification established for them. However, this section shall not be deemed to prohibit the application of pesticides to waters in the state for the control of insects, aquatic weeds, or algae, provided the application is performed pursuant to a program approved by the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services, in the case of insect control, or the Department of Natural Resources, in the case of aquatic weed or algae control. The Department of Environmental Regulation is directed to enter into interagency agreements to establish the procedures for program approval. Such agreements shall provide for public health, welfare, and safety, as well as environmental factors. Approved programs must provide that only chemicals approved for the particular use by the Federal Environmental Protection Agency or by the Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services may be employed and that they be applied in accordance with registered label instructions, state standards for such application, and the provisions of the Florida Pesticide Law, chapter 487.

(2) Any person discharging treated or untreated waste into waters within the state on a regular, intermittent or continuous basis prior to January 1, 1972, and who intends to continue such discharges shall file a written report of such discharges with the department. The report shall specify the location, nature, volume, and frequency of such discharges. The department may require the person to furnish any additional information reasonably necessary to evaluate the effect of such discharges upon the receiving waters.

(3)(a) Any person intending to discharge wastes into the waters of the state shall make application to the department for an operation permit. Application shall be made on a form prescribed by the department and shall contain such information as the department requires.

(b) If the department finds that the proposed discharge will reduce the quality of the receiving waters below the classification established for them, it shall deny the application and refuse to issue a permit. If the department finds that the proposed discharge will not reduce the quality of the receiving waters below the classification established for them, it may issue an operation permit if it finds that such degradation is necessary or desirable under federal standards and under circumstances which are clearly in the public interest.

(c) A permit shall:

1. Specify the manner, nature, volume, and frequency of the discharge permitted;
2. Require proper operation and maintenance of any pollution abatement facility by qualified personnel in accordance with standards established by the department;
3. Contain such additional conditions, requirements, and restrictions as the department deems necessary to preserve and protect the quality of the receiving waters; and
4. Be valid for the period of time specified therein.

(d) An operation permit may be renewed upon application to the department. No renewal permit shall be issued if the department finds that the proposed discharge will reduce the quality of the receiving waters below the classification established for them.

(4)(a) A person who does not qualify for an operation permit or has been denied an operation permit under paragraph (b) of subsection (3) may apply to the department for a temporary operation permit. Application shall be made on a form prescribed by the department and shall contain such information as the department may require. The department may require such person to submit any additional information reasonably necessary for proper evaluation.

(b) The department shall give notice to people resident in the drainage area of the receiving waters for the proposed discharge concerning the period during which they may present objections to the proposed discharge.

(c) After consideration of the application, any additional information furnished, and all written objections submitted, the department shall grant or deny a temporary operation permit. No temporary permit shall be granted by the department unless it affirmatively finds:

1. The proposed discharge does not qualify for an operation permit;

2. The applicant is constructing, installing, or placing into operation, or has submitted plans and reasonable schedules for constructing, installing or placing into operation, an approved pollution abatement facility or alternate waste disposal system, or that the applicant has a waste for which no feasible and acceptable method of treatment or disposal is known or recognized but is making a bona fide effort through research and other means to discover and implement such a method;

3. The applicant needs permission to pollute the waters within the state for a period of time necessary to complete research, planning, construction, installation, or operation of an approved and acceptable pollution abatement facility or alternate waste disposal system;

4. There is no present, reasonable, alternative means of disposing of the waste other than by discharging it into the waters of the state;

5. The denial of a temporary operation permit would work an extreme hardship upon the applicant;

6. The granting of a temporary operation permit will be in the public interest; or

7. The discharge will not be unreasonably destructive to the quality of the receiving waters.

(d) A temporary operation permit issued shall:

1. Specify the manner, nature, volume, and frequency of the discharge permitted;

2. Require the proper operation and maintenance of any interim or temporary pollution abatement facility or system required by the department as a condition of the permit;

3. Require the permit holder to maintain such monitoring equipment and make and file such records and reports as the department deems necessary to insure compliance with the terms of the permit and to evaluate the effect of the discharge upon the receiving waters;

4. Be valid only for the period of time necessary for the permit holder to place into operation the facility, system, or method contemplated in his application as determined by the department; and

5. Contain other requirements and restrictions which the department deems necessary and desirable to protect the quality of the receiving waters and promote the public interest.

(5) Any facility for sanitary sewage disposal which demonstrates a good faith effort to build or improve its treatment facilities so as to comply with the rules and regulations of the department, and for which the department makes a determination that additional sewer connections shall not be detrimental to the health, safety, and welfare of the citizens of the State of Florida or to the natural environment to such an extent as to require the denial of an exemption under this subsection, may be exempted completely or partially by the department from the prohibition on sewer connections which the State of Florida attempts to impose. Any such facility can operate under the provisions of this act until June 30, 1975. The facilities operating under this exemption shall be subject to the rules and regulations of the department, and said exemption will be subject to reaffirmation or revocation by the department. Evaluation shall focus on:

(a) The efforts made by the facility to take affirmative steps to build, improve, or upgrade its treatment facilities; and

(b) The extent of any environmental damage that is resulting from the operation of the facility and any continued increases in sewer connections to the facility.

An unsatisfactory evaluation shall be reported to the Pollution Control Board, and if the board determines that such affirmative steps have not been taken or that such environmental damage has occurred, then the exemption for that facility shall be terminated by the board.

(6)(a) The provisions of this section shall not be construed to repeal or restrict any other provisions of this chapter, but shall be cumulative thereto.

(b) This section shall not be construed to exempt any permittee from the pollution control requirements of any local air and water pollution control rule, regulation, ordinance, or code, or to authorize or allow any violation thereof.

Note.—The board was impliedly abolished by ss. 8 and 26, ch. 75-22.

403.091 Inspections.—Any duly authorized representative of the department may enter and inspect any property, premises, or place, except a building which is used exclusively for a private residence, on or at which an air or water contaminant source is located or is being constructed or installed at any reasonable time for the purpose of ascertaining the state of compliance with the law, or rules and regulations of the department. No person shall refuse immediate entry or access to any authorized representative of the department who requests entry for purposes of inspection, and who presents appropriate credentials; nor shall any person obstruct, hamper, or interfere with any such inspection. If requested, the owner or operator of the premises shall receive a report setting forth all facts found which relate to compliance status.

History.—s. 10, ch. 67-436; ss. 26, 35, ch. 69-106.

403.101 Classification and reporting; regulation of operators of water purification and waste-water treatment plants.—

(1) The department, by rule or regulation, may classify air and water contaminant sources, which in its judgment may cause or contribute to air or water pollution, according to levels and types of emissions and other characteristics which relate to air or water pollution, and may require reporting for any such class or classes. Classifications made pursuant to this section may be for application to the state as a whole or to any designated area of the state, and shall be made with special reference to effects on health, economic, social and recreational factors, and physical effects on property.

(2) Any person operating or responsible for the operation of air or water contaminant sources of any class for which the rules and regulations of the department require reporting shall make reports containing information as may be required concerning location, size, and height of contaminant outlets, processes employed, fuels used and the nature and time period or duration of emissions, and such other information as is relevant to air and water pollution and available or reasonably capable of being assembled.

(3) The department is authorized to establish qualifications for and to examine and certify all water and waste-water treatment plant operators; to issue, deny, revoke, and suspend annual operator certificates pursuant to its rules and chapter 120; and to charge a fee, not in excess of $10, for examination, application processing, and issuance and renewal of certification. Such fee shall be nonrefundable.

(4) No person shall perform the duties of operator of a water or waste-water treatment plant unless he holds a current operator's certificate issued by the department. However, this section shall not apply to public lodging establishments licensed under chapter 509. No owner of a water or waste-water plant shall employ any person to perform the duties of an operator unless such person possesses a valid certificate at the required level of certification.

(5) All funds collected pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the General Revenue Fund.

(6) The department may promulgate rules and minimum standards to effectuate the provisions of this section and to ensure efficient, hygienic water purification and waste-water treatment operations in this state.

(7) For purposes of this section, "operator" means any person, including the owner, who is principally engaged in, and is in charge of, the actual operation, supervision, and maintenance of a water purification plant or a waste-water treatment plant, and shall include the person in charge of a shift or period of operation during any part of the day. An operator-trainee may be employed as a trainee for no more than 2 years cumulatively.

403.111 Confidential records.—Any information, other than effluent data, relating to secret processes, methods of manufacture or production which may be required, ascertained, or discovered by inspection or investigation, shall not be disclosed in public hearings and shall be kept confidential by any member, officer, or employee of the department. Provided that nothing herein shall be construed to prevent the use of such records in judicial proceedings in connection with the prosecution of violations of this act, when ordered to be produced by appropriate subpoena or by order of the court. No such subpoena or order of the court shall abridge or alter the rights or remedies of persons affected in the protection of trade secrets or secret processes, in the manner provided by law, and such persons affected may take any and all steps available by law to protect such trade secrets or processes.

History.—s. 12, ch. 67-436; ss. 26, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 6, ch. 74-133.

403.121 Enforcement; procedure; remedies.—The department shall have the following judicial and administrative remedies available to it for violations of this chapter, as specified in s. 403.161(1).

(1) Judicial remedies:

(a) The department may institute a civil action in a court of competent jurisdiction to establish liability and to recover damages for any injury to the air, waters, or property, including animal, plant, and aquatic life, of the state caused by any violation.

(b) The department may institute a civil action in a court of competent jurisdiction to impose and to recover a civil penalty for each violation in an amount of not more than $10,000 per offense. However, the court may receive evidence in mitigation. Each day during any portion of which such violation occurs constitutes a separate offense.

(c) It shall not be a defense to, or ground for dismissal of, these judicial remedies for damages and civil penalties that the department has failed to exhaust its administrative remedies, has failed to serve a notice of violation, or has failed to hold an administrative hearing prior to the institution of a civil action.

(2) Administrative remedies:

(a) The department may institute an administrative proceeding to establish liability and to recover damages for any injury to the air, waters, or property, including animal, plant, or aquatic life, of the state caused by any violation. The board may order that the violator pay a specified sum as damages to the state. Judgment for the amount of damages determined by the board may be entered in any court having jurisdiction thereof and may be enforced as any other judgment.

(b) If the department has reason to believe a violation has occurred, it may institute an administrative proceeding to order the prevention, abatement, or control of the conditions creating the violation or other appropriate corrective action.

(c) An administrative proceeding shall be instituted by the department's serving of a written notice of violation upon the alleged violator by certified mail. The notice shall specify the provision of the law, rule, regulation, permit, certification, or order of the department alleged to be violated and the facts alleged to constitute a violation thereof. An order for corrective action may be included with the notice. However, no order shall become effective until after service and an administrative hearing, if requested within 20 days after service. Failure to request an administrative hearing within this time period shall constitute a waiver thereof.

(d) Nothing herein shall be construed as preventing any other legal or administrative action in accordance with law.

(1) The department may institute a civil action in a court of competent jurisdiction to seek injunctive relief to enforce compliance with this chapter or any rule, regulation, permit certification, or order; to enjoin any violation specified in s. 403.161(1); and to seek injunctive relief to prevent irreparable injury to the air, waters, and property, including animal, plant, and aquatic life, of the state and to protect human health, safety, and welfare caused or threatened by any violation.

(2) All the judicial and administrative remedies in this section and s. 403.121 are independent and cumulative except that the judicial and administrative remedies to recover damages are alternative and mutually exclusive.

History.—s. 14, ch. 67-436; ss. 26, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 70-139; s. 1, ch. 70-439; s. 2, ch. 72-286.

(1) Whoever commits a violation specified in s. 403.161(1) is liable to the state for any damage caused to the air, waters, or property, including animal, plant, or aquatic life, of the state and for reasonable costs and expenses of the state in tracing the source of the discharge, in controlling and abating the source and the pollutants, and in restoring the air, waters, and property, including animal, plant, and aquatic life, of the state to their former condition, and furthermore is subject to the judicial imposition of a civil penalty for each offense in an amount of not more than $10,000 per offense. However, the court may receive evidence in mitigation. Each day during any portion of which such violation occurs constitutes a separate offense. Nothing herein shall give the department the right to bring an action on behalf of any private person.

(2) Whenever two or more persons pollute the air or waters of the state in violation of this chapter or any rule, regulation, or order of the department so that the damage is indivisible, each violator shall be jointly and severally liable for such damage and for the reasonable cost and expenses of the state incurred in tracing the source of discharge, in controlling and abating the source and the pollutants, and in restoring the air, waters, and property, including the animal, plant, and aquatic life of the state, to their former condition. However, if said damage is divisible and may be attributed to a particular violator or violators, each violator is liable only for that damage attributable to his violation.

(4) The damage provisions of this section shall not apply to damage resulting from the application of federally approved or state-approved chemicals to the waters in the state for the control of insects, aquatic weeds, or algae, provided the application of such chemicals is done in accordance with a program approved pursuant to s. 403.088(1) and provided said application is not done negligently.

History.—s. 15, ch. 67-436; ss. 26, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 70-141; s. 1, ch. 71-204; s. 3, ch. 72-286; s. 7, ch. 74-133; s. 1, ch. 76-112; s. 3, ch. 78-98.

403.151 Compliance with rules or orders of department.—All rules or orders of the department which require action to comply with standards adopted by it, or orders to comply with any provisions of this act, may specify a reasonable time for such compliance.

History.—s. 16, ch. 67-436; ss. 26, 35, ch. 69-106.

403.161 Prohibitions, violation, penalty, intent.—

(1) It shall be a violation of this chapter, and it shall be prohibited:

(a) To cause pollution, except as otherwise provided in this chapter, so as to harm or injure human health or welfare, animal, plant, or aquatic life or property.

(b) To fail to obtain any permit required by this chapter or by rule or regulation, or to violate or fail to comply with any rule, regulation, order, permit, or certification adopted or issued by the department pursuant to its lawful authority.

(c) To knowingly make any false statement, representation, or certification in any application, record, report, plan, or other document filed or required to be maintained under this chapter, or to falsify, tamper with, or knowingly render inaccurate any monitoring device or method required to be maintained under this chapter or by any permit, rule, regulation, or order issued under this chapter.

(2) Whoever commits a violation specified in subsection (1) is liable to the state for any damage caused and for civil penalties as provided in s. 403.141.

(3) Any person who willfully or negligently commits a violation specified in subsections (1)(a) or (b) shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree punishable as provided in ss. 775.082(4)(a) and 775.083(1)(g) by a fine of not less than $2,500 or more than $25,000, or punishable by 1 year in jail, or by both for each offense. Each day during any portion of which such violation occurs constitutes a separate offense.

(4) Any person who commits a violation specified in subsection (1)(c) shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree punishable as provided in ss. 775.082(4)(a) and 775.083(1)(g) by a fine of not more than $10,000 or by 6 months in jail, or by both for each offense.

(5) It is the legislative intent that the civil penalties and criminal fines imposed by the court be of such amount as to insure immediate and continued compliance with this act.

(1) Any moneys recovered by the state in an action against any person who has polluted the air, soil, or water of the state in violation of this chapter shall be used to restore the polluted area which was the subject of suit to its former condition.

(2) There is hereby created a Pollution Recovery Fund which is to be supervised and used by the department to restore polluted areas of the state, as defined by the department, to the condition they were in before pollution occurred. The fund shall consist of all moneys specified in subsection (1). The moneys shall be disbursed first to pay all amounts necessary to restore the respective polluted areas which were the subjects of state actions. Any moneys remaining in the fund shall then be used by the department, as it sees fit, to pay for any work needed to restore areas which required more money than the state was able to obtain by court action or otherwise or to restore areas in which the state brought suit but was unable to recover any moneys from the alleged violators.

History.—s. 5, ch. 72-286.

403.182 Local pollution control programs.—

(1) Each county and municipality or any combination thereof may establish and administer a local pollution control program if it complies with this act. Local pollution control programs in existence on the effective date of this act shall not be ousted of jurisdiction if such local program complies with this act. All local pollution control programs, whether established before or after the effective date of this act, must:

(a) Be approved by the department as adequate to meet the requirements of this act and any applicable rules and regulations pursuant thereto.

(b) Provide by ordinance, regulation, or local law for requirements compatible with, or stricter or more extensive than those imposed by this act and regulations issued thereunder.

(c) Provide for the enforcement of such requirements by appropriate administrative and judicial process.

(d) Provide for administrative organization, staff, financial and other resources necessary to effectively and efficiently carry out its program.

(2) The department shall have the exclusive authority and power to require and issue permits; provided, however, that the department may delegate its power and authority to local pollution control organizations if the department finds it necessary or desirable to do so.

(3) If the department finds that the location, character or extent of particular concentrations of population, contaminant sources, the geographic, topographic or meteorological considerations, or any combinations thereof, are such as to make impracticable the maintenance of appropriate levels of air and water quality without an areawide pollution control program, the department may determine the boundaries within which such program is necessary and require it as the only acceptable alternative to direct state administration.

(4)(a) If the department has reason to believe that a pollution control program in force pursuant to this section is inadequate to prevent and control pollution in the jurisdiction to which such program relates, or that such program is being administered in a manner inconsistent with the requirements of this act, it shall proceed to determine the matter.

(b) If the department determines that such program is inadequate to prevent and control pollution in the municipality or county or municipalities or counties to which such program relates, or that such program is not accomplishing the purposes of this act, it shall require that necessary corrective measures be taken within a reasonable period of time, not to exceed 90 days.

(c) If the municipality, county, or municipalities or counties fail to take such necessary corrective action within the time required, the department shall administer within such municipality, county, or municipalities or counties all of the regulatory provisions of this act. Such pollution control program shall supersede all municipal or county pollution laws, regulations, ordinances and requirements in the affected jurisdiction.

(d) If the department finds that the control of a particular class of contaminant source because of its complexity or magnitude is beyond the reasonable capability of the local pollution control authorities or may be more efficiently and economically performed at the state level, it may assume and retain jurisdiction over that class of contaminant source. Classifications pursuant to this paragraph may be either on the basis of the nature of the sources involved or on the basis of their relationship to the size of the communities in which they are located.

(5) Any municipality or county in which the department administers its pollution control program pursuant to subsection (4) of this section may with the approval of the department establish or resume a municipal or county pollution control program which meets the requirements of subsection (1) of this section.

(6) Notwithstanding the existence of any local pollution control program, whether created by a county or municipality or a combination thereof or by a special law, the department shall have jurisdiction to enforce the provisions of this chapter and any rules, regulations, or orders issued pursuant to this chapter throughout the state; however, whenever rules, regulations, or orders of a stricter or more stringent nature have been adopted by a local pollution control program, the department, if it elects to assert its jurisdiction, shall then enforce the stricter rules, regulations, or orders in the jurisdiction where they apply.

(7) It shall be a violation of this chapter to violate, or fail to comply with, a rule, regulation, or order of a stricter or more stringent nature adopted by a local pollution control program, and the same shall be punishable as provided by s. 403.161. If any local program changes any rule, regulation, or order, whether or not of a stricter or more stringent nature, such change shall not apply to any installation or source operating at the time of such change in conformance with a currently valid permit issued by the Department of Environmental Regulation.

(8) Nothing in this act shall prevent any local pollution control program from enforcing its own rules, regulations, or orders. All remedies of the Department of Environmental Regulation under this chapter shall be available, as an alternative to local enforcement provisions, to each local pollution control program to enforce any provision of local law. When the department and a local program institute separate lawsuits against the same party for violation of a state or local pollution law, rule, regulation, or order arising out of the same act, the suits shall be consolidated when possible.

(9) Each local pollution control program shall cooperate with and assist the department in carrying out its powers, duties, and functions.

History.—s. 19, ch. 67-436; ss. 26, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 2, ch. 71-137; ss. 1, 2, ch. 73-256; s. 14, ch. 78-95; s. 76, ch. 79-65.

403.1821 Water pollution control and sewage treatment.—Sections 403.1821-403.1833 shall be known and cited as the "Florida Water Pollution Control and Sewage Treatment Plant Grant Act of 1970."

History.—s. 1, ch. 70-251.
cf.—s. 403.1835 Sewage treatment facilities revolving loan program.

403.1822 Same; definitions.—As used in ss. 403.1821-403.1833:

(1) "Local governmental agencies" refers to any municipality, county, district, or authority, or any agency thereof, or a combination of two or more of the foregoing, acting jointly in connection with an eligible project, having jurisdiction over disposal of sewage, industrial wastes, or other wastes.

(2) "Department" refers to the Department of Environmental Regulation.

(3) "Grants," "grant," "state grants," or "state grant" refer to disbursements from the State Water Pollution Control Trust Fund pursuant to s. 403.1825.

History.—s. 2, ch. 70-251; s. 1, ch. 70-439; s. 2, ch. 71-137; s. 113, ch. 71-355; s. 77, ch. 79-65.

403.1823 Department of Environmental Regulation to administer; develop rules and regulations.—The department shall:

(1) Promulgate rules and regulations to carry out the purposes of ss. 403.1821-403.1833.

(2) Administer and control all funds appropriated to or received by the department for the purposes of ss. 403.1821-403.1833.

History.—s. 3, ch. 70-251; s. 1, ch. 70-439.

403.1824 Establish fund.—A trust fund to be known as the State Water Pollution Control Trust Fund is established in the State Treasury to be used for state grants to local governmental agencies for the construction or reconstruction of sewage treatment facilities. All funds received by the department to carry out the purposes of ss. 403.1821-403.1833 shall be deposited in this fund.

History.—s. 4, ch. 70-251; s. 1, ch. 70-439.

403.1825 Grant payments.—Warrants for the payment of grants to local governmental agencies or increments thereof from the Water Pollution Control Trust Fund shall be issued by the State Comptroller upon certification to him by the department that such payments are due and payable under the department's published rules and regulations.

History.—s. 5, ch. 70-251; s. 1, ch. 70-439.

(1) Grants shall be made under ss. 403.1821-403.1833 only for projects eligible for federal grants under Public Law 84-660, as amended, or other applicable federal law.

(2) No grant shall be made for any sewage treatment facility unless such facility and the plans and specifications therefor are approved by the department and such facility is constructed in accordance with a time schedule of the department, and subject to such requirements as the department shall impose. If the department requires that the facility be approved by the Federal Water Quality Administration, such grant shall be conditioned upon the local governmental agency complying with all of the requirements of said water pollution control administration.

(3) No grant shall be made until the local governmental agency has agreed to provide that part of the total cost of the facility which is in excess of the applicable state and federal grants.

(4) The grant to each local governmental agency shall not exceed 25 percent of that portion of the project cost that is eligible for a federal grant.

(5) Grants made under ss. 403.1821-403.1833 shall be paid to the local governmental agency in partial payments similar to the time schedule that such payments are provided to the local governmental agency by the Federal Water Quality Administration.

(6) No grant shall be made unless the local governmental agency assures the department of the proper and efficient operation and maintenance of the sewage treatment facility after construction.

(7) No grant shall be made unless the local governmental agency has filed properly executed forms and applications prescribed by the department.

(8) Any local government agency receiving assistance under ss. 403.1821-403.1833 shall keep such records as the department shall prescribe, including records which fully disclose the amount and disposition by the recipient of the proceeds of such assistance, the total cost of the project or undertaking in connection with such assistance given or used, the amount of that portion of the cost of the project or undertaking supplied by other sources, and such other records as will facilitate an effective audit. The department and the Auditor General or any of their duly authorized representatives shall have access, for the purpose of audit and examination, to any books, documents, papers, and records of the recipient that are pertinent to grants received under ss. 403.1821-403.1833.

(9) Effective July 1, 1971, a grant shall not be made until the local governmental agency's governing body has adopted and submitted to the department a comprehensive long-range plan for the control of water pollution in the area within its jurisdiction, hereinafter referred to as the official plan. If more than one local governmental agency has authority to provide service for sewage treatment in the same area, the required plan may be submitted jointly by the local governmental agencies concerned or by one local governmental agency with the concurrence of the others. The official plan shall:

(a) Provide for a timely construction of sewage treatment facilities which will prevent the discharge of untreated or inadequately treated sewage or other wastes as defined by this chapter into the waters of the state.

(b) Provide for adequate planning, zoning, population projections, and engineering and economic studies to delineate with all practicable precision those portions of the area which public sewerage systems may reasonably be expected to serve within 10 years and within 20 years, and any areas in which the provision of such services is not reasonably foreseeable.

(c) Be in compliance with the state pollution control plan required by Public Law 84-660, as amended, or other applicable federal law.

(d) Set forth a time schedule and proposed method of financing, construction, and operation of the water pollution control system.

(e) Be reviewed by the official planning agencies having jurisdiction within the local governmental agency, and by the regional planning agency, if any, for consistency with programs of planning for the area and region, which reviews shall be transmitted to the department with the plan.

History.—s. 6, ch. 70-251; s. 1, ch. 70-439.

403.1827 Planning grants.—The department may administer grants to local governmental agencies to assist them in preparing official plans. Such planning grants shall be made from appropriations made by the Legislature and from federal appropriations authorized by Public Law 89-753 or other applicable federal law. However, the state grant shall not exceed 50 percent of the local governmental agencies' contribution.

History.—s. 7, ch. 70-251; s. 1, ch. 70-439.

(1) The department may approve the official plan as submitted or, if it finds the plan to be inconsistent with proper area or regional water pollution control, it may return the plan for appropriate modification. When more than one local governmental agency is involved in an official plan and the local governmental agencies are unable to agree upon an official plan which the department will approve, the department shall develop the necessary official plans.

(2) The department may provide technical assistance to local governmental agencies in coordinating official plans.

(3) The department shall cooperate with all appropriate federal, state, interstate, and local governmental agencies and with appropriate private organizations.

History.—s. 8, ch. 70-251; s. 1, ch. 70-439.

403.1829 Funding of projects; priorities.—Eligible projects shall be funded in descending order of their priority as established by the department until the State Water Pollution Control Fund is exhausted. The priority list as established by the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services as agent of the board for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1969, is ratified and confirmed. If funds available for the last project so funded are less than the amount of the grant to which the project is entitled, the balance due on such grant shall be paid from receipts of the fund in the next succeeding fiscal year before any other projects are so funded.

History.—s. 9, ch. 70-251; s. 1, ch. 70-439.

403.1830 State advances in anticipation of construction funds.—If federal funds have been approved for a project but are not available to the local governmental agency at the time of its scheduled construction of a sewage treatment facility, the department may advance to such local governmental agency, in addition to the state grant provided for in s. 403.1826, that sum of money which would equal the amount of the federal grant, provided the local governmental agency shall agree that any federal contribution thereafter made for the project shall be forwarded to the state as reimbursement for the funds expended under this section. Prior to advancing the federal share, the department shall require the local governmental agency to agree to do all that is necessary to retain its eligibility to qualify for the federal grant. The local governmental agency shall also agree to pay over to the department any installment of a grant received from the Federal Water Pollution Control Administration on which the state has made an advance under this section.

History.—s. 10, ch. 70-251; s. 1, ch. 70-439.

403.1831 State advances in anticipation of contract plan funds.—If federal funds for contract plans and specifications for the construction of a sewage treatment facility are not available to the local governmental agency at the time of its scheduled planning, the department may advance to such local governmental agency a sum equal to 7 percent of the estimated construction cost, said amount to be used by the local governmental agency for the purpose of preparing contract plans and specifications. Any remaining balance of the 7 percent advanced under this section shall be applied to the cost of construction of the facility. The funds advanced to the local governmental agency under this section shall be considered a part of the total amount of the state grant provided for in s. 403.1826. Prior to advancing funds under this section, the department shall approve an official plan as provided in s. 403.1826(9).

403.1832 Department to accept federal aid.—

The department is designated as the administrative agency of the state to apply for and accept any funds or other aid and to cooperate and enter into contracts and agreements with the federal government relating to the planning, developing, maintaining, and enforcing of the program to provide clean water and pollution abatement of the waters of the state or to any other related purpose which the Congress of the United States has authorized or may authorize. The department is authorized in the name of the state to make such applications, sign such documents, give such assurances, and do such other things as are necessary to obtain such aid from or cooperate with the United States Government or any agency thereof. The department may consent to enter into contracts and agreements and cooperate with any other state agency, local governmental agency, person, or other state when it is necessary to carry out the provisions of ss. 403.1821-403.1833.

History.—s. 12, ch. 70-251; s. 1, ch. 70-439.

403.1833 Appropriations; state water pollution control fund.—There is hereby appropriated to the State Water Pollution Control Trust Fund funds received by the state under the reimbursement provisions of s. 8C of Public Law 84-660, as amended.

History.—s. 13, ch. 70-251.

403.1834 State bonds to finance facilities; exemption from taxation.—

(1) The issuance of state bonds to finance the construction of air and water pollution control and abatement and solid waste disposal facilities, payable primarily from the pledged revenues provided for by s. 14, Art. VII of the State Constitution or from such pledged revenues and the full faith and credit of any county, municipality, district, authority, or any agency thereof, and pledging the full faith and credit of the state as additional security, is authorized, subject and pursuant to the provisions of s. 14, Art. VII of the State Constitution, the provisions of the State Bond Act, ss. 215.57-215.83, as amended, and the provisions of this section.

(2) The State Board of Administration is designated as the state fiscal agency to make the determinations required by s. 14, Art. VII of the State Constitution in connection with the issuance of such bonds.

(3) The amount of the state bonds to be issued shall be determined by the Division of Bond Finance of the Department of General Services. However, the total principal amount issued shall not exceed two hundred million dollars in any state fiscal year.

(4) The facilities to be financed with the proceeds of such state bonds shall be determined and approved by the Department of Environmental Regulation, and may be constructed, acquired, maintained, and operated by any county, municipality, district, or authority, or any agency thereof, or by said department.

(5) The Department of Environmental Regulation and the Division of Bond Finance of the Department of General Services are hereby authorized to enter into lease-purchase agreements between such departments or to enter into lease-purchase agreements or loan agreements between either of such departments and any county, municipality, district, or authority, or any agency thereof, for such periods and under such other terms and conditions as may be mutually agreed upon by the parties thereto in order to carry out the purposes of s. 14, Art. VII of the State Constitution, and this section.

(6) The Department of Environmental Regulation shall have power to fix, establish, and collect fees, rentals, or other charges for the use or benefit of said facilities, or may delegate such power to any county, municipality, district, authority, or any agency thereof under such terms and conditions and for such periods as may be mutually agreed upon.

(7) It is found and declared that said facilities will constitute a public governmental purpose necessary for the health and welfare of all the inhabitants of the state, and none of said facilities or said state bonds or the interest thereon shall ever be subject to taxation by the state or any political subdivision or agency thereof. The exemption granted by this subsection shall not be applicable to any tax imposed by chapter 220 on interest, income, or profits on debt obligations owned by corporations.

403.1835 Sewage treatment facilities revolving loan program.—

(1) The purpose of this section is to assist in implementing the legislative declaration of public policy as contained in s. 403.021 by establishing a loan program to accelerate construction of sewage treatment facilities by local governmental agencies.

(2) For the purposes of this section, the following terms, unless the context otherwise indicates, shall have the meanings ascribed them in this subsection:

(a) "Local governmental agencies" means local governmental agencies as defined in s. 403.1822(1).

(b) "Sewage treatment facilities" means all facilities necessary, including land, for the collection, treatment, and disposal of sewage and other water pollutants.

(3) The Department of Environmental Regulation is authorized to make loans to local governmental agencies to assist said agencies in the planning, designing, and preparation of environmental assessment studies for sewage treatment facilities. Loans may be made to local governmental agencies for interim financing for constructing, modifying, upgrading, and acquiring lands for sewage treatment facilities if the department has approved a permanent financing plan for said agencies through participation in the state pollution bonds program pursuant to s. 14, Art. VII, State Constitution, or through the issuance of local bonds, evidences of indebtedness, or other acceptable methods of repayment. Local governmental agencies are authorized to borrow funds made available pursuant to this section and may pledge any revenue available to them to repay any funds borrowed.

(4) The term of loans made pursuant to this section shall not exceed three years. The interest rate on loans shall be the same as that paid on the last bonds sold pursuant to s. 14, Art. VII, State Constitution, or 5 percent, whichever is less, except that the interest rate during the first twelve months of any loan shall be one half of the above determined rate.

(5) The department is authorized to make rules and regulations on or before February 1, 1973, necessary to carry out the purpose of this section and shall include in an annual report complete details of the amount loaned, interest earned, and loans outstanding at the end of each fiscal year.

(6) Each loan agreement made pursuant to this section shall provide for the repayment schedule and interest rate. In the event a local governmental agency becomes delinquent on its loan, the department shall so certify to the Comptroller who shall forward the amount delinquent to the department from any funds due to the local governmental agency under any revenue sharing or tax sharing fund established by the state, except as otherwise provided by the state constitution.

(7) A trust fund to be known as the "Sewage Treatment Loan Fund" is hereby established in the State Treasury to be used as a revolving fund by the department to make loans to local governmental agencies. Any funds therein not needed for loans may be invested pursuant to s. 215.49. All interest earned shall be deposited in the General Revenue Fund, unallocated for appropriation as the Legislature authorizes. The cost of administering this program shall be paid by the department from funds otherwise appropriated to it. All funds available in the sewage treatment loan fund are hereby appropriated to carry out the purpose of this section, and the principal of all loans repaid or investments made shall be deposited into this fund.

(8) On July 1, 1975, the cash balance in the Sewage Treatment Loan Fund shall revert and be transferred to the General Revenue Fund, unallocated. Loan repayments received in the Sewage Treatment Loan Fund after July 1, 1975, shall immediately revert and be transferred to the General Revenue Fund, unallocated.

403.191 Construction in relation to other law.—

(1) It is the purpose of this act to provide additional and cumulative remedies to prevent, abate, and control the pollution of the air and waters of the state. Nothing contained herein shall be construed to abridge or alter rights of action or remedies in equity under the common law or statutory law, criminal or civil, nor shall any provisions of this act, or any act done by virtue thereof, be construed as estopping the state or any municipality, or person affected by air or water pollution, in the exercise of their rights in equity or under the common law or statutory law to suppress nuisances or to abate pollution.

(2) No civil or criminal remedy for any wrongful action which is a violation of any rule or regulation of the department shall be excluded or impaired by the provisions of this chapter.

(3) This act shall limit and restrict the application of chapter 24952, 1947, Laws of Florida, to any person operating any industrial plant that has located in the State of Florida in reliance thereon and exercised rights and powers granted thereby on and before the effective date of this act; provided such person shall henceforth in the exercise of such rights and powers install and use treatment works or control measures generally equivalent to those installed and used by other similar industrial plants pursuant to the requirements of the department.

403.201 Variances.—

(1) Upon application the department in its discretion may grant a variance from the provisions of this act or the rules and regulations adopted pursuant hereto. Variances and renewals thereof may be granted for any one of the following reasons:

(a) There is no practicable means known or available for the adequate control of the pollution involved.

(b) Compliance with the particular requirement or requirements from which a variance is sought will necessitate the taking of measures which, because of their extent or cost, must be spread over a considerable period of time. A variance granted for this reason shall prescribe a timetable for the taking of the measures required.

(c) To relieve or prevent hardship of a kind other than those provided for in paragraphs (a) and (b). Variances and renewals thereof granted under authority of this paragraph shall each be limited to a period of 24 months except that variances granted pursuant to part II may extend for the life of the permit or certification.

(2) The department shall hold a hearing on each application for a variance.

(3) The department may prescribe such time limits and other conditions to the granting of a variance as it shall deem appropriate.

History.—s. 21, ch. 67-436; ss. 26, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 74-170; s. 14, ch. 78-95.

403.221 Pending proceedings.—No legal proceedings shall be abated because of any transfers made in this section, but the appropriate party exercising like authority or performing like duties or functions shall be substituted in said proceedings.

History.—s. 23, ch. 67-436.

403.231 Department of Legal Affairs to represent the state.—The Department of Legal Affairs shall represent the state and its agencies as legal advisor in carrying out the provisions of this act.

History.—s. 24, ch. 67-436; ss. 11, 35, ch. 69-106.

403.251 Safety clause.—The Legislature hereby finds, determines, and declares that this act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety.

History.—s. 27, ch. 67-436.

403.261 Provisions specifying jurisdiction repealed.—All rulemaking jurisdiction over air and water pollution matters held by other agencies within the state on September 1, 1967, is hereby repealed including, but without limitation, such jurisdiction held by the Florida State Board of Health, the Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission, the State Board of Conservation and the several water management districts within the state.

History.—s. 1, ch. 67-436.

403.271 Aquatic plants; permits; penalties.—

(1) No person shall import into the state any aquatic plant or seeds thereof of a species not native to the state without having first obtained a permit from the Department of Natural Resources.

(2) No person shall knowingly transport or transfer aquatic plants, whether indigenous or a species not native to the state, between bodies of water within the state without having first obtained a permit from the Department of Natural Resources.

(3) No person shall place or cause to be placed in the waters of the state or to cultivate or cause to propagate in the waters of the state any aquatic plant without first having obtained a permit from the Department of Natural Resources.

(4) The Department of Natural Resources is authorized to issue such permits only after the following conditions have been met:

(a) The Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services and the Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission issue prior approval of such permit.

(b) An appropriate agency, such as an aquatic vegetation laboratory, issues a memorandum certifying that the importation, transportation, or cultivation of such species poses no danger to the waters, fish, reptiles, or ecology of the state.

(5) The Department of Natural Resources, the Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services, and the Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission shall conduct investigations of such species prior to issuance or denial of a permit for importation, transport, or transfer of such species in the waters of the state. Such investigations and the issuance of such permits shall be subject to the criteria established by the Department of Natural Resources.

(6) The Department of Natural Resources shall publicize the provisions of this section on road signs throughout the state.

(7)(a) Any person violating the provisions of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

(b) All law enforcement officers of the state and its agencies with power to make arrests for violations of state law shall enforce the provisions of this section.

History.—s. 1, ch. 69-158; ss. 14, 26, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 4, ch. 70-203; s. 1, ch. 70-439; s. 350, ch. 71-136; s. 2, ch. 71-137; s. 140, ch. 77-104; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 23, ch. 78-95.

403.281 Definitions; Weather Modification Law.—As used in this chapter relating to weather modification:

(1) "Department" means the Department of Environmental Regulation.

(2) "Person" includes any public or private corporation.

History.—s. 1, ch. 57-128; ss. 26, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 2, ch. 71-137; s. 156, ch. 71-377; s. 80, ch. 79-65.

Note.—Former s. 373.261.

403.291 Purpose of weather modification law.—The purpose of this law is to promote the public safety and welfare by providing for the licensing, regulation and control of interference by artificial means with the natural precipitation of rain, snow, hail, moisture or water in any form contained in the atmosphere.

History.—s. 2, ch. 57-128.

Note.—Former s. 373.271.

403.301 Artificial weather modification operation; license required.—No person without securing a license from the department, shall cause or attempt to cause by artificial means condensation or precipitation of rain, snow, hail, moisture or water in any form contained in the atmosphere, or shall prevent or attempt to prevent by artificial means the natural condensation or precipitation of rain, snow, hail, moisture or water in any form contained in the atmosphere.

History.—s. 3, ch. 57-128; ss. 26, 35, ch. 69-106.

Note.—Former s. 373.281.

403.311 Application for licensing; fee.—

(1) Any person desiring to do or perform any of the acts specified in s. 403.301 may file with the department an application for a license on a form to be supplied by the department for such purpose setting forth all of the following:

(a) The name and post office address of the applicant.

(b) The education, experience and qualifications of the applicant, or if the applicant is not an individual, the education, experience and qualifications of the persons who will be in control and in charge of the operation of the applicant.

(c) The name and post office address of the person on whose behalf the weather modification operation is to be conducted if other than the applicant.

(d) The nature and object of the weather modification operation which the applicant proposes to conduct, including a general description of such operation.

(e) The method and type of equipment and the type and composition of materials that the applicant proposes to use.

(f) Such other pertinent information as the department may require.

(2) Each application shall be accompanied by a filing fee in the sum of $100 and proof of financial responsibility as required by s. 403.321.

History.—s. 4, ch. 57-128; ss. 26, 35, ch. 69-106.

Note.—Former s. 373.291.

403.321 Proof of financial responsibility.—

(1) No license shall be issued to any person until he has filed with the department proof of ability to respond in damages for liability on account of accidents arising out of the weather modification operations to be conducted by him in the amount of $10,000 because of bodily injury to or death of one person resulting from any one incident, and subject to said limit for one person, in the amount of $100,000 because of bodily injury to or death of two or more persons resulting from any one incident, and in the amount of $100,000 because of injury to or destruction of property of others resulting from any one incident.

(2) Proof of financial responsibility may be given by filing with the department a certificate of insurance or a bond in the required amount.

History.—s. 5, ch. 57-128; ss. 26, 35, ch. 69-106.

Note.—Former s. 373.301.

403.331 Issuance of license; suspension or revocation; renewal.—

(1) The department shall issue a license to each applicant who:

(a) By education, skill and experience appears to be qualified to undertake the weather modification operation proposed in his application.

(b) Files proof of his financial responsibility as required by s. 403.321.

(c) Pays filing fee required in s. 403.311.

(2) Each such license shall entitle the licensee to conduct the operation described in the application for the calendar year for which the license is issued unless the license is sooner revoked or suspended. The conducting of any weather modification operation or the use of any equipment or materials other than those described in the application shall be cause for revocation or suspension of the license.

(3) The license may be renewed annually by payment of a filing fee in the sum of $50.

History.—s. 6, ch. 57-128; ss. 26, 35, ch. 69-106.

Note.—Former s. 373.311.

403.341 Filing and publication of notice of intention to operate; limitation on area and time.

—Prior to undertaking any operation authorized by the license, the licensee shall file with the department and cause to be published a notice of intention. The licensee shall then confine his activities substantially within the time and area limits set forth in the notice of intention.

History.—s. 7, ch. 57-128; ss. 26, 35, ch. 69-106.

Note.—Former s. 373.321.

403.351 Contents of notice of intention.—The notice of intention shall set forth all of the following:

(1) The name and post office address of the licensee.

(2) The name and post office address of the persons on whose behalf the weather modification operation is to be conducted if other than the licensee.

(3) The nature and object of the weather modification operation which licensee proposes to conduct, including a general description of such operation.

(4) The method and type of equipment and the type and composition of the materials the licensee proposes to use.

(5) The area in which and the approximate time during which the operation will be conducted.

(6) The area which will be affected by the operation as nearly as the same may be determined in advance.

History.—s. 8, ch. 57-128.

Note.—Former s. 373.331.

403.361 Publication of notice of intention.—

The licensee shall cause the notice of intention to be published at least once a week for 2 consecutive weeks in a newspaper having general circulation and published within any county wherein the operation is to be conducted and in which the affected area is located, or if the operation is to be conducted in more than one county or if the affected area is located in more than one county or is located in a county other than the one in which the operation is to be conducted, then such notice shall be published in like manner in a newspaper having a general circulation and published within each of such counties. In case there is no newspaper published within the appropriate county, publication shall be made in a newspaper having a general circulation within the county.

History.—s. 9, ch. 57-128.
Note.—Former s. 373.341.

403.371 Proof of publication.—Proof of publication shall be filed by the licensee with the department 15 days from the date of the last publication of notice. Proof of publication shall be by copy of the notice as published, attached to and made a part of the affidavit of the publisher or foreman of the newspaper publishing the notice.

History.—s. 10, ch. 57-128; ss. 26, 35, ch. 69-106.

403.381 Record and reports of operations.—

(1) Each licensee shall keep and maintain a record of all operations conducted by him pursuant to his license showing the method employed, the type and composition of materials used, the times and places of operation, the name and post office address of each person participating or assisting in the operation other than licensee and such other information as may be required by the department and shall report the same to the department at such times as it may require.

(2) The records of the department and the reports of all licensees shall be available for public examination.

History.—s. 11, ch. 57-128; ss. 26, 35, ch. 69-106.
Note.—Former s. 373.361.

403.391 Emergency licenses.—Notwithstanding any provisions of this act to the contrary, the department may grant a license permitting a weather modification operation without compliance by the licensee with the provisions of ss. 403.351-403.371, and without publication of notice of intention as required by s. 403.341 if the operation appears to the department to be necessary or desirable in aid of the extinguishment of fire, dispersal of fog, or other emergency.

History.—s. 12, ch. 57-128; ss. 26, 35, ch. 69-106.
Note.—Former s. 373.371.

403.401 Suspension or revocation of license.

—Any license may be revoked or suspended if the department finds that the licensee has failed or refused to comply with any of the provisions of this act.

History.—s. 13, ch. 57-128; s. 21, ch. 63-512; ss. 26, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 14, ch. 78-95.
Note.—Former s. 373.381.

403.411 Penalty.—Any person conducting a weather modification operation without first having procured a license, or who shall make a false statement in his application for license, or who shall fail to file any report or reports as required by this act, or who shall conduct any weather modification operation after revocation or suspension of his license, or who shall violate any other provision of this act, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083; and, if a corporation, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.083. Each such violation shall be a separate offense.

History.—s. 14, ch. 57-128; s. 351, ch. 71-136.
Note.—Former s. 373.391.

403.412 Environmental Protection Act.—

(1) This section shall be known and may be cited as the "Environmental Protection Act of 1971."

(2)(a) The Department of Legal Affairs, any political subdivision or municipality of the state, or a citizen of the state may maintain an action for injunctive relief against:

1. Any governmental agency or authority charged by law with the duty of enforcing laws, rules, and regulations for the protection of the air, water, and other natural resources of the state to compel such governmental authority to enforce such laws, rules, and regulations;

2. Any person, natural or corporate, governmental agency or authority to enjoin such persons, agencies, or authorities from violating any laws, rules or regulations for the protection of the air, water, and other natural resources of the state.

(b) In any suit under paragraph (a), the Department of Legal Affairs may intervene to represent the interests of the state.

(c) As a condition precedent to the institution of an action pursuant to paragraph (a), the complaining party shall first file with the governmental agencies or authorities charged by law with the duty of regulating or prohibiting the act or conduct complained of a verified complaint setting forth the facts upon which the complaint is based and the manner in which the complaining party is affected. Upon receipt of a complaint, the governmental agency or authority shall forthwith transmit, by registered or certified mail, a copy of such complaint to those parties charged with violating the laws, rules, and regulations for the protection of the air, water and other natural resources of the state. The agency receiving such complaint shall have 30 days after the receipt thereof within which to take appropriate action. If such action is not taken within the time prescribed, the complaining party may institute the judicial proceedings authorized in paragraph (a). However, failure to comply with this subsection shall not bar an action for a temporary restraining order to prevent immediate and irreparable harm from the conduct or activity complained of.

(d) In any action instituted pursuant to paragraph (a), the court, in the interest of justice, may add as party defendant any governmental agency or authority charged with the duty of enforcing the applicable laws, rules, and regulations for the protection of the air, water and other natural resources of the state.

(e) No action pursuant to this section may be maintained if the person (natural or corporate) or governmental agency or authority charged with pollution, impairment, or destruction of the air, water, or other natural resources of the state is acting or conducting operations pursuant to currently valid permit or certificate covering such operations, issued by the appropriate governmental authorities or agencies, and is complying with the requirements of said permits or certificates.

(f) In any action instituted pursuant to this section, the prevailing party or parties shall be entitled to costs and attorney fees. If the court has reasonable ground to doubt the solvency of the plaintiff or the plaintiff's ability to pay any cost or judgment which might be rendered against him in an action brought under this section, the court may order the plaintiff to post a good and sufficient surety bond or cash.

(3) The court may grant injunctive relief and impose conditions on the defendant which are consistent with and in accordance with law and any rules or regulations adopted by any state or local governmental agency which is charged to protect the air, water, and other natural resources of the state from pollution, impairment, or destruction.

(4) The doctrines of res judicata and collateral estoppel shall apply. The court shall make such orders as necessary to avoid multiplicity of actions.

(5) In any administrative, licensing, or other proceedings authorized by law for the protection of the air, water, or other natural resources of the state from pollution, impairment, or destruction, the Department of Legal Affairs, a political subdivision or municipality of the state, or a citizen of the state shall have standing to intervene as a party on the filing of a verified pleading asserting that the activity, conduct, or product to be licensed or permitted has or will have the effect of impairing, polluting, or otherwise injuring the air, water, or other natural resources of the state.

(6) Venue of any causes brought under this law shall lie in the county or counties wherein the cause of action is alleged to have occurred.

History.—ss. 1-6, ch. 71-343.

403.413 Florida Litter Law.—

(1) SHORT TITLE.—This section shall be known as and may be cited as the "Florida Litter Law of 1971."

(2) DEFINITIONS.—As used in this section:

(a) "Litter" means any garbage, rubbish, trash, refuse, can, bottle, container, paper, lighted or unlighted cigarette or cigar, or flaming or glowing material.

(b) "Person" means any individual, firm, corporation, or unincorporated association.

(c) "Law enforcement officer" means any officer of the Florida Highway Patrol, county sheriffs' departments, municipal law enforcement departments, law enforcement departments of any other political subdivision, Department of Natural Resources, and Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission. In addition, and solely for the purposes of this section, "law enforcement officer" means any employee of a county or municipal park or recreation department designated by the department head as a litter enforcement officer.

(3) RESPONSIBILITY OF BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.—The Board of County Commissioners shall determine the training and qualifications of any employee of the county or municipal park or recreation department designated to enforce the provisions of this section if the designated employee is not a regular law enforcement officer.

(4) ACTS PROHIBITED.—It is unlawful for any person to throw, discard, place, or deposit litter in any manner or amount:

(a) In or on any public highway, road, street, alley, or thoroughfare, including any portion of the right-of-way thereof, or any other public lands, except in containers or areas lawfully provided therefor; in any case where any litter is thrown or discarded from a motor vehicle, the operator of the motor vehicle shall be deemed in violation of this section;

(b) In or on any freshwater lake, river, or stream or tidal or coastal water of the state; or

(c) In or on any private property, unless prior consent of the owner has been given and unless said litter will not cause a public nuisance or be in violation of any other state or local law, rule, or regulation.

(5) PENALTIES; ENFORCEMENT.—

(a) Any person who violates the provisions of this section shall be charged as follows:

1. If the violation involves litter of a total weight of less than 5 pounds, then the violator shall be deemed guilty of a noncriminal violation and shall be fined an amount of $25. Violations of this subparagraph shall be triable in the county courts.

2. If the violation involves litter of a total weight of 5 pounds or more, then the violator shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree and shall be punished as provided in ss. 775.082 and 775.083.

However, imposition of such fine shall not prohibit a judge from imposing civil penalties which would include, but not be limited to, picking up litter or performing other labor commensurate with the offense committed. Said fines shall be assessed and collected pursuant to the procedures in chapter 318. The moneys collected from the assessed fine shall go into the general revenue fund of the county or municipality in which the offense took place to be used for litter control. If such county or municipality has no litter control ordinance, then such funds shall go to the General Revenue Fund of the state.

(b) It shall be the duty of all law enforcement officers, as defined herein, to enforce the provisions of this section.

History.—ss. 1-4A, ch. 71-239; s. 1, ch. 75-266; s. 1, ch. 77-82; s. 1, ch. 78-202.

403.414 Pollution control awards program.—

(1) It is hereby declared to be the intent of the Legislature to encourage the prevention of, and cleaning up of, pollution in the state by recognizing:

(a) Those agencies, municipalities, counties, or other government units and private organizations, institutions, industries, communication media, and residents of the state who aid in restoring and maintaining the chemical, physical, and biological integrity of the state's air and water, or implement procedures for the abatement of excessive and unnecessary noise, above and beyond the minimum standards as presently set by the Department of <sup>1</sup>[Environmental Regulation] or any other state agency.

(b) Any communication media, communication media representatives, or individual residents of the state who highlight problems where they exist and work toward seeing the problems solved, or design innovations for the prevention, control, or cleaning up of pollution in the state.

(2) There is hereby created a pollution control awards program to be administered by the Department of Commerce.

(3) Awards under the pollution control awards program may be granted to agencies, municipalities, counties, or other governmental units and private organizations, institutions, industries, communication media, and residents of the state for efforts in preventing or cleaning up pollution as provided by rules and regulations promulgated by the Department of Commerce. Special awards may be granted to those agencies, municipalities, counties, or other governmental units and private organizations, institutions, industries, communication media, and residents of the state who have made an outstanding effort to prevent or clean up pollution as provided by rules and regulations promulgated by the Department of Commerce. All awards and special awards must be approved by the Department of Commerce, but the Department of Environmental Regulation shall have the power to veto any award which, in the opinion of the Department of Environmental Regulation, would be so controversial as to be unadvisable.

(4) Awards or special awards may be presented in the following categories:

- (a) Water pollution.
- (b) Air pollution.
- (c) Noise pollution.
- (d) Communication media on pollution problems.

(5) Any agency, municipality, county, or other governmental unit or private organization, institution, industry, communication medium, or resident of the state may submit to the Department of Commerce at any time the name of any agency, municipality, county, or other governmental unit or private organization, institution, industry, communication medium, or resident of the state for consideration for an award or special award. Prior to consideration by the Department of Commerce, nominees shall be required to submit to the department such additional information as the department may require, including, but not limited to, a list of all plant operations and subsidiaries in Florida. The Department of Commerce shall consider such nominations at least twice a year.

(6) The Department of Commerce shall adopt reasonable rules and regulations to carry out the intent and purposes of this act in accordance with chapter 120.

History.—ss. 1-6, ch. 74-60; s. 81, ch. 79-65.
Note.—Bracketed words substituted by the editors for the words "Pollution Control." See s. 8, ch. 75-22, which transferred the Department of Pollution Control to the Department of Environmental Regulation.

403.415 Motor vehicle noise.—

(1) SHORT TITLE.—This act shall be known and may be cited as the "Florida Motor Vehicle Noise Prevention and Control Act of 1974."

(2)(a) LEGISLATIVE INTENT.—The intent of the Legislature is to implement the state constitutional mandate of s. 7, Art. II of the State Constitution to improve the quality of life in the state by limiting the noise of new motor vehicles sold in the state and the noise of motor vehicles used on the highways of the state.

(b) It is also the intent of the Legislature to recognize the proposed United States Environmental Protection Act Noise Commission Standards Regulations for medium and heavy duty trucks as being the most comprehensive available and in the best interest of Florida's citizenry and, further, that said regulation shall preempt all state standards not identical to such regulation.

(3) DEFINITIONS.—The following words and phrases when used in this section shall have the meanings respectively assigned to them in this subsection, except where the context otherwise requires:

(a) "dB A" means the composite abbreviation for A-weighted sound level, and the unit of sound level, the decibel.

(b) "Gross combination weight rating" or "GCWR" means the value specified by the manufacturer as the loaded weight of a combination vehicle.

(c) "Gross vehicle weight rating" or "GVWR" means the value specified by the manufacturer as the loaded weight of a single vehicle.

(d) "Motor vehicle" means any vehicle which is self-propelled and any vehicle which is propelled by electric power obtained from overhead trolley wires, but not operated upon rails.

(e) "Motorcycle" means any motor vehicle having a seat or saddle for the use of the rider and designed to travel on not more than three wheels in contact with the ground, but excluding a tractor.

(f) "Motor-driven cycle" means every motorcycle and every motor scooter with a motor which produces not to exceed 5-brake horsepower, including every bicycle with a motor attached.

(g) "Sound level" means the A-weighted sound pressure level measured with fast response using an instrument complying with the specification for sound level meters of the American National Standards Institute, Inc., or its successor bodies, except that only A-weighting and fast dynamic response need be provided.

(h) "Vehicle" means any device in, upon, or by which any person or property is or may be transported or drawn upon a highway, except devices moved by human power or used exclusively upon stationary rails or tracks.

(i) "Department" means the Department of Environmental Regulation.

(4) NEW VEHICLE NOISE LIMITS.—No person shall sell, offer for sale, or lease a new motor vehicle that produces a maximum sound level exceeding the following limit at a distance of 50 feet from the center of the lane of travel under test procedures established under subsection (5):

(a) For motorcycles other than motor-driven cycles:

Date of manufacture	Sound level limit
From January 1, 1973, to December 31, 1974	86 dB A
From January 1, 1975, to December 31, 1980	83 dB A
From January 1, 1981, to December 31, 1982	80 dB A
From January 1, 1983, to December 31, 1984	78 dB A
On or after January 1, 1985	75 dB A

(b) For any motor vehicle with a GVWR over 10,000 pounds and for any multipurpose passenger vehicle, which is defined as a motor vehicle with motive power designed to carry 10 persons or less which is constructed either on a truck chassis or with special features for occasional off-road operation:

Date of manufacture	Sound level limit
From January 1, 1973, to December 31, 1976	86 dB A
From January 1, 1977, to December 31, 1981	83 dB A
From January 1, 1982, to December 31, 1984	80 dB A
On or after January 1, 1985	75 dB A

(c) For motor-driven cycles and any other motor vehicle not included in paragraph (a) or paragraph (b):

Date of manufacture	Sound level limit
From January 1, 1973, to December 31, 1974	84 dB A
From January 1, 1975, to December 31, 1984	80 dB A
On or after January 1, 1985	75 dB A

(5) TEST PROCEDURES.—The test procedures for determining compliance with this section shall be established by regulation of the Department of Environmental Regulation and in cooperation with the Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles in substantial conformance with applicable standards and recommended practices established by the Society of Automotive Engineers, Inc., or its successor bodies, and the American National Standards Institute, Inc., or its successor bodies, for the measurement of motor vehicle sound levels. Regulations establishing these test procedures shall be promulgated no later than December 1, 1974.

(6) CERTIFICATION.—The manufacturer, distributor, importer, or designated agent thereof shall file a written certificate with the department stating that the specific makes and models of motor vehicles described thereon comply with the provisions of this section. No new motor vehicle shall be sold, offered for sale, or leased unless such certificate has been filed.

(7) NOTIFICATION OF CERTIFICATION.—The department shall notify the Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles of all makes and models of motor vehicles for which valid certificates of compliance with the provisions of this section are filed.

(8) REPLACEMENT EQUIPMENT.—

(a) No person shall sell or offer for sale for use as a part of the equipment of a motor vehicle any exhaust muffler, intake muffler, or other noise abatement device which, when installed, will permit the vehicle to be operated in a manner that the emitted sound level of the vehicle is increased above that emitted by the vehicle as originally manufactured and determined by the test procedures for new motor vehicle sound levels established under this section.

(b) The manufacturer, distributor, or importer, or designated agent thereof, shall file a written certificate with the department that his products sold within this state comply with the requirements of this section for their intended applications.

(9) OPERATING VEHICLE NOISE MEASUREMENTS.—The department shall establish, with the cooperation of the Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles, measurement procedures for determining compliance of operating vehicles with the noise limits of s. 316.293(2). The department shall advise the Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles on technical aspects of motor vehicle noise enforcement regulations, assist in the training of enforcement officers, and administer a sound-level meter loan program for local enforcement agencies.

(10) ENACTMENT OF LOCAL ORDINANCES LIMITED.—The provisions of this section shall be applicable and uniform throughout this state and in all political subdivisions and municipalities therein, and no local authority shall enact or enforce any ordinance on a matter covered by this section unless expressly authorized. However, this subsection shall not prevent any local authority from enacting an ordinance when such enactment is necessary to vest jurisdiction of violation of this section in the local court.

History.—ss. 1-3, ch. 74-110; ss. 1, 2, ch. 75-59; s. 1, ch. 76-289; s. 1, ch. 78-280; s. 82, ch. 79-65; s. 98, ch. 79-164.

403.4151 Exempt motor vehicles.—The provisions of this act shall not apply to any motor vehicle which is not required to be licensed under the provisions of chapter 320.

History.—s. 7, ch. 74-110.

403.4153 Federal preemption.—On and after the date of promulgation of noise emission standards by the administrator of the United States Environmental Protection Agency for a class of new motor vehicles as described in paragraphs 403.415(4)(a), (b), or (c), the state sound level limits in effect at that time for that class of vehicles shall be maintained until the federal standards become effective.

History.—s. 2, ch. 76-289.

- 403.510 Superseded laws, regulations, and certification power.
- 403.511 Effect of certification.
- 403.5111 County and municipal authority unaffected by chapter 75-22, Laws of Florida.
- 403.512 Revocation or suspension of certification.
- 403.513 Review.
- 403.514 Enforcement of compliance.
- 403.515 Availability of information.
- 403.516 Amendment or modification of certification.
- 403.517 Supplemental applications for sites certified for ultimate site capacity.

403.501 Short title.—Sections 403.501-403.517 shall be known and may be cited as the "Florida Electrical Power Plant Siting Act."

History.—s. 1, ch. 73-33; s. 1, ch. 76-76.

403.502 Legislative intent.—The legislature finds that the present and predicted growth in electric power demands in this state requires the development of a procedure for the selection and utilization of sites for electrical generating facilities and the identification of a state position with respect to each proposed site. The legislature recognizes that the selection of sites and the routing of associated transmission lines will have a significant impact upon the welfare of the population, the location and growth of industry, and the use of the natural resources of the state. The legislature finds that the efficiency of the permit application and review process at both the state and local level would be improved with the implementation of a process whereby a permit application would be centrally coordinated and all permit decisions could be reviewed on the basis of standards and recommendations of the deciding agencies. It is the policy of this state that, while recognizing the pressing need for increased power generation facilities, the state shall ensure through available and reasonable methods that the location and operation of electrical power plants will produce minimal adverse effects on human health, the environment, the ecology of the land and its wildlife, and the ecology of state waters and their aquatic life. It is the intent to seek courses of action that will fully balance the increasing demands for electrical power plant location and operation with the broad interests of the public. Such action will be based on these premises:

(1) To assure the citizens of Florida that operation safeguards are technically sufficient for their welfare and protection.

(2) To effect a reasonable balance between the need for the facility and the environmental impact resulting from construction and operation of the facility, including air and water quality, fish and wildlife, and the water resources and other natural resources of the state.

(3) To provide abundant, low-cost electrical energy.

History.—s. 1, ch. 73-33.

403.503 Definitions.—

(1) "Applicant" means any electric utility which makes application for an electric power plant site certification pursuant to the provisions of this act.

(2) "Application" means the documents required by the department to be filed to initiate a certification proceeding.

(3) "Person" means an individual, partnership, joint venture, private or public corporation, association, firm, public service company, political subdivision, municipal corporation, government agency, public utility district, or any other entity, public or private, however organized.

(4) "Electric utility" means cities and towns, counties, public utility districts, regulated electric companies, electric cooperatives, and joint operating agencies, or combinations thereof, engaged in, or authorized to engage in, the business of generating, transmitting, or distributing electric energy.

(5) "Site" means any proposed location wherein an electrical power plant, or an electrical power plant alteration or addition resulting in an increase in generating capacity, will be located, including offshore sites within state jurisdiction.

(6) "Certification" means the written order of the board approving an application in whole or with such modifications or conditions as the board may deem appropriate.

(7) "Electrical power plant" means, for the purpose of certification, any steam or solar electrical generating facility using any process or fuel, including nuclear materials, and shall include associated facilities and those directly associated transmission lines required to connect the electrical power plant to an existing transmission network or rights-of-way to which the applicant intends to connect, except that this term does not include any power plant or steam generating plant of less than 50 megawatts in capacity.

(8) "Department" means the Department of Environmental Regulation.

(9) "Board" means the Governor and cabinet.

(10) "Agency," as the context requires, means an official, officer, commission, authority, council, committee, department, division, bureau, board, section, or other unit or entity of government, including a regional or local governmental entity.

(11) "State comprehensive plan" means that plan prepared in accordance with the provisions of part I of chapter 23.

(12) "License" means a franchise, permit, certification, registration, charter, or similar form of authorization required by law, but it does not include a license required primarily for revenue purposes when issuance of the license is merely a ministerial act.

(13) "Designated hearing officer" means the hearing officer assigned by the Division of Administrative Hearings pursuant to chapter 120 to conduct the hearings required by this part.

History.—s. 1, ch. 73-33; s. 1, ch. 76-76; s. 1, ch. 79-76.

403.504 Department of Environmental Regulation; powers and duties enumerated.—The Department of Environmental Regulation shall have the following powers and duties in relation to this act:

(1) To adopt, promulgate, or amend reasonable rules to implement the provisions of this act, including rules setting forth environmental precautions to be followed in relation to the location and operation of electrical power plants.

(2) To prescribe the form, content, and necessary supporting documentation and studies for electric power plant site certification applications.

(3) To receive applications for electrical power plant site certifications and to determine the completeness and sufficiency thereof.

(4) To make, or contract for, studies of electrical power plant site certification applications.

(5) To administer the processing of applications for electric power plant site certifications and to ensure that the applications are processed as expeditiously as possible.

(6) To notify all affected agencies of the filing of an application within 15 days of receiving the complete application.

(7) To require an application fee not to exceed $50,000. The application fee shall be paid to the department upon the filing of each application for site certification. The fee shall be fixed by rule on a sliding scale related to the size, type, ultimate site capacity, or increase in generating capacity proposed by the application. A minimum fee of $5,000 shall be required for each application. All reasonable expenses and costs of the proceeding incurred by the department, the Division of Administrative Hearings, the Public Service Commission, and the Department of Community Affairs, including those which are associated with the cost of publication of public notices, the preparation and conduct of the hearings, the recording and transcription of the proceedings, and the studies required by this act, shall be paid from the application fee. Any sums remaining after the payment of authorized costs shall be refunded to the applicant within 90 days of the issuance or denial of certification or withdrawal of the application. The applicant shall be provided with an itemized accounting of the expenditures.

(8) To prepare a written analysis which shall be filed with the designated hearing officer and served on all parties no later than 8 months after the complete application is filed with the department, and which shall include:

(a) A statement indicating whether the proposed electrical power plant and proposed ultimate site capacity will be in compliance with the department's rules.

(b) The report from the Public Service Commission as required by s. 403.507.

(c) The report of the Department of Community Affairs as required by s. 403.507.

(d) The studies conducted pursuant to s. 403.507.

(e) The comments received by the department from any other agency.

(f) The recommendation of the department as to the disposition of the application and any proposed conditions of certification which the department believes should be imposed.

(9) To provide adequate public notice of the filing of the application and of the proceedings conducted pursuant to this part.

(10) To prescribe the means for monitoring the effects arising from the construction and operation of electrical power plants to assure continued compliance with terms of the certification.

History.—s. 1, ch. 73-33; s. 1, ch. 76-76; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 132, ch. 79-190.

403.506 Applicability and certification.—

(1) The provisions of this chapter shall apply to any electrical power plant as defined herein, except that the provisions of the Power Plant Siting Act shall not apply to any power plant or steam generating plant of less than 50 megawatts in capacity. No construction of any new electrical power plant or expansion in steam generating capacity of any existing electrical power plant may be undertaken after October 1, 1973, without first obtaining certification in the manner as herein provided, except that this act shall not apply to any such electrical power plant which is presently operating or under construction or which has, upon the effective date of chapter 73-33, Laws of Florida, applied for a permit or certification under requirements in force prior to the effective date of such act.

(2) Except as provided in the certification, modification of nonnuclear fuels, internal related hardware, or operating conditions not in conflict with certification which increase the electrical output of a unit to no greater capacity than the maximum operating capacity of the existing generator shall not constitute an alteration or addition to generating capacity which requires certification pursuant to this act.

History.—s. 1, ch. 73-33; s. 3, ch. 76-76; s. 2, ch. 79-76.

403.5065 Appointment of hearing officer; determination of completeness.—

(1) Within 7 days of receipt of an application, whether complete or not, the department shall request the Division of Administrative Hearings to designate a hearing officer to conduct the hearings required by this act. The division director shall designate a hearing officer within 7 days of receipt of the request from the department. In designating a hearing officer for this purpose, the division director shall, whenever practicable, assign a hearing officer who has had prior experience or training in electric power plant site certification proceedings. Upon being advised that a hearing officer has been appointed, the department shall immediately file a copy of the application and all supporting documents with the designated hearing officer, who shall docket the application.

(2) Within 10 days of receipt of an application, the department shall file a statement with the Division of Administrative Hearings and with the applicant declaring its position with regard to the completeness, not the sufficiency, of the application. If the department declares the application to be incomplete, then, within 15 days of the receipt by the department of the application, the applicant shall file with the Division of Administrative Hearings and with the department a statement agreeing with the statement of the department and withdrawing the application or contesting the statement of the department. If the application is not withdrawn, the hearing officer shall schedule a hearing on the statement of completeness. Said hearing shall be scheduled as expeditiously as possible, but no later than 30 days after the receipt of the application by the department. The designated hearing officer shall make his decision within 10 days of the hearing. If the designated hearing officer determines that the application was not complete as filed, then the applicant shall withdraw the application. If the hearing officer determines that the application was complete at the time it was filed, then the times provided in this act shall run from the date of the filing of such application.

403.507 Reports and studies.—

(1) It shall be the duty of the department to provide copies of the application as filed to the Department of Community Affairs and the Public Service Commission within 15 days of its receipt by the department.

(a) Within 5 months of receipt of a copy of the complete application, the Department of Community Affairs shall present a report as to the compatibility of the proposed electrical power plant with the state comprehensive plan to the department. The 'division shall submit a preliminary report within 60 days of receipt of a copy of the complete application.

(b) The Public Service Commission shall prepare a report as to the present and future need for the electrical generating capacity to be supplied by the proposed electrical power plant. The report may include the comments of the commission with respect to any matters within its jurisdiction. It shall submit its report to the department within 5 months of receipt of a copy of the complete application. The commission shall submit a preliminary report within 60 days of receipt of a copy of the complete application. The applicant, at its cost, shall furnish such information, studies, and data as the department, 'division, or Public Service Commission may direct.

(2) It shall be the duty of the department to conduct, or contract for, studies of the proposed electrical power plant and site, including, but not limited to, the following:

- (a) Cooling system requirements.
- (b) Construction and operational safeguards.
- (c) Proximity to transportation systems.
- (d) Soil and foundation conditions.
- (e) Impact on suitable present and projected water supplies for this and other competing uses.
- (f) Impact on surrounding land uses.
- (g) Accessibility to transmission corridors.
- (h) Environmental impacts.

(3) The department shall initiate the activities required by this section no later than 30 days after the complete application is filed. The department shall keep the applicant informed as to the progress of the studies and any issues raised thereby.

(4) The studies required by subsection (2) shall be completed no later than 7 months after the complete application is filed with the department.

History.—s. 1, ch. 73-33; s. 5, ch. 76-76; s. 133, ch. 79-190.

Note.—See s. 48, ch. 79-190, which transferred all powers, duties, functions, records, property, and funds of designated units of the Division of State Planning of the Department of Administration to the Department of Community Affairs, including the Bureau of Comprehensive Planning related to the 10-year plant siting review and local government comprehensive planning functions and that portion of the office of the director of the division which includes administrative services related thereto.

403.508 Proceedings, parties, participants.—

(1) The designated hearing officer shall conduct a land use hearing in the county of the proposed site within 90 days of receipt of a complete application for electrical power plant site certification by the department. The place of such hearing shall be as close as possible to the proposed site. The department shall arrange for publication of notice of the land use hearing and of the deadline for filing of notice of intent to be a party at least 45 days before the date set for the land use hearing.

(2) The sole issue for determination at the land use hearing shall be whether or not the proposed site is consistent and in compliance with existing land use plans and zoning ordinances. The designated hearing officer's recommended order shall be issued within 30 days of completion of the hearing and shall be reviewed by the board within 45 days of receipt of the recommended order by the board. If it is determined by the board that the proposed site does conform with existing land use plans and zoning ordinances in effect as of the date of the application, the responsible zoning or planning authority shall not thereafter change such land use plans or zoning ordinances so as to affect the proposed site unless certification is subsequently denied. If it is determined by the board that the proposed site does not conform, it shall be the responsibility of the applicant to make the necessary application for rezoning. Should the application for rezoning be denied, the applicant may appeal this decision to the board, which may, if it determines after notice and hearing that it is in the public interest to authorize a nonconforming use of the land as a site for an electrical power plant, authorize a variance to the existing land use plan and zoning ordinances. In the event a variance is denied, no further action may be taken on the complete application by the department until the proposed site conforms to existing land use plans or zoning ordinances.

(3) A certification hearing shall be held by the designated hearing officer no later than 10 months after the complete application is filed with the department. At the conclusion of the certification hearing, the designated hearing officer shall, after consideration of all evidence of record, submit to the board a recommended order no later than 12 months after receipt of the complete application by the department.

(4)(a) Parties to the proceeding shall include:

1. The applicant.
2. The Public Service Commission.
3. The Department of Community Affairs.
4. The water management district, as defined in chapter 373, in whose jurisdiction the proposed electrical power plant is to be located.
5. The department.

(b) Upon the filing with the department of a notice of intent to be a party at least 15 days prior to the date set for the land use hearing, the following shall also be parties to the proceeding:

1. Any county or municipality in whose jurisdiction the proposed electrical power plant is to be located.
2. Any state agency not listed in paragraph (a) as to matters within its jurisdiction.

3. Any domestic nonprofit corporation or association formed, in whole or in part, to promote conservation or natural beauty; to protect the environment, personal health, or other biological values; to preserve historical sites; to promote consumer interests; to represent labor, commercial, or industrial groups; or to promote orderly development of the area in which the proposed electrical power plant is to be located.

(c) Notwithstanding paragraph (4)(d), failure of an agency described in subparagraphs (4)(b)1. or (4)(b)2. to file a notice of intent to be a party within the time provided herein shall constitute a waiver of the right of that agency to participate as a party in the proceeding.

(d) Other parties may include any person, including those persons enumerated in paragraph (4)(b) who have failed to timely file a notice of intent to be a party, whose substantial interests are affected and being determined by the proceeding and who timely file a motion to intervene pursuant to chapter 120 and applicable rules. Intervention pursuant to this paragraph may be granted at the discretion of the designated hearing officer and upon such conditions as he may prescribe any time prior to 15 days before the commencement of the certification hearing.

(e) Any agency whose properties or works are being affected pursuant to s. 403.509(2) shall be made a party upon the request of the department or the applicant.

(5) When appropriate, any person may be given an opportunity to present oral or written communications to the designated hearing officer. If the designated hearing officer proposes to consider such communications, then all parties shall be given an opportunity to cross-examine or challenge or rebut such communications.

(6) The designated hearing officer shall have all powers and duties granted to hearing officers by chapters 120 and 403 and by the rules of the department and the Administration Commission, including the authority to resolve disputes over the completeness of an application for certification.

History.—s. 1, ch. 73-33; s. 6, ch. 76-76; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 134, ch. 79-190.

403.509 Final disposition of application.—

(1) Within 60 days of receipt of the designated hearing officer's recommended order, the board shall act upon the application by written order, approving in whole, approving with such modification as the board shall deem appropriate, or denying the issuance of a certificate and stating the reasons for issuance or denial. If the certificate is denied, the board shall set forth in writing the action the applicant would have to take to secure the board's approval of the application.

(2) In regard to the properties and works of any agency which is a party to the certification hearing, the board shall have the authority to decide issues relating to the use, the connection thereto, or the crossing thereof, for the electrical power plant and site and to direct any such agency to execute, within 30 days of the entry of certification, the necessary license or easement for such use, connection, or crossing, subject only to the conditions set forth in such certification.

(3) The issuance or denial of the certification by the board shall be the final administrative action required as to that application.

History.—s. 1, ch. 73-33; s. 7, ch. 76-76; s. 141, ch. 77-104.

403.5095 Alteration of time limits.—Any time limitation in this part may be altered by the designated hearing officer upon stipulation between the department and the applicant or for good cause shown by any party.

History.—s. 8, ch. 76-76.

403.510 Superseded laws, regulations, and certification power.—

(1) If any provision of this act is in conflict with any other provision, limitation, or restriction which is now in effect under any law or ordinance of this state or any political subdivision or municipality, or any rule or regulation promulgated thereunder, this act shall govern and control, and such other law or ordinance or rule or regulation promulgated thereunder shall be deemed superseded for the purposes of this act.

(2) The state hereby preempts the regulation and certification of electrical power plant sites and electrical power plants as defined in this act.

(3) The board shall have the power to adopt reasonable procedural rules to carry out its duties under this act and to give effect to the legislative intent that this act is to provide an efficient, simplified, centrally coordinated, one-stop permitting process.

History.—s. 1, ch. 73-33; s. 9, ch. 76-76.

403.511 Effect of certification.—

(1) Subject to the conditions set forth therein, any certification signed by the Governor shall constitute the sole license of the state and any agency as to the approval of the site and the construction and operation of the proposed electrical power plant, except as otherwise provided in subsection (4).

(2) The certification shall authorize the electric utility named therein to construct and operate the proposed electrical power plant, subject only to the conditions of certification set forth in such certification. Except as provided in subsection (4), the certification agreement may include conditions which constitute variances from nonprocedural standards or regulations of the department or any other standards or regulations of any other agency which were expressly considered during the proceeding and which otherwise would be applicable to the construction and operation of the proposed electrical power plant.

(3) The certification shall be in lieu of any license, permit, certificate, or similar document required by any agency pursuant to, but not limited to, chapters 161, 253, 290, 298, 370, 373, 380, 381, 387, the Florida Transportation Code, or 33 USC 1341.

(4) This part shall not affect in any way the rate-making powers of the Public Service Commission under chapter 366; nor shall this part in any way affect the right of any local government to charge appropriate fees or require that construction be in compliance with local building codes, standards, and regulations.

(5)(a) An electrical power plant certified pursuant to this act shall comply with rules adopted by the department subsequent to the issuance of the certification which prescribe new or stricter criteria, to the extent that the rules are applicable to electrical power plants. Except when express variances have been granted, subsequently adopted rules which prescribe new or stricter criteria shall operate as automatic modifications to certifications.

(b) Any holder of a certification issued pursuant to this act may choose to operate the certified electrical power plant in compliance with any rule subsequently adopted by the department which prescribes criteria more lenient than the criteria required by the terms and conditions in the certification which are not site-specific.

(c) No term or condition of certification shall be interpreted to preclude the postcertification exercise by any party of whatever procedural rights it may have under chapter 120, including those related to rulemaking proceedings. This subsection shall apply to previously issued certifications.

History.—s. 1, ch. 73-33; s. 2, ch. 74-170; s. 10, ch. 76-76; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 83, ch. 79-65.

403.5111 County and municipal authority unaffected by chapter 75-22, Laws of Florida.—Except as provided in ss. 403.510 and 403.511, nothing in chapter 75-22, Laws of Florida, shall be construed to have altered the authority of county and municipal governments as provided by law.

History.—s. 22, ch. 75-22.

403.512 Revocation or suspension of certification.—Any certification may be revoked or suspended:

(1) For any material false statement in the application or in the supplemental or additional statements of fact or studies required of the applicant when a true answer would have warranted the board's refusal to recommend a certification in the first instance.

(2) For failure to comply with the terms or conditions of the certification.

(3) For violation of the provisions of this chapter or regulations or orders issued hereunder.

History.—s. 1, ch. 73-33; s. 11, ch. 76-76.

403.513 Review.—Proceedings under this part shall be subject to judicial review as provided in chapter 120.

History.—s. 1, ch. 73-33; s. 12, ch. 76-76.

403.514 Enforcement of compliance.—Failure to obtain a certification, or to comply with the conditions thereof, or to comply with this part shall constitute a violation of chapter 403.

History.—s. 1, ch. 73-33; s. 12, ch. 76-76.

403.515 Availability of information.—The department shall make available for public inspection and copying during regular office hours, at the expense of any person requesting copies, any information filed or submitted pursuant to this act.

History.—s. 1, ch. 73-33.

403.516 Amendment or modification of certification.—A certification may be amended or modified after issuance in any one of the following ways:

(1) The board may delegate to the department the authority to amend or modify specific conditions in the certification.

(2) The parties to the certification proceeding may amend or modify the terms and conditions of the certification by mutual written agreement. Upon execution of the agreement by the parties, the provisions of s. 120.57 shall apply to the proceedings for approval or denial of the agreement by the board.

(3) If the parties to the certification proceeding are unable to reach a mutual written agreement on amendment or modification of the terms and conditions of the certification, a petition for modification setting forth:

(a) The proposed amendment or modification,

(b) The factual reasons asserted for the amendment or modification, and

(c) The anticipated effects of the proposed modification on the applicant, the public, and the environment shall be filed with the Division of Administrative Hearings. The provisions of s. 120.57 shall apply to the proceedings for approval or denial of the petition by the board.

(4) As required by s. 403.511(5).

History.—s. 13, ch. 76-76.

403.517 Supplemental applications for sites certified for ultimate site capacity.—

(1)(a) The department shall adopt rules governing the processing of supplemental applications for certification of the construction and operation of electrical power plants to be located at sites which have been previously certified for an ultimate site capacity pursuant to this part. Supplemental applications shall be limited to electrical power plants using the fuel type previously certified for that site. The rules adopted pursuant to this section shall include provisions for:

1. Prompt appointment of a designated hearing officer.

2. The contents of the supplemental application.

3. Resolution of disputes as to the completeness of supplemental applications by the designated hearing officer.

4. Public notice of the filing of the supplemental applications.

5. Time limits for prompt processing of supplemental applications.

6. Final disposition by the board within 7 months of the filing of a complete supplemental application.

(b) The time limits shall not exceed any time limitation governing the review of initial applications for site certification pursuant to this part, it being the legislative intent to provide shorter time limitations for the processing of supplemental applications for electrical power plants to be constructed and operated at sites which have been previously certified for an ultimate site capacity.

(c) Any time limitation in this section or in rules adopted pursuant to this section may be altered by the designated hearing officer upon stipulation between the department and the applicant or for good cause shown by any party. The parties to the proceeding shall adhere to the provisions of chapter 120 in considering and processing such supplemental applications. The department may charge a supplemental application fee not to exceed $25,000 to cover all reasonable expenses and costs of the review, processing, and proceedings of a supplemental application incurred by the department, the Division of Administrative Hearings, the Public Service Commission, and the 'Division of State Planning. Any unused portion of the fee shall be refunded pursuant to subsection 403.504(7).

(2) Supplemental applications shall be reviewed in accordance with the criteria and considerations of s. 403.507.

(3) The land use hearing requirements of subsections 403.508(1) and (2) shall not be applicable to the processing of supplemental applications pursuant to this section so long as:

(a) The previously certified ultimate site capacity is not exceeded; and

(b) The lands required for the construction or operation of the electrical power plant which is the subject of the supplemental application are within the boundaries of the previously certified site.

(4) For the purposes of this part, the term "ultimate site capacity" means the maximum generating capacity for a site as certified by the board.

History.—s. 14, ch. 76-76.

Note.—See s. 48, ch. 79-190, which transferred all powers, duties, functions, records, property, and funds of designated units of the Division of State Planning of the Department of Administration to the Department of Community Affairs, including the Bureau of Comprehensive Planning related to the 10-year plant siting review and local government comprehensive planning functions and that portion of the office of the director of the division which includes administrative services related thereto.

PART III

INTERSTATE ENVIRONMENTAL CONTROL COMPACT

403.60 Environmental Control Compact; execution authorized.

403.60 Environmental Control Compact; execution authorized.—The Governor on behalf of this state is hereby authorized to execute a compact, in substantially the following form, with any one or more of the states of the United States, and the Legislature hereby signifies in advance its approval and ratification of such compact:

MEMBER JURISDICTION.—The environmental compact is entered into with all jurisdictions legally joining therein and enacted into law in the following form:

INTERSTATE ENVIRONMENTAL COMPACT

ARTICLE I

FINDINGS, PURPOSES AND RESERVATIONS OF POWERS.—

A. Findings.—Signatory states hereby find and declare:

1. The environment of every state is affected with local, state, regional and national interests and its protection, under appropriate arrangements for intergovernmental cooperation, is a public purpose of the respective signatories.

2. Certain environmental pollution problems transcend state boundaries and thereby become common to adjacent states requiring cooperative efforts.

3. The environment of each state is subject to the effective control of the signatories, and coordinated, cooperative or joint exercise of control measures is in their common interests.

B. Purposes.—The purposes of the signatories in enacting this compact are:

1. To assist and participate in the national environment protection programs as set forth in federal legislation; to promote intergovernmental cooperation for multistate action relating to environmental protection through interstate agreements; and to encourage cooperative and coordinated environmental protection by the signatories and the federal government;

2. To preserve and utilize the functions, powers and duties of existing state agencies of government to the maximum extent possible consistent with the purposes of the compact.

C. Powers of the United States.—

1. Nothing contained in this compact shall impair, affect or extend the constitutional authority of the United States.

2. The signatories hereby recognize the power and right of the Congress of the United States at any time by any statute expressly enacted for that purpose to revise the terms and conditions of its consent.

D. Powers of the states.—Nothing contained in this compact shall impair or extend the constitutional authority of any signatory state, nor shall the police powers of any signatory state be affected except as expressly provided in a supplementary agreement under Article IV.

ARTICLE II

SHORT TITLE, DEFINITIONS, PURPOSES AND LIMITATIONS.—

A. Short title.—This compact shall be known and may be cited as the "Interstate Environmental Compact."

B. Definitions.—For the purpose of this compact and of any supplemental or concurring legislation enacted pursuant or in relation hereto, except as may be otherwise required by the context:

1. "State" shall mean any one of the fifty states of the United States of America, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico and the Territory of the Virgin Islands, but shall not include the District of Columbia.

2. "Interstate environment pollution" shall mean any pollution of a stream or body of water crossing or marking a state boundary, interstate air quality control region designated by an appropriate federal agency or solid waste collection and disposal district or program involving the jurisdiction or territories of more than one state.

3. "Government" shall mean the governments of the United States and the signatory states.

4. "Federal government" shall mean the government of the United States of America and any appropriate department, instrumentality, agency, commission, bureau, division, branch or other unit thereof, as the case may be, but shall not include the District of Columbia.

5. "Signator" shall mean any state which enters into this compact and is a party thereto.

ARTICLE III

INTERGOVERNMENTAL COOPERATION.—

Agreements with the federal government and other agencies.—Signatory states are hereby authorized jointly to participate in cooperative or joint undertakings for the protection of the interstate environment with the federal government or with any intergovernmental or interstate agencies.

ARTICLE IV

SUPPLEMENTARY AGREEMENTS, JURISDICTION AND ENFORCEMENT.—

A. Signatories may enter into agreements for the purpose of controlling interstate environmental problems in accordance with applicable federal legislation and under terms and conditions as deemed appropriate by the agreeing states under Paragraph F. and Paragraph H. of this Article.

B. Recognition of existing nonenvironmental intergovernmental arrangements.—The signatories agree that existing federal-state, interstate or intergovernmental arrangements which are not primarily directed to environmental protection purposes as defined herein are not affected by this compact.

C. Recognition of existing intergovernmental agreements directed to environmental objectives.—All existing interstate compacts directly relating to environmental protection are hereby expressly recognized and nothing in this compact shall be construed to diminish or supersede the powers and functions of such existing intergovernmental agreements and the organizations created by them.

D. Modification of existing commissions and compacts.—Recognition herein of multistate commissions and compacts shall not be construed to limit directly or indirectly the creation of additional multistate organizations or interstate compacts, nor to prevent termination, modification, extension, or supplementation of such multistate organizations and interstate compacts recognized herein by the federal government or states party thereto.

E. Recognition of future multistate commissions and interstate compacts.—Nothing in this compact shall be construed to prevent signatories from entering into multistate organizations or other interstate compacts which do not conflict with their obligations under this compact.

F. Supplementary agreements.—Any two or more signatories may enter into supplementary agreements for joint, coordinated or mutual environmental management activities relating to interstate pollution problems common to the territories of such states and for the establishment of common or joint regulation, management, services, agencies or facilities for such purposes or may designate an appropriate agency to act as their joint agency in regard thereto. No supplementary agreement shall be valid to the extent that it conflicts with the purposes of this compact and the creation of a joint agency by supplementary agreement shall not affect the privileges, powers, responsibilities or duties under this compact of signatories participating therein as embodied in this compact.

G. Execution of supplementary agreements and effective date.—The Governor is authorized to enter into supplementary agreements for the state and his official signature shall render the agreement immediately binding upon the state; provided that:

1. The legislature of any signatory entering into such a supplementary agreement shall at its next legislative session by concurrent resolution bring the supplementary agreement before it and by appropriate legislative action approve, reverse, modify or condition the agreement of that state.

2. Nothing in this agreement shall be construed to limit the right of Congress by act of law expressly enacted for that purpose to disapprove or condition such a supplementary agreement.

H. Special supplementary agreements.—Signatories may enter into special supplementary agreements with the District of Columbia or foreign nations for the same purposes and with the same powers as under Paragraph F., Article IV, upon the condition that such nonsignatory party accept the general obligations of signatories under this compact. Provided, that such special supplementary agreements shall become effective only after being consented to by the Congress.

I. Jurisdiction of signatories reserved.—Nothing in this compact or in any supplementary agreement thereunder shall be construed to restrict, relinquish or be in derogation of, any power or authority constitutionally possessed by any signatory within its jurisdiction, except as specifically limited by this compact or a supplementary agreement.

J. Complimentary legislation by signatories.—Signatories may enact such additional legislation as may be deemed appropriate to enable its officers and governmental agencies to accomplish effectively the purposes of this compact and supplementary agreements recognized or entered into under the terms of this Article.

K. Legal rights of signatories.—Nothing in this compact shall impair the exercise by any signatory of its legal rights or remedies established by the United States Constitution or any other laws of this nation.

ARTICLE V

CONSTRUCTION, AMENDMENT AND EFFECTIVE DATE.—

A. Construction.—It is the intent of the signatories that no provision of this compact or supplementary agreement entered into hereunder shall be construed as invalidating any provision of law of any signatory and that nothing in this compact shall be construed to modify or qualify the authority of any signatory to enact or enforce environmental protection legislation within its jurisdiction and not inconsistent with any provision of this compact or a supplementary agreement entered into pursuant hereto.

B. Severability.—The provisions of this compact or of agreements hereunder shall be severable and if any phrase, clause, sentence or provisions of this compact, or such an agreement is declared to be contrary to the constitution of any signatory or of the United States or is held invalid, the constitutionality of the remainder of this compact or of any agreement and the applicability thereof to any participating jurisdiction, agency, person or circumstance shall not be affected thereby and shall remain in full force and effect as to the remaining participating jurisdictions and in full force and effect as to the signatory affected as to all severable matters. It is the intent of the signatories that the provisions of this compact shall be reasonably and liberally construed in the context of its purposes.

C. Amendments.—Amendments to this compact may be initiated by legislative action of any signatory and become effective when concurred in by all signatories and approved by Congress.

D. Effective date.—This compact shall become binding on a state when enacted by it into law and such state shall thereafter become a signatory and party hereto with any and all states legally joining herein.

E. Withdrawal from the compact.—A state may withdraw from this compact by authority of an act of its legislature one year after it notifies all signatories in writing of an intention to withdraw from the compact. Provided, withdrawal from the compact affects obligations of a signatory imposed on it by supplementary agreements to which it may be a party only to the extent and in accordance with the terms of such supplementary agreements.

History.—s. 1, ch. 71-79.

403.701 Short title.—Sections 403.701-403.713 shall be known and may be cited as the "Florida Resource Recovery and Management Act."

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-342.

403.702 Legislative findings; public purpose.—

(1) In order to enhance the beauty and quality of our environment, conserve and recycle our natural resources, prevent the spread of disease and creation of nuisances, protect the public health, safety, and welfare, and provide a coordinated statewide resource recovery and management program, the Legislature finds that:

(a) Inefficient and improper methods of managing solid waste create hazards to public health, cause pollution of air and water resources, constitute a waste of natural resources, have an adverse effect on land values, and create public nuisances.

(b) Problems of solid-waste management have become a matter statewide in scope and necessitate state action to assist local government in improving methods and processes to promote more efficient methods of solid-waste collection and disposal.

(c) The continuing technological progress and improvements in methods of manufacture, packaging, and marketing of consumer products has resulted in an ever-mounting increase of the mass of material discarded by the purchasers of such products, thereby necessitating a statewide approach which will avoid varied and uncoordinated solutions by local governments around the state.

(d) The economic and population growth of our state and the improvements in the standard of living enjoyed by our population have required increased industrial production together with related commercial and agricultural operations to meet our needs, which have resulted in a rising tide of unwanted and discarded materials.

(e) The failure or inability to economically recover material and energy resources from solid waste results in the unnecessary waste and depletion of our natural resources, and, therefore, maximum resource recovery from solid waste and maximum recycling and reuse of such resources must be considered goals of the state.

(2) It is declared to be the purpose of this act to:

(a) Plan for and regulate the storage, collection, transport, separation, processing, recycling, and disposal of solid waste in order to protect the public safety, health, and welfare; enhance the environment for the people of the state; and recover resources which have the potential for further usefulness.

(b) Establish and maintain a cooperative state program of planning and technical assistance for resource recovery and management.

(c) Provide the authority, and require counties and municipalities, to adequately plan and provide efficient, environmentally acceptable resource recovery and management.

(d) Require review of the design, and issue permits for the operation, of resource recovery and management facilities.

(e) Promote the application of resource recovery systems which preserve and enhance the quality of air, water, and land resources.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-342.

403.703 Definitions.—As used in this act:

(1) "Department" means the Department of Environmental Regulation or any successor agency performing a like function.

(2) "County or municipality," or any like term, shall include political subdivisions engaged in resource recovery and management.

(3) "Person" means any and all persons, natural or artificial, including any individual, firm, or association; any municipal or private corporation organized or existing under the laws of Florida or any other state; any county of this state; and any governmental agency of this state or the Federal Government.

(4) "Recycling" means the reuse of solid waste in manufacturing, agriculture, power production, or other processes.

(5) "Resource management" means the process by which solid waste is collected, transported, stored, separated, processed, or disposed of in any other way, according to an orderly, purposeful, and planned program.

(6) "Resource recovery" means the process by which materials, excluding those under control of the Atomic Energy Commission, which still have useful physical or chemical properties after serving a specific purpose are reused or recycled for the same or other purposes, including use as an energy source.

(7) "Resource recovery and management facility" means any solid waste disposal area, volume reduction plant, or other facility, the purpose of which is resource recovery or the disposal, recycling, processing, or storage of solid waste.

(8) "Resource recovery equipment" means equipment or machinery exclusively and integrally used in the actual process of recovering material or energy resources from solid waste.

(9) "Solid waste" means garbage, rubbish, refuse, and other discarded solid or semisolid materials resulting from domestic, industrial, commercial, agricultural, and governmental operations, but does not include solids or dissolved material in domestic sewage or other significant pollutants in water resources such as silt, dissolved or suspended solids in industrial waste water effluents, dissolved materials in irrigation return flows, or other common water pollutants.

(10) "Volume reduction plant" includes, but is not limited to, incinerators, pulverizers, compactors, shredding and baling plants, transfer stations, composting plants, and other plants which accept and process solid waste for recycling or disposal.

(11) "Yard trash" means vegetative matter resulting from landscaping maintenance and land-clearing operations.

(12) "Trash landfills" means combinations of yard trash and construction and demolition debris along with paper, cardboard, cloth, glass, white goods, street sweepings, vehicle tires, and other like matter.

(13) "Construction and demolition debris" means material generally considered to be not water soluble and nonhazardous in nature, including, but not limited to, steel, glass, brick, concrete, or asphalt roofing material.

(14) "Class I solid waste disposal area" means a disposal facility which receives an average of 20 tons or more per day, if scales are available, or 50 cubic yards or more per day of solid waste, as measured in place after covering, and which receives an initial cover daily.

(15) "Class II solid waste disposal area" means a disposal facility which receives an average of less than 50 cubic yards per day of solid waste, as measured in place after covering, and which receives an initial cover at least once every 4 days.

(16) "Initial cover" means a 6-inch layer of compacted earth used to enclose a volume of solid waste prior to intermediate or final cover.

(17) "Monitoring well" means a strategically located well from which water samples are drawn for water quality analysis.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-342; s. 2, ch. 78-329; s. 1, ch. 78-387; s. 84, ch. 79-65.

403.704 Powers and duties of the department.—The department shall have responsibility for the implementation and enforcement of the provisions of this act. In addition to other powers and duties, the department shall:

(1) Adopt by rule for the state a resource recovery and management program, as defined in s. 403.705, by July 1, 1976. In developing the state resource recovery and management program, the department shall hold public hearings around the state in accordance with chapter 120, and shall give notice of such public hearings to all local governments and regional planning agencies.

(2) Provide technical assistance to counties, municipalities, and other persons, and cooperate with appropriate federal agencies and private organizations in carrying out the provisions of this act.

(3) Promote the planning and application of recycling and resource recovery systems which preserve and enhance the quality of the air, water, and other natural resources of the state.

(4) Serve as the official state representative for all purposes of the Federal Solid Waste Disposal Act, as amended by Pub. L. No. 91-512, or as subsequently amended.

(5) Utilize private industry through contractual arrangements for implementation of some or all of the requirements of the state resource recovery and management program and for such other activities as may be considered necessary, desirable, or convenient.

(6) Encourage recycling and resource recovery as an energy source.

(7) Assist in and encourage, as much as possible, the development within the state of industries and commercial enterprises which are based upon resource recovery, recycling, and reuse of solid waste.

(8) Charge reasonable fees for any services it performs pursuant to this act, provided user fees shall apply uniformly within each municipality or county to all users who are provided with resource recovery and management services.

(9) Acquire, at its discretion, personal or real property or any interest therein by gift, lease, or purchase for the purpose of providing sites for resource recovery and management facilities.

(10) Acquire, construct, reconstruct, improve, maintain, equip, furnish, and operate, at its discretion, such resource recovery and management facilities as are called for by the state resource recovery and management program.

(11) Receive funds or revenues from the sale of products, materials, fuels, or energy in any form derived from processing of solid waste by state-owned or operated facilities, which funds or revenues shall be deposited in the General Revenue Fund.

(12) Determine by rule the facilities, equipment, personnel, and number of monitoring wells to be provided at each Class I solid waste disposal area.

(13) Encourage, but not require, as part of a Class II solid waste disposal area, a potable water supply, an employee shelter, handwashing and toilet facilities, equipment washout facilities, electric service for operations and repairs, equipment shelter for maintenance and storage of parts, equipment and tools, scales for weighing solid waste received at the disposal area, a trained equipment operator in full-time attendance during operating hours, and communication facilities for use in emergencies. The department may require an attendant at a Class II solid waste disposal area during the hours of operation if the department affirmatively demonstrates that such a requirement is necessary to prevent unlawful fires, unauthorized dumping, or littering of nearby property.

(14) Require a Class II solid waste disposal area to have at least one monitoring well which shall be placed adjacent to the site in the direction of groundwater flow unless otherwise exempted by the department. The department may require additional monitoring wells not farther than 1 mile from the site if it is affirmatively demonstrated by the department that a significant change in the initial quality of the water has occurred in the downstream monitoring well which adversely affects the beneficial uses of the water. These wells may be public or private water supply wells if they are suitable for use in determining background water quality levels.

(15) Promulgate rules for solid waste disposal areas limited exclusively to yard trash, for solid waste disposal areas limited exclusively to construction and demolition debris, and for solid waste disposal areas limited exclusively to trash. Such rules shall take into account the reduced environmental threat caused by the segregated disposal of these solid wastes. Reduced requirements for engineering, location, covering, monitoring wells, or forced draft burning may be allowed for such solid waste disposal areas, providing the requirements will not allow a threat to the public health or environment to exist and providing the requirements are consistent with all other state or local laws, ordinances, rules, regulations, or orders.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-342; s. 1, ch. 75-54; s. 2, ch. 78-387.

403.705 State resource recovery and management program.—

(1) The state resource recovery and management program shall provide guidelines for the orderly collection, transportation, storage, separation, processing, recovery, recycling, and disposal of solid waste throughout the state; encourage coordinated local activity within a common geographical area; and investigate the present status of solid-waste management in the state with positive proposals for local action to correct deficiencies in present resource recovery and management processes.

(2) The program shall be developed by the department and adopted by rule by July 1, 1976. The department shall consult with and obtain the approval of the Resource Recovery Council, established pursuant to s. 403.710, prior to adoption by rule of the program.

(3) The state resource recovery and management program shall encourage cooperative efforts by counties and municipalities in common geographic areas and shall, to the maximum extent possible, include provision for the continuation of existing regional resource recovery, recycling, and management facilities and programs. In order to encourage such cooperative efforts, the state program shall provide for a pilot resource recovery and management program, as recommended by the Resource Recovery Council and approved by the Legislature according to s. 403.711.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-342; s. 2, ch. 75-54.

403.706 Local resource recovery and management programs.—

(1) Within 3 years after the department adopts the state resource recovery and management program, there shall be established, by special act of the Legislature or interlocal agreement between counties, between municipalities, or between municipalities and counties, in those areas designated under the rule adopted pursuant to s. 403.705, a local resource recovery and management program which shall be approved by the department and implement the provisions of the state program by adequately providing for the receiving in bulk, storage, separation, processing, recovery, recycling, or disposal of solid waste generated or existing within the boundaries of the county or incorporated limits of the municipality or in the area served thereby.

(2)(a) Each local resource recovery and management program established pursuant to this section shall include an implementation schedule which provides a timetable indicating when the total program, as well as its component parts, will be carried out. The implementation schedules shall:

1. Be mutually agreed upon by the local governments participating in the development of the program plan and the department.

2. Expedite and accomplish, within reason and practicality, the provisions of the program plan.

3. Be adhered to by each local program.

4. Be monitored by the department to assure compliance.

5. Be modified only upon approval by the department of a request of a local program, showing sufficient evidence and justification for a modification.

(b) It is the policy of the state that a county and its municipalities may jointly determine, through an interlocal agreement pursuant to s. 163.01 or by requesting the passage of special legislation, which local governmental agency shall administer the local resource recovery and management program. If, on December 1, 1978, no interlocal agreement has been effectuated and no special act has become law, the board of county commissioners shall administer and be responsible for the local resource recovery program, except sludge from a waste treatment plant or pollution control facility, for the entire county.

(c) Each local resource recovery and management program shall be reviewed at least once in every 3 years. Each county and its municipalities shall be responsible for updating their local program in a manner consistent with the rules adopted by the department.

(d) The department shall review, at least once in every 3 years, those counties or municipalities not required to plan for resource recovery under the provisions of subsection (4) to determine if sufficient solid waste is generated to make it economically practical to plan for, and engage in, resource recovery and management programs.

(3) Nothing in this act shall be construed to prevent the governing body of any county or municipality from providing by ordinance or regulation for resource recovery and management requirements which are stricter or more extensive than those imposed by the state resource recovery and management program and rules, regulations, and orders issued thereunder.

(4) Nothing in this act or in any rule adopted by any agency shall be construed to require any county or municipality to participate in any resource recovery program until the governing body of such county or municipality has determined that participation in such a program is economically feasible for that county or municipality. Nothing in this act or in any special or local act or in any rule adopted by any agency shall be construed to limit the authority of a municipality to regulate the disposal of solid waste within its boundaries or generated within its boundaries so long as any such disposal facility has been approved by the department unless the municipality is included within a resource recovery program created by interlocal agreement or special or local act. If, on December 1, 1978, bonds had been issued to finance a resource recovery or management program in reliance on state law granting to said county the responsibility for the resource recovery or management program, nothing herein shall permit any governmental agency to withdraw from said program if said agency's participation is necessary for the financial feasibility of the project, so long as said bonds are outstanding.

(5) The time limit set out in subsection (1) shall be extended by the department upon application to the department by the local unit of government involved and on due cause shown that good faith efforts to meet the requirements of this act have been and are being made.

(6) Nothing in this chapter or in any rule adopted by any state agency hereunder shall require any person to subscribe to any private solid waste collection service.

403.707 Permits.—

(1) After January 1, 1975, no resource recovery and management facility or site shall be operated, maintained, constructed, expanded, or modified without an appropriate and currently valid permit issued by the department.

(2) No permit under this section shall be required for the following activities, provided no public nuisance or any condition adversely affecting the public health is created, and provided the activity does not violate other state or local laws, ordinances, rules, regulations or orders:

(a) Disposal by persons of solid waste resulting from their own activities on their own property.

(b) Normal farming operations.

(c) Solid waste disposal areas limited to the disposal of construction and demolition debris.

(3) All applicable provisions of ss. 403.087 and 403.088, relating to permits and temporary operation permits, shall be construed to include the control of resource recovery and management facilities. However, a temporary operation permit shall not be issued for more than a 3-year period.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-342; s. 3, ch. 78-387.

403.7072 Citation of rule.—In addition to any other provisions within this part or any rules promulgated hereunder, the permitting agency shall, when requesting information for a permit application pursuant to this part or such rules promulgated hereunder, cite a specific rule. If a request for information cannot be accompanied by a rule citation, failure to provide such information cannot be grounds to deny a permit.

History.—s. 8, ch. 79-161.

403.7075 Submission of plans for certain solid waste disposal areas; conditions.—All plans and applications for a permit to construct and operate a solid waste disposal area as provided in s. 403.707 may be prepared and submitted by any person acting as a public officer employed by a county or a municipality when said public officer states therein that the construction of the solid waste disposal area is estimated to cost less than $10,000. Any law to the contrary notwithstanding, the construction cost of a solid waste disposal area, for the purposes of this section, shall not include land acquisition cost or the cost of equipment used to construct and maintain same.

History.—s. 4, ch. 78-387.

403.708 Prohibition; penalty.—

(1) No person shall:

(a) Place or deposit any solid waste in or on the land or waters located within the state except in a manner approved by the department and consistent with applicable approved programs of counties or municipalities. However, nothing in this act shall be construed to prohibit the disposal of solid waste without a permit as provided in s. 403.707(2).

(b) Burn solid waste except in a manner prescribed by the department and consistent with applicable approved programs of counties or municipalities.

(c) Construct, alter, modify, or operate a resource recovery and management facility or site without first having obtained a valid permit from the department as provided in s. 403.707.

(2) The packaging of products manufactured or sold in the state may not be controlled by governmental rule, regulation, or ordinance adopted after March 1, 1974.

(3) Violations of the state resource recovery and management program or rules, regulations, permits, or orders issued thereunder by the department, and violations of approved local programs of counties or municipalities, or rules, regulations, or orders issued thereunder, shall be punishable by a civil penalty as provided in s. 403.141.

(4) The department or any county or municipality may also seek to enjoin the violation of, or enforce compliance with, this act or any program adopted hereunder as provided in s. 403.131.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-342.

403.709 Resource recovery and management grant fund.—

(1) The department may assist counties and municipalities in complying with this act by providing grants to pay a portion of the cost, in no case to exceed 50 percent of the total planning and project costs, for planning and implementing local resource recovery and management programs as required by s. 403.706. Implementation costs may include the cost of acquiring equipment, but not land, in accordance with an approved local program.

(2) Such grants are to be based on a formula of $5,000 per county or municipality plus 25 cents per capita for each user of resource recovery and management services being provided by a county or municipality. To the extent funds are available, the department shall allocate such funds to counties and municipalities in accordance with the formula provided in this subsection.

(3) Prior to the adoption by the department of the state resource recovery and management program, and to the extent funds are available, grants may be made by the department to counties and municipalities according to the formula in subsection (2) to pay a portion of the cost, in no case to exceed 50 percent of the total cost for operation and implementation, of local resource recovery and management programs existing on July 1, 1974.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-342.

403.710 Resource Recovery Council.—

(1) There is created a Resource Recovery Council to consist of 13 members. The Governor shall appoint nine members and shall include among the members appointed by him one representative from each of the following: Municipalities, counties, environmental interests, the academic community, agricultural interests, business interests, resource recovery interests, professional engineering interests, and any other profession or occupation which may be affected by the provisions of this act. The President of the Senate shall appoint two members from the Senate, and the Speaker of the House shall appoint two members from the House of Representatives. Members of the council shall select a chairman and shall serve without compensation, but shall be reimbursed for all necessary expenditures in the performance of their duties.

(2) Not more than 30 days after the appointment of the council, the chairman shall call a meeting at which time the council shall establish procedures for the conduct of its business. The council shall meet not less than once in each quarter of each year, and other meetings may be called when necessary by the chairman at any time.

(3) The council shall study all facets of resource recovery and management, including laws and programs in other states, and make such recommendations for new legislation or amendments to existing legislation as it deems necessary to insure that resources, including solid waste, in Florida are collected, disposed of, and managed in a manner consistent with environmental and economic concerns, and are also recovered and recycled to the greatest extent practicable for continued use and for use as a source of energy which is vital to the preservation of the state's untouched natural resources.

(4) As part of its work, the council shall approve the proposed state resource recovery and management program prior to adoption by the department and make recommendations for changes in the proposed program prior to adoption. The department shall cooperate fully with the council. In addition, the council shall review local implementation programs, for only those areas required to plan for resource recovery, as they are submitted to the department according to s. 403.706 and make whatever recommendations and findings it deems necessary. The council shall specifically recommend to the department those counties, municipalities, or regions which will generate sufficient solid waste to make it economically practical to plan for, and which therefore should be required to engage to the extent economically feasible in, recycling or resource recovery programs.

(5) In order to encourage and promote resource recovery and recycling, the council shall recommend to the 1975 regular session of the legislature, in its interim report, an appropriate site or sites and funding requirements for a state resource recovery and management pilot project as described in s. 403.711.

(6) The council shall also consult with local governments, regional planning agencies, and relevant state agencies and obtain the views of the public, including the views of businesses and professions concerned with resource recovery and management, and may contract with consultants for appropriate studies.

(7) The council shall prepare and submit to the Governor and Legislature interim reports on March 1, 1975, and March 1, 1976, and shall submit a comprehensive report and recommendations by January 1, 1977. The comprehensive report shall contain an analysis of state and local resource recovery and management programs and of the state pilot project as well as any other matters the council chooses to include.

(8) The council shall employ an executive director and may employ such other staff and consultants as needed to carry out its functions.

(9) On September 30, 1979, the council shall be abolished, its records and property shall be transferred to the Department of Environmental Regulation, all personnel positions of the council shall be abolished, and all unexpended balances of appropriations, allocations, or other funds of the council shall revert to the General Revenue Fund.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-342; s. 3, ch. 75-54; ss. 2, 3, ch. 77-466.

403.711 Pilot project or program.—

(1) The Resource Recovery Council shall recommend in its interim report to the 1976 regular session of the Legislature an appropriate project or program and required funding.

(2) The project or program shall have as its primary purpose the coordination and advancement of existing technology in the field of resource recovery, management, and recycling and shall, whenever practicable, promote and encourage the production of energy from solid waste.

(3) Upon approval of a project or program and funding by the Legislature, the department shall include the project or program in the state resource recovery and management program and may exercise any of the powers provided in s. 403.704 in implementing the project or program.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-342; s. 4, ch. 75-54.

403.712 Revenue bonds.—

(1) Revenue bonds payable from funds which result from the revenues derived from the operation of such solid waste recycling facilities and from any revenues which may be pledged under s. 14, Art. VII, State Const. and s. 403.1834, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, any legally available revenues derived from public or private sources, may be issued by the Division of Bond Finance of the Department of General Services on behalf of the state or any county or municipality in the manner provided by the State Bond Act, ss. 215.57 et seq., except as otherwise provided herein, and the Revenue Bond Act of 1953, as amended, part I, chapter 159. Such bonds shall be issued only to finance the cost of construction, maintenance, or operation of resource recovery and management facilities, which cost may include the acquisition of real property and easements therein for such purposes.

(2) Upon a determination by the Division of Bond Finance of the Department of General Services that a public competitive sale is not feasible or that it would not be desirable to award such revenue bonds solely on the basis of the lowest net interest cost bid, the Division of Bond Finance may negotiate the sale of any such revenue bonds after the receipt of one or more proposals, taking into consideration the lowest total cost and such other factors as may be deemed appropriate.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-342; s. 5, ch. 75-54.

403.713 Transport of solid waste.—

(1) Nothing in this act shall be interpreted as limiting the free flow of solid waste across municipal or county boundaries in accordance with the rules and regulations issued pursuant to this act.

(2) No municipality or county of this state shall take any action to prevent such free flow of solid waste provided the transport or disposition of the solid waste is in accord with the provisions of this act.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-342.

403.714 Duties of Department of General Services.—It shall be the duty of the Department of General Services to:

(1) Establish a program, in cooperation with the Department of Environmental Regulation, for the collection of all wastepaper materials in state offices throughout the state, which program, in addition to requiring participation by the established executive departments, shall provide for participation by the offices of the legislative and judicial branches of state government as well.

(2) Provide a program to recycle all wastepaper materials collected in accordance with the provisions of this section whenever practicable.

(3) Evaluate the amount of wastepaper material recycled by the state and make all necessary modifications to said recycling program to insure that all wastepaper materials are effectively and practicably recycled.

History.—s. 2, ch. 74-342; s. 85, ch. 79-65.

403.715 Certification of resource recovery equipment.—For purposes of implementing the tax exemption provided by s. 212.08(7)(p), the department shall establish a system for the examination and certification of resource recovery equipment. Application for certification of equipment shall be submitted to the department on forms prescribed by it which include such pertinent information as the department may require. Within 30 days of receipt of an application by the department, a representative of the department shall inspect the equipment. Within 30 days of such inspection, the department shall issue a written decision granting or denying certification.

History.—s. 4, ch. 78-329.

ENVIRONMENTAL REGULATION

- 403.801 Short title.
- 403.802 Declaration of policy.
- 403.803 Definitions.
- 403.804 Environmental Regulation Commission; powers and duties.
- 403.805 Secretary; powers and duties.
- 403.806 Division of Administrative Services; powers and duties.
- 403.807 Division of Environmental Programs; powers and duties.
- 403.808 Division of Environmental Permitting; powers and duties.
- 403.809 Environmental districts; establishment; managers; functions.
- 403.812 Delegation of functions to Water Management Districts.
- 403.813 Permits issued at district centers; exceptions.
- 403.8135 Citation of rule.
- 403.817 Legislative intent; determination of the natural landward extent of waters for regulatory purposes.

403.801 Short title.—Chapter 75-22, Laws of Florida, shall be known and may be cited as the "Florida Environmental Reorganization Act of 1975."

History.—s. 1, ch. 75-22.

403.802 Declaration of policy.—Reasserting the policy of the Governmental Reorganization Act of 1969, as stated in s. 20.02, that structural reorganization should be a continuing process, and recognizing that 6 years have passed since the 1969 reorganization, it is the intent of the Legislature to promote the efficient, effective, and economical operation of certain environmental agencies by centralizing authority over, and pinpointing responsibility for the management of, the environment by authorizing the delegation of substantial decision-making authority to the district level and by consolidating compatible administrative, planning, permitting, enforcement, and operational activities. Further, it is the intent of this act to promote proper administration of Florida's landmark environmental laws.

History.—s. 2, ch. 75-22.

403.803 Definitions.—When used in this act the term, phrase, or word:

(1) "Commission" means the Environmental Regulation Commission.

(2) "Department" means the Department of Environmental Regulation.

(3) "Environmental district center" means the facilities and personnel which are centralized in each district for the purposes of carrying out the provisions of this act.

(4) "District" or "environmental district" means one of the geographical areas, the boundaries of which are established pursuant to this act.

(5) "Manager" means the head of an environmental district who shall supervise all environmental functions of the department within such environmental district.

(6) "Secretary" means the Secretary of the Department of Environmental Regulation.

(7) "Subdistrict" means a geographical area, the boundaries of which may be established as a part of a district.

(8) "Channel" is a trench, the bottom of which is normally covered entirely by water, with the upper edges of its sides normally below water.

(9) "Canal" is a manmade trench, the bottom of which is normally covered by water with the upper edges of its sides normally above water.

(10) "Drainage ditch" or "irrigation ditch" is a manmade trench dug for the purpose of draining water from the land or for transporting water for use on the land and is not built for navigational purposes.

(11) "Swale" is a manmade trench which only contains contiguous areas of standing or flowing water following the occurrence of rainfall or flooding.

(12) "Standard" means any rule of the Department of Environmental Regulation relating to air and water quality, noise, and solid-waste management. The term "standard" does not include rules of the department which relate exclusively to the internal management of the department, the procedural processing of applications, the administration of rulemaking or adjudicatory proceedings, the publication of notices, the conduct of hearings, or other procedural matters.

History.—s. 3, ch. 75-22.

403.804 Environmental Regulation Commission; powers and duties.—

(1) The commission shall exercise the exclusive standard-setting authority of the department, except as provided in subsection (2) and ss. 20.261(7)-(10), 373.026(7), and 373.073(4). The commission shall also act as an adjudicatory body for final actions taken by the department, except for those appeals and decisions authorized in ss. 20.261(12) and 253.76.

(2) The commission shall direct the department to have a study conducted of the economic and environmental impact which sets forth the benefits and costs to the public of any proposed standard that would be stricter or more stringent than one which has been set by federal agencies pursuant to federal law or regulation. The commission shall also direct the department to prepare such a study on any standard existing on July 1, 1975, which sets a stricter or more stringent standard than one which has been set by federal agencies pursuant to federal law or regulation. All such studies shall be submitted to the Governor and cabinet no later than March 1, 1976. Such studies as are provided for in this paragraph shall be submitted to the commission, who shall initially adopt the standards. Final action shall be by the Governor and cabinet, who shall accept, reject, modify, or remand for further proceedings the standard within 60 days from the submission. Such review shall be appellate in nature. Hearings shall be in accordance with the provisions of chapter 120.

(3) The commission shall have final state approval on applications for and disbursements of federal grants.

History.—s. 6, ch. 75-22.

cf.—s. 20.261 Department of Environmental Regulation.

403.805 Secretary; powers and duties.—In addition to those powers and duties of heads of departments set forth in chapter 20, the secretary shall employ legal counsel to represent the department in matters affecting the department. Except for appeals on permits specifically assigned by this act to the Governor and cabinet, and unless otherwise prohibited by law, the secretary may delegate the authority assigned to the department by this act to the district managers; however, for projects qualifying as developments of regional impact pursuant to chapter 380, F.S., and chapter 22F-2, Florida Administrative Code, the secretary and the Tallahassee office shall perform all the duties relating to the granting, modification, or denial of permits under chapters 253 and 403, subject to ss. 20.261(12), 253.76, and 403.804.

History.—s. 6, ch. 75-22.

cf.—s. 20.261 Department of Environmental Regulation.

403.806 Division of Administrative Services; powers and duties.—The Division of Administrative Services shall perform duties including, but not limited to, personnel, fiscal, purchasing, education, and information.

History.—s. 6, ch. 75-22.

cf.—s. 20.261 Department of Environmental Regulation.

403.807 Division of Environmental Programs; powers and duties.—The Division of Environmental Programs shall perform duties including, but not limited to, administration, coordination, and supervision of programs relating to planning, grants, air quality, water quality and quantity, noise, and solid-waste management.

History.—s. 6, ch. 75-22.

cf.—s. 20.261 Department of Environmental Regulation.

403.808 Division of Environmental Permitting; powers and duties.—The Division of Environmental Permitting shall perform duties including, but not limited to, the following:

(1) Processing of applications for powerplant site certifications pursuant to part II.

(2) Processing of those other classifications of permits, licenses, and certificates which the secretary may designate.

(3) Establishing uniform procedures and forms for the orderly determination of decisions relating to permits, licenses, certificates, and exemptions.

(4) Providing the necessary technical and legal support to carry out enforcement functions of the department.

(5) Supervising and directing all district operations.

History.—s. 6, ch. 75-22.

cf.—s. 20.261 Department of Environmental Regulation.

403.809 Environmental districts; establishment; managers; functions.—

(1) The secretary shall establish environmental districts. The environmental districts shall be collocated with the water management districts to the maximum extent practicable. The secretary shall have the authority to adjust the environmental district boundaries to best serve the purposes of this act. The secretary may establish subdistricts with one branch office in each, for the purpose of making services more accessible to the citizens of each district.

(2) There shall be a manager for each environmental district who shall be appointed by, and serve at the pleasure of, the secretary. The manager shall maintain his office in the environmental district center, which shall be collocated with the office of a water management district to the maximum extent practicable.

(3)(a) Under the supervision of the Division of Environmental Permitting, all field services and inspections required in support of the decisions of the department relating to the issuance of permits, licenses, certificates, or exemptions shall be accomplished at the environmental district center level to the maximum extent practicable.

(b) The processing of all applications for permits, licenses, certificates, and exemptions shall be accomplished at the district center, except for those applications specifically assigned to the Division of Environmental Permitting and those applications assigned by interagency agreement as provided in this act.

History.—ss. 4, 6, ch. 75-22.

403.812 Delegation of functions to Water Management Districts.—When the secretary determines that a water management district has the financial and technical capability to carry out water quality and other functions of the department, those powers, duties, and functions, or parts thereof, may be contracted or delegated to such water management district. This may include, but shall not be limited to, planning, regulation, and permitting of point sources and nonpoint sources of pollution and other field services. Any powers, duties, and functions so delegated shall be carried out in accordance with the rules, regulations, and standards of the department and shall follow the uniform procedures and forms established by the Division of Environmental Permitting. Nothing contained in this act shall be construed to adversely affect or divest any water management district of the power to levy ad valorem taxes.

History.—s. 6, ch. 75-22.

403.813 Permits issued at district centers; exceptions.—

(1) The secretary is authorized to adopt procedural rules providing for a short form application for, and issuance at the district center of, permits for certain activities. These activities shall include the following and any others established by rule:

(a) Projects not exceeding 4,000 cubic yards of material placed in or removed from the navigable waters of the state;

(b) Dockage or marina facilities not exceeding 20,000 square feet of submerged lands;

(c) New seawalls or similar structures not exceeding 300 linear feet of shoreline;

(d) The installation of buoys, signs, fences, ski ramps, and fish attractors installed by the Florida Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission;

(e) The installation of subaqueous transmission and distribution lines laid on, or embedded in, the bottoms of waters of the state carrying water, electricity, communication cables, oil, and gas, except as exempted by paragraph (m) or paragraph (n) of subsection (2); and

(f) The performance, for 10 years from the issuance of the original permit, of maintenance dredging of permitted navigation channels, port harbors, turning basins, and harbor berths. The Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund may fix and recover from the permittee an amount equal to the difference between the fair market value and the actual cost of the maintenance dredging for material removed during such maintenance dredging. However, no charge shall be exacted by the state for material removed during such maintenance dredging by a public port authority. The removing party may subsequently sell such material. However, proceeds from such sale that exceed the costs of maintenance dredging shall be remitted to the state and deposited in the Land Acquisition Trust Fund.

(2) No permit under this chapter, chapter 373, or chapter 253, chapter 61-691, Laws of Florida, or chapter 25214 or chapter 25270, Laws of Florida, 1949, shall be required for activities associated with the following types of projects; however, nothing in this subsection shall relieve an applicant from any requirement to obtain permission to use or occupy lands owned by any water management district in its governmental or proprietary capacity or from complying with applicable local pollution control programs authorized under this chapter or other requirements of county and municipal governments:

(a) The installation of overhead transmission lines, with support structures which are not constructed in waters of the state and which do not create a navigational hazard.

(b) The installation of mooring pilings and dolphins associated with private docking facilities and the installation of private docks of 500 square feet or less of over-water surface area, constructed on pilings so as not to involve filling or substantially impede the flow or create a navigational hazard.

(c) The installation of boat ramps open to the public in any waters of the state where navigational access to the proposed ramp exists and where the construction of the proposed ramp will be less than 30 feet wide and will involve the removal of less than 25 cubic yards of material from the waters of the state; however, the material removed shall be placed on a self-contained upland site so as to prevent the escape of the spoil material into the waters of the state. The Department of Natural Resources, as administrator for the Board of Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund, may fix and recover from the permittee an appropriate amount for state-owned material removed.

(d) The replacement or repair of existing docks, except that no fill material is to be used and provided that the replacement or repaired dock is in the same location and of the same configuration and dimensions as the dock being replaced or repaired.

(e) The restoration of seawalls at their previous location or upland of, or within 1 foot waterward of, their previous locations.

(f) The performance of maintenance dredging of existing manmade canals, channels, and intake and discharge structures where the spoil material is to be removed and deposited on a self-contained, upland spoil site which will prevent the escape of the spoil material into the waters of the state, provided that no more dredging is to be performed than is necessary to restore the canals, channels, and intake and discharge structures to original design specifications and provided that control devices are utilized to prevent turbidity and toxic or deleterious substances from discharging into adjacent waters during maintenance dredging. This exemption shall apply to all canals constructed prior to April 3, 1970, and to those canals constructed on or after April 3, 1970, pursuant to all necessary state permits. This exemption shall not apply to the removal of a natural or manmade barrier separating a canal or canal system from adjacent waters. Where no previous permit has been issued by the Board of Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund or the United States Army Corps of Engineers for construction or maintenance dredging of the existing manmade canal or intake or discharge structure, such maintenance dredging shall be limited to a depth of no more than 5 feet below mean low water. The Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund may fix and recover from the permittee an amount equal to the difference between the fair market value and the actual cost of the maintenance dredging for material removed during such maintenance dredging. However, no charge shall be exacted by the state for material removed during such maintenance dredging by a public port authority. The removing party may subsequently sell such material; however, proceeds from such sale that exceed the costs of maintenance dredging shall be remitted to the state and deposited in the Land Acquisition Trust Fund.

(g) The maintenance of existing insect control structures, dikes, and irrigation and drainage ditches, provided that spoil material is deposited on a self-contained, upland spoil site which will prevent the escape of the spoil material into waters of the state. In the case of insect control structures, if the cost of using a self-contained upland spoil site is so excessive, as determined by the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services, pursuant to s. 403.088(1), that it will inhibit proposed insect control, then existing spoil sites or dikes may be used, upon notification to the department. In the case of insect control where upland spoil sites are not used pursuant to this exemption, turbidity control devices shall be used to confine the spoil material discharge to that area previously disturbed when the receiving body of water is used as a potable water supply, is designated as shellfish harvesting waters, or functions as a habitat for commercially or recreationally important shellfish or finfish. In all cases, no more dredging is to be performed than is necessary to restore the dike or irrigation or drainage ditch to its original design specifications.

(h) The repair of existing pipes for the purpose of discharging storm water runoff.

(i) The construction of private docks and seawalls in artificially created waterways where such construction will not violate existing water quality standards, impede navigation, or affect flood control.

(j) The construction and maintenance of swales.

(k) The installation of aids to navigation and buoys associated with such aids, provided that the devices are marked pursuant to s. 371.521.

(l) The replacement or repair of existing open-trestle foot bridges and vehicular bridges that are 100 feet or less in length and two lanes or less in width, provided that no more dredging or filling of submerged lands is performed other than that which is necessary to replace or repair pilings and that the structure to be replaced or repaired is the same length, the same configuration, and in the same location as the original bridge. No debris from the original bridge shall be allowed to remain in the waters of the state.

(m) The installation of subaqueous transmission and distribution lines laid on, or embedded in, the bottoms of waters in the state, except in Class 1 and Class 2 waters and aquatic preserves, provided that no dredging or filling is necessary.

(n) The replacement or repair of subaqueous transmission and distribution lines laid on, or embedded in, the bottoms of waters of the state.

(o) The construction of private seawalls in waters of the state where such construction is between and adjoins at both ends existing seawalls, follows a continuous and uniform seawall construction line with the existing seawalls, is no more than 150 feet in length, and does not violate existing water quality standards, impede navigation, or affect flood control. However, this shall not affect the permitting requirements of chapter 161.

History.—s. 7, ch. 75-22; s. 143, ch. 77-104; s. 4, ch. 78-98; s. 1, ch. 78-146; s. 86, ch. 79-65.

403.8135 Citation of rule.—In addition to any other provisions within this part or any rules promulgated hereunder, the permitting agency shall, when requesting information for a permit application pursuant to this part or such rules promulgated hereunder, cite a specific rule. If a request for information cannot be accompanied by a rule citation, failure to provide such information cannot be grounds to deny a permit.

History.—s. 9, ch. 79-161.

(1) It is recognized that the levels of the waters of the state naturally rise and fall, depending upon tides and other hydrological, meteorological, and geological circumstances and features. The natural rise and fall of the waters is essential to good water quality, but often makes it difficult to determine the natural landward extent of the waters. Therefore, it is the intent of the Legislature that the Department of Environmental Regulation establish a method of making such determinations, based upon ecological factors which represent these fluctuations in water levels.

(2) In order to accomplish the legislative intent expressed in subsection (1), the department is authorized to establish by rule, pursuant to chapter 120, the method for determining the landward extent of the waters of the state for regulatory purposes. Such extent shall be defined by species of plants or soils which are characteristic of those areas subject to regular and periodic inundation by the waters of the state. The application of plant indicators to any areas shall be by dominant species. However, no landowner shall suffer any property loss or gain because of vegetation changes due to mosquito control activities conducted upon his property, provided these activities are or have been undertaken as part of a governmental mosquito control program. To the extent that certain lands have come within department jurisdiction pursuant to this section or chapter 253 solely due to insect control activities, these lands shall not be subject to permitting requirements for the discharge of dredge or fill material.

(3) Amendments adopted after April 5, 1977, to the rules of the department adopted before April 5, 1977, relating to dredging and filling and which involve additions or deletions of the vegetation or soil indices or the addition or deletion of exemptions shall be submitted in bill form to the Speaker of the House of Representatives and to the President of the Senate for their consideration and referral to the appropriate committees. Such rule amendments shall become effective only upon approval by act of the Legislature.

(4) To the extent that any plant or soil indicators are enacted into law by the Legislature for the purpose of defining the landward extent of the waters of the state for regulatory purposes, the plant or soil indicators adopted by the department regarding areas covered by legislation shall be consistent with said legislation.

(5) The landward extent of waters as determined by the rules authorized by this section shall be for regulatory purposes only and shall have no significance with respect to sovereign ownership.

403.850 Short title.—This act may be cited as the "Florida Safe Drinking Water Act."

History.—s. 1, ch. 77-337.

403.851 Declaration of policy; intent.—It is the policy of the state that the citizens of Florida shall be assured of the availability of safe drinking water. Recognizing that this policy encompasses both environmental and public health aspects, it is the intent of the Legislature to provide a water supply program operated jointly by the Department of Environmental Regulation, in a lead-agency role of primary responsibility for the program, and by the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services and its units, including county health departments, in a supportive role with specific duties and responsibilities of its own. Without any relinquishment of Florida's sovereign powers and responsibilities to provide for the public health, public safety, and public welfare of the people of Florida, the Legislature intends:

(1) To give effect to Pub. L. No. 93-523 promulgated under the commerce clause of the United States Constitution, to the extent that interstate commerce is directly affected.

(2) To encourage cooperation between federal, state, and local agencies, not only in their enforcement role, but also in their service and assistance roles to city and county elected bodies.

(3) To provide for safe drinking water at all times throughout the state, with due regard for economic factors and efficiency in government.

History.—s. 2, ch. 77-337; s. 162, ch. 79-400.

403.852 Definitions.—As used in ss. 403.850-403.864:

(1) "Department" means the Department of Environmental Regulation, which is charged with the primary responsibility for the administration and implementation of the Florida Safe Drinking Water Act.

(2) "Public water system" means a community or noncommunity system for the provision to the public of piped water for human consumption, provided that such system has at least 15 service connections or regularly serves at least 25 individuals daily at least 60 days out of the year. The term includes:

(a) Any collection, treatment, storage, and distribution facility or facilities under control of the operator of such system and used primarily in connection with such system.

(b) Any collection or pretreatment storage facility or facilities not under control of the operator of such system but used primarily in connection with such system.

(3) "Community water system" means a public water system which serves at least 15 service connections used by year-round residents or regularly serves at least 25 year-round residents.

(4) "Noncommunity water system" means a public water system for provision to the public of piped water for human consumption, that serves at least 25 individuals daily at least 60 days out of the year, but that is not a community water system.

(5) "Person" means an individual, public or private corporation, company, association, partnership, municipality, agency of the state, district, federal agency, or any other legal entity, or its legal representative, agent, or assigns.

(6) "Municipality" means a city, town, or other public body created by or pursuant to state law or an Indian tribal organization authorized by law.

(7) "Federal agency" means any department, agency, or instrumentality of the United States Government.

(8) "Supplier of water" means any person who owns or operates a public water system.

(9) "Contaminant" means any physical, chemical, biological, or radiological substance or matter in water.

(10) "Administrator" means the Administrator of the United States Environmental Protection Agency.

(11) "Federal act" means the Safe Drinking Water Act, Public Law 93-523.

(12) "Primary drinking water regulation" means a rule which:

(a) Applies to public water systems;

(b) Specifies contaminants which, in the judgment of the department, after consultation with the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services, may have an adverse effect on the health of the public;

(c) Specifies for each such contaminant either:

1. A maximum contaminant level if, in the judgment of the department, it is economically and technologically feasible to ascertain the level of such contaminant in water in public water systems; or

2. Each treatment technique known to the department which leads to a reduction in the level of the contaminant sufficient to satisfy the requirements of s. 403.853 if, in the judgment of the department, it is not economically or technologically feasible to ascertain the level of such contaminant; and

(d) Contains criteria and procedures to assure a supply of drinking water which dependably complies with such maximum contaminant levels, including quality control and testing procedures to assure compliance with such levels and to ensure proper operation and maintenance of the system, and which contains requirements as to:

1. The minimum quality of water which may be taken into the system; and

2. Siting for new facilities for public water systems.

(13) "Secondary drinking water regulation" means a rule which:

(a) Applies to public water systems; and

(b) Specifies the maximum contaminant levels which, in the judgment of the department after public hearings, are requisite to protect the public welfare. Such regulation may apply to any contaminant in drinking water:

1. Which may adversely affect the odor or appearance of such water and consequently may cause a substantial number of the persons served by the public water system providing such water to discontinue its use; or

2. Which may otherwise adversely affect the public welfare.

Such regulations may vary according to geographic and other circumstances.

(14) "National primary drinking water regulations" means primary drinking water regulations promulgated by the administrator pursuant to the federal act.

(15) "National secondary drinking water regulations" means secondary drinking water regulations promulgated by the administrator pursuant to the federal act.

(16) "Sanitary survey" means an onsite review of the water source, facilities, equipment, operation, and maintenance of a public water system for the purpose of evaluating the adequacy of such source, facilities, equipment, operation, and maintenance for producing and distributing safe drinking water.

History.—s. 3, ch. 77-337.

403.853 Drinking water standards.—

(1) The department shall adopt and enforce:

(a)1. State primary drinking water regulations that shall be no less stringent at any given time than the complete interim or revised national primary drinking water regulations in effect at such time; and

2. State secondary drinking water regulations patterned after the national secondary drinking water regulations.

(b) Primary and secondary drinking water regulations for noncommunity water systems, which shall be no more stringent than the corresponding national primary or secondary drinking water regulations in effect at such time.

(2) Subject to the exceptions authorized pursuant to s. 403.854, state primary drinking water regulations shall apply to each public water system in the state, except that such regulations shall not apply to any public water system which meets all of the following criteria; namely, that the system:

(a) Consists of distribution and storage facilities only and does not have any collection or treatment facilities;

(b) Obtains all of its water from, but is not owned or operated by, a public water system to which such regulations apply;

(c) Does not sell water to any person; and

(d) Is not a carrier which conveys passengers in interstate commerce.

(3) The department shall adopt and implement adequate rules specifying procedures for the enforcement of state primary and secondary drinking water regulations, including monitoring and inspection procedures, that comply with regulations established by the administrator pursuant to the federal act.

(4) The department shall keep such records and make such reports, with respect to its activities under subsections (1) and (3), as may be required by regulations established by the administrator pursuant to the federal act. Such records and reports shall be available for public inspection.

(5) No state primary drinking water regulation may require the addition of any substance for preventive health care purposes unrelated to the contamination of drinking water.

(6) Upon request of the owner or operator of a noncommunity water system serving businesses, other than restaurants or other public food service establishments, and using groundwater as a source of supply, the department, or a local county health unit designated by the department, shall perform a sanitary survey of the facility. Upon receipt of satisfactory survey results according to department criteria, the department shall reduce the requirements of said owner or operator from monitoring and reporting on a quarterly basis to performing these functions on an annual basis. Any revised monitoring and reporting schedule approved by the department under this subsection shall apply until such time as a violation of applicable state or federal primary drinking water standards is determined by the system owner or operator, by the department, or by an agency designated by the department, after a random or routine sanitary survey. Certified operators shall not be required for noncommunity water systems of the type and size covered by this subsection. Any reports required of such system shall be limited to the minimum as required by federal law. When not contrary to the provisions of federal law, the department may, upon request and by rule, waive additional provisions of state drinking water regulations for such systems.

History.—s. 4, ch. 77-337; s. 1, ch. 79-358.

403.8535 Citation of rule.—In addition to any other provisions within this part or any rules promulgated hereunder, the permitting agency shall, when requesting information for a permit application pursuant to this part or such rules promulgated hereunder, cite a specific rule. If a request for information cannot be accompanied by a rule citation, failure to provide such information cannot be grounds to deny a permit.

History.—s. 10, ch. 79-161.

403.854 Variances and exemptions.—

(1) The department may authorize variances or exemptions from the regulations issued pursuant to s. 403.853 under conditions and in such manner as it deems necessary and desirable, provided that such variances or exemptions are authorized under such conditions and in such manner as are no less stringent than the conditions under which and the manner in which variances and exemptions may be granted under the federal act.

(2)(a) The department shall exempt public water systems from any requirements respecting a maximum contaminant level or any treatment technique requirement, or both, when:

1. Due to compelling factors (which may include economic factors), the public water system is unable to comply with such contaminant level or treatment technique requirement;

2. The public water system was in operation on the effective date of such contaminant level or treatment technique requirement; and

3. The granting of the exemption will not result in an unreasonable risk to health.

(b) Proposed additions to existing treatment plants not under contract for construction on July 1, 1977, shall not be automatically exempt.

(3)(a) When the department receives an application for exemption, it shall act upon such application within a time period under s. 1416 (g) of Public Law 93-523 or the Florida Administrative Procedure Act, whichever is earlier.

(b) The department shall prescribe a compliance schedule for the exempted system and shall notify the Environmental Protection Agency Administrator personally by certified mail pursuant to Public Law 93-523, s. 1416 (b) and (c).

History.—s. 5, ch. 77-337.

403.855 Imminent hazards.—The department, upon receipt of information that a contaminant which is present in, or is likely to enter, a public water system may present an imminent and substantial danger to the public health, may take such actions as it may deem necessary in order to protect the public health. Actions which the department may take include, but are not limited to:

(1) Adopting emergency rules pursuant to s. 120.54(9).

(2) Issuing such corrective orders as may be necessary to protect the health of persons who are or may be users of such systems, including travelers. An order issued by the department under this section shall become effective upon service of such order on the alleged violator, notwithstanding the provisions of s. 403.860(3).

(3) Commencing a civil action for appropriate relief, including a restraining order or permanent or temporary injunction.

History.—s. 6, ch. 77-337; s. 163, ch. 79-400.

403.856 Plan for emergency provision of water.—The department shall adopt an adequate plan, after consultation with the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services, for the provision of safe drinking water under emergency circumstances. When, in the judgment of the department, emergency circumstances exist in the state with respect to a need for safe drinking water, it may issue such rule or order as it may deem necessary in order to provide such water where it would not otherwise be available.

History.—s. 7, ch. 77-337.

403.857 Notification of users and regulatory agencies.—Whenever a public water supply system:

- (1) Is not in compliance with the state primary and secondary drinking water regulations;
- (2) Fails to perform monitoring required by rules or regulations adopted by the department;
- (3) Is subject to a variance granted for an inability to meet a maximum contaminant level requirement;
- (4) Is subject to an exemption; or
- (5) Fails to comply with the requirements prescribed by a variance or exemption, the owner or operator of the system shall, as soon as practicable, notify the local public health departments, the department, and the communications media serving the area served by the system of that fact and of the extent, nature, and possible health effects of such fact. Such notice shall also be given by the owner or operator of the system by publication in a newspaper of general circulation, as determined by the department, within the area served by such water system at least once every 3 months as long as the violation, variance, or exemption continues. Such notice shall also be given with the water bills of the system as long as the violation, variance, or exemption continues, as follows: if the water bills of a public water system are issued at least as often as once every 3 months, such notice shall be included in at least one water bill of the system for each customer every 3 months; if the system issues its water bills less often than once every 3 months, such notice shall be included in each of the water bills issued by the system for each customer. However, the provisions of this section notwithstanding, the department may prescribe by rule reasonable alternative notice requirements.

History.—s. 8, ch. 77-337.

403.858 Inspections.—Any duly authorized representative of the department or of the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services may enter, take water samples from, and inspect any property, premises, or place, except a building which is used exclusively for a private residence, on or at which a public water system is located or is being constructed or installed, at any reasonable time, for the purpose of ascertaining the state of compliance with the law or with rules or orders of the department.

History.—s. 9, ch. 77-337.

403.859 Prohibited acts.—The following acts and the causing thereof are prohibited and are violations of this act:

- (1) Failure by a supplier of water to comply with the requirements of s. 403.857 or dissemination by such supplier of any false or misleading information with respect to notices required pursuant to s. 403.857 or with respect to remedial actions being undertaken to achieve compliance with state primary and secondary drinking water regulations.

- (2) Failure by a supplier of water to comply with regulations adopted pursuant to s. 403.853, with any rule adopted by the department pursuant to this act, or with conditions for variances or exemptions authorized under s. 403.854.

- (3) Failure by any person to comply with any order issued by the department pursuant to this act.

- (4) Failure by a supplier of water to allow any duly authorized representative of the department or of the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services to conduct inspections pursuant to s. 403.858.

- (5) Submission by any person of any false statement or representation in any application, record, report, plan, or other document filed, or required to be filed by this act or rules adopted by the department pursuant to its lawful authority.

- (6) Failure by a supplier of water to comply with any approved plans and specifications or condition to the approval of plans and specifications issued by the department pursuant to this act.

History.—s. 10, ch. 77-337; s. 164, ch. 79-400.

403.860 Penalties and remedies.—

- (1) A fine, not to exceed $5,000 for each day in which a violation occurs, may be imposed by a court of competent jurisdiction on any person who violates s. 403.859 (1), (2), (4), (5), or (6).

- (2) A fine, not to exceed $5,000 for each day in which such violation occurs or failure to comply continues, may be imposed by a court of competent jurisdiction upon any person who violates, or fails or refuses to comply with, any order issued by the department pursuant to this act.

- (3) The department may initiate an administrative proceeding to establish liability and require corrective action. Such proceeding shall be instituted by the department's serving a written notice of violation upon the alleged violator by certified mail. The notice shall specify the provision of law or rule of the department alleged to have been violated and the facts alleged to constitute a violation thereof. An order for corrective action may be included with the notice. However, no order shall become effective until after service and an administrative hearing, if requested within 20 days after service. Failure to request an administrative hearing within this time period shall constitute a waiver thereof. A department order, entered after a hearing pursuant to chapter 120 or a waiver thereof, shall be final and constitute a final adjudication of the matters alleged. Such order may require, in addition to corrective action, that the violator pay the state for its reasonable costs and expenses incurred in investigating the violation and prosecuting the administrative proceeding.

- (4) The department may institute a civil action in any court of appropriate jurisdiction for injunctive relief to prevent violation of any order, rule, or regulation issued pursuant to this act, in addition to any other remedies provided under this section.

History.—s. 11, ch. 77-337.

403.861 Department; powers and duties.—

The department shall have the power and the duty to carry out the provisions and purposes of this act and, for this purpose, to:

- (1) Administer and enforce the provisions of this act and all rules and orders adopted, issued, or made effective hereunder.

(2) Enter into agreements, contracts, or cooperative arrangements, under such terms and conditions as it deems appropriate, with other local, state, federal, or interstate agencies; municipalities; political subdivisions; educational institutions; or other organizations or persons.

(3) Receive financial and technical assistance from the Federal Government and other public or private agencies.

(4) Participate in related programs conducted by federal agencies, other states, interstate agencies, or other public or private agencies or organizations.

(5) Establish adequate fiscal controls and accounting procedures to assure proper disbursement of, and accounting for, funds appropriated or otherwise provided for the purpose of carrying out provisions of this act.

(6) Delegate those responsibilities and duties deemed appropriate for the purpose of administering requirements of this act.

(7) Require an application fee of not more than $20 for department review and approval of public water system plans and specifications.

(8) Adopt, modify, and repeal such rules as are necessary or appropriate to carry out its functions under this act.

(9) Require department or county health department review and approval of complete plans and specifications prior to the installation, operation, alteration, or extension of any public water system.

(10) Establish and maintain laboratories for radiological, microbiological, and chemical analyses of water samples from public water systems, if the department determines that an additional laboratory capability beyond that provided by the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services is necessary.

(11) Plan, develop, and coordinate program activities for the management and implementation of the state primary and secondary drinking water regulations, including taking sanitary surveys.

(12) Collect and disseminate information and conduct educational and training programs relating to drinking water and public water systems.

(13) Conduct data management activities to maintain essential records needed for administration of the public water system supervision program and for submission to the administrator, including the maintenance of an inventory for all public water systems.

(14) Establish and collect fees for conducting state laboratory analyses as may be necessary, to be collected and used by either the department or the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services in conducting its public water supply laboratory functions.

(15) Require suppliers of water to collect samples of water as required by state primary drinking water regulations, to submit such samples to an appropriate laboratory for analysis, and to keep sampling records as required under the federal act and make such records available to the department upon request.

(16) Require suppliers of water to submit periodic operating reports and testing data which the department determines are reasonably necessary to ascertain the adequacy of water supply systems.

(17) Issue such orders as may be necessary to effectuate the intent and purposes of this act.

(18) Assist state and local agencies in the determination and investigation of suspected waterborne disease outbreaks, including diseases associated with chemical contaminants.

(19) Encourage public involvement and participation in the planning and implementation of the state public water system supervisory plans.

History.—s. 12, ch. 77-337; s. 165, ch. 79-400.

403.862 Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services; public water supply duties and responsibilities; coordinated budget requests with Department of Environmental Regulation.—

(1) Recognizing that supervision and control of units of the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services is retained by the secretary of that agency, and that public health aspects of the state public water supply program require joint participation in the program by the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services and its units and the department, the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services shall:

(a) Establish and maintain laboratories for the conducting of radiological, microbiological, and chemical analyses of water samples from public water systems, which are submitted to such laboratories for analysis. Copies of the reports of such analyses and quarterly summary reports shall be submitted to the appropriate department district or subdistrict office.

(b) Require each county health department to:

1. Collect such water samples for analysis as may be required by the terms of this act, from public water systems within its jurisdiction. The duty to collect such samples may be shared with the appropriate department district or subdistrict office and shall be coordinated by field personnel involved.

2. Submit the collected water samples to the appropriate laboratory for analysis.

3. Maintain reports of analyses for its own records.

4. Conduct complaint investigation of public water systems to determine compliance with federal, state, and local standards and permit compliance.

5. Notify the appropriate department district or subdistrict office of potential violations of federal, state, and local standards and permit conditions by public water systems and assist the department in enforcement actions with respect to such violations to the maximum extent practicable.

6. Review and evaluate laboratory analyses of water samples from private water systems.

(c) Require those county health departments designated by the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services and approved by the department as having qualified sanitary engineering staffs, in addition to the duties prescribed in paragraph (1)(b), to:

1. Review and evaluate each application for the construction, modification, or expansion of a public water system to determine compliance with federal, state, and local requirements. Upon completion of such review and evaluation, the application shall be forwarded to the appropriate department district or subdistrict office for final action.

2. Review, evaluate, and approve or disapprove applications for the expansion of distribution systems. Written notification of action taken on such applications shall be forwarded to the appropriate department district or subdistrict office.

3. Maintain inventory, operational, and bacteriological records and carry out monitoring, surveillance, and sanitary surveys of public water systems to ensure compliance with federal, state, and local regulations.

4. Participate in educational and training programs relating to drinking water and public water systems.

(d) Require those county health departments designated by the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services as having the capability of performing bacteriological analyses, in addition to the duties prescribed in paragraph (1)(b), to:

1. Perform bacteriological analyses of water samples submitted for analysis.

2. Submit copies of the reports of such analyses to the appropriate department district or subdistrict office.

(e) Make available to the central and branch laboratories funds sufficient, to the maximum extent possible, to carry out the public water supply functions and responsibilities required of such laboratories as provided in this section.

(f) Have general supervision and control over all private water systems and all public water systems not covered or included in this act.

(g) Assist state and local agencies in the determination and investigation of suspected waterborne disease outbreaks, including diseases associated with chemical contaminants.

(h) Upon request, consult with and advise any county or municipal authority as to water supply activities.

(2) Funds appropriated to support activities of county health departments of the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services pursuant to this act shall be deposited to the County Health Department Trust Fund and used exclusively for the purposes of this act.

(3) The Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services and the department shall coordinate their respective budget requests for the fiscal year 1978-1979 and for subsequent fiscal years to ensure that sufficient funding is provided to the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services in order that it may carry out its public water supply functions and responsibilities as provided in this section. In the event the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services lacks sufficient funds in any fiscal year to the extent that it is unable adequately to carry out its public water supply duties, an interagency agreement may be entered into between the two departments in order to remedy administratively, either through the transfer of funds or of services, the lack of sufficient public water supply funds within the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services.

(4) If the department determines that a county health department or other unit of the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services is not performing its public water supply responsibilities satisfactorily, the secretary of the department shall certify such determination in writing to the Secretary of Health and Rehabilitative Services. The Secretary of Health and Rehabilitative Services shall evaluate the determination of the department and shall inform the secretary of the department of his evaluation. Upon concurrence, the Secretary of Health and Rehabilitative Services shall take immediate corrective action.

(5) Nothing in this section shall serve to negate the powers, duties, and responsibilities of the Secretary of Health and Rehabilitative Services relating to the protection of the public from the spread of communicable disease, epidemics, and plagues.

History.—s. 13, ch. 77-337; s. 166, ch. 79-400.

403.863 State public water supply laboratory certification program.—

(1) Within 120 days of the effective date of this act, the department and the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services shall jointly develop a state program, and the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services shall adopt rules for the evaluation and certification of all laboratories in the state, other than the principal state laboratory, which perform or make application to perform analyses pursuant to the Florida Safe Drinking Water Act. Such joint development shall be funded in part through the use of a portion of the State Public Water Systems Supervision Program grants received by the department from the Federal Government in order to implement the federal act.

(2) The Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services shall have the responsibility for the operation and implementation of the state laboratory certification program, except that, upon completion of the evaluation and review of the laboratory certification application, the evaluation shall be forwarded, along with recommendations, to the department for review and comment, prior to final approval or disapproval.

(3) Any federal grant funds received by the department for the operation and implementation of the state laboratory certification program shall be transferred to the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services by interagency agreement between the two departments. Such agreement shall require the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services to provide the department with a quarterly accounting of the funds transferred.

(4) Within 60 days of the effective date of the rules adopted pursuant to this section, no laboratory in the state, except the principal state laboratory, shall perform analyses pursuant to the Florida Safe Drinking Water Act without having applied for and received certification under the state certification program to perform such analyses.

(5) For the purposes of this section, the term "principal state laboratory" means the central laboratory of the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services.

(6) For the purposes of this section, the term "certification" means regulatory recognition given to a laboratory that performs analyses pursuant to the Florida Safe Drinking Water Act, that it meets minimum analytical performance standards.

History.—s. 14, ch. 77-337; s. 167, ch. 79-400.

403.864 Public water supply accounting program.—

(1) It is the intent of the Legislature to require a yearly accounting of funds, overhead, personnel, and property used by the department and the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services and its units, including each of the county health departments, in conducting their respective responsibilities for the state public water supply program. Such accounting shall be presented to the Governor, the President of the Senate, and the Speaker of the House of Representatives by the department and the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services no later than February 1 of each year. The first accounting shall be due by February 1, 1979, and shall cover the state fiscal year 1978-1979.

(2) In furtherance of this intent, the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services, the department, and the Auditor General shall jointly develop an accounting program for use by the department and the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services and its units, including the county health departments, to determine the funds, overhead, personnel, and property used by each of the departments in conducting its respective public water supply functions and responsibilities for each fiscal year. The accounting program shall provide information sufficient to satisfy state auditing and federal grant and aid reporting requirements and shall include provisions requiring the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services to:

(a) Segregate, from an accounting standpoint, funds distributed to county health departments for public water supply functions from other county health department trust funds.

(b) Segregate, from an accounting standpoint, funds distributed to the central and branch laboratories of the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services for public water supply functions from other laboratory funds.

(c) Require each county health department, the central and each branch laboratory of the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services, and any other entity of the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services involved in and carrying out public water supply functions to account to the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services on a semiannual basis for the funds received, from whatever source, and used for public water supply functions.

(d) Require each county health department, the central and each branch laboratory of the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services, and any other entity of the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services involved in carrying out public water supply functions either wholly or partially with funds, either federal or state, received from the department through an interagency agreement or other means to account to the department on a semiannual basis for such funds received and used for public water supply functions.

403.90 Judicial review relating to permits and licenses.—

(1) As used in this section, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) "Agency" means any official, officer, commission, authority, council, committee, department, division, bureau, board, section, or other unit or entity of state government.

(b) "Permit" means any permit or license required by this chapter.

(2) Any person substantially affected by a final action of any agency with respect to a permit may seek review within 90 days of the rendering of such decision and request monetary damages and other relief in the circuit court in the judicial circuit in which the affected property is located; however, circuit court review shall be confined solely to determining whether final agency action is an unreasonable exercise of the state's police power constituting a taking without just compensation. Review of final agency action for the purpose of determining whether the action is in accordance with existing statutes or rules and based on competent substantial evidence shall proceed in accordance with chapter 120.

(3) If the court determines the decision reviewed is an unreasonable exercise of the state's police power constituting a taking without just compensation, the court shall remand the matter to the agency which shall, within a reasonable time:

(a) Agree to issue the permit;

(b) Agree to pay appropriate monetary damages; however, in determining the amount of compensation to be paid, consideration shall be given by the court to any enhancement to the value of the land attributable to governmental action; or

(c) Agree to modify its decision to avoid an unreasonable exercise of police power.

(4) The agency shall submit a statement of its agreed-upon action to the court in the form of a proposed order. If the action is a reasonable exercise of police power, the court shall enter its final order approving the proposed order. If the agency fails to submit a proposed order within a reasonable time not to exceed 90 days which specifies an action that is a reasonable exercise of police power, the court may order the agency to perform any of the alternatives specified in subsection (3).

(5) The court shall award reasonable attorney's fees and court costs to the agency or substantially affected person, whichever prevails.

(6) The provisions of this section are cumulative and shall not be deemed to abrogate any other remedies provided by law.

History.—ss. 1-6, ch. 78-85.

CHAPTER 405

MEDICAL INFORMATION AVAILABLE FOR RESEARCH

- 405.01 Release of medical information to certain study groups; exemption from liability.
405.02 Limitation on publication of released information.
405.03 Confidentiality of identity of person studied.

405.01 Release of medical information to certain study groups; exemption from liability.—

Any person, hospital, sanatorium, nursing or rest home or other organization may provide information, interviews, reports, statements, memoranda, or other data relating to the condition and treatment of any person to research groups, governmental health agencies, medical associations and societies, and any in-hospital medical staff committee, to be used in the course of any study for the purpose of reducing morbidity or mortality, and no liability of any kind or character for damages or other relief shall arise or be enforced against any person or organization by reason of having provided such information or material, or by reason of having released or published the findings and conclusions of such groups to advance medical research and medical education, or by reason of having released or published generally a summary of such studies.

History.—s. 1, ch. 65-533.

405.02 Limitation on publication of released information.—

The research groups, governmental health agencies, organized medical associations and societies or any in-hospital medical staff committee shall use or publish said material only for the purpose of advancing medical research or medical education in the interest of reducing morbidity or mortality, except that a summary of such studies may be released by any such group for general publication.

History.—s. 2, ch. 65-533.

405.03 Confidentiality of identity of person studied.—In all events the identity of any person whose condition or treatment has been studied shall be confidential and shall not be revealed under any circumstances.

History.—s. 3, ch. 65-533.

- 406.17 Application and construction of chapter.

406.01 Short title.—This chapter shall be known as the "Medical Examiners Act."

History.—s. 1, ch. 70-232.

406.02 Medical Examiners Commission; membership; terms; duties.—

(1) There is created the Medical Examiners Commission within the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services. The commission shall consist of six persons appointed or selected as follows:

(a) The Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services shall appoint:

1. Two members who are physicians licensed pursuant to chapter 458 or chapter 459 and who are actively engaged in the practice of pathology;

2. One member who is a funeral director licensed pursuant to chapter 470; and

3. One member who is a State Attorney;

(b) One member shall be the executive director of the Department of Law Enforcement or his designated representative; and,

(c) One member shall be the Attorney General or his designated representative.

(2) The term of office of the physicians appointed to the commission shall be 4 years commencing July 1, 1970, except that of the physician members first appointed, one shall be appointed for a term of 4 years and one for a term of 3 years. The term of office of the State Attorney shall be 4 years unless he leaves that office sooner, in which case his appointment will terminate. The term of office of the funeral director shall be 4 years. Appointments to fill vacancies shall be for the unexpired term.

(3) Members of the commission shall not receive any compensation for their services, but shall be reimbursed for travel and expenses incurred in the performance of their duties as provided in s. 112.061.

(4) The Medical Examiners Commission shall:

(a) Submit annual reports to the Governor and Legislature correlating and setting forth the activities and findings of the several district medical examiners appointed pursuant to this act. A copy of said report shall also be provided to each board of county commissioners.

(b) Initiate cooperative policies with any agency of the state or political subdivision thereof.

History.—s. 2, ch. 70-232; s. 1, ch. 70-439; s. 1, ch. 72-392; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 4, ch. 78-323; s. 15, ch. 79-8.

Note.—Repealed by s. 4, ch. 78-323, effective October 1, 1981, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this section prior to that date.

406.03 Organization and meetings of commission.—The commission shall annually select a chairman from among its own membership and shall meet at least four times each year and on the call of the chairman.

History.—s. 3, ch. 70-232; s. 4, ch. 78-323.

Note.—Repealed by s. 4, ch. 78-323, effective October 1, 1981, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this section prior to that date.

406.04 Rules and regulations.—The commission shall promulgate rules and regulations, pursuant to chapter 120, necessary to effectuate this chapter and to insure minimum and uniform standards of excellence, performance of duties, and maintenance of records so as to provide useful and adequate information to the state in regard to causative factors of those deaths investigated.

History.—s. 3, ch. 70-232; s. 4, ch. 78-323.

Note.—Repealed by s. 4, ch. 78-323, effective October 1, 1981, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this section prior to that date.

406.05 Medical examiner districts.—The Medical Examiners Commission shall establish medical examiner districts within the state, taking into consideration population, judicial circuits of the state, geographical size of the area of coverage, availability of trained personnel, death rate by both natural and unnatural causes, and similar related factors. No county may be divided in the creation of a district. However, this limitation shall not prohibit cooperative arrangements among the several districts.

History.—s. 3, ch. 70-232; s. 2, ch. 72-392; s. 4, ch. 78-323.

Note.—Repealed by s. 4, ch. 78-323, effective October 1, 1981, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this section prior to that date.

406.06 District medical examiners; associates.—

(1)(a) A district medical examiner shall be appointed by the Governor for each medical examiner district from nominees who are practicing physicians in pathology, submitted to the Governor by the Medical Examiners Commission.

(b) Physician members of the Medical Examiners Commission shall be eligible to serve as district medical examiners.

(c) A district medical examiner may be removed for cause by the Governor.

(2) The district medical examiner may appoint as many physicians as associate medical examiners as may be necessary to provide service at all times and all places within the district. Associate medical examiners shall serve at the pleasure of the district medical examiner.

(3) District medical examiners and associate medical examiners may engage in the private practice of medicine or surgery insofar as such private practice does not interfere with their duties as prescribed herein.

History.—ss. 4, 5, ch. 70-232; s. 3, ch. 72-392.

406.07 Compensation of district and associate medical examiners.—District medical examiners and associate medical examiners shall be entitled to compensation and such reasonable salary and fees as are established by the boards of county commissioners in the respective districts.

History.—s. 5, ch. 70-232.

406.08 Payment of salaries and expenses.—

(1) Fees, salaries, and expenses may be paid from the general funds or any other funds under the control of the board of county commissioners.

(2) In the event that an examination or autopsy is performed by the district medical examiner or his associate upon a body when the death occurred outside of his district, the governmental body requesting the examination or autopsy shall pay the fee for such services.

(3) When a body is transported to the district medical examiner or his associate, transportation costs, if any, shall be borne by the county in which the death occurred. Nothing within this chapter shall preclude payment for services to the district medical examiner by the state, either in part or on a matching basis.

History.—s. 5, ch. 70-232; s. 144, ch. 77-104.

406.09 Expert witness fees.—District medical examiners or associate medical examiners shall be entitled to expert witness fees as provided in s. 90.231 when giving expert testimony in the trial of a civil action or at a coroner's inquest.

History.—s. 5, ch. 70-232.

406.10 Autopsy facilities.—Autopsy and laboratory facilities utilized by the district medical examiner or his associates may be provided on a permanent or contractual basis by the counties within the district.

History.—s. 5, ch. 70-232.

406.11 Examinations, investigations, and autopsies.—

(1) In any of the following circumstances involving the death of a human being, the medical examiner of the district in which the death occurred or the body was found shall determine the cause of death and shall make or have performed such examinations, investigations, and autopsies as he shall deem necessary or as shall be requested by the state attorney:

- (a) When any person dies in the state:
  1. Of criminal violence.
  2. By accident.
  3. By suicide.
  4. Suddenly, when in apparent good health.
  5. Unattended by a practicing physician or other recognized practitioner.
  6. In any prison or penal institution.
  7. In police custody.
  8. In any suspicious or unusual circumstance.
  9. By criminal abortion.
  10. By poison.

11. By disease constituting a threat to public health.

12. By disease, injury, or toxic agent resulting from employment.

(b) When a dead body is brought into the state without proper medical certification.

(c) When a body is to be cremated, dissected, or buried at sea.

(2) The district medical examiner shall have the authority in any case coming under any of the above categories to perform, or have performed, whatever autopsies or laboratory examinations he deems necessary in the public interest.

History.—s. 6, ch. 70-232; s. 26, ch. 73-334; s. 1, ch. 77-174.

406.12 Duty to report; prohibited acts.—It is the duty of any person in the district where a death occurs, including all municipalities and unincorporated and federal areas, who becomes aware of the death of any person occurring under the circumstances described in s. 406.11 to report such death and circumstances forthwith to the district medical examiner. Any person who knowingly fails or refuses to report such death and circumstances, who refuses to make available prior medical or other information pertinent to the death investigation, or who, without an order from the office of the district medical examiner, willfully touches, removes, or disturbs the body, clothing, or any article upon or near the body, with the intent to alter the evidence or circumstances surrounding the death, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 7, ch. 70-232; s. 353, ch. 71-136.

406.13 Examiner's report; maintenance of records.—Upon receipt of such notification pursuant to s. 406.12, the district medical examiner or his associate shall examine or otherwise take charge of the dead body. When the cause of death has been established within reasonable medical certainty by the district medical examiner or his associate, he shall so report or make available to the state attorney, in writing, his determination as to the cause of said death. Duplicate copies of records and the detailed findings of autopsy and laboratory investigations shall be maintained by the district medical examiner. Any evidence or specimen coming into the possession of said medical examiner in connection with any investigation or autopsy may be retained by him or be delivered to one of the law enforcement officers assigned to the investigation of the death.

History.—ss. 7, 8, ch. 70-232; s. 26, ch. 73-334.

406.14 Duty of law enforcement officers.—Any evidence material to the determination of the cause of death in possession of the law enforcement officers assigned to the investigation of the death shall be made available to the medical examiner. It is the duty of the law enforcement officer assigned to and investigating the death to immediately establish and maintain liaison with the medical examiner during the investigation into the cause of death.

History.—s. 8, ch. 70-232.

406.15 Designation of substitute in absence of official examiner.—In the absence of the district medical examiner or associate medical examiner, the state attorney of the county may appoint a competent physician to act in their stead.

History.—s. 9, ch. 70-232; s. 26, ch. 73-334.

406.16 Professional liability insurance.—The district medical examiners and associate medical examiners shall obtain professional liability insurance in an amount to be determined by the board of county commissioners of the county or counties served. The fees for such insurance shall be paid from funds appropriated by the board of county commissioners of such county or counties. No county shall be liable for any acts of a medical examiner not within the scope of his official duties.

History.—s. 10, ch. 70-232.

406.17 Application and construction of chapter.—This chapter supersedes all parts of statutes, general law, and special acts, with which it may be in conflict. Anything herein contained shall not be construed to repeal or amend s. 925.09 or to affect the right of prosecutors to investigate and determine causes of death which, in their opinion, may have been criminally caused. In home rule counties which have established medical examiners under provisions of a home rule charter or code or ordinance enacted pursuant to the charter, said medical examiner shall also serve as the district medical examiner who would otherwise be appointed under this chapter.

History.—s. 11, ch. 70-232.

- (2) "Secretary" means the secretary of the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services.
- (3) "Social and economic services," within the meaning of this chapter, means the providing of financial assistance as well as preventive and rehabilitative services.

itative social services for children, adults, and families.

History.—s. 1, ch. 70-255; s. 2, ch. 78-433.

409.026 General functions of the department.—

(1) The department shall conduct, supervise, and administer all social and economic services within the state which are or will be carried on by the use of federal or state funds or funds from any other source and receive and distribute food stamps and commodities donated by the United States or any agency thereof. The department shall determine the benefits each applicant or recipient of assistance is entitled to receive under this chapter, provided that each such applicant or recipient is a resident of this state and is a citizen of the United States or is an alien lawfully admitted for permanent residence or otherwise permanently residing in the United States under color of law.

(2) The department shall cooperate fully with the United States Government and its agencies and instrumentalities to the end that the department may receive the benefit of all federal financial allotments and assistance possible to carry out the purposes of this chapter.

(3) The department shall investigate, study the causes of the dependence of indigents, encourage them to support themselves whenever possible, and provide supportive services to enable them to make and carry out plans for their permanent rehabilitation to the end that they may cease to be a charge upon the community whenever possible.

(4) The department is authorized to conduct or participate in work, training, or other rehabilitative programs and to participate in the cost of such programs administered by other public or private agencies.

(5) The department shall administer all social and economic services in compliance with Title VI of the Civil Rights Act in such manner that no person shall, on the grounds of race, color, sex, or national origin, be excluded from participation in any assistance, care, services, or other benefits or be otherwise subjected to discrimination.

(6) The department may:

(a) Accept such duties with respect to social and economic services as may be delegated to it by any agency of the Federal Government or any state, county, or municipal government;

(b) Act as agent of, or contract with, the Federal Government, state government, or any county or municipal government in the conduct and administration of social and economic services activities in securing the benefits of any public assistance that is available from the Federal Government or any of its agencies and in the disbursement of funds received from the Federal Government, state government, or any county or municipal government for social and economic services purposes within the state; and

(c) Accept from any person or organization all offers of personal services or other aid or assistance.

(7) Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to limit, abrogate, or abridge the powers and duties of any other state agency.

History.—s. 1, ch. 69-268; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 70-255; s. 4, ch. 72-48; s. 3, ch. 78-433.

Note.—Former s. 409.045.

409.031 State agency for administering social service funds.—The department is designated as the state agency responsible for the administration of social service funds under Title XX of the Social Security Act.

History.—s. 1, ch. 78-433.

409.085 Appropriation to the department and transfer of surplus funds.—Whenever any appropriation made to the department for any program authorized by this chapter shall be insufficient fully to provide assistance to all persons lawfully entitled thereto and there exists a surplus in the appropriation for any other social and economic programs above the amount required to provide for all persons lawfully entitled thereto, the Executive Office of the Governor shall determine the amount of such surplus and shall, on application by the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services, transfer so much of such surplus to said insufficient appropriation as it may find necessary. Any funds thus transferred shall be retransferred by the Executive Office of the Governor if subsequent events should disclose need for additional money in the appropriation from which the transfer was made. Funds which are so transferred are appropriated to the department to be used for the program for which the transfer was made and shall be disbursed and expended in the same manner as if originally appropriated for such purpose. This section shall be liberally construed to the end that the social and economic programs of the department may be fully maintained.

History.—s. 1, ch. 69-268; ss. 19, 31, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 70-255; s. 4, ch. 78-433; s. 135, ch. 79-190.

409.145 Care of children.—

(1) The department shall conduct, supervise, and administer a program for dependent children and their families. The services of the department are to be directed toward the following goals:

(a) The prevention of separation of children from their families.

(b) The reunification of families who have had children placed in foster homes or institutions.

(c) The permanent placement of children who cannot be reunited with their families or when reunification would not be in the best interest of the child.

(d) The protection of dependent children or children alleged to be dependent, including provision of emergency and long-term alternate living arrangements.

(2) The following dependent children shall be subject to the protection, care, guidance, and supervision of the department or any duly licensed public or private agency:

(a) Any child who has been temporarily or permanently taken from the custody of his parents, custodians, or guardians in accordance with those provisions in chapter 39 that relate to dependent children.

(b) Any child who is in need of the protective supervision of the department as determined by intake or by the court in accordance with those provisions of chapter 39 that relate to dependent children.

(c) Any child who is voluntarily placed, with the written consent of his parents or guardians, in the department's foster care program or the foster care program of a licensed private agency.

(3) The circuit courts exercising juvenile jurisdiction in the various counties of this state shall cooperate with the department and its employees in carrying out the purposes and intent of this chapter.

(4) The department is authorized to accept permanent commitment of children by order of a court of competent jurisdiction for the single purpose of adoption placement of said children. The department is authorized to provide the necessary services to place these permanently committed children for adoption.

(5) Any funds appropriated by counties for child welfare services may be matched by state and federal funds, such funds to be utilized by the department for the benefit of children in said counties.

(6) Whenever any child is placed under the protection, care, and guidance of the department or a duly licensed public or private agency, or as soon thereafter as is practicable, the department or agency, as the case may be, shall endeavor to obtain such information concerning the family medical history of the child and the natural parents as is available or readily obtainable. Such information shall be kept on file by the department or agency for possible future use as provided in ss. 63.082 and 63.162 or as may be otherwise provided by law.

History.—s. 1, ch. 69-268; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 70-255; s. 26, ch. 73-334; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 273, ch. 77-147; s. 1, ch. 77-457; s. 4, ch. 78-190; s. 5, ch. 78-433; s. 101, ch. 79-164.

409.165 Alternate care for children.—

(1) Within funds appropriated, the department shall establish and supervise a program of emergency shelters, foster homes, group homes, and other appropriate facilities to provide shelter and care for dependent children who must be placed away from their families. The department, in accordance with established goals, shall contract for the provision of such shelter and care by counties, municipalities, nonprofit corporations, and other entities capable of providing needed services if services so provided are available and meet the following criteria:

(a) Are more cost-effective than those provided by the department; and

(b) Unless otherwise provided by law, such providers of shelter and care are licensed by the department.

(2) The department may cooperate with all child service institutions or agencies within the state which meet the rules for proper care and supervision prescribed by the department for the well-being of children.

(3) With the written consent of parents, custodians, or guardians, or in accordance with those provisions in chapter 39 that relate to dependent children, the department, under rules properly adopted, may place a child with a relative; a person who is considering the adoption of a child in the manner provided for by law; when limited to temporary emergency situations, a responsible adult approved by the court; or a person, institution, society, or association licensed by the department in accordance with s. 409.175, under such conditions as shall be determined to be for the best interests or the welfare of the child. Any child placed in an institution or in a family home by the department or its agency may be removed by like authority and such disposition made as shall be for the best interest of the child, including the transfer to another institution, another home, or the home of the child.

409.166 Special needs children; subsidized adoption program.—

(1) LEGISLATIVE INTENT.—It is the intent of the Legislature to protect and promote every child's right to the security and stability of a permanent family home. The Legislature intends to make available to prospective adoptive parents financial aid which will enable them to adopt a child in foster care who, because of his special needs, has proven difficult to place in an adoptive home. In providing subsidies for children with special needs in foster homes, it is the intent of the Legislature to reduce state expenditures for long-term foster care.

(2) DEFINITIONS.—As used in this section:

(a) "Special needs child" means a child whose permanent custody has been awarded to the department or to a licensed child-placing agency and

1. Who has established significant emotional ties with his or her foster parents; or

2. Is not likely to be adopted because he or she is:

a. Six years of age or older;

b. Mentally retarded;

c. Physically or emotionally handicapped;

d. Of black or racially mixed parentage; or

e. A member of a sibling group of any age, provided two or more members of a sibling group remain together for purposes of adoption.

(b) "Department" means the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services.

(c) "Subsidy" means special services or money payments.

(3) ADMINISTRATION OF PROGRAM.—

(a) The department shall establish and administer an adoption program for the special needs child to be carried out by the department or by contract with a licensed child-placing agency. The program shall attempt to increase the number of persons seeking to adopt the special needs child and the number of adoption placements and shall extend subsidies and services, when needed, to the adopting parents of a special needs child.

(b) Authorization for subsidized adoption placement is to be granted only when all other resources available to place the child in question have been thoroughly explored and when it can be clearly established that this is the most acceptable plan for providing permanent placement for the child. Adoption subsidy will not be used as a substitute for adoptive parent recruitment or as an inducement to adopt a child who might be placed through nonsubsidized adoption.

dized means. It shall be the policy of the department that no child shall be denied adoption when subsidy would make adoption possible. The best interest of the child shall be the deciding factor in all instances. Nothing contained herein shall prohibit foster parents from applying to adopt a special needs child placed in their care.

(c) The department shall keep the necessary records to evaluate the program's effectiveness in encouraging and promoting the adoption of the special needs child and shall make annual reports to the Legislature by January 1 of each year regarding the cost and benefits of the program.

(4) ELIGIBILITY FOR SERVICES.—

(a) The department may pay either one or both of the following subsidies to the adopting parents:

1. For support and maintenance of a special needs child until the 18th birthday of such child, a monthly payment in an amount not more than the maximum monthly amount paid for foster care for the child if the adoption placement had not taken place.

2. For medical, surgical, hospital, and related services needed as a result of a physical or mental condition of the child which existed before the adoption, a subsidy which may be initiated at any time but shall terminate on or before the child's 18th birthday.

(b) As a condition for continuation of the subsidy, the adoptive parents shall file a sworn statement with the department at least once each year to include any social or financial conditions which may have changed.

(c) A child who is handicapped at the time of adoption shall be eligible for services of the children's medical services program if the child was eligible for such services prior to the adoption.

(5) WAIVER OF ADOPTION FEES.—The adoption fees shall be waived for all adoptive parents who participate in the program.

(6) The department shall promulgate all necessary rules to implement the provisions of this section.

History.—ss. 1-6, ch. 76-203; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 1, ch. 77-293; s. 1, ch. 78-362.

409.168 Children in foster care; department report and court review of status.—

(1) The Legislature finds that 7 out of 10 children placed in foster care do not return to their biological families after the first year and that permanent homes could be found for many of these children if their status were reviewed periodically and they were found eligible for adoption. It is the intent of the Legislature, therefore, to help ensure a permanent home for children in foster care by requiring a periodic review and report on their status.

(2) As used in this section:

(a) "Foster care" means care provided a child in a foster family or boarding home, group home, agency boarding home, child care institution, or any combination thereof.

(b) "Child" means a person under the age of 18 years whose legal custody has been awarded to the department or a licensed child-placing agency by order of a court or who has been committed temporarily to the care of the department by a parent, guardian, or relative within the second degree.

(c) "Court" means the Circuit Court.

(d) "Department" means the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services.

(e) "Licensed child-placing agency" means any child welfare agency that the department determines to be qualified to place minors for adoption pursuant to s. 63.202.

(3)(a) In each case in which the custody of a child has been awarded to the department or a licensed child-placing agency and such child has remained in foster care for a continuous period of 6 months, the department or licensed child-placing agency shall petition the court in the county where the child resides to review the status of the child. The department shall make an investigation and social study concerning all pertinent details relating to the child and shall furnish the court with a written report including its recommendations. The court shall then review the status of the child and may hold a hearing to determine if the child should be continued in foster care or returned to a parent, guardian, or relative, or if proceedings should be instituted to terminate parental rights and legally free such child for adoption.

(b) The court may dispense with the attendance of the child at the hearing or may, with the consent of the parties, dispense with the hearing and make a determination based upon the report of the department and any affidavits submitted to the court.

(4) Notice of the hearing and a copy of the petition including a statement of the dispositional alternatives of the court shall be served upon:

(a) The department or licensed child-placing agency charged with the supervision of care, custody, or guardianship of such child, if such authorized agency is not the petitioner.

(b) The foster parent or parents in whose home the child resides.

(c) The parent, guardian, or relative who transferred the care and custody of such child to the department.

(d) Such other persons as the court may in its discretion direct.

(5) The court may issue a protective order in assistance, or as a condition, of any other order made under this act. The protective order may set forth reasonable conditions of behavior to be observed for a specified time by a person or agency who is before the court and may require any such person or agency to make periodic reports to the court containing such information as the court in its discretion may prescribe.

(6) The court shall have continuing jurisdiction in proceedings under this section, and, in the case of a child who is continued in foster care, shall review the status of the child whenever it deems necessary or desirable, but at least annually.

History.—ss. 1-6, ch. 76-258; s. 1, ch. 77-174.

409.175 Licenses.—

(1) The department may, by rule, set minimum standards for the care of dependent children away from their own homes, and for dependent children in the care of child-placing agencies, and shall prescribe, amend, or alter such rules as may be necessary for the care and supervision of such children.

(2) No person other than a relative, a person who is considering the adoption of a child in the manner provided for by law, or, when limited to temporary emergency situations, a responsible adult approved by the court and no institution, society, or association, may receive a dependent child for boarding or custody unless such person, society, association, or institution shall first have procured a license from the department empowering or authorizing such person, association, institution, or society to care for, receive, or board a child or children.

(3) Application for license shall be made on blanks provided by the department. The application may be approved by the department only after inspection of health and sanitary conditions. A copy of the license so issued, which shall be provided by the department without charge, shall be on the approved form established by the department and shall be kept readily available by the licensee. Such license shall be valid for not more than 1 year after the date of issue, but may be renewed or extended as provided for by the rules of the department.

(4) Any such license may be revoked by order of the department for violation of the regulations of the department governing the activities of the licensee.

(5) If such order of revocation is not complied with within a reasonable time, or if any person, society, association, or institution shall receive a dependent child for boarding or custody without first having procured a license from the department or without the approval of the department as herein provided, then, after a reasonable notice, the department shall apply to a circuit court having jurisdiction over the person, society, association, or institution, and such circuit court shall hear and determine the case and grant such relief, mandatory or injunctive, as the case may require.

History.—s. 1, ch. 69-268; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 70-255; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 276, ch. 77-147; s. 1, ch. 77-457; s. 7, ch. 78-433.

409.185 Determination of eligibility for and amount of financial assistance; exclusions; report required.—

(1) The department shall provide financial assistance to needy persons who:

(a) Do not have sufficient income or other resources, as determined by the department, to provide reasonable subsistence compatible with decency and health.

(b) Have not made, within the 2 years immediately prior to the receipt of assistance or during receipt of assistance, an assignment, transfer, sale, or gift of property, cash, or any other assets for the purpose of rendering or keeping themselves eligible for assistance under this chapter. The department shall investigate every application for financial assistance on which the applicant has indicated that an assignment, transfer, or sale of property, cash, or any other assets has been made, or whenever the department has reason to believe that such assignment, transfer, or sale has been made, within 2 years immediately prior to the date of application for the purpose of rendering or keeping himself eligible for assistance under this chapter.

(c) Meet the requirements of this chapter and the rules of the department.

(2) The department shall redetermine eligibility at least semiannually for those receiving aid to families with dependent children.

(3) The department shall determine the amount to be paid each month to recipients, taking into account all facts and circumstances surrounding said recipients, including income and resources. In the determination of eligibility for financial assistance, the department shall disregard income and resources in accordance with federal law and shall:

(a) Exclude homestead property in which the applicant or recipient resides.

(b) Exclude a specified amount of life insurance held by an applicant or recipient, as determined by the department.

(c) Exclude produce from a garden or livestock grown and used exclusively for the support of the applicant or recipient and his family residing with him.

(d) Establish the resource limit and any other resources which shall be excluded in the eligibility determination.

(4)(a) At the time the department submits its biennial budget to the Governor, as provided by s. 216.023(1), it shall submit a report to the Governor on the current and projected dollar value of the standard of need with respect to payments for aid to families with dependent children. The standard of need is the full money value required to provide basic and special needs recognized by the state as essential for applicants and recipients.

(b) The report shall also include:

1. Data and forecasts on changes in the U.S. Consumer Price Index produced by the Department of Labor Statistics for the period from the effective date of the last standard-of-need determination through the upcoming biennium.

2. A calculation indicating the value of the current payments as a percent of the current and projected dollar value of the standard of need for each year of the biennium.

(c) The report shall be provided to the chairman of the health and rehabilitative services committee of each house of the Legislature, the chairman of the appropriations committee of each house, and the chairman of the appropriations subcommittee of each house that has jurisdiction over the budget of the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services.

History.—s. 1, ch. 69-268; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 70-255; s. 277, ch. 77-147; s. 8, ch. 78-433; s. 1, ch. 79-173.

409.211 Mandatory supplementation.—

Monthly mandatory supplementation payments, in such amount as determined by the department, shall be paid to any person who:

(1) Received assistance under provisions of s. 409.205, s. 409.215, or s. 409.225, relating to old age assistance, aid to the blind, or aid to the permanently and totally disabled, in December 1973.

(2) Would, due to the conversion to the Federal Supplemental Security Income Program, suffer a reduction in income.

(3) Continues to be eligible for the mandatory supplementation payment in accordance with Title XVI of the Social Security Act.

History.—s. 9, ch. 78-433.

409.212 Optional supplementation.—There may be monthly optional supplementation payments, made in such amount as determined by the department, to any person who:

- (1) Meets all the program eligibility criteria for an adult congregate living facility or for adult foster care, family placement, or other specialized living arrangement; and
- (2) Is receiving a Supplemental Security Income check or is determined to be eligible for optional supplementation by the department.

History.—s. 10, ch. 78-433.

409.235 Aid to families with dependent children.—

(1) It is the intent of the Legislature to furnish financial assistance and rehabilitative and other services to dependent children and to their families who are of a degree of relationship as specified by the department.

(2) Monthly assistance, in such amount as determined by the department, shall be paid to any child under the age of 18 and, to the extent moneys are appropriated therefor, may be paid to any child under the age of 21 and regularly in school who has been deprived of parental support or care by reason of death, continued absence from the home, or physical or mental incapacity of a parent and who is eligible under s. 409.185.

(3) If aid to families with dependent children is claimed or applied for on the ground of physical or mental incapacity of a parent liable for the support of the dependent child, such aid shall not be granted unless the parent liable for the support of the child is deemed to be incapacitated in accordance with rules set forth by the department. Aid to the dependent child shall be discontinued if the department determines that the parent liable for support of the child is able to provide such support.

History.—s. 1, ch. 69-268; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 70-255; s. 26, ch. 73-334; s. 279, ch. 77-147; ss. 11, 19, ch. 78-433.

409.245 Dependent children; action for support.—No application to the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services for any aid to dependent children which is within its power to grant shall be approved unless such applicant shall have instituted in the proper court, and in good faith prosecutes, a civil action for support from persons liable for the support of applicant's dependent child as the case may be, whenever such cause of action exists. The department shall assist applicants in bringing proceedings to enforce support by such persons who may be liable for the support under the laws of this state. Court costs may be provided for all indigent applicants where necessary and provided by s. 57.081. Such assistance shall be by consultation and arrangements with legal aid societies and bureaus established by local bar associations, if there be such legal aid societies able and willing to act; otherwise, the state attorney of the circuit in which such county is located shall institute and prosecute such action. Assistance shall be granted persons otherwise eligible pending the institution and during the prosecution of such action, but payments may be terminated whenever in the opinion of the department the action is not being prosecuted in good faith through the fault of the recipient of public assistance or the fault of the person receiving assistance on behalf of dependent children.

History.—s. 1, ch. 69-268; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 70-255; s. 280, ch. 77-147.

409.255 Aid to families with dependent children; father unemployed.—

(1) When a father who provides the major support of the child from his earnings is unemployed, the family shall be eligible for assistance provided the parent:

(a) Is registered with the State Employment Service and actively seeking work.

(b) Has not refused, without good and sufficient cause, to accept a bona fide offer of employment which he can perform, whether offered by the State Employment Service or by an employer.

(c) Takes advantage of the adult education and vocational education facilities when retraining or additional training are required to obtain full employment.

(d) Is not receiving workers' compensation payments in an amount which meets the needs of the family.

(e) Is eligible under s. 409.185.

(2) The department, the Department of Labor and Employment Security, and the Department of Education are authorized to provide administrative agreements and safeguards to guarantee the integrity of this program and to assure the best use of available community services to return these families to a condition of self-support.

History.—s. 1, ch. 69-268; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 70-255; s. 14, ch. 79-7; s. 73, ch. 79-40.

409.2551 Legislative intent.—Common law and statutory procedures governing the remedies for enforcement of support for financially dependent children by responsible parents have not proven sufficiently effective or efficient to cope with the increasing incidence of financial dependency. The increasing workload of courts, prosecuting attorneys, and the Attorney General has resulted in a growing burden on the financial resources of the state, which is constrained to provide public assistance for basic maintenance requirements when parents fail to meet their primary obligations. The state, therefore, exercising its police and sovereign powers, declares that the common law and statutory remedies pertaining to family desertion and nonsupport of dependent children shall be augmented by additional remedies directed to the resources of the responsible parents. In order to render resources more immediately available to meet the needs of dependent children, it is the legislative intent that the remedies provided herein are in addition to, and not in lieu of, existing remedies. It is declared to be the public policy of this state that this act be construed and administered to the end that children shall be maintained from the resources of responsible parents, thereby relieving, at least in part, the burden presently borne by the general citizenry through public assistance programs.

History.—s. 1, ch. 76-220.

409.2554 Definitions.—As used in this act:

(1) "Department" means the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services.

(2) "Dependent child" means any person under the age of 18, or under the age of 21 and still in school, who has been deprived of parental support or care by reason of death, continued absence from the home, or physical or mental incapacity of a parent.

(3) "Court" means the Circuit Court.

(4) "Court order" means any judgment or order of any court of appropriate jurisdiction of the state, or an order of a court of competent jurisdiction of another state, ordering payment of a set or determinable amount of support money.

(5) "Responsible parent" means the natural or adoptive parent of a dependent child, which parent does not have legal custody of such child.

(6) "Public assistance" means moneys paid to any person included in s. 409.235, relating to aid to families with dependent children.

(7) "Program attorney" means an attorney employed by, or under contract with, the department to provide legal representation for the department in a proceeding related to determination of paternity or child support enforcement brought pursuant to this act.

History.—s. 2, ch. 76-220.

409.2557 State agency for administering child support enforcement program.—The department is designated as the state agency responsible for the administration of the child support enforcement program, Title IV-D of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. 1302.

History.—s. 3, ch. 76-220.

409.2561 Public assistance payments debt to department; assignment of rights; subrogation.—

(1) Any payment of public assistance money made to, or for the benefit of, any dependent child creates a debt due and owing to the department by the responsible parent in an amount equal to the amount of public assistance so paid, except that if there has been a prior court order or final judgment of dissolution of marriage, the debt is limited to the amount provided by such court order or decree. If there is no prior court order, the court shall establish the liability of the responsible parent, if any, for repayment of public assistance moneys paid. Priority shall be given to establishing continuing reasonable support for the dependent child. The department may petition the appropriate court for modification of a court order on the same grounds as either party to the cause and shall have the right to settle and compromise actions brought pursuant to this act.

(2) In determining the amount to be paid by the responsible parent, the court shall consider the recommendation, if any, of the department, which recommendation shall be based on the income, earning capacity, resources, and needs of the responsible parent and the needs of the dependent child for whom support is sought.

(3) By accepting public assistance for, or on behalf of, a dependent child, the recipient is deemed to have made an assignment to the department of any right, title, and interest in any child support obligation owed to or for said child up to the amount of public assistance money paid for, or on behalf of, the dependent child. The recipient is also deemed to have appointed the department as his attorney in fact to act in his name, place, and stead to perform specific acts relating to child support, including but not limited to:

(a) Endorsing any draft, check, money order, or other negotiable instrument representing child support payments which are received on behalf of the dependent child as reimbursement for the public assistance moneys previously or currently paid.

(b) Compromising claims.

(c) Pursuing civil and criminal enforcement of support obligations.

(d) Executing verified complaints for the purpose of instituting an action for the determination of paternity of a child born, or to be born, out of wedlock.

(4) The department shall be subrogated to the right of the dependent child or person having the care, custody, and control of the child to prosecute or maintain any support action or action to determine paternity or execute any legal, equitable, or administrative remedy existing under the laws of the state to obtain reimbursement of public assistance paid, being paid, or to be paid.

(5) No debt under this section shall be incurred by any person who is the recipient of public assistance moneys for the benefit of a dependent child or who is incapacitated and financially unable to pay as determined by the department.

History.—s. 4, ch. 76-220; s. 1, ch. 77-174.

409.2564 Actions for support.—

(1) In each case in which regular child support payments are not being made to the department as provided herein, the department shall institute, within 30 days after determination of the responsible parent's reasonable ability to pay, an action for support against any person liable for the support of the child. The department shall notify the program attorney in the judicial circuit in which the recipient resides setting forth the facts in the case, including the debtor's address, if known, and the public assistance case number. Whenever applicable, the procedures established under the provisions of chapter 88, the Uniform Reciprocal Enforcement of Support Law, and chapter 39, relating to dependent children, may govern actions instituted under the provisions of this act, except that actions for support under chapter 39 brought pursuant to this act shall not require any additional investigation or supervision by the department.

(2) The order for support entered pursuant to an action instituted by the department under the provisions of subsection (1) shall stipulate that the child support payments be made periodically to the department. When feasible, such payments may be made through the court depository. Upon receipt of a payment made by the responsible parent pursuant to any order of the court, the clerk of the court shall transmit the payment to the department. Upon request, the clerk of the court shall furnish to the department a certified statement of all payments made by the defendant.

(3) The department shall notify the program attorney if public assistance for the benefit of the dependent child is discontinued for any reason or if the responsible parent has failed to provide the required periodic support for 2 consecutive months, or when the responsible parent is in arrears 60 days or more, in order that the program attorney may institute appropriate action.

(4) Whenever the department has undertaken an action for enforcement of support, the department may enter into an agreement with the responsible parent for the entry of a judgment determining paternity, if applicable, and for periodic child support payments based on the responsible parent's reasonable ability to pay. Prior to entering into this agreement, the responsible parent shall be informed that a judgment will be entered based on the agreement. The clerk of the court shall file the agreement without the payment of any fees or charges, and the court, upon entry of the judgment, shall forward a copy of the judgment to the parties to the action. In making a determination of the responsible parent's reasonable ability to pay, the following criteria shall be considered:

- (a) All earnings, income, and resources of the responsible parent.
- (b) The ability of the responsible parent to earn.
- (c) The reasonable necessities of the responsible parent.
- (d) The needs of the dependent child for whom support is sought.

History.—s. 5, ch. 76-220.

409.2567 Services to individuals not otherwise eligible.—All child support collection and paternity determination services provided by the department shall be made available to any individual not otherwise eligible for such services, upon proper application filed with the department. The department shall recover to the extent possible any costs incurred in the collection of child support under this section.

History.—s. 6, ch. 76-220; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 13, ch. 78-433.

409.2571 Court and witness fees; bond.—

(1) The department or an authorized agent thereof shall be entitled to the necessary services of the clerk, sheriff, and court reporter in any proceedings under this act, including contempt proceedings, and no fees for such court, clerk, or sheriff services shall be charged against the department. No bond shall be required of the department for any action taken pursuant to this act, except by order of the court. Nothing herein shall prevent the court depository from charging and collecting fees for services rendered. Nothing herein shall prevent the court from charging a defendant for action taken pursuant to this act for all costs and fees incurred in the proceedings.

(2) No witness fees shall be paid to any party to a petition or complaint or to any parent or legal custodian of a dependent child described in a petition or complaint filed pursuant to this act.

History.—s. 7, ch. 76-220; s. 1, ch. 77-174.

409.2574 Assignment of earnings to be honored; effect.—

(1) Any person, public body, or department of the state employing a person owing a child support debt shall honor, according to its terms, an assignment of earnings executed by the responsible parent and presented by the department as a plan to satisfy or retire a child support debt. This requirement to honor the assignment of earnings, and the assignment of earnings itself, shall be applicable whether the earnings are to be paid presently or in the future and shall continue in force and effect until released in writing by the department. Payment of moneys pursuant to an assignment of earnings presented by the department shall serve as full acquittance of the employer's obligation under any contract of employment, and the state warrants and represents that it shall defend and hold harmless such action taken pursuant to said assignment of earnings. The department shall be released from liability for improper receipt of moneys under an assignment of earnings, upon return of any moneys so received. Any person who fails to honor a duly executed assignment of earnings is liable to the department in an amount equal to 100 percent of the amount of the assignment of earnings, plus costs, interest, and reasonable attorney fees.

(2) Any such assignment of earnings shall be in addition to, and not in lieu of, any and all existing civil or criminal remedies to enforce child support obligations.

(3) No employer shall discharge an employee as a direct or indirect result of any action brought pursuant to this section.

History.—s. 8, ch. 76-220.

409.2577 Parent locator service.—The department shall establish a parent locator service to assist in locating parents who have deserted their children and other persons liable for support of dependent children. The department shall use all sources of information available, including the Federal Parent Locator Service, and may request, and shall receive, information from the records of any state board, commission, or department or officer or agency thereof, and the same are authorized to provide such information as is necessary for this purpose. Only information directly bearing on the identity and whereabouts of a person owing, or asserted to be owing, an obligation of support for a dependent child shall be requested and used by the department pursuant to the authority conferred by this act. The department may make such information available only to public officials and agencies of this state, political subdivisions of this state, and other states seeking to locate parents who have deserted their children and other persons liable for support of dependents, for the purpose of enforcing their liability for support.

History.—s. 9, ch. 76-220; s. 1, ch. 77-174.

409.2581 Use of clearing accounts and revolving funds.—To facilitate the cash flow and administration of child support enforcement under this act, the department may use clearing accounts and revolving funds.

History.—s. 10, ch. 76-220.

409.2584 Interest on debts due; waiver.—The department may collect interest of 6 percent per annum on any child support debt due and owing to the department; however, the department is not required to maintain interest balance due accounts, and said interest may be waived by the department if the waiver would facilitate the collection of the debt.

History.—s. 11, ch. 76-220.

409.2587 Uncollectible child support debts.—Any child support debt due the department from a responsible parent, for which the department finds there is no available, practical, or lawful means by which the debt may be collected may be transferred from accounts receivable to a suspense account and cease to be accounted as an asset; however, the department may, at any time, write off the debt as uncollectible, subject to audit by the Auditor General.

History.—s. 12, ch. 76-220.

409.2591 Unidentifiable moneys held in special account.—All moneys collected in fees, costs, attorney fees, interest payments, or other funds received by the department which are unidentifiable as to the specific child support account against which they should be credited shall be held in a special fund. Such moneys, if still unidentified 90 days after receipt, shall revert to general revenue funds unallocated.

History.—s. 13, ch. 76-220.

409.2594 Report to the Legislature.—The department shall report to the Legislature no later than March 15 of each year as to:

- (1) The number of parents located.
- (2) The amount of money generated through the collection of child support of dependent children.
- (3) The cost of program management and administration.
- (4) Such other information as the department determines may be useful to the Legislature in evaluating the program by which the department collects child support money for dependent children.

History.—s. 14, ch. 76-220.

409.2597 Retention of actions.—All actions pending under the authority of those statutes repealed by this act shall not abate but shall continue pursuant to the provisions of this act.

History.—s. 16, ch. 76-220.

409.266 Medical assistance.—

(1) The department is designated as the state agency responsible for the administration of Medicaid funds under Title XIX of the Social Security Act and, to the extent moneys are appropriated, is authorized to provide payment for medical services to any person who:

(a) Is determined by the department to be categorically eligible for Medicaid.

(b) Has not sufficient income resources or assets, as determined by the department, to provide needed medical care without utilizing his resources required to meet his basic needs for shelter, food, clothing, and personal expenses. Interest on savings accounts of $1,000 or less held in the name of a Medicaid recipient shall not be considered income to be applied toward the monthly cost of institutional care.

(2) The department is hereby authorized to:

(a) Enter into such agreements with appropriate agents, other state agencies, or any agency of the Federal Government and accept such duties in respect to social welfare or public aid as may be necessary or needed to implement the provisions of Title XIX of the Social Security Act pertaining to medical assistance.

(b) Contract with health maintenance organizations, certified pursuant to part II, chapter 641, for the provision of medical services to eligible persons.

(c) Contract for demonstration projects with county health departments to provide a comprehensive range of health care services on a prepaid per capita or prepaid aggregate fixed-sum basis to persons determined to be eligible for Medicaid services. A county health department may provide such prepaid services either directly or through arrangements with other providers. Prepaid health care services provided by the demonstration projects shall be exempt from the provisions of part II, chapter 641. The number of demonstration projects authorized by this paragraph shall not exceed three prior to July 1, 1980. On or before March 1, 1980, and every 2 years thereafter, the department shall submit to the Legislature an evaluation of the results of the program authorized under this paragraph. Said evaluation shall include both programmatic and economic analyses of this program.

(3)(a) Third-party coverage for medical services shall be primary coverage and shall be exhausted before any payment authorized under this section shall be made on the behalf of any person eligible for services under this section.

(b) A public assistance applicant or recipient shall inform the department of any rights he has to third-party payments for medical services. The department shall automatically be subrogated to any such rights the recipient has to third-party payments and shall recover to the fullest extent possible the amount of all medical assistance payments made on the behalf of the recipient. Recovery of such payments shall be collected directly from:

1. Any third party liable to make a medical benefit payment to the provider of the recipient's medical services or to the recipient under the terms of any contract, settlement, or award; or

2. The recipient, if he has received third-party payment for medical services provided to him.

(c) In recovering any payments in accordance with this subsection, the department is authorized to make appropriate settlements.

(d) The department shall promulgate rules to implement the provisions of this subsection.

(4) In addition to the federally required Medicaid services, the department shall make available to eligible recipients the care and services of:

(a) A nurse midwife in accordance with Title XIX of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. ss. 1396-1396j. For the purposes of this subsection, the term "nurse midwife" means an advanced registered nurse practitioner who is a certified nurse midwife pursuant to the provisions of chapter 464.

(b) A nurse practitioner in accordance with Title XIX of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. ss. 1396-1396j. Funding for such services shall be drawn equally from funds appropriated to all service categories of the program. For the purposes of this subsection, the term "nurse practitioner" means an advanced registered nurse practitioner certified pursuant to the provisions of chapter 464.

(5) The following services may also be provided in addition to the federally required Medicaid services, provided that the department promulgates and enforces rules requiring appropriate program monitoring or prior authorization and review of services, coinsurance, bulk purchasing where fiscally beneficial, written certification from providers that services were rendered, and other procedures necessary to prevent fraud and abuse in the utilization of these services:

(a) Those services of a licensed dentist which services are required for the dispensing of dentures.

(b) Dentures made by or under the direction of a licensed dentist.

(c) The services of a licensed physician who specializes in diseases of the eye or of a licensed optometrist which services are required for the prescribing of eyeglasses.

(d) Eyeglasses and the repair of eyeglasses prescribed by a licensed physician who specializes in diseases of the eye or by a licensed optometrist; however, only one pair of eyeglasses may be issued to any Medicaid recipient during a 2-year period, unless an exception to this limitation is made by the department, on a case-by-case basis, in accordance with the provisions of the rules required under this subsection.

(e) The services of a licensed otolaryngologist, otologist, or audiologist upon the referral of a physician which services are required to determine hearing aid candidacy; however, if, in the opinion of the department, the services of such professionals are unavailable, the department may authorize a physician to determine hearing aid candidacy.

(f) Hearing aids and the dispensing, service, and repair of hearing aids provided by a person licensed to fit and sell hearing aids, provided that dispensing, services, and repair of hearing aids shall be purchased based on bids let by the department at the district, subdistrict, or service network level; however, no hearing aid shall be made available to a Medicaid recipient under this section unless the candidacy for a hearing aid has been determined by an otolaryngologist, an otologist, an audiologist upon the referral of a physician, or a physician as provided in this subsection, and only one hearing aid may be issued to any Medicaid recipient during a 3-year period, unless an exception to this limitation is made by the department, on a case-by-case basis, in accordance with the provisions of the rules required under this subsection.

The department shall periodically review expenditures for these services, and if expenditure trends indicate a higher rate of utilization than can be funded by the current appropriation for these services, the secretary is authorized, after providing 2 weeks' notice to participating providers and eligible recipients, to either temporarily or permanently terminate reimbursement for these services. All providers and recipients of these services shall be subject to the penalty provisions of s. 409.325 regarding Medicaid fraud. Except as provided in this subsection, the department shall not require copayment or coinsurance on Medicaid services without legislative authorization.

409.267 County contributions to medical assistance program.—

(1) Although the state is responsible for the full portion of the state's share of the matching funds required in the medical assistance program for the needy under the Social Security Act, as amended, which state's share is as shown in this section, the state, in order to acquire a certain portion of these funds, shall charge the counties for certain items of care and service as hereafter provided.

(2)(a) Each county shall participate in the following items of care and service:

1. Payments for inpatient hospitalization in excess of 12 days.

2. Payments for nursing home or intermediate facility care in excess of $170 per month.

(b) County participation shall be 35 percent of the total cost of providing the items listed in paragraph (a), except that after April 30, 1974, payments for items in subparagraph (a)2. shall not exceed $55 per month per person.

(3) Each county shall set aside sufficient funds to pay for items of care and service provided to the county's eligible recipients, regardless of where in the state the care or service is rendered, in those items of care and service in which the counties participate. Each county shall pay into the General Revenue Fund unallocated its pro rata share of the total county participation based upon statements rendered by the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services. The Department of Banking and Finance shall withhold from the cigarette tax receipts or any other funds to be distributed to the counties the individual county share which has not been remitted within 30 days after billing.

(4) In any county where there is located a special taxing district or authority which will benefit from the medical assistance programs contemplated by this section, the board of county commissioners may divide the county's financial responsibility for this purpose proportionately, and each such authority or district shall furnish its share to the board of county commissioners in time for the board to comply with the requirements of subsection (3). Appeals of the aforesaid proration by the board of county commissioners shall be made to the Department of Banking and Finance, which shall then set the proportionate share of each party.

409.2671 Local agency contributions to medical assistance program for outpatient hospital services.—

(1) It is the intent of the Legislature to establish a pilot project to determine the feasibility of increasing outpatient hospital services through local agency contributions. It is also the intent of the Legislature that the pilot project will not require any additional general revenue funds. Nothing in this act is to be construed to increase or expand eligibility for Medicaid.

(2) As used in this section:

(a) "Department" means the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services.

(b) "Local agency" means a county, city, municipality, or hospital district.

(c) "Local agency contribution" means the total amount of funds that the local agency shall provide to the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services toward the funding of the pilot project.

(d) "Pilot project" means the program to be administered by the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services to test the feasibility of increasing hospital outpatient service benefits through local agency contributions during the period of July 1, 1978, through June 30, 1980.

(3) The Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services shall conduct a pilot project to determine the feasibility of increasing hospital outpatient service benefits to eligible Medicaid recipients through local agency contributions. On April 1, 1980, the department shall submit an evaluation report to the Speaker of the House of Representatives and the President of the Senate summarizing the progress of the project. The report shall include the information and data necessary for an accurate analysis of the costs to the local agencies and benefits associated with the establishment of the project and the benefit levels for hospital outpatient services and a recommendation as to continued utilization of local agency funds.

(4) The administration of this project shall be located within the Medicaid Section of the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services.

(5) Each Medicaid recipient shall be eligible to receive a maximum of $500 in hospital outpatient benefits. The first $100 shall be paid from general revenue and federal trust funds. The next $400 shall be paid from local agency and federal trust funds. The local agency shall provide 50 percent of the amount expended for each patient between $100 and $500. However, a local agency may, at its option, participate at a greater percentage.

(6) Mandatory local agency participation shall be limited to the total cost of the local agency's expenditures during its latest complete fiscal year ending prior to January 1, 1979, for hospital outpatient services to eligible Medicaid recipients. However, a local agency may, at its option, participate in excess of such limitation.

(7)(a) Each local agency shall set aside sufficient funds to cover its obligation under subsections (5) and (6) and shall pay to the department its prorata share of the expenditures under this pilot project based upon billing statements rendered by the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services. The Department of Banking and Finance shall withhold from the cigarette tax receipts or any other local funds to be distributed to local agencies the individual local agency's share which has not been submitted within 30 days after billing. The Department of Banking and Finance shall remit the withheld receipts or other funds to the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services to provide for that local agency's required contribution for the cost of hospital outpatient services.

(b) A trust fund to be known as the "Local Agency Trust Fund" shall be established for the department from which expenditures will be made. In order to assure the availability of funds to pay bills as received, it will be necessary for the local agencies to advance money to the department. Within 10 days of the beginning of the department's fiscal year, the local agency shall pay to the department one-sixth of the department's estimate of the expenditures to be made during the year. Each month thereafter, the local agency will reimburse the department for the preceding month's expenditures for services rendered during this pilot project.

(c) On or before June 1, 1979, each local agency shall certify to the department its actual or best estimate of expenditures for its latest complete fiscal year ending prior to January 1, 1979, utilized for outpatient services for eligible Medicaid recipients. This certification of actual or estimated expenditures shall be the amount for which the local agency will be required to participate.

(d) The additional funds provided by the difference between the regular state matching and the local agency's contribution (50 percent) shall be used by the department to:

1. Pay bills incurred by eligible recipients in hospitals located in other states.

2. Provide for the incremental costs to the department for the administration of the project, including staff, data processing, bill collection, postage, printing, and other related costs.

(e) Any balance remaining in the trust fund after December 31, 1980, shall be remitted to the local agencies on a prorata basis of the total local agency contribution for the project period.

(8) The Executive Office of the Governor shall periodically review expenditures for hospital outpatient services, and, if expenditure trends indicate a higher rate of utilization than that which can be funded by available local agency funds, the department shall immediately reduce the $500 maximum payment to a lesser maximum payment or increase the percentage of participation in subsection (5), or both.

(9) The secretary of the department shall have the authority, if it is found that funds are not available to carry out the intent of this law, to discontinue the pilot project.

History.—ss. 1, 2, ch. 78-440; s. 136, ch. 79-190; s. 1, ch. 79-257.

409.268 Nursing home care under the medical assistance program.—

(1) Any nursing home entering into a contract to provide services to indigent patients under the provisions of s. 409.266 shall:

(a) Annually, forward to the department a true and accurate statement of its cost of providing care. The statement shall be prepared and signed by a certified public accountant who is fully independent of the nursing home management and operations and who does not have, or intend to acquire, any direct financial interest or material interest in the ownership or operation of the nursing home.

(b) Fully comply with all contracts and state and federal rules and standards promulgated under the medical assistance program.

(2) The department shall audit the records of any nursing home which it has reason to believe may not be in full compliance with the provisions of this section.

History.—s. 12, ch. 76-201; s. 14, ch. 77-401.

409.275 State agency for administering federal food stamp program.—

(1) The department shall, not later than December 31, 1970, place into operation in each of the several counties of the state a food stamp program as authorized by the Congress of the United States. The department is designated as the state agency responsible for the administration and operation of such programs. A commodity distribution program may be continued in a county until it has been approved by the United States Department of Agriculture for a food stamp program.

(2) The department shall provide for such instruction and counseling as will best assure that the recipients are able to provide a nutritionally adequate diet through the increased purchasing power received. This program shall be administered and operated in such a way that the distribution of food stamps shall be in locations reasonably accessible to those areas in which persons eligible for the benefit of this program are likely to be concentrated.

History.—s. 1, ch. 69-268; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 70-201; s. 1, ch. 70-255; ss. 1, 2, ch. 72-298.

409.285 Opportunity for hearing and appeal.—

(1) If an application for public assistance is not acted upon within a reasonable time after the filing of the application, or is denied in whole or in part, or if an assistance payment is modified or canceled, the applicant or recipient may appeal the decision to the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services in the manner and form prescribed by the department.

(2) The hearing authority may be the Secretary of Health and Rehabilitative Services, a panel of department officials, or a hearing officer appointed for that purpose. The hearing authority is responsible for a final administrative decision in the name of the department on all issues that have been the subject of a hearing. With regard to the department, the decision of the hearing authority is final and binding.

The department is responsible for seeing that the decision is carried out promptly.

History.—s. 1, ch. 69-268; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 70-255; s. 283, ch. 77-147; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 19, ch. 78-95.

409.295 Court appointed guardian unnecessary.—It is unnecessary for any incompetent person entitled to public assistance payments, as provided by this chapter, to have a court appointed guardian in order to receive such payments if said incompetent person is living in the household with an adult member of his family or there is a responsible person who will act in his behalf.

History.—s. 1, ch. 69-268; s. 1, ch. 70-255.

409.315 Public assistance; payment on death.—

(1) Upon the death of any person receiving public assistance through the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services, all public assistance accrued to such person from the date of last payment to date of death shall be paid to the person who shall have been designated by him on a form prescribed by the department and filed with the department during the lifetime of the person making such designation. In the event no designation is made, or the person so designated is no longer living or cannot be found, then payment shall be made to such person as may be designated by the circuit judge of the county where the public assistance recipient resided. Designation by the circuit judge may be made on a form provided by the department or by letter or memorandum to the Comptroller. No filing or recording of the designation shall be required, and the circuit judge shall receive no compensation for such service. If a warrant has not been issued and forwarded prior to notice by the department of the recipient's death, upon notice thereof, the department shall promptly requisition the Comptroller to issue a warrant in the amount of the accrued assistance payable to the person designated to receive it and shall attach to the requisition the original designation of the deceased recipient, or if none, the designation made by the circuit judge, as well as a notice of death. The Comptroller shall issue a warrant in the amount payable.

(2) If a warrant has been issued and not cashed by the recipient payee prior to his death, such warrant shall be promptly returned to the department, together with notice of the death of the recipient. The original warrant shall be endorsed on the back by an authorized employee of the department. The endorsement shall be on a form prescribed by the department and approved by the Comptroller which shall contain the name of the deceased recipient, a statement of his death, and the date thereof and state that it is payable to the order of the designated beneficiary, without recourse. The form shall be signed by the authorized employee or employees of the department, and thereupon such warrant shall be payable to the designated beneficiary as fully and completely as if made payable to him when issued. The department shall furnish to the Comptroller each month a list of such deceased recipients, the designated beneficiaries or persons to whom such warrants are endorsed, and a description of such warrants as herein provided. The department shall cause all persons receiving public assistance to make the designations as soon as conveniently may be, and shall preserve such designations in a safe place for use.

409.325 Fraud.—

(1) Any person who knowingly:

(a) Fails, by false statement, misrepresentation, impersonation, or other fraudulent means, to disclose a material fact used in making a determination as to such person's qualification to receive aid or benefits under any state or federally funded assistance program, or

(b) Fails to disclose a change in circumstances in order to obtain or continue to receive under any such program aid or benefits to which he is not entitled or in an amount larger than that to which he is entitled,

or who knowingly aids and abets another person in the commission of any such act is guilty of a crime and shall be punished as provided in subsection (5).

(2) Any person who knowingly:

(a) Uses, transfers, acquires, traffics, alters, forges, or possesses, or

(b) Attempts to use, transfer, acquire, traffic, alter, forge, or possess, or

(c) Aids and abets another person in the use, transfer, acquisition, traffic, alteration, forgery, or possession of, a food stamp, a food stamp identification card, an authorization for the purchase of food stamps, a certificate of eligibility for medical services, or a Medicaid identification card in any manner not authorized by law is guilty of a crime and shall be punished as provided in subsection (5). For the purposes of this section, the value of an authorization to purchase food stamps shall be the difference between the coupon allotment and the amount paid by the recipient for that allotment.

(3) Any person having duties in the administration of a state or federally funded assistance program who:

(a) Fraudulently misappropriates, attempts to misappropriate, or aids and abets in the misappropriation of, a food stamp, an authorization for food stamps, a food stamp identification card, a certificate of eligibility for prescribed medicine, a Medicaid identification card, or assistance from any other state or federally funded program with which he has been entrusted or of which he has gained possession by virtue of his position, or who knowingly fails to disclose any such fraudulent activity, or

(b) Knowingly misappropriates, attempts to misappropriate, or aids or abets in the misappropriation of, funds given in exchange for food stamps, is guilty of a crime and shall be punished as provided in subsection (5).

(4) Any person who:

(a) Knowingly files, attempts to file, or aids and abets in the filing of, a claim for services to a recipient of benefits under any state or federally funded assistance program for services which were not rendered; knowingly files a false claim or a claim for nonauthorized items or services under such a program; or knowingly bills the recipient of benefits under such a program, or his family, for an amount in excess of that provided for by law or regulation, or

(b) Knowingly fails to credit the state or its agent for payments received from social security, insurance, or other sources, or

(c) In any way knowingly receives, attempts to receive, or aids and abets in the receipt of, unauthorized payment as provided herein, is guilty of a crime and shall be punished as provided in subsection (5).

(5)(a) If the value of the assistance or identification wrongfully received, retained, misappropriated, sought, or used is less than an aggregate value of $200 in any 12 consecutive months, such person is guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

(b) If the value of the assistance or identification wrongfully received, retained, misappropriated, sought, or used is of an aggregate value of $200 or more in any 12 consecutive months, such person is guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083 or s. 775.084.

(6) Any person providing service for which compensation is paid under any state or federally funded assistance program who solicits, requests, or receives, either actually or constructively, any payment or contribution through a payment, assessment, gift, devise, bequest or other means, whether directly or indirectly, from either a recipient of assistance from such assistance program or from the family of such a recipient shall notify the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services, on a form provided by the department, of the amount of such payment or contribution and of such other information as specified by the department, within 10 days after the receipt of such payment or contribution or, if said payment or contribution is to become effective at some time in the future, within 10 days of the consummation of the agreement to make such payment or contribution. Failure to notify the department within the time prescribed is a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

(7) Repayment of assistance or services wrongfully obtained shall not constitute a defense to, or ground for dismissal of, criminal charges brought under this section.

(8) The introduction into evidence of a paid state warrant made to the order of the defendant shall be prima facie evidence that the defendant did receive assistance from the state.

(9) All records relating to investigations of public assistance fraud in the custody of the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services are business records within the meaning of s. 92.36.

History.—s. 1, ch. 69-268; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 70-255; s. 354, ch. 71-136; s. 1, ch. 76-20.

409.335 Recovery of payments made due to mistake or fraud.—Whenever it becomes apparent that any person has received any benefits under this chapter to which he is not entitled, either through simple mistake or fraud, the department shall take all necessary steps to recover the overpayment, unless it is determined that extreme hardship would result if repayment were forced at that time. The department shall establish a policy and cost-effective rules to be used in the recovery of such overpayments.

History.—s. 1, ch. 69-268; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 70-255; s. 285, ch. 77-147; s. 15, ch. 78-433.

409.345 Public assistance payments to constitute debt of recipient.—

(1) CLAIMS.—The acceptance of public assistance shall create a debt of the person accepting assistance, which debt shall be enforceable only after the death of the recipient. The debt thereby created shall be enforceable only by claim filed against the estate of the recipient after his death or by suit to set aside a fraudulent conveyance, as defined in subsection (3). After the death of the recipient and within the time prescribed by law, the department may file a claim against the estate of the recipient for the total amount of public assistance paid to or for the benefit of such recipient, reimbursement for which has not been made. Claims so filed shall take priority as class seven claims as provided by s. 733.707(1)(g).

(2) DISCHARGE OF DEBT.—The debt created by this section shall be discharged 1 year after the death of the debtor unless the department shall have instituted probate proceedings as a creditor or filed a timely claim against the estate of the debtor or instituted a suit to set aside a fraudulent conveyance as defined in subsection (3).

(3) FRAUDULENT CONVEYANCE.—Any person who shall transfer or encumber his property for an inadequate consideration with the intent of defeating or hindering the claim of the department for reimbursement shall be deemed to have made a fraudulent conveyance, and such transfer or encumbrance shall be void and of no effect as against the claim of the department if the department institutes a suit to set aside the conveyance within 1 year after the death of the debtor. A transfer or encumbrance for an inadequate consideration made within 6 months immediately preceding the death of the transferor shall be presumed to have been made with the intent of defeating or hindering the claim of the department. Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to make void any conveyance or encumbrance which shall be made upon and for good consideration and bona fide, as to any person or persons or bodies, politic or corporate, anything in this section to the contrary notwithstanding.

(4) ENFORCEMENT AGAINST HOMESTEAD PROHIBITED.—The claim herein created shall not in any manner be enforceable against a homestead of realty or personalty as defined and provided for in s. 4, Art. X of the State Constitution or against household furnishings and furniture.

(5) AUTHORITY TO COMPROMISE AND SETTLE.—The department shall have authority:

(a) To enter the appearance of the state in any proceeding affecting the property on which the state has a claim;

(b) To institute probate proceedings as a creditor of deceased persons and, either in the course of or in the absence of and apart from any action or proceeding, enter into any stipulation, compromise, settlement, or other agreement in respect to such claim affecting such property as may seem wise;

(c) To execute and deliver any such stipulation, modification, quitclaim, release, partial release, discharge, extension, agreement, satisfaction, partial satisfaction, or subordination, or other contract, stipulation, or agreement which the interest of the parties or the circumstances of the case may make advisable; and

(d) To discharge the differences between the claim and any compromise settlement.

(6) NOTICE.—The department shall notify all persons receiving or applying for public assistance that all public assistance grants paid shall constitute a claim against the estate of each recipient. The notice may be given by letter mailed to the last known address of each recipient, but the failure to give such notice shall not affect the validity of the claim.

(7) ACCEPTANCE OF OFFERS TO REPAY.—Any person who desires to repay all or part of the amount paid under the public assistance programs may do so in accordance with a procedure to be adopted by the department. Such rules shall provide for the immediate sale of any real property or the state's equity in any real property so acquired in the manner which will be most expedient and advantageous to the state.

(8) DISPOSITION OF FUNDS RECOVERED.—All funds collected under the provisions of this section shall be deposited with the Department of Banking and Finance and a report of such deposit made to the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services. After payment of costs the sums so collected shall be credited to the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services and used by it.

(9) RULES.—The department is authorized to make such rules as may be necessary for the proper administration of this section.

(10) PUBLIC ASSISTANCE.—For the purposes of this section, the term "public assistance" shall include all money payments made to or on behalf of a recipient, including, but not limited to, assistance received under ss. 409.235, 409.255, and 409.266 and mandatory and optional supplement payments under the Social Security Act.

History.—s. 1, ch. 69-268; ss. 12, 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 70-255; s. 1, ch. 70-439; s. 145, ch. 77-104; s. 16, ch. 78-433; s. 103, ch. 79-164; s. 2, ch. 79-382.

(1) The licensing requirements in chapters 458, 459, and 460 to the contrary notwithstanding, persons employed as physicians, osteopathic physicians, or chiropractic physicians in a state institution, except those under the control of the Department of Corrections on June 28, 1977, may be exempted from licensure in accordance with the following provisions:

(a) No more than 10 percent of such persons shall be exempted from licensure during their continued employment in a state institution. Those persons who shall be so exempted shall be selected by the Secretary of the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services. In making his selection, the secretary shall submit his recommendations to the appropriate licensing board for a determination by the board, without written examination, of whether or not the person recommended meets the professional standards required of such person in the performance of his duties or functions. The criteria to be used by the respective board in making its determination shall include, but not be limited to, the person's professional educational background, formal specialty training, and professional experience within the 10 years immediately preceding employment by the state institution.

(b) Those persons not exempted pursuant to paragraph (a) shall not be required to obtain a license from the applicable licensing board in accordance with the provisions of chapter 458, chapter 459, or chapter 460 prior to October 1, 1980, as a prerequisite to their continued employment as a physician, osteopathic physician, or chiropractic physician in a state institution.

(2) No person subject to the provisions of this section shall, by virtue of his continued employment in accordance with such provisions, be in violation of the unauthorized practice provisions of chapter 458, chapter 459, or chapter 460 during such period of employment.

History.—s. 3, ch. 79-302.

409.355 Public assistance rolls open.—

(1) The lists of names of all persons who have received public assistance payments and the amounts of such payments are a matter of public record. They are available for inspection, subject to the limitations specified in subsection (2), at the local offices in the counties wherein the recipients of such payments reside.

(2)(a) It is unlawful for any person, for himself, or for any other person, body, association, firm, corporation, group, or agency, to solicit, disclose, receive, or make use of, or to authorize, knowingly permit, participate in or acquiesce in, the use of, any of the lists or parts of such lists of names of public assistance recipients herein required to be filed for commercial or political purposes of any nature.

(b) Any person who violates any provision of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 1, ch. 69-268; s. 1, ch. 70-255; s. 355, ch. 71-136; s. 114, ch. 71-355.

409.365 Reports.—

(1) Beginning immediately, each county shall establish and maintain adequate and accurate records, including a system of internal accounts, for all county public assistance programs, and the department in cooperation with the auditor general shall render assistance as requested in the development of such records and accounts. Thereafter, each county shall file with the department in a prescribed manner an annual or periodic report as required by the department.

(2) The department shall, on or before September 30 of each year, make a report to the governor. The report shall contain a complete accounting of all funds received and disbursed during the preceding fiscal year.

(3) The department shall also make such reports, on such forms and containing such information as the federal government and its agencies and instrumentalities may from time to time require, and shall comply with any provisions said agencies may from time to time find necessary to insure the correctness and verification of such reports.

History.—s. 1, ch. 69-268; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 8, ch. 69-82; s. 1, ch. 70-255.

409.401 Interstate Compact on the Placement of Children.—The Interstate Compact on the Placement of Children is hereby enacted into law and entered into with all other jurisdictions legally joining therein in form substantially as follows:

INTERSTATE COMPACT ON THE PLACEMENT OF CHILDREN

ARTICLE I. Purpose and Policy

It is the purpose and policy of the party states to cooperate with each other in the interstate placement of children to the end that:

(a) Each child requiring placement shall receive the maximum opportunity to be placed in a suitable environment and with persons or institutions having appropriate qualifications and facilities to provide a necessary and desirable degree and type of care.

(b) The appropriate authorities in a state where a child is to be placed may have full opportunity to ascertain the circumstances of the proposed placement, thereby promoting full compliance with applicable requirements for the protection of the child.

(c) The proper authorities of the state from which the placement is made may obtain the most complete information on the basis on which to evaluate a projected placement before it is made.

(d) Appropriate jurisdictional arrangements for the care of children will be promoted.

ARTICLE II. Definitions

As used in this compact:

(a) "Child" means a person who, by reason of minority, is legally subject to parental, guardianship or similar control.

(b) "Sending agency" means a party state, officer or employee thereof; a subdivision of a party state, or officer or employee thereof; a court of a party state; a person, corporation, association, charitable agency or other entity which sends, brings, or causes to be sent or brought any child to another party state.

(c) "Receiving state" means the state to which a child is sent, brought, or caused to be sent or brought, whether by public authorities or private persons or agencies, and whether for placement with state or local public authorities or for placement with private agencies or persons.

(d) "Placement" means the arrangement for the care of a child in a family free or boarding home or in a child-caring agency or institution but does not include any institution caring for the mentally ill, mentally defective or epileptic or any institution primarily educational in character, and any hospital or other medical facility.

ARTICLE III. Conditions for Placement

(a) No sending agency shall send, bring, or cause to be sent or brought into any other party state any child for placement in foster care or as a preliminary to a possible adoption unless the sending agency shall comply with each and every requirement set forth in this article and with the applicable laws of the receiving state governing the placement of children therein.

(b) Prior to sending, bringing, or causing any child to be sent or brought into a receiving state for placement in foster care or as a preliminary to a possible adoption, the sending agency shall furnish the appropriate public authorities in the receiving state written notice of the intention to send, bring, or place the child in the receiving state. The notice shall contain:

- (1) The name, date and place of birth of the child.
- (2) The identity and address or addresses of the parents or legal guardian.
- (3) The name and address of the person, agency or institution to or with which the sending agency proposes to send, bring, or place the child.
- (4) A full statement of the reasons for such proposed action and evidence of the authority pursuant to which the placement is proposed to be made.

(c) Any public officer or agency in a receiving state which is in receipt of a notice pursuant to paragraph (b) of this article may request of the sending agency, or any other appropriate officer or agency of or in the sending agency's state, and shall be entitled to receive therefrom, such supporting or additional information as it may deem necessary under the circumstances to carry out the purpose and policy of this compact.

(d) The child shall not be sent, brought, or caused to be sent or brought into the receiving state until the appropriate public authorities in the receiving state shall notify the sending agency, in writing, to the effect that the proposed placement does not appear to be contrary to the interests of the child.

ARTICLE IV. Penalty for Illegal Placement

The sending, bringing, or causing to be sent or brought into any receiving state of a child in violation of the terms of this compact shall constitute a violation of the laws respecting the placement of children of both the state in which the sending agency is located or from which it sends or brings the child and of the receiving state. Such violation may be punished or subjected to penalty in either jurisdiction in accordance with its laws. In addition to liability for any such punishment or penalty, any such violation shall constitute full and sufficient grounds for the suspension or revocation of any license, permit, or other legal authorization held by the sending agency which empowers or allows it to place, or care for children.

ARTICLE V. Retention of Jurisdiction

(a) The sending agency shall retain jurisdiction over the child sufficient to determine all matters in relation to the custody, supervision, care, treatment and disposition of the child which it would have had if the child had remained in the sending agency's state, until the child is adopted, reaches majority, becomes self-supporting or is discharged with the concurrence of the appropriate authority in the receiving state. Such jurisdiction shall also include the power to effect or cause the return of the child or its transfer to another location and custody pursuant to law. The sending agency shall continue to have financial responsibility for support and maintenance of the child during the period of the placement. Nothing contained herein shall defeat a claim of jurisdiction by a receiving state sufficient to deal with an act of delinquency or crime committed therein.

(b) When the sending agency is a public agency, it may enter into an agreement with an authorized public or private agency in the receiving state providing for the performance of one or more services in respect of such case by the latter as agent for the sending agency.

(c) Nothing in this compact shall be construed to prevent a private charitable agency authorized to place children in the receiving state from performing services or acting as agent in that state for a private charitable agency of the sending state; nor to prevent the agency in the receiving state from discharging financial responsibility for the support and maintenance of a child who has been placed on behalf of the sending agency without relieving the responsibility set forth in paragraph (a) hereof.

ARTICLE VI. Institutional Care of Delinquent Children

A child adjudicated delinquent may be placed in an institution in another party jurisdiction pursuant to this compact but no such placement shall be made unless the child is given a court hearing on notice to the parent or guardian with opportunity to be heard, prior to his being sent to such other party jurisdiction for institutional care and the court finds that:

1. Equivalent facilities for the child are not available in the sending agency's jurisdiction; and
2. Institutional care in the other jurisdiction is in the best interest of the child and will not produce undue hardship.

ARTICLE VII. Compact Administrator

The executive head of each jurisdiction party to this compact shall designate an officer who shall be general coordinator of activities under this compact in his jurisdiction and who, acting jointly with like officers of other party jurisdictions, shall have power to promulgate rules and regulations to carry out more effectively the terms and provisions of this compact.

ARTICLE VIII. Limitations

This compact shall not apply to:

- (a) The sending or bringing of a child into a receiving state by his parent, stepparent, grandparent, adult brother or sister, adult uncle or aunt, or his guardian and leaving the child with any such relative or nonagency guardian in the receiving state.
- (b) Any placement, sending or bringing of a child into a receiving state pursuant to any other interstate compact to which both the state from which the child is sent or brought and the receiving state are party, or to any other agreement between said states which has the force of law.

ARTICLE IX. Enactment and Withdrawal

This compact shall be open to joinder by any state, territory or possession of the United States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, and, with the consent of Congress, the Government of Canada or any province thereof. It shall become effective with respect to any such jurisdiction when such jurisdiction has enacted the same into law. Withdrawal from this compact shall be by the enactment of a statute repealing the same, but shall not take effect until two years after the effective date of such statute and until written notice of the withdrawal has been given by the withdrawing state to the Governor of each other party jurisdiction. Withdrawal of a party state shall not affect the rights, duties and obligations under this compact of any sending agency therein with respect to a placement made prior to the effective date of withdrawal.

ARTICLE X. Construction and Severability

The provisions of this compact shall be liberally construed to effectuate the purposes thereof. The provisions of this compact shall be severable and if any phrase, clause, sentence or provision of this compact is declared to be contrary to the constitution of any party state or of the United States or the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this compact and the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance shall not be affected thereby. If this compact shall be held contrary to the constitution of any state party thereto, the compact shall remain in full force and effect as to the remaining states and in full force and effect as to the state affected as to all severable matters.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-317.

409.402 Financial responsibility for child.—

Financial responsibility for any child placed pursuant to the provisions of the Interstate Compact on the Placement of Children shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Article V thereof in the first instance. However, in the event of partial or complete default of performance thereunder, the provisions of state laws fixing responsibility for the support of children also may be invoked.

History.—s. 2, ch. 74-317.

409.403 Definitions; Interstate Compact on the Placement of Children.—

(1) The "appropriate public authorities" as used in Article III of the Interstate Compact on the Placement of Children shall, with reference to this state, mean the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services, and said department shall receive and act with reference to notices required by said Article III.

(2) As used in paragraph (a) of Article V of the Interstate Compact on the Placement of Children, the phrase "appropriate authority in the receiving state" with reference to this state shall mean the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services.

(3) As used in Article VII of the Interstate Compact on the Placement of Children, the term "executive head" means the Governor. The Governor is hereby authorized to appoint a compact administrator in accordance with the terms of said Article VII.

History.—ss. 3, 4, 8, ch. 74-317; s. 288, ch. 77-147.

409.404 Agreements between party state officers and agencies.—

(1) The officers and agencies of this state and its subdivisions having authority to place children are hereby empowered to enter into agreements with appropriate officers or agencies of or in other party states pursuant to paragraph (b) of Article V of the Interstate Compact on the Placement of Children, s. 409.401. Any such agreement which contains a financial commitment or imposes a financial obligation on this state or subdivision or agency thereof shall not be binding unless it has the approval in writing of the secretary of Health and Rehabilitative Services in the case of the state.

(2) Any requirements for visitation, inspection, or supervision of children, homes, institutions, or other agencies in another party state which may apply under the provisions of chapters 63 and 409 shall be deemed to be met if performed pursuant to an agreement entered into by appropriate agencies of this state or a subdivision thereof as contemplated by paragraph (b) of Article V of the Interstate Compact on the Placement of Children, s. 409.401.

History.—ss. 5, 6, ch. 74-317.

409.405 Court placement of delinquent children.—

Any court having jurisdiction to place delinquent children may place such a child in an institution in another state pursuant to Article VI of the Interstate Compact on the Placement of Children, s. 409.401, and shall retain jurisdiction as provided in Article V thereof.

History.—s. 7, ch. 74-317.

409.501 Short title.—Sections 409.501-409.505 shall be known and may be cited as the "Florida Financial Assistance for Community Services Act of 1974."

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-166.

409.502 Legislative intent.—

(1) The Legislature finds and declares that great numbers of Florida citizens are denied adequate opportunities to become self-sufficient because local communities, given the scope and magnitude of community problems, do not possess the ability to generate enough revenue to carry out effective programs designed to develop human resources. The Legislature also recognizes local governments as vital partners in the effort to help all citizens achieve self-fulfillment and that local government must be capable of meeting the needs of its community.

(2) It is the purpose of ss. 409.501-409.505 to facilitate and assist local governing authorities in the development, establishment, and administration of community service programs to meet the unmet needs of their citizens in essential and necessary human resource development programs and activities.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-166.

409.503 Definitions.—As used in ss. 409.501-409.505, except where the context clearly indicates a different meaning:

(1) "Department" means the Department of Community Affairs.

(2) "Local governing authority" means the governing body of a county or municipality.

(3) "Private corporation not for profit" means any Florida corporation in compliance with part I of chapter 617.

(4) "Program for community services" means a program developed and approved by a local governing authority, either independently or in combination with other local governing authorities or a private corporation not for profit, to provide community services in the area of human resource development with respect to programs which serve individuals who are either recipients or potential recipients of public assistance.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-166; s. 1, ch. 78-384.

409.504 Community Service Trust Fund; creation and distribution.—

(1) The Community Service Trust Fund is hereby created. All revenue designated for deposit in such fund shall be deposited by the appropriate agency. Any funds deposited therein not needed for distribution may be invested pursuant to s. 215.49, with the interest earned to be deposited in the trust fund.

(2) On or before August 1 of each year, a local governing authority, either independently or in combination with other local governing authorities, the governing bodies of federally recognized Indian tribes, or a private corporation not for profit whose program plan has been approved by a local governing authority, may apply to the department for financial assistance to implement any program of community services for the fiscal year beginning on October 1 and ending the following September 30. The department is authorized to issue special instructions and make such rules as are necessary to carry out the intent of ss. 409.501-409.505.

(3) Funds distributed pursuant to ss. 409.501-409.505 for any program shall be matched by an equal amount of funds contributed by the applicant. One-half of the applicant's contribution must be cash. Trust funds shall be distributed in equal quarterly payments in advance.

(4)(a) Distribution shall be based on population. The amount available for distribution within each county shall be determined by dividing the total amount estimated to be available by the total population and multiplying the per capita figure derived therefrom by the total population of the county.

(b) If the applications from any county, whether submitted by one or more local governing authorities or by private corporations not for profit, exceed the amount available for distribution within that county, the department shall empanel a committee from that county consisting of one representative from each applying unit and adjust the total amount applied for to the total amount available based upon the recommendations of the committee. The department shall establish a voting formula and procedures for the committee.

(c) If funds remain available after all applications have been processed, the department may invite local units to apply for special assistance for demonstration and research programs.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-166; s. 2, ch. 78-384; s. 1, ch. 79-62.

409.505 Accountability for funds; penalty for misuse.—

(1) The applicants, or combination thereof, shall be responsible for setting up proper budgeting, accounting, and other fiscal management procedures.

(2) The department shall make an annual report to the governor and legislature on or before January 1 of each year on financial assistance for community services programs, including priorities and goals established by local governments, a description of funded programs, and the amount of funds distributed.

(3) An elector of any unit receiving funds hereunder may file a petition, including a statement of facts, with the department alleging misuse of funds pursuant to ss. 409.501-409.505. Upon determining that the petition is not frivolous and has merit, the department shall conduct a local hearing in order to determine if the allegation is true and if disqualification and repayment is warranted.

(4) Any local governing authority using funds provided hereunder for any program or purpose other than that authorized herein shall repay such amount plus a 10 percent penalty and shall be deemed to have waived the privilege of receiving funds under ss. 409.501-409.505 for the year or years in question.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-166.

409.506 Programs for which fund use authorized.—Any funds appropriated to the Department of Community Affairs to establish the Community Trust Fund are to be used to fund presently established, or to be established, local human services programs, including programs which serve senior citizens, youth, the unemployed, the medically indigent, expectant mothers, infants, children needing day care, the handicapped, and other needy persons, and for necessary costs of administering this program, as set forth in ss. 409.501-409.506 and current general and special laws pertaining to such expenditures. In the event that federal funds are forthcoming and to the extent that they are available for the same purpose, they shall be used instead of or to replace general revenue appropriations. However, not more than 15 percent of the total stated matching dollars may be used for administrative salaries or other administrative costs.

History.—s. 2, ch. 74-166; s. 2, ch. 79-62.

409.60 Emergency disaster relief.—

(1) The department shall, by October 1, 1978, adopt rules for the administration of emergency disaster assistance programs delegated to the department either by executive order in accordance with the Disaster Relief Act of 1974 or pursuant to the Food Stamp Act of 1977.

(2) In promulgating the rules required in this section, the department shall give particular consideration to the prevention of fraud in emergency assistance programs. Such rules shall, at a minimum, provide for:

(a) Verification of an applicant's identity and address.

(b) Determination of an applicant's need for assistance and verification of an applicant's need in accordance with appropriate federal law and regulations.

(c) The timely and adequate dissemination of accurate certification information to local disaster assistance offices.

(3) In administering emergency food stamp and assistance programs, the department shall cooperate fully with the United States Government and with other departments, instrumentalities, and agencies of this state.

History.—s. 12, ch. 78-433.

409.601 Legislative intent.—The Legislature recognizes that certain persons who assault, batter, or otherwise abuse their spouses and the persons subject to such abuse are in need of treatment and rehabilitation. It is the intent of the Legislature to assist in the development of spouse abuse centers for the victims of spouse abuse and to provide a place where the parties involved may be separated until they can be properly assisted.

History.—s. 1, ch. 78-281.

409.602 Definitions.—As used in this act:

(1) "Spouse abuse" means any assault, battery, or other physical abuse by a person upon his or her spouse.

(2) "Department" means the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services.

(3) "Spouse abuse center" means a facility which provides services to victims of spouse abuse and which has been certified by the department to receive state funds.

(4) "Spouse" means a person to whom another person is married.

(5) "Victim" means any individual suffering assault, battery, or other physical abuse inflicted by his or her spouse, and any dependent of such individual, including a child.

History.—s. 2, ch. 78-281; s. 2, ch. 79-402.

409.603 Duties and functions of the department.—

(1) It shall be the duty of the department:

(a) To establish health, safety and minimum program requirement standards for certifying spouse abuse centers to receive state funds.

(b) To receive applications for state funding of spouse abuse centers.

(c) To approve or reject each application within 60 days of receipt of the application.

(d) To distribute funds to a certified center within 45 days after approval.

(e) To evaluate annually each spouse abuse center for compliance with the minimum standards. The department shall have the right to enter and inspect the premises of spouse abuse centers at any reasonable hour in order to effectively evaluate the state of compliance of such centers with the provisions of this section and rules in force pursuant thereto.

(2) The department shall prescribe by rule the procedures by which subsection (1) shall be implemented. Without using designated center funds, the department may:

(a) Formulate and conduct a research and evaluation program on spouse abuse and cooperate with and assist and participate in programs of other properly qualified agencies, including any agency of the Federal Government, schools of medicine, hospitals, and clinics, in planning and conducting research on the prevention, care, treatment, and rehabilitation of persons engaged in or subject to spouse abuse.

(b) Serve as a clearinghouse for information relating to spouse abuse.

(c) Carry on educational programs on spouse abuse for the benefit of the general public, persons engaged in or subject to spouse abuse, professional persons, or others who care for or may be engaged in the care and treatment of persons engaged in or subject to spouse abuse.

(d) Enlist the assistance of public and voluntary health, education, welfare, and rehabilitation agencies in a concerted effort to prevent spouse abuse and to treat persons engaged in or subject to spouse abuse.

History.—s. 3, ch. 78-281; s. 3, ch. 79-402.

409.604 Report to the Legislature.—On or before January 1 of each year the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services shall furnish to the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives a report on the status of spouse abuse in Florida, which shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

(1) Incidence of spouse abuse in this state.

(2) Identification of the areas of the state where spouse abuse is of significant proportions, indicating the number of cases officially reported as well as an assessment of the degree of unreported cases of spouse abuse.

(3) Identification and description of the types of programs in the state that assist victims of spouse abuse or persons abusing spouses, including information on funding for the programs.

(4) The number of persons treated by or assisted by local spouse abuse programs receiving funding through the department.

(5) A statement on the effectiveness of such programs in preventing future spouse abuse.

(6) An inventory and evaluation of existing prevention programs.

(7) A listing of potential prevention efforts identified by the department; the estimated annual cost of providing such prevention services, both for a single client and for the anticipated target population as a whole; identification of potential funding sources; and the projected benefits of providing such services.

History.—s. 4, ch. 78-281.

409.605 Spouse abuse centers.—

(1) In order to be certified and funded under this act, each center shall:

(a) Provide a facility which will serve as a center to receive and house persons who are spouse abuse victims;

(b) Receive the periodic written endorsement of local law enforcement agencies; and

(c) Receive 25 percent of its funding from one or more local, municipal, or county sources, public or private. Contributions in kind, whether materials, commodities, transportation, office space, other types of facilities, or personal services, may be evaluated and counted as part of the required local funding.

(d) Provide minimum services which shall include, but not be limited to, information and referral services, counseling services, temporary emergency shelter for more than 24 hours, and educational services for community awareness relative to the incidence of spouse abuse, the prevention of such abuse, and the care, treatment, and rehabilitation for persons engaged in or subject to spouse abuse.

(2) Spouse abuse centers may be established throughout the state as private, local, state, or federal funds are available. Any local agency or organization may apply to participate in certification and state funding.

(3) The spouse abuse centers shall establish procedures pursuant to which persons subject to spouse abuse may seek services from these centers on a voluntary basis.

(4) Each spouse abuse center shall have a board composed of at least three citizens, one of whom shall be a member of a local, municipal, or county law enforcement agency.

(5) No individual center shall receive an amount over $50,000 from the department annually.

History.—s. 5, ch. 78-281; s. 4, ch. 79-402.

409.606 Information confidential.—Information received by the department or by authorized persons employed by or volunteering services to a center, through files, reports, inspection, or otherwise, shall be deemed confidential information and shall not be disclosed publicly in such a manner as to identify individuals or facilities. This information is exempt from the provisions of s. 119.07.

History.—s. 6, ch. 78-281; s. 5, ch. 79-402.

409.607 Referral to centers.—Where centers are available, any law enforcement officer who investigates an alleged incident of spouse abuse may advise the person subject to the abuse of the availability of a spouse abuse center from which he or she may receive services.

History.—s. 7, ch. 78-281; s. 6, ch. 79-402.

410.011 Administration of federal aging programs.—The Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services shall be the designated state agency to handle all programs of the Federal Government relating to the aging, by virtue of funds appropriated through the Older Americans Act of 1965 and subsequent amendments, requiring actions within the state which are not the specific responsibility of another state agency under the provisions of federal or state law. Authority is hereby conferred on the department to accept and use any funds in accordance with established state budgetary procedures which might become available pursuant to the purposes set out herein.

History.—s. 1, ch. 70-255; s. 115, ch. 71-355; s. 286, ch. 77-147; s. 18, ch. 78-433.

Note.—Former s. 409.360.

410.016 Elderly population; department responsibilities.—

(1) LEGISLATIVE INTENT.—The elderly population of this state plays a major role in the growth and dynamic processes of the state, and therefore it is a policy of this state to advise, assist, and protect the elderly citizens of this state to the fullest extent possible.

(2) DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND REHABILITATIVE SERVICES.—The department shall:

(a) Coordinate plans, policies, and activities of governmental and nongovernmental agencies with regard to the aged.

(b) Create public awareness and understanding of the needs and potentials of older persons.

(c) Encourage state and local agencies, universities, and other appropriate agencies to conduct needed research in the field of aging. When such research cannot be done by established state agencies, it shall be carried out by the department.

(d) Appraise the availability, adequacy, and accessibility of all services and facilities for older persons within the state.

(e) Study policies affecting older persons of all state and county departments and agencies responsible for providing services for older persons, including, but not limited to, the agencies with primary responsibility for public health, social welfare, education, housing, employment, recreation, and retirement, and report the results and recommendations based on such study to the Governor and the Legislature. The executive heads of all such departments and agencies shall cooperate with the department in providing information as the department deems necessary for the effective discharge of its duties under this section. However, no provision of law with respect to confidentiality of information shall be violated.

(f) Stimulate, guide, and provide technical assistance in the organization of local or regional committees on aging and in the planning and conduct of services, activities, and projects.

(g) Stimulate training for workers in services to the aged.

(h) Promote the development of services to assist middle-aged and older persons to develop skills, attitudes, and interests to prepare themselves for their later years.

(i) Maintain contacts with local, state, and federal officials and agencies concerned with planning for middle-aged and older persons.

(j) Cooperate with national groups on aging and arrange for participation by representatives of the state in White House conferences and other national conferences from time to time.

(k) Promulgate rules and regulations for the implementation of this section.

(l) Recommend legislative and administrative action on behalf of the aged; review legislation pertaining to older persons and appropriations made for services in their behalf in such fields as health, social welfare, education, employment, and recreation; consider and present revisions and additions needed and submit an annual report with recommendations to the Governor and to the Legislature regarding such legislation.

(m) Engage in such other administrative activities as may be deemed necessary for the elderly population of this state.

Note.—Former s. 409.362.

410.021 Short title.—Sections 410.021-410.027 shall be known, and may be cited, as "The Community Care for the Elderly Act."

History.—s. 1, ch. 73-343; s. 1, ch. 76-51; s. 18, ch. 78-433; s. 104, ch. 79-164.
Note.—Former s. 409.3621.

410.022 Legislative intent.—The purpose of this act is to find acceptable and cost-effective ways to assist functionally impaired and other elderly persons to continue to live dignified and reasonably independent lives in their own homes or in the homes of relatives or caretakers through the development, expansion, reorganization, and coordination of various community-based service programs. The Legislature intends that the home-delivered service program, the multi-service senior center program, or the family placement program be established in at least three districts, on a trial basis, in order that such programs may be demonstrated, studied, and evaluated. This shall be done to determine the feasibility of such programs as a means of satisfying the needs of Florida's elderly population with respect to community-delivered services while conserving scarce state resources. In addition, an evaluation shall be made of the cost-effectiveness of such programs, as well as the ability of such programs to diminish:

(1) The rate of inappropriate entry and placement of functionally impaired elderly persons in institutions; and

(2) The utilization of noninstitutional services and facilities.

History.—s. 2, ch. 73-343; s. 1, ch. 76-51; s. 146, ch. 77-104; s. 18, ch. 78-433.
Note.—Former s. 409.3622.

410.023 Definitions.—For the purposes of this act, the following words and phrases shall have the following meanings:

(1) "Elderly person" means any person who is 60 years of age or older.

(2) "Functionally impaired person" means any person who is unable to perform the normal tasks of daily living. More specifically, a functionally impaired person is any person who is housebound and living in the community who requires help from others in order to cope with the normal demands of daily living.

(3) "Health maintenance service" means that routine health service necessary to help a confined elderly person maintain an appropriate level of personal health. This service shall be provided by qualified health service personnel who are acting within the scope of their professional or occupational licenses.

(4) "Homemaking and chore service" means that routine household service necessary to help a functionally impaired elderly person meet the normal demands of daily living. This service may include light housekeeping and laundering, meal preparation, personal and food shopping, check cashing and bill paying, friendly visiting, minor household repairs, and yard chores.

(5) "Mobile meal service" means the provision of hot or cold nourishing meals delivered on a regular schedule to a functionally impaired elderly person. This service shall include a system for determining nutritional needs of participants.

(6) "Counseling service" means the provision of information and advice by persons of professional or paraprofessional competence to enable an elderly client to make decisions on such personal matters as income, health, housing, transportation, and family, personal, and social relationships.

(7) "Client" means any person enrolled and participating in a community-care program who is receiving one or more of the available services.

(8) "Department" means the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services.

(9) "Multi-service senior center program" means a program with strong outreach capabilities which provides elderly persons with medical, social, supportive, and rehabilitative services in a centralized and comprehensive manner.

(10) "District" means a service district of the department.

(11) "Local governmental unit" means a county, a district school board, a municipality, or a metropolitan or consolidated government.

(12) "Relative" means an individual who is 18 years of age or more and is connected by affinity or consanguinity to the client as father, mother, son, daughter, brother, sister, uncle, aunt, first cousin, nephew, niece, husband, wife, father-in-law, mother-in-law, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, brother-in-law, sister-in-law, stepfather, stepmother, stepson, stepdaughter, stepbrother, stepsister, half-brother, or half-sister.

(13) "Caretaker" means a relative of the client, a person unrelated to the client, or the client himself, who provides a client with the type and level of care intended by this act.

(14) "Family placement program" means an alternative to institutional placement in which a caretaker provides a home for an elderly person and assists him to the extent necessary for him to participate in normal activities and meet the demands of daily living.

History.—s. 3, ch. 73-343; s. 1, ch. 76-51; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 18, ch. 78-433.
Note.—Former s. 409.3623.

410.024 Community care for the elderly programs; powers and duties of the department.—

(1) The department shall conduct, or cause to be conducted, a combination demonstration project and evaluation study to determine the desirability of establishing a home-delivered service program, a multi-service senior center program, or a family placement program throughout the state. In carrying out the project, the department shall establish, or cause to be established, programs in at least three districts.

(2) All existing community resources available to the elderly client shall be utilized to support program objectives. Additional services may be incorporated into a program as appropriate and to the extent that resources are available. The department is authorized to accept gifts and grants in order to carry out a program.

(3) The use of volunteers shall be maximized to provide a range of personal services for the client. The department shall assure appropriate coverage to protect volunteers from personal liability while acting within the scope of their volunteer assignments under a program.

(4) The department may contract for the provision of any portion or all of the services required by a program. Such purchase of service contracts shall be utilized whenever the requirements of subsection 20.19(13) exist.

(5) Entities contracting with the department to conduct demonstration projects under this act shall provide a minimum of 25 percent of the funding necessary for the support of project operations. Contributions in kind, whether materials, commodities, transportation, office space, other types of facilities, or personal services, may be evaluated and counted as part or all of this required local funding.

(6) When possible, services shall be obtained under:

(a) The Florida Comprehensive Annual Services Program Plan under Title XX of the Social Security Act;

(b) The Florida Plan for Medical Assistance under Title XIX of the Social Security Act;

(c) The State Plan on Aging under Titles III and VII of the Older Americans Act, or

(d) The Florida Financial Assistance for Community Services Act of 1974.

(7) If the department determines that it is necessary to help pay for services received from community care programs, a client shall contribute an amount of money or service of a specified value. The amount of money or service to be contributed shall be fixed according to a rate schedule established by the department or entity developing the program. This rate schedule shall consider expenses and resources of the client and overall ability of the client to pay for the services.

(8) The department shall submit on January 1 of each year an evaluation report to the Speaker of the House of Representatives and to the President of the Senate summarizing the progress of the project. The report shall include the information and data necessary for an accurate analysis of the costs and benefits associated with the establishment and operation of the programs that were established.

History.—s. 4, ch. 73-343; s. 1, ch. 76-51; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 18, ch. 78-433.
Note.—Former s. 409.3624.

410.025 Home-delivered service program.—A home-delivered service program, for the purposes of this act, shall include the following basic services:

- (1) Health maintenance service;
- (2) Homemaking and chore service; and
- (3) Mobile meal service.

Additional services, such as transportation service, legal service, counseling service, and telephone reassurance service may be incorporated into the program as appropriate and to the extent that resources are available. Services may be furnished by public agencies or private organizations, but in each district the total program of services shall be coordinated by means of a single, centralized management unit which is established, staffed, and equipped for such purpose.

History.—s. 2, ch. 76-51; s. 18, ch. 78-433.
Note.—Former s. 409.3628.

410.026 Multi-service senior center program.—

- (1) A multi-service senior center program, primarily geared to enable an elderly person to live independently outside of an institution by providing a coordinated program of services, shall include:

- (a) Health maintenance service.
- (b) Homemaking and chore service.
- (c) Mobile meal service.
- (d) Counseling service.
- (e) Telephone reassurance service.
- (f) Information and referral service.

Additional services, such as transportation service, legal service, and employment service, may be incorporated into the program as appropriate and to the extent that resources are available.

(2) When feasible, such services shall be available on an emergency basis, 24 hours a day.

(3) When feasible, a multi-service senior center shall be centrally located and easily accessible to public transportation. Provision may be made for transporting persons to the center. A center shall be designed to provide ease of access and use, considering the infirmities of frail and handicapped elderly persons.

(4) Services may be furnished by public agencies or private organizations, but the total program of providing service within, and outside of, the center shall be coordinated by means of a single, centralized management unit which operates within the center and is established, staffed, and equipped for such purpose.

(5) As part of a multi-service senior center program, nursing home or hospital day care for the elderly services may be offered for mentally or physically impaired or frail individuals who are 60 years of age or older and who have a regular place of domicile or who do not require 24-hour-a-day care in a hospital, nursing home, or other health care institution, but who may, in the absence of day care for the elderly services, require admission to an acute or long-term health care facility.

(a) Each day care for the elderly service established pursuant to this subsection shall:

1. Provide a protective physical environment for elderly persons.
2. Make available to all day care participants at least one meal on each day of operation.
3. Provide facilities to enable day care participants to obtain needed rest while attending the program and provide social activities designed to stimulate interest and rekindle motivation.
4. Provide socialization in large and small groups.

(b) Participants in day care for the elderly services in a hospital as licensed under chapter 395 or nursing home as licensed under part I of chapter 400 shall not be counted as part of the hospital's or nursing home's general patient population in determining requirements for licensure.

History.—ss. 2, 3, ch. 76-51; s. 18, ch. 78-433.
Note.—Former s. 409.3629.

410.027 Family placement program.—

(1) When it is determined by the department to be more cost-effective and in the best interest of an elderly person to maintain such person in the home of a caretaker in order to avoid unnecessary institutionalization, such elderly person may enroll in the family placement program.

(2) The caretaker of a person enrolled in the family placement program shall be reimbursed according to a rate schedule set by the department.

(3) While participation in the family placement program will provide the elderly person with adequate assistance to meet the normal demands of daily living, clients may also be enrolled in a home-delivered service program or a multi-service senior center program.

History.—s. 2, ch. 76-51; s. 18, ch. 78-433.
Note.—Former s. 409.3630.

410.031 Legislative intent.—It is the intent of the Legislature to encourage the provision of care for the elderly in family-type living arrangements in private homes as an alternative to institutional or nursing home care for such persons. The provisions of ss. 410.031-410.036 are intended to be supplemental to the provisions of chapter 400, relating to the licensing and regulation of nursing homes and adult congregate living facilities, and shall not operate to exempt any person who is otherwise subject to regulation under the provisions of said chapter.

History.—s. 13, ch. 77-336; s. 18, ch. 78-433; s. 105, ch. 79-164.
Note.—Former s. 409.3644.

410.032 Definitions.—As used in ss. 410.031-410.036:

(1) "Elderly person" means any person 65 years of age or over who is currently a resident of this state and has resided in this state for no less than 1 year.

(2) "Home care for the elderly" means a full-time family-type living arrangement, in a private home, under which a person or group of persons provides, on a nonprofit basis, basic services of maintenance and supervision, and any necessary specialized services as may be needed, for three or fewer elderly relatives or nonrelatives.

(3) "Department" means the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services.

History.—s. 14, ch. 77-336; s. 18, ch. 78-433; s. 106, ch. 79-164.
Note.—Former s. 409.3645.

410.033 Home care for the elderly; rules.—The department shall by rule establish minimum standards and procedures for the provision of home care for the elderly, and for the approval of persons wishing to provide such care. Any person who is approved by the department to provide such care for an elderly person shall be eligible for the subsidy payments described in s. 410.035.

History.—s. 15, ch. 77-336; s. 18, ch. 78-433; s. 107, ch. 79-164.
Note.—Former s. 409.3646.

410.034 Department determination of unfitness to provide home care; judicial review.—In accordance with the provisions of s. 400.402, a person caring for an adult who is related to such person by blood or marriage shall not be subject to the provisions of the Adult Congregate Living Facilities Act. If, however, the home care to be provided by such person under this act is found by the department to be unfit, the person wishing to provide home care shall be notified by the department of such unfitness, and the person shall not be eligible for subsidy payments under ss. 410.031-410.036. A person wishing to provide care under ss. 410.031-410.036, but whose home has been found unfit by the department, may petition the circuit court having jurisdiction over the home found unfit, and the court shall resolve the question of fitness.

History.—s. 16, ch. 77-336; s. 18, ch. 78-433; s. 168, ch. 79-400.
Note.—Former s. 409.3647.

410.035 Subsidy payments.—

(1) The department shall establish by rule by January 1, 1978, a schedule of subsidy payments to be made to persons providing home care for certain eligible elderly persons. Payments shall be no less than 10 percent of the prevailing rate paid by the department for the lowest level of nursing home care under s. 409.266, and no greater than 45 percent of said amount. Payments shall be based on the financial status of the person receiving care. Payments shall include, but not be limited to:

(a) A support and maintenance element, to include costs of housing, food, clothing, and incidentals.

(b) Payments for medical, pharmaceutical, and dental services essential to maintain the health of the elderly person and not covered by medicare, medicaid, or any form of insurance.

(c) When necessary, special supplements to provide for any service and specialized care required to maintain the health and well-being of the elderly person.

(2) The department shall develop a plan for the implementation of a program of uniform subsidy payments to persons providing home care for the elderly.

History.—ss. 17, 19, ch. 77-336; s. 18, ch. 78-433.
Note.—Former s. 409.3648.

410.036 Eligibility for services.—Criteria for determining eligibility for this program shall be the same as criteria used to determine eligibility for assistance under Title XVI of the Social Security Act, as the same exists on July 1, 1977, or shall be the same as financial criteria used to determine eligibility for nursing home care under s. 409.266.

History.—s. 18, ch. 77-336; s. 18, ch. 78-433.
Note.—Former s. 409.3649.

410.10 Short title.—Sections 410.10-410.11 shall be known and may be cited as the "Adult Protective Services Act."

History.—s. 1, ch. 77-336; s. 18, ch. 78-433; s. 108, ch. 79-164.
Note.—Former s. 409.3631.

410.101 Legislative intent.—The Legislature recognizes that there are many adults in this state who, because of the infirmities of aging, are in need of protective services. Such services should allow the individual the same rights as other citizens, and at the same time protect the individual from exploitation, neglect, abuse, and maltreatment. It is the intent of the Legislature to provide for the detection and correction of exploitation, neglect, abuse, and maltreatment, and to establish a program of protective and supportive services for all adults in need of them. In doing so, the Legislature intends to place the least possible restriction on personal liberty and the exercise of constitutional rights, consistent with due process and protection from abuse, exploitation, and maltreatment. Nothing in this act shall be construed to mean a person is abused, neglected, or in need of emergency or protective services for the sole reason he is being furnished or relies upon treatment by spiritual means through prayer alone in accordance with the tenets and practices of a recognized church or religious denomination; nor shall anything in this act be construed to authorize, permit, or require any medical care or treatment in contravention of the stated or implied objection of such person.

History.—s. 2, ch. 77-336; s. 18, ch. 78-433.
Note.—Former s. 409.3632.

410.102 Definitions.—As used in ss. 410.10-410.11:

(1) "Infirmities of aging" means organic brain damage, advanced age, or other physical, mental, or emotional disfunctioning in connection therewith, to the extent that the person is substantially impaired in his ability adequately to provide for his own care or protection.

(2) "Protective services" means those services the objective of which is to protect individuals suffering from the infirmities of aging. Such protective services shall include, but shall not be limited to, evaluation of the need for services, arrangements for appropriate living quarters, obtaining financial benefits to which the person is entitled, or securing medical and legal services. In those situations where exploitation, prevention of injury, and protection of the person and his property are at issue, protective services shall include seeking the appointment of a guardian for the person or seeking protective placement.

(3) "Abuse" or "maltreatment" means treatment under which an individual suffering from the infirmities of aging is deprived, or allowed to be deprived, of food, clothing, shelter or medical treatment essential to his well-being, or is permitted to live in an environment, when such deprivation or environment causes, or is likely to cause, the adult's physical or emotional health to be significantly impaired.

(4) "Exploitation" means an unjust or improper use of another person for one's own profit or advantage.

(5) "Department" means the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services.

(6) "Emergency services" means the court ordered removal of an individual suffering from the infirmities of aging from his present surroundings. Emergency services may be received involuntarily if the person entitled to the services will incur a substantial risk of life-threatening physical harm or deterioration if the services are not provided. Such emergency services may not be provided by the department for more than 48 hours.

(7) "Neglect" means to omit, forbear, or fail to exercise a degree of care and caution that a prudent person would deem essential to insure the well-being of an individual suffering from the infirmities of aging and, by such omission, forbearance, or failure, significantly impair or jeopardize the physical or emotional health of the individual suffering from the infirmities of aging.

History.—s. 3, ch. 77-336; s. 18, ch. 78-433; s. 109, ch. 79-164.
Note.—Former s. 409.3633.

410.103 Protective services.—

(1) CONDITIONS FOR PROVIDING SERVICES.—The department shall provide protective services in response to complaints concerning, and requests for assistance from or on behalf of, individuals suffering from the infirmities of aging. The department shall provide such services under any of the following conditions:

(a) The person demonstrates a need for, and requests, such services.

(b) An interested person requests such services on behalf of a person in need of services.

(c) The department determines a person is in need of such services.

(d) A court orders such services.

(2) VOLUNTARY SERVICES.—An individual shall receive protective services voluntarily unless ordered by the court, requested by a guardian, or provided in accordance with s. 410.104.

History.—s. 4, ch. 77-336; s. 18, ch. 78-433; s. 110, ch. 79-164.
Note.—Former s. 409.3634.

410.104 Emergency services.—

(1) Upon probable cause to believe that an individual suffering from the infirmities of aging is being abused, maltreated, or neglected, a representative of the department, accompanied by a law enforcement officer, may enter a premises, after obtaining a court order and announcing their authority and purpose. Forcible entry shall be attained only after a court order has been obtained, unless there is probable cause to believe that the delay incident to obtaining such an order would cause an individual suffering from the infirmities of aging to incur a substantial risk of life-threatening physical harm.

(2) When, from the personal observation of a representative of the department and a law enforcement officer, it appears probable that an individual suffering from the infirmities of aging is likely to incur a substantial risk of life-threatening physical harm or deterioration if not immediately removed from the premises, the department's representative may, when authorized by court order, take into custody and transport, or make arrangements for the transportation of, the individual to an appropriate medical or protective services facility.

(3) When action is taken under this section, a preliminary hearing shall be held within 48 hours, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays, to establish probable cause for grounds for protective placement.

(4) Upon a finding of probable cause, the court may order temporary placement for up to 4 days, pending the hearing for a need for continuing services.

(5) When emergency services are rendered, a report of the exact circumstances, including the time, place, date, factual basis for the need for such services, and the exact services rendered, shall be made and forwarded as provided for in s. 827.09.

History.—s. 5, ch. 77-336; s. 18, ch. 78-433.
Note.—Former s. 409.3635.

410.105 Confidentiality.—Any records of the department or other agency pertaining to a person who is protected under ss. 410.10-410.11 or for whom application has ever been made for such protection are not open to public inspection. Information contained in such records may not be disclosed publicly in such a manner as to identify individuals, but the records shall be available, on application and for cause, to persons approved by the court.

History.—s. 6, ch. 77-336; s. 18, ch. 78-433; s. 169, ch. 79-400.
Note.—Former s. 409.3636.

410.106 Reports of abuse.—Any person, including, but not limited to, any social worker, physician, psychologist, nurse, teacher, or employee of a private or public facility serving adults, who has a reason to believe an individual suffering from the infirmities of aging has been subjected to abuse, maltreatment, or exploitation shall report, or cause reports to be made, to the department in accordance with s. 827.09.

History.—s. 7, ch. 77-336; s. 18, ch. 78-433.
Note.—Former s. 409.3637.

410.107 Rules to be promulgated.—The Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services shall set forth by rule, if it deems necessary, the procedures by which protective services, emergency services, and temporary protective placement, as provided in ss. 410.10-410.11, shall be implemented.

History.—s. 8, ch. 77-336; s. 18, ch. 78-433; s. 170, ch. 79-400.
Note.—Former s. 409.3638.

410.108 Cooperation with law enforcement and other agencies.—

(1) All state, county, and municipal law enforcement agencies shall cooperate with the department and its employees in carrying out the provisions of ss. 410.10-410.11.

(2) Any funds appropriated by counties for home health care or boarding home, foster home, or nursing home services may be matched by state and federal funds; such funds shall be utilized by the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services for the benefit of individuals suffering from the infirmities of aging in said counties.

(3) The Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services may purchase services from any public or private institution or agency within the state which meets the standards and rules for the proper care and supervision of abused adults prescribed by the department.

History.—s. 9, ch. 77-336; s. 18, ch. 78-433; s. 171, ch. 79-400.
Note.—Former s. 409.3639.

410.109 Immunity.—Anyone participating in the making of a report or performing duties under ss. 410.10-410.11 or participating in a judicial proceeding resulting therefrom shall be presumed prima facie to be acting in good faith and in so doing shall be immune from any liability, civil or criminal, that otherwise might be incurred or imposed. Further, no resident or employee of a facility serving disabled persons shall be subjected to reprisal or discharge because of his actions in reporting abuse pursuant to the requirements of this section.

History.—s. 11, ch. 77-336; s. 18, ch. 78-433; s. 172, ch. 79-400.
Note.—Former s. 409.3641.

410.11 Penalties.—

(1) Any person who knowingly or willfully abuses, neglects, exploits, or maltreats an individual suffering from the infirmities of aging and, in so doing, causes great bodily harm, permanent disfigurement, or permanent disability to such person is guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(2) Any person who knowingly or willfully abuses, neglects, exploits, or maltreats an individual suffering from the infirmities of aging and, in so doing, causes minor injury, temporary disfigurement, or temporary disability to such person is guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 12, ch. 77-336; s. 18, ch. 78-433.
Note.—Former s. 409.3642.

410.30 Displaced homemakers; multi-service programs for.—

(1) INTENT.—It is the intent of the Legislature to require the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services to establish and implement multipurpose service programs to provide necessary training, counseling, and services for displaced homemakers so that they may enjoy the independence and economic security vital to a productive life.

(2) DEFINITIONS.—For the purposes of this act:

(a) "Displaced homemaker" means an individual who:

1. Is 35 years of age or older;
2. Has worked in the home, providing unpaid household services for family members;
3. Is not gainfully employed;
4. Has had, or would have, difficulty in securing employment; and
5. Has been dependent on the income of another family member but is no longer supported by such income, or has been dependent on Federal assistance.

(b) "Department" means the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services.

(3) DEPARTMENT POWERS AND DUTIES.—

(a) The department shall establish, or contract for the establishment of, programs for displaced homemakers which shall include:

1. Job counseling, by professionals and peers, specifically designed for a person entering the job market after a number of years as a homemaker.
2. Job training and placement services, including:

a. Training programs for available jobs in the public and private sectors, taking into account the skills and job experiences of a homemaker and developed by working with public and private employers.

b. Assistance in locating available employment for displaced homemakers, some of whom could be employed in existing job training and placement programs.

c. Utilization of the services of the state employment service, which shall cooperate with the department in locating employment opportunities.

3. A well-person health clinic serving the needs of older women and staffed to the greatest extent possible by displaced homemakers.

4. Financial management services providing information and assistance with respect to insurance, including, but not limited to, life, health, home, and automobile insurance, and taxes, estate and probate problems, mortgages, loans, and other related financial matters.

5. Educational services, including high school equivalency degree and such other courses as the department determines would be of interest and benefit to displaced homemakers.

6. Outreach and information services with respect to Federal employment, education, health, and unemployment assistance programs which the department determines would be of interest and benefit to displaced homemakers.

7. Research for the creation of new jobs making maximum use of talents from housework experience. Such jobs may include, but shall not be limited to, lay advocacy, home health technician and health care counseling, marital dissolution counselor, widow-to-widow counselor, aging programs specialist, craft exchange coordinator, money management specialist, and widower-to-widower counselor.

(b) The department may enter into contracts with, and make grants to, public and nonprofit private entities for purposes of establishing multipurpose service programs under this act.

(c) The department shall consult and cooperate with the Commissioner of Education, the U.S. Commissioner of the Social Security Administration, the Aging and Adult Services Program Office, and such other persons in the executive branch of the state government as the department considers appropriate to facilitate the coordination of multipurpose service programs established under this act with existing programs of a similar nature.

(d) Supervisory, technical, and administrative positions relating to programs established under this act shall, to the maximum extent practicable, be filled by displaced homemakers.

(e) The department shall:

1. Through coordination with the Commissioner of Education, conduct a study to determine the feasibility of, and appropriate procedures for, allowing displaced homemakers to participate in:

a. Programs established under the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act of 1973 (29 U.S.C. ss. 801 et seq.).

b. Work incentive programs established under s. 432(b)(1) of the Social Security Act.

c. Related Federal and state employment, education, and health assistance programs.

2. Through coordination with the Commissioner of Education, conduct a study to determine the feasibility of, and appropriate procedures for, allowing displaced homemakers to participate in programs established or benefits provided under:

a. The Federal-State Expanded Unemployment Compensation Act of 1970, Pub. L. No. 91-373, 87 Stat. 708.

b. Title II of the Emergency Jobs and Unemployment Assistance Act of 1974, Pub. L. No. 93-567, 88 Stat. 1850.

c. The Emergency Unemployment Compensation Act of 1974, Pub. L. No. 93-572, 88 Stat. 1869.

d. Related Federal and state unemployment assistance programs.

(f) The department may, in carrying out the provisions of this act, accept, use, and dispose of contributions of money, services, and property.

(g) The department may apply for, and accept, any funds, grants, gifts, or services made available to it by any agency or department of the Federal Government, or any private agency or individual, which funds shall be used to carry out the total program of this act.

(1) The internal organizational structure of the Division of Blind Services shall be designed for the purpose of insuring the greatest possible efficiency and effectiveness of services to the blind and to be consistent with chapter 20. The Division of Blind

Services shall plan, supervise, and carry out the following activities:

(a) Recommend personnel as may be necessary to carry out the purposes of this section.

(b) Cause to be compiled and maintained a complete register of the blind in the state, which shall describe the condition, cause of blindness, and capacity for education and industrial training, with such other facts as may seem to the division to be of value.

(c) Inquire into the cause of blindness, inaugurate preventive measures, and provide for the examination and treatment of the blind, or those threatened with blindness, for the benefit of such persons, and shall pay therefor, including necessary incidental expenses.

(d) Aid the blind in finding employment, teach them trades and occupations within their capacities, assist them in disposing of products made by them in home industries, assist them in obtaining funds for establishing enterprises where federal funds reimburse the state, and do such things as will contribute to the efficiency of self-support of the blind.

(e) Establish one or more training schools and workshops for the employment of suitable blind persons; make expenditures of funds for such purposes; receive moneys from sales of commodities involved in such activities and from such funds make payments of wages, repairs, insurance premiums and replacements of equipment. All of the activities provided for in this section may be carried on in cooperation with private workshops for the blind, except that all tools and equipment furnished by the division shall remain the property of the state.

(f) Provide special services and benefits for the blind for developing their social life through community activities and recreational facilities.

(g) Undertake such other activities as may ameliorate the condition of blind citizens of this state.

(h) Cooperate with other agencies, public or private, especially the Division of the Blind and Physically Handicapped of the Library of Congress and the Division of Library Services of the Department of State, to provide library service to the blind and other handicapped persons as defined in federal law and regulations in carrying out any or all of the provisions of this law.

(i) Recommend contracts and agreements with federal, state, county, municipal and private corporations, and individuals.

(j) Receive moneys or properties by gift or bequest from any person, firm, corporation, or organization for any of the purposes herein set out, but without authority to bind the state to any expenditure or policy except such as may be specifically authorized by law. All such moneys or properties so received by gift or bequest as herein authorized may be disbursed and expended by the division upon its own warrant for any of the purposes herein set forth, and such moneys or properties shall not constitute or be considered a part of any legislative appropriation made by the state for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this law.

(k) Prepare and make available to the blind, in braille and on electronic recording equipment, Florida Statutes chapters 20, 120, 121, and 413, in their entirety.

(2) There is hereby created in the Department of Education the Advisory Council for the Blind. The council shall be advisory to the Director of the Division of Blind Services and shall consist of five members appointed by the Commissioner of Education and approved by the State Board of Education. At least one person shall be, by preference, a blind person. Appointment shall be for terms of 4 years, except that the initial appointments shall be as follows: Two members for 4 years; one member for 3 years; one member for 2 years; and one member for 1 year. No person or persons in the employ of the state shall be eligible for membership on the council. Each member of the council shall have been a citizen and elector of this state for not less than 5 years immediately preceding the date of his appointment. Members shall receive no compensation for their services, but shall be reimbursed for traveling expenses as provided in s. 112.061 and for fees for the issuance of their commissions.

Note.—Former s. 409.26.

cf.—s. 17.26 Cancellation of state warrants.

413.012 Confidential records disclosure prohibited; exemptions.—

(1) All records furnished to the Division of Blind Services in connection with state or local vocational rehabilitation programs and containing information as to personal facts given or made available to the state or local vocational rehabilitation agency or its representatives or employees in the course of the administration of the program, including lists of names and addresses and records of agency evaluation, shall be held to be confidential.

(2) It is unlawful for any person to disclose, authorize the disclosure, solicit, receive, or make use of any list of names and addresses or any record containing any information set forth in subsection (1) and maintained in the division. The prohibition provided for in this subsection shall not apply to the use of such information for purposes directly connected with the administration of the vocational rehabilitation program or with the monthly dispatch to the Division of Driver Licenses of the Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles of the name in full, place and date of birth, sex, social security number, and resident address of individuals with central visual acuity 20/200 or less in the better eye with correcting glasses, or a disqualifying field defect in which the peripheral field has contracted to such an extent that the widest diameter or visual field subtends an angular distance no greater than 20 degrees.

(3) Any person who violates a provision of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 1, ch. 65-507; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 71-41; s. 356, ch. 71-136; s. 289, ch. 77-147; s. 3, ch. 77-259; s. 173, ch. 79-400.

413.013 Destruction of records.—The Division of Blind Services may authorize the destruction of any correspondence, documents, or other records when the subject matter involved has been closed or terminated and their preservation is not required by federal or state law, rule, or regulation. No such material shall be destroyed unless specific authority is given by the division and unless said records have been in the possession of the division 5 or more years prior to their destruction.

413.021 Products and services by blind persons; sale, exhibition regulated.—

(1) When appearing in the Florida Statutes "blind person" shall mean an individual having central visual acuity 20/200 or less in the better eye with correcting glasses, or a disqualifying field defect in which the peripheral field has contracted to such an extent that the widest diameter or visual field subtends an angular distance no greater than 20 degrees.

(2) For the purposes of the Florida Statutes no representation shall be made that a product or service is "blind-made" unless the manufacturer employs blind persons to an extent constituting not less than 75 percent of the total hours worked by personnel engaged in the direct labor of production of manufactured blind-made products, or services. Direct labor production shall mean all work required for the preparation, processing and packing but not including supervision, administration, inspection and shipping, or the production of the materials from which the finished product is manufactured.

(3) No person or organization shall sell, distribute, or exhibit any product or service which purports or is advertised to be "blind-made," unless the Division of Blind Services shall certify that such product or service complies with the provisions of subsection (2).

(4) Any person, including the officers, owners, or members of any corporation or organization that violates the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

Note.—Former ss. 413.09, 409.261.

413.031 Products, purchase by state agencies and institutions.—

(1) DEFINITIONS.—When used in this section:

(a) "Accredited nonprofit workshop" means a Florida workshop which has been certified by either the Division of Blind Services, for workshops concerned with blind persons, or the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services, when other handicapped persons are concerned, and such "workshop" means a place where any article is manufactured or handwork is carried on and which is operated for the primary purpose of providing employment to severely handicapped individuals, including the blind, who cannot be readily absorbed in the competitive labor market.

(b) "Handicapped" means an individual so severely disabled physically, or mentally, as to be unable to enter private industry on a competitive basis, but who can be made employable through an accredited nonprofit-making agency for the handicapped, and which individual is over the age of 16 years.

(2) State institutions and agencies shall, where possible, purchase brooms, mops, rugs, rubber mats and other supplies (other than the products of prison labor) from sheltered Florida workshops operated by accredited nonprofit corporations, provided that such goods and supplies are of standard quality and price.

(3) When convenience or emergency requires it, the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services may upon request of the purchasing officer of any institution or agency relieve him from the obligation of this section.

(4) No state agency or institution shall purchase products or supplies purporting to be made by physically-handicapped persons in workshops not certified under the provisions of this section.

(5) Any purchasing officer who violates the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 1, ch. 29663, 1955; s. 2, ch. 61-210; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 358, ch. 71-136; s. 6, ch. 77-259; s. 9, ch. 79-12; s. 175, ch. 79-400.

Note.—Former s. 409.262.

413.032 Purpose.—The purpose of this act is to further the policy of the state to encourage and assist blind and other severely handicapped individuals to achieve maximum personal independence through useful, productive, and gainful employment by assuring an expanded and constant market for their products and services, thereby enhancing their dignity and capacity for self-support and minimizing their dependence on welfare and need for costly institutionalization.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-236; s. 4, ch. 78-323.

Note.—Repealed by s. 4, ch. 78-323, effective October 1, 1981, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this section prior to that date.

413.033 Definitions.—As used in ss. 413.032-413.038:

(1) "Blind" means an individual having central visual acuity of 20/200 or less in the better eye with correcting glasses or a disqualifying field defect in which the peripheral field has contracted to such an extent that the widest diameter or visual field subtends an angular distance no greater than 20 degrees.

(2) "Other severely handicapped" and "severely handicapped individuals" mean an individual or class of individuals under a physical or mental disability other than blindness, which, according to criteria established by the council created in s. 413.034, after consultation with appropriate entities of the state and taking into account the views of nongovernment entities representing the handicapped, constitutes a substantial handicap to employment and is of such a nature as to prevent the individual under such disability from currently engaging in normal competitive employment.

(3) "Qualified nonprofit agency for the blind" means an agency:

(a) Organized under the laws of the United States or of this state, operated in the interest of blind individuals, the net income of which does not inure in whole or in part to the benefit of any shareholder or other individual;

(b) Which complies with any applicable occupational health and safety standard prescribed by the Secretary of Labor of the United States;

(c) Which, in the production of commodities and the provision of services, whether or not the commodities or services are procured under ss. 413.032-413.038, during the fiscal year employs blind individuals for not less than 75 percent of the man-hours of direct labor required for the production or provision of the commodities or services; and

(d) Which meets the criteria for determining nonprofit status under the provisions of s. 196.195 and is registered and in good standing as a charitable organization with the Department of State under the provisions of part I of chapter 496.

(4) "Qualified nonprofit agency for other severely handicapped" means an agency:

(a) Organized under the laws of the United States or of this state, operated in the interest of severely handicapped individuals who are not blind, the net income of which does not inure in whole or in part to the benefit of any shareholder or other individual;

(b) Which complies with any applicable occupational health and safety standard prescribed by the Secretary of Labor of the United States;

(c) Which, in the production of commodities and in the provision of services, whether or not the commodities or services are procured under ss. 413.032-413.038, during the fiscal year employs blind or other severely handicapped individuals for not less than 75 percent of the man-hours of direct labor required for the production or provision of the commodities or services; and

(d) Which meets the criteria for determining nonprofit status under the provisions of s. 196.195, and is registered and in good standing as a charitable organization with the Department of State under the provisions of part I of chapter 496.

(5) "Direct labor" includes all work required for preparation, processing, and packing, but not supervision, administration, inspection, and shipping.

(6) "Agency" includes any political subdivision of the state having its own purchasing agency, such as a county, municipality, school district, or other public body, that is supported in whole or in part by funds appropriated by the legislature.

History.—s. 2, ch. 74-236; s. 4, ch. 78-323.

Note.—Repealed by s. 4, ch. 78-323, effective October 1, 1981, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this section prior to that date.

413.034 Council established; membership.—

(1) There is created within the Department of General Services a council to be known as the Council for the Purchase of Products and Services of the Blind or Other Severely Handicapped, to be composed of the Executive Director of the Department of General Services; the Secretary of the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services; the Director of the Division of Blind Services of the Department of Education; the Director of Prison Industries of the Department of Offender Rehabilitation; and three members to be appointed by the Governor, which three members shall be an executive director of a nonprofit agency for the blind, an executive director of a nonprofit agency for other severely handicapped, and a representative of private enterprise. The appointive members shall serve as follows: Two members shall serve for terms of 4 years, and one member shall serve for a term of 2 years; thereafter, all appointive members shall serve for terms of 4 years.

(2) The members of the council shall elect one of their members to serve as chairman. Any member may designate a representative of his agency or department to represent him at any meeting of the council.

(3) Members of the council shall not be entitled to compensation for their services as members, but shall be reimbursed for traveling expenses as provided in s. 112.061.

History.—s. 3, ch. 74-236; s. 1, ch. 76-264; s. 7, ch. 77-259; s. 4, ch. 78-323.
Note.—Repealed by s. 4, ch. 78-323, effective October 1, 1981, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this section prior to that date.

413.035 Duties and powers of the council.

(1) It shall be the duty of the council to determine the market price of all products and services offered for sale to the various agencies of the state by any qualified nonprofit agency for the blind or other severely handicapped. The price shall recover for the nonprofit agency the cost of raw materials, labor, overhead, and delivery cost, but without profit, and shall be revised from time to time in accordance with changing cost factors. The council shall make such rules and regulations regarding specifications, time of delivery, assignment of products and services to be supplied by nonprofit agencies for the blind or by agencies for the other severely handicapped, with priority for assignment of products to agencies for the blind, authorization of a central nonprofit agency to facilitate the allocation of orders among qualified nonprofit agencies for the blind, authorization of a central nonprofit agency to facilitate the allocation of orders among qualified nonprofit agencies for other severely handicapped, and other relevant matters of procedure as shall be necessary to carry out the purposes of this act. The council shall authorize the purchase of products and services elsewhere when requisitions cannot reasonably be complied with through the nonprofit agencies for the blind and other severely handicapped.

(2) The council shall establish and publish a list of products and services provided by any qualified nonprofit agency for the blind and any nonprofit agency for the other severely handicapped, which the council determines are suitable for procurement by agencies of the state pursuant to this act. This procurement list and revision thereof shall be distributed to all purchasing officers of the state and its political subdivisions.

History.—s. 4, ch. 74-236; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 4, ch. 78-323.
Note.—Repealed by s. 4, ch. 78-323, effective October 1, 1981, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this section prior to that date.

413.036 Procurement of services by state agencies; authority of council.—If any agency intends to procure any product or service on the procurement list, that agency shall, in accordance with rules and regulations of the council, procure such product or service at the price established by the council from a qualified nonprofit agency for the blind or for the other severely handicapped if the product or service is available within a reasonable delivery time. This act shall not apply in any case in which products or services are available for procurement from any agency of the state and procurement therefrom is required under the provision of any law currently in effect.

History.—s. 5, ch. 74-236; s. 4, ch. 78-323.
Note.—Repealed by s. 4, ch. 78-323, effective October 1, 1981, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this section prior to that date.

413.037 Cooperation with council required; duties of state agencies.

(1) In furtherance of the purposes of this act and in order to contribute to the economy of state government, it is the intent of the Legislature that there be close cooperation between the council and any agency of the state from which procurement of products or services is required under the provision of any law currently in effect. The council and any such agency of the state are authorized to enter into such contractual agreements, cooperative working relationships, or other arrangements as may be determined to be necessary for effective coordination and efficient realization of the objectives of this act and any other law requiring procurement of products or services from any agency of the state.

(2) The council may secure directly from any agency of the state information necessary to enable it to carry out this act. Upon request of the chairman of the council, the head of the agency shall furnish such information to the council.

(3) Space shall be set aside in the state capitol for the purpose of exhibiting products produced by clients of rehabilitation-oriented agencies of the state.

History.—ss. 6, 8, ch. 74-236; s. 4, ch. 78-323.
Note.—Repealed by s. 4, ch. 78-323, effective October 1, 1981, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this section prior to that date.

413.041 Eligible blind persons; placement in vending facilities in public places.—For the purpose of assisting blind persons to become self-supporting, the Division of Blind Services is hereby authorized to carry on activities to promote the employment of eligible blind persons, including the licensing and establishment of such persons as operators of vending facilities on public property. The said division may cooperate with any agency of the Federal Government in the furtherance of the provisions of the Act of Congress entitled "An Act to authorize the operation of stands in federal buildings by blind persons, to enlarge the economic opportunities of the blind and for other purposes," Pub. L. No. 732, 74th Congress, and the said division may cooperate in the furtherance of the provisions of any other act of Congress providing for the rehabilitation of the blind that may now be in effect or may hereafter be enacted by Congress.

History.—s. 1, ch. 22681, 1945; ss. 21, 34, ch. 26937, 1951; s. 2, ch. 61-210; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 292, ch. 77-147; s. 8, ch. 77-259.
Note.—Former s. 409.271.

413.051 Eligible blind persons; operation of vending stands.—

(1) This section shall be known as the Little Randolph Sheppard Act.

(2) As used in this section:

(a) "Blind licensee" means any blind person trained and licensed by the Division of Blind Services of the Department of Education to operate a vending stand.

(b) "Vending stand" means any manually operated cafeteria, snack bar, cart service, shelter, counter, or other manually operated facility for the sale of newspapers, periodicals, confections, tobacco products, foods, beverages, or other such articles or services.

(c) "State agency" means any agency of the state.

(d) "State property" means any building or land owned, leased, or otherwise controlled by the state, but does not include any building or land under the control of the Board of Regents or a community college district board of trustees.

(e) "Property custodian" or "person in charge" means any employee, agent, or person who is in control of or responsible for the maintenance, operation, and protection of any state property.

(3) Blind licensees shall be given the first opportunity to participate in the operation of vending stands on all state properties acquired after July 1, 1979, when such facilities are operated under the supervision of the Division of Blind Services of the Department of Education.

(4) The Division of Blind Services shall be responsible for a periodic survey of all state properties and, where feasible, shall establish vending facilities to be operated by blind licensees.

(5) All property custodians and duly authorized agents or employees of the state shall cooperate with the division in its survey of state properties and shall make available adequate space, electrical wiring, plumbing, and ventilation necessary to the installation of a vending facility on any state property designated as suitable by the division.

(6) The division shall be notified by property custodians or persons in charge at least 180 days prior to the initiation of any new construction, expansion, leasing, or acquisition of property occupied or to be occupied by a state agency.

(7) No person or persons shall be offered or granted any concession by any property custodian or person in charge to operate a vending stand on any state property acquired after July 1, 1979, unless the division is notified of that proposed concession.

(8) Income from new vending machines or replacement of existing machines installed on state property after July 1, 1979, shall accrue to the blind licensee who operates a vending facility on the same property or, if none, to the division. The division shall be responsible for the servicing and maintenance of all vending machines.

(9) It is the legislative intent that this section shall not apply or operate, in any way or any manner, to divest any person or organization presently operating a vending stand on state, county, or municipal property from continuing to do so; however, the property custodian or person in charge shall notify the Division of Blind Services at least 180 days prior to the expiration whether such vending facility location is suitable for operation by a blind licensee.

(10) All the preceding provisions are permissive regarding all political subdivisions of the state.

Note.—The word "or" was substituted for "and" by the editors.

Note.—Former s. 409.272.

413.061 Solicitation of funds; prohibition; exceptions.—The solicitation of funds or anything of value, by any means, including the sale of merchandise or any form of entertainment, for the use and benefit of blind persons is prohibited unless prior approval for such solicitation is obtained as prescribed in ss. 413.061-413.068; provided, these sections shall not apply to civic clubs of international affiliation, one of the main objects of which is the conservation of vision and service to the blind.

History.—s. 1, ch. 29989, 1955; s. 2, ch. 61-210; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

Note.—Former s. 409.281.

413.062 Application for permit.—Any person, agency, or organization desiring to solicit funds or anything of value for the benefit of blind persons shall file a written application with the Division of Blind Services. The application shall set forth the time, place, and type of the proposed solicitation; proposed use of the receipts from said solicitation; names and addresses of persons who will be responsible for the proper custody and disposition of receipts; and any other information the division may determine to be necessary.

History.—s. 1, ch. 29989, 1955; s. 2, ch. 61-210; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 294, ch. 77-147; s. 10, ch. 77-259; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

Note.—Former s. 409.282.

413.063 Permit.—The Division of Blind Services shall make a thorough investigation of the applicant and of the facts alleged in his application. If the applicant is found to be responsible and the purposes and method of the proposed solicitation are determined to be in the best interests of blind persons and public welfare, the Division of Blind Services shall issue to the applicant a written permit authorizing him to conduct the proposed solicitation. Such permit shall be limited to a period of 1 year. It shall set forth the specified method, purpose, and organization of the solicitation which is approved and shall list the names of persons responsible for its conduct.

History.—s. 1, ch. 29989, 1955; s. 2, ch. 61-210; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 295, ch. 77-147; s. 11, ch. 77-259; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

Note.—Former s. 409.283.

413.064 Rules and regulations.—The State Board of Education shall adopt all necessary rules and regulations pertaining to the conduct of solicitations for the benefit of blind persons and shall determine the amount of compensation and expense money which may be retained by any person or organization from the proceeds of any solicitation within the meaning of ss. 413.061-413.068.

History.—s. 1, ch. 29989, 1955; s. 3, ch. 61-210; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 296, ch. 77-147; s. 12, ch. 77-259; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

Note.—Former s. 409.284.

413.065 Notice of approval.—Every person who holds a permit under the provisions of ss. 413.061-413.068 shall cause to appear upon every ticket, advertisement, subscription, form, placard, article, or other bit of property used in direct connection with the promotion of such solicitation, and shall post in a conspicuous place near the entrance to any building or structure where any entertainment or sale is held hereunder, a statement that such solicitation activity has been approved by the Division of Blind Services.

History.—s. 1, ch. 29989, 1955; s. 3, ch. 61-210; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 297, ch. 77-147; s. 13, ch. 77-259; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

413.066 Revocation of permit.—Any failure on the part of any person or organization holding a permit under the provisions of ss. 413.061-413.068 to comply with the law or with all rules and regulations promulgated by the Division of Blind Services as authorized by s. 413.064 shall constitute grounds for a revocation of said permit by the Division of Blind Services.

History.—s. 1, ch. 29989, 1955; s. 3, ch. 61-210; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 298, ch. 77-147; s. 14, ch. 77-259; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

Note.—Former s. 409.286.

413.067 Penalty.—Any person who violates the provisions of ss. 413.061-413.068 or any rule or regulation promulgated by the Division of Blind Services pursuant to the authority hereof is guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 1, ch. 29989, 1955; s. 3, ch. 61-210; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 359, ch. 71-136; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 299, ch. 77-147; s. 15, ch. 77-259; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

Note.—Former s. 409.287.

413.068 Legislative intent.—It is the intent of the Legislature that the securing of a permit from the Division of Blind Services shall be a condition precedent to the solicitation of funds for the benefit of the blind in this state, except as otherwise provided in ss. 413.061-413.068, and said sections shall supersede the provisions of any county or city law regulating the solicitation of such funds which do not require such a permit.

History.—s. 1, ch. 29989, 1955; s. 3, ch. 61-210; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 3, ch. 76-168; s. 300, ch. 77-147; s. 16, ch. 77-259; s. 1, ch. 77-457.

Note.—Former s. 409.288.

413.069 Exemptions.—Nothing contained in ss. 413.061-413.068 shall interfere with the activities of the National Federation of the Blind of Florida, the Florida Council of the Blind, the Blinded Veterans Association of Florida, or the Lions Clubs of Florida, provided that such organizations file an annual report with the Department of State showing total receipts and disbursements by subject.

History.—s. 1, ch. 29989, 1955; s. 3, ch. 61-210; ss. 10, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 147, ch. 77-104; s. 17, ch. 77-259; s. 177, ch. 79-400.

Note.—Former s. 409.289.

413.07 Traffic regulations to assist blind persons.—

(1) It is unlawful for any person, unless totally or partially blind or otherwise incapacitated, while on any public street or highway, to carry in a raised or extended position a cane or walking stick which is white in color or white tipped with red.

(2) Whenever a pedestrian is crossing, or attempting to cross, a public street or highway, guided by a dog guide or carrying in a raised or extended position a cane or walking stick which is white in color or white tipped with red, the driver of every vehicle approaching the intersection or place where such pedestrian is attempting to cross shall bring his vehicle to a full stop before arriving at such intersection or place of crossing and, before proceeding, shall take such precautions as may be necessary to avoid injuring such pedestrian.

(3) Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to deprive any totally or partially blind or otherwise incapacitated person not carrying such a cane or walking stick, or not being guided by a dog, of the rights and privileges conferred by law upon pedestrians crossing streets or highways; nor shall the failure of such totally or partially blind or otherwise incapacitated person to carry a cane or walking stick, or to be guided by a dog guide, upon the streets, highways, or sidewalks of this state be held to constitute, or be evidence of, contributory negligence.

(4) Any person who violates any provision of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—ss. 1-4, ch. 25269, 1949; s. 10, ch. 26484, 1951; s. 360, ch. 71-136; s. 18, ch. 77-259.

413.08 Equal accommodations for deaf, blind, and visually handicapped; unlawful to prohibit or interfere with; dog guide allowed to accompany.—

(1)(a) The deaf, blind, and visually handicapped are entitled to full and equal accommodations, advantages, facilities, and privileges on all common carriers, airplanes, motor vehicles, railroad trains, motor buses, streetcars, boats, or any other public conveyances or modes of transportation and at hotels, lodging places, places of public accommodation, amusement or resort, and other places to which the general public is invited, subject only to the conditions and limitations established by law and applicable alike to all persons.

(b) Every deaf person and totally or partially blind person shall have the right to be accompanied by a dog guide, especially trained for the purpose, in any of the places listed in paragraph (a) without being required to pay an extra charge for the dog guide; however, he shall be liable for any damage done to the premises or facilities by such dog.

(2) Any person, firm, or corporation, or the agent of any person, firm, or corporation, who denies, or interferes with, admittance to, or enjoyment of, the public facilities enumerated in subsection (1) or otherwise interferes with the rights of a deaf or totally or partially blind person under this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(3) It is the policy of this state that the deaf, blind, visually handicapped, and otherwise physically disabled shall be employed in the service of the state or political subdivisions of the state, in the public schools, and in all other employment supported in whole or in part by public funds, and no employer shall refuse employment to the deaf, blind, the visually handicapped, or the otherwise physically disabled on the basis of the disability alone, unless it is shown that the particular disability prevents the satisfactory performance of the work involved.

(4) Deaf persons, blind persons, and visually handicapped persons shall be entitled to rent, lease, or purchase, as other members of the general public, all housing accommodations offered for rent, lease, or other compensation in this state, subject to the conditions and limitations established by law and applicable alike to all persons.

(a) "Housing accommodations" means any real property or portion thereof which is used or occupied, or intended, arranged, or designed to be used or occupied, as the home, residence, or sleeping place of one or more human beings, but shall not include any single-family residence the occupants of which rent, lease, or furnish for compensation not more than one room therein.

(b) Nothing in this section shall require any person renting, leasing, or otherwise providing real property for compensation to modify his property in any way or provide a higher degree of care for a deaf person, blind person, or visually handicapped person than for a person who is not so handicapped.

(c) Every deaf person or totally or partially blind person who has a dog guide, or who obtains a dog guide, shall be entitled to full and equal access to all housing accommodations provided for in this section, and he shall not be required to pay extra compensation for such dog guide. However, he shall be liable for any damage done to the premises by such dog guide.

(5) Any employer covered under subsection (3) who discriminates against the deaf, blind, visually handicapped, or otherwise physically disabled in employment, unless it is shown that the particular disability prevents the satisfactory performance of the work involved, or any person, firm, or corporation, or the agent of any person, firm, or corporation, providing housing accommodations as provided in subsection (4) who discriminates against the deaf, blind, visually handicapped, or otherwise physically disabled is guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

413.091 Identification cards.—

(1) The Division of Blind Services of the Department of Education is hereby empowered to issue identification cards to persons known to be blind or partially sighted, upon the written request of such individual.

(2) The individual shall submit proof of blindness as specified by the division.

(3) The division will be responsible for design and content of the identification card and shall develop and promulgate rules, regulations, and procedures relating to the eligibility and application for, and issuance and control of, these identification cards.

History.—ss. 1-3, ch. 71-265; s. 301, ch. 77-147; s. 20, ch. 77-259.

Note.—Former s. 229.28; s. 229.0102.

413.23 Administration.—The Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services shall provide vocational rehabilitation services to disabled individuals determined to be eligible therefor and, in carrying out the purposes of ss. 413.20-413.44, the department is authorized, among other things:

(1) To cooperate with other departments, agencies, and institutions, both public and private, in providing for the vocational rehabilitation of disabled individuals, in studying the problems involved therein, and in establishing, developing, and providing, in conformity with the purposes of ss. 413.20-413.44, such programs, facilities, and services as may be necessary or desirable;

(2) To enter into reciprocal agreements with other states to provide for the vocational rehabilitation of residents of the states concerned;

(3) To conduct research and compile statistics relating to the vocational rehabilitation of disabled individuals.

History.—s. 5, ch. 25364, 1949; s. 13, ch. 65-239; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 117, ch. 71-355; s. 305, ch. 77-147; s. 112, ch. 79-164.

Note.—Former s. 229.29; s. 229.0103.

413.24 Cooperation with Federal Government.—The Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services shall cooperate, pursuant to agreements, with the Federal Government in carrying out the purposes of any federal statutes pertaining to vocational rehabilitation and is authorized to adopt such methods of administration not in conflict with the laws of Florida as are found by the Federal Government to be necessary for the proper and efficient operation of such agreements or plans for vocational rehabilitation and to comply with such conditions as may be necessary to secure the full benefits of such federal statutes.

History.—s. 6, ch. 25364, 1949; s. 13, ch. 65-239; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 306, ch. 77-147.

Note.—Former s. 229.30; s. 229.0104.

413.25 State accepts provisions of Vocational Rehabilitation Act.—The consent of the state is given to the provisions and requirements of the Act of Congress approved by the President June 2, 1920, amended June 5, 1924, entitled "An Act to provide for the promotion of vocational rehabilitation of persons disabled in industry or otherwise and their return to civil employment," and any acts supplementary thereto or amendatory thereof, usually referred to as the Federal Vocational Rehabilitation Act.

History.—s. 1021, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(340); s. 24, ch. 29764, 1955; s. 13, ch. 65-239; s. 3, ch. 69-344.

Note.—Former s. 236.21; s. 229.301; s. 229.0105.

413.26 Cooperative agreements with other governmental agencies relative to joint use of services and facilities.—

(1) The Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services is authorized to enter into cooperative agreements with any state agency or institution, county, county agency or institution, municipality, or municipal agency or institution having legal responsibility for the care of the disabled for the purpose of enabling the department and the cooperating governing bodies, agencies and institutions to utilize jointly their services and facilities to enlarge and improve the opportunities for disabled individuals to achieve self-support or self-care.

(2) For this section to be valid an agreement must be entered into mutually by the governing bodies, agencies, or institutions involved and must be approved by the administrative officers or by the boards governing the counties, municipalities, agencies, or institutions. The agreements shall provide only for those services by each political subdivision, agency or institution which the political subdivision, agency or institution is authorized by law to provide; provided that any political subdivision, agency or institution shall be permitted to withdraw and terminate its part of an agreement at the end of any fiscal year by giving the other political subdivision, agency or institution involved 30 days' notice.

(3) In order to effectuate the provisions of this section, the Executive Office of the Governor is authorized and empowered within its discretion when it finds it to be in the public interest to permit two or more agencies, institutions, or county or city governments, pursuant to their mutual, unanimous request, to pool portions of their funds or to transfer portions of their funds to the account of the department in order to carry out plans for rehabilitation which are lawful and which give promise of better achieving the rehabilitation of disabled persons than would result through the separate efforts of the participants in the agreement. Funds pooled or transferred under this act may be made available for expenditures for rehabilitation by the agency designated in the agreement to disburse such funds. Funds expended pursuant to agreements authorized under this act may be utilized for the purpose of matching funds available under the terms of federal laws pertaining to the rehabilitation of handicapped persons.

(4) A copy of each agreement made pursuant to this act shall be filed with the Department of State within a period of 30 days following the consummation of such agreement.

History.—ss. 1-4, ch. 63-246; s. 13, ch. 65-239; ss. 2, 3, ch. 67-371; ss. 10, 19, 31, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 4, ch. 69-344; s. 307, ch. 77-147; s. 137, ch. 79-190.
Note.—Former s. 229.302; s. 229.0106.

413.27 Cooperative agreements with Florida School for the Deaf and Blind.—

(1) The Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services is authorized to enter into cooperative agreements with the board of trustees of the Florida School for the Deaf and Blind for the purpose of enabling said agencies to utilize jointly their services and facilities to enlarge and improve the opportunities for the deaf and blind individuals to achieve self-support or self-care.

(2)(a) For such an agreement to be valid, it must be entered into mutually by such agencies and must be approved by the administrative officers or by the boards governing same. The agreement may provide for those services which each agency or institution is authorized by law to furnish; provided that such agreement may establish a vocational rehabilitation facility for the deaf at the Florida School for the Deaf and Blind which facility may accept as clients any deaf adult otherwise qualified for admission. Either agency may withdraw and terminate its part of such agreement at the end of any fiscal year by giving the other agency involved 30 days' notice.

(b) The board of trustees of the Florida School for the Deaf and Blind is authorized to use funds now in its budget for matching those of the department, in furtherance of such agreement. Said school may employ such additional personnel as may be necessary to implement such agreement.

(3) In order to effectuate the provisions of this section, the Executive Office of the Governor shall, upon the conclusion of any such agreement, pool portions of the funds of said agencies as indicated in such agreement. Funds pooled or transferred under this section may be made available for expenditures for rehabilitation by the agency designated in the agreement to disburse such funds and may be used to compensate additional personnel employed under subsection (2)(b). Funds expended pursuant to any agreement authorized under this section may be utilized for the purpose of matching funds available under the terms of federal laws pertaining to the rehabilitation of the deaf.

(4) A copy of any such agreement, when and if concluded pursuant hereto, shall be filed with the Department of State within a period of 30 days following the consummation of such agreement.

History.—ss. 1-4, ch. 63-389; s. 13, ch. 65-239; ss. 2, 3, ch. 67-371; ss. 10, 15, 19, 31, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 308, ch. 77-147; s. 138, ch. 79-190.
Note.—Former s. 229.303; s. 229.0107.

413.28 Appropriations of federal funds.—In the event federal funds are available to the state for vocational rehabilitation purposes, the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services is authorized to comply with such requirements as may be necessary to obtain said federal funds in the most advantageous proportions possible insofar as this may be done without violating other provisions of the state law and Constitution. Any federal funds received as reimbursement of state expenditures for a prior year shall be added to the state appropriation for the fiscal year during which such funds are reimbursed and the same shall be made available for expenditure and so expended as to entitle the department to receive any federal matching funds which may be available for vocational rehabilitation pursuant to such expenditures.

Note.—Former s. 229.31; s. 229.0108.

413.29 Gifts.—The Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services is hereby authorized and empowered to accept and use gifts made unconditionally by will or otherwise for carrying out the purposes of ss. 413.20-413.44. Gifts made under such conditions as in the judgment of the department are proper and consistent with the provisions of ss. 413.20-413.44 and the laws of the United States and the laws of Florida may be so accepted and shall be held, invested, reinvested, and used in accordance with the condition of the gift.

History.—s. 8, ch. 25364, 1949; s. 13, ch. 65-239; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 310, ch. 77-147; s. 113, ch. 79-164.

Note.—Former s. 229.32; s. 229.0109.

413.30 Eligibility for vocational rehabilitation.—

(1) Vocational rehabilitation services may be provided to any disabled individual:

(a) Whose vocational rehabilitation, the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services determines after full investigation, can be satisfactorily achieved; or

(b) Who is eligible therefor under the terms of an agreement with another state or with the Federal Government.

(2) Eligibility when used in relation to an individual's qualification for vocational rehabilitation services, refers to a certification that:

(a) A physical or mental disability is present;

(b) A substantial handicap to employment exists; and

(c) Vocational rehabilitation services may reasonably be expected to render the individual fit to engage in a gainful occupation.

History.—s. 9, ch. 25364, 1949; s. 13, ch. 65-239; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 5, ch. 69-344; s. 311, ch. 77-147.

Note.—Former s. 229.33; s. 229.0110.

413.31 Benefits not assignable.—The right of a disabled individual to any of the benefits under ss. 413.20-413.44 shall not be transferable or assignable at law or in equity, and any benefits, including money, goods, or chattels received hereunder shall be exempt from all state, county, and municipal taxes and from sale under the process of any court, except for obligations contracted for the purchase of such property.

History.—s. 10, ch. 25364, 1949; s. 13, ch. 65-239; s. 114, ch. 79-164.

Note.—Former s. 229.34; 229.0111.

413.32 Retention of title to and disposal of equipment.—

(1) The Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services is authorized to retain title to any property, tools, instruments, training supplies, equipment or other items of value acquired for use of handicapped persons or employed personnel in the operation of the vocational rehabilitation program, and to repossess and transfer same for the use of other handicapped persons or employees.

(2) The department is authorized to offer for sale any surplus items acquired in the operation of the program when they are no longer necessary or to exchange them for necessary items which may be used to greater advantage. When any such surplus equipment is sold or exchanged a receipt for same shall be taken from the purchaser showing the consideration given for such equipment and forwarded to the treasurer, and any funds received by the department pursuant to any such transactions shall be deposited in the State Treasury in the appropriate federal or state rehabilitation funds and shall be available for expenditure for any purpose consistent with ss. 413.20-413.44.

History.—s. 11, ch. 25364, 1949; s. 13, ch. 65-239; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 312, ch. 77-147; s. 115, ch. 79-164.

Note.—Former s. 229.35; s. 229.0112.

413.34 Misuse of vocational rehabilitation lists and records.—It shall be unlawful, except for purposes directly connected with the administration of the vocational rehabilitation program, and in accordance with regulations, for any person or persons to solicit, disclose, receive, or make use of, or authorize, knowingly permit, participate in, or acquiesce in the use of any list of, or names of, or any information concerning, persons applying for or receiving vocational rehabilitation, directly or indirectly derived from the records, papers, files, or communications of the state or subdivisions or agencies thereof, or acquired in the course of the performance of official duties. Any violation of this provision is hereby declared to be a misdemeanor and shall be punishable accordingly.

History.—s. 13, ch. 25364, 1949; s. 13, ch. 65-239.

Note.—Former s. 229.37; s. 229.0114.

413.35 Limitation on political activity.—No officer or employee engaged in the administration of the vocational rehabilitation program shall use his official authority or influence to permit the use of the vocational rehabilitation program for the purpose of interfering with an election or affecting the results thereof or for any partisan political purpose. No such officer or employee, excluding elective officials and constitutional officers, shall take any active part in the management of political campaigns or participate in any political activity, except that he shall retain the right to vote as he may please and to express his opinion as a citizen on all subjects. No such officer or employee shall solicit or receive, nor shall any such officer or employee be obliged to contribute or render, any service, assistance, subscription, assessment, or contribution for any political purpose. Any officer or employee violating this provision shall be subject to discharge or suspension. No such officer or employee engaged in the administration of the vocational rehabilitation program, except elective officials and constitutional officers, shall be appointed or promoted as a reward for loyalty and effort in a political campaign or other political activity, nor shall any such officer or employee be demoted or discharged because of political affiliation or lack of same except as a disciplinary measure in instances of violation of the prohibitions against political activity. Any violation of this section is declared to be a misdemeanor and punishable accordingly.

Note.—Former s. 229.38; s. 229.0115.

cf.—s. 104.31 Political activities of state officers and employees.

413.36 Duties of other agencies and officials regarding ss. 413.20-413.44.—It shall be the duty of all officials in charge of state or county agencies whose official duties enable them to know the needs of disabled individuals for vocational rehabilitation to report to the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services the names of such individuals who come to their attention and who appear to be eligible and feasible for vocational rehabilitation services provided under ss. 413.20-413.44. Such officials shall cooperate with the department in carrying out the purpose of ss. 413.20-413.44 insofar as their duties and facilities permit, but the department may not delegate any of its duties and responsibilities under ss. 413.20-413.44 to any other agency or individual except with respect to disabled individuals for each of whom a vocational rehabilitation plan has been approved by the department or by a member of its staff to whom it has delegated authority to approve individual vocational rehabilitation plans. However, nothing in ss. 413.20-413.44 shall be so construed as to prevent other agencies from rendering services to disabled individuals not designed especially for the purpose of vocationally rehabilitating such individuals or services to which disabled individuals might be entitled without regard to their disabilities.

History.—s. 15, ch. 25364, 1949; s. 13, ch. 65-239; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 314, ch. 77-147; s. 116, ch. 79-164.

Note.—Former s. 229.39; s. 229.0116.

413.37 Self-care program for handicapped; legislative findings.—It is hereby found by the Legislature of the state that many seriously disabled persons are institutionalized or require the services of an attendant and that studies and demonstrations have shown that many such persons, although not apparently feasible for vocational rehabilitation services based on a plan designed to prepare for employment in a designated vocation as now required for eligibility for vocational rehabilitation services nevertheless could be substantially assisted toward achieving ability for self-care by the services the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services could render to them and that such persons might be made able to dispense with or greatly reduce the need for services of an attendant or for institutional care, thereby relieving such individuals from being a burden on others and helping to restore and maintain their independence and self-respect; and such persons, after achieving the ability to care for themselves, may later through further rehabilitation services be rendered able to perform remunerated work thereby making them less dependent on others for financial support. The Legislature further finds that the department which serves approximately 20,000 disabled individuals annually, is specially qualified and equipped by over 30 years of rehabilitation experience and by the nature of its comprehensive program of disability evaluation, studies of individual capacity for employment, and vocational rehabilitation services leading to the employment of handicapped persons to administer such a program and that it is in the best interest of the state that such a program be established as a means of providing necessary services to individuals, thereby reducing and discouraging dependency and encouraging individual effort for self-support.

History.—s. 1, ch. 59-385; s. 13, ch. 65-239; s. 315, ch. 77-147.

Note.—Former s. 229.411; s. 229.0121.

413.38 Definitions.—

(1) "Severely handicapped person" is defined to mean a person of employable age with a physical or mental disability so handicapping as to require that he be institutionalized or have the services of an attendant in order to provide himself with his daily living requirements.

(2) "Evaluation services for rehabilitation purposes" means comprehensive, individual case studies including diagnosis, psychological and physical tests of capacity for training and rehabilitation, and such other procedures and observations necessary to determine the nature and extent of a handicap, its effect on employability and ability for self-care, the attitude of the individual toward his handicap and especially his desire to overcome the handicap through training and rehabilitation procedures, the prognosis for improvement and the practical procedures and training necessary to achieve the ability of self-care and for eventual employment.

(3) "Self-care rehabilitation services" means such diagnostic, psychological, medical, surgical, physical restoration, guidance, training and related services including equipment and prosthetic appliances and training in their use needed to enable a severely handicapped person to dispense with or largely dispense with the need for institutional care or for the services of an attendant and to achieve, insofar as practicable, the ability for independent living.

(4) "Severely handicapped person eligible for self-care rehabilitation services" means such person whose rehabilitation for self-care purposes the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services finds to be feasible under the provisions of this law.

History.—s. 2, ch. 59-385; s. 13, ch. 65-239; s. 316, ch. 77-147.

Note.—Former s. 229.42; s. 229.0122.

413.39 Administration; self-care program.—The Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services is hereby authorized, in addition to its other duties and responsibilities, to administer a program of self-care rehabilitation services for severely handicapped persons who appear to be feasible for such services.

History.—s. 3, ch. 59-385; s. 13, ch. 65-239; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 317, ch. 77-147.

Note.—Former s. 229.43; s. 229.0123.

413.40 Powers of department; self-care program.—The Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services in carrying out a program of providing self-care rehabilitation services to severely handicapped persons shall be authorized to:

- (1) Employ necessary personnel;
- (2) Employ consultants;
- (3) Provide diagnostic, medical, and psychological and other evaluation services;
- (4) Provide training necessary for rehabilitation;
- (5) Provide for persons found to require financial assistance with respect thereto maintenance while undergoing rehabilitation, transportation incident to necessary rehabilitation services, physical restoration services, prosthetic appliances and other equipment determined to be necessary for rehabilitation.

(6) Provide rehabilitation facilities necessary for the rehabilitation of the handicapped or contract with such facilities for necessary services. The department shall not, however, assume responsibility for permanent custodial care of any individual and shall provide rehabilitation services only for a period long enough to accomplish the rehabilitation objective or to determine that rehabilitation is not feasible through the services which can be made available to the individual being served.

History.—s. 4, ch. 59-385; s. 13, ch. 65-239; s. 318, ch. 77-147.

Note.—Former s. 229.44; s. 229.0124.

413.41 Cooperation by department with state agencies.—The Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services is hereby authorized to cooperate with other agencies of the state government or with any nonprofit, charitable corporations or foundations concerned with the problems of the disabled. The department may provide disability evaluation, work capacity appraisal and appraisal of vocational rehabilitation potential of handicapped individuals for other public agencies pursuant to agreements made at the request of such agencies. The department may charge the agencies contracting for these services the actual cost thereof.

History.—s. 5, ch. 59-385; s. 13, ch. 65-239; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 319, ch. 77-147.

413.42 Cooperation with federal agencies.

The Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services is hereby authorized to cooperate with any agency of the Federal Government charged with the responsibility for administering laws relating to rehabilitation of handicapped individuals or the evaluation of the capacity of handicapped persons for employment, or for preparation for employment or for self-care. The department shall further be authorized to accept and disburse any funds appropriated by Congress and made available to the state for the purpose of rehabilitating disabled individuals or the evaluation of disabled individuals for rehabilitation or for gainful activity, or for any other purpose related to the lawful vocational rehabilitation program function of the department, and the department is authorized to take such action as may be necessary to execute the purposes of any such federal grants.

History.—s. 6, ch. 59-385; s. 13, ch. 65-239; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 320, ch. 77-147.

413.43 Utilization of state and federal funds.

—The Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services is authorized to utilize for purposes of this law and for matching any federal funds which may be available for similar rehabilitation purposes any funds appropriated or allotted to the department. The department is authorized to accept such gifts and refunds as may be made unconditionally or as are not burdened with conditions inconsistent with the purposes of the rehabilitation program.

History.—s. 8, ch. 59-385; s. 13, ch. 65-239; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 321, ch. 77-147.

Note.—Former s. 229.47; s. 229.0127.

413.44 State Treasury depository.

—The State Treasury shall be the depository of all funds appropriated by the state Legislature or received as federal grants or received as gifts from private individuals for the purposes of this program. Such funds shall be kept in a separate account distinct from all other state funds. Funds received by grant or gift, other than state appropriations, shall not lapse or be converted to the general fund at the end of any appropriations period.

History.—s. 9, ch. 59-385; s. 13, ch. 65-239.

Note.—Former s. 229.48; s. 229.0128.

413.46 Legislative intent.—It is the intent of the Legislature to insure the referral of severely disabled persons to the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services by appropriate individuals or public and private agencies in order that all severely disabled persons might obtain the appropriate rehabilitative services rendered by the department and other state agencies.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-254; s. 148, ch. 77-104.

413.47 Definitions.—As used in ss. 413.46-413.49:

(1) "Department" means the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services.

(2) "Severe disability" means:

(a) Any spinal cord disease or injury resulting in permanent and total disability.

(b) Amputations of extremities that require prosthesis.

(c) Visual acuity of 20/200 or worse in the better eye with the best correction.

(d) A peripheral field so contracted that the widest diameter of such field subtends an angular distance no greater than 20 degrees.

(e) A serious visual limitation in any infant sufficient to warrant special assistance to parents in matters of child-rearing and development.

History.—s. 2, ch. 74-254.

413.48 Establishment and maintenance of a central registry.—The department shall establish and maintain a central registry of severely disabled persons.

(1) Every public and private health and social agency and attending physician shall report to the department within 7 days after identification of any severely disabled person; however, the consent of the individual shall be obtained prior to making this report, except that every spinal cord disease or injury resulting in permanent or total disability shall be reported to the department immediately upon identification.

(2) The report shall contain the name, age, residence, and type of disability of the individual and such additional information as may be deemed necessary by the department.

History.—s. 3, ch. 74-254; s. 1, ch. 75-168.

413.49 Duties and responsibilities of the department.

(1) Within 15 days of the report and identification of a severely disabled person, the department shall notify the most immediate family members of their right to assistance from the state, the services available, and the eligibility requirements.

(2) The department shall refer severely disabled persons to appropriate divisions of the department and other state agencies to assure that rehabilitative services, if desired, are obtained by the severely disabled person.

(3) All other agencies of the state shall cooperate with the department to insure that appropriate rehabilitative services are available.

History.—s. 4, ch. 74-254.

413.50 Purpose.—The purpose of ss. 413.50-413.504 is:

(1) To provide extended employment in rehabilitation workshop facilities for developmentally disabled persons who are over 16 years of age and are, as a result of their disability, unable to enter the competitive labor market.

(2) To encourage the development, improvement, and expansion of rehabilitation workshop facilities for developmentally disabled persons.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-341.

413.501 Definitions; ss. 413.50-413.504.—When used in ss. 413.50-413.504, unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

(1) "Department" means the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services.

(2) "Rehabilitation workshop facility" means a place operated by a nonprofit voluntary agency engaged in the manufacture or production of products which provides gainful rehabilitation to severely handicapped persons until such persons can become employed and provides gainful work to developmentally disabled persons unable to be employed.

(3) "Extended employee" means one who has been employed in a rehabilitation workshop facility in excess of 24 months. This period shall include all developmental services involving, but not limited to, evaluation, personal and work-adjustment training, and subsequent facility employment.

(4) "Extended employment" means meaningful remunerative activity for at least 20 hours per week resulting in earnings of at least $5 per week.

(5) "Developmental disability" means a disability attributable to mental retardation, cerebral palsy, or epilepsy, which disability can reasonably be expected to continue indefinitely and constitutes a substantial handicap to an individual.

(6) "Costs" means operating expenditures of the extended employment portion of the rehabilitation workshop facility less operating income generated by such extended employment activities.

(a) Expenditures approvable in arriving at costs may include, but are not limited to, the cost of:

1. Staff salaries and benefits attributable to extended employment work operations.

2. Rent, either on a ratio of extended employees to total facility client population or on a basis of space used, whichever is higher, or, if the building is owned by the facility, the equivalent of rent, including taxes, interest on mortgage, building maintenance and repair, depreciation of building, etc.

3. Utilities.

4. Equipment, on a depreciation basis.

5. Insurance.

6. Operation and maintenance.

7. The purchase, operation, and maintenance of vehicles used primarily for transporting the developmentally disabled to and from the facility and for transporting subcontract work and supplies.

8. Such indirect items as administration, including supervision of staff, bookkeeping, accounting, and secretarial and clerical services.

9. Other necessary expenditures approved and authorized in advance by the department.

(b) The following expenditures shall not be approvable:

1. Purchase of land.

2. New construction.

3. Acquisition, renovation, alteration, or expansion of existing buildings.

4. Mortgage amortization.

5. Any subsidy in addition to earned wages which is paid to an employee by a facility.

History.—s. 2, ch. 74-341; s. 323, ch. 77-147.

413.502 Department authorized to contract with rehabilitation workshop facility.—

(1) Whenever it appears to the satisfaction of the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services that a developmentally disabled person over the age of 16 years can reasonably be expected to benefit from, or if his best interests reasonably require, extended employment in a rehabilitation workshop facility operated by an approved nonprofit organization, the department is authorized to contract with the organization for the furnishing of extended employment to the developmentally disabled person.

(2) The department shall maintain a register of nonprofit organizations operating rehabilitation workshop facilities which, after inspection of the facilities for extended employment provided by them, the department deems qualified to meet the needs of such developmentally disabled persons. The inspections shall also determine the eligibility of such organizations to receive the funds hereinbefore specified.

History.—s. 3, ch. 74-341; s. 324, ch. 77-147.

413.503 Eligibility and standards of service.—

(1) Persons eligible for support as extended employees are those persons having a developmental disability who are over 16 years of age and are, as a result of their disability, unable to enter the competitive labor market.

(2) The determination of developmental disability shall be made by the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services upon the basis of psychological or medical records on file in the rehabilitation workshop facility that provide suitable and adequate evidence of:

(a) Mental retardation.

(b) Cerebral palsy.

(c) Epilepsy.

(d) Any combination of these disabilities.

The psychological or medical records which determine the condition of developmental disability shall not be more than 2 years old at the time of application by the facility for the support of such person. The department may require reexamination of a person by the facility in order to revalidate developmental disability.

(3) Those persons for whom subsidies are requested by a facility shall receive appropriate rehabilitation or habilitation services such as evaluation, personal and work adjustment training, or other services in order to assist the department in making a determination of the suitability of placement of such persons in extended employment within the facility. The facility shall be responsible for providing adequate information relating to the decision that an appropriate evaluation has been made of the validity of the "extended employee" designation.

(4) Periodic evaluations on at least a semiannual basis shall be conducted by the facility to determine if an extended employee's potential has been increased to the point where outside employment is possible. Professional evaluation services shall be regularly available either from the staff of the facility or on regular schedule from a rehabilitation facility which provides these professional services.

(5) Adequate job-placement services shall be made available by the facility for those extended employees deemed to have attained the potential for competitive employment.

(6) Any person in the facility whose productivity is at or above the level of the statutory minimum wage shall be excluded from support in this program unless there are modifying factors making competitive employment difficult.

(7) The maximum number of developmentally disabled persons in extended employment in any one rehabilitation workshop facility for whom the facility may receive support shall not exceed the maximum number of work stations available at any one full-time shift in the facility. For purposes of this subsection, "full-time" means a minimum of 5 hours of work daily. However, exceptions may be made on an individual basis, and consideration shall be given to medical reports rendered.

History.—s. 4, ch. 74-341; s. 325, ch. 77-147.

413.504 Department to promulgate rules and regulations.—The department is authorized to promulgate such reasonable rules and regulations as it may deem necessary or proper to carry out the provisions of this act. Administration of this act shall be consistent with the state plan for the Federal Developmental Disabilities Services and Facilities Construction Act as developed and implemented by the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services.

History.—s. 5, ch. 74-341; s. 326, ch. 77-147.

PART III

REHABILITATION PROGRAMS—GENERAL

413.601 Legislative intent.

413.602 Definitions.

413.603 Establishment of a plan for a system of treatment for persons with spinal cord injuries.

413.604 Nursing home residents, age 55 and under; annual survey.

413.605 Advisory council on spinal cord injuries.

413.601 Legislative intent.—It is the intent of the Legislature to provide for the development of a coordinated rehabilitation program for those persons severely disabled by spinal cord injuries. Further, it is intended that permanent paralysis be prevented whenever possible through early identification of spinal cord injuries, skilled emergency evaluation procedures, and proper medical and rehabilitative treatment. The goal of this program shall be to enable individuals severely disabled by spinal cord injury to resume the activities of daily living and reintegrate with the community with as much dignity and independence as possible. For those persons who cannot achieve complete independence, supportive services and economic assistance are needed in order for them to live as normally as possible.

History.—s. 15, ch. 76-201.

413.602 Definitions.—As used in this act:

(1) "Department" means the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services.

(2) "Secretary" means the secretary of the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services.

(3) "Emergency medical evacuation system" means a transportation system which provides timely skilled emergency care and movement of persons believed to have suffered spinal cord injuries.

(4) "Intensive trauma care center" means a facility which provides diagnosis and intensive treatment of persons with spinal cord injuries aimed at preventing paralysis.

(5) "Rehabilitation center" means a facility which provides intermediate care and stresses rehabilitation for persons with spinal cord injuries.

(6) "Halfway house" means a facility which provides a temporary, structured residential environment for those individuals with spinal cord injuries in a training or educational program, in order to prepare such individuals to live independently.

History.—s. 16, ch. 76-201.

413.603 Establishment of a plan for a system of treatment for persons with spinal cord injuries.—The department shall develop a plan for the establishment of a multilevel treatment program for persons with spinal cord injuries and present the plan to the secretary for review by March 1, 1977. The plan shall contain at least the following components:

(1) Establishment of an emergency medical evacuation system which shall include the operation and implementation of an emergency transport system in order that persons with spinal cord injuries can be transported to an intensive trauma care center on a timely basis.

(2) Establishment of intensive trauma care centers which will provide as a minimum:

(a) The administration of preventive treatment to persons with spinal cord injuries to prevent paralysis, save lives, and stabilize the person's medical condition so that he can be transferred as soon as possible to a rehabilitation center for further rehabilitation.

(b) The appropriate number of centers to be developed according to need. Each facility shall consist of a special medical unit with appropriate professional personnel and expertise.

(3) Establishment of rehabilitation centers to provide rehabilitation services for persons transferred from the intensive trauma care center and for other persons with spinal cord injuries requiring rehabilitation services. Such centers shall be located according to need and shall be equipped with the appropriate staff component to meet the specialized rehabilitation needs of persons with spinal cord injuries.

(4) Establishment of an appropriate number of halfway houses for individuals who need attendant care, who are in adjustment periods, who require a structured environment, or who are in retraining or educational programs. All residents shall use the halfway house as a temporary measure and not as a permanent home or domicile.

(5) Residents of any of the above-cited facilities shall pay a monthly fee based on ability to pay.

History.—s. 17, ch. 76-201.

413.604 Nursing home residents, age 55 and under; annual survey.—The department shall conduct an annual survey of nursing homes in the state to determine the number of individuals 55 years of age and under who reside in such homes due to a spinal cord injury. All individuals identified in such a survey shall be evaluated as to their rehabilitation potential, and any individual who may benefit from rehabilitation shall be given an opportunity to participate in an appropriate rehabilitation program for which he may be eligible.

History.—s. 18, ch. 76-201.

413.605 Advisory council on spinal cord injuries.—

(1) There is created within the department an advisory council on spinal cord injuries composed of five appropriate professionals, with expertise in areas related to the care and rehabilitation of individuals with spinal cord injuries, and six individuals with spinal cord injuries.

(2) Members of the council shall be appointed by the secretary and shall serve for terms of 4 years, except that five members of the first appointed council shall serve for 2 years.

(3) The council shall meet at least four times annually, and members shall be entitled to per diem and travel expenses in accordance with the provisions of s. 112.061.

(4) The council shall provide advice and expertise to the department in the preparation, implementation, and periodic review of the coordinated rehabilitation program as set forth in this act.

History.—s. 19, ch. 76-201.

- 414.09 Other persons may be appointed to carry law into effect.
- 414.10 Where child may reside.
- 414.11 Required attendance at school.
- 414.12 County commissioners may designate county welfare board to carry law into effect.

414.01 County aid for poor mothers.—The county commissioners of the several counties of the state may provide in the annual budget of the General Revenue Fund an appropriation sufficient to meet the purposes of this law for the support of women of insufficient income, who have dependent upon them for food, raiment, and education, orphans, or half-orphan children under 16 years of age, including any woman whose husband is dead or is an inmate of some state institution, or whose marriage is dissolved, or whose husband has been prosecuted for desertion or nonsupport and has been adjudicated by the court where prosecuted to be wholly unable to support his wife and children, or whose husband is permanently incapacitated for work by reason of any mental or physical infirmity, and any woman who is the mother of a child if her own support and the support of the child depend wholly or partially upon her labor, shall be entitled to the assistance as provided for in this chapter for the support of herself and for her child.

History.—s. 1, ch. 13759, 1929; CGL 1936 Supp. 3727(1); s. 1, ch. 73-300.

414.02 Allowance authorized.—The allowance for the aid of such women shall not exceed $25 a month when she has but one child under 16 years of age. If she has more than one child under the age of 16 years it shall not exceed $25 for the first child, and $8 a month for each of the other children.

History.—s. 2, ch. 13759, 1929; CGL 1936 Supp. 3727(2).

414.03 Condition of allowance.—The county commissioners of their respective counties may levy a tax of not more than 1 mill on all taxable property of their respective counties for the purpose of supplying funds to carry this chapter into effect, and provide means for the same, provided the condition of allowance of said allotment shall be made by the county commissioners after due investigation of each case by and through such agency as the board of county commissioners shall deem advisable, and only upon the following conditions:

(1) The child for whose benefit the allowance is made, must be living with the mother of such child, or other relative within the second degree, or guardian approved by the proper authorities.

(2) The mother must, in the judgment of the county commissioners of such county, which body shall finally pass upon all applications for aid under this chapter, be a proper person morally, physically and mentally fitted for the bringing up of the child, and shall be in actual need of the aid provided by this chapter.

(3) Said allowance shall, in the judgment of the county commissioners, be necessary to save the child from neglect.

(4) No person shall receive the benefit of this chapter who shall not have been a resident of the state for at least 2 years and a resident of the county in which the allowance is given, for at least 1 year next before the making of the application for aid in such county.

History.—s. 3, ch. 13759, 1929; CGL 1936 Supp. 3727(3).

414.04 When allowances shall cease.—Whenever any child shall reach the age of 16 years, or the mother shall remarry, the allowance to the mother or the children shall cease; provided, however, that if it is made to appear to the board of county commissioners, after an investigation, that there exists some special reason that it is for the best interest of any child, as well as for society, to continue said allowance for a longer period of time, such allowance may be continued for such time as the justice of the case may demand. In all cases, however, when the mother remarries all allowances shall cease.

History.—s. 4, ch. 13759, 1929; CGL 1936 Supp. 3727(4).

414.05 Female relative.—The provisions of this chapter shall also be extended for the benefit of orphan children who are dependent on some female relative unable to support them, or to any children under guardianship who are dependents or paupers and have no means of support.

History.—s. 5, ch. 13759, 1929; CGL 1936 Supp. 3727(5).

414.06 How carried into effect.—In order to carry the provisions of this chapter into effect, the board of county commissioners shall have direct supervision of the investigation of all cases and they may, in their discretion, use all county agencies for purposes of such investigation, and shall have the assistance of the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services and the Department of Education, in investigating all persons entitled to the provisions of this chapter in the gathering of data and the history, and making a report on each case, and to this end the necessary blanks will be provided, and the department shall provide uniform blanks to be printed and paid for by the counties to be used in gathering and recording the history of each case.

History.—s. 6, ch. 13759, 1929; CGL 1936 Supp. 3727(6); ss. 15, 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 327, ch. 77-147.

414.07 History of each case.—The history of each case, when investigated by the agency or agencies used by the board of county commissioners, shall be made up in duplicate, the original to be filed with the board of county commissioners of the county, and one copy to be forwarded to and filed with the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services.

History.—s. 7, ch. 13759, 1929; CGL 1936 Supp. 3727(7); ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 328, ch. 77-147.

414.08 How families are to be investigated.—

The board of county commissioners of each county shall require the persons or agencies used for making the required investigation, to carefully and speedily investigate the condition of any and all poor mothers' children, orphan and half-orphan children, whose needs may be brought to their attention, and after having gathered the history of each case and recorded such history upon the blanks as hereinbefore required to be provided, to immediately place such report of such case before the board of county commissioners of such county for immediate action, and the said board of county commissioners shall examine such report and immediately take up such application and grant or reject such application, as the board of county commissioners in their judgment shall find the applicant entitled by this chapter.

History.—s. 8, ch. 13759, 1929; CGL 1936 Supp. 3727(8).

414.09 Other persons may be appointed to carry law into effect.—In making the investigations of cases, as required by this chapter, the board of county commissioners shall use, so far as possible, some employee of the county trained in such work, who shall not receive any additional compensation therefor, or in the absence of such employee the board of county commissioners shall appoint three capable women, residents of such county, who will be willing to accept such appointment and serve without compensation, to investigate and report such case or cases as may be submitted to them of poor mothers, orphans and half-orphan children entitled to the provisions of this chapter, and such persons so appointed shall individually or collectively make their investigation of the case submitted to them as provided for in s. 414.08.

History.—s. 9, ch. 13759, 1929; CGL 1936 Supp. 3727(9).

414.10 Where child may reside.—The child to whom the allowance is made under this chapter must be living with the mother, or other female guardian of such child, unless special privilege of separation is authorized by the board of county commissioners, such separation to be granted where advantageous for the sake of the child's education or general welfare.

History.—s. 10, ch. 13759, 1929; CGL 1936 Supp. 3727(10).

414.11 Required attendance at school.—All children receiving aid under the provisions of this chapter, if of school age and physically and mentally qualified, shall be required to attend the schools of the county during the whole term or terms of such schools, and upon failure of such children to attend schools for the whole term or terms thereof, the aid herein provided for such mothers and children shall cease without notice. No aid shall be paid for those of school age except upon the monthly certificate of the principal or head of the school or schools attended by such children that they have regularly attended the schools during the month in question or have been duly excused by him.

History.—s. 12, ch. 13759, 1929; CGL 1936 Supp. 3727(12).

414.12 County commissioners may designate county welfare board to carry law into effect.—In those counties having county welfare boards, the board of county commissioners may designate such welfare board, and it shall be the duty of such board, to make the investigation of all cases, and to pass upon all applications for aid; to pay the benefits authorized by this chapter; and the board of county commissioners is authorized, from the appropriation and tax levy authorized by this chapter, to disburse same to such welfare board for administration.

History.—s. 1, ch. 22716, 1945.

CHAPTER 416

DETENTION HOMES AND SCHOOLS FOR DELINQUENT CHILDREN

- 416.01 County commissioners authorized to establish; who may be placed in detention homes.
- 416.02 Counties maintaining no detention home.
- 416.03 Circuit Judge may parole.
- 416.04 Literary and industrial training.
- 416.05 Certain counties may unite in maintaining homes; board of trustees; provisos.
- 416.06 County commissioners authorized to acquire land for home; increase millage of taxation; superintendent; other employees.
- 416.07 County board of visitors; term of office.
- 416.08 Duties of board of visitors; compensation.

416.01 County commissioners authorized to establish; who may be placed in detention homes.—In all counties of this state the board of county commissioners may provide and maintain at public expense a detention room, or house of detention, separated or removed from any common jail or lockup, to be in charge of a matron or other person of good moral character, wherein all the delinquent children within the provisions of chapter 39, shall, when necessary, be detained. In all counties maintaining detention homes, no children guilty of minor offenses shall be committed to the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services except it be deemed necessary after a trial term in said detention home. Such terms shall never be longer than 1 year. Children under 12 years of age shall not be committed to the department from any county unless after probation care it is found necessary.

History.—s. 1, ch. 6841, 1915; RGS 2344; CGL 3740; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 329, ch. 77-147.

416.02 Counties maintaining no detention home.—In all counties having a population of less than 10,000 and which do not unite with a city or other county or counties, as hereinafter provided, the children detained under this chapter may be transferred to some county maintaining a detention home and their maintenance shall be paid for from the general funds of the county in which the commitment is made; and commitment to the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services by said last-named counties shall only be made when necessary as above set out.

History.—s. 1, ch. 6841, 1915; RGS 2345; CGL 3741; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 330, ch. 77-147.

416.03 Circuit Judge may parole.—The Circuit Judge exercising juvenile jurisdiction in any county maintaining a detention home may parole on good behavior any children committed to the detention home and return them to their homes on parole to a probation officer whether they be from his own or some other county. But he shall first give notice to, and confer with, the judge who made the commitment.

History.—s. 1, ch. 6841, 1915; RGS 2346; CGL 3742; s. 26, ch. 73-334. cf.—Ch. 39 Proceedings relating to juveniles.

416.04 Literary and industrial training.—In any county which has a city of 10,000 population or over, as given by the last United States Census, a regular literary and industrial school training at the public expense shall be provided for by the board of county commissioners for the benefit of children who are detained in its detention home. In counties having no city of 10,000 or over and which do not unite with a city or other county or counties as hereinafter provided, the children committed shall be transferred as soon as possible after commitment to some county maintaining a literary and industrial school training in its detention home, and their maintenance shall be provided for from the general funds of the county in which the commitment is made.

History.—s. 2, ch. 6841, 1915; RGS 2347; CGL 3743.

416.05 Certain counties may unite in maintaining homes; board of trustees; provisos.—

(1) A county having a population of less than 10,000, or a population of 10,000 or over, but having no city of 10,000, according to the last United States Census, may unite with one, two, or three adjacent counties, or unite with a city within that county, in maintaining a detention home and industrial school.

(2) When the board of county commissioners and the city council, or the boards of county commissioners of the two, three, or four adjacent counties shall agree to unite, the legislative bodies of the several counties or of the city and county so uniting, shall elect a board of trustees for the joint detention home and school, to consist of five or seven members who shall be chosen from the membership of the boards of the counties so uniting, or from the membership of the board of the county and of the city council so uniting in the approximate proportion to the census, children between 6 and 17 years of age in the territories uniting.

(3) The members so appointed shall serve for the remainder of the term of office for which they were elected on their respective boards of commissioners or council, and when vacancies occur on said board of trustees of joint detention homes, they shall be filled by the board or council making the original appointment.

(4) All powers and duties by any section of this chapter conferred or imposed upon the boards of county commissioners are hereby conferred upon these boards of trustees for the support of a joint detention home; provided, however, that in estimating the expense for maintenance of a joint detention home, the amount of money needed for the payment of teachers' salaries and for the furnishing of school supplies, shall be included in the estimate of expenses; and provided further, that the estimate shall be transmitted to the boards of county commissioners, or to the boards of commissioners and the city council, of territory so uniting.

History.—s. 3, ch. 6841, 1915; RGS 2348; CGL 3744.

416.06 County commissioners authorized to acquire land for home; increase millage of taxation; superintendent; other employees.—The board of county commissioners of every county may accept as a gift, or may purchase, the land necessary for said detention home, and may increase the millage of taxation for the purpose of establishing and maintaining same. A detention home shall not be deemed to be, nor treated as a penal institution, but a home. The board of county commissioners must also provide for a suitable superintendent or matron, or both, to have charge of such detention home, and for such other employees as may be needed in the efficient management of such detention home and provide for the payment out of the general funds of the county for suitable salaries for such superintendent and matron and other employees as may be necessary; and the superintendent and matron and other needed employees shall be appointed by said board on the nomination of the county board of visitors hereinafter provided, and the approval of the Circuit Judge exercising juvenile jurisdiction. The superintendent, matron, and other needed employees shall be appointed on merit and may at any time be removed by the county board of visitors in its discretion, with the approval of the Circuit Judge, after charges have been duly preferred and hearings given.

History.—s. 4, ch. 6841, 1915; RGS 2349; CGL 3745; s. 9, ch. 65-420; s. 26, ch. 73-334.

416.07 County board of visitors; term of office.—The Circuit Court in and for each county of the state shall, by an order entered in the minutes of the court, appoint seven discreet citizens of good moral character, without regard to politics, three or more of whom shall be women, to be known as the county board of visitors, and shall fill all vacancies occurring in such committee. The court shall immediately notify each person appointed on said committee, and thereupon said persons shall appear before the Circuit Judge and qualify by taking oath, which shall be entered in said court record, to faithfully perform the duties of a member of said county board of visitors. The members of such visiting committee shall hold office for 4 years and until their successors are appointed and qualify, except that of those first appointed, one shall hold office for 1 year, two for 2 years, two for 3 years, and two for 4 years; the terms for which the respective members shall hold office to be determined by lot as soon after their appointment as may be. When any vacancy occurs in any visiting committee by expiration of the term of office of any member thereof, his successor shall be appointed to hold office for the term of 4 years; when any vacancy occurs for any other reason, the appointee shall hold office for the unexpired term of his predecessor.

History.—s. 5, ch. 6841, 1915; RGS 2350; CGL 3746; s. 26, ch. 73-334.

416.08 Duties of board of visitors; compensation.—

(1) The county board of visitors shall visit, without previous notice, not less than four times a year, all persons, institutions, societies, and associations, except state institutions receiving children under this chapter. Said visits shall be made by not less than two members of the board who shall go together, or shall make a joint report. Said board of visitors shall report to the Circuit Court from time to time the condition of children received by, or in the charge of, such persons, associations, or institutions and shall make an annual report in writing to the Circuit Judge and, on request, to the board of county commissioners, in such form as the court may prescribe, on the qualifications and management of such persons, associations, and institutions, and in such report may make such suggestions or comments as to them may seem fit. Such report shall be filed in the office of the Circuit Court prior to November 1.

(2) Such persons, associations or institutions shall make reports to said visiting board showing their condition, management and competency to adequately care for such children as may be committed to them, and such other facts as said board may require.

(3) The court shall in no case commit a child to any person, association or institution whose standing, conduct, or care of children is not satisfactory to the court.

(4) Said board of visitors shall also have the control and management of the internal affairs of any detention home or school established by the board of commissioners of their county, and the board of county commissioners shall provide for the proper equipment of the home and for the payment of such employees as may be needed in the efficient management of such detention home.

(5) Said committee shall serve without compensation, but shall be reimbursed for traveling expenses as provided in s. 112.061 by the board of county commissioners upon a written order for the amount of such expenses endorsed by the Circuit Judge.

History.—s. 5, ch. 6841, 1915; RGS 2351; CGL 3747; s. 19, ch. 63-400; s. 26, ch. 73-334.

CHAPTER 418

RECREATION

PART I PLAYGROUNDS AND RECREATION CENTERS
(ss. 418.01-418.12)

PART II RECREATION DISTRICTS (ss. 418.20-418.26)

PART I

PLAYGROUNDS AND RECREATION CENTERS

- 418.01 Scope of chapter; definition.
- 418.02 Recreation centers; use and acquisition of land; equipment and maintenance.
- 418.03 Supervision.
- 418.04 Playground and recreation board.
- 418.05 Cooperation with other units and boards.
- 418.06 Gifts, grants, devises and bequests.
- 418.07 Issuance of bonds.
- 418.08 Petition for referendum.
- 418.09 Resolution or ordinance providing for recreation system.
- 418.10 Tax levy.
- 418.11 Payment of expenses and custody of funds.
- 418.12 Duties and functions of Division of Recreation and Parks.

418.01 Scope of chapter; definition.—This chapter shall apply to all cities, towns and counties of the state. The term "such municipality or county" as used in this chapter refers to and means any city, town or county of the state.

History.—s. 1, ch. 10100, 1925; CGL 3728.

418.02 Recreation centers; use and acquisition of land; equipment and maintenance.—The governing body of any such municipality or county may dedicate and set apart for use as playgrounds and recreation centers and other recreation purposes, any lands or buildings, or both, owned or leased by such municipality or county and not dedicated or devoted to another or inconsistent public use; and such municipality or county, may, in such manner as may now or hereafter be authorized or provided by law for the acquisition of lands or buildings for public purposes by such municipality or county, acquire or lease lands or buildings, or both, within or beyond the corporate limits of such municipality or county, for playgrounds, recreation centers and other recreational purposes and when the governing body of the municipality or county so dedicates, sets apart, acquires or leases lands or buildings for such purposes, it may, on its own initiative, provide for their conduct, equipment, and maintenance according to provisions of this chapter, by making an appropriation from the general municipal or county funds.

History.—s. 2, ch. 10100, 1925; CGL 3729.

418.03 Supervision.—The governing body of any such municipality or county may establish a system of supervised recreation and it may, by resolution or ordinance, vest the power to provide, maintain and conduct playgrounds, recreation centers and other recreational activities and facilities in the school board, park board, or other existing body or in a playground and recreation board as the governing body may determine. Any board so designated shall have the power to maintain and equip playgrounds, recreation centers and the buildings thereon, and it may, for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this chapter, employ play leaders, playground directors, supervisors, recreation superintendents or such other officers or employees as they deem proper.

History.—s. 3, ch. 10100, 1925; CGL 3730.

418.04 Playground and recreation board.—If the governing body of any such municipality or county shall determine that the power to provide, establish, conduct and maintain a recreation system as aforesaid shall be exercised by a playground and recreation board, such governing body shall, by resolution or ordinance, establish in such municipality or county a playground and recreation board which shall possess all the powers and be subject to all the responsibilities of local authorities under this chapter. Such board, when established, shall consist of five persons serving without pay, to be appointed by the mayor or presiding officer of such municipality or county. The term of office shall be for 5 years, or until their successors are appointed and qualified, except that the members of such board first appointed shall be appointed for such terms that the term of one member shall expire annually thereafter. Immediately after their appointment, they shall meet and organize by electing one of their members president and such other officers as may be necessary; vacancies in such boards occurring otherwise than by expiration of term shall be filled by the mayor or presiding officer of the governing body only for the unexpired term.

History.—s. 4, ch. 10100, 1925; CGL 3731.

418.05 Cooperation with other units and boards.—Any two or more municipalities or counties may jointly provide, establish, maintain and conduct a recreation system and acquire property for and establish and maintain playgrounds, recreation centers and other recreational facilities and activities. Any school board may join with any municipality in conducting and maintaining a recreation system.

History.—s. 5, ch. 10100, 1925; CGL 3732.

418.06 Gifts, grants, devises and bequests.—
(1) A playground and recreation board or other authority in which is vested the power to provide, establish, maintain and conduct such supervised rec-recreation system may accept any grant or devise of real estate or any gift or bequest of money or other personal property or any donation to be applied, principal or income, for either temporary or permanent use for playgrounds or recreation purposes, but if the acceptance thereof for such purposes will subject such municipality or county to additional expense for improvement, maintenance or renewal, the acceptance of any grant or devise of real estate shall be subject to the approval of the governing body of such municipality or county.

(2) Money received for such purpose, unless otherwise provided by the terms of the gift or bequest, shall be deposited with the treasurer of such municipality or county to the account of the playground and recreation board or commission or other body having charge of such work, and the same may be withdrawn and paid out by such body in the same manner as money appropriated for recreation purposes.

History.—s. 6, ch. 10100, 1925; CGL 3733.

418.07 Issuance of bonds.—The governing body of such municipality or county may, pursuant to law and in conformity with the constitution of this state, provide that the bonds of such municipality or county may be issued in the manner provided by law for the issuance of bonds for other purposes, for the purpose of acquiring lands or buildings for playgrounds, recreation centers and other recreational purposes and for the equipment thereof.

History.—s. 7, ch. 10100, 1925; CGL 3734.

418.08 Petition for referendum.—Whenever a petition signed by at least 5 percent of the qualified and registered electors in such municipality or county shall be filed with the governing body of such municipality or county, requesting the governing body of such municipality or county to provide, establish, maintain and conduct a supervised recreation system and to levy an annual tax for the conduct and maintenance thereof of not more than 1 mill on each dollar of assessed valuation of all taxable property within the corporate limits or boundaries of such municipality or county, the governing body of such municipality or county shall cause the question of the establishment, maintenance and conduct of such supervised recreation system to be submitted to the qualified electors who are freeholders, to be voted upon at the next general or special election of such municipality or county; provided, however, that such question shall not be voted upon at the next general or special election unless such petition shall have been filed at least 30 days prior to the date of such election.

History.—s. 8, ch. 10100, 1925; CGL 3735; s. 1, ch. 63-489.

418.09 Resolution or ordinance providing for recreation system.—Upon the adoption of such proposition by a majority of those voting on it at an election, the governing body of such municipality or county shall, by appropriate resolution or ordinance, provide for the establishment, maintenance and conduct of such supervised recreation system as they may deem advisable and practicable to provide and maintain out of the tax money thus voted. The said governing body may designate, by appropriate resolution or ordinance, the board or commission to be vested with the powers, duties and obligations necessary for the establishment, maintenance and conduct of such recreation system as provided for in this chapter.

History.—s. 9, ch. 10100, 1925; CGL 3736.

418.10 Tax levy.—The governing body of such municipality or county adopting the provisions of this chapter at an election and until revoked at an election by a majority of the qualified voters who are freeholders, shall thereafter annually levy and collect a tax of not less than the minimum nor more than the maximum amount set out in the said petition for such election, which tax shall be designated as the "playground and recreation tax" and shall be levied and collected in like manner as the general tax of such municipality or county.

History.—s. 10, ch. 10100, 1925; CGL 3737.

418.11 Payment of expenses and custody of funds.—The cost and expense of the establishment, maintenance and conduct of a supervised recreation system of playgrounds, recreation centers and other recreational facilities and activities shall be paid out of taxes or money received for this purpose, and the playground and recreation board or commission, or other authority in which is vested the power to provide, establish, conduct and maintain a supervised recreation system and facilities as aforesaid, shall have exclusive control of all moneys collected or donated to the credit of the playground and recreation fund.

History.—s. 11, ch. 10100, 1925; CGL 3738.

418.12 Duties and functions of Division of Recreation and Parks.—Among its functions, the Division of Recreation and Parks of the Department of Natural Resources shall:

(1) Study and appraise the recreation needs of the state and assemble and disseminate information relative to recreation;

(2) Provide consultation assistance to the Department of Community Affairs and to local governing units as to the promotion, organization, and administration of local recreation systems and as to the planning and design of local recreation areas and facilities;

(3) Assist in recruiting, training, and placing recreation personnel;

(4) Sponsor and promote recreation institutes, workshops, seminars, and conferences throughout the state;

(5) Cooperate with state and federal agencies, private organizations, and commercial and industrial interests in the promotion of a state recreation program; and

(6) Coordinate recreation functions and facilities of flood control and water management districts.

History.—s. 25, ch. 69-106.

PART II

RECREATION DISTRICTS

418.20 Creation of recreation districts authorized.

418.21 Governing body.

- 418.22 Powers of recreation districts.
- 418.23 Limitation on power of districts.
- 418.24 Filing of ordinance.
- 418.25 Actions by aggrieved parties.
- 418.26 Assessment records.

418.20 Creation of recreation districts authorized.—Each municipality and county in the state is authorized to create one or more recreation districts comprising the whole of or any part of the territory of said municipality and by counties only in the unincorporated areas of each county. Each such district shall be established by ordinance approved by a vote of the electors in the district in accordance with s. 165.041. Such ordinance, as it may from time to time be amended by the governing body of said municipality or county and approved by a vote of the electors in the district, shall constitute the charter of the recreation district. The electors residing in a proposed district may petition the governing body of the city or county to create a recreation district. If a majority of electors has signed the petition, no referendum shall be required to create the district.

History.—s. 1, ch. 78-237.

418.21 Governing body.—

(1) The governing body of a recreation district shall be determined by the municipality or county which created the district and shall be either:

(a) A five-member board of supervisors elected from the residents of the district, or

(b) The governing body of the municipality or county which created the district.

(2) If the governing body is a board of supervisors, the ordinance creating the district shall specify the date of the election and shall provide that each property owner or resident in the district shall have the right to vote. The ordinance may also provide for the staggering of terms of the supervisors. Members of the board of supervisors shall serve without compensation.

(3) If the governing body is the governing body of the municipality or county which created the district, that body may appoint a district advisory board to advise it on all matters relating to the district. Members of the advisory board shall serve without compensation.

History.—s. 4, ch. 78-237; s. 1, ch. 79-258.

418.22 Powers of recreation districts.—The charter of a recreation district may grant to the recreation district the following powers and all further or additional powers as the governing body of the municipality or county establishing said district may deem necessary or useful in order to exercise the powers for which provision is hereinafter made. The powers which may be granted by such charter include the following:

(1) To sue and be sued and to have a corporate seal.

(2) To contract and be contracted with.

(3) To acquire, purchase, construct, improve, and equip recreational facilities of all types, including real and personal property, within the boundaries of said district; such acquisition may be by purchase, lease, gift, or exercise of the power of eminent domain.

(4) To issue bonds, secured by ad valorem taxes or by pledge of both such taxes and other revenues of the district, if approved at a referendum held in said district, and to levy and collect ad valorem taxes, without limitation or with such limitation as may be imposed by charter, on all real property subject to city taxation within said district in order to pay the principal of and interest on said bonds as the same respectively fall due or to accumulate a sinking fund for the payment of principal and interest. The referendum required by this section may be held on the same day as any other referendum related to the district; provided that said bonds shall bear interest at a rate pursuant to s. 215.685 and be sold at public sale. In the event an offer of an issue of bonds at public sale produces no bid, or in the event all bids received are rejected, the district is authorized to negotiate for the sale of such bonds under such rates and terms as are acceptable; provided that no such bonds shall be sold or delivered on terms less favorable than the terms contained in any bids rejected at the public sale thereof or the terms contained in the notice of public sale if no bids were received at such public sale.

(5) To operate and maintain recreational facilities or to enter into arrangements with others for such operation and maintenance pursuant to contract, lease, or otherwise.

(6) To establish, charge, and collect fees for admission to or use of recreational facilities and to apply such fees to the operation, maintenance, improvement, enlargement, or acquisition of recreational facilities or to the payment of bonds or revenue bonds of the district.

(7) To issue revenue bonds payable solely from the revenues to be derived from recreational facilities owned or operated by such district if approved at a referendum held in said district; provided that said bonds shall bear interest at a rate pursuant to s. 215.685 and be sold at public sale. In the event an offer of an issue of bonds at public sale produces no bid, or in the event all bids received are rejected, the district is authorized to negotiate for the sale of such bonds under such rates and terms as are acceptable; provided that no such bonds shall be so sold or delivered on terms less favorable than the terms contained in any bids rejected at the public sale thereof or the terms contained in the notice of public sale if no bids were received at such public sale.

(8) To adopt and enforce rules for the use of the recreational facilities owned or operated by the district.

(9) To employ all personnel deemed necessary for the operation and maintenance of the facilities of the district.

History.—s. 2, ch. 78-237.

418.23 Limitation on power of districts.—The charter of any recreation district may contain such limitations and restrictions on any of the powers named in s. 418.22 as the governing body of the municipality or county may from time to time determine, but no such restriction shall result in impairing the ability of a district to carry out any contract made by such district prior to the adoption of such restriction.

History.—s. 3, ch. 78-237.

418.24 Filing of ordinance.—Any ordinance creating or amending the charter of a recreation district, upon being finally adopted, shall be filed in the minutes of the governing body of the municipality or county, and certified copies thereof shall be filed with the county clerk of the county in which said district is located and with the property appraiser of said county. The charter of a recreation district may contain findings by the governing body of the municipality or county:

(1) That the creation of such district is the best alternative available for delivering recreational service.

(2) That such district is amenable to separate special district government.

(3) That all of the territory in the district will be benefited by proposed improvements to be made by said district.

If such charter contains any one or more such findings, each such finding may be reviewed by a court only as part of any review of the ordinance making such finding.

History.—s. 6, ch. 78-237.

418.25 Actions by aggrieved parties.—Any person feeling aggrieved by the adoption of an ordinance granting or amending the charter of a recreation district may bring, within the period hereinafter prescribed, an appropriate action in the circuit court of the state for that county in which the municipality is located for declaratory or injunctive relief on the grounds that the adoption of said ordinance or any part thereof was arbitrary, capricious, confiscatory, or violative of constitutional guarantees.

Such action may be brought at any time during a period beginning immediately upon the adoption of said ordinance and ending no later than the earlier to occur of:

(1) One year from the date of adoption of said ordinance; or

(2) The date of judicial validation of the first bonds, tax bonds, or revenue bonds of said district to be authorized and validated after the adoption of the ordinance under chapter 75.

After the expiration of said period, no one shall have any right or cause of action to challenge such ordinance or the existence of any recreation district created thereby, whether such challenge be brought under this law or under any other law.

History.—s. 7, ch. 78-237.

418.26 Assessment records.—The assessment records for the municipality or county in which a recreation district is located shall be the official assessment records for any recreation district created pursuant to this act. The official charged with keeping said assessment records shall, at the request of the governing body of any recreation district, provide an assessment roll for any such district showing the assessed valuation of taxable property in said district. Unless otherwise provided by the charter of a recreation district, the official who collects taxes in the municipality or county shall be the tax collector of said district. Taxes of any such district shall be payable at the same time as, and shall be secured by a lien on taxable property the same as, municipal or county taxes. Enforcement of any such tax lien shall be in the same manner and by the same officials as enforcement of liens for municipal or county taxes.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

- 420.001 Short title.
 420.005 Requirements for Governor's reports.
 420.011 Definitions.

420.001 Short title.—This chapter shall be known, and may be cited as, the "Florida Housing Act of 1972."

History.—s. 1, ch. 72-172.

420.005 Requirements for Governor's reports.—

(1)(a) Not later than February 1, 1973, the Governor shall make a report to the Legislature setting forth a plan, to be carried out over a period of 12 years (June 30, 1973, to June 30, 1985), for the elimination of all substandard housing and the realization of the goal referred to in this chapter. Such plan shall:

1. Indicate the number of new or rehabilitated housing units which it is anticipated will have to be provided, with or without federal and state government assistance, during each fiscal year of the 12-year period in order to achieve the objectives of the plan, showing the number of such units which it is anticipated will have to be provided under each of the various federal and state programs designed to assist in the provision of housing.

2. Indicate the reduction in the number of occupied substandard housing units which it is anticipated will have to occur during each fiscal year of the 12-year period in order to achieve the objectives of the plan.

3. Provide an estimate of the cost of carrying out the plan for each of the various federal and state programs and for each fiscal year during the 12-year period.

4. Make recommendations with respect to the legislative and administrative actions necessary or desirable to achieve the objectives of the plan.

5. Provide such other pertinent data, estimates, and recommendations as the Governor deems advisable.

(b) Such report shall, in addition, contain a projection of the residential mortgage market needs and prospects during the coming year, including an estimate of the requirements with respect to the availability, need, and flow of mortgage funds, particularly for low and moderate income families, during such year, together with such recommendations as may be deemed appropriate for encouraging the availability of such funds.

(2) On November 15, 1973, and on each succeeding year through 1986, the Governor shall submit to the Legislature a report which shall:

(a) Compare the results achieved during the preceding fiscal year for the completion of new or rehabilitated housing units and the reduction in occupied substandard housing with the objectives established for such year under the plan.

(b) If the comparison provided under paragraph (a) shows a failure to achieve the objectives set for such year, indicate:

1. The reasons for such failure;
2. The steps being taken to achieve the objectives of the plan during each of the remaining fiscal years of the 12-year period; and
3. Any necessary revision in the objectives established under the plan for each such year.

(c) Project residential mortgage market needs and prospects for the coming calendar year including an estimate of the requirements with respect to the availability, need, and flow of mortgage funds, particularly for low and moderate income families, during such period, in order to achieve the objectives of the plan.

(d) Make recommendations with respect to any additional legislative or administrative action which is necessary or desirable to achieve the objectives of the plan.

(e) Provide such other pertinent data, estimates, and recommendations as the Governor deems advisable.

<sup>1</sup>(3) To advise and assist in the development of the statistics, analyses, and recommendations required by this section, the Governor shall appoint an advisory committee consisting of housing experts, participants in the various phases of the housing process, and such other members as are deemed appropriate to the purposes of this section.

History.—s. 1, ch. 72-172; s. 4, ch. 78-323.

420.011 Definitions.—As used in this chapter, the following words and terms shall have the following meanings unless the context shall indicate another or different meaning or intent:

(1) "Consumer housing cooperative" means a corporation incorporated pursuant to the provisions of the Florida General Corporation Law.

(2) "Limited dividend housing corporation" means a limited dividend housing corporation incorporated or qualified pursuant to the provisions of the State Housing Law.

(3) "Limited dividend housing association" means a limited dividend housing association, including general or limited partnerships, joint ventures, or trusts organized or qualified pursuant to the laws of this state.

(4) "Nonprofit housing corporation" means a nonprofit housing corporation incorporated pursuant to the provisions of Florida law relating to corporations not for profit.

(5) "Lending institution" means a mortgage lender, including any bank or trust company, savings bank, national banking association, state or federal savings and loan association, or building and loan association maintaining an office in this state or any insurance company authorized to transact business in this state or a corporation composed of such institutions.

(6) "Financial institution" means any banking corporation or trust company, savings and loan association, insurance company, or related corporation, partnership, foundation, or other institution engaged primarily in lending or investing funds.

(7) "Corporation," as used in part II, means the Florida Housing Development Corporation created pursuant to part II.

(8) "Stockholder" means any financial institution authorized to do business within this state which shall undertake to lend money to the corporation created pursuant to part II, upon its call, and in accordance with the provisions of this chapter.

(9) "Board of directors" means the board of directors of the corporation created pursuant to part II of this chapter.

(10) "Secured loan" means a loan secured by a mortgage or a security interest in a project.

(11) "Project" means a specific work or improvement, including land, buildings, improvements, real and personal property, or any interest therein, acquired, owned, constructed, reconstructed, rehabilitated, or improved with the financial assistance of the agency, including the construction of low and moderate income housing facilities and facilities incident or appurtenant thereto, such as streets, sewers, utilities, parks, site preparation, landscaping, and such other administrative, community, and recreational facilities as the agency determines to be necessary, convenient, or desirable appurtenances.

(12) "Development costs" means the costs which have been approved by the agency as appropriate expenditures, including but not limited to:

(a) Legal, organizational, marketing, and administrative expenses;

(b) Payment of fees for preliminary feasibility studies and advances for planning, engineering and architectural work;

(c) Expenses for surveys as to need and market analyses;

(d) Necessary application and other fees to federal and other government agencies; and

(e) Such other expenses as the agency may deem appropriate to effectuate the purposes of this chapter.

(13) "Surplus," as used in this chapter, shall not be deemed to include any increase in net worth of any limited dividend housing corporation or limited dividend housing association organized in accordance with the provisions of law by amortization or similar payments, or by reason of the sale or disposition of any assets of a limited dividend housing corporation or limited dividend housing association, to the extent such surplus can be attributed to any increase in market value of any real property or tangible personal property accruing during the period the assets were owned and held by the limited dividend housing corporation or limited dividend housing association.

(14) "Low income or moderate income persons" means families and persons who cannot afford, as defined by federal law, to pay the amounts at which private enterprise is providing a substantial supply of decent, safe, and sanitary housing and fall within income limitations set by the agency in its rules.

(15) "Real property" means lands, structures, franchises, and interests in land, including lands under water and riparian rights, space and air rights, and any and all other interests and rights usually included within said term. Real property shall also mean and include any and all interests in such property less than full title, such as easements, incorporeal hereditaments, and every estate, interest or right, legal or equitable, including terms for years and liens thereon by way of judgments, mortgages or otherwise, and also all claims for damages for such real estate.

(16) "State" means the State of Florida.

History.—s. 1, ch. 72-172; s. 1, ch. 76-249; s. 4, ch. 76-249; s. 1, ch. 77-174.

PART II

HOUSING DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION OF FLORIDA

420.101 Housing Development Corporation of Florida; creation, membership and purposes.

420.111 Housing Development Corporation of Florida; additional powers.

420.112 Authorization for certain relationships.

420.123 Stockholders; loan requirement.

420.124 Stockholders; powers.

420.131 Articles of incorporation; method of amending.

420.141 Housing Development Corporation of Florida; deposits and examination.

420.151 Housing Development Corporation of Florida; first meeting.

420.161 Housing Development Corporation of Florida; period of existence; method of dissolution.

420.171 Housing Development Corporation of Florida; tax privileges and fiscal year.

420.101 Housing Development Corporation of Florida; creation, membership and purposes.—

(1) Twenty-five or more persons, a majority of whom shall be residents of this state, who may desire to create a housing development corporation under the provisions of this part for the purpose of promoting and developing housing and advancing the prosperity and economic welfare of the state and, to that end, to exercise the powers and privileges hereinafter provided, may be incorporated by filing in the Department of State, as hereinafter provided, articles of incorporation. The articles of incorporation shall contain:

(a) The name of the corporation, which shall include the words "Housing Development Corporation of Florida."

(b) The location of the principal office of the corporation. The corporation may have offices in such other places within the state as may be fixed by the board of directors.

(c) The purposes for which the corporation is founded, which shall be:

1. To mobilize capital;
2. To finance new or rehabilitated housing for persons of low or moderate income in the state;
3. To find new methods of providing subsidies for housing;
4. To encourage and assist, through loans, including loans at below market interest rates, investments, or other business transactions, in the elimination of substandard housing in this state;
5. To rehabilitate and assist existing housing, and so to stimulate and assist in the expansion of all kinds of housing activity which will tend to promote the development of new or rehabilitated housing and improve the standard of living of the low and moderate income citizens of this state;
6. To cooperate and act in conjunction with other organizations, public or private, in the promotion and advancement of housing developments in this state; and
7. To provide financing for the construction of all kinds of housing activity in this state for low and moderate income citizens.

(d) The names and post-office addresses of the members of the first board of directors. The board of directors shall be elected by and from the stockholders of the corporation and consist of 21 members. However, five of such members shall consist of the following persons, who shall be nonvoting members: the secretary of the Department of Community Affairs or his designee; the head of the Department of Banking and Finance or his designee; the head of the Department of Insurance or his designee; one state senator appointed by the President of the Senate; and one representative appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives.

(e) Any provision which the incorporators may choose to insert for the regulation of the business and for the conduct of the affairs of the corporation and any provision creating, dividing, limiting, and regulating the powers of the corporation, the directors, stockholders, or any class of the stockholders, including, but not limited to, a list of the officers, and provisions governing the issuance of stock certificates to replace lost or destroyed certificates.

(f) The amount of the authorized capital stock and the number of shares into which it is divided, the par value of each share, and the amount of capital with which it will commence business; if there is more than one class of stock, a description of the different classes; and the names and post-office addresses of the subscribers of stock and the number of shares subscribed by each. The aggregate of the subscription shall be the minimum amount of capital with which the corporation shall commence business, which shall not be less than $100,000. The articles of incorporation may also contain any provision consistent with the laws of this state for the regulation of the affairs of the corporation.

(2) The articles of incorporation shall be in writing, subscribed by not less than nine natural persons competent to contract, acknowledged by each of the subscribers before an officer authorized to take acknowledgments, and filed with the Department of State for approval. A duplicate copy so subscribed and acknowledged may also be filed.

(3) The articles of incorporation shall recite that the corporation is organized under the provisions of this chapter. The Department of State shall not approve articles of incorporation for a corporation organized under this part until a total of at least 15 national banks, federal savings and loan associations, state banks, savings banks, industrial savings banks, domestic building and loan associations, insurance companies authorized to do business within this state, or any combination thereof have agreed in writing to become stockholders of said corporation. Said written agreement shall be filed with the Department of State with the articles of incorporation, and the filing of same shall be a condition precedent to the approval of the articles of incorporation by the Department of State.

(4) Whenever the articles of incorporation shall have been filed in the Department of State and approved by it and all filing fees and taxes prescribed by chapter 607 have been paid, the subscribers and their successors and assigns shall constitute a corporation, and said corporation shall then be authorized to commence business, and stock thereof to the extent herein or hereafter duly authorized may from time to time be issued.

History.—s. 1, ch. 72-172; s. 4, ch. 79-9; s. 8, ch. 79-176.

420.111 Housing Development Corporation of Florida; additional powers.—In furtherance of its purposes and in addition to the powers now or hereafter conferred on business corporations by chapter 607, the corporation shall, subject to the restrictions and limitations herein contained, have the following powers:

(1) To elect, appoint, and employ officers, agents and employees and to make contracts and incur liabilities for any of the purposes of the corporation, except that the corporation shall not incur any secondary liability by way of guaranty or endorsement of the obligations of any person, firm, corporation, joint-stock company, association, or trust, or in any other manner.

(2) To borrow money from its stockholders, other financial institutions, and state and federal agencies for any of the purposes of the corporation; to issue therefor its bonds, debentures, notes, or other evidences of debentures, whether secured or unsecured, and to secure the same by mortgage, pledge, deed of trust, or other lien on its property, franchises, rights, and privileges of every kind and nature, or any part thereof or interest therein, without securing stockholder approval.

(3) To make loans to any person, firm, corporation, joint-stock company, association, or trust and to regulate the terms and conditions with respect to any such loans and the charges for interest and service connected therewith, provided subsidies may be in the form of below market interest rates or such other assistance as determined by the board with the concurrence of the applicable regulatory agencies governing the several stockholder industries.

(4) To purchase, receive, hold, lease, or otherwise acquire, and to sell, convey, transfer, lease, or otherwise dispose of, real and personal property, together with such rights and privileges as may be incidental and appurtenant thereto and the use thereof, including, but not restricted to, any real or personal property acquired by the corporation from time to time in the satisfaction of debts or enforcement of obligations.

(5) For the purposes of foreclosure, to acquire the good will, business, rights, real and personal property, and other assets, or any part thereof, or interest therein, of any persons, firms, corporations, joint-stock companies, associations or trusts, and to assume, undertake, or pay the obligations, debts and liabilities of any such person, firm, corporation, joint-stock company, association or trust; to acquire improved or unimproved real estate for the purpose of constructing new housing or rehabilitation thereof; for the purposes of disposing of such real estate to others for the construction of housing or rehabilitation thereof; and to acquire, construct or reconstruct, alter, repair, maintain, operate, sell, convey, transfer, lease, or otherwise dispose of such housing, provided, however that nothing herein contained shall authorize the acquisition, construction, reconstruction, or operation of any public lodging establishment as defined in chapter 509.

(6) To acquire, subscribe for, own, hold, sell, assign, transfer, mortgage, pledge, or otherwise dispose of the stock, shares, bonds, debentures, notes, or other securities and evidences of interest in, or indebtedness of, any person, firm, corporation, joint-stock company, association, or trust, and, while the owner or holder thereof, to exercise all the rights, powers, and privileges of ownership, including the right to vote thereon.

(7) To mortgage, pledge, or otherwise encumber any property, right, or thing of value, acquired pursuant to the powers contained in subsections (4), (5), or (6), as security for the payment of any part of the purchase price thereof.

(8) To cooperate with, and avail itself of the facilities of, the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development, the State Department of Community Affairs, and any other similar local, state, or Federal Government agency; and to cooperate with and assist, and otherwise encourage organizations in the various communities of the state on the promotion, assistance and development of the housing and economic welfare of such communities or of this state or any part thereof.

(9) To do all acts and things necessary or convenient to carry out the powers expressly granted in this part.

History.—s. 1, ch. 72-172; s. 5, ch. 79-9; s. 9, ch. 79-176.

420.112 Authorization for certain relationships.—Notwithstanding any rule at common law or any provision of any general or special law or any provision in their respective charters, agreements of association, articles of organization, or trust indentures:

(1) All persons, including all domestic corporations organized for the purpose of carrying on business within this state, and further including without implied limitation public utility companies and foreign corporations licensed to do business within this state, all financial institutions as defined herein, and all trusts, are authorized to acquire, purchase, hold, sell, assign, transfer, mortgage, pledge, or otherwise dispose of any bonds, securities, or other evidences of indebtedness created by the corporation, all without the approval of any regulatory authority of the state except as otherwise provided in this part.

(2) All financial institutions are authorized to become stockholders of the corporation and to make loans to the corporation as provided herein.

(3) Each financial institution which becomes a stockholder of the corporation is hereby authorized, as an owner of capital stock, to exercise all the rights, powers, and privileges of ownership, including the right to vote thereon, all without the approval of any regulatory authority of the state, except as provided herein.

(4) The amount of capital stock of the corporation which any stockholder is authorized to acquire pursuant to the authority granted herein is in addition to the amount of capital stock in corporations which such stockholder may otherwise be authorized to acquire.

History.—s. 1, ch. 72-172.

420.123 Stockholders; loan requirement.—

(1) Any financial institution may request membership in the corporation by making application to the board of directors on such form and in such manner as said board of directors may require, and membership shall become effective upon acceptance of such application by said board. Each member stockholder of the corporation shall make loans to the corporation as and when called upon by it to do so on such terms and other conditions as shall be approved from time to time by the board of directors, subject to the following conditions:

(a) All loan limits shall be established at the thousand dollar amount nearest to the amount computed in accordance with the provisions of this section.

(b) No loan to the corporation shall be made if immediately thereafter the total amount of the obligations of the corporation would exceed 20 times the amount then paid in on the outstanding capital stock of the corporation.

(c) The total amount outstanding on loans to the corporation made by any member at any one time, when added to the amount of the investment in the capital stock of the corporation then held by such member, shall not exceed:

1. Twenty percent of the total amount then outstanding on loans to the corporation by all members, including in said total amount outstanding amounts validly called for loan but not yet loaned.

2. The following limit, to be determined as of the time such member becomes a member on the basis of the audited balance sheet of such member at the close of its fiscal year immediately preceding its application for membership or, in the case of an insurance company, its last annual statement to the Department of Insurance: 5 percent of the capital and surplus of commercial banks and trust companies; 5 percent of the total outstanding loans made by savings and loan associations and building and loan associations; 5 percent of the capital and unassigned surplus of stock insurance companies, except fire insurance companies; 5 percent of the unassigned surplus of mutual insurance companies, except fire insurance companies; one-fifth of 1 percent of the assets of fire insurance companies; and such limits as may be approved by the board of directors of the corporation for other financial institutions.

(2) Subject to subsection (1)(c)1., each call made by the corporation shall be prorated among the members of the corporation in substantially the same proportion that the adjusted loan limit of each member bears to the aggregate of the adjusted loan limits of all members. The adjusted loan limit of a member shall be the amount of such member's loan limit, reduced by the balance of outstanding loans made by such member to the corporation and the investment in capital stock of the corporation held by such member at the time of such call.

(3) All loans to the corporation by members shall be evidenced by bonds, debentures, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness of the corporation, which shall be freely transferable at all times, and which shall bear interest at a rate determined by the board of directors.

History.—s. 1, ch. 72-172; s. 10, ch. 79-176.

420.124 Stockholders; powers.—The stockholders of the corporation shall have the following powers of the corporation:

(1) To make, amend, and repeal bylaws.

(2) To amend the charter as provided in s. 420.131.

(3) To dissolve the corporation as provided in s. 420.161.

(4) To do all things necessary or desirable to secure aid, assistance, loans, and other financing from any financial institution and from any similar government agency.

(5) To exercise such other of the powers of the corporation consistent with this chapter as may be conferred on the stockholders by the bylaws. As to all matters requiring action by the stockholders of the corporation, said stockholders shall vote separately thereon, and, except as otherwise herein provided, such matters shall require the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes to which the stockholders present or represented at the meeting shall be entitled.

Each stockholder shall have one vote, in person or by proxy, for each share of capital stock held by him.

History.—s. 1, ch. 72-172.

420.131 Articles of incorporation; method of amending.—

(1) The articles of incorporation may be amended by the vote of the stockholders of the corporation, and such amendments shall require approval by the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the votes to which the stockholders shall be entitled. However, no amendment of the articles of incorporation which is inconsistent with the general purposes expressed herein or which eliminates or curtails the right of the Department of Banking and Finance to examine the corporation or the obligation of the corporation to make reports as provided in s. 420.141(2) shall be made.

(2) Within 30 days after any meeting at which an amendment to the articles of incorporation has been adopted, articles of amendment signed and sworn to by the president, treasurer, and a majority of the directors setting forth such amendment and due adoption thereof shall be submitted to the Department of State, which shall examine them and if it finds that they conform to the requirements of this part, shall so certify and endorse its approval thereon.

(3) The articles of amendment shall be filed in the office of the Department of State, and no such amendment shall take effect until such articles of amendment shall have been filed as aforesaid.

History.—s. 1, ch. 72-172.

420.141 Housing Development Corporation of Florida; deposits and examination.—

(1) The corporation shall not deposit any of its funds in any financial institution unless such institution has been designated as a depository by the vote of the majority of the directors present at an authorized meeting of the board of directors, exclusive of any director who is an officer or director of the depository so designated. The corporation shall not receive money on deposit.

(2) The corporation shall be examined at least once annually by the Department of Banking and Finance and shall make reports of its condition not less than annually to said department, and more frequently upon call of the department, which in turn shall make copies of such reports available to the Department of Insurance and the governor; and the corporation shall also furnish such other information as may from time to time be required by the Department of Banking and Finance and the Department of State. The Department of Banking and Finance shall exercise the same power and authority over the corporation organized pursuant to this part as is now exercised over banks and trust companies by the provisions of the Florida Banking Code, when such banking code is not in conflict with this chapter.

History.—s. 1, ch. 72-172.

420.151 Housing Development Corporation of Florida; first meeting.—

(1) The first meeting of the corporation shall be called by a notice signed by three or more of the incorporators stating the time, place, and purpose of the meeting, a copy of which notice shall be mailed or delivered to each incorporator at least 5 days before the day appointed for the meeting. The first meeting may be held without such notice upon agreement in writing to that effect signed by all the incorporators. There shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting a copy of said notice or of such unanimous agreement of the incorporators.

(2) At such first meeting, the incorporators shall organize by the choice, by ballot, of a temporary clerk; by the adoption of bylaws; by the election, by ballot, of directors; and by action upon such other matters within the powers of the corporation as the incorporators may see fit. The temporary clerk shall be sworn and shall make and attest a record of the proceedings. Ten of the incorporators shall be a quorum for the transaction of business.

History.—s. 1, ch. 72-172.

420.161 Housing Development Corporation of Florida; period of existence; method of dissolution.—

(1) The period of duration of the corporation shall be perpetual, subject, however, to the right of the stockholders and the members to dissolve the corporation as provided in subsection (2).

(2) The corporation may, upon the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the votes to which the stockholders shall be entitled, dissolve said corporation as provided by chapter 607, insofar as chapter 607 is not in conflict with the provisions of this act. Upon any dissolution of the corporation, none of the corporation's assets shall be distributed to the stockholders until all sums due the members of the corporation as creditors thereof have been paid in full.

History.—s. 1, ch. 72-172; s. 149, ch. 77-104.

420.171 Housing Development Corporation of Florida; tax privileges and fiscal year.—

(1) Any tax exemptions, tax credits, or tax privileges granted to banks, savings and loan associations, and trust companies by the general laws of the state are granted to the corporation organized pursuant to this chapter.

(2) The corporation organized under this chapter shall adopt the calendar year as its fiscal year.

History.—s. 1, ch. 72-172.

PART III

- 420.208 Failure or inability of the eligible borrower to cause housing to be developed on land purchased; recourse.

420.209 Disposition of property accruing to the state.

420.210 Lands; subject to taxation.

420.211 Expiration of lending authority.

420.20 Short title.—This part shall be known as the "Florida Housing Land Acquisition and Site Development Act of 1979."

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-168; s. 1, ch. 79-176.

420.201 Finding and declaration of necessity.—It is hereby declared that:

(1) It is the policy of this state to realize, through cooperation with the private sector and federal and local governments, as soon as feasible, the goal of decent, safe, and sanitary housing and a suitable living environment for all citizens of Florida at a price they can afford.

(2) There exists within this state a serious shortage of safe and sanitary residential housing at prices or rentals which persons and families of low and moderate income can afford. This shortage has contributed, and will contribute, to the creation and persistence of substandard living conditions which are detrimental to the health, welfare, and prosperity of the residents of this state.

(3) The solution to Florida's housing problem lies in sustained, measured efforts. The problem transcends the capability of a single jurisdiction or entity, public or private, to achieve a solution.

(4) Proportionately, the largest housing problem found in the state is in the rural areas. A rural home is more likely to be overcrowded, to lack plumbing, to be older, and to be valued less than an urban house.

(5) To the extent that the lack of suitable, affordable, improved building sites for housing continues to exist, the problem of delivery of housing in the state is further compounded.

(6) Assistance in the provision of safe and sanitary dwelling accommodations, as well as the acquisition and development of land for the creation of a suitable living environment for persons and families of low or moderate income, are exclusively public purposes and uses for which public moneys may be borrowed, expended, advanced, or loaned. Such activities serve a public purpose in improving or otherwise benefiting the people of this state.

(7) The necessity of enacting the provisions hereinafter set forth is in the public interest and is so declared as a matter of express legislative determination.

History.—s. 2, ch. 74-168; s. 2, ch. 79-176.

420.202 Definitions.—For the purpose of this part, the following terms, unless the context indicates otherwise, shall have the meaning ascribed to them in this section:

(1) "Department" means the Department of Community Affairs.

(2) "Eligible borrower," "eligible loan applicant," or "loan recipient" means a county commission; a municipal council, or commission or agency thereof; a housing authority as provided by chapter 421; or the governing body of a federally recognized tribe of Indians, including, but not limited to, those enumerated in chapter 285.

(3) "Eligible sponsor" or "eligible developer" means any person, firm, corporation, municipality, or federal, state, or local agency eligible to sponsor or develop housing for persons of low or moderate income under any housing program of the federal, state, or local governments.

(4) "Fund" means the Revolving Land Acquisition and Site Development Trust Fund.

(5) "Persons of low or moderate income" means persons or families who lack the amount of income which is necessary, as determined by federal law, to enable them, without financial assistance, to live, without overcrowding, in decent, safe, and sanitary dwellings.

(6) "Secretary" means the Secretary of Community Affairs.

History.—s. 3, ch. 74-168; ss. 3, 12, ch. 79-176.

420.203 Revolving Land Acquisition and Site Development Trust Fund established.—There is established in the State Treasury a separate revolving trust fund to be called "the Revolving Land Acquisition and Site Development Trust Fund." There shall be deposited into the fund all moneys appropriated by the Legislature or moneys received from any other source for the purpose of this part and all proceeds derived from the use of such moneys; however, interest earned on loans made from the fund as well as income earned by the fund invested pursuant to s. 215.49 shall revert to the Revolving Land Acquisition and Site Development Trust Fund and shall be used by the department to cover administrative and personnel costs incurred in implementing the provisions of this part. Any interest earned on loans or income from the invested fund not required for the administration or implementation of this part shall revert to the Revolving Land Acquisition and Site Development Trust Fund.

History.—ss. 4, 5, ch. 74-168; s. 4, ch. 79-176.

420.204 Loans authorized; purposes.—

(1) The secretary is authorized to make loans to eligible borrowers for the acquisition and development of suitable sites for housing for persons of low or moderate income in areas of the state when he determines that:

(a) A need for such housing exists as demonstrated by an approved feasibility letter from the appropriate agency.

(b) Federal, state, or local assistance funds are available or are likely to be available to aid in the construction, maintenance, or support of low or moderate income housing on such sites if developed.

(c) Funding for land acquisition and site development is not readily available in the area from private sources.

(2) Loan recipients shall use moneys borrowed from the fund to purchase or contract to purchase from any person, firm, corporation, municipality, county, or federal or state agency real property and provide for such improvements to the real property that the loan recipient and the secretary determine are reasonably necessary for development of housing and housing-related facilities for persons of low or moderate income. The secretary may authorize a loan for the site upon which the housing is to be situated and sites designated for other uses that are deemed to be necessary to such housing, as defined by the rules and regulations.

(3) Such real property or any portion thereof purchased and developed under this part shall be made available to an eligible developer or sponsor for the purpose of construction of housing for persons of low or moderate income, or directly to a qualified low or moderate income family, at such price and upon such terms as are consistent with the loan agreement. The loan recipient shall, by public notice through publication in a newspaper having a general circulation in the community at least 30 days prior to the execution of any contract for the sale of such real property, invite proposals from, and make available all pertinent information to, eligible developers or any persons interested in undertaking to develop housing on such real property or any portion thereof. The loan recipient shall consider all such development proposals and other relevant factors, including, but not limited to, financial and legal factors and the construction and development capability of the persons making such proposals to carry them out. Such real property or any portion may be disposed of by the loan recipient, and in turn by the eligible developer, at a price not to exceed the actual prorated land costs, development costs, accrued taxes, and interest.

History.—s. 6, ch. 74-168; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 5, ch. 79-176.
cf.—s. 420.211 Expiration of lending authority.

420.205 Terms of loan agreements.—

(1) In addition to any terms or conditions which the secretary may require, each loan agreement shall include:

(a) Provision for interest, which shall be set at 3 percent per annum.

(b) Provision for a schedule for the repayment of principal and interest upon terms not to exceed 3 years. However, the secretary, upon review after the expiration of no less than 18 months of the original term, is authorized to extend the terms of a loan for an additional period not to exceed 2 years.

(c) Provisions for reasonable security for the loan to insure the repayment of the principal and any interest accrued within the term specified. Reasonable security shall be a promissory note secured by:

1. A mortgage from the eligible borrower on the property to be improved or to be purchased and improved from the proceeds of the loan.

2. Other forms of collateral acceptable to the secretary.

(d) Provisions to insure that the land acquired shall be utilized for the development of housing and related services for persons of low or moderate income.

(e) Provisions to insure, to the extent possible, that any accrued savings in cost due to the availability of these funds shall be passed on to persons of low or moderate income in the form of lower prices or rents for dwellings constructed on such land.

(f) Provision that no land acquired through assistance under this part shall be disposed of or alienated in any way except for the provision of housing for persons of low and moderate income in a manner that in no way violates Title VIII of the 1968 Civil Rights Act, which specifically prohibits discrimination based on race, color, religion, or national origin in the sale of vacant land to be used for residential purposes.

(2) No single loan made under this section shall exceed the lesser of:

- (a) The development and acquisition costs, as determined by rule of the secretary; or
- (b) Four hundred thousand dollars, unless it is determined by the secretary that any excess amount will be recovered through assured refunds before the maturity of the loan from sources such as the United States Housing and Urban Development Block Grant, Farmers Home Administration loan programs, or utility companies and be used for pertinent facilities financed with the loan.

History.—s. 7, ch. 74-168; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 6, ch. 79-176.
cf.—s. 420.211 Expiration of lending authority.

420.206 Rules and regulations; annual report.—The secretary is authorized to promulgate rules and regulations, on or before February 1, 1975, necessary to establish terms and conditions that will insure that the purposes of this part are carried out and the state's interests are adequately protected. The secretary shall submit to the Governor by June 30 an annual report with complete details of the amount loaned, interest earned, loan recipients, persons housed, and the balances on all loans outstanding at the end of each fiscal year.

History.—s. 8, ch. 74-168.
cf.—s. 420.211 Expiration of lending authority.

420.207 Default by borrower; power of the secretary.—In the event of default on a loan, the secretary is empowered on behalf of the state to foreclose on any mortgage or security interest or commence any legal action to protect the interest of the state and recover the amount of the unpaid principal, accrued interest, and fees on behalf of the fund.

History.—s. 9, ch. 74-168; s. 11, ch. 79-176.
cf.—s. 420.211 Expiration of lending authority.

420.208 Failure or inability of the eligible borrower to cause housing to be developed on land purchased; recourse.—The secretary is authorized to take appropriate legal action to transfer title of the land to the state when:

(1) A loan recipient does not cause the land to be developed for housing for persons and families of low or moderate income within 3 years from the execution of the loan agreement, unless the secretary has extended the term of the loan.

(2) It is jointly determined by the secretary and the loan recipient that, because of a change in the characteristics of the parcel acquired or because of a change in federal, state, or local programs, it is impossible for the land to be developed for housing for persons of low or moderate income.

All land so acquired shall be administered by the secretary in accordance with s. 420.209.

History.—s. 10, ch. 74-168.
cf.—s. 420.211 Expiration of lending authority.

420.209 Disposition of property accruing to the state.—When, because of the effects of this part, title to lands is acquired by the state to be administered by the secretary, the following provisions shall apply:

(1) Subject to the approval of the Board of Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund, and pursuant to rules and regulations promulgated by the secretary and approved by such trustees, the secretary is empowered to make land so acquired available to eligible sponsors for the provision of housing for persons of low or moderate income, and, in such cases, the conveyance and reconveyance procedures for state lands as provided in chapters 253 and 270 shall not apply.

(2) When the secretary determines that it is not possible for the land to be developed for housing for persons of low or moderate income, the land shall be sold in accordance with the conveyance and reconveyance procedures for state lands as provided in chapters 253 and 270, with all net proceeds to be deposited to the fund.

History.—s. 11, ch. 74-168.

420.210 Lands; subject to taxation.—Lands purchased under this part shall not be exempted from ad valorem taxation while title is held by the loan recipient. Such taxes shall accrue and be capitalized as part of the total development costs.

History.—s. 12, ch. 74-168.

420.211 Expiration of lending authority.—The lending authority granted to the secretary under this part shall expire June 30, 1985. All unencumbered and repaid funds after this date shall revert and be transferred to the General Revenue Fund of the state, unallocated. Loan repayments received in the fund after June 30, 1985, shall revert and be transferred to the General Revenue Fund, unallocated, as they are received.

History.—s. 14, ch. 74-168; s. 7, ch. 79-176.

PART IV

FARMWORKER HOUSING ASSISTANCE

- 420.40 Short title.
- 420.401 Finding and declaration of necessity.
- 420.402 Purpose.
- 420.403 Definitions.
- 420.404 Farmworker Housing Assistance Trust Fund.
- 420.405 Grants authorized; activities eligible for support.
- 420.406 Application procedure.
- 420.407 Rules of the department; annual reports.
- 420.408 Application of Florida Residential Landlord and Tenant Act.
- 420.409 Right to receive visitors.
- 420.411 Administration.
- 420.412 Supplementary nature of part.
- 420.413 Expiration of this part.

420.40 Short title.—This part shall be known as the "Farmworker Housing Assistance Act."

History.—ss. 1, 5, ch. 79-220.

Note.—Expires July 1, 1984.

1420.401 Finding and declaration of necessity.—In addition to the findings and declarations in ss. 420.201, 421.02, 422.02, 423.01, and 424.02, which are hereby reaffirmed, it is hereby found and declared by the Legislature that:

(1) There continues to exist a serious shortage of safe, decent, and sanitary dwelling accommodations for farmworkers in many parts of the state.

(2) Existing private, local, state, and federal resources have not been adequate to remedy this shortage.

(3) The provision of farmworker housing assistance grants is necessary to make full and complete utilization of currently available resources for farmworker housing.

(4) The provision of farmworker housing assistance grants to local public bodies and nonprofit organizations for farmworker housing centers is exclusively for essential public and governmental purposes for which public money may be spent, and the necessity in the public interest for the provisions hereinafter enacted is hereby declared as a matter of express legislative determination.

History.—ss. 1, 5, ch. 79-220.

Note.—Expires July 1, 1984.

1420.402 Purpose.—The purpose of this part is:

(1) To provide for financial and technical assistance to public bodies and nonprofit groups who will provide for the sponsorship of farmworker housing, financed by agencies of the Federal Government, in areas of the state where the need for such housing clearly exists.

(2) To develop and enhance maximum flexibility in the use of federal assistance and funds in the provision of housing for this segment of Florida's population.

(3) To provide this state and its local governments a greater ability to define the housing needs, set priorities, and design housing centers for its citizens that respond directly to local farmworker housing conditions.

(4) To create a Farmworker Housing Assistance Trust Fund to be used by nonprofit and public bodies that sponsor farmworker housing.

History.—ss. 1, 5, ch. 79-220.

Note.—Expires July 1, 1984.

1420.403 Definitions.—For the purpose of this part, unless the context indicates otherwise:

(1) "Application" means a written request for a farmworker housing assistance grant to sponsor farmworker housing.

(2) "Farmworker housing assistance grant" means grant assistance by the state, from funds appropriated by this part, to local public bodies or nonprofit organizations which seek to sponsor farmworker housing centers, such funds to be expended only for the purposes authorized in s. 420.405.

(3) "Local public body" means any local or regional housing agency identified by a local governing body as its agent to deal with the provision of housing for low and moderate income persons within its jurisdiction and includes, without limitation, a housing authority created pursuant to chapter 421 and a unit of local government.

(4) "Nonprofit organization" means any group incorporated under chapter 617 to provide housing and other services on a not-for-profit basis, and which is acceptable to federal and state lending agencies as a sponsor of farmworker housing.

(5) "Department" means the Department of Community Affairs.

(6) "Fund" means the Farmworker Housing Assistance Trust Fund.

(7) "Secretary" means the Secretary of Community Affairs.

(8) "Sponsor" means a local public body or nonprofit organization which makes application for a farmworker housing assistance grant.

(9) "Farmworker housing" includes dwelling units, structures, and facilities that are deemed necessary to such housing.

(10) "Farmworker" shall be commensurate with the definition used by the lending agency. In the absence of a definition by the lending agency, "farmworker" means any person employed in the harvesting of agricultural crops who derives at least 50 percent of his income from such employment.

History.—ss. 1, 5, ch. 79-220.

Note.—Expires July 1, 1984.

Note.—Section 3, ch. 79-220, provides that in the event of reorganization in which the Bureau of Migrant Labor is transferred to the Office of the Governor, the functions provided by ch. 79-220 shall be transferred with the bureau, and powers and duties delegated by ch. 79-220 to the Secretary of Community Affairs shall be reposed in the Office of the Governor. Section 4, ch. 79-190, provides that all powers, duties, functions, records, property, and funds of the migrant labor section of the Department of Community Affairs are transferred to the Executive Office of the Governor.

1420.404 Farmworker Housing Assistance Trust Fund.—

(1) There is established in the State Treasury a separate trust fund to be named the "Farmworker Housing Assistance Trust Fund." There shall be deposited into the fund the moneys specified in s. 2 of chapter 79-220, Laws of Florida. Income earned by the fund invested pursuant to s. 215.49 shall be deposited in the General Revenue Fund of the state unallocated. The fund shall be administered by the department according to the provisions of this part and with moneys appropriated by s. 2 of chapter 79-220, Laws of Florida, for that purpose.

(2) All funds in the Farmworker Housing Assistance Trust Fund on June 30, 1984, shall revert and be transferred to the General Revenue Fund unallocated.

History.—ss. 1, 4, 5, ch. 79-220.

Note.—Expires July 1, 1984.

Note.—Section 3, ch. 79-220, provides that in the event of reorganization in which the Bureau of Migrant Labor is transferred to the Office of the Governor, the functions provided by ch. 79-220 shall be transferred with the bureau, and powers and duties delegated by ch. 79-220 to the Secretary of Community Affairs shall be reposed in the Office of the Governor. Section 4, ch. 79-190, provides that all powers, duties, functions, records, property, and funds of the migrant labor section of the Department of Community Affairs are transferred to the Executive Office of the Governor.

1420.405 Grants authorized; activities eligible for support.—

(1) The secretary is authorized to make grants from the fund to eligible local public bodies and nonprofit organizations when the secretary determines that:

(a) A need for farmworker housing exists in the area described in the application.

(b) Federal, state, or local assistance funds are available or are likely to be available to aid in the site acquisition, construction, maintenance, or support of the farmworker housing described in the application.

(c) Funds from other sources are not readily available.

(d) When an application is from a nonprofit organization, the governing board of which consists of not less than one-third farmworker representation.

(2) Activities of sponsors which are eligible for farmworker housing assistance grants include, but are not limited to:

(a) Loan and grant packaging activities required to initiate a farmworker housing center or rehabilitate an existing farmworker housing center, including, but not limited to, administrative, engineering, and legal requirements of the program sponsor and the lending institutions.

(b) Provision of earnest money for site acquisition.

(c) Initiation of a management component to make the farmworker housing center self-sustaining.

(d) Initiation of a counseling component for residents of the farmworker housing center.

(3) The grant authority of the <sup>2</sup>secretary under this part shall expire June 30, 1984.

History.—ss. 1, 4, 5, ch. 79-220.

Note.—Expires July 1, 1984.

Note.—Section 3, ch. 79-220, provides that in the event of reorganization in which the Bureau of Migrant Labor is transferred to the Office of the Governor, the functions provided by ch. 79-220 shall be transferred with the bureau, and powers and duties delegated by ch. 79-220 to the Secretary of Community Affairs shall be reposed in the Office of the Governor. Section 4, ch. 79-190, provides that all powers, duties, functions, records, property, and funds of the migrant labor section of the Department of Community Affairs are transferred to the Executive Office of the Governor.

1420.406 Application procedure.—

(1) Applications shall be submitted to the <sup>2</sup>Bureau of Migrant Labor in a form established by rule of the <sup>2</sup>department. To be considered, an application must meet the requirements of s. 420.405(1) and:

(a) Indicate that the sponsor meets all requirements of local, state, and federal lending agencies relative to its eligibility as a sponsor of farmworker housing.

(b) Be accompanied by a resolution of the governing board of the sponsor authorizing the application.

(c) Contain such other information or material required by the rules of the <sup>2</sup>department.

(2) The <sup>2</sup>Bureau of Migrant Labor shall review applications and make recommendations to the <sup>2</sup>secretary relative to granting or denying the application. A recommendation to grant an application shall be accompanied by a recommended amount of the grant and necessary further conditions or requirements.

History.—ss. 1, 5, ch. 79-220.

Note.—Expires July 1, 1984.

Note.—Section 3, ch. 79-220, provides that in the event of reorganization in which the Bureau of Migrant Labor is transferred to the Office of the Governor, the functions provided by ch. 79-220 shall be transferred with the bureau, and powers and duties delegated by ch. 79-220 to the Secretary of Community Affairs shall be reposed in the Office of the Governor. Section 4, ch. 79-190, provides that all powers, duties, functions, records, property, and funds of the migrant labor section of the Department of Community Affairs are transferred to the Executive Office of the Governor.

1420.407 Rules of the <sup>2</sup>department; annual reports.—

(1) The <sup>2</sup>secretary is authorized to adopt rules necessary to implement this part and to further specify the purposes for which grant funds may be expended, the required content of applications, application procedures, and reporting requirements for sponsors awarded grants under this part.

(2) The <sup>2</sup>secretary shall submit to the Governor, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and the President of the Senate by June 30 an annual report summarizing grants made, loan commitments received by sponsors, and projects initiated and completed.

History.—ss. 1, 5, ch. 79-220.

Note.—Expires July 1, 1984.

Note.—Section 3, ch. 79-220, provides that in the event of reorganization in which the Bureau of Migrant Labor is transferred to the Office of the Governor, the functions provided by ch. 79-220 shall be transferred with the bureau, and powers and duties delegated by ch. 79-220 to the Secretary of Community Affairs shall be reposed in the Office of the Governor. Section 4, ch. 79-190, provides that all powers, duties, functions, records, property, and funds of the migrant labor section of the Department of Community Affairs are transferred to the Executive Office of the Governor.

1420.408 Application of Florida Residential Landlord and Tenant Act.—Tenants residing in any housing constructed under this part shall be subject to the provisions of part II of chapter 83, the Florida Residential Landlord and Tenant Act, provided that there shall be no eviction except for good cause shown.

History.—ss. 1, 5, ch. 79-220.

Note.—Expires July 1, 1984.

1420.409 Right to receive visitors.—The right of residents living in facilities constructed under this part to receive visitors of their choice shall not be abridged.

History.—ss. 1, 5, ch. 79-220.

Note.—Expires July 1, 1984.

1420.411 Administration.—The administration of this part shall be commensurate with the cooperation agreement between the Governor of the State of Florida and the Government of the United States of America acting through the United States Department of Agriculture, its agent.

History.—ss. 1, 5, ch. 79-220.

Note.—Expires July 1, 1984.

1420.412 Supplementary nature of part.—The provisions of this part and the powers conferred herein shall be in addition and supplemental to those conferred by any other law.

History.—ss. 1, 5, ch. 79-220.

Note.—Expires July 1, 1984.

1420.413 Expiration of this part.—The provisions of this part shall expire and be void and inoperative on July 1, 1984.

History.—s. 5, ch. 79-220.

Note.—Expires July 1, 1984.

PART V

NEIGHBORHOOD HOUSING REHABILITATION PROGRAMS

- 420.421 Short title.
- 420.422 Legislative findings.
- 420.423 Policy and purpose.
- 420.424 Definitions.
- 420.425 Neighborhood Housing Services Grant Fund.
- 420.426 Eligible applicants.
- 420.427 Project eligibility.

420.428 Eligible activities.

420.429 Authority of the department.

420.421 Short title.—Sections 420.421-420.429 may be cited as the "Neighborhood Housing Services Act."

History.—s. 1, ch. 79-259.

420.422 Legislative findings.—The Legislature finds that:

(1) A substantial number of housing units in this state are in deteriorating condition, many residents are living in dwelling units which do not conform to applicable local codes and ordinances that are intended to ensure the health and safety of the occupants, and this condition impedes the development and conservation of healthy, safe, and viable communities in this state.

(2) Deteriorating housing contributes to the decline of neighborhoods and the surrounding areas, causes a reduction of the value of property comprising the tax base of local communities, and eventually requires the expenditures of disproportionate amounts of public funds for health, social services, and police protection to prevent the development of slums and the social and economic disruption found in slum communities.

(3) The rehabilitation of suitable housing will increase its economic life, is more economical and less disruptive than replacement of the housing and the relocation of its occupants, can better promote community development when conducted through organized housing rehabilitation programs, and is essential to promote sound community development in this state.

(4) The rehabilitation of housing will result in the conservation of energy and environmental resources through the installation of insulation and through discouraging the inefficient use of energy and environmental resources caused by low density sprawl in undeveloped areas.

(5) Unless the problems of deteriorating housing and the accompanying problems associated with the decline of neighborhoods and surrounding areas and the loss of valuable property from the tax base are addressed, the health, safety, and welfare of the residents of the affected communities and of this state will be detrimentally affected.

(6) The amount of public resources currently available or likely to be available for the rehabilitation and maintenance of marginal or substandard residential units in this state is grossly inadequate.

(7) If significant progress is to be made in adequately reducing or eliminating substandard housing in this state, it is imperative that the resources of the private sector be urged to assist in the rehabilitation of housing.

(8) A partnership of state and local public agencies with private residential financing institutions to coordinate and optimize their respective resources is critical to any serious effort to conserve and protect the state's increasingly valuable stock of existing housing.

(9) The neighborhood housing services program of the Neighborhood Reinvestment Corporation has proven itself to be a highly effective mechanism for rehabilitating housing and revitalizing declining neighborhoods by combining public resources with private resources.

(10) The creation and expansion of neighborhood housing services programs among the municipalities and counties of this state will serve the interests of the citizens of this state.

History.—s. 2, ch. 79-259.

420.423 Policy and purpose.—It is the policy of this state to provide a necessary means to prevent the deterioration of housing, the decline of neighborhoods and surrounding areas, and the inefficient use of energy and environmental resources associated with such deterioration and decline. The purpose of ss. 420.421-420.429 are to assist local governments in participating in a cooperative program with private financial institutions to deliver effective and continuing support to declining neighborhoods in order to reverse that decline and restore the health and vitality of such neighborhoods. The Legislature, therefore, declares that the rehabilitation of housing to facilitate the preservation and revitalization of neighborhoods, the development of healthy, safe, and viable communities in this state, and all the purposes of ss. 420.421-420.429 are public purposes for which public money may be borrowed, expended, loaned, and granted.

History.—s. 3, ch. 79-259.

420.424 Definitions.—As used in ss. 420.421-420.429:

(1) "Department" means the Department of Community Affairs.

(2) "Secretary" means the Secretary of the Department of Community Affairs.

(3) "Fund" means the Neighborhood Housing Services Grant Fund.

(4) "Local government" means any county or incorporated municipality within this state.

(5) "Neighborhood housing services corporation" means a private, nonprofit, community-based corporation organized under the laws of this state to develop and administer a local neighborhood housing services program.

(6) "Neighborhood housing services program" means a program developed by the Neighborhood Reinvestment Corporation and implemented locally by neighborhood housing services corporations to stimulate reinvestment in urban neighborhoods.

(7) "Neighborhood Reinvestment Corporation" means a corporation or its successor sponsored by the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development, the Federal Home Loan Bank Board, the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency, the Federal Reserve, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, and the National Credit Union Administration for the purpose of creating a partnership between private financial institutions, government, and citizens to undertake the rehabilitation and revitalization of declining residential neighborhoods.

(8) "Project" means a neighborhood housing services program distinctly established and funded to serve a defined neighborhood.

(9) "Rehabilitation" means the repair, renovation, reconstruction, or other improvement of housing to restore that housing to a sound condition or to ensure that the housing can be maintained in that condition or to improve the general utility and attractiveness of such housing.

History.—s. 4, ch. 79-259.

420.425 Neighborhood Housing Services Grant Fund.—There is established in the State Treasury a separate trust fund to be called the Neighborhood Housing Services Grant Fund. The fund shall be administered by the department as a grant fund for carrying out the purposes of ss. 420.421-420.429. There shall be deposited into the fund all moneys appropriated by the Legislature or moneys received from any other sources for the purpose of ss. 420.421-420.429.

History.—s. 5, ch. 79-259.

420.426 Eligible applicants.—To receive a grant, an applicant must:

- (1) Be a local government within this state;
- (2) Be able to demonstrate a clear need for the financial assistance made available through ss. 420.421-420.429; and
- (3) Be certified by the Neighborhood Reinvestment Corporation Program as a participant.

History.—s. 6, ch. 79-259.

420.427 Project eligibility.—

- (1) Grants may be provided to newly incorporated projects or to existing projects that are expanding to include adjacent geographical areas. Projects are eligible for funding each time they expand.
- (2) Each individual project of a local government having one or more projects within its jurisdiction is eligible for funding.
- (3) In no case shall more than $125,000 be granted to an individual project.

History.—ss. 8, 9, ch. 79-259.

420.428 Eligible activities.—Grant recipients may use grant funds made available pursuant to ss. 420.421-420.429 to fulfill some or all of the local government's financial responsibility for participating in the program. Use of these grant funds is restricted to:

- (1) Supporting the development of the corporation;
- (2) Providing operating support to the neighborhood housing services corporation; and
- (3) Funding a revolving high risk loan fund.

History.—s. 7, ch. 79-259.

420.429 Authority of the department.—The department shall have all the powers necessary to carry out the purposes and provisions of ss. 420.421-420.429. The department may:

- (1) Make contracts and agreements with the Federal Government, other agencies of the state, any other public agency, or any other person, association, corporation, local government, or other entity in exercising its powers and performing its duties under ss. 420.421-420.429.
- (2) Seek and accept funding from any public or private source.
- (3) Adopt and enforce rules not inconsistent with ss. 420.421-420.429 for the administration of the Neighborhood Housing Services Grant Fund.
- (4) Assist in training employees of local governments and local agencies to help achieve and increase their capacity to administer community conservation programs and provide technical assistance and advice to local governments and local agencies involved with neighborhood housing services programs.

History.—s. 10, ch. 79-259.

- 421.001 State's role in housing and urban development.—The role of state government required by part I of chapter 421 (Housing Authorities Law), chapter 422 (Housing Cooperation Law), chapter 423 (Tax Exemption of Housing Authorities), and chapter 424 (Limited Dividend Housing Companies) is the responsibility of the Department of Community Affairs, and the department is the agency of state government responsible for the state's role in housing and urban development.
History.—s. 18, ch. 69-106.
- 421.01 Short title.—Part I of this chapter may be referred to as the "Housing Authorities Law."
History.—s. 1, ch. 17981, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 7100(3-a).
- 421.02 Finding and declaration of necessity.
—It is hereby declared that:
(1) There exist in the state insanitary or unsafe dwelling accommodations and that persons of low income are forced to reside in such insanitary or unsafe accommodations; that within the state there is a shortage of safe or sanitary dwelling accommodations available at rents which persons of low income can afford and that such persons are forced to occupy overcrowded and congested dwelling accommodations; that the aforesaid conditions cause an increase in and spread of disease and crime and constitute a menace to the health, safety, morals and welfare of the residents of the state and impair economic values; that these conditions necessitate excessive and disproportionate expenditures of public funds for crime prevention and punishment, public health, welfare and safety, fire and accident protection, and other public services and facilities.

(2) Slum areas in the state cannot be cleared, nor can the shortage of safe and sanitary dwellings for persons of low income be relieved, through the operation of private enterprise, and that the construction of housing projects for persons of low income, as herein defined, would therefore not be competitive with private enterprise.

(3) The clearance, replanning and reconstruction of the areas in which insanitary or unsafe housing conditions exist and the providing of safe and sanitary dwelling accommodations for persons of low income, including the acquisition by a housing authority of property to be used for or in connection with housing projects or appurtenant thereto, are exclusively public uses and purposes for which public money may be spent and private property acquired and are governmental functions of public concern.

(4) The necessity in the public interest for the provisions hereinafter enacted, is hereby declared as a matter of legislative determination.

History.—s. 2, ch. 17981, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 7100(3-b).

421.03 Definitions.—The following terms, wherever used or referred to in this part, shall have the following respective meanings for the purposes of this part, unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context:

(1) "Authority" or "housing authority" shall mean any of the public corporations created by s. 421.04.

(2) "City" shall mean any city or town of the state having a population of more than 2,500, according to the last preceding federal or state census. "The city" shall mean the particular city for which a particular housing authority is created.

(3) "Governing body" shall mean the city council, the commission, or other legislative body charged with governing the city, as the case may be.

(4) "Mayor" shall mean the mayor of the city or the officer thereof charged with the duties customarily imposed on the mayor or executive head of the city.

(5) "Clerk" shall mean the clerk of the city or the officer of the city charged with the duties customarily imposed on the clerk thereof.

(6) "Area of operation":

(a) In the case of a housing authority of a city having a population of less than 25,000, shall include such city and the area within 5 miles of the territorial boundaries thereof; and

(b) In the case of a housing authority of a city having a population of 25,000 or more shall include such city and the area within 10 miles from the territorial boundaries thereof; provided however, that the area of operation of a housing authority of any city shall not include any area which lies within the territorial boundaries of some other city as herein defined; and further provided that the area of operation shall not extend outside of the boundaries of the county in which the city is located and no housing authority shall have any power or jurisdiction outside of the county in which the city is located.

(7) "Federal Government" shall include the United States, the Federal Emergency Administration of Public Works or any other agency or instrumentality, corporate or otherwise, of the United States.

(8) "Slum" shall mean any area where dwellings predominate which, by reason of dilapidation, overcrowding, faulty arrangement or design, lack of ventilation, light or sanitary facilities, or any combination of these factors, are detrimental to safety, health and morals.

(9) "Housing project" shall mean any work or undertaking:

(a) To demolish, clear, or remove buildings from any slum area; such work or undertaking may embrace the adaption of such area to public purposes, including parks or other recreational or community purposes; or

(b) To provide decent, safe and sanitary urban or rural dwellings, apartments or other living accommodations for persons of low income; such work or undertaking may include buildings, land, equipment, facilities and other real or personal property for necessary, convenient or desirable appurtenances, streets, sewers, water service, parks, site preparation, gardening, administrative, community, health, recreational, educational, welfare or other purposes; or

(c) To accomplish a combination of the foregoing. The term "housing project" also may be applied to the planning of the buildings and improvements, the acquisition of property, the demolition of existing structures, the construction, reconstruction, alteration and repair of the improvements and all other work in connection therewith.

(10) "Persons of low income" shall mean persons or families who lack the amount of income which is necessary, as determined by the authority undertaking the housing project, to enable them, without financial assistance, to live in decent, safe and sanitary dwellings, without overcrowding.

(11) "Debentures" shall mean any notes, interim certificates, debentures, revenue certificates, or other obligations issued by an authority pursuant to this chapter.

(12) "Real property" shall include all lands, including improvements and fixtures thereon, and property of any nature appurtenant thereto, or used in connection therewith, and every estate, interest and right, legal or equitable, therein, including terms for years and liens by way of judgment, mortgage or otherwise and the indebtedness secured by such liens.

(13) "Obligee of the authority" or "obligee" shall include any holder of debentures, trustee or trustees for any such holders, or lessor demising to the authority property used in connection with a housing project, or any assignee or assignees of such lessor's interest or any part thereof, and the Federal Government when it is a party to any contract with the authority.

421.04 Creation of housing authorities.—

(1) In each city, as herein defined, there is hereby created a public body corporate and politic to be known as the "Housing Authority" of the city; provided, however, that such authority shall not transact any business or exercise its powers hereunder until or unless the governing body of the city by proper resolution shall declare that there is need for an authority to function in such city. The determination as to whether there is such need for an authority to function:

(a) May be made by the governing body on its own motion; or

(b) Shall be made by the governing body upon the filing of a petition signed by 25 residents of the city asserting that there is need for an authority to function in such city and requesting that the governing body so declare.

(2) The governing body may adopt a resolution declaring that there is need for a housing authority in the city if it shall find that:

(a) Insanitary or unsafe inhabited dwelling accommodations exist in such city; or

(b) There is a shortage of safe or sanitary dwelling accommodations in such city available to persons of low income at rentals they can afford. In determining whether dwelling accommodations are unsafe or insanitary said governing body may take into consideration the degree of overcrowding, the percentage of land coverage, the light, air, space and access available to the inhabitants of such dwelling accommodations, the size and arrangement of the rooms, the sanitary facilities, and the extent to which conditions exist in such buildings which endanger life or property by fire or other causes.

(3) In any suit, action or proceeding involving the validity or enforcement of or relating to any contract of the authority, the authority shall be conclusively deemed to have become established and authorized to transact business and exercise its powers hereunder upon proof of the adoption of a resolution by the governing body declaring the need for the authority. Such resolution or resolutions shall be sufficient if it declares that there is such need for an authority and finds in substantially the foregoing terms, no further detail being necessary, that either or both of the above enumerated conditions exist in the city. A copy of such resolution duly certified by the clerk shall be admissible in evidence in any suit, action or proceeding.

421.05 Appointment, qualifications, and tenure of commissioners.—

(1) When the governing body of a city adopts a resolution as aforesaid, the mayor with the approval of the governing body shall promptly appoint five persons as commissioners of the authority created for said city. Three of the commissioners who are first appointed shall be designated to serve for terms of 1, 2, and 3 years respectively; and the remaining two of such commissioners shall be designated to serve for terms of 4 years each, from the date of their appointment. Thereafter commissioners shall be appointed as aforesaid for a term of office of 4 years, except that a vacancy shall be filled for the unexpired term by an appointment of the mayor with the approval of the governing body within 60 days after such vacancy occurs. No commissioner of an authority may be an officer or employee of the city for which the authority is created. A commissioner shall hold office until his successor has been appointed and has qualified. A certificate of the appointment or reappointment of any commissioner shall be filed with the clerk and such certificate shall be conclusive evidence of the due and proper appointment of such commissioner. A commissioner shall receive no compensation for his services, but he shall be entitled to the necessary expenses, including traveling expenses, incurred in the discharge of his duties.

(2) The powers of each authority shall be vested in the commissioners thereof in office from time to time. Three commissioners shall constitute a quorum of the authority for the purpose of conducting its business and exercising its powers and for all other purposes. Action may be taken by the authority upon a vote of a majority of the commissioners present, unless in any case the bylaws of the authority shall require a larger number. The mayor with the concurrence of the governing body shall designate which of the commissioners appointed shall be the first chairman, but when the office of the chairman of the authority thereafter becomes vacant, the authority shall select a chairman from among its commissioners. An authority shall select from among its commissioners a vice chairman, and it may employ a secretary, who shall be executive director, technical experts and such other officers, agents and employees, permanent and temporary, as it may require, and shall determine their qualifications, duties and compensation. For such legal services as it may require, an authority may call upon the chief law officer of the city or may employ its own counsel and legal staff. An authority may delegate to one or more of its agents or employees such powers or duties as it may deem proper.

History.—s. 5, ch. 17981, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 7100(3-e); s. 1, ch. 59-413; s. 1, ch. 78-165.

421.06 Interested commissioners or employees.—No commissioner or employee of an authority shall acquire any interest, direct or indirect, in any housing project or in any property included or planned to be included in any project, nor shall he have any interest, direct or indirect, in any contract or proposed contract for materials or services to be furnished or used in connection with any housing project. If any commissioner or employee of an authority owns or controls an interest, direct or indirect, in any property included or planned to be included in any housing project, he shall immediately disclose the same in writing to the authority and such disclosure shall be entered upon the minutes of the authority. Failure so to disclose such interest shall constitute misconduct in office.

History.—s. 6, ch. 17981, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 7100(3-f).

421.07 Removal of commissioners.—For inefficiency or neglect of duty or misconduct in office, a commissioner of an authority may be removed by the mayor with the concurrence of the governing body, but a commissioner shall be removed only after he shall have been given a copy of the charges at least 10 days prior to the hearing thereon and had an opportunity to be heard in person or by counsel. In the event of the removal of any commissioner, a record of the proceedings, together with the charges and findings thereon, shall be filed in the office of the clerk.

History.—s. 7, ch. 17981; 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 7100(3-g); s. 2, ch. 59-413.

421.08 Powers of authority.—An authority shall constitute a public body corporate and politic, exercising the public and essential governmental functions set forth in this chapter, and having all the powers necessary or convenient to carry out and effectuate the purpose and provisions of this chapter, including the following powers in addition to others herein granted:

(1) To sue and be sued; to have a seal and to alter the same at pleasure; to have perpetual succession; to make and execute contracts and other instruments necessary or convenient to the exercise of the powers of the authority; and to make and from time to time amend and repeal bylaws, rules and regulations, not inconsistent with this chapter, to carry into effect the powers and purposes of the authority.

(2) Within its area of operation, to prepare, carry out, acquire, lease and operate housing projects; to provide for the construction, reconstruction, improvement, alteration or repair of any housing project or any part thereof.

(3) To arrange or contract for the furnishing by any person or agency, public or private, of services, privileges, works, or facilities for, or in connection with, a housing project or the occupants thereof; provided, however, that notwithstanding any other power or provision in this chapter, the authority shall not construct, lease, control, purchase or otherwise establish in connection with or as a part of any housing project or any other real or any other property under its control, any system, work, facilities, plants or other equipment for the purpose of furnishing utility service of any kind to such projects or to any tenant or occupant thereof in the event that a system, work, facility, plant or other equipment for the furnishing of the same utility service is being actually operated by a municipality or private concern in the area of operation or the city or the territory immediately adjacent thereto; provided, further, that nothing herein shall be construed to prohibit the construction or acquisition by the authority of any system, work, facilities or other equipment for the sole and only purpose of receiving utility services from any such municipality or such private concern and then distributing such utility services to the project and to the tenants and occupants thereof; and, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this chapter or in any other provision of law, to include in any contract let in connection with a project, stipulations requiring that the contractor and any subcontractors comply with requirements as to minimum wages and maximum hours of labor, and comply with any conditions which the Federal Government may have attached to its financial aid of the project.

(4) To lease or rent any dwellings, houses, accommodations, lands, buildings, structures or facilities embraced in any housing project and, subject to the limitations contained in this chapter, to establish and revise the rents or charges therefor; to own, hold and improve real or personal property; to purchase, lease, obtain options upon, acquire by gift, grant, bequest, devise, or otherwise any real or personal property or any interest therein; to acquire by the exercise of the power of eminent domain any real property; to sell, lease, exchange, transfer, assign, pledge or dispose of any real or personal property or any interest therein; to insure or provide for the insurance of any real or personal property or operations of the authority against any risks or hazards; to procure or agree to the procurement of insurance or guarantees from the Federal Government of the payment of any such debts or parts thereof, whether or not incurred by said authority, including the power to pay premiums on any such insurance.

(5) To invest any funds held in reserves or sinking funds, or any funds not required for immediate disbursement, in property or securities in which savings banks may legally invest funds subject to their control; to purchase its debentures at a price not more than the principal amount thereof and accrued interest, all debentures so purchased to be canceled.

(6) Within its area of operation: to investigate into living, dwelling and housing conditions and into the means and methods of improving such conditions; to determine where slum areas exist or where there is a shortage of decent, safe and sanitary dwelling accommodations for persons of low income; to make studies and recommendations relating to the problem of clearing, replanning and reconstruction of slum areas, and the problem of providing dwelling accommodations for persons of low income, and to cooperate with the city, the county, the state or any political subdivision thereof in action taken in connection with such problems; and to engage in research, studies and experimentation on the subject of housing.

(7) Acting through one or more commissioners or other person or persons designated by the authority; to conduct examinations and investigations and to hear testimony and take proof under oath at public or private hearings on any matter material for its information; to administer oaths, issue subpoenas requiring the attendance of witnesses or the production of books and papers and to issue commissions for the examination of witnesses who are outside of the state or unable to attend before the authority, or excused from attendance; to make available to appropriate agencies, including those charged with the duty of abating or requiring the correction of nuisances or like conditions, or of demolishing unsafe or insanitary structures within its area of operation, its findings and recommendations with regard to any building or property where conditions exist which are dangerous to the public health, morals, safety or welfare.

(8) To exercise all or any part or combination of powers herein granted. No provisions of law with respect to acquisition, operation or disposition of property by other public bodies shall be applicable to an authority unless the Legislature shall specifically so state.

History.—s. 8, ch. 17981, 1937; CGL-1940 Supp. 7100(3-h). cf.—ss. 421.24, 421.47, 421.52 Validation, etc., of acts.
s. 421.32 Rural housing projects.

421.09 Operation not for profit.—It is the policy of this state that each housing authority shall manage and operate its housing projects in an efficient manner so as to enable it to fix the rentals for dwelling accommodations at the lowest possible rates consistent with its providing decent, safe and sanitary dwelling accommodations, and that no housing authority shall construct or operate any such project for profit, or as a source of revenue to the city. To this end an authority shall fix the rentals for dwellings in its project at no higher rate than it shall find to be necessary in order to produce revenues which, together with all other available moneys, revenue, income and receipts of the authority from whatever sources derived, will be sufficient:

(1) To pay, as the same shall become due, the principal and interest on the debentures of the authority;

(2) To meet the cost of, and to provide for, maintaining and operating the projects, including the cost of any insurance, and the administrative expenses of the authority; and

(3) To create, during not less than the 6 years immediately succeeding its issuance of any debentures, a reserve sufficient to meet the largest principal and interest payments which will be due on such debentures in any one year thereafter, and to maintain such reserve.

History.—s. 9, ch. 17981, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 7100(3-i).

421.091 Financial accounting and investments; fiscal year.—

(1) A complete and full financial accounting and audit shall be made biennially by a certified public accountant. A copy of said audit shall be filed with the governing body.

(2) The fiscal year of a housing authority shall be the fiscal year established by the Federal Government.

History.—s. 3, ch. 59-413; s. 2, ch. 78-165.

421.10 Rentals and tenant selection.—

(1) In the operation or management of housing projects an authority shall at all times observe the following duties with respect to rentals and tenants selection:

(a) It may rent or lease the dwelling accommodations therein only to persons of low income and at rentals within the financial reach of such persons of low income;

(b) It may rent or lease to a tenant dwelling accommodations consisting of the number of rooms, but no greater number, which it deems necessary to provide safe and sanitary accommodations to the proposed occupants thereof, without overcrowding; and

(c) It shall accept any person as a tenant in any housing project according to the appropriate guidelines as established by the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development or other federal agencies.

(d) The Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services, pursuant to 45 C.F.R. s. 233.20(a)(3)(vii)(c), shall not consider as income for aid to families with dependent children assistance received by recipients from other agencies or organizations such as public housing authorities.

(2) Nothing contained in this section or s. 421.09, shall be construed as limiting the power of an authority to vest in an obligee the right, in the event of a default by the authority, to take possession of a housing project or cause the appointment of a receiver thereof, free from all the restrictions imposed by this or the preceding section.

(3) This section shall not apply to housing facilities financed by loans made for the purpose of providing such facilities for domestic farm labor pursuant to s. 514 of the Federal Housing Act of 1949.

History.—s. 10, ch. 17981, 1937; s. 1, ch. 19510, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 7100(3-j); s. 7, ch. 22858, 1945; s. 1, ch. 65-223; s. 3, ch. 78-165.
cf.—s. 421.32 Rural housing projects.

421.101 False representations to obtain lower rent in housing accommodations; penalty.—

Whoever makes a false statement or representation, knowing it to be false, or knowingly fails to disclose a material fact in order to obtain a lower rent for housing accommodations in a low rent housing development operated pursuant to chapter 421, than the rental such person is required to pay pursuant to federal or state statutes, schedule of rents or rules and regulations as determined and fixed by housing authorities created pursuant to chapter 421, aforesaid, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083; and each such false statement or representation or failure to disclose a material fact as aforesaid shall constitute a separate offense.

History.—s. 1, ch. 61-468; s. 362, ch. 71-136.

421.11 Cooperation of authorities.—

(1) Any two or more housing authorities may join or cooperate with one another in the exercise, either jointly or otherwise, of any or all of their powers for the purpose of financing, including the issuance of bonds, debentures, notes or other obligations and giving security therefor; planning; undertaking; owning; constructing; operating; or contracting with respect to a housing project or projects located within the area of operation of any one or more of said authorities. For such purpose, an authority may by resolution prescribe and authorize any other housing authority or authorities, so joining or cooperating with it, to act on its behalf with respect to any or all such powers. Any authorities joining or cooperating with one another may by resolutions appoint from among the commissioners of such authorities an executive committee with full power to act on behalf of such authorities with respect to any or all of their powers, as prescribed by resolutions of such authorities.

(2) Any county housing authority may enter into an interlocal agreement with one or more local governing bodies pursuant to the provisions of s. 163.01, the Florida Interlocal Cooperation Act of 1969, with respect to projects or programs located within the county or an adjacent county, and any city housing authority may enter into such agreement with respect to projects or programs located within the county, provided that no power granted an authority under s. 421.08 may be reserved to or exercised by a local governing body under such agreement.

History.—s. 11, ch. 17981, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 7100(3-k); s. 1, ch. 21699, 1943; s. 4, ch. 78-165.

421.12 Eminent domain.—An authority shall have the right to acquire by the exercise of the power of eminent domain any real property which it may deem necessary for its purposes under this chapter after the adoption by it of a resolution declaring that the acquisition of the real property described therein is necessary for such purposes. An authority may exercise the power of eminent domain in the manner provided in chapters 73 and 74. Property already devoted to a public use may be acquired in like manner, provided that no real property belonging to the city, the county, the state or any political subdivision thereof may be acquired without its consent.

History.—s. 12, ch. 17981, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 7100(3-l).

421.13 Planning, zoning and building laws.—All housing projects of an authority shall be subject to the planning, zoning, sanitary and building laws, ordinances and regulations applicable to the locality in which the housing project is situated. In the planning and location of any housing project, an authority shall take into consideration the relationship of the project to any larger plan or long-range program for the development of the area in which the housing authority functions.

History.—s. 13, ch. 17981, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 7100(3-x).

421.14 Debentures.—

(1) An authority may issue debentures from time to time in its discretion, for any of its corporate purposes. An authority may also issue refunding debentures for the purpose of paying or retiring debentures previously issued by it. An authority may issue such types of debentures as it may determine, including debentures on which the principal and interest are payable:

- (a) Exclusively from the income and revenues of the housing project financed with the proceeds of such debentures, or with such proceeds together with a grant from the federal government in aid of such project;
- (b) Exclusively from the income and revenues of certain designated housing projects whether or not they were financed in whole or in part with the proceeds of such debentures; or
- (c) From its revenues generally.

Any of such debentures may be additionally secured by a pledge of any revenues of any housing project, projects or other property of the authority.

(2) Neither the commissioners of an authority nor any person executing the debentures shall be liable personally on the debentures by reason of the issuance thereof. The debentures and other obligations of an authority, and such debentures and obligations shall so state on their face, shall not be a debt of the city, the county, the state or any political subdivision thereof, and neither the city or the county, nor the state or any political subdivision thereof shall be liable thereon, nor in any event shall such debentures or obligations be payable out of any funds or properties other than those of said authority. The debentures shall not constitute an indebtedness within the meaning of any constitutional or statutory debt or bond limitation or restriction.

History.—s. 14, ch. 17981, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 7100(3-y).

421.15 Form and sale of debentures.—

(1) Debentures of an authority shall be authorized by its resolution and may be issued in one or more series and shall bear such dates, mature at such times, bear an average interest cost rate net of federal subsidies not exceeding the rate established according to s. 215.685, be in such denominations, be in such form, either coupon or registered, carry such conversion or registration privileges, have such rank or priority, be executed in such manner, be payable in such medium of payment, at such places and be subject to such terms of redemption, with or without premium, as such resolution or its trust indenture may provide.

(2) The debentures may be sold at public sale held after notice published once at least 5 days prior to such sale in a newspaper having a general circulation in the city and in a financial newspaper published in the City of Chicago, Illinois, or in the City of New York, New York; however, such debentures may be sold to the Federal Government at private sale without any public advertisement.

(3) In the event an offer of an issue of debentures at public sale produces no bid, or in the event all bids received are rejected, the authority is authorized to negotiate for the sale of such debentures under such rates and terms as are acceptable; however, upon their sale, the State Board of Administration shall be notified, and no such bonds shall be so sold or delivered on terms less favorable than the terms contained in any bids rejected at the public sale thereof, or the terms contained in the notice of public sale if no bids were received at such public sale.

(4) In case any of the commissioners or officers of the authority whose signatures appear on any debentures or coupons shall cease to be such commissioners or officers before the delivery of such debentures, such signatures shall, nevertheless, be valid and sufficient for all purposes, the same as if such commissioners or officers had remained in office until such delivery. Any provision of any law to the contrary notwithstanding, any debentures issued pursuant to this chapter shall be fully negotiable.

(5) In any suit, action or proceedings involving the validity or enforceability of any debenture of an authority or the security therefor, any such debenture reciting in substance that it has been issued by the authority to aid in financing a housing project to provide dwelling accommodations for persons of low income shall be conclusively deemed to have been issued for a housing project of such character and said project shall be conclusively deemed to have been planned, located and constructed in accordance with the purposes and provisions of this chapter.

History.—s. 15, ch. 17981, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 7100(3-z); s. 5, ch. 78-165.

421.16 Provisions of debentures and trust indentures.—In connection with the issuance of debentures or the incurring of obligations under leases and in order to secure the payment of such indentures or obligations, an authority, in addition to its other powers, shall have power:

(1) To pledge all or any part of its gross or net rents, gross or net fees or gross or net revenues to which its right then exists or may thereafter come into existence.

(2) To covenant against pledging all or any part of its rents, fees and revenues, or against mortgaging all or any part of its real or personal property, to which its right or title then exists or may thereafter come into existence or against permitting or suffering any lien on such revenues or property; to covenant with respect to limitations on its rights to sell, lease or to otherwise dispose of any housing project or any part thereof; and to covenant as to what other, or additional debts or obligations may be incurred by it.

(3) To covenant as to the debentures to be issued and as to the issuance of such debentures in escrow or otherwise, and as to the use and disposition of the proceeds thereof; to provide for the replacement of lost, destroyed or mutilated debentures; to covenant against extending the time for the payment of its debentures or interest thereon; and to redeem the debentures, and to covenant for their redemption and to provide the terms and conditions thereof.

(4) To covenant, subject to the limitations contained in this chapter, as to the rents and fees to be charged in the operation of a housing project or projects, the amount to be raised each year or other period of time by rents, fees and other revenues, and as to the use and disposition to be made thereof; to create or to authorize the creation of special funds for moneys held for construction or operating costs, debt service, reserves, or other purposes, and to covenant as to the use and disposition of the moneys held in such funds.

(5) To prescribe the procedure, if any, by which the terms of any contract with the holders of debentures may be amended or abrogated, the amount of debentures the holders of which must consent thereto, and the manner in which such consent may be given.

(6) To covenant as to the use of any or all of its real or personal property; and to covenant as to the maintenance of its real and personal property, the replacement thereof, the insurance to be carried thereon and the use and disposition of insurance moneys.

(7) To covenant as to the rights, liabilities, powers and duties arising upon the breach by it of any covenant, condition, or obligation, and to covenant and prescribe as to events of default and terms and conditions upon which any or all of its debentures or obligations shall become or may be declared due before maturity, and as to the terms and conditions upon which such declaration and its consequences may be waived.

(8) To vest in a trustee or trustees or the holders of debentures or any proportion of them the right to enforce the payment of the debentures or any covenants securing or relating to the debentures; to vest in a trustee or trustees the right, in the event of a default by said authority, to take possession and use, operate and manage any housing project or part thereof, and to collect the rents and revenues arising therefrom and to dispose of such moneys in accordance with the agreement of the authority with said trustee; to provide for the powers and duties of a trustee or trustees and to limit the liabilities thereof; and to provide the terms and conditions upon which the trustee or trustees or the holders of debentures or any proportion of them may enforce any covenant or rights securing or relating to the debentures.

(9) To exercise all or any part or combination of the powers herein granted.

History.—s. 16, ch. 17981, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 7100(3-aa).

421.17 Validation of debentures and proceedings.—

(1) A housing authority shall have the right, if it deems it expedient, to determine its authority to issue any debentures, and the legality of all proceedings had or taken in connection therewith, in the same manner and to the same extent, except as otherwise provided in this section, as provided in chapter 75 for the determination by a county, municipality, taxing district, or other political district or subdivision of its authority to incur bonded debt or to issue certificates of indebtedness and of the legality of all proceedings had or taken in connection therewith.

(2) The petition to validate such debentures, and the proceedings had or taken in connection therewith, shall be filed by the housing authority in the Circuit Court for the county in which is located the city for which said housing authority was created, except that whenever it appears that a housing authority is empowered to function in more than one county the Circuit Court of any county in the whole or any part of which the housing authority is empowered to function shall have jurisdiction of the cause in the same manner as provided in said chapter whenever a municipality, taxing district or other political district or subdivision shall extend into more than one county.

(3) The notice required by s. 75.06 shall be addressed to the taxpayers and citizens of the city for which such housing authority has been created and of the county, or counties, in the event such housing authority is empowered to function in more than one county, in the whole or any part of which the housing authority is empowered to function; and by the publication of such notice as required by said chapter 75 all taxpayers and citizens of such city and such county or counties, as the case may be, shall be considered as parties defendant to such proceedings, and the Circuit Court in which the proceeding is brought shall have jurisdiction of all of the same as if they were named defendants in the petition filed pursuant to said chapter and personally served with process.

(4) In the event no appeal is taken within the time prescribed by said chapter, or if taken, and the decree validating said debentures is affirmed by the Supreme Court, the decree of the Circuit Court validating and confirming the issuance of the debentures of the housing authority shall be forever conclusive as to the validity of said debentures against the housing authority and against all taxpayers and citizens of the city for which said housing authority was created and of the county or counties in the whole or part of which the housing authority is empowered to function; and the validity of said debentures shall never be called in question in any court in this state. Debentures of a housing authority, when issued under the provisions of said chapter, shall have stamped or written thereon by the proper officers of the housing authority issuing the same, the words: "Validated and Confirmed by Decree of the Circuit Court," specifying the date when such decree was rendered and the court in which it was rendered, which shall be signed by the Clerk of the Circuit Court in which the decree was rendered, which entry shall be original evidence of said decree in any court in this state.

cf.—ss. 421.26, 421.48, 421.52 Notes, bonds, debentures; validation, etc.

421.18 Remedies of an obligee of authority.—

An obligee of an authority shall have the right in addition to all other rights which may be conferred on such obligee, subject only to any contractual restrictions binding upon such obligee:

(1) By mandamus, suit, action or proceeding at law or in equity to compel said authority and the commissioners, officers, agents or employees thereof to perform each and every term, provision and covenant contained in any contract of said authority with or for the benefit of such obligee, and to require the carrying out of any or all such covenants and agreements of said authority and the fulfillment of all duties imposed upon said authority by this chapter.

(2) By suit, action or proceeding in equity, to enjoin any acts or things which may be unlawful, or the violation of any of the rights of such obligee of said authority.

History.—s. 18, ch. 17981, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 7100(3-cc).

421.19 Additional remedies conferrable by authority.—An authority shall have power by its resolution, trust indenture, lease or other contract to confer upon any obligee holding or representing a specified amount in debentures, or holding a lease, the right, in addition to all rights that may otherwise be conferred, upon the happening of an event of default as defined in such resolution or instrument, by suit, action or proceeding in any court of competent jurisdiction:

(1) To cause possession of any housing project or any part thereof to be surrendered to any such obligee.

(2) To obtain the appointment of a receiver of any housing project of said authority or any part thereof and of the rents and profits therefrom. If such receiver be appointed, he may enter and take possession of such housing project or any part thereof and operate and maintain same, and collect and receive all fees, rents, revenues, or other charges thereafter arising therefrom, and shall keep such moneys in a separate account or accounts and apply the same in accordance with the obligation of said authority as the court shall direct.

(3) To require said authority and the commissioners thereof to account as if it and they were the trustees of an express trust.

History.—s. 19, ch. 17981, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 7100(3-dd).

421.21 Aid from Federal Government; tax exemptions.—

(1) In addition to the powers conferred upon an authority by other provisions of this chapter, an authority is empowered to borrow money or accept grants or other financial assistance from the Federal Government for or in aid of any housing project within its area of operation, to take over or lease or manage any housing project or undertaking constructed or owned by the Federal Government, and to these ends, to comply with such conditions and enter into such trust indentures, leases or agreements as may be necessary, convenient or desirable. It is the purpose and intent of this chapter to authorize every authority to do any and all things necessary or desirable to secure the financial aid or cooperation of the Federal Government in the undertaking, construction, maintenance or operation of any housing project by such authority.

(2) In addition to the powers conferred upon an authority by subsection (1) and other provisions of this chapter, an authority is empowered to borrow money or accept grants or other financial assistance from the Federal Government under s. 202 of the Housing Act of 1959 (Pub. L. No. 86-372) or any law or program of the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development, which provides for direct federal loans in the maximum amount, as defined therein, for the purpose of assisting certain nonprofit corporations to provide housing and related facilities for elderly families and elderly persons.

(a) Housing authorities created under this section are authorized to execute mortgages, notes, bills, or other forms of indebtedness together with any agreements, contracts, or other instruments required by the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development in connection with loans made for the purposes set forth in this subsection.

(b) This provision relating to housing facilities for the elderly is cumulative and in addition to the powers given to housing authorities under this chapter. All powers granted generally by law to housing authorities in Florida relating to issuance of trust indentures, debentures, and other methods of raising capital shall apply also to housing authorities in connection with their participation in programs of the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development.

(3) It is the legislative intent that the tax exemption of housing authorities provided by chapter 423, shall specifically apply to any housing authority created under this section.

History.—s. 21, ch. 17981, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 7100(3-ff); ss. 1, 2, ch. 61-197; s. 7, ch. 78-165.

421.22 Reports.—At least once a year, an authority shall file with the clerk a report of its activities for the preceding year, and shall make recommendations with reference to such additional legislation or other action as it deems necessary in order to carry out the purposes of this chapter.

History.—s. 22, ch. 17981, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 7100(3-gg).

421.23 Liabilities of authority.—In no event shall the liabilities, whether ex contractu or ex delicto, of an authority arising from the operation of its housing projects, be payable from any funds other than the rents, fees or revenues of such projects and any grants or subsidies paid to such authority by the Federal Government.

History.—s. 23, ch. 17981, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 7100(3-hh); s. 7, ch. 22858, 1945.

421.24 Organization and establishment.—The establishment and organization of housing authorities in the state under the provisions of the Housing Authorities Law of this state, together with all proceedings, acts and things heretofore undertaken, performed or done with reference thereto, are hereby validated, ratified, confirmed, approved and declared legal in all respects, notwithstanding any defect or irregularity therein or any want of statutory authority.

History.—s. 1, ch. 19511, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 7100(3-kk).

421.25 Contracts and undertakings.—All contracts, agreements, obligations, and undertakings of such housing authorities heretofore entered into relating to financing or aiding in the development, construction, maintenance, or operation of any housing project or projects or to obtaining aid therefor from the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, loan and annual contributions, contracts and leases with the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development, agreements with municipalities or other public bodies, including those which are pledged or authorized to be pledged for the protection of the holders of any notes or bonds issued by such housing authorities or which are otherwise made a part of the contract with such holders of notes or bonds, relating to cooperation and contributions in aid of housing projects, payments, if any, in lieu of taxes, furnishing of municipal services and facilities, and the elimination of unsafe and insanitary dwellings, and contracts for the construction of housing projects, together with all proceedings, acts, and things heretofore undertaken, performed, or done with reference thereto, are hereby validated, ratified, confirmed, approved, and declared legal in all respects, notwithstanding any defect or irregularity therein or any want of statutory authority.

History.—s. 2, ch. 19511, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 7100(3-ll); s. 8, ch. 78-165.

421.26 Notes and bonds.—All proceedings, acts and things heretofore undertaken, performed or done in or for the authorization, issuance, execution and delivery of notes and bonds by housing authorities for the purpose of financing or aiding in the development or construction of a housing project or projects, and all notes and bonds heretofore issued by housing authorities are hereby validated, ratified, confirmed, approved and declared legal in all respects, notwithstanding any defect or irregularity therein or any want of statutory authority.

History.—s. 3, ch. 19511, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 7100(3-mm).

421.261 Continuance of municipal housing authorities when municipality abolished; counties in excess of 400,000.—Whenever a municipality in any county having a population in excess of 400,000 according to the most recent official census has been or hereafter shall be abolished, wherein at the time of such abolishment a housing authority of such municipality was or is in existence, such housing authority shall continue to function in all respects; provided, however, that the name of such housing authority shall thenceforth be such as may be determined by the county commissioners of the county wherein it functions. Each such housing authority and the commissioners thereof, within the area of operation of such housing authority as hereinafter defined, shall have the same functions, rights, powers, duties, immunities and privileges provided for housing authorities created for cities. Each such housing authority shall continue to operate and prosecute all projects operated or initiated by it prior to the abolishment of the municipality, and shall be entitled to all benefits and privileges thereafter conferred upon housing authorities for cities. The commissioners of each such housing authority shall continue in office after the abolishment of the particular municipality for the remainder of their respective terms. Their successors shall be appointed by resolution of the commissioners of the county. As used in the Housing Authorities Law, the terms "mayor" and "governing body" shall be construed as meaning "county commissioners," the term "city" as used therein shall be construed as meaning "county," and the term "clerk" as used therein shall be construed as meaning "clerk of the circuit court of the county," unless different meanings clearly appear from the contents. The area of operation of any such housing authority shall continue to be the same as that before the abolishment of the municipality, unless extended by resolution of the county commissioners, provided that no such extension shall include any territory lying within a city as defined in the Housing Authorities Law.

History.—s. 1, ch. 28305, 1953.
cf.—s. 11.031 Official census.

421.27 Housing authorities in counties.—

(1) In each county of the state there is hereby created a public body corporate and politic to be known as the "housing authority" of the county; provided, however, that such housing authority shall not transact any business or exercise its powers hereunder until or unless the governing body of such county, by proper resolution shall declare at any time hereafter that there is need for a housing authority to function in and for such county, which declaration shall be made by such governing body for such county in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as the declaration of the governing body of a city required by s. 421.04 for the purpose of authorizing a housing authority created for a city to transact business and exercise its powers, except that the petition referred to in said s. 421.04 shall be signed by 25 residents of such county.

(2) Upon notification of the adoption of such resolution the commissioners of a housing authority created for a county, who shall be qualified electors of such county, shall be appointed by the Governor in the same manner as the commissioners of a housing authority created for a city may be appointed by the mayor; and except as otherwise provided herein, each housing authority created for a county and the commissioners thereof, within the area of operation of such housing authority as hereinafter defined, shall have the same functions, rights, powers, duties, immunities and privileges provided for housing authorities created for cities and the commissioners of such housing authorities, in the same manner as though all the provisions of law applicable to housing authorities created for cities were applicable to housing authorities created for counties; provided, that for such purposes the term "mayor" as used in the Housing Authorities Law shall be construed as meaning "Governor," the term "governing body" as used therein shall be construed as meaning "county commissioners," the term "city" as used therein shall be construed as meaning "county," and the term "clerk" as used therein shall be construed as meaning "county clerk," as herein defined, unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context; and provided further that the Governor may appoint any persons as commissioners of a housing authority created for a county who are qualified electors in such county; and provided further that such commissioners may be removed or suspended in the same manner and for the same reasons as other officers appointed by the governor.

(3) The area of operation of a housing authority created for a county shall include all of the county for which it is created except that portion of the county which lies within the territorial boundaries of any city as defined in the Housing Authorities Law, as amended.

History.—s. 1, ch. 20220, 1941.

421.28 Creation of regional housing authority.—

(1) If the governing body of each of two or more contiguous counties by resolution declares that there is a need for one housing authority to be created for all of such counties to exercise powers and other functions herein prescribed in such counties, a public body corporate and politic to be known as a regional housing authority shall thereupon exist for all of such counties and exercise its powers and other functions in such counties; and thereupon each housing authority created by s. 421.27 for each of such counties shall cease to exist except for the purpose of winding up its affairs and executing a deed to the regional housing authority as hereafter provided; provided that the governing body of a county shall not adopt a resolution as aforesaid if there is a housing authority created for such county which has any obligations outstanding unless first:

(a) All obligees of such county housing authority and parties to the contracts, bonds, notes and other obligations of such county housing authority agree with such county housing authority to the substitution of such regional housing authority in lieu of such county housing authority on all such contracts, bonds, notes or other obligations; and

(b) The commissioners of such county housing authority adopt a resolution consenting to the transfer of all the rights, contracts, obligations and property, real and personal, of such county housing authority to such regional housing authority as herein-after provided;

and provided further that when the above two conditions are complied with and such regional housing authority is created and authorized to exercise its powers and other functions, all rights, contracts, agreements, obligations and property of such county housing authority shall be in the name of and vest in such regional housing authority, and all obligations of such county housing authority shall be the obligations of such regional housing authority and all rights and remedies of any person against such county housing authority may be asserted, enforced and prosecuted against such regional housing authority to the same extent as they may have been asserted, enforced and prosecuted against such county housing authority.

(2) When any real property of a county housing authority vests in a regional housing authority as provided above, the county housing authority shall execute a deed of such property to the regional housing authority which thereupon shall file such deed with the recorder of deeds of the county where such real property is, provided that nothing contained in this sentence shall affect the vesting of property in the regional housing authority as provided above.

(3) The governing body of each of two or more contiguous counties shall by resolution declare that there is a need for one regional housing authority to be created for all of such counties to exercise powers and other functions herein prescribed in such counties, if such governing body finds, and only if it finds:

(a) That insanitary or unsafe inhabited dwelling accommodations exist in such county or there is a shortage of safe and sanitary dwelling accommodations in such county available to persons of low income at rentals they can afford; and

(b) That a regional housing authority would be a more efficient or economical administrative unit than the housing authority of such county to carry out the purposes of this Housing Authorities Law in such county.

(4) In any suit, action or proceeding involving the validity or enforcement of or relating to any contract of the regional housing authority, the regional housing authority shall be conclusively deemed to have become created as a public body corporate and politic and to have become established and authorized to transact business and exercise its powers hereunder upon proof of the adoption of a resolution by the governing body of each of the counties creating the regional housing authority declaring the need for the regional housing authority. Each such resolution shall be deemed sufficient if it declares that there is need for a regional housing authority and finds in substantially the foregoing terms, no further detail being necessary, that the conditions enumerated in subsection (3) exist. A copy of such resolution of the governing body of a county, duly certified by the county clerk of such county, shall be admissible in evidence in any suit, action or proceeding.

History.—s. 1, ch. 20220, 1941.

(1) The area of operation of a regional housing authority shall include all of the counties for which such regional housing authority is created and established except such portions of the counties which lie within the territorial boundaries of cities, as defined in the Housing Authorities Law, as amended.

(2) The area of operation of a regional housing authority shall be increased from time to time to include one or more additional counties not already within a regional housing authority, except such portion or portions of such additional county or counties which lie within the territorial boundaries of any city, as defined, if the governing body of each of the counties then included in the area of operation of such regional housing authority, the commissioners of the regional housing authority and the governing body of each such additional county or counties each adopt a resolution declaring that there is a need for the inclusion of such additional county or counties in the area of operation of such regional housing authority. Upon the adoption of such resolutions, the county housing authority created by s. 421.27 for each such additional county shall cease to exist except for the purpose of winding up its affairs and executing a deed to the regional housing authority as hereinafter provided; provided, however, that such resolutions shall not be adopted if there is a county housing authority created for any such additional county which has any obligations outstanding unless first:

(a) All obligees of any such county housing authority and parties to the contracts, bonds, notes and other obligations of any such county housing authority agree with such county housing authority and the regional housing authority to the substitution of such regional housing authority in lieu of such county housing authority on all such contracts, bonds, notes or other obligations, and second:

(b) The commissioners of such county housing authority and the commissioners of such regional housing authority adopt resolutions consenting to the transfer of all the rights, contracts, obligations and property, real and personal, of such county housing authority to such regional housing authority as hereinafter provided, and provided further, that when the above two conditions are complied with and the area of operation of such regional housing authority is increased to include such additional county, as hereinabove provided, all rights, contracts, agreements, obligations and property of such county housing authority shall be in the name of and vest in such regional housing authority, all obligations of such county housing authority shall be the obligations of such regional housing authority and all rights and remedies of any person against such county housing authority may be asserted, enforced and prosecuted against such regional housing authority to the same extent as they may have been asserted, enforced and prosecuted against such county housing authority.

(3) When any real property of a county housing authority vests in a regional housing authority as provided above, the county housing authority shall execute a deed of such property to the regional housing authority which thereupon shall file such deed with the recorder of deeds of the county where such real property is, provided that nothing contained in this sentence shall affect the vesting of property in the regional housing authority as provided above.

(4) The governing body of each of the counties in the regional housing authority, the commissioners of the regional housing authority and the governing body of each such additional county or counties shall by resolution declare that there is a need for the addition of such county or counties to the regional housing authority, if:

(a) The governing body of each of such additional county or counties finds that insanitary or unsafe inhabited dwelling accommodations exist in such county or there is a shortage of safe or sanitary dwelling accommodations in such county available to persons of low income at rentals they can afford; and

(b) The governing body of each of the counties then included in the area of operation of the regional housing authority, the commissioners of the regional housing authority and the governing body of each such additional county or counties find that the regional housing authority would be a more efficient or economical administrative unit to carry out the purposes of this Housing Authorities Law if the area of operation of the regional housing authority shall be increased to include such additional county or counties.

(5) In determining whether dwelling accommodations are unsafe or insanitary under this or s. 421.28, the governing body of a county shall take into consideration the safety and sanitation of the dwellings, the light and airspace available to the inhabitants of such dwellings, the degree of overcrowding, the size and arrangement of the rooms and the extent to which conditions exist in such buildings which endanger life or property by fire or other causes.

(6) In connection with the issuance of bonds or the incurring of other obligations a regional housing authority may covenant as to limitations on its right to adopt resolutions relating to the increase of its area of operation.

(7) No governing body of a county shall adopt any resolution authorized by this or s. 421.28 unless a public hearing has first been held. The clerk of such county shall give notice of the time, place and purpose of the public hearing at least 10 days prior to the day on which the hearing is to be held, in a newspaper published in such county, or if there is no newspaper published in such county, then in a newspaper published in the state and having a general circulation in such county. Upon the date fixed for such public hearing an opportunity to be heard shall be granted to all residents of such county and to all other interested persons.

History.—s. 1, ch. 20220, 1941; s. 150, ch. 77-104.

(1) When a regional housing authority has been created as provided above, the Governor shall thereupon appoint one qualified elector from each county included in such regional housing authority as a commissioner of the regional housing authority.

When the area of operation of a regional housing authority is increased to include an additional county or counties as herein provided, the Governor shall thereupon appoint one qualified elector from each such additional county as a commissioner of the regional housing authority. If any county is excluded from the area of operation of a regional housing authority, the office of the commissioner of such regional housing authority appointed as provided above for such county, shall be thereupon abolished.

(2) If the area of operation of a regional housing authority consists at any time of an even number of counties, the Governor shall appoint one additional commissioner, who shall be a qualified elector from one of the counties in such area of operation, whose term of office shall be as herein provided for a commissioner of a regional housing authority, except that such term shall end at any earlier time that the area of operation of the regional housing authority shall be changed to consist of an odd number of counties.

(3) A certificate of the appointment of any commissioner of a regional housing authority shall be filed with the county clerk of the county from which the commissioner is appointed, and such certificate shall be conclusive evidence of the due and proper appointment of such commissioner. The commissioners of a regional housing authority shall be appointed for terms of 4 years, except that all vacancies shall be filled for the unexpired terms. Each commissioner shall hold office until his successor has been appointed and has qualified, except as otherwise provided herein. The Governor shall thereafter appoint the successor of each commissioner of a regional housing authority.

(4) The commissioners appointed as aforesaid shall constitute the regional housing authority, and the powers of such authority shall be vested in such commissioners in office from time to time.

(5) The commissioners of a regional housing authority shall elect a chairman from among the commissioners and shall have power to select or employ such other officers and employees as the regional housing authority may require. A majority of the commissioners of a regional housing authority shall constitute a quorum of such authority for the purpose of conducting its business and exercising its powers and for all other purposes.

History.—s. 1, ch. 20220, 1941; s. 2, ch. 21699, 1943.

421.31 Powers of regional housing authority; definitions.—Except as otherwise provided herein, a regional housing authority and the commissioners thereof shall, within the area of operation of such regional housing authority, have the same functions, rights, powers, duties, privileges and immunities provided for housing authorities created for cities or counties and the commissioners of such housing authorities in the same manner as though all the provisions of law applicable to housing authorities created for cities or counties were applicable to regional housing authorities; provided that for such purposes the term "mayor" as used in the Housing Authorities Law shall be construed as meaning "Governor," the term "governing body" as used therein shall be construed as meaning "county commissioners," the term "city" as used therein shall be construed as meaning "county" and the term "clerk" as used therein shall be construed as meaning "county clerk," as herein defined, unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context; and provided further that the Governor may appoint any person as commissioner of a regional housing authority who is a qualified elector in the county from which he is appointed; and provided further that any commissioner of a regional housing authority may be removed or suspended in the same manner and for the same reason as other officers appointed by the Governor. A regional housing authority shall have power to select any appropriate corporate name.

History.—s. 1, ch. 20220, 1941.

421.32 Rural housing projects.—County housing authorities and regional housing authorities are specifically empowered and authorized to borrow money, accept grants and exercise their other powers to provide housing for farmers of low income and domestic farm labor as defined in s. 514 of the Federal Housing Act of 1949. In connection with such projects, any such housing authority may enter into such leases or purchase agreements, accept such conveyances and rent or sell dwellings forming part of such projects to or for farmers of low income, as such housing authority deems necessary in order to assure the achievement of the objectives of this law. Such leases, agreements or conveyances may include such covenants as the housing authority deems appropriate regarding such dwellings and the tracts of land described in any such instrument, which covenants shall be deemed to run with the land where the housing authority deems it necessary and the parties to such instrument so stipulate. In providing housing for farmers of low income, county housing authorities and regional housing authorities shall not be subject to the limitations provided in ss. 421.08(3) and 421.10(3). Nothing contained in this section shall be construed as limiting any other powers of any housing authority.

History.—s. 1, ch. 20220, 1941; s. 3, ch. 65-223.

421.321 Execution of mortgages.—County and regional housing authorities organized under this chapter are authorized to execute mortgages encumbering real property as security for loans made for providing facilities for domestic farm labor pursuant to s. 514 of the Federal Housing Act of 1949.

History.—s. 4, ch. 65-223.

421.33 Housing applications by farmers.—The owner of any farm operated, or worked upon, by farmers of low income in need of safe and sanitary housing may file an application with a housing authority created for a county or a regional housing authority requesting that it provide for a safe and sanitary dwelling or dwellings for occupancy by such farmers of low income. Such applications shall be received and examined by housing authorities in connection with the formulation of projects or programs to provide housing for farmers of low income. Provided, however, that if it becomes necessary for an applicant under this paragraph to convey any portion of his then homestead in order to take advantages as provided herein, then in that event, the parting with title to a portion of said homestead shall not affect the remaining portion of same, but all rights that said owner may have in and to same under and by virtue of the Constitution of the state or any law passed pursuant thereto, shall be deemed and held to apply to such remaining portion of said land, the title of which remains in said applicant; it being the intention of the Legislature to permit the owner of any farm operated or worked upon by farmers of low income in need of safe and sanitary housing to take advantage of the provisions of this law without jeopardizing their rights in their then homestead by reason of any requirement that may be necessary in order for them to receive the benefits herein provided; and no court shall ever construe that an applicant who has taken advantage of this law has in any manner, shape or form abandoned his rights in any property that is his then homestead by virtue of such action upon his part, but it shall be held, construed and deemed that such action upon the part of any applicant hereunder was not any abandonment of his then homestead, and that all rights that he then had therein shall be and remain as provided by the Constitution and any law enacted pursuant thereto.

History.—s. 1, ch. 20220, 1941; s. 7, ch. 22858, 1945.

421.34 Additional definitions.—

(1) "Farmers of low income," as used in this law, shall mean persons or families who at the time of their admission to occupancy in a dwelling of a housing authority:

(a) Live under unsafe or insanitary housing conditions;

(b) Derive their principal income from operating or working upon a farm; and

(c) Had an aggregate average annual net income for the 3 years preceding their admission that was less than the amount determined by the housing authority to be necessary, within its area of operation, to enable them, without financial assistance, to obtain decent, safe, and sanitary housing without overcrowding;

provided, however, that this definition shall not apply to persons using facilities the construction of which was financed with proceeds of loans made pursuant to s. 514 of the Federal Housing Act of 1949.

(2) "Governing body," as used in this law with regard to a county, shall mean the county commissioners or other legislative body of the county.

(3) "Clerk," as used in this law with regard to a county or county authority, shall mean the clerk and accountant of the board of county commissioners or the officer having duties customarily imposed on such clerk.

History.—s. 1, ch. 20220, 1941; s. 5, ch. 65-223.

421.35 Supplemental nature of sections.—

The powers conferred by ss. 421.27-421.34 shall be in addition and supplemental to the powers conferred by any other law.

History.—s. 2, ch. 20220, 1941.

421.36 Short title.—Sections 421.27-421.35 may be cited and referred to as the "Rural Housing Authorities Law of Florida."

History.—s. 1, ch. 20220, 1941.

421.37 Defense housing; finding and declaration of necessity.—It is hereby found and declared that the national defense program involves large increases in the military forces and personnel of this state, a great increase in the number of workers in already established manufacturing centers and the bringing of a large number of workers and their families to new centers of defense industries in the state; that there is an acute shortage of safe and sanitary dwellings available to such persons and their families in this state which impedes the national defense program; that it is imperative that action be taken immediately to assure the availability of safe and sanitary dwellings for such persons and their families in this state which impedes the national defense program; that the provisions hereinafter enacted are necessary to assure the availability of safe and sanitary dwellings for persons engaged in national defense activities which otherwise would not be provided at this time; and that such provisions are for the public use and purpose of facilitating the national defense program in this state. It is further declared to be the purpose of this law to authorize housing authorities to do any and all things necessary or desirable to secure the financial aid of the Federal Government, or to cooperate with or act as agent of the federal government, in the expeditious development and the administration of projects to assure the availability when needed of safe and sanitary dwellings for persons engaged in national defense activities.

History.—s. 1, ch. 20221, 1941.

421.38 Defense housing by authorities.—

(1) Any housing authority may undertake the development and administration of projects to assure the availability of safe and sanitary dwellings for persons engaged in national defense activities whom the housing authority determines would not otherwise be able to secure safe and sanitary dwellings within the vicinity thereof, but no housing authority shall initiate the development of any such project pursuant to this law after the termination of the existing war by the signing of a definitive treaty of peace, or by the proclamation of the President of the United States that hostilities have ceased or that the emergency in justification of extraordinary wartime powers no longer exists, whichever shall first occur.

(2) In the ownership, development or administration of such projects, a housing authority shall have all the rights, powers, privileges and immunities that such authority has under any provision of law relating to the ownership, development or administration of slum clearance and housing projects for persons of low income, in the same manner as though all the provisions of law applicable to slum clearance and housing projects for persons of low income were applicable to projects developed or administered to assure the availability of safe and sanitary dwellings for persons engaged in national defense activities as provided in this law, and housing projects developed or administered hereunder shall constitute "housing projects" under the Housing Authorities Law, as that term is used therein; provided, that during the period, herein called the "national defense period," that a housing authority finds, which finding shall be conclusive in any suit, action or proceeding, that within its area of operation, as defined in the Housing Authorities Law, or any part thereof, there is an acute shortage of safe and sanitary dwellings which impedes the national defense activities, any project developed or administered by such housing authority, or by any housing authority cooperating with it, in such area pursuant to this law, with the financial aid of the Federal Government, or as agents for the Federal Government as hereinafter provided, shall not be subject to the limitations provided in s. 421.10 and the second sentence of s. 421.09; and provided, further, that during the national defense period, a housing authority may make payments in such amounts as it finds necessary or desirable for any services, facilities, works, privileges or improvements furnished for or in connection with any such projects. After the national defense period, any such projects owned and administered by a housing authority shall be administered for the purposes and in accordance with the provisions of the Housing Authorities Law.

History.—s. 2, ch. 20221, 1941; s. 1, ch. 21697, 1943.

421.39 Acting for Federal Government on defense housing.—A housing authority may exercise any or all of its powers for the purpose of cooperating with, or acting as agent for, the Federal Government in the development or administration of projects by the Federal Government to assure the availability of safe and sanitary dwellings for persons engaged in national defense activities and may undertake the development or administration of any such project for the Federal Government. In order to assure the availability of safe and sanitary housing for persons engaged in national defense activities, a housing authority may sell, in whole or in part, to the Federal Government any housing project developed for persons of low income but not yet occupied by such persons; such sale shall be at such price and upon such terms as the housing authority shall prescribe and shall include provision for the satisfaction of all debts and liabilities of the authority relating to such project.

History.—s. 3, ch. 20221, 1941.

421.40 Cooperation by public bodies on defense housing.—Any state public body, as defined in the Housing Cooperation Law shall have the same rights and powers to cooperate with housing authorities, or with the Federal Government, with respect to the development or administration of projects to assure the availability of safe and sanitary dwellings for persons engaged in national defense activities that such state public body has pursuant to such law for the purpose of assisting the development or administration of slum clearance or housing projects for persons of low income.

History.—s. 4, ch. 20221, 1941.

421.41 Bonds for defense housing legal investments.—Bonds or other obligations issued by a housing authority for a project developed or administered pursuant to this law shall be security for public deposits and legal investments to the same extent and for the same persons, institutions, associations, corporations, bodies and officers as bonds or other obligations issued pursuant to the Housing Authorities Law for the development of a slum clearance or housing project for persons of low income.

History.—s. 5, ch. 20221, 1941.

421.42 Defense housing contracts validated.—All bonds, notes, contracts, agreements and obligations of housing authorities heretofore issued or entered into relating to financing or undertaking, including cooperating with or acting as agent of the Federal Government in, the development or administration of any project to assure the availability of safe and sanitary dwellings for persons engaged in national defense activities, are hereby validated and declared legal in all respects, notwithstanding any defect or irregularity therein or any want of statutory authority.

History.—s. 6, ch. 20221, 1941.

421.43 Removal of restrictions for defense housing.—This law shall constitute an independent authorization for a housing authority to undertake the development or administration of projects to assure the availability of safe and sanitary dwellings for persons engaged in national defense activities as provided in this law and for a housing authority to cooperate with, or act as agent for, the Federal Government in the development or administration of similar projects by the Federal Government. In acting under this authorization, a housing authority shall not be subject to any limitations, restrictions or requirements of other laws, except those relating to land acquisition, prescribing the procedure or action to be taken in the development or administration of any public works, including slum clearance and housing projects for persons of low income or undertakings or projects of municipal or public corporations or political subdivisions or agencies of the state. A housing authority may do any and all things necessary or desirable to cooperate with, or act as agent for, the Federal Government, or to secure financial aid, in the expeditious development or in the administration of projects to assure the availability of safe and sanitary dwellings for persons engaged in national defense activities and to effectuate the purposes of this law.

History.—s. 7, ch. 20221, 1941.

421.44 Defense housing; definitions.—

(1) "Persons engaged in national defense activities," as used in this law, shall include: Enlisted men in the military and naval services of the United States and employees of the War and Navy Departments assigned to duty at military or naval reservations, posts or bases; and workers engaged or to be engaged in any industries connected with and essential to the national defense program; and shall include the families of the aforesaid persons who are living with them.

(2) "Persons of low income," as used in this law, shall mean persons or families who lack the amount of income which is necessary, as determined by the housing authority undertaking the housing project, to enable them, without financial assistance, to live in decent, safe and sanitary dwellings, without overcrowding.

(3) "Development," as used in this law, shall mean any and all undertakings necessary for the planning, land acquisition, demolition, financing, construction or equipment in connection with a project, including the negotiation or award of contracts therefor, and shall include the acquisition of any project, in whole or in part, from the Federal Government.

(4) "Administration," as used in this law, shall mean any and all undertakings necessary for management, operation or maintenance, in connection with any project, and shall include the leasing of any project, in whole or in part, from the Federal Government.

(5) "Federal Government," as used in this law, shall mean the United States or any agency or instrumentality, corporate or otherwise, of the United States.

(6) The development of a project shall be deemed to be "initiated," within the meaning of this law, if a housing authority has issued any bonds, notes or other obligations with respect to financing the development of such project of the authority, or has contracted with the Federal Government with respect to the exercise of powers hereunder in the development of such project of the Federal Government for which an allocation of funds has been made prior to the termination of the existing war by the signing of a definitive treaty of peace, or by the proclamation of the President of the United States that hostilities have ceased or that the emergency in justification of extraordinary wartime powers no longer exists, whichever shall first occur.

(7) "Housing authority," as used in this law, shall mean any housing authority established or hereafter established pursuant to the Housing Authorities Law.

History.—s. 8, ch. 20221, 1941; s. 2, ch. 21697, 1943; s. 7, ch. 22858, 1945; s. 24, ch. 57-1.

421.45 Provisions supplemental.—The powers conferred by ss. 421.37-421.44 shall be in addition and supplemental to the powers conferred by any other law, and nothing contained therein shall be construed as limiting any other powers of a housing authority.

History.—s. 9, ch. 20221, 1941.

421.46 Organization and establishment of housing authorities validated.—The establishment and organization of housing authorities under the provisions of the Housing Authorities Law of this state together with all proceedings, acts and things heretofore undertaken, performed or done with reference thereto, are hereby validated, ratified, confirmed, approved and declared legal in all respects, notwithstanding any defect or irregularity therein or any want of statutory authority.

History.—s. 1, ch. 20222, 1941.

421.47 Contracts and undertakings of housing authorities validated.—All contracts, agreements, obligations, and undertakings of such housing authorities heretofore entered into relating to financing or aiding in the development, construction, maintenance, or operation of any housing project or projects or to obtaining aid therefor from the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, loan and annual contributions contracts and leases with the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development, agreements with municipalities or other public bodies, including those which are pledged or authorized to be pledged for the protection of the holders of any notes or bonds issued by such housing authorities or which are otherwise made a part of the contract with such holders of notes or bonds, relating to cooperation and contributions in aid of housing projects, payments, if any, in lieu of taxes, furnishing of municipal services and facilities, and the elimination of unsafe and insanitary dwellings, and contracts for the construction of housing projects, together with all proceedings, acts, and things heretofore undertaken, performed, or done with reference thereto, are hereby validated, ratified, confirmed, approved, and declared legal in all respects, notwithstanding any defect or irregularity therein or any want of statutory authority.

History.—s. 2, ch. 20222, 1941; s. 9, ch. 78-165.

421.48 Notes and bonds of housing authorities validated.—All proceedings, laws and things heretofore undertaken, performed or done in or for the authorization, issuance, execution and delivery of notes and bonds by housing authorities for the purpose of financing or aiding in the development or construction of a housing project or projects, and all notes and bonds heretofore issued by housing authorities are hereby validated, ratified, confirmed, approved and declared legal in all respects, notwithstanding any defect or irregularity therein or any want of statutory authority.

History.—s. 3, ch. 20222, 1941.

421.49 Area of operation of housing authorities for defense housing.—In the development or the administration of projects, under ss. 421.37-421.48, to assure the availability of safe and sanitary dwellings for persons engaged in national defense activities or in otherwise carrying out the purposes of such law, or in the administration of such projects in accordance with the provisions of the housing authorities law, a housing authority of a city may exercise its powers within the territorial boundaries of said city and an area within 10 miles from said boundaries, excluding the area within the territorial boundaries of any other city which has heretofore established a housing authority.

History.—s. 1, ch. 20249, 1941.

421.50 Decreasing area of operation of regional authority.—

(1) The area of operation of a regional housing authority shall be decreased from time to time to exclude one or more counties from such area if the governing body of each of the counties in such area and the commissioners of the regional housing authority each adopt a resolution declaring that there is a need for excluding such county or counties from such area; provided, that no action may be taken pursuant to this section if the regional housing authority has outstanding any bonds, debentures or notes unless first, all holders of such bonds, debentures or notes consent in writing to such action; and provided, that if such action decreases the area of operation of the regional housing authority to only one county, such authority shall thereupon constitute and become a housing authority for such county, in the same manner as though such authority were created by and authorized to transact business and exercise its powers pursuant to s. 421.04 or s. 421.27, and the commissioners of such authority shall be thereupon appointed as provided for the appointment of commissioners of a housing authority created for a county. The governing body of each of the counties in the area of operation of the regional housing authority and the commissioners of the regional housing authority shall adopt a resolution declaring that there is a need for excluding a county or counties from such area only if each such governing body and the commissioners of the regional housing authority find that, because of facts arising or determined subsequent to the time when such area first included the county or counties to be excluded, the regional housing authority would be a more efficient or economical administrative unit if such county or counties were excluded from such area.

(2) The governing body of a county shall not adopt any resolution authorized by this section unless a public hearing has first been held in accordance with the provisions of the Housing Authorities Law.

(3) A certificate of the appointment of any commissioner of a regional housing authority shall be filed with the county clerk of the county from which the commissioner is appointed, and such certificate shall be conclusive evidence of the due and proper appointment of such commissioner. The commissioners of a regional housing authority shall be appointed for terms of 4 years, except that all vacancies shall be filled for the unexpired terms. Each commissioner shall hold office until his successor has been appointed and has qualified, except as otherwise provided herein. The Governor shall thereafter appoint the successor of each commissioner of a regional housing authority.

(4) The commissioners appointed as aforesaid shall constitute the regional housing authority, and the powers of such authority shall be vested in such commissioners in office from time to time.

(5) The commissioners of a regional housing authority shall elect a chairman from among the commissioners and shall have power to select or employ such other officers and employees as the regional housing authority may require. A majority of the commissioners of a regional housing authority shall constitute a quorum of such authority for the purpose of conducting its business and exercising its powers and for all other purposes.

History.—s. 3, ch. 21699, 1943.

421.51 Authority for county excluded from regional authority.—At any time after a county or counties is excluded from the area of operation of a regional housing authority as provided above, the governing body of any such county may adopt a resolution declaring that there is a need for a housing authority in the county, if the governing body shall declare and find such need according to the provisions of the Housing Authorities Law. Thereupon a public body corporate and politic, to be known as the "housing authority of the county," shall exist for such county and may transact business and exercise its powers in the same manner as though created by the Housing Authorities Law. Nothing contained herein shall be construed as preventing such county from thereafter being included within the area of operation of a regional housing authority as provided in s. 421.28 or s. 421.29.

History.—s. 4, ch. 21699, 1943.

421.52 Authorities; creation, obligations, etc., validated.—

(1) The creation, establishment and organization of housing authorities under the provisions of chapter 17981, Laws of Florida, 1937, as amended, or chapter 20220, Laws of Florida, 1941 (ss. 421.01-421.36), together with all proceedings, acts and things heretofore undertaken or done with reference thereto, are hereby validated and declared legal in all respects.

(2) All agreements and undertakings of such housing authorities heretofore entered into, relating to financing, or aiding in the development or operation of any housing projects, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, loan and annual contributions contracts, agency contracts, and leases, agreements with municipalities or other public bodies, including those which are pledged or authorized to be pledged for the protection of the holders of any notes or debentures issued by such housing authorities or which are otherwise made a part of the contract with such holders of notes or debentures, relating to cooperation in aid of housing projects, payments to public bodies in the state, furnishing of municipal services and facilities and the elimination of unsafe and insanitary dwellings, and contracts for the construction of housing projects, together with all proceedings, acts and things heretofore undertaken or done with reference thereto, are hereby validated and declared legal in all respects.

(3) All proceedings, acts and things heretofore undertaken or done in or for the authorization, issuance, execution and delivery of notes and debentures by housing authorities for the purpose of financing or aiding in the development or construction of a housing project or projects, and all notes and debentures heretofore issued by housing authorities are hereby validated and declared legal in all respects.

History.—ss. 1-3, ch. 21698, 1943.

421.54 Housing authority, Orange and Seminole Counties; limitation.—

(1) Any housing authority created within Orange and Seminole Counties by s. 421.04, shall acquire, construct, contract to construct, purchase, lease, rent, operate, insure, or commit to the acquisition, construction, contract for construction, purchase, lease, rental, or operation of any housing project involving new construction only upon the approval thereof by a majority vote of the governing body of the area where the housing project is to be located, which vote shall be taken at a public hearing which has been advertised by publishing a notice thereof in a newspaper in general circulation in the area once only at least 15 days prior to said hearing, by posting a notice of such proposed project in a conspicuous location on the site of the proposed project, and by mailing a copy of such notice to all adjacent property owners within 300 feet of the proposed project no less than 10 days nor more than 15 days prior to such hearing. At such public hearing the names of the real parties in interest, directly or indirectly, in the proposed project shall be disclosed.

(2) In the event such housing project is not approved by a majority vote of the governing body at such public hearing, then upon request of the housing authority at said public hearing, the governing body shall order a referendum election of the freeholders in the precinct wherein the proposed housing project is to be located. Approval of a majority of those voting in such election shall constitute approval of such housing project.

(3) The cost of such public hearings and referendum elections shall be borne by the housing authority.

History.—ss. 1-3, ch. 69-303.

PART II

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

421.55 Relocation of displaced persons.

421.55 Relocation of displaced persons.—

(1) It is the intent of the Legislature to authorize the state and its departments, agencies, political subdivisions, and legislatively established port and airport authorities to comply with the provisions and requirements of the Federal Uniform Relocation Assistance and Real Property Acquisition Policies Act of 1970, Public Law 91-646, in those public projects or programs for which federal or federal-aid funds are available and are used.

(2) As used in this section:

(a) "State" means the State of Florida, any department, agency or political subdivision thereof, or any port or airport authority established by the Legislature.

(b) "Public Law 91-646" means the Uniform Relocation Assistance and Real Property Acquisition Policies Act of 1970 adopted by the United States Congress.

(c) "Displaced person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, or association that is required to move from any real property on or after March 20, 1972, as a result of the acquisition of such real property for public purposes, or who, as the result of the acquisition for public purposes of real property on which such person is conducting a business or farm operation as defined in Public Law 91-646, is required to move said business or farm operation.

(3) The state is authorized and empowered, in acquiring real property for use in any public project or program in which federal or federal-aid funds are used, to make all such relocation and other payments to or for displaced persons as are required under the provisions of Public Law 91-646, and to provide such displaced persons with relocation services and make available to them replacement dwellings, as required by Public Law 91-646.

(4) The state is authorized and empowered, in acquiring real property for use in any public project or program in which federal or federal-aid funds are used, to follow and conform with the land acquisition policies set forth in Public Law 91-646, and to pay or reimburse owners of property so acquired in the manner specified in Public Law 91-646. This authority shall include, as to federal-aid highways and airports, as a last resort, the use of eminent domain powers to acquire real property for replacement housing as required by Public Law 91-646.

CHAPTER 422

HOUSING COOPERATION LAW

- 422.001 State's role in housing and urban development.
- 422.01 Short title.
- 422.02 Finding and declaration of necessity.
- 422.03 Definitions.
- 422.04 Cooperation in undertaking housing projects.
- 422.05 Contracts for payments for services.
- 422.06 Advances to housing authority.
- 422.07 Procedure for exercising powers.
- 422.08 Supplemental nature of chapter.

422.001 State's role in housing and urban development.—The role of state government required by part I, chapter 421 (Housing Authorities Law), chapter 422 (Housing Cooperation Law), chapter 423 (Tax Exemption of Housing Authorities), and chapter 424 (Limited Dividend Housing Companies), is the responsibility of the Department of Community Affairs, and the department is the agency of state government responsible for the state's role in housing and urban development.

History.—s. 18, ch. 69-106.

422.01 Short title.—This chapter may be referred to as the "Housing Cooperation Law."

History.—s. 1, ch. 17982, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 7100(3-oo).

422.02 Finding and declaration of necessity.—It has been found and declared in the Housing Authorities Law that there exist in the state unsafe and insanitary housing conditions and a shortage of safe and sanitary dwelling accommodations for persons of low income; that these conditions necessitate excessive and disproportionate expenditures of public funds for crime prevention and punishment, public health, welfare and safety, fire and accident protection, and other public services and facilities; and that the public interest requires the remedying of these conditions. It is found and declared that the assistance herein provided for the remedying of the conditions set forth in the Housing Authorities Law constitutes a public use and purpose and an essential governmental function for which public moneys may be spent and other aid given; that it is a proper public purpose for any state public body to aid any housing authority operating within its boundaries or jurisdiction or any housing project located therein, as the state public body derives immediate benefits and advantages from such an authority or project; and that the provisions hereinafter enacted are necessary in the public interest.

History.—s. 2, ch. 17982, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 7100(3-pp).

422.03 Definitions.—The following terms, whenever used or referred to in this chapter shall have the following respective meanings, unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context:

(1) "Housing authority" shall mean any housing authority created pursuant to the Housing Authorities Law of this state.

(2) "Housing project" shall mean any work or undertaking of a housing authority pursuant to the Housing Authorities Law or any similar work or undertaking of the Federal Government.

(3) "State public body" shall mean any city, town, county, municipal corporation, commission, district, authority, other subdivision or public body of the state.

(4) "Governing body" shall mean the council, commission, board of supervisors or trustees, or other board or body having charge of the fiscal affairs of the state public body.

(5) "Federal Government" shall mean the United States, the Federal Emergency Administration of Public Works, or any other agency or instrumentality, corporate or otherwise, of the United States.

History.—s. 3, ch. 17982, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 7100(3-qq).

422.04 Cooperation in undertaking housing projects.—

(1) For the purpose of aiding and cooperating in the planning, undertaking, construction or operation of housing projects located within the area in which it is authorized to act, any state public body may upon such terms, with or without consideration, as it may determine:

(a) Dedicate, sell, convey or lease any of its property to a housing authority or the Federal Government;

(b) Cause parks, playgrounds, recreational, community, educational, water, sewer or drainage facilities or any other works, which it is otherwise empowered to undertake, to be furnished adjacent to or in connection with housing projects;

(c) Furnish, dedicate, close, pave, install, grade, regrade, plan or replan streets, roads, roadways, alleys, sidewalks or other places which it is otherwise empowered to undertake;

(d) Plan or replan, zone or rezone any part of such state public body; make exceptions from building regulations and ordinances; any city or town also may change its map;

(e) Enter into agreements, which may extend over any period, notwithstanding any provision or rule of law to the contrary, with a housing authority or the Federal Government respecting action to be taken by such state public body pursuant to any of the powers granted by this chapter;

(f) Do any and all things, necessary or convenient to aid and cooperate in the planning, undertaking, construction or operation of such housing projects;

(g) Purchase or legally invest in any of the debentures of a housing authority and exercise all of the rights of any holder of such debentures;

(h) With respect to any housing project which a housing authority has acquired or taken over from the Federal Government and which the housing authority by resolution has found and declared to have been constructed in a manner that will promote the public interest and afford necessary safety, sanitation and other protection, no state public body shall require any changes to be made in the housing project or the manner of its construction or take any other action relating to such construction;

(i) In connection with any public improvements made by a state public body in exercising the powers herein granted, such state public body may incur the entire expense thereof.

(2) Any law or statute to the contrary notwithstanding, any sale, conveyance, lease or agreement provided for in this section may be made by a state public body without appraisal, public notice, advertisement or public bidding.

History.—s. 4, ch. 17982, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 7100(3-rr).

422.05 Contracts for payments for services.—

In connection with any housing project located wholly or partly within the area in which it is authorized to act, any state public body may contract with a housing authority or the Federal Government with respect to the sum or sums, if any, which the housing authority or the Federal Government may agree to pay, during any year or period of years, to the state public body for the improvements, services and facilities to be furnished by it for the benefit of said housing project, but in no event shall the amount of such payments exceed the estimated cost to the state public body of the improvements, services or facilities to be so furnished; provided, however, that the absence of a contract for such payments shall in no way relieve any state public body from the duty to furnish, for the benefit of said housing project, customary improvements and such services and facilities as such state public body usually furnishes without a service fee.

History.—s. 5, ch. 17982, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 7100(3-ss).

When any housing authority which is created for any city becomes authorized to transact business and exercise its powers therein, the governing body of the city shall immediately make an estimate of the amount of money necessary for the administrative expenses and overhead of such housing authority during the first year thereafter, and shall appropriate such amount to the authority out of any moneys in such city treasury not appropriated to some other purposes. The moneys so appropriated shall be paid to the authority as a donation. Any city, town or county located in whole or in part within the area of operation of a housing authority shall have the power from time to time to lend or donate money to the authority or to agree to take such action. The housing authority, when it has money available therefor, shall make reimbursements for all such loans made to it.

History.—s. 6, ch. 17982, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 7100(3-tt).

422.07 Procedure for exercising powers.—

The exercise by a state public body of the powers herein granted may be authorized by resolution of the governing body of such state public body adopted by a majority of the members of its governing body present at a meeting of said governing body, which resolution may be adopted at the meeting at which such resolution is introduced. Such a resolution or resolutions shall take effect immediately and need not be laid over or published or posted.

History.—s. 7, ch. 17982, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 7100 (3-uu).

422.08 Supplemental nature of chapter.—The powers conferred by this chapter shall be in addition and supplemental to the powers conferred by any other law.

History.—s. 8, ch. 17982, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 7100(3-vv).

CHAPTER 423

TAX EXEMPTION OF HOUSING AUTHORITIES

- 423.001 State's role in housing and urban development.
- 423.01 Finding and declaration of property of tax exemption for housing authorities.
- 423.02 Housing projects exempted from taxes and assessments; payments in lieu thereof.
- 423.03 Housing debentures exempted from taxation.

423.001 State's role in housing and urban development.—The role of state government required by part I, chapter 421 (Housing Authorities Law), chapter 422 (Housing Cooperation Law), chapter 423 (Tax Exemption of Housing Authorities), and chapter 424 (Limited Dividend Housing Companies), is the responsibility of the Department of Community Affairs, and the department is the agency of state government responsible for the state's role in housing and urban development.

History.—s. 18, ch. 69-106.

423.01 Finding and declaration of property of tax exemption for housing authorities.—It has been found and declared in the Housing Authorities Law and the Housing Cooperation Law that:

(1) There exist in the state housing conditions which constitute a menace to the health, safety, morals and welfare of the residents of the state;

(2) These conditions necessitate excessive and disproportionate expenditures of public funds for crime prevention and punishment, public health, welfare and safety, fire and accident prevention, and other public services and facilities;

(3) The public interest requires the remedying of these conditions by the creation of housing authorities to undertake projects for slum clearance and for providing safe and sanitary dwelling accommodations for persons who lack sufficient income to enable them to live in decent, safe and sanitary dwellings without overcrowding; and

(4) Such housing projects, including all property of a housing authority used for or in connection therewith or appurtenant thereto, are exclusively for public uses and municipal purposes and not for profit, and are governmental functions of state concern. As a matter of legislative determination, it is found and declared that the property and debentures of a housing authority are of such character as may be exempt from taxation.

History.—s. 1, ch. 17983, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 7100(3-xx).

423.02 Housing projects exempted from taxes and assessments; payments in lieu thereof.—

The housing projects, including all property of housing authorities used for or in connection therewith or appurtenant thereto, of housing authorities shall be exempt from all taxes and special assessments of the state or any city, town, county, or political subdivision of the state, provided, however, that in lieu of such taxes or special assessments a housing authority may agree to make payments to any city, town, county or political subdivision of the state for services, improvements or facilities furnished by such city, town, county or political subdivision for the benefit of a housing project owned by the housing authority, but in no event shall such payments exceed the estimated cost to such city, town, county or political subdivision of the services, improvements or facilities to be so furnished.

History.—s. 2, ch. 17983, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 7100(3-yy).

423.03 Housing debentures exempted from taxation.—The debentures of a housing authority, together with interest thereon and income therefrom, shall be exempt from all taxes. The exemption granted by this section shall not be applicable to any tax imposed by chapter 220 on interest, income, or profits on debt obligations owned by corporations.

History.—s. 3, ch. 17983, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 7100(3-zz); s. 15, ch. 73-327.

CHAPTER 424

LIMITED DIVIDEND HOUSING COMPANIES

- 424.001 State's role in housing and urban development.
- 424.01 Short title.
- 424.02 Finding and declaration of necessity.

- 424.20 Sales under judgments against housing companies.
- 424.21 Fees for services of department.
- 424.22 Duration of corporate existence.

424.001 State's role in housing and urban development.—The role of state government required by part I chapter 421 (Housing Authorities Law), chapter 422 (Housing Cooperation Law), chapter 423 (Tax Exemption of Housing Authorities), and chapter 424 (Limited Dividend Housing Companies), is the responsibility of the Department of Community Affairs, and the department is the agency of state government responsible for the state's role in housing and urban development.

History.—s. 18, ch. 69-106.

424.01 Short title.—This chapter shall be known as "Florida State Housing Law."

History.—s. 1, ch. 16028, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 4151(132).

424.02 Finding and declaration of necessity.—It is hereby found and declared by the legislature to be necessary to provide housing for families of low income and in providing for such housing, being now otherwise impossible, that provision be made by law for the investment of private and public funds at low interest rates, acquisition at fair prices, of adequate parcels of land, and the construction of new housing facilities under public supervision in accord with proper standards of sanitation and safety, at a cost which will permit the rental or sale at prices which families of low income can afford to pay, to effectuate which there are created and established the agencies and instrumentalities hereinafter prescribed which are declared to be the agencies and instrumentalities of the state for the purpose of attaining the ends herein recited, and their necessity in the public interest is hereby declared a matter of legislative determination.

History.—s. 2, ch. 16028, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 4151(133).

424.03 Purpose, intent, and construction of chapter.—The purpose and intention of the legislature in the enactment of this chapter is to provide the necessary legislation for the creation of adequate facilities to make available to persons in Florida the benefits of the laws of the United States creating the Reconstruction Finance Corporation and vesting it with power to make loans and advances for housing facilities and it shall be liberally construed as vesting in said Department of Community Affairs all necessary authority to enable the said department to make rules and regulations for the control, supervision, regulation and promotion of the activities of housing companies in such manner as to be in accord with the requirements of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation and the laws of the United States.

History.—s. 3, ch. 16028, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 4151(134); ss. 18, 35, ch. 69-106.

cf.—s. 421.21 Federal aid.

424.04 Supervision of housing construction.—The Department of Community Affairs shall have and exercise power to control, regulate and supervise, in accordance with the terms and provisions of this chapter all housing companies authorized to be created, and which may come into existence under this chapter, and to secure the construction of new housing facilities under public supervision, in accord with proper standards of sanitation and safety, at a cost which will permit the rental or sale of such housing facilities, at prices which families of low income can afford to pay.

History.—s. 4, ch. 16028, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 4151(135); s. 161, ch. 71-377.

424.05 Investigations by department.—The Department of Community Affairs shall have power to investigate into the affairs of limited dividend housing companies, incorporated under this chapter, and into the dealings, transactions or relationships of such companies with other persons. Any of the investigations provided for in this chapter may be conducted by the department. The department may administer oaths, take affidavits and make personal inspections of all places to which its duties relate. The department may subpoena and require the attendance of witnesses and the production of books and papers relating to the investigations and inquiries authorized in this chapter, and to examine them in relation to any matter it has power to investigate, and issue commissions for the examination of witnesses who are out of the state or are unable to attend before the department or excused from attendance.

History.—s. 5, ch. 16028, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 4151(136); ss. 18, 35, ch. 69-106.

424.06 Specific powers of department.—In pursuance of its power and authority to supervise and regulate the operations of limited dividend housing companies incorporated under this chapter the Department of Community Affairs may:

(1) Order any such corporation to make, at its expense, such repairs and improvements as will preserve or promote the health and safety of the occupants of buildings and structures owned or operated by such corporations;

(2) Order all such corporations to do such acts as may be necessary to comply with the provisions of the law, the rules and regulations adopted by the department or by the terms of any project approved by the department, or to refrain from doing any acts in violation thereof;

(3) Examine all such corporations and keep informed as to their general condition, their capitalization and the manner in which their property is constructed, leased, operated or managed;

(4) Through agents duly authorized by it, enter in or upon and inspect the property, equipment, buildings, plants, offices, apparatus and devices of any such corporation, examine all books, contracts, records, documents and papers of any such corporation and by subpoena duces tecum compel the production thereof;

(5) In its discretion prescribe uniform methods and forms of keeping accounts, records and books to be observed by such companies and to prescribe by order accounts in which particular outlays and receipts shall be entered, charged or credited;

(6) Require every such corporation to file with the department an annual report setting forth such information as the department may require verified by the oath of the president and general manager or receiver if any thereof or by the person required to file the same. Such report shall be in the form, cover the period and be filed at the time prescribed by the department. The department may further require specific answers to questions upon which the department may desire information and may also require such corporation to file periodic reports in the form covering the period and at the time prescribed by the department;

(7) From time to time make, amend and repeal rules and regulations for carrying into effect the provisions of this chapter.

History.—s. 6, ch. 16028, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 4151(137); ss. 18, 35, ch. 69-106.

424.07 Housing projects must have approval of department.—No housing project proposed by a limited dividend housing corporation incorporated under this chapter shall be undertaken and no building or other construction shall be placed under contract or started without the approval of the Department of Community Affairs. No housing project shall be approved by the department unless the corporation agrees to accept a designee of the department as a member of the board of directors of said corporation.

History.—s. 6, ch. 16028, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 4151(138); ss. 18, 35, ch. 69-106.

424.08 Department to fix maximum prices; basis of determination.—The Department of Community Affairs shall fix the maximum rental or purchase price to be charged for the housing accommodations furnished by such corporation. Such maximum rental or purchase price shall be determined upon the basis of the actual final cost of the project so as to secure, together with all other income of the corporation, a sufficient income to meet all necessary payments to be made by said corporations, as hereinafter prescribed, and such rental or purchase price shall be subject to revision by the department from time to time. The payments to be made by such corporations shall be:

(1) All fixed charges, and all operating maintenance charges and expenses which shall include taxes, assessments, insurance, amortization charges in amounts approved by the department to amortize the mortgage indebtedness in whole or in part, depreciation charges if, when and to the extent deemed necessary by the department; reserves, sinking funds and corporate expenses essential to operation and management of the project in amounts approved by the department.

(2) A dividend not exceeding the maximum fixed by this chapter upon the stock of the corporation allotted to the project by the department.

(3) Where feasible in the discretion of the board, a sinking fund in an amount to be fixed by the department for the gradual retirement of stock, and income debentures of the corporation to the extent permitted by this chapter.

History.—s. 7, ch. 16028, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 4151(139); ss. 18, 35, ch. 69-106.

424.09 Actions by department for violations.—

(1) Whenever the Department of Community Affairs shall be of the opinion that any such limited dividend housing company is failing or omitting, or about to fail or omit to do anything required of it by law or by order of the department and is doing or about to do anything, or permitting anything or about to permit anything to be done, contrary to or in violation of law or of any order of the department, or which is improvident or prejudicial to the interests of the public, the lienholders or the stockholders, it may commence an action or proceeding in the court of chancery of the county in which the said company is located, in the name of the department for the purpose of having such violations or threatened violations stopped and prevented by mandatory injunction. The department shall begin such action or proceeding by a petition and complaint to the said court of chancery, alleging the violation complained of and praying for appropriate relief by way of mandatory injunction. It shall thereupon be the duty of the court to specify the time, not exceeding 20 days after service of a copy of the petition and complaint, within which the corporation complained of must answer the petition and complaint.

(2) In case of default in answer or after answer the court shall immediately inquire into the facts and circumstances in such manner as the court shall direct without other or formal pleadings, and without respect to any technical requirements. Such other persons or corporations as it shall seem to the court necessary or proper to join as parties in order to make its order or judgment effective, may be joined as parties. The final judgment in any such action or proceeding shall either dismiss the action or proceeding or direct that a mandatory injunction be issued as prayed for in the petition and complaint or in such modified or other form as the court may determine will afford appropriate relief.

History.—s. 8, ch. 16028, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 4151(140); ss. 18, 35, ch. 69-106.

424.10 Incorporation; purpose; shares; articles.—Any number of natural persons not less than three, a majority of whom are citizens of the United States, may become a corporation by subscribing, acknowledging and filing with the Department of State, articles of incorporation, hereinafter called "articles," setting forth the information required by s. 607.164, except as herein modified or changed.

(1) The purpose for which a limited dividend housing company is to be formed shall be as follows: To acquire, construct, maintain and operate housing projects when authorized by and subject to the supervision of the Department of Community Affairs.

(2) The shares of which the capital shall consist shall have a par value.

(3) Articles of incorporation shall contain a declaration that the corporation has been organized to serve a public purpose and that it shall remain at all times subject to the supervision and control of the Department of Community Affairs or of other appropriate state authority; that all real estate acquired by it and all structures erected by it, shall be deemed to be acquired for the purpose of promoting the public health and safety and subject to the provisions of the State Housing Law and that the stockholders of this corporation shall be deemed, when they subscribe to and receive the stock thereof, to have agreed that they shall at no time receive or accept from the company, in repayment of their investment in its stock, any sums in excess of the par value of the stock together with cumulative dividends at the rate of 6 percent per annum, and that any surplus in excess of such amount if said company shall be dissolved, shall revert to the state.

History.—s. 9, ch. 16028, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 4151(141); ss. 10, 18, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 6, ch. 79-9.

424.11 Dividends limited.—No stockholder in any company formed hereunder shall receive any dividend, or other distribution based on stock ownership, in any one year in excess of 6 percent per annum except that when in any preceding year dividends in the amount prescribed in the articles of incorporation shall not have been paid on the said stock, the stockholders may be paid such deficiency without interest out of any surplus earned in any succeeding years.

History.—s. 10, ch. 16028, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 4151(142).

424.12 No free securities to be issued.—No limited dividend housing company incorporated under this chapter shall issue stock, bonds or income debentures, except for money, services or property actually received for the use and lawful purpose of the corporation. No stock, bonds or income debentures shall be issued for property or services except upon a valuation approved by the Department of Community Affairs and such valuation shall be used in computing actual or estimated cost.

History.—s. 11, ch. 16028, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 4151(143); ss. 18, 35, ch. 69-106.

424.13 Income debenture certificates; exchange for stock.—The articles of incorporation may authorize the issuance of income debenture certificates bearing no greater interest than 7½ percent per annum. After the incorporation of a limited dividend housing company, the directors thereof may, with the consent of two-thirds of the holders of any preferred stock that may be issued and outstanding, offer to the stockholders of the company the privilege of exchanging their preferred and common stock in such quantities and at such times as may be approved by the Department of Community Affairs for such income debenture certificates, whose face value shall not exceed the par value of the stock exchanged therefor.

History.—s. 12, ch. 16028, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 4151(144); ss. 18, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 34, ch. 73-302.

424.14 Limitations on powers of housing companies.—No limited dividend housing company incorporated under this chapter shall:

(1) Acquire any real property or interest therein unless it shall first have obtained from the Department of Community Affairs a certificate that such acquisition is necessary or convenient for the public purpose defined in this chapter.

(2) Sell, transfer, assign or lease any real property without first having obtained the consent of the department, provided, however, that leases conforming to the regulations and rules of the department and for actual occupancy by the lessees may be made without the consent of the department. Any conveyance, encumbrance, lease or sublease made in violation of the provisions of this section and any transfer or assignment thereof shall be void.

(3) Pay interest returns on its mortgage indebtedness and its income debenture certificates at a higher rate than 7½ percent per annum.

(4) Issue its stock, debentures and bonds covering any project undertaken by it in an amount greater in the aggregate than the total actual final cost of such project, including the lands, improvements, charges for financing and supervision approved by the department and interest and other carrying charges during construction.

(5) Mortgage any real property without first having obtained the consent of the department.

(6) Issue any securities or evidences of indebtedness without first having obtained the approval of the department.

(7) Use any building erected or acquired by it for other than housing purposes, except that when permitted by law the story of the building above the cellar or basement and the space below such story may be used for stores, commercial, cooperative or community purposes, and when permitted by law the roof may be used for cooperative or community purposes.

(8) Charge or accept any rental, purchase price or other charge in excess of the amounts prescribed by the department.

(9) Enter into contracts for the construction of housing projects, or for the payments of salaries to officers or employees except subject to the inspection and revision of the department under such regulations as the department from time to time may prescribe.

(10) Voluntarily dissolve without first having obtained the consent of the department.

(11) Make any guaranty without approval of the department.

History.—s. 13, ch. 16028, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 4151(145); ss. 18, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 35, ch. 73-302.

424.15 Bonds and mortgages of housing companies.—Any company formed under this chapter may, subject to the approval of the Department of Community Affairs, borrow funds and secure the repayment thereof by bonds and mortgages or by an issue of bonds under trust indenture. The bonds so issued and secured and the mortgage or trust indentures relating thereto, may create a first or senior lien and a second or junior lien upon the real property embraced in any project. Such bonds and mortgages may contain such other clauses and provisions as shall be approved by the department, including the right to assignment of rents and entry into the possession in case of default; but the operation of the housing projects in the event of such entry by mortgagee or receiver shall be subject to the regulations of the department under this chapter. Provisions for the amortization of the bonded indebtedness of companies formed under this chapter shall be subject to the approval of the department.

History.—s. 14, ch. 16028, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 4151(146); ss. 18, 35, ch. 69-106.

424.16 Surplus; accumulation and disposition.—The amount of net earnings transferable to surplus in any year after making or providing for the payments specified in s. 424.08 (1), (2) and (3) shall be subject to the approval of the Department of Community Affairs. The amount of such surplus shall not exceed 15 percent of the outstanding capital stock and income debentures of the corporation, but the surplus so limited shall not be deemed to include any increase in assets due to the reduction of mortgage or amortization or similar payments. On dissolution of any limited dividend housing company, the stockholders and income debenture certificate holders shall in no event receive more than the par value of their stock and debentures plus accumulated, accrued and unpaid dividends or interest, less any payments or distributions theretofore made other than by dividends provided in s. 424.11, and any remaining surplus or other undistributed earnings shall be paid into the general fund of the state, or shall be disposed of in such other manner as the department may direct and the then Governor may approve.

History.—s. 15, ch. 16028, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 4151(147); ss. 18, 35, ch. 69-106.

424.17 Reduction of rentals with excess earnings.—If in any calendar or fiscal year the gross receipts of any company formed hereunder should exceed the payments or charges specified in s. 424.08, the sums necessary to pay dividends, interest accrued or unpaid on any stock or income debentures, and the authorized transfer to surplus, the balance shall, unless the board of directors with the approval of the Department of Community Affairs shall deem such balance too small for the purposes, be applied to the reduction of rentals.

History.—s. 16, ch. 16028, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 4151(148); ss. 18, 35, ch. 69-106.

424.18 Foreclosure actions; judicial sales.—

(1) In any foreclosure action the Department of Community Affairs shall be made a party defendant; and such department shall take all steps in such action necessary to protect the interest of the public therein, and no costs shall be awarded against the department. Foreclosure shall not be decreed unless the court to which application therefor is made shall be satisfied that the interests of the lienholder or holders cannot be adequately secured or safeguarded except by the sale of the property. In any such proceeding, the court may make an order increasing the rental to be charged for the housing accommodations in the project involved in such foreclosure, or appoint a receiver of the property or grant such other and further relief as may be reasonable and proper. In the event of a foreclosure sale or other judicial sale, the property shall, except as provided in subsection (2), be sold to a limited dividend housing corporation organized under this chapter, provided such corporation shall bid and pay a price for the property sufficient to pay court costs and all liens on the property with interest. Otherwise the property shall be sold free of all restrictions imposed by this chapter.

(2) Notwithstanding the foregoing provision of this section, wherever it shall appear that a corporation, subject to the supervision either of the Department of Insurance or Department of Banking and Finance, or the Federal Government or any agency or department of the Federal Government, shall have loaned on a mortgage which is a lien upon any such property, such corporation shall have all the remedies available to a mortgagee under the laws of the state, free from any restrictions contained in this section, except that the Department of Community Affairs shall be made a party defendant and that such department shall take all steps necessary to protect the interest of the public and no costs shall be awarded against it.

History.—s. 17, ch. 16028, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 4151(149); ss. 12, 13, 18, 35, ch. 69-106.

424.19 Purchase of property of other limited dividend housing corporations.—Before any limited dividend housing corporation incorporated under this chapter shall purchase the property of any other limited dividend housing corporation, it shall file an application with the Department of Community Affairs in the manner hereinbefore provided as for a new project and shall obtain the consent of the department to the purchase and agree to be bound by the provisions of this chapter, and the department shall not give its consent unless it is shown to the satisfaction of the department that the project is one that can be successfully operated according to the provisions of this chapter.

History.—s. 18, ch. 16028, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 4151(150); ss. 18, 35, ch. 69-106.

424.20 Sales under judgments against housing companies.—In the event of a judgment against a limited dividend housing corporation in any action not pertaining to the collection of a mortgage indebtedness, there shall be no sale of any of the real property of such corporation except upon 60 days' written notice to the Department of Community Affairs. Upon receipt of such notice the department shall take such steps as in its judgment may be necessary to protect the rights of all parties.

History.—s. 19, ch. 16028, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 4151(151); ss. 18, 35, ch. 69-106.

424.21 Fees for services of department.—The Department of Community Affairs may charge and collect from a limited dividend housing corporation, incorporated under this chapter, reasonable fees in accordance with rates to be established by the rules of the department for the examination of plans and specifications and the supervision of construction in an amount not to exceed one-half of 1 percent of the cost of the project; for the holding of a public hearing upon application of a housing corporation an amount sufficient to meet the reasonable cost of advertising the notice thereof and of the transcript of testimony taken thereat; for any examination or investigation made upon application of a housing corporation and for any act done by the department, or any of its employees, in performance of their duties under this chapter an amount reasonably calculated to meet the expense of the department incurred in connection therewith. In no event shall any part of the expenses of the department ever be paid out of the State Treasury. The department may authorize a housing corporation to include such fees as part of the cost of a project, or as part of the charges specified in s. 424.08 pursuant to rules to be established by the department.

425.01 Short title.—This chapter may be cited as the "Rural Electric Cooperative Law."

History.—s. 1, ch. 19138, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 6494(43).

425.02 Purpose.—Cooperative, nonprofit, membership corporations may be organized under this chapter for the purpose of supplying electric energy and promoting and extending the use thereof in rural areas. Corporations organized under this chapter and corporations which become subject to this chapter in the manner hereinafter provided are hereinafter referred to as "cooperatives."

History.—s. 2, ch. 19138, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 6494(45). cf.—Ch. 619 Nonprofit Cooperative Associations.

425.03 Definitions.—In this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Rural area" means any area not included within the boundaries of any incorporated or unincorporated city, town, village, or borough having a population in excess of 2500 persons;

(2) "Person" includes any natural person, firm, association, corporation, business trust, partnership, federal agency, state or political subdivision or agency thereof, or any body politic; and

(3) "Member" means each incorporator of a cooperative and each person admitted to and retaining membership therein, and shall include a husband and wife admitted to joint membership.

History.—s. 29, ch. 19138, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 6494(44).

425.04 Powers.—A cooperative shall have power:

- (1) To sue and be sued, in its corporate name;
- (2) To have perpetual existence;
- (3) To adopt a corporate seal and alter the same at pleasure;

(4) To generate, manufacture, purchase, acquire, accumulate and transmit electric energy, and to distribute, sell, supply, and dispose of electric energy in rural areas to its members, to governmental agencies and political subdivisions, and to other persons not in excess of 10 percent of the number of its members; to process, treat, sell, and dispose of water and water rights; to purchase, construct, own and operate water systems; to own and operate sanitary sewer systems; and to supply water and sanitary sewer services. However, no cooperative shall distribute or sell any electricity, or electric energy to any person residing within any town, city or area which person is receiving adequate central station service or who at the time of commencing such service, or offer to serve, by a cooperative, is receiving adequate central station service from any utility agency, privately or municipally owned individual partnership or corporation;

(5) To make loans to persons to whom electric energy is or will be supplied by the cooperative for the purpose of, and otherwise to assist such person in, wiring their premises and installing therein electric and plumbing fixtures, appliances, apparatus and equipment of any and all kinds and character, and in connection therewith, to purchase, acquire, lease, sell, distribute, install and repair such electric and plumbing fixtures, appliances, apparatus and equipment, and to accept or otherwise acquire, and to sell, assign, transfer, endorse, pledge, hypothecate and otherwise dispose of notes, bonds and other evidences of indebtedness and any and all types of security therefor;

(6) To make loans to persons to whom electric energy is or will be supplied by the cooperative for the purpose of, and otherwise to assist such persons in, constructing, maintaining and operating electric refrigeration plants;

(7) To become a member in one or more other cooperatives or corporations or to own stock therein;

(8) To construct, purchase, take, receive, lease as lessee, or otherwise acquire, and to own, hold, use, equip, maintain, and operate, and to sell, assign, transfer, convey, exchange, lease as lessor, mortgage, pledge, or otherwise dispose of or encumber, electric transmission and distribution lines or systems, electric generating plants, electric refrigeration plants, lands, buildings, structures, dams, plants and equipment, and any and all kinds and classes of real or personal property whatsoever, which shall be deemed necessary, convenient or appropriate to accomplish the purpose for which the cooperative is organized;

(9) To purchase or otherwise acquire; to own, hold, use and exercise; and to sell, assign, transfer, convey, mortgage, pledge, hypothecate, or otherwise dispose of or encumber, franchises, rights, privileges, licenses, rights-of-way and easement;

(10) To borrow money and otherwise contract indebtedness; to issue notes, bonds, and other evidences of indebtedness therefor; and to secure the payment thereof by mortgage, pledge, deed of trust, or any other encumbrance upon any or all of its then owned or after-acquired real or personal property, assets, franchises, revenues or income;

(11) To construct, maintain, and operate electric transmission and distribution lines along, upon, under and across all public thoroughfares, including without limitation, all roads, highways, streets, alleys, bridges and causeways, and upon, under and across all publicly owned lands, subject, however, to the requirements in respect of the use of such thoroughfares and lands that are imposed by the respective authorities having jurisdiction thereof upon corporations constructing or operating electric transmission and distribution lines or systems;

(12) To exercise the power of eminent domain in the manner provided by the laws of this state for the exercise of that power by corporations constructing or operating electric transmission and distribution lines or systems;

(13) To conduct its business and exercise any or all of its powers within or without this state;

(14) To adopt, amend and repeal bylaws; and

(15) To do and perform any and all other acts and things, and to have and exercise any and all other powers which may be necessary, convenient or appropriate to accomplish the purpose for which the cooperative is organized.

History.—s. 3, ch. 19138, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 6494(46); s. 1, ch. 71-83.

425.05 Name.—The name of each cooperative shall include the words "electric" and "cooperative" and the abbreviation "inc."; provided, however, such limitation shall not apply if, in an affidavit made by the president or vice president of a cooperative and filed with the Department of State, it shall appear that the cooperative desires to transact business in another state and is precluded therefrom by reason of its name. The name of a cooperative shall distinguish it from the name of any other corporation organized under the laws of, or authorized to transact business in, this state. The words "electric" and "cooperative" shall not both be used in the name of any corporation organized under the laws of, or authorized to transact business in, this state, except a cooperative or a corporation transacting business in this state pursuant to the provisions of this chapter.

History.—s. 4, ch. 19138, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 6494(47); ss. 10, 35, ch. 69-106.

425.06 Incorporators.—Five or more natural persons or two or more cooperatives, may organize a cooperative in the manner hereinafter provided.

History.—s. 5, ch. 19138, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 6494(48).

425.07 Articles of incorporation.—

(1) The articles of incorporation of a cooperative shall recite in the caption that they are executed pursuant to this chapter, shall be signed and acknowledged by each of the incorporators, and shall state:

(a) The name of the cooperative;

(b) The address of its principal office;

(c) The names and addresses of the incorporators;

(d) The names and addresses of the persons who shall constitute its first board of trustees; and

(e) Any provisions not inconsistent with this chapter deemed necessary or advisable for the conduct of its business and affairs.

It shall not be necessary to set forth in the articles of incorporation of a cooperative the purpose for which it is organized or any of the corporate powers vested in a cooperative under this chapter.

(2) Such articles of incorporation shall be submitted to the Department of State for filing as provided in this chapter.

History.—s. 6, ch. 19138, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 6494(49); ss. 10, 35, ch. 69-106.

425.08 Bylaws.—The original bylaws of a cooperative, and the first bylaws for a corporation after the effective date of the conversion thereof into a cooperative, pursuant to s. 425.17, shall be adopted by its board of trustees. Thereafter, bylaws shall be adopted, amended or repealed by its members. The bylaws shall set forth the rights and duties of members and trustees and may contain other provisions for the regulation and management of the affairs of the cooperative not inconsistent with this chapter or with its articles of incorporation.

History.—s. 7, ch. 19138, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 6494(50).

425.09 Members.—

(1) No person who is not an incorporator shall become a member of a cooperative unless such person shall agree to use electric energy furnished by the cooperative when such electric energy shall be available through its facilities. The bylaws of a cooperative may provide that any person, including an incorporator, shall cease to be a member thereof if he shall fail or refuse to use electric energy made available by the cooperative or if electric energy shall not be made available to such person by the cooperative within a specified time after such person shall have become a member thereof. Membership in the cooperative shall not be transferable, except as provided in the bylaws. The bylaws may prescribe additional qualifications and limitations in respect to membership.

(2) An annual meeting of the members shall be held at such time as shall be provided in the bylaws.

(3) Special meeting of the members may be called by the board of trustees, by any three trustees, by not less than 10 percent of the members, or by the president.

(4) Meetings of members shall be held at such place as may be provided in the bylaws. In the absence of any such provision, all meetings shall be held in the city or town in which the principal office of the cooperative is located.

(5) Except as hereinafter otherwise provided, written or printed notice stating the time and place of each meeting of members and in the case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be given to each member, either personally or by mail, not less than 10 nor more than 25 days before the date of the meeting.

(6) One percent of all members, present in person, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at all meetings of the members, unless the bylaws prescribe the presence of a greater percentage of the members for a quorum. If less than a quorum is present at any meeting, a majority of those present in person may adjourn the meeting from time to time without further notice.

(7) Each member shall be entitled to one vote on each matter submitted to a vote at a meeting. Voting shall be in person, but, if the bylaws so provide, may also be by proxy or by mail, or both. If the bylaws provide for voting by proxy or by mail they shall also prescribe the conditions under which proxy or mail voting shall be exercised. In any event, no person shall vote as proxy for more than three members at any meeting of the members.

History.—s. 8, ch. 19138, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 6494(51); s. 1, ch. 75-4; s. 1, ch. 79-51.

425.10 Board of trustees.—

(1) The business and affairs of a cooperative shall be managed by a board of not less than five trustees, each of whom shall be a member of the cooperative or of another cooperative which shall be a member thereof. The bylaws shall prescribe the number of trustees, their qualifications, other than those provided for in this chapter, the manner of holding meetings of the board of trustees and of the election of successors to trustees who shall resign, die, or otherwise be incapable of acting. The bylaws may also provide for the removal of trustees from office and for the election of their successors. Without approval of the members, trustees shall not receive any salaries for their services as trustees and, except in emergencies, shall not be employed by the cooperative in any capacity involving compensation. The bylaws may, however, provide that a fixed fee and expenses of attendance, if any, may be allowed to each trustee for attendance at each meeting of the board of trustees and that such may be allowed for the performance of other cooperative business, provided it has prior approval of the board of trustees.

(2) The trustees of a cooperative named in any articles of incorporation, consolidation, merger or conversion, as the case may be, shall hold office until the next following annual meeting of the members or until their successors shall have been elected and qualified. At each annual meeting or, in case of failure to hold the annual meeting as specified in the bylaws, at a special meeting called for that purpose, the members shall elect trustees to hold office until the next following annual meeting of the members, except as hereinafter otherwise provided. Each trustee shall hold office for the term for which he is elected or until his successor shall have been elected and qualified.

(3) The bylaws may provide that, in lieu of electing the whole number of trustees annually, the trustees may be divided into three classes at the first or any subsequent annual meeting, each class to be as nearly equal in number as possible, with the term of office of the trustees of the first class to expire at the next succeeding annual meeting and the term of the second class to expire at the second succeeding annual meeting and the term of the third class to expire at the third succeeding annual meeting. At each annual meeting after such classification a number of trustees equal to the number of the class whose term expires at the time of such meeting shall be elected to hold office until the third succeeding annual meeting.

(4) A majority of the board of trustees shall constitute a quorum.

(5) If a husband and wife hold a joint membership in a cooperative, either one, but not both, may be elected a trustee.

(6) The board of trustees may exercise all of the powers of a cooperative except such as are conferred upon the members by this chapter, or its articles of incorporation or bylaws.

History.—s. 9, ch. 19138, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 6494(52); s. 1, ch. 28053, 1953; s. 1, ch. 74-33.

425.11 Voting districts.—Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, the bylaws may provide that the territory in which a cooperative supplies electric energy to its members shall be divided into two or more voting districts and that, in respect of each such voting district:

(1) A designated number of trustees shall be elected by the members residing therein; or

(2) A designated number of delegates shall be elected by such members; or

(3) Both such trustees and delegates shall be elected by such members.

In any such case the bylaws shall prescribe the manner in which such voting districts and the members thereof, and the delegates and trustees, if any, elected therefrom shall function and the powers of the delegates, which may include the power to elect trustees. No member at any voting district meeting and no delegate at any meeting shall vote by proxy or by mail.

History.—s. 10, ch. 19138, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 6494(53).

425.12 Officers.—The officers of a cooperative shall consist of a president, vice president, secretary and treasurer, who shall be elected annually by and from the board of trustees. No person shall continue to hold any of the above offices after he shall have ceased to be a trustee. The offices of secretary and of treasurer may be held by the same person. The board of trustees may also elect or appoint such other officers, agents, or employees as it shall deem necessary or advisable and shall prescribe the powers and duties thereof. Any officer may be removed from office and his successor elected in the manner prescribed in the bylaws.

History.—s. 11, ch. 19138, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 6494(54).

425.13 Amendment of articles of incorporation.—A cooperative may amend its articles of incorporation by complying with the following requirements:

(1) The proposed amendment shall first be approved by the board of trustees and shall then be submitted to a vote of the members at any annual or special meeting thereof, the notice of which shall set forth the proposed amendment. The proposed amendment, with such changes as the members shall choose to make therein, shall be deemed to be approved on the affirmative vote of not less than two-thirds of those members voting thereon at such meeting; and

(2) Upon such approval by the members, articles of amendment shall be executed and acknowledged on behalf of the cooperative by its president or vice president and its corporate seal shall be affixed thereto and attested by its secretary. The articles of amendment shall recite in the caption that they are executed pursuant to this chapter and shall state:

- (a) The name of the cooperative;
- (b) The address of its principal office;
- (c) The date of the filing of its articles of incorporation with the Department of State; and
- (d) The amendment to its articles of incorporation.

The president or vice president executing such articles of amendment shall also make and annex thereto an affidavit stating that the provisions of this section were duly complied with. Such articles of amendment and affidavit shall be submitted to the Department of State for filing as provided in this chapter.

(3) A cooperative may, without amending its articles of incorporation, upon authorization of its board of trustees, change the location of its principal office by filing a certificate of change of principal office executed and acknowledged by its president or vice president under its seal attested by its secretary, with the Department of State and also in each county office in which its articles of incorporation or any prior certificate of change of principal office of such cooperative has been filed. Such cooperative shall also, within 30 days after the filing of such certificate of change of principal office in any county office, file therein certified copies of its articles of incorporation and all amendments thereto, if the same are not already on file therein.

History.—s. 12, ch. 19138, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 6494(55); ss. 10, 35, ch. 69-106.

425.14 Consolidation.—Any two or more cooperatives, each of which is hereinafter designated a "consolidating cooperative," may consolidate into a new cooperative, hereinafter designated the "new cooperative," by complying with the following requirements:

(1) The proposition for the consolidation of the consolidating cooperatives into the new cooperative and proposed articles of consolidation to give effect thereto shall be first approved by the board of trustees of each consolidating cooperative. The proposed articles of consolidation shall recite in the caption that they are executed pursuant to this chapter and shall state:

- (a) The name of each consolidating cooperative, the address of its principal office, and the date of the filing of its articles of incorporation with the Department of State;
- (b) The name of the new cooperative and the address of its principal office;
- (c) The names and addresses of the persons who shall constitute the first board of trustees of the new cooperative;
- (d) The terms and conditions of the consolidation and the mode of carrying the same into effect, including the manner and basis of converting membership in each consolidating cooperative into memberships in the new cooperative and the issuance of certificates of membership in respect of such converted memberships; and

(e) Any provisions not inconsistent with this chapter deemed necessary or advisable for the conduct of the business and affairs of the new cooperative;

(2) The proposition for the consolidation of the consolidating cooperatives into the new cooperative and the proposed articles of consolidation approved by the board of trustees of each consolidating cooperative shall then be submitted to a vote of the members thereof at any annual or special meeting thereof, the notice of which shall set forth full particulars concerning the proposed consolidation. The proposed consolidation and the proposed articles of consolidation shall be deemed to be approved upon the affirmative vote of not less than two-thirds of those members of each consolidating cooperative voting thereon at such meeting; and

(3) Upon such approval by the members of the respective consolidating cooperatives, articles of consolidation in the form approved shall be executed and acknowledged on behalf of each consolidating cooperative by its president or vice president and its seal shall be affixed thereto and attested by its secretary. The president or vice president of each consolidating cooperative executing such articles of consolidation shall also make and annex thereto an affidavit stating that the provisions of this section were duly complied with by such cooperative. Such articles of consolidation and affidavits shall be submitted to the Department of State for filing as provided in this chapter.

History.—s. 13, ch. 19138, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 6494(56); ss. 10, 35, ch. 69-106.

425.15 Merger.—Any one or more cooperatives, each of which is hereinafter designated a "merging cooperative," may merge into another cooperative, hereinafter designated the "surviving cooperative," by complying with the following requirements:

(1) The proposition for the merger of the merging cooperatives into the surviving cooperative and proposed articles of merger to give effect thereto shall be first approved by the board of trustees of each merging cooperative and by the board of trustees of the surviving cooperative. The proposed articles of merger shall recite in the caption that they are executed pursuant to this chapter and shall state:

- (a) The name of each merging cooperative, the address of its principal office, the date of the filing of its articles of incorporation with the Department of State;
- (b) The name of the surviving cooperative and the address of its principal office;
- (c) A statement that the merging cooperatives elect to be merged into the surviving cooperative;
- (d) The names and addresses of the persons who shall constitute the board of trustees of the surviving cooperative until the next following annual meeting of the members thereof;
- (e) The terms and conditions of the merger and the mode of carrying the same into effect, including the manner and basis of converting the memberships in the merging cooperative or cooperatives into memberships in the surviving cooperative and the issuance of certificates of membership in respect of such converted memberships; and

(f) Any provisions not inconsistent with this chapter deemed necessary or advisable for the conduct of the business and affairs of the surviving cooperatives;

(2) The proposition for the merger of the merging cooperatives into the surviving cooperative and the proposed articles of merger approved by the board of trustees of the respective cooperatives, parties to the proposed merger, shall then be submitted to a vote of the members of each such cooperative at any annual or special meeting thereof, the notice of which shall set forth full particulars concerning the proposed merger. The proposed merger and the proposed articles of merger shall be deemed to be approved upon the affirmative vote of not less than two-thirds of those members of each cooperative voting thereon at such meeting; and

(3) Upon such approval by the members of the respective cooperatives, parties to the proposed merger, articles of merger in the form approved shall be executed and acknowledged on behalf of each such cooperative by its president or vice president and its seal shall be affixed thereto and attested by its secretary. The president or vice president of each cooperative executing such articles of merger shall also make and annex thereto an affidavit stating that the provisions of this section were duly complied with by such cooperative. Such articles of merger and affidavits shall be submitted to the Department of State for filing as provided in this chapter.

History.—s. 14, ch. 19138, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 6494(57); ss. 10, 35, ch. 69-106.

425.16 Effect of consolidation or merger.—The effect of consolidation or merger shall be as follows:

(1) The several cooperatives, parties to the consolidation or merger, shall be a single cooperative, which, in the case of a consolidation, shall be the new cooperative provided for in the articles of consolidation, and, in the case of a merger, shall be that cooperative designed in the articles of merger as the surviving cooperative, and the separate existence of all cooperatives, parties to the consolidation or merger, except the new or surviving cooperative, shall cease;

(2) Such new or surviving cooperative shall have all the rights, privileges, immunities, and powers and shall be subject to all the duties and liabilities of a cooperative organized under the provisions of this chapter, and shall possess all the rights, privileges, immunities, and franchises, as well of a public as of a private nature, and all property, real and personal, applications for membership, all debts due on whatever account, and all other choses in action, of each of the consolidating or merging cooperatives, and furthermore all and every interest of, or belonging or due to, each of the cooperatives so consolidated or merged, shall be taken and deemed to be transferred to and vested in such new or surviving cooperative without further act or deed; and the title to any real estate, or any interest therein, under the laws of this state vested in any such cooperatives shall not revert or be in any way impaired by reason of such consolidation or merger;

(3) Such new or surviving cooperative shall thenceforth be responsible and liable for all of the liabilities and obligations of each of the cooperatives so consolidated or merged, and any claim existing, or action or proceeding impending, by or against any of such cooperatives may be prosecuted as if such consolidation or merger had not taken place, but such new or surviving cooperative may be substituted in its place;

(4) Neither the rights of creditors nor any liens upon the property of any of such cooperatives shall be impaired by such consolidation or merger; and

(5) In the case of a consolidation, the articles of consolidation shall be deemed to be the articles of incorporation of the new cooperative; and in the case of a merger, the articles of incorporation of the surviving cooperative shall be deemed to be amended to the extent, if any, that changes therein are provided for in the articles of merger.

History.—s. 15, ch. 19138, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 6494(58).

425.17 Conversion of existing corporations.

—Any corporation organized under the laws of this state for the purpose, among others, of supplying electric energy in rural areas may be converted into a cooperative and become subject to this chapter with the same effect as if originally organized under this chapter by complying with the following requirements:

(1) The proposition for the conversion of such corporation into a cooperative and proposed articles of conversion to give effect thereto shall be first approved by the board of trustees or the board of directors as the case may be, of such corporation. The proposed articles of conversion shall recite in the caption that they are executed pursuant to this chapter and shall state:

(a) The name of the corporation prior to its conversion into a cooperative;

(b) The address of the principal office of such corporation;

(c) The date of the filing the articles of incorporation of such corporation with the Department of State;

(d) The statute under which such corporation was organized;

(e) The name assumed by such corporation;

(f) A statement that such corporation elects to become a cooperative, nonprofit, membership corporation subject to this chapter;

(g) The names and addresses of the persons who shall constitute the board of trustees of such corporation after the completion of the conversion thereof until the next following annual meeting of its members;

(h) The manner and basis of converting either memberships in or shares of stock of such corporation into memberships therein after completion of the conversion; and

(i) Any provisions not inconsistent with this chapter deemed necessary or advisable for the conduct of the business and affairs of such corporation;

(2) The proposition for the conversion of such corporation into a cooperative and the proposed articles of conversion approved by the board of trustees or board of directors, as the case may be, of such corporation shall then be submitted to a vote of the members or stockholders, as the case may be, of such corporation at any duly held annual or special meeting thereof, the notice of which shall set forth full particulars concerning the proposed conversion. The proposition for the conversion of such corporation into a cooperative and the proposed articles of conversion, with such amendments thereto as the members or stockholders of such corporation shall choose to make, shall be deemed to be approved upon the affirmative vote of not less than two-thirds of those members of such corporation voting thereon at such meeting, or, if such corporation is a stock corporation, upon the affirmative vote of the holders of not less than two-thirds of the capital stock of such corporation represented at such meeting;

(3) Upon such approval by the members or stockholders of such corporation, articles of conversion in the form approved by such members or stockholders shall be executed and acknowledged on behalf of such corporation by its president or vice president and its corporate seal shall be affixed thereto and attested by its secretary. The president or vice president executing such articles of conversion on behalf of such corporation shall also make and annex thereto an affidavit stating that the provisions of this section with respect to the approval of its trustees or directors and its members or stockholders, of the proposition for the conversion of such corporation into a cooperative and such articles of conversion were duly complied with. Such articles of conversion and affidavit shall be submitted to the Department of State for filing as provided in this chapter. The term "articles of incorporation" as used in this chapter shall be deemed to include the articles of conversion of a converted corporation.

History.—s. 16, ch. 19138, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 6494(59); ss. 10, 35 ch. 69-106.

425.18 Initiative by members.—Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, any proposition embodied in a petition signed by not less than 10 percent of the members of a cooperative, together with any document submitted with such petition to give effect to the proposition, shall be submitted to the members of a cooperative, either at a special meeting of the members held within 45 days after the presentation of such petition or, if the date of the next annual meeting of members falls within 90 days after such presentation or if the petition so requests, at such annual meeting. The approval of the board of trustees shall not be required in respect of any proposition or document submitted to the members pursuant to this section and approved by them, but such proposition or document shall be subject to all other applicable provisions of this chapter. Any affidavit or affidavits required to be filed with any such document pursuant to applicable provisions of this chapter shall, in such case, be modified to show compliance with the provisions of this section.

History.—s. 17, ch. 19138, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 6494(60).

425.19 Dissolution.—

(1) A cooperative which has not commenced business may dissolve voluntarily by delivering to the Department of State articles of dissolution, executed and acknowledged on behalf of the cooperative by a majority of the incorporators, which shall state:

- (a) The name of the cooperative;
- (b) The address of its principal office;
- (c) The date of its incorporation;
- (d) That the cooperative has not commenced business;

(e) That the amount, if any, actually paid in on account of membership fees, less any part thereof disbursed for necessary expenses, has been returned to those entitled thereto and that all easements shall have been released to the grantors;

(f) That no debt of the cooperative remains unpaid; and

(g) That a majority of the incorporators elect that the cooperative be dissolved. Such articles of dissolution shall be submitted to the Department of State for filing as provided in this chapter.

(2) A cooperative which has commenced business may dissolve voluntarily and wind up its affairs in the following manner:

(a) The board of trustees shall first recommend that the cooperative be dissolved voluntarily and thereafter the proposition that the cooperative be dissolved shall be submitted to the members of the cooperative at any annual or special meeting the notice of which shall set forth such proposition. The proposed voluntary dissolution shall be deemed to be approved upon the affirmative vote of not less than two-thirds of those members voting thereon at such meeting;

(b) Upon such approval, a certificate of election to dissolve, hereinafter designated the "certificate," shall be executed and acknowledged on behalf of the cooperative by its president or vice president, and its corporate seal shall be affixed thereto and attested by its secretary. The certificate shall state:

1. The name of the cooperative;
  2. The address of its principal office;
  3. The names and addresses of its trustees; and
  4. The total number of members of the cooperative and the number of members who voted for and against the voluntary dissolution of the cooperative.
- The president or vice president executing the certificate shall also make and annex thereto an affidavit stating that the provisions of this subsection were duly complied with. Such certificate and affidavit shall be submitted to the Department of State for filing as provided in this chapter;

(c) Upon the filing of the certificate and affidavit by the Department of State, the cooperative shall cease to carry on its business except insofar as may be necessary for the winding up thereof, but its corporate existence shall continue until articles of dissolution have been filed by the Department of State;

(d) After the filing of the certificate and affidavit by the Department of State the board of trustees shall immediately cause notice of the winding up proceedings to be mailed to each known creditor and claimant and to be published once a week for 2 successive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the principal office of the cooperative is located;

(e) The board of trustees shall have full power to wind up and settle the affairs of the cooperative and shall proceed to collect the debts owing to the cooperative, convey and dispose of its property and assets, pay, satisfy, and discharge its debts, obligations, and liabilities, and do all other things required to liquidate its business and affairs, and after paying or adequately providing for the payment of all its debts, obligations and liabilities, shall distribute the remainder of its property and assets among its members in proportion to the aggregate patronage of each such member during the 7 years next preceding the date of such filing of the certificate, or, if the cooperative shall not have been in existence for such period, during the period of its existence; and

(f) When all debts, liabilities and obligations of the cooperative have been paid and discharged or adequate provision shall have been made therefor, and all of the remaining property and assets of the cooperative shall have been distributed to the members pursuant to the provisions of this section, the board of trustees shall authorize the execution of articles of dissolution which shall thereupon be executed and acknowledged on behalf of the cooperative by its president or vice president, and its corporate seal shall be affixed thereto and attested by its secretary. Such articles of dissolution shall recite in the caption that they are executed pursuant to this chapter and shall state:

1. The name of the cooperative;
2. The address of the principal office of the cooperative;
3. That the cooperative has heretofore delivered to the Department of State a certificate of election to dissolve and the date on which the certificate was filed by the Department of State in the records of its office;
4. That all debts, obligations and liabilities of the cooperative have been paid and discharged or that adequate provision has been made therefor;
5. That all the remaining property and assets of the cooperative have been distributed among the members in accordance with the provisions of this section; and
6. That there are no actions or suits pending against the cooperative. The president or vice president executing the articles of dissolution shall also make and annex thereto an affidavit stating that the provisions of this subsection were duly complied with.

Such articles of dissolution and affidavit accompanied by proof of the publication required in this subsection, shall be submitted to the Department of State for filing as provided in this chapter.

History.—s. 18, ch. 19138, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 6494(61); s. 7, ch. 22858, 1945; ss. 10, 35, ch. 69-106.

425.20 Filing of articles.—Articles of incorporation, amendment, consolidation, merger, conversion, or dissolution, as the case may be, when executed and acknowledged and accompanied by such affidavits as may be required by applicable provisions of this chapter, shall be presented to the Department of State for filing in the records of its office. If the Department of State shall find that the articles presented conform to the requirements of this chapter, it shall upon the payment of the fees as in this chapter provided, file the articles so presented in the records of its office and upon such filing the incorporation, amendment, consolidation, merger, conversion, or dissolution provided for therein shall be in effect. The Department of State immediately upon the filing in its office of any articles pursuant to this chapter shall transmit a certified copy thereof to the county clerk of the county in which the principal office of each cooperative or corporation affected by such incorporation, amendment, consolidation, merger, conversion, or dissolution shall be located. The clerk of any county, upon receipt of any such certified copy, shall file and index the same in the records of his office, but the failure of the Department of State or of a clerk of a county to comply with the provisions of this section shall not invalidate such articles. The provisions of this section shall also apply to certificates of election to dissolve and affidavits of compliance executed pursuant to s. 425.19(2)(b).

History.—s. 19, ch. 19138, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 6494(62); ss. 10, 35, ch. 69-106.

425.21 Refunds to members.—Revenues of a cooperative for any fiscal year in excess of the amount thereof necessary:

- (1) To defray expenses of the cooperative and of the operation and maintenance of its facilities during such fiscal year;
- (2) To pay interest and principal obligations of the cooperative coming due in such fiscal year;
- (3) To finance, or to provide a reserve for the financing of, the construction or acquisition by the cooperative of additional facilities to the extent determined by the board of trustees;
- (4) To provide a reasonable reserve for working capital;
- (5) To provide a reserve for the payment of indebtedness of the cooperative maturing more than 1 year after the date of the incurrence of such indebtedness in an amount not less than the total of the interest and principal payments in respect thereof required to be made during the next following fiscal year; and
- (6) To provide a fund for education in cooperation and for the dissemination of information concerning the effective use of electric energy and other services made available by the cooperative, shall, unless otherwise determined by a vote of the members, be distributed by the cooperative to its members as patronage refunds in accordance with the patronage of the cooperative by the respective members paid for during such fiscal year. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to prohibit the payment by a cooperative of all or any part of its indebtedness prior to the date when the same shall become due.

History.—s. 20, ch. 19138, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 6494(63).

425.22 Disposition of property.—A cooperative may not sell, mortgage, lease or otherwise dispose of or encumber all or any substantial portion of its property unless such sale, mortgage, lease, or other disposition or encumbrance is authorized at a duly held meeting of the members thereof by the affirmative vote of not less than two-thirds of all of the members of the cooperative, and unless the notice of such proposed sale, mortgage, lease or other disposition or encumbrance shall have been contained in the notice of the meeting. However, notwithstanding anything herein contained, or any other provisions of law, the board of trustees of a cooperative, without authorization by the members thereof, shall have full power and authority to authorize the execution and delivery of a mortgage or deed of trust upon, or the pledging or encumbering of, any or all of the property, assets, rights, privileges, licenses, franchises and permits of the cooperative, whether acquired or to be acquired, and wherever situated, as well as the revenues and income therefrom, all upon such terms and conditions as the board of trustees shall determine, to secure any indebtedness of the cooperative to the United States or any instrumentality or agency thereof or to any bank, financial institution, corporation, or person lending money or credit to such cooperative.

History.—s. 21, ch. 19138, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 6494(64); s. 1, ch. 70-14; s. 1, ch. 71-37.

425.23 Nonliability of members for debts of cooperative.—The private property of the members of a cooperative shall be exempt from execution for the debts of the cooperative and no member shall be liable or responsible for any debts of the cooperative.

History.—s. 22, ch. 19138, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 6494(65).

425.24 Recordation of mortgages.—Any mortgage, deed of trust, or other instrument executed by a cooperative or foreign corporation transacting business in this state pursuant to this chapter, which, by its terms, creates a lien upon real and personal property then owned or after-acquired, and which is recorded as a mortgage of real property in any county in which such property is located or is to be located shall have the same force and effect as if the mortgage, deed of trust or other instrument were also recorded or filed in the proper office of such county as a mortgage on personal property. Recordation of any such mortgage, deed of trust or other instrument shall cause the lien thereof to attach to all after-acquired property of the mortgagor of the nature therein described as being mortgaged or pledged thereby immediately upon the acquisition of such property by the mortgagor, and such lien shall be superior to all claims of creditors of the mortgagor and purchasers of such property and to all other liens, except liens of prior record and tax liens, affecting such property.

History.—s. 23, ch. 19138, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 6494(66).

425.25 Waiver of notice.—Whenever any notice is required to be given under the provisions of this chapter or under the provisions of the articles of incorporation or bylaws of a cooperative, waiver thereof in writing, signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice whether before or after the time fixed for the giving of such notice, shall be deemed equivalent to such notice. If a person or persons entitled to notice of a meeting shall attend such meeting, such attendance shall constitute a waiver of notice of the meeting, except in case the attendance is for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting shall not have been lawfully called or convened.

History.—s. 24, ch. 19138, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 6494(67).

425.26 Trustees, officers or members, notaries.—No person who is authorized to take acknowledgments under the laws of this state shall be disqualified from taking acknowledgments of instruments executed in favor of a cooperative or to which it is a party, by reason of being an officer, director or member of such cooperative.

History.—s. 25, ch. 19138, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 6494(68).

425.27 Foreign corporations.—Any corporation organized under the laws of another state on a nonprofit or a cooperative basis for the purpose of supplying electric energy in rural areas and owning and operating electric transmission or distribution lines in a state adjacent to this state, shall be allowed to transact business in this state and shall have the same rights, powers, and privileges as a cooperative organized under this chapter upon the filing with the Department of State of a certified copy of its charter or articles of incorporation and upon payment of the filing fee in this chapter provided.

History.—s. 26, ch. 19138, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 6494(69); ss. 10, 35, ch. 69-106.

425.28 Fees.—The Department of State shall charge and collect for:

- (1) Filing articles of incorporation, $10;
- (2) Filing articles of amendment, $5;
- (3) Filing articles of consolidation or merger, $5;
- (4) Filing articles of conversion, $5;
- (5) Filing certificate of election to dissolve, $5;
- (6) Filing articles of dissolution, $5;
- (7) Filing certificate of change of principal office, $2;
- (8) Filing certified copy of charter or articles of incorporation of foreign corporation pursuant to s. 425.27, $10.

History.—s. 27, ch. 19138, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 6494(70); ss. 10, 35, ch. 69-106.

425.29 Exemption from Sale of Securities Law.—The provisions of the Sale of Securities Law shall not apply to any note, bond or other evidence of indebtedness issued by any cooperative or foreign corporation transacting business in this state pursuant to this chapter to the United States or any agency or instrumentality thereof, to any commercial bank or banking institution chartered by state or national laws, to any financing institution, organized on a cooperative plan for the purpose of financing its members' programs, projects, and undertakings, in which the cooperative holds membership, or to any mortgage, deed of trust, or other security agreement executed to secure the same. The provisions of said sale of securities law shall not apply to the issuance of membership certificates by any cooperative or any such foreign corporation.

History.—s. 28, ch. 19138, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 6494(71); s. 2, ch. 71-37.

CHAPTER 427

TRANSPORTATION SERVICES

- 427.011 Definitions.
- 427.012 Coordinating Council on the Transportation Disadvantaged.
- 427.013 Coordinating council; purpose and responsibilities.
- 427.014 Department of Transportation; powers and duties.
- 427.015 Function of the metropolitan planning organization in coordinating transportation for the transportation disadvantaged.
- 427.016 Expenditure of state and federal funds for the transportation disadvantaged.
- 427.017 Conflicts with federal laws or regulations.
- 427.018 Expiration of ss. 427.011-427.018.

(1) "Transportation disadvantaged" means those individuals who because of physical or mental disability, income status, or age are unable to transport themselves or to purchase transportation and are, therefore, dependent upon others to obtain access to health care, employment, education, shopping, social activities, or other life-sustaining activities.

(2) "Metropolitan planning organization" means the organization responsible for carrying out transportation planning and programming in accordance with the provisions of 23 U.S.C. s. 134, as provided in 23 U.S.C. s. 104(f)(3).

(3) "Agency" means an official, officer, commission, authority, council, committee, department, division, bureau, board, section, or any other unit or entity of the state or of a city, town, municipality, county, or other local governing body or a private nonprofit service-providing agency.

(4) "Transportation improvement program" means a staged multiyear program of transportation improvements, including an annual element, which is developed by a metropolitan planning organization.

(5) "Coordinated community transportation provider" means a transportation provider designated by a metropolitan planning organization, or by the appropriate agency as provided for in ss. 427.011-427.018 in an area outside the purview of a metropolitan planning organization, to serve the transportation disadvantaged population in a community and which, to the fullest extent possible, reduces the fragmentation and duplication of service provision among all the state or federally funded programs that provide services to transportation disadvantaged individuals.

(6) "Member department" means a department whose secretary is a member of the coordinating council.

(7) "Paratransit" means those elements of public transit which provide service between specific origins and destinations selected by the individual user with such service being provided at a time that is agreed upon by the user and provider of the service. Paratransit service is provided by taxis, limousines,

"dial-a-ride," buses, and other demand-responsive operations that are characterized by their non-scheduled, nonfixed route nature.

(8) "Transportation disadvantaged funds" means any state or available federal funds that are for the transportation of the transportation disadvantaged. Such funds may include, but are not limited to, funds for planning, administration, operation, procurement, and maintenance of vehicles or equipment and capital investments. Transportation disadvantaged funds shall not include funds for the transportation of children to public schools.

<sup>1</sup>History.—ss. 1, 9, ch. 79-180.

(1) The coordinating council shall consist of the following members:

(a) The Secretary of the Department of Transportation, or his designate, who shall serve as chairman of the coordinating council.

(b) The Secretary of the Department of Community Affairs or his designate.

(c) The Secretary of the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services or his designate.

(d) The president of the Florida Association for Community Action Agencies, who shall serve at the pleasure of said association.

(e) A person over the age of 60 who is a member of a recognized statewide organization representing elderly Floridians. Such person shall be appointed by the Governor to represent elderly Floridians, shall serve a term of 4 years, and shall be appointed within 30 days of October 1, 1979.

(f) A handicapped person who is a member of a recognized statewide organization representing handicapped Floridians. Such person shall be appointed by the Governor to represent handicapped Floridians, shall serve a term of 4 years, and shall be appointed within 30 days of October 1, 1979.

(2) The Department of Transportation shall have the primary responsibility for providing staff support and for carrying out the policies and procedures of the coordinating council.

(3) All members of the coordinating council shall be allowed per diem and traveling expenses, as provided for in s. 112.061.

(4) The coordinating council shall be organized and hold its first meeting no later than January 1, 1980, and shall make an annual report to the Governor and the Legislature.

<sup>1</sup>History.—ss. 2, 8, 9, ch. 79-180.

taged. In carrying out this purpose, the coordinating council shall:

(1) Compile all available information on the transportation needs of the transportation disadvantaged in the state.

(2) Establish statewide objectives for providing essential transportation services for the transportation disadvantaged.

(3) Develop policies and procedures for the coordination of federal and state funding for the transportation disadvantaged.

(4) Analyze barriers prohibiting the coordination of transportation services to the transportation disadvantaged and aggressively pursue the elimination of these barriers.

(5) Serve as a clearinghouse for information about funding sources and innovations in serving the transportation disadvantaged.

(6) Assist communities in developing transportation systems designed to serve the transportation disadvantaged. In providing such assistance, special emphasis shall be placed on working with rural communities.

(7) Assure that all procedures, guidelines, and directives issued by member departments are conducive to the coordination of transportation services.

(8) Develop standards covering coordination, operation, and utilization of transportation services for the disadvantaged.

(9) Develop rules and procedures to implement the provisions of ss. 427.011-427.018. The rules shall identify procedures for coordinating with the review procedures pursuant to Office of Management and Budget circular A-95 and s. 216.212(1) and any other appropriate grant review process.

(10) Approve the appointment of all coordinated community transportation providers and agencies that plan for the coordination of transportation for the transportation disadvantaged in areas outside the purview of a metropolitan planning organization.

<sup>1</sup>History.—ss. 3, 9, ch. 79-180.

1427.014 Department of Transportation; powers and duties.—The Department of Transportation, in carrying out the policies and procedures of the coordinating council, shall:

(1) Prepare a statewide 5-year transit and paratransit development plan addressing the transportation problems of the transportation disadvantaged. The plan shall be reviewed and approved by the coordinating council and may be amended as authorized by rules promulgated by the coordinating council. The plan shall be developed in a manner that will assure maximum use of existing resources and optimum integration and coordination of the various modes of transportation. In addition, the plan shall incorporate transportation improvement programs developed by metropolitan planning organizations, as well as plans developed by the body or agency designated by the Department of Transportation in areas outside the purview of metropolitan planning organizations, as provided for in subsection (3). Further, prior to the commencement of each fiscal year, the Department of Transportation shall develop an annual element of the 5-year plan, which shall also be reviewed and approved by the coordinating council and which may be amended in accordance with rules promulgated by the coordinating council. The annual element shall outline the manner in which transportation disadvantaged funds are to be expended. No transportation disadvantaged funds shall be expended unless they are contained in the annual element.

(2) Have the primary responsibility for monitoring and, without delaying the application process, coordinating applications for all transportation disadvantaged funds.

(3) With the approval of the coordinating council, designate an official body or agency in any area outside the purview of a metropolitan planning organization to plan for the coordination of transportation for the transportation disadvantaged. Each designated official body or agency shall designate the coordinated community transportation provider to serve its area.

(4) Coordinate all programs with appropriate state agencies, regional planning agencies, and local agencies with transportation systems in the area of any proposed transportation project to ensure compatibility of transportation systems for the transportation disadvantaged with available systems in the area and also to ensure that the most cost-effective and efficient method of providing transportation to the disadvantaged is programmed for development.

(1) In developing the transportation improvement program, each metropolitan planning organization in this state shall include a realistic estimate of the revenue that will be derived from transportation disadvantaged funds in its area. The transportation improvement program shall also identify transportation improvements that will be advanced with such funds during the program period. Funds required by this subsection to be included in the transportation improvement program shall only be included after consultation with all affected agencies and shall only be expended if such funds are included in the transportation improvement program.

(2) Each metropolitan planning organization shall designate a single coordinated community transportation provider with which any agency receiving transportation disadvantaged funds shall contract for the provision of transportation services. If, for reasons identified in rules promulgated by the coordinating council, a single coordinated community transportation provider cannot be designated, the metropolitan planning organization may designate more than one coordinated community transportation provider to serve the area, provided that all providers agree upon a common plan for the coordinated delivery of service. The designation of any coordinated community transportation provider shall be subject to the approval of the coordinating council.

(3) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit the coordinated community transportation provider from subcontracting with other transportation providers, with the consent of the coordinating council.

<sup>1</sup>History.—ss. 6, 9, ch. 79-180.

<sup>1</sup>History.—ss. 5, 9, ch. 79-180.

al Government that any provision of this act conflicts with federal laws or regulations, the state or local agencies involved may take any reasonable steps necessary to assure continued federal funding. Further, it is the legislative intent that the conflict shall not affect other provisions or applications of this act that can effectively be implemented without implementation of the provision in question, and to this end, the provisions of this act are declared severable.

<sup>1</sup>History.—ss. 7, 9, ch. 79-180.

- 440.01 Short title.—This chapter may be cited as the "Workers' Compensation Law."
- History.—s. 1, ch. 17481, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 5966(1); s. 23, ch. 78-300; ss. 1, 124, ch. 79-40; s. 21, ch. 79-312.
- 440.02 Definitions.—When used in this chapter, unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the following terms shall have the following meanings:
- (1) "Employment."
- (a) "Employment," subject to the other provisions of this chapter, means any service performed by an employee for the person employing him.

(b) The term "employment" shall include:

1. Employment by the state and all political subdivisions thereof and all public and quasi-public corporations therein, including officers elected at the polls.

2. All private employments in which three or more employees are employed by the same employer.

(c) The term "employment" shall not include service performed by or as:

1. Domestic servants in private homes.

2. Agricultural labor performed on a farm in the employ of a bona fide farmer, or association of farmers, who employs 5 or less regular employees and who employs less than 12 other employees at one time for seasonal agricultural labor that is completed in less than 30 days, provided such seasonal employment does not exceed 45 days in the same calendar year. The term "farm" includes stock, dairy, poultry, fruit, fur-bearing animals, fish, and truck farms, ranches, nurseries, and orchards. The term "agricultural labor" includes field foremen, timekeepers, checkers, and other farm labor supervisory personnel.

3. Professional athletes, such as professional boxers, wrestlers, baseball, football, basketball, hockey, polo, tennis, jai alai, and similar players.

(2) "Employee."

(a) "Employee" means every person engaged in any employment under any appointment or contract of hire or apprenticeship, express or implied, oral or written, including aliens, and also including minors whether lawfully or unlawfully employed.

(b) The term "employee" shall include any person who is an officer of a corporation and who performs services for remuneration for such corporation within this state, whether or not such services are continuous. However, any officer of a corporation may elect to be exempt from coverage under this chapter by filing written certification of the election with the division as provided in s. 440.05. Services shall be presumed to have been rendered the corporation in cases where such officer is compensated by other than dividends upon shares of stock of such corporation owned by him.

(c) The term "employee" shall include a sole proprietor or a partner who devotes full time to the proprietorship or partnership and elects to be included in the definition of employee by filing notice thereof as provided in s. 440.05.

(d) The term "employee" shall not include:

1. An independent contractor, including:

a. An individual who agrees in writing to perform services for a person or corporation without supervision or control as a real estate salesman or agent, if such service by such individual for such person or corporation is performed for remuneration solely by way of commission;

b. Bands, orchestras, and musical and theatrical performers, including disc jockeys, performing in licensed premises as defined in chapter 562, provided that a written contract evidencing an independent contractor relationship is entered into prior to the commencement of such entertainment;

2. A person whose employment is both casual and not in the course of the trade, business, profession, or occupation of the employer; or

3. A volunteer who falls into one of the following categories:

a. Volunteers who serve in private nonprofit agencies and who receive no compensation other than expenses in an amount less than or equivalent to the standard mileage and per diem expenses provided to salaried employees in the same agency or, in the event that such agency does not have salaried employees who receive mileage and per diem, then such volunteers who receive no compensation other than expenses in an amount less than or equivalent to the customary mileage and per diem paid to salaried workers in the community as determined by the division.

b. Volunteers participating in federal programs established pursuant to Pub. L. No. 93-113.

4. Any officer of a corporation who elects to be exempt from coverage under this chapter.

(3) The term "casual" as used in this section shall be taken to refer only to employments where the work contemplated is to be completed in not exceeding 10 working days, without regard to the number of men employed, and where the total labor cost of such work is less than $100.

(4) The term "employer" means the state and all political subdivisions thereof, all public and quasi-public corporations therein, every person carrying on any employment, and the legal representative of a deceased person or the receiver or trustees of any person.

(5) The term "person" means individual, partnership, association, or corporation, including any public service corporation.

(6) The term "injury" means personal injury or death by accident arising out of and in the course of employment, and such diseases or infection as naturally or unavoidably result from such injury. Damage to dentures, eyeglasses, prosthetic devices, and artificial limbs may be included in this definition only when the damage is shown to be part of, or in conjunction with, an accident. This damage must specifically occur as the result of an accident in the normal course of employment.

(7)(a) The term "carrier" means any person or fund authorized under s. 440.38 to insure under this chapter and includes self-insurers.

(b) The term "self-insurer" means:

1. Any employer who has secured payment of compensation pursuant to s. 440.38(1)(b) or (6) as an individual self-insurer;

2. Any employer who has secured payment of compensation through a group self-insurer pursuant to s. 440.57; or

3. Any group self-insurer established pursuant to s. 440.57.

(8)(a) The term "commission" means the Industrial Relations Commission within the Department of Labor and Employment Security.

(b) The term "division" means the Division of Workers' Compensation of the Department of Labor and Employment Security.

(9) "Disability" means incapacity because of the injury to earn in the same or any other employment the wages which the employee was receiving at the time of the injury.

(10) "Death" as a basis for a right to compensation means only death resulting from an injury.

(11) "Compensation" means the money allowance payable to an employee or to his dependents as provided for in this chapter.

(12) "Wages" means the money rate at which the service rendered is recompensed under the contract of hiring in force at the time of the injury, including the reasonable value of board, rent, housing, lodging, or similar advantage received from the employer, and gratuities received in the course of employment from others than the employer, only when such gratuities are received with the knowledge of the employer. In employment in which an employee receives consideration other than cash as a portion of this compensation, the value of such compensation shall be subject to the determination of the deputy commissioner.

(13) "Child" shall include a posthumous child, a child legally adopted prior to the injury of the employee, and a stepchild or acknowledged illegitimate child dependent upon the deceased, but does not include married children unless wholly dependent on him. "Grandchild" means a child as above defined of a child as above defined. "Brother" and "sister" include stepbrothers and stepsisters, halfbrothers and halvesisters, and brothers and sisters by adoption, but does not include married brothers nor married sisters unless wholly dependent on the employee. "Child," "grandchild," "brother" and "sister" includes only persons who at the time of the death of the deceased employees are under 18 years of age, or under 22 years of age if a full-time student in an accredited educational institution.

(14) The term "parent" includes stepparents and parents by adoption, parents-in-law, and any persons who for more than 3 years prior to the death of the deceased employee stood in the place of a parent to him, and were dependent on the injured employee.

(15) The term "spouse" includes only a spouse substantially dependent for financial support upon the decedent and living with the decedent at the time of the decedent's injury and death, or substantially dependent upon the decedent for financial support and living apart at said time for justifiable cause.

(16) The term "adoption" or "adopted" means legal adoption prior to the time of the injury.

(17) The term "time of injury" means the time of the occurrence of the accident resulting in the injury.

(18) "Accident" means only an unexpected or unusual event or result, happening suddenly. A mental or nervous injury due to fright or excitement only, or disability or death due to the accidental acceleration or aggravation of a venereal disease or of a disease due to the habitual use of alcohol or narcotic drugs, shall be deemed not to be an injury by accident arising out of the employment. Where a preexisting disease or anomaly is accelerated or aggravated by an accident arising out of, and in the course of, employment and resulting in death, only acceleration of death reasonably attributable to the accident shall be compensable.

(19) The term "registered mail" includes certified mail and any mail service which provides for a receipt to the sender and a record of delivery at the office of address.

(20) The term "weekly compensation rate" shall be deemed to mean and refer to the amount of compensation payable for a period of 7 consecutive days, including any Saturdays, Sundays, holidays, and other nonworking days which fall within such period of 7 consecutive days. When Saturdays, Sundays, holidays, or other nonworking days immediately follow the first 7 days of disability or occur at the end of a period of disability as the last day or days of such period, such nonworking days constitute a part of the period of disability with respect to which compensation is payable.

(21) The term "permanent impairment" means any anatomic or functional abnormality or loss, existing after the date of maximum medical improvement, which results from the injury.

(22) The term "date of maximum medical improvement" means the date after which further recovery from, or lasting improvement to, an injury or disease can no longer reasonably be anticipated, based upon reasonable medical probability.

440.021 Exemption of workers' compensation from chapter 120.—Workers' compensation adjudications by deputy commissioners and the Industrial Relations Commission are exempt from chapter 120, and neither the deputy commissioners nor the Industrial Relations Commission shall be considered an agency or a part thereof. Advisory opinions of the division pursuant to s. 440.19(1) as to the entitlement of an employee or his dependents to benefits under this chapter are exempt from chapter 120. In all instances in which the division institutes action to collect a penalty or interest which may be due pursuant to this chapter, the penalty or interest shall be assessed without hearing, and the party against which such penalty or interest is assessed shall be given written notice of such assessment and shall have the right to protest within 20 days of such notice. Upon receipt of a timely notice of protest and after such investigation as may be necessary, the division shall, if it agrees with such protest, notify the protesting party that the assessment has been revoked. If the division does not agree with the protest, it shall refer the matter to the deputy commissioner for determination pursuant to s. 440.25(3) and (4). Such action of the division is exempt from the provisions of chapter 120.

Note.—See s. 1, ch. 79-312, which abolished the Industrial Relations Commission and transferred all appeals pending before the commission to the District Court of Appeal, First District, effective October 1, 1979.

440.03 Application.—Every employer and employee as defined in s. 440.02 shall be bound by the provisions of this chapter.

History.—s. 3, ch. 17481, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 5966(3); s. 1, ch. 70-148; s. 23, ch. 78-300; s. 124, ch. 79-40; s. 21, ch. 79-312.

440.04 Waiver of exemption.—

(1) Every employer having in his employment any employee not included in the definition "employee" or excluded or exempted from the operation of this chapter may at any time waive such exclusion or exemption and accept the provisions of this chapter by giving notice thereof as provided in s. 440.05, and by so doing be as fully protected and covered by the provisions of this chapter as if such exclusion or exemption had not been contained herein.

(2) When any policy or contract of insurance specifically secures the benefits of this chapter to any person not included in the definition of "employee" or whose services are not included in the definition of "employment" or who is otherwise excluded or exempted from the operation of this chapter, the acceptance of such policy or contract of insurance by the insured and the writing of same by the carrier shall constitute a waiver of such exclusion or exemption and an acceptance of the provisions of this chapter with respect to such person, notwithstanding the provision of s. 440.05 with respect to notice.

(3) A corporate officer who has exempted himself by proper notice from the operation of this chapter may at any time revoke such exemption and thereby accept the provisions of this chapter by giving notice as provided in s. 440.05.

History.—s. 4, ch. 17481, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 5966(4); s. 2, ch. 18413, 1937; s. 2, ch. 29778, 1955; s. 4, ch. 70-148; s. 2, ch. 74-197; s. 23, ch. 78-300; s. 124, ch. 79-40; s. 21, ch. 79-312.

440.05 Notice of exemption or acceptance and waiver of exemption or acceptance.—

(1) Every corporate officer who elects not to accept the provisions of this chapter or who, after electing such exemption, then revokes that exemption shall mail to the division in Tallahassee notice to such effect in accordance with a form to be prescribed by the division.

(2) Every sole proprietor or partner who elects to be included in the definition of "employee" or who, after such election, then revokes that election shall mail to the division in Tallahassee notice to such effect, in accordance with a form to be prescribed by the division.

(3) No notice given pursuant to subsection (1) or subsection (2) shall become effective until 30 days after the date it is mailed to the division in Tallahassee. However, if an accident or occupational disease occurs less than 30 days after the effective date of the insurance policy under which the payment of compensation is secured or the date the employer qualified as a self-insurer, such notice shall be effective as of 12:01 a.m. of the day following the date it is mailed to the division in Tallahassee.

440.075 When corporate officer rejects chapter; effect.—Every corporate officer who elects to reject this chapter shall, in any action to recover damages for injury or death brought against the corporate employer, proceed as at common law, and the employer in such suit may avail itself of all defenses that exist at common law.

History.—s. 4, ch. 74-197; s. 23, ch. 78-300; s. 124, ch. 79-40; s. 21, ch. 79-312.

440.09 Coverage.—

(1) Compensation shall be payable under this chapter in respect of disability or death of an employee if the disability or death results from an injury arising out of and in the course of employment. Death resulting from an operation by a surgeon furnished by the employer for the cure of hernia as required in s. 440.15(6) shall for the purpose of this chapter be considered as a death resulting from the accident causing the hernia. Where an accident happens while the employee is employed elsewhere than in this state, which would entitle him or his dependents to compensation if it had happened in this state, the employee or his dependents shall be entitled to compensation if the contract of employment was made in this state, or the employment was principally localized in this state. However, if an employee shall receive compensation or damages under the laws of any other state, nothing herein contained shall be construed so as to permit a total compensation for the same injury greater than is provided herein.

(2) No compensation shall be payable in respect of the disability or death of any employee covered by the Federal Employer's Liability Act, the Longshoremen's and Harbor Worker's Compensation Act, or the Jones Act.

(3) No compensation shall be payable if the injury was occasioned primarily by the intoxication of the employee; by the influence of any narcotic drugs, barbiturates, or other stimulants not prescribed by a physician, which affected the employee to such an extent that the employee's normal faculties were impaired; or by the willful intention of the employee to injure or kill himself, herself, or another. If there was at the time of the injury 0.10 percent or more by weight of alcohol in the employee's blood, it shall be presumed, in the absence of substantial evidence to the contrary, that the injury was occasioned primarily by the intoxication of the employee. Percent by weight of alcohol in the blood shall be based upon grams of alcohol per 100 milliliters of blood.

(4) Where injury is caused by the willful refusal of the employee to use a safety appliance or observe a safety rule required by statute or lawfully promulgated by the division, and brought prior to the accident to his or her knowledge, the compensation as provided in this chapter shall be reduced 25 percent.

History.—s. 9, ch. 17481, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 5966(9); s. 3, ch. 18413, 1937; s. 1, ch. 28236, 1953; s. 1, ch. 57-293; s. 2, ch. 73-127; s. 5, ch. 74-197; s. 3, ch. 75-209; s. 2, ch. 77-290; s. 23, ch. 78-300; s. 124, ch. 79-40; s. 21, ch. 79-312.

440.10 Liability for compensation.—

(1) Every employer coming within the provisions of this chapter, including any brought within the chapter by waiver of exclusion or of exemption, shall be liable for, and shall secure, the payment to his employees, or any physician, surgeon, or pharmacist providing services under the provisions of s. 440.13, of the compensation payable under ss. 440.13, 440.15, and 440.16. In case a contractor sublets any part or parts of his contract work to a subcontractor or subcontractors, all of the employees of such contractor and subcontractor or subcontractors who have three or more employees engaged on such contract work shall be deemed to be employed in one and the same business or establishment, and the contractor shall be liable for, and shall secure, the payment of compensation to all such employees, except to employees of a subcontractor who has secured such payment or who is exempt. A subcontractor who employs fewer than three employees shall certify in writing to the contractor that such subcontractor and its employees are exempt from coverage under this chapter. A subcontractor is not liable for the payment of compensation to the employees of another subcontractor on such contract work and is not protected by the exclusiveness of liability provisions of s. 440.11 from action at law or in admiralty on account of injury of such employee of another subcontractor.

(2) Compensation shall be payable irrespective of fault as a cause for the injury, except as provided in s. 440.09(3).

History.—s. 10, ch. 17481, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 5966(10); s. 4, ch. 18413, 1937; s. 6, ch. 74-197; s. 23, ch. 78-300; ss. 5, 124, ch. 79-40; s. 21, ch. 79-312.

440.11 Exclusiveness of liability.—

(1) The liability of an employer prescribed in s. 440.10 shall be exclusive and in place of all other liability of such employer to any third-party tortfeasor and to the employee, the legal representative thereof, husband or wife, parents, dependents, next of kin, and anyone otherwise entitled to recover damages from such employer at law or in admiralty on account of such injury or death, except that if an employer fails to secure payment of compensation as required by this chapter, an injured employee, or the legal representative thereof in case death results from the injury, may elect to claim compensation under this chapter or to maintain an action at law or in admiralty for damages on account of such injury or death. In such action the defendant may not plead as a defense that the injury was caused by negligence of a fellow servant, that the employee assumed the risk of the employment, or that the injury was due to the comparative negligence of the employee. The same immunities from liability enjoyed by an employer shall extend as well to each employee of the employer when such employee is acting in furtherance of the employer's business and the injured employee is entitled to receive benefits under this chapter. Such fellow-employee immuni-ties shall not be applicable to an employee who acts, with respect to a fellow employee, with willful and wanton disregard or unprovoked physical aggression or with gross negligence when such acts result in injury or death or such acts proximately cause such injury or death, nor shall such immunities be applicable to employees of the same employer when each is operating in the furtherance of the employer's business but they are assigned primarily to unrelated works within private or public employment.

(2) An employer's workers' compensation carrier, service agent, or safety consultant shall not be liable as a third-party tortfeasor for assisting the employer in carrying out the employer's rights and responsibilities under this chapter by furnishing any safety inspection, safety consultative service, or other safety service incidental to the workers' compensation or employers' liability coverage or to the workers' compensation or employer's liability servicing contract. The exclusion from liability under this subsection shall not apply in any case in which injury or death is proximately caused by the willful and unprovoked physical aggression, or by the negligent operation of a motor vehicle, by employees, officers, or directors of the employer's workers' compensation carrier, service agent, or safety consultant.

History.—s. 11, ch. 17481, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 5966(11); s. 1, ch. 70-25; s. 1, ch. 71-190; s. 4, ch. 75-209; ss. 2, 23, ch. 78-300; ss. 6, 124, ch. 79-40; s. 21, ch. 79-312.

440.12 Time for commencement and limits on weekly and monthly rate of compensation.—

(1) No compensation shall be allowed for the first 7 days of the disability, except benefits provided for in s. 440.13; however, if the injury results in disability of more than 14 days, compensation shall be allowed from the commencement of the disability. All weekly compensation payments, except for the first payment, shall be paid by check.

(2) Compensation for disability resulting from injuries which occur after December 31, 1974, shall not be less than $20 per week. However, if the employee's wages at the time of injury are less than $20 per week, he shall receive his full weekly wages. If his wages at the time of the injury exceed $20 per week, compensation shall not exceed an amount per week which is:

(a) Equal to 100 percent of the statewide average weekly wage, determined as hereinafter provided for the year in which the injury occurred; however, the increase to 100 percent from 66⅔ percent of the statewide average weekly wage shall apply only to injuries occurring on or after July 1, 1979; and

(b) Adjusted to the nearest dollar.

For the purpose of this subsection, the "statewide average weekly wage" means the average weekly wage paid by employers subject to the Florida Unemployment Compensation Law as reported to the department for the four calendar quarters ending each June 30, which average weekly wage shall be determined by the department on or before November 30 of each year and shall be used in determining the maximum weekly compensation rate with respect to injuries occurring in the calendar year immediately following. The statewide average weekly wage determined by the department shall be reported annually to the Legislature.

(3) Monthly wage-loss benefits shall not exceed 4.3 times the maximum weekly benefit as computed pursuant to subsection (2).

(4) The provisions of this section as amended effective July 1, 1951, shall govern with respect to disability due to injuries suffered prior to July 1, 1959. The provisions of this section as amended effective July 1, 1959, shall govern with respect to disability due to injuries suffered after June 30, 1959, and prior to January 1, 1968. The provisions of this section as amended effective January 1, 1968, shall govern with respect to disability due to injuries suffered after December 31, 1967, and prior to July 1, 1970. The provisions of this section as amended effective July 1, 1970, shall govern with respect to disability due to injuries suffered after June 30, 1970, and prior to July 1, 1972. The provisions of this section as amended effective July 1, 1972, shall govern with respect to disability due to injuries suffered after June 30, 1972, and prior to July 1, 1973. The provisions of this section, as amended effective July 1, 1973, shall govern with respect to disability due to injuries suffered after June 30, 1973, and prior to January 1, 1975.

440.13 Medical services and supplies; penalty for violations; limitations.—

(1) Subject to the limitations specified in s. 440.19(2)(b), the employer shall furnish to the employee such remedial treatment, care, and attendance under the direction and supervision of a qualified physician or surgeon or other recognized practitioner, nurse, or hospital, and for such period as the nature of the injury or the process of recovery may require, including medicines, crutches, artificial members, and other apparatus. If the employer fails to provide the same after request by the injured employee, such injured employee may do so at the expense of the employer, the reasonableness and the necessity to be approved by a deputy commissioner. The employee shall not be entitled to recover any amount personally expended for such treatment or service unless such employee shall have requested the employer to furnish the same and the employer shall have failed, refused, or neglected to do so or unless the nature of the injury required such treatment, nursing, and services and the employer or the superintendent or foreman thereof, having knowledge of such injury, shall have neglected to provide the same. Nor shall any claim for medical, surgical, or other remedial treatment be valid and enforceable unless, within 10 days following the first treatment, except in cases where first-aid only is rendered, and thereafter at such intervals as the division by regulation may prescribe, the physician or other recognized practitioner giving such treatment or treatments furnishes to the division and to the employer, or to the carrier if the employer is not self-insured, a report of such injury and treatment on forms prescribed by the division; however, a deputy commissioner, for good cause, may excuse the failure of the physician or other recognized practitioner to furnish any report within the period prescribed and may order the payment to such employee of such remuneration for treatment or service rendered as the deputy commissioner finds equitable. Along with such reports, the physician or other recognized practitioner shall furnish a sworn statement that the treatment or services rendered were reasonable and necessary with respect to the bodily injury sustained. Said sworn statement shall read as follows: "Under penalty of perjury, I declare that I have read the foregoing, that the facts alleged are true, to the best of my knowledge and belief, and that the treatment and services rendered were reasonable and necessary with respect to the bodily injury sustained." All medical reports obtained or received by the employer, the carrier, or the injured employee, or the attorney for any of them, with respect to the remedial treatment, care, and attendance of the injured employee, including reports of every examination, diagnosis, or disability evaluation, shall be filed with the Division of Workers' Compensation within 5 days after receipt of same. A medical report not previously filed with the division shall not be received in evidence in a contested case unless the party offering same has furnished a copy thereof to the opposing party or his attorney at least 5 days prior to the hearing at which it is offered. The physician shall also furnish to the injured employee, or to his attorney, on demand, a copy of each such report without charge to the injured employee, except actual cost to the physician or hospital furnishing same.

(2) If an injured employee objects to the medical attendance furnished by the employer, it shall be the duty of the employer to select another physician to treat the injured employee unless a deputy commissioner determines that a change in medical attendance is not for the best interests of the injured employee; however, a deputy commissioner may at any time, for good cause shown, in the deputy commissioner's discretion, order a change in such remedial attention, care, or attendance. It shall be unlawful for any employer or representative of any insurance company or insurer to coerce or attempt to coerce a sick or injured employee in the selection of a physician, surgeon, or other attendant or remedial treatment, nursing or hospital care, or any other service that the sick or injured employee may require; and any employer or representative of any insurance company or insurer who violates this provision shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

(3)(a) All fees and other charges for such treatment or service, including treatment or service provided by any hospital or other health care provider, shall be limited to such charges as prevail in the same community for similar treatment of injured persons of like standard of living and shall be subject to rules adopted by the division, which shall adopt schedules of maximum charges for such treatment or services. An individual health care provider shall be paid either his usual and customary charge for a treatment or service or the maximum charge, whichever is less. A hospital shall be paid the lowest charge currently assessed for such treatment or service in the community in which the hospital is located.

(b) There is hereby created an advisory committee to aid and assist the Department of Labor and Employment Security in adopting schedules of maximum charges for hospital treatment and services payable through workers' compensation benefits, to be appointed by and serve at the pleasure of the Secretary of Labor and Employment Security.

(c) The Division of Workers' Compensation of the Department of Labor and Employment Security shall be empowered to investigate hospitals and medical practitioners to determine if they are in compliance with the schedule of charges adopted by the division or if they are requiring unjustified treatment, hospitalization, or office visits. If the division finds that the hospital or medical practitioner has made such excessive charges or required such treatment, hospitalization, or visits, the hospital or medical practitioner shall not receive payment under this chapter from a carrier, employer, or employee for the excessive fees or unjustified treatment, hospitalization, or visits, and, furthermore, the hospital or medical practitioner shall be liable to return to the carrier or self-insurer any such fees or charges already collected.

(d)1. As used in this subsection:

a. "Utilization review" means the initial evaluation of appropriateness in terms of both the level and the quality of health care and health services provided a patient, based on medically accepted standards. Such evaluation is accomplished by means of a system which identifies the utilization of medical services above the usual range of utilization for such services, based on medically accepted standards, and which refers instances of possible inappropriate utilization to the division for referral to a peer review committee.

b. "Peer review" means an evaluation by a peer review committee, after utilization review, of the appropriateness, quality, and cost of health care and health services provided a patient, based on medically accepted standards.

c. "Peer review committee" means a committee composed of health care providers licensed under the same authority as the health care provider who rendered the services being reviewed.

d. "Health care provider" means a physician licensed under chapter 458, an osteopath licensed under chapter 459, a chiropractor licensed under chapter 460, a podiatrist licensed under chapter 461, an optometrist licensed under chapter 463, or a dentist licensed under chapter 466.

2. The division shall develop and implement, or contract with a qualified entity to develop and implement, utilization review of the services rendered by a health care provider, which services are paid for in whole or in part pursuant to this chapter.

3. The division shall contract with a private non-profit medical foundation to provide peer review of health care services rendered pursuant to this chapter. Under the terms of such contract, the foundation shall establish and maintain a procedure by which a peer review committee shall review the services rendered by a health care provider, which services are paid for in whole or in part pursuant to this chapter. Such review shall occur upon a determination by the division that information referred to it by the entity responsible for utilization review contains reliable information that a health care provider is rendering services in a manner which may be inappropriate with respect to either the level or the quality of care. The report and recommendations of the peer review committee shall be submitted to the division for such action as may be necessary in accordance with this section.

4. By accepting payment pursuant to this chapter for remedial treatment rendered to an injured employee, a health care provider shall be deemed to consent to submitting all necessary records and other information concerning such treatment to utilization review and peer review as provided by this section. Such health care provider shall further agree to comply with any decision of the division pursuant to subparagraph 5.

5. If it is determined that a health care provider improperly overutilized or otherwise rendered or ordered inappropriate medical treatment or services, or that the cost of such treatment or services was inappropriate, the division may order the health care provider to show cause why he should not be required to repay the amount which was paid for the rendering or ordering of such treatment or services and shall inform him of his right to a hearing under the provisions of s. 120.57. If a hearing is not requested within 30 days of receipt of the order and the division director decides to proceed with the matter, a hearing shall be conducted, a prima facie case established, and a final order issued. If the final order, including judicial review if the order is appealed, is adverse to the health care provider, the division shall provide the licensing board of the health care provider with full documentation of such determination.

6. The criteria or standards established for the utilization review shall be adopted by the division as rules pursuant to chapter 120. The referral by the entity responsible for the utilization review, the decision of the division to refer the matter to the peer review committee, the establishment by the foundation of the procedures by which a peer review committee reviews the rendering of health care services, and the peer review committee's review proceedings, report, and recommendation shall not be subject to the provisions of chapter 120.

7. The provisions of s. 768.40 shall apply to any officer, employee, or agent of the division and to any officer, employee, or agent of any entity with which the division has contracted pursuant to this section.

(4) An injured employee is entitled, as a part of his remedial treatment, care, and attendance, to reasonable actual cost of transportation to and from the doctor's office, hospital, or other place of treatment by the most economical means of transportation available and suitable in the individual case. When the employee is entitled to such reimbursement for transportation by private automobile, it shall be presumed, in the absence of proof, that the actual cost is the amount allowed by the state to employees for official travel.

440.14 Determination of pay.—

(1) Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, the average weekly wages of the injured employee at the time of the injury shall be taken as the basis upon which to compute compensation and shall be determined, subject to the limitations of s. 440.12(2), as follows:

(a) If the injured employee shall have worked in the employment in which he was working at the time of the injury, whether for the same or another employer, during substantially the whole of 13 weeks immediately preceding the injury, his average weekly wage shall be one-thirteenth of the total amount of wages earned in such employment during the said 13 weeks. As used in this paragraph, the term "substantially the whole of 13 weeks" shall be deemed to mean and refer to a constructive period of 13 weeks as a whole, which shall be defined as a consecutive period of 91 days, and the term "during substantially the whole of 13 weeks" shall be deemed to mean during not less than 90 percent of the total customary full-time hours of employment within such period considered as a whole.

(b) If the injured employee shall not have worked in such employment during substantially the whole of 13 weeks immediately preceding the injury, the wages of a similar employee in the same employment who has worked substantially the whole of such 13 weeks shall be used in making the determination under the preceding paragraph.

(c) If an employee is a seasonal worker and the foregoing method cannot be fairly applied in determining the average weekly wage, then the employee may use, instead of the 13 weeks immediately preceding the injury, the calendar year or the 52 weeks immediately preceding the injury. The employee will have the burden of proving that this method will be more reasonable and fairer than the method set forth in paragraphs (a) and (b) and, further, must document prior earnings with W-2 forms, written wage statements, or income tax returns. The employer shall have 30 days following the receipt of this written proof to adjust the compensation rate, including the making of any additional payment due for prior weekly payments, based on the lower rate compensation.

(d) If any of the foregoing methods cannot reasonably and fairly be applied the full-time weekly wages of the injured employee shall be used, except as otherwise provided in paragraph (e) or paragraph (f).

(e) If it be established that the injured employee was a minor when injured, and that under normal conditions his wages should be expected to increase during the period of disability the fact may be considered in arriving at his average weekly wages.

(f) If it be established that the injured employee was a part-time worker at the time of the injury, that he had adopted part-time employment as his customary practice, and that under normal working conditions he probably would have remained a part-time worker during the period of disability, these factors shall be considered in arriving at his average weekly wages. For the purpose of this paragraph the term "part-time worker" means an individual who customarily works less than the full-time hours or full-time workweek of a similar employee in the same employment.

(g) If compensation is due for a fractional part of the week, the compensation for such fractional part shall be determined by dividing the weekly compensation rate by the number of days employed per week to compute the amount due for each day.

(2) The average monthly wages of the injured employee at the time of the injury shall be 4.3 times the average weekly wage determined pursuant to this section.

440.15 Compensation for disability.—Compensation for disability shall be paid to the employee, subject to the limits provided in s. 440.12(2), as follows:

(1) PERMANENT TOTAL DISABILITY.—

(a) In case of total disability adjudged to be permanent, 66⅔ percent of the average weekly wages shall be paid to the employee during the continuance of such total disability.

(b) Loss of both hands, or both arms, or both feet, or both legs, or both eyes, or of any two thereof or paraplegia or quadriplegia shall, in the absence of conclusive proof of a substantial earning capacity, constitute permanent total disability. In all other cases permanent total disability shall be determined in accordance with the facts. In such other cases, no compensation shall be payable under paragraph (a) if the employee is engaged in, or is physically capable of engaging in, gainful employment, and the burden shall be upon the employee to establish that he is not able uninterruptedly to do even light work due to physical limitation.

(c) In cases of permanent total disability resulting from injuries which occurred prior to July 1, 1955, such payments shall not be made in excess of 700 weeks.

(d) If an employee who is being paid compensation for permanent total disability shall become rehabilitated to the extent that he shall establish an earning capacity, he shall be paid, instead of the compensation provided in paragraph (a), wage-loss benefits pursuant to paragraph (3)(b). The division shall adopt rules to enable a permanently and totally disabled employee who may have reestablished an earning capacity to undertake a trial period of reemployment without prejudicing his return to permanent total status in the case that such employee is unable to sustain an earning capacity.

(e)1. In case of permanent total disability resulting from injuries which occurred subsequent to June 30, 1955, and for which the liability of the employer for compensation has not been discharged under the provisions of s. 440.20(12), the injured employee shall receive from the division additional weekly compensation benefits equal to 5 percent of the injured employee's weekly compensation rate as established pursuant to the law in effect on the date of his injury, multiplied by the number of calendar years since the date of injury, and subject to the maximum weekly compensation rate set forth in s. 440.12(2). Such additional benefits shall be paid out of the Workers' Compensation Administration Trust Fund. This applies to payments due after October 1, 1974.

2.a. The division shall provide by rule for the periodic reporting to the division of all earnings of any nature and social security income by the injured employee entitled to or claiming additional compensation under subparagraph 1. Neither the division nor the employer or carrier shall make any payment of those additional benefits provided by subparagraph 1. for any period during which the employee willfully fails or refuses to report upon request by the division in the manner prescribed by said rules.

b. The division shall provide by rule for the periodic reporting to the employer or carrier of all earnings of any nature and social security income by the injured employee entitled to or claiming benefits for permanent total disability. The employer or carrier shall not be required to make any payment of benefits for permanent total disability for any period during which the employee willfully fails or refuses to report upon request by the employer or carrier in the manner prescribed by said rules.

(2) TEMPORARY TOTAL DISABILITY.—

(a) In case of disability total in character but temporary in quality, 66⅔ percent of the average weekly wages shall be paid to the employee during the continuance thereof, not to exceed 350 weeks except as provided in s. 440.12(1).

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (a), an employee who has sustained the loss of an arm, leg, hand, or foot, or total loss of use of such arm, leg, hand, or foot, or total loss of use of such member because of organic damage to the nervous system, or has lost the sight of both eyes shall be paid temporary total disability of 80 percent of his average weekly wage until such employee has completed his training in the use of artificial members or appliances as necessary and completed training or education under a rehabilitative program pursuant to s. 440.49, if provided. In no event should the increased temporary total disability compensation provided for in this paragraph extend beyond 6 months from the date of injury. The compensation provided by this paragraph is not subject to the limits provided in s. 440.12(2), but instead is subject to a maximum weekly compensation rate of $400. If, at the conclusion of this period of increased temporary total disability compensation, the employee is still temporarily totally disabled, the employee shall continue to receive temporary total disability compensation as set forth in paragraph (a) and s. 440.49(1)(e). The period of time the employee has received this increased compensation will be counted as part of, and not in addition to, the maximum periods of time for which the employee is entitled to compensation under paragraph (a) but not s. 440.49(1)(e).

(3) PERMANENT IMPAIRMENT AND WAGE-LOSS BENEFITS.—

(a) Impairment benefits.—

1. In case of permanent impairment due to amputation, loss of 80 percent or more of vision, after correction, or serious facial or head disfigurement resulting from an injury other than an injury entiling the injured worker to permanent total disability benefits pursuant to subsection (1), there shall be paid to the injured worker the following:

a. Fifty dollars for each percent of permanent impairment of the body as a whole from 1 percent through 50 percent; and

b. One hundred dollars for each percent of permanent impairment of the body as a whole for that portion in excess of 50 percent.

2. Once the employee has reached the date of maximum medical improvement, impairment benefits are due and payable within 20 days after the carrier has knowledge of the impairment.

3. In order to reduce litigation and establish more certainty and uniformity in the rating of permanent impairment, the division shall establish and use a schedule for determining the existence and degree of permanent impairment based upon medically or scientifically demonstrable findings. The schedule shall be based on generally accepted medical standards for determining impairment and may incorporate all or part of any one or more generally accepted schedules used for such purpose, such as the American Medical Association's Guides to the Evaluation of Permanent Impairment. On August 1, 1979, and pending the adoption, by rule, of a permanent schedule, Guides to the Evaluation of Permanent Impairment, copyright 1977, 1971, by the American Medical Association, shall be the temporary schedule and shall be used for the purposes hereof.

(b) Wage-loss benefits.—

1. Each injured worker who suffers any permanent impairment, which permanent impairment is determined pursuant to the schedule adopted in accordance with subparagraph 3. of paragraph (a), may be entitled to wage-loss benefits under this subsection. Such benefits shall be based on actual wage-loss and shall not be subject to the minimum compensation rate set forth in s. 440.12(2). Such wage-loss benefits shall be, subject to the maximum compensation rate as set forth in s. 440.12(2), equal to 95 percent of the difference between 85 percent of the employee's average monthly wage and the salary, wages, and other remuneration the employee is able to earn after reaching maximum medical improvement, as compared on a monthly basis; however, the monthly wage-loss benefits shall not exceed an amount equal to 66⅔ percent of the employee's average monthly wage at the time of injury. In order to simplify the comparison of the preinjury average monthly wage with the salary, wages, and other remuneration the employee is able to earn after reaching maximum medical improvement, the division may by rule provide for the modification of the monthly comparison so as to coincide as closely as possible with the injured worker's pay periods.

2. The amount determined to be the salary, wages, and other remunerations the employee is able to earn after reaching the date of maximum medical improvement shall in no case be less than the sum actually being earned by the employee, including earnings from sheltered employment. In the event the employee voluntarily limits his or her income or fails to accept employment commensurate with his or her abilities, the salary, wages, and other remuneration the employee is able to earn after the date of maximum medical improvement shall be deemed to be the amount which would have been earned if the employee did not limit his or her income or accepted appropriate employment. Whenever a wage-loss benefit as set forth in subparagraph 1. may be payable, the burden shall be on the employee to establish that any wage loss claimed is the result of the compensable injury.

3. The right to wage-loss benefits shall terminate:

a. As of the end of any 2-year period commencing at any time subsequent to the month when the injured employee reaches the date of maximum medical improvement, unless during such 2-year period wage-loss benefits shall have been payable during at least 3 consecutive months;

b. For injuries occurring on or before July 1, 1980, 350 weeks after the injured employee reaches the date of maximum medical improvement;

c. For injuries occurring after July 1, 1980, 525 weeks after the injured employee reaches maximum medical improvement; or

d. When the injured employee reaches age 65, whichever comes first.

4. When the injured employee reaches age 62, wage-loss benefits shall be reduced by the total amount of social security retirement benefits which the employee is receiving, not to exceed 50 percent of the employee's wage-loss benefits.

5. Beginning with the 25th month after maximum medical improvement and for the purpose of determining wage-loss benefits, the total wages, salary, and other remuneration for the month in consideration shall be discounted as follows:

a. For those injuries occurring on or after July 1, 1979, and on or before July 1, 1980, by a factor of 3 percent and compounded annually at 3 percent thereafter; and

b. For those injuries occurring after July 1, 1980, by a factor of 5 percent and compounded annually at 5 percent thereafter.

However, with respect to any year in which the annual rate of inflation, calculated by using the National Consumer Price Index published by the United States Department of Labor, is less than the applicable discount factor, such rate shall be substituted for such discount factor for that year.

6. The division shall keep such records and conduct such investigations as are necessary to determine the feasibility of providing additional protection from inflation for workers entitled to wage-loss benefits and shall report its findings to the Legislature not later than March 1, 1981.

(4) TEMPORARY PARTIAL DISABILITY.—

(a) In case of temporary partial disability, benefits shall be based on actual wage loss and shall not be subject to the minimum compensation rate set forth in s. 440.12(2). The compensation shall be equal to 95 percent of the difference between 85 percent of the employee's average monthly wage and the salary, wages, and other remuneration the employee is able to earn, as compared on a monthly basis; however, the monthly wage-loss benefits shall not exceed an amount equal to 66 $\frac{2}{3}$  percent of the employee's average monthly wage at the time of injury. In order to simplify the comparison of the preinjury average monthly wage with the salary, wages, and other remuneration the employee is able to earn, the division may by rule provide for the modification of the monthly comparison so as to coincide as closely as possible with the injured worker's pay periods.

(b) The amount determined to be the salary, wages, and other remuneration the employee is able to earn shall in no case be less than the sum actually being earned by the employee, including earnings from sheltered employment. In the event the employee voluntarily limits his or her income or fails to accept employment commensurate with his or her abilities, the salary, wages, and other remuneration the employee is able to earn shall be deemed to be the amount which would have been earned if the employee did not limit his or her income or accepted appropriate employment. Whenever a wage-loss benefit as set forth in paragraph (a) may be payable, the burden shall be on the employee to establish that any wage loss claimed is the result of the compensable injury.

(c) Such benefits shall be paid during the continuance of such disability, not to exceed a period of 5 years.

(5) SUBSEQUENT INJURY.—

(a) The fact that an employee has suffered previous disability, impairment, anomaly, or disease, or received compensation therefor, shall not preclude him from benefits for a subsequent injury nor preclude benefits for death resulting therefrom. Compensation for temporary disability, medical benefits, and wage-loss benefits shall not be subject to apportionment.

(b) If a compensable permanent impairment, or any portion thereof, is a result of aggravation or acceleration of a preexisting condition, or is the result of merger with a preexisting impairment, an employee eligible to receive impairment benefits under paragraph (3)(a) shall receive such benefits for the total impairment found to result, excluding the degree of impairment existing at the time of the subject accident or injury or which would have existed by the time of the impairment rating without the intervention of the compensable accident or injury. The degree of permanent impairment attributable to the accident or injury shall be compensated in accordance with paragraph (3)(a). As used in this paragraph, "merger" means the combining of a preexisting permanent impairment with a subsequent compensable permanent impairment which, when the effects of both are considered together, result in a permanent impairment rating which is greater than the sum of the two permanent impairments ratings when each impairment is considered individually.

(c) If an employee receiving wage-loss benefits suffers a subsequent injury causing temporary disability, both wage-loss benefits and temporary disability benefits shall be payable during the duration of temporary disability; however, the total benefits payable shall not exceed the maximum compensation rate in effect for temporary disability at the time of the subsequent injury. Any reduction in benefits due to such limit shall be applied first to the wage-loss benefits payable as a result of the prior injury.

(d) If an employee receiving wage-loss benefits suffers a subsequent injury causing an additional compensable wage loss, benefits for each wage loss shall be payable; however, the total wage-loss benefits payable shall not exceed the maximum compensation rate in effect for permanent disability at the time of the subsequent injury. Any reduction in wage-loss benefits due to such limitation shall be applied first to the benefits payable as a result of the prior injury.

(6) HERNIA.—In all claims for compensation for hernia resulting from injury by an accident arising out of and in the course of employment, it must be proved to the satisfaction of the division:

- (a) That there was an injury resulting in hernia.
- (b) That the hernia appeared suddenly.
- (c) That it was accompanied by pain.
- (d) That the hernia immediately followed an accident.

(e) That the hernia did not exist prior to the accident for which compensation is claimed.

(f) All hernia, inguinal, femoral, or otherwise, so proved to be the result of an injury by accident arising out of and in the course of the employment, shall be treated at the expense of the employer in a surgical manner by radical operation. Compensation shall be paid for a period of 6 weeks from the date of the operation. In case the injured employee refuses to undergo the radical operation for the cure of said hernia, no compensation will be allowed during the time of refusal. This shall not apply to those who by religious belief do not use medical or surgical treatment. If, however, it is shown that the employee had some chronic disease, or is otherwise in such physical condition that the <sup>2</sup>judge of industrial claims considers it unsafe for the employee to undergo said operation, the compensation shall be paid as otherwise provided in subsection (4), but not for exceeding 30 weeks. Compensation shall be allowed for temporary total disability as provided by subsection (2) for such disability before the operation.

(7) EMPLOYEE REFUSES EMPLOYMENT.—If an injured employee refuses employment suitable to the capacity thereof, offered to or procured therefor, such employee shall not be entitled to any compensation at any time during the continuance of such refusal unless at any time in the opinion of the <sup>2</sup>judge of industrial claims such refusal is justifiable.

(8) EMPLOYEE LEAVES EMPLOYMENT.—If an injured employee, when receiving compensation for temporary partial disability, leaves the employment of the employer by whom he was employed at the time of the accident for which such compensation is being paid, he shall, upon securing employment elsewhere, give to such former employer an affidavit in writing containing the name of his new employer, the place of employment and the amount of wages being received at such new employment and until he gives such affidavit the compensation for temporary partial disability will cease. The employer by whom such employee was employed at the time of the accident for which such compensation is being paid may also at any time demand of such employee additional affidavit in writing containing the name of his employer, the place of his employment and the amount of wages he is receiving, and if the employee, upon such demand, fails or refuses to make and furnish such affidavit, his right to compensation for temporary partial disability shall cease until such affidavit is made and furnished.

(9) EMPLOYEE BECOMES INMATE OF INSTITUTION.—In case an employee who is permanently and totally disabled becomes an inmate of a public institution, then no compensation shall be payable unless he has dependent upon him for support a person or persons defined as dependents elsewhere in this chapter, whose dependency shall be determined as if the employee were deceased and to whom compensation would be paid in case of death and such compensation as is due said employee shall be paid such dependents during the time he remains such inmate.

(10) EMPLOYEE ELIGIBLE FOR BENEFITS UNDER THIS CHAPTER AND FEDERAL OLD-AGE, SURVIVORS, AND DISABILITY INSURANCE ACT.—

(a) Weekly compensation benefits payable under this chapter for disability resulting from injuries to an employee who becomes eligible for benefits under 42 U.S.C. s. 423 shall be reduced to an amount whereby the sum of such compensation benefits payable under this chapter and such total benefits otherwise payable for such period to the employee and his dependents, had such employee not been entitled to benefits under this chapter, under 42 U.S.C. ss. 423 and 402, does not exceed 80 percent of the employee's average weekly wage. However, this provision shall not operate to reduce an injured worker's benefits under this chapter to a greater extent than they would have otherwise been reduced under 42 U.S.C. s. 424(a). This reduction of compensation benefits shall not be applicable to any compensation benefits payable for any week subsequent to the week in which the injured worker reaches the age of 62 years.

(b) If the provisions of 42 U.S.C. s. 424(a) are amended to provide for a reduction or increase of the percentage of average current earnings that the sum of compensation benefits payable under this chapter and the benefits payable under 42 U.S.C. s. 423 and s. 402 can equal, the amount of the reduction of benefits provided in this subsection shall be reduced or increased accordingly.

(c) No disability compensation benefits payable for any week, including those benefits provided by paragraph (1)(e), shall be reduced pursuant to this subsection until the Social Security Administration determines the amount otherwise payable to the employee under 42 U.S.C. ss. 423 and 402 and the employee has begun receiving such social security benefit payments. The employee shall, upon demand by the division, the employer, or the carrier, authorize the Social Security Administration to release disability information relating to him and authorize the Division of Employment Security to release unemployment compensation information relating to him in accordance with rules to be promulgated by the division prescribing the procedure and manner for requesting the authorization and for compliance by the employee. Neither the division nor the employer or carrier shall make any payment of benefits for total disability or those additional benefits provided by paragraph (1)(e) for any period during which the employee willfully fails or refuses to authorize the release of information in the manner and within the time prescribed by said rules. The authority for release of disability information granted by an employee under this paragraph shall be effective for a period not to exceed 12 months, such authority to be renewable as the division may prescribe by rule.

(11) EMPLOYEE ELIGIBLE FOR BENEFITS UNDER THIS CHAPTER WHO HAS RECEIVED OR IS ENTITLED TO RECEIVE UNEMPLOYMENT COMPENSATION.—

(a) No compensation benefits shall be payable for temporary total disability or permanent total disability under this chapter for any week in which the injured employee has received, or is receiving, unemployment compensation benefits.

(b) If an employee is entitled to both wage-loss benefits pursuant to subsection (3) and unemployment compensation benefits, such unemployment compensation benefits shall be primary and the wage-loss benefits shall be supplemental only, the sum of the two benefits not to exceed the amount of wage-loss benefits which would otherwise be payable. For purposes of termination of wage-loss benefits pursuant to sub-paragraph (3)(b)3.a., the term "payable" shall be construed to include payment of unemployment compensation benefits in lieu of income supplement benefits as provided in this subsection.

440.151 Occupational diseases.—

(1)(a) Where the employer and employee are subject to the provisions of the Workers' Compensation Law, the disablement or death of an employee resulting from an occupational disease as hereinafter defined shall be treated as the happening of an injury by accident, notwithstanding any other provisions of this chapter, and the employee or, in case of death, his dependents shall be entitled to compensation as provided by this chapter, except as hereinafter otherwise provided; and the practice and procedure prescribed by this chapter shall apply to all proceedings under this section, except as hereinafter otherwise provided. Provided, however, that in no case shall an employer be liable for compensation under the provisions of this section unless such disease has resulted from the nature of the employment in which the employee was engaged under such employer and was actually contracted while so engaged, meaning by "nature of the employment" that to the occupation in which the employee was so engaged there is attached a particular hazard of such disease that distinguishes it from the usual run of occupations, or the incidence of such disease is substantially higher in the occupation in which the employee was so engaged than in the usual run of occupations, or, in case of death, unless death follows continuous disability from such disease, commencing within the period above limited, for which compensation has been paid or awarded, or timely claim made as provided in this section, and results within 350 weeks after such last exposure.

(b) No compensation shall be payable for an occupational disease if the employee, at the time of entering into the employment of the employer by whom the compensation would otherwise be payable, falsely represents himself in writing as not having previously been disabled, laid off or compensated in damages or otherwise, because of such disease.

(c) Where an occupational disease is aggravated by any other disease or infirmity, not itself compensable, or where disability or death from any other cause, not itself compensable, is aggravated, prolonged, accelerated or in anywise contributed to by an occupational disease, the compensation payable shall be reduced and limited to such proportion only of the compensation that would be payable if the occupational disease were the sole cause of the disability or death as such occupational disease, as a causative factor, bears to all the causes of such disability or death, such reduction in compensation to be effected by reducing the number of weekly or monthly payments or the amounts of such payments, as under the circumstances of the particular case may be for the best interest of the claimant or claimants.

(d) No compensation for death from an occupational disease shall be payable to any person whose relationship to the deceased, which under the provisions of this Workers' Compensation Law would give right to compensation, arose subsequent to the beginning of the first compensable disability, save only to afterborn children of a marriage existing at the beginning of such disability.

(e) The presumptions in favor of claimants established by s. 440.26 of this Workers' Compensation Law shall not apply to a claim for compensation for an occupational disease under this section.

(f) No compensation shall be payable for disability or death resulting from tuberculosis arising out of and in the course of employment by the Division of Health of the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services at a state tuberculosis hospital, or aggravated by such employment, when the employee had suffered from said disease at any time prior to the commencement of such employment.

(2) Whenever used in this section the term "occupational disease" shall be construed to mean only a disease which is due to causes and conditions which are characteristic of and peculiar to a particular trade, occupation, process, or employment, and to exclude all ordinary diseases of life to which the general public is exposed, unless the incidence of the disease is substantially higher in the particular trade, occupation, process, or employment than for the general public.

(3) Except as hereinafter otherwise provided in this section, "disablement" means the event of an employee's becoming actually incapacitated, partially or totally, because of an occupational disease, from performing his work in the last occupation in which injuriously exposed to the hazards of such disease; and "disability" means the state of being so incapacitated.

(4) This section shall not apply to cases of occupational disease in which the last injurious exposure to the hazards of such disease occurred before this section shall have taken effect.

(5) Where compensation is payable for an occupational disease, the employer in whose employment the employee was last injuriously exposed to the hazards of such disease, and the insurance carrier, if any, on the risk when such employee was last so exposed under such employer, shall alone be liable therefor, without right to contribution from any prior employer or insurance carrier; and the notice of injury and claim for compensation, as hereinafter required, shall be given and made to such employer; provided, however, that in case of disability from any dust disease the only employer and insurance carrier liable shall be the last employer in whose employment the employee was last injuriously exposed to the hazards of the disease for a period of at least 60 days.

(6) The time for notice of injury or death provided in s. 440.185(1) shall be extended in cases of occupational diseases to a period of 90 days.

440.152 Division to make study of occupational diseases, etc.—The division shall make a continuous study of occupational diseases and the ways and means for their control and prevention; shall make and enforce necessary regulations for such control. For this purpose the division is authorized to cooperate with employers, employees and carriers and with the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services.

440.16 Compensation for death.—

(1) If death results from the accident within 1 year thereafter or follows continuous disability and results from the accident within 5 years thereafter, the employer shall pay:

(a) Actual funeral expenses not to exceed $1,000.

(b) Compensation, in addition to the above, in the following percentages of the average weekly wages to the following persons entitled thereto on account of dependency upon the deceased, and in the following order of preference, subject to the limitation provided in subparagraph 2., but such compensation shall be subject to the limits provided in s. 440.12(2), shall not exceed $50,000, and may be less than, but shall not exceed, for all dependents or persons entitled to compensation, 66⅔ percent of the average wage:

1. To the spouse, if there is no child, 50 percent of the average weekly wage, said compensation to cease upon the spouse's death or remarriage.

2. To the spouse, if there is a child or children, the compensation payable under subparagraph 1. and, in addition, 16⅔ percent on account of the child or children. However, when the deceased is survived by a spouse and also a child or children, whether such child or children be the product of the union existing at the time of death or of a former marriage or marriages, the deputy commissioner may provide for the payment of compensation in such manner as to the deputy commissioner may appear just and proper and for the best interests of the respective parties and, in so doing, may provide for the entire compensation to be paid exclusively to the child or children; and, in the case of death or remarriage of such spouse, 33⅓ percent for each child.

3. To the child or children, if there is no spouse, 33⅓ percent for each child.

4. To the parents, 25 percent to each, such compensation to be paid during the continuance of dependency.

5. To the brothers, sisters, and grandchildren, 15 percent for each brother, sister, or grandchild.

(2) For the purpose of this chapter the dependence of a spouse of a deceased employee shall terminate with remarriage. The dependence of a child, except a child physically or mentally incapacitated from earning a livelihood, shall terminate with the attainment of 18 years of age, with the attainment of 22 years of age if a full-time student in an accredited educational institution, or upon marriage.

(3) Where, because of the limitation in paragraph (1)(b), a person or class of persons cannot receive the percentage of compensation specified as payable to or on account of such person or class, there shall be available to such person or class that proportion of such percentage as, when added to the total percentage payable to all persons having priority of preference, will not exceed a total of said 66⅔ percent, which proportion shall be paid:

(a) To such person; or

(b) To such class, share and share alike, unless the deputy commissioner determines otherwise in accordance with the provisions of subsection (4).

(4) If the deputy commissioner determines that payments in accordance with paragraph (3)(b) would provide no substantial benefit to any person of such class, the deputy commissioner may provide for the payment of such compensation to the person or persons within such class who the deputy commissioner considers will be most benefited by such payment.

(5) Upon the cessation of compensation under this section to any person, the compensation of the remaining persons entitled to compensation, for the unexpired part of the period during which their compensation is payable, shall be that which such persons would have received if they had been the only persons entitled to compensation at the time of the decedent's death.

(6) Relationship to the deceased giving right to compensation under the provisions of this section must have existed at the time of the accident, save only in the case of afterborn children of the deceased.

(7) Compensation under this chapter to aliens not residents (or about to become nonresidents) of the United States or Canada shall be the same in amount as provided for residents, except that dependents in any foreign country shall be limited to surviving spouse and child or children, or if there be no surviving spouse or child or children, to surviving father or mother whom the employee has supported, either wholly or in part, for the period of 1 year prior to the date of the injury, and except that the deputy commissioner may, at the deputy commissioner's option, or upon the application of the insurance carrier, commute all future installments of compensation to be paid to such aliens by paying or causing to be paid to them one-half of the commuted amount of such future installments of compensation as determined by the deputy commissioner, and provided further that compensation to dependents referred to in this subsection shall in no case exceed $1,000.

440.17 Guardian for minor or incompetent.—

Prior to the filing of a claim, the division, and after the filing of a claim, a deputy commissioner, may require the appointment by a court of competent jurisdiction, for any person who is mentally incompetent or a minor, of a guardian or other representative to receive compensation payable to such person under this chapter and to exercise the powers granted to or to perform the duties required of such person under this chapter; however, the deputy commissioner, in the deputy commissioner's discretion, may designate in the compensation award a person to whom payment of compensation may be paid for a minor or incompetent, in which event payment to such designated person shall discharge all liability for such compensation.

History.—s. 17, ch. 17481, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 5966(17); s. 8, ch. 18413, 1937; ss. 17, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 9, ch. 75-209; ss. 13, 124, ch. 79-40; s. 21, ch. 79-312.

440.185 Notice of injury or death; reports; penalties for violations.—

(1) Within 30 days after the date of injury, the employee shall give notice of such injury to the employer and to the division. However, failure to give such notice shall not be a bar to any claim under this chapter unless objection to such failure is raised before the deputy commissioner at the first hearing of a claim for compensation in respect to such injury or death, and if:

(a) The employer or the agent thereof in charge of the business in the place where the injury occurred or the carrier had knowledge of the injury and the deputy commissioner determines that the employer or carrier has not been prejudiced by the employee's failure to give such notice; or

(b) The deputy commissioner excuses such failure on the ground that for some satisfactory reason such notice could not be given. However, when the delay in giving notice is so excused, no compensation shall be payable for aggravation of the injury caused by want of "first aid" or proper medical treatment during such delay, and every presumption shall be against the validity of the claim.

(2) Within 7 days of actual knowledge of injury or death, the employer shall report same to the carrier and the division and the employee, on a form prescribed by the division, providing the following information:

(a) The name, address, and business of the employer;

(b) The name, social security number, street, mailing address, telephone number, and occupation of the employee;

(c) The cause and nature of the injury or death;

(d) The year, month, day, and hour when, and the particular locality where, the injury or death occurred; and

(e) Such other information as the division may require, including a clear and understandable summary statement of the rights, benefits, and obligations of injured workers under the Workers' Compensation Law.

(3) In addition to the requirements of subsection (2), the employer shall notify the division within 24 hours by telephone or telegraph of any injury resulting in death. However, this special notice shall not be required when death results subsequent to the submission to the division of a previous report of the injury pursuant to subsection (2).

(4) Upon receipt of notice of injury from the employer, or any other indication of a compensable injury, the division shall immediately mail to the injured worker an informational brochure, as prescribed by the division, which sets forth in clear and understandable language a summary statement of the rights, benefits, and obligations of injured workers under the Workers' Compensation Law, together with an explanation of its operation. The division shall review any such notice or indication of injury received and, if it appears to the division that the injury will result in permanent impairment, the division shall, within 3 days of receipt of such notice or indication of injury, contact the injured worker or a family member serving as personal representative thereof by telephone, if possible, otherwise by mail, in order to discuss the rights and benefits of the injured employee under the Workers' Compensation Law and to assist the injured worker in securing any benefits provided for under this chapter to which such injured worker is entitled.

(5) Additional reports with respect to such injury and of the condition of such employee, including copies of medical reports, shall be sent by the employer or carrier to the division at such times and in such manner as the division may prescribe.

(6) In the absence of a stipulation by the parties, reports provided for in subsection (2), subsection (4), or subsection (5) shall not be evidence of any fact stated in such report in any proceeding relating thereto, except for medical reports which, if otherwise qualified, may be admitted at the discretion of the deputy commissioner.

(7) Every insurance carrier writing workers' compensation insurance for employment covered under this chapter shall file written notice with the division within 21 days after the issuance of a policy or contract of insurance. Notice of cancellation or expiration of a policy as set out in s. 440.42(2) shall be mailed to the division in accordance with rules promulgated by the division under chapter 120.

(8) When a claimant, employer, or carrier has the right, or is required, to mail a report or notice with required copies within the times prescribed in subsection (2), subsection (4), or subsection (5), such mailing will be completed and in compliance with this section if it is postmarked and mailed prepaid to the appropriate recipient prior to the expiration of the time-frames prescribed in this section.

(9) Any employer or carrier who fails or refuses to send any form, report, or notice required by this section shall be subject to a civil penalty not to exceed $100 for each such failure or refusal. However, any employer who fails to notify the carrier of the injury on the prescribed form or by letter within the 7 days required in subsection (2) shall be liable for the civil penalty, which shall be paid by the employer and not the carrier. Failure by the employer to meet its obligations under subsection (2) shall not relieve the carrier from liability for the civil penalty if it fails to comply with subsections (4) and (5).

(10) Any compensable wage loss shall be reported by the employee to the carrier or self-insured employer within 30 days after the termination of the month for which such loss is claimed. The division shall provide by rule for the reporting of wage loss by the injured worker, and for the reporting of wage loss and payment of wage-loss benefits by the employer, to the division and may prescribe forms for such reporting. The division, upon request by the employer or carrier, shall provide verification through unemployment compensation records of any claimed wage loss and shall obtain such verification from other states, if applicable. The division shall require by rule that the employer inform a worker who suffers a permanent impairment of his possible entitlement to wage-loss and other benefits and of the worker's obligation to report a claimed wage loss.

History.—s. 10, ch. 75-209; s. 1, ch. 77-174; ss. 6, 23, ch. 78-300; ss. 14, 124, ch. 79-40; ss. 10, 21, ch. 79-312.

440.19 Time and procedure for filing claims.—

(1) Upon receipt by the division, every claim for benefits filed under this chapter shall be evaluated by the division to ascertain whether the claim can be resolved without a hearing, and within 10 days of such receipt the division shall make a decision as to the entitlement to benefits and shall notify the parties with respect thereto. Any such decision by the division shall be advisory. At any hearing before the deputy commissioner, the decision of the division shall not be res judicata, but shall be included in the case file in the division and shall be deemed a part of the proceeding. The case file shall also reflect any response of a party to the advisory opinion filed within 10 days after the issuance of such opinion. No request for hearing shall be filed until the division issues its decision, or until 10 days after the filing of the claim, whichever is earlier.

(2)(a) The right to compensation for disability, impairment, or wage loss under this chapter shall be barred unless a claim therefor which meets the requirements of paragraph (d) is filed within 2 years after the time of injury, except that, if payment of compensation has been made or remedial treatment has been furnished by the employer on account of such injury, a claim may be filed within 2 years after the date of the last payment of compensation or after the date of the last remedial treatment furnished by the employer.

(b) All rights for remedial attention under this section shall be barred unless a claim therefor which meets the requirements of paragraph (d) is filed with the division within 2 years after the time of injury, except that, if payment of compensation has been made or remedial attention has been furnished by the employer without an award on account of such injury, a claim may be filed within 2 years after the date of the last payment of compensation or within 2 years after the date of the last remedial attention furnished by the employer; and all rights for remedial attention under this section pursuant to the terms of an award shall be barred unless a further claim therefor is filed with the division within 2 years after the entry of such award, except that, if payment of compensation has been made or remedial attention has been furnished by the employer under the terms of the award, a further claim may be filed within 2 years after the date of the last payment of compensation or within 2 years after the date of the last remedial attention furnished by the employer. However, no statute of limitations shall apply to the right for remedial attention relating to the insertion or attachment of a prosthetic device to any part of the body.

(c) The right to compensation for death under this chapter shall be barred unless a claim therefor which meets the requirements of paragraph (d) is filed within 2 years after the death, except that, if payment of compensation has been made without an award on account of such death, a claim may be filed within 2 years after the date of the last payment.

(d) Such claim shall be filed with the division at its office in Tallahassee and shall contain the name and address of the employee, the name and address of the employer, and a statement of the time, place, nature, and cause of the injury, or such fairly equivalent information as will put the division and the employer on notice with respect to the identity of the parties and the specific compensation benefit which is due but has not been paid or is not being provided. Any claim, or portion thereof, not in compliance with this subsection shall be subject to dismissal upon motion of any interested party, the division, or a deputy commissioner.

(e) Any deputy commissioner receiving a claim for compensation in any form shall, immediately upon receipt of such claim, mail said claim to the division at its office in Tallahassee.

(f) In no event and under no circumstances shall any of the rights of employees under the Workers' Compensation Law be prejudiced or lost by failure or delay of deputy commissioners in mailing claims in any form to the division in Tallahassee.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (2), failure to file a claim within the period prescribed in such subsection shall not be a bar to such right unless objection to such failure is made at the first hearing of such claim in which all parties in interest are given reasonable notice and opportunity to be heard.

(4) If a person who is entitled to compensation under this chapter is mentally incompetent or a minor, the provisions of subsection (2) shall not be applicable so long as such person has no guardian or other authorized representative, but shall be applicable in the case of a person who is mentally incompetent or a minor from the date of appointment of such guardian or other representative, or in the case of a minor, if no guardian is appointed before he becomes of age, from the date he becomes of age.

(5) When recovery is denied to any person, in a suit brought at law or in admiralty to recover damages in respect of injury or death, on the ground that such person was an employee and that the defendant was an employer within the meaning of this chapter and that such employer had secured compensation to such employee under this chapter, the limitation of time prescribed in subsection (2) shall begin to run only from the date of termination of such suit, but in such an event the employer shall be allowed a credit of his actual cost of defending said suit in a sum not exceeding $250, which shall be deducted from any compensation allowed or awarded to said employee under this chapter.

(6) An employer or carrier shall, at the request of an employee or the attorney thereof, furnish to such person any medical information and earnings information relating to such employee, whether or not a claim therefor has been filed.

History—s. 19, ch. 17481, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 5966(19); s. 1, ch. 23908, 1947; s. 10, ch. 26484, 1951; s. 4, ch. 29778, 1955; s. 1, ch. 57-192; s. 1, ch. 65-120; s. 2, ch. 67-554; ss. 17, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 23, ch. 78-300; ss. 15, 124, ch. 79-40; ss. 11, 21, ch. 79-312.

440.20 Payment of compensation.—

(1) Compensation under this chapter shall be paid periodically, promptly in the usual manner and directly to the person entitled thereto, without an award, except where liability to pay compensation is controverted by the employer.

(2) The first installment of compensation for total disability or death shall become due on the 14th day after the employer has knowledge of the injury or death, on which date all compensation then due shall be paid. Thereafter, compensation shall be paid in installments weekly or biweekly, except when the deputy commissioner determines that payments in installments should be made monthly or at some other period.

(3) Impairment benefits shall be payable in accordance with s. 440.15(3)(a)2.

(4) Benefits payable pursuant to s. 440.15(3)(b) or (4) shall be paid monthly, subsequent to the termination of the period for which such payments are due, within 14 days of the date upon which the carrier or employer has knowledge of the compensable wage loss.

(5) Upon making the first payment, and upon suspension of payment for any cause, the employer shall immediately notify the division, in accordance with a form prescribed by the division, that payment of compensation has begun or has been suspended, as the case may be.

(6) If the carrier controverts the right to compensation, it shall file with the division, on or before the 21st day after it has knowledge of the alleged injury or death, a notice in accordance with a form prescribed by the division, stating that the right to compensation is controverted, the name of the claimant, the name of the employer, the date of the alleged injury or death, and the grounds upon which the right to compensation is controverted, together with a written explanation setting forth in detail the reason or reasons why the claim has been controverted, and a copy of such notice shall be furnished by the carrier to the employee and employer.

(7) If any installment of compensation for death or dependency benefits, disability, permanent impairment, or wage loss payable without an award is not paid within 14 days after it becomes due, as provided in subsection (2), subsection (3), or subsection (4), there shall be added to such unpaid installment a punitive penalty of an amount equal to 10 percent thereof, which shall be paid at the same time as, but in addition to, such installment of compensation, unless notice is filed under subsection (6) or unless such nonpayment results from conditions over which the employer or carrier had no control. When any installment of compensation payable without an award has not been paid within 14 days after it became due and the claimant concludes the prosecution of the claim before a deputy commissioner without having specifically claimed additional compensation in the nature of a penalty under this section, he will be deemed to have acknowledged that, owing to conditions over which the employer or carrier had no control, such installment could not be paid within the period prescribed for payment and to have waived his right to claim such penalty. However, during the course of a hearing, the deputy commissioner shall on his own motion raise the question of whether such penalty should be awarded or excused. The division may assess without a hearing the above-mentioned 10 percent additional payment against either the employer or the insurance carrier, depending upon who was at fault in causing the delay. The insurance policy cannot provide that this sum will be paid by the carrier if the division or the deputy commissioner determines that the 10 percent additional payment should be made by the employer rather than the carrier. Any additional installment of compensation paid by the carrier pursuant to this section shall be paid directly to the employee.

(8) If any compensation, payable under the terms of an award, is not paid within 20 days after it becomes due, there shall be added to such unpaid compensation an amount equal to 20 percent thereof, which shall be paid at the same time as, but in addition to, such compensation, unless review of the compensation order making such award is had as provided in s. 440.25.

(9) In addition to any other penalties provided by this chapter for late payment, if any installment of compensation is not paid when it becomes due, the employer or carrier shall pay interest thereon at the rate of 12 percent per annum from the date the installment becomes due until it is paid, whether such installment is payable without an order or under the terms of an order.

(a) Within 30 days after final payment of compensation has been made, the employer shall send to the division a notice, in accordance with a form prescribed by the division, stating that such final payment has been made, the total amount of compensation paid, the name of the employee and of any other person to whom compensation has been paid, the date of the injury or death, and the date to which compensation has been paid.

(b) If the employer fails to so notify the division within such time, the division shall assess against such employer a civil penalty in an amount not over $100.

(10) The division:

(a) May upon its own initiative at any time in a case in which payments are being made without an award investigate same; and

(b) Shall, in any case where right to compensation is controverted, or where payments of compensation have been stopped or suspended, upon receipt of notice from any person entitled to compensation, or from the employer, that the right to compensation is controverted, or that payments of compensation have been stopped or suspended, make such investigations, cause such medical examination to be made, or hold such hearings, and take such further action as it considers will properly protect the rights of all parties.

(11) Whenever the division deems it advisable, it may require any employer to make a deposit with the Treasurer to secure the prompt and convenient payments of such compensation, and payments therefrom upon any awards shall be made upon order of the division or deputy commissioner.

(12)(a) It is the stated policy for the administration of the workers' compensation system that it is in the best interests of the injured worker that he receive disability or wage-loss payments on a periodic basis. Lump sum payments in exchange for the employer's or carrier's release from liability for future payments of compensation, other than for medical expenses, shall be allowed only under special circumstances, as when the claimant can demonstrate that lump sum payments will definitely aid in his rehabilitation or are otherwise clearly in his best interests and that lump sum payments will avoid undue expense or undue hardship to any party, or that such claimant has removed himself or is about to remove himself from the state. In no case shall a lump sum payment be allowed in exchange for the release of an employer's or carrier's liability for future medical expenses. In no case shall a lump sum settlement be allowed until 6 months after the date of maximum medical improvement has been reached.

(b) Upon the application of any party in interest or upon joint petition of all interested parties, and after giving due consideration to the interests of all interested parties, if a deputy commissioner finds that a lump sum payment in exchange for release from liability is proper under paragraph (a), said deputy commissioner may enter a compensation order requiring that the liability of the employer for compensation shall be discharged by the payment of a lump sum equal to the present value of all future payments of compensation, computed at 4 percent true discount compounded annually, or requiring that the employer make advance payment of a part of the compensation for which said employer is liable by the payment of a lump sum equal to the present value of such part of the compensation, computed at 4 percent true discount compounded annually. A compensation order so entered upon joint petition of all interested parties shall not be subject to modification or review under s. 440.28. However, nothing in this subsection shall be construed to mean that a deputy commissioner is required to approve any award for lump sum payment when it is determined by the deputy commissioner that the payment being made is in excess of the value of benefits the claimant would be entitled to under this chapter. The deputy commissioner shall make or cause to be made such investigations as he considers necessary, in each case in which the parties have stipulated that a proposed final settlement of liability of the employer for compensation shall not be subject to modification or review under s. 440.28, to determine whether such final disposition will definitely aid the rehabilitation of the injured worker or otherwise is clearly for the best interests of the person entitled to compensation and, in his discretion, may have an investigation made by the Rehabilitation Section of the Division of Workers' Compensation. The joint petition and the report of any investigation so made will be deemed a part of the proceeding. A deputy commissioner, in his discretion, may hear testimony relating to a proposed stipulation for settlement under this subsection without having in hand the division file; however, he shall in no event enter an order thereon without first having reviewed the division file. An employer shall have the right to appear at any hearing pursuant to this subsection which relates to the discharge of such employer's liability and to present testimony at such hearing. The carrier shall provide reasonable notice to the employer of the time and date of any said hearing and inform him of his rights to appear and testify. When the claimant is represented by counsel or when the claimant and carrier or employer are represented by counsel, final approval of the lump sum settlement agreement, as provided for in a joint petition and stipulation, shall be approved by entry of an order within 7 days of the filing of such joint petition and stipulation without a hearing, unless the deputy commissioner determines, in his discretion, that additional testimony is needed before such settlement can be approved or disapproved and so notifies the parties. The probability of the death of the injured employee or other person entitled to compensation before the expiration of the period during which such person is entitled to compensation shall, in the absence of special circumstances making such course improper, be determined in accordance with the most recent United States Life Tables published by the National Office of Vital Statistics of the United States Department of Health, Education, and Welfare. The probability of the happening of any other contingency affecting the amount or duration of the compensation, except the possibility of the remarriage of a surviving spouse, shall be disregarded. As a condition of approving a lump sum payment to a surviving spouse, the deputy commissioner, in the deputy commissioner's discretion, may require security which will insure that, in the event of the remarriage of such surviving spouse, any unaccrued future payments so paid may be recovered or recouped by the employer or carrier. Such applications shall be considered and determined in accordance with ss. 440.25 and 440.27 and the rules of procedure adopted by the Supreme Court.

(13)(a) Liability of an employer for future payments of compensation shall not be discharged by advance payment unless prior approval of a deputy commissioner or the division has been obtained as hereinafter provided. The approval shall not constitute an adjudication of the claimant's percentage of disability.

(b) When the claimant has reached maximum recovery and returned to his former or equivalent employment with no substantial reduction in wages, such approval of a reasonable advance payment of a part of the compensation payable to the claimant may be given informally by letter by a deputy commissioner, by the division director, or by the administrator of claims of the division.

(c) In the event the claimant has not returned to the same or equivalent employment with no substantial reduction in wages or has suffered a substantial loss of earning capacity or a physical impairment, actual or apparent:

1. An advance payment of compensation not in excess of $2,000 may be approved informally by letter, without hearing, by any deputy commissioner, by the division director, or by the administrator of claims of the division.

2. An advance payment of compensation not in excess of $2,000 may be ordered by any deputy commissioner after giving the interested parties opportunity for a hearing thereon pursuant to not less than 10 days' notice by mail, unless such notice is waived, and after giving due consideration to the interests of the person entitled thereto. When the parties have stipulated to an advance payment of compensation not in excess of $2,000, such advance may be approved by an order of a deputy commissioner, with or without hearing, or informally by letter by any such deputy commissioner, or by the division director, if such advance is found to be for the best interests of the person entitled thereto.

3. When the parties have stipulated to an advance payment in excess of $2,000, subject to the approval of the division, said payment may be approved by a deputy commissioner by order if he finds that same is for the best interests of the person entitled thereto and is reasonable under the circumstances of the particular case. The deputy commissioner shall make or cause to be made such investigations as he considers necessary concerning the stipulation and, in his discretion, may have an investigation of the matter made by the Rehabilitation Section of the division. The stipulation and the report of any investigation shall be deemed a part of the record of the proceedings.

(d) When an application for an advance payment in excess of $2,000 is opposed by the employer or carrier, it shall be heard by a deputy commissioner after giving the interested parties not less than 10 days' notice of such hearing by mail, unless such notice is waived. In his discretion, the deputy commissioner may have an investigation of the matter made by the Rehabilitation Section of the division, in which event the report and recommendation of said section will be deemed a part of the record of the proceedings. If the deputy commissioner finds that such advance payment is for the best interests of the person entitled to compensation, will not materially prejudice the rights of the employer and carrier, and is reasonable under the circumstances of the case, he may order the same paid.

(14) If the employer has made advance payments of compensation, he shall be entitled to be reimbursed out of any unpaid installment or installments of compensation due.

(15) When an employee is injured and the employer pays his full wages or any part thereof during the period of disability, or pays medical expenses for such employee, and the case is contested by the carrier or the carrier and employer, and thereafter the carrier, either voluntarily or pursuant to an award, makes a payment of compensation or medical benefits, the employer shall be entitled to reimbursement to the extent of the compensation paid or awarded, plus medical benefits, if any, out of the first proceeds paid by the carrier in compliance with said voluntary payment or award, provided the employer furnishes satisfactory proof to the judge of such payment of compensation and medical benefits. Any payment by the employer over and above compensation paid or awarded and medical benefits, pursuant to subsection (14), shall be considered a gratuity.

(16)(a) The division shall examine on an ongoing basis claims files in its possession in order to identify questionable claims handling techniques, questionable patterns of claims, or a pattern of repeated unreasonably controverted claims by employers, carriers, or self-insurers and shall certify its findings to the Department of Insurance. Only such questionable techniques, patterns, or repeated unreasonably controverted claims as constitute a general business practice of a carrier in the judgment of the division shall be certified in its findings by the division to the Department of Insurance. Such certification by the division is exempt from the provisions of chapter 120. Upon receipt of any such certification, the Department of Insurance shall take appropriate action so as to bring such general business practices to a halt pursuant to s. 440.38(3)(a). Upon receipt by the division of a written request for an investigation raising such questionable techniques, patterns, or repeated unreasonably controverted claims, the division shall investigate the particular carrier in question and shall certify its findings to the Department of Insurance with a copy to the requesting party.

(b) The division shall publish annually a report which indicates the promptness of first payment of compensation records of each carrier or self-insurer so as to focus attention on those carriers or self-insurers with poor payment records for the preceding year. A copy of such report shall be certified to the Department of Insurance which shall take appropriate steps so as to cause such poor carrier payment practices to halt pursuant to s. 440.38(3)(a). In addition, the division shall take appropriate action so as to halt such poor payment practices of self-insurers. "Poor payment practice" means a practice of late payment sufficient to constitute a general business practice.

(c) The division shall promulgate rules providing guidelines to carriers, self-insurers, and employers to indicate behavior that may be construed as questionable claims handling techniques, questionable patterns of claims, repeated unreasonably controverted claims, or poor payment practices.

(17) No penalty assessed under this section shall be recouped by any carrier or self-insurer in the rate base, premium, or in any rate filing. In the case of carriers the Department of Insurance shall enforce this subsection, and in the case of self-insurers the division shall enforce this subsection.

440.24 Enforcement of compensation orders; penalties.—

(1) In case of default by the employer or carrier in the payment of compensation due under any compensation order of a deputy commissioner or order of the 'commission or other failure by the employer or carrier to comply with such order within 10 days after the order becomes final, any circuit court of this state within the jurisdiction of which the employer or carrier resides or transacts business shall, upon application by the division or any beneficiary under such order, have jurisdiction to issue a rule nisi directing such employer or carrier to show cause why a writ of execution, or such other process as may be necessary to enforce the terms of such order, shall not be issued, and, unless such cause is shown, the said court shall have jurisdiction to issue a writ of execution or such other process or final order as may be necessary to enforce the terms of such order of the deputy commissioner or 'commission.

(2) In any case where the employer is insured and the carrier fails to comply with any compensation order of a deputy commissioner, the 'commission, or the court within 10 days after such order becomes final, the division shall notify the Department of Insurance of such failure, and the Department of Insurance shall thereupon suspend the license of such carrier to do an insurance business in this state, until such carrier has complied with such order.

(3) In any case where the employer is a self-insurer and fails to comply with any compensation order of a deputy commissioner, the 'commission, or the court within 10 days after such order becomes final, the division may suspend or revoke any authorization previously given to the employer to become a self-insurer, and the division may sell such of the securities deposited by such self-insurer with the division as may be necessary to satisfy such order.

(4) In any case wherein the employee fails to comply with any order of a deputy commissioner within 10 days after such order becomes final, the deputy commissioner may dismiss the claim or suspend payments due under said claim until the employee complies with such order. The deputy commissioner may strike the defenses of the employer, if said employer is self-insured, or of the insurance carrier, if said employer is not self-insured, if said employer or carrier fails to comply with any order of a deputy commissioner within 10 days after such order becomes final.

440.25 Procedure in respect to claims and hearing requests.—

(1) Subject to the provisions of s. 440.19, a claim for compensation may be filed with the division at its office in the City of Tallahassee in accordance with rules prescribed by the division at any time after a specific benefit becomes due and is not paid, and the deputy commissioner shall have full power and authority to hear and determine all questions in respect to such claims.

(2) Within 10 days after such claim is filed, the division, in accordance with rules prescribed by it, shall notify the employer and any other person other than the claimant whom the division considers an interested party that a claim has been filed. Such notice may be served personally upon the employer or other person or sent to such employer or person by certified mail.

(3)(a) The division or deputy commissioner shall make or cause to be made such investigations as he considers necessary in respect to the claim, and upon request by any interested party, the deputy commissioner shall order a hearing thereof. An application for a hearing concerning a claim shall state concisely in separate, numbered paragraphs the reasons for requesting a hearing and the questions at issue or in dispute which the applicant expects the deputy commissioner to hear and determine, with sufficient particularity that the responding or opposing parties may be notified of the purpose of the hearing, including the issues to be heard and determined and the specific benefit which is due and not paid. No request for a hearing filed on behalf of a party represented by an attorney shall be valid and of any force or effect unless there exists at the time of its filing a justifiable controversy determinable by the deputy commissioner. Any application for a hearing not in compliance with this paragraph shall be subject to dismissal upon motion of the division, the deputy commissioner, or any interested party. If a request for a hearing is filed, the deputy commissioner shall hold a hearing within 90 days after it is filed and shall give the claimant and other interested parties at least 15 days' notice of such hearing, served upon the claimant and other interested parties by certified mail.

(b) The hearing shall be held in the county where the injury occurred, if the same occurred in this state, unless otherwise agreed to between the parties and authorized by the deputy commissioner in the county where the injury occurred. If the injury occurred without the state and is one for which compensation is payable under this chapter, then the hearing above referred to may be held in the county of the employer's residence or place of business, or in any other county of the state which will at the time of forwarding the file for hearing, in the discretion of the division, be the most convenient for a hearing. Subsequent to the forwarding of the file to such county, the parties and the deputy commissioner may agree to transfer such file to a county that is deemed most convenient for a hearing. The hearing shall be conducted by a deputy commissioner who shall, within 30 days after such hearing, unless otherwise agreed to by the parties, determine the dispute in a summary manner. At such hearing, the claimant and employer may each present evidence in respect of such claim and may be represented by any attorney authorized in writing for such purpose. When there is a conflict in the medical evidence submitted at the hearing, the deputy commissioner may designate a disinterested doctor to submit a report or to testify in the proceeding, after such doctor has reviewed the medical reports and evidence, examined the claimant, or otherwise made such investigation as appropriate. The report or testimony of any doctor so designated by the deputy commissioner shall be made a part of the record of the proceeding and shall be given the same consideration by the deputy commissioner as is accorded other medical evidence submitted in the proceeding; and all costs incurred in connection with such examination and testimony may be assessed as costs in the proceeding, subject to the provisions of s. 440.13(3)(a). No deputy commissioner shall make a finding of a degree of permanent impairment that is greater than the greatest permanent impairment rating given the claimant by any examining or treating physician, except upon stipulation of the parties.

(c) The order making an award or rejecting the claim, referred to in this chapter as a compensation order, shall set forth the findings of ultimate facts and the mandate, and the order need not include any other reason or justification for such mandate. The compensation order shall be filed in the office of the division at Tallahassee. A copy of such compensation order shall be sent by mail to the parties and attorneys of record at the last known address of each, with the date of mailing noted thereon.

(d) Each deputy commissioner or the 'Industrial Relations Commission is required to submit a special report to the Division of Workers' Compensation in each contested workers' compensation case in which the case is not determined within 30 days of final hearing or within 180 days of filing an application for review. Said form shall be provided by the division and shall contain the name of the deputy commissioner, if the case is before a deputy commissioner; the attorneys involved; and a brief explanation by the deputy commissioner or the 'Industrial Relations Commission as to the reason for such a delay in issuing a final order. The Division of Workers' Compensation shall compile these special reports into an annual public report to the Governor, the Secretary of Labor and Employment Security, the Legislature, The Florida Bar, and the appellate district judicial nominating commissions.

(4)(a) The compensation order rendered by the deputy commissioner shall become final 20 days after the date copies of same are mailed to the parties at the last known address of each, unless within said time any interested party shall make and file with the 'commission or a deputy commissioner an application for a review thereof by the 'commission in accordance with the provisions of this subsection. However, an employer who has not secured the payment of compensation under this chapter in compliance with s. 440.38 shall, as a condition of filing such application for a review by the 'commission, file with his application for review a good and sufficient bond, as provided in s. 59.13, conditioned to pay the amount of the award, interest, and costs payable under the terms of the order of the 'commission, if the application shall be dismissed or the order thereon shall affirm or make an award of benefits in any amount, and upon failure of such employer to file such bond with his application for review the 'commission shall dismiss the application for review. The application must state concisely and particularly the grounds upon which the appellant relies, and the consideration of the 'commission thereof will be confined solely to the grounds so presented. A copy of all applications for review shall be served on all interested parties, and proof of service thereof shall accompany all applications when filed.

(b) The appellant shall have prepared, in accordance with the workers' compensation rules of procedure, a record on appeal, certified by the deputy commissioner, which record must be filed with the 'commission within 45 days from the date of the filing of the application for review, unless the 'commission, for good cause shown by verified petition presented prior to the expiration of said period, shall extend the time therefor. The appellant shall have a copy of the record served on the opposing party or parties or their counsel, and evidence of such service shall be filed with the record when filed with the 'commission. Upon failure of the appellant to file a record with the 'commission, together with evidence of service of a copy thereof on the opposing party or parties, within the time specified or within such time as allowed by the 'commission pursuant to petition for an extension of time as aforesaid, the 'commission shall dismiss the application for review.

(c)1. Within 15 days after the content of the record on appeal has been determined, the deputy commissioner shall serve notice upon the appellant or his attorney of the estimated cost of preparing the record on appeal and necessary copies thereof, and the appellant shall, within 15 days of the date of service, deposit the amount of the estimated cost of preparing the record at the office of the deputy commissioner. If the appellant fails to deposit the amount of costs within the time allotted, the deputy commissioner shall promptly notify the 'commission of such failure, and the 'commission shall dismiss the application for review. However, neither the division nor the Special Disability Trust Fund, nor any self-insured state agency, shall be required to make the deposit.

2. An appellant may be relieved in part or in whole from the costs for the preparation of the record on appeal if, within 15 days after the date notice of the estimated costs for the preparation is served, he files with the deputy commissioner a verified petition to be relieved of costs. The verified petition shall contain a detailed and sworn statement of all his assets, liabilities, and income. Appellant's attorney, or the appellant if not represented by an attorney, shall include as a part of the verified petition an affidavit or affirmation that, in his opinion, the application for review was filed in good faith and that the assignment of error contained therein constitutes a probable basis for the 'commission to find reversible error. A copy of the verified petition shall be served upon the division in Tallahassee and all other interested parties. The deputy commissioner shall promptly conduct a hearing on the verified petition, giving at least 15 days' notice to the appellant, the division, and all other interested parties, which shall all be parties to the proceeding. The deputy commissioner may enter an order without such hearing if no objection is filed by the division or an interested party within 12 days from the date the verified petition is filed. Said proceedings shall be conducted in accordance with this section and the workers' compensation rules of procedure to the extent applicable.

(d) Within 10 days after the appellant has filed his application for review, any other interested party who desires review of any adverse ruling by the deputy commissioner must file his cross-application for review with the 'commission or a deputy commissioner. The cross-application for review must state concisely and particularly the grounds upon which the cross-appellant relies, and the consideration of the 'commission thereof will be confined solely to the grounds so presented. A copy of all cross-applications for review shall be served on all interested parties, and proof of service thereof shall accompany all cross-applications when filed.

(e) Unless the application for review is withdrawn with its permission or is dismissed as aforesaid, the 'commission shall consider the matter upon the record as certified by the deputy commissioner and shall thereafter affirm, reverse, or modify said compensation order or remand the claim for further proceedings before a deputy commissioner who shall proceed as the 'commission may direct. The order of the 'commission shall be filed in the office of the 'commission at Tallahassee, and a copy of such order shall be sent by certified mail to each party at his last known address. The order of the 'commission shall become final upon expiration of the period within which any interested party may file a petition for writ of certiorari requesting review of such order by the Supreme Court, unless within said time any interested party shall file a petition for writ of certiorari in accordance with s. 440.27.

(f) Beginning on October 1, 1979, procedures with respect to appeals from orders of deputy commissioners shall be governed by rules adopted by the Supreme Court. Such an order shall become final 30 days after mailing of copies of such order to the parties, unless appealed pursuant to such rules. The provisions of paragraphs (a)-(e) shall apply only until September 30, 1979.

(5) An award of compensation for disability may be made after the death of an injured employee.

(6) An injured employee claiming or entitled to compensation shall submit to such physical examination by a duly qualified physician designated or approved by the deputy commissioner as the deputy commissioner may require. The place or places shall be reasonably convenient for the employee. Such physician or physicians as the employee, employer, or carrier may select and pay for may participate in an examination if the employee, employer, or carrier so requests. Proceedings shall be suspended and no compensation shall be payable for any period during which the employee may refuse to submit to examination. Any interested party shall have the right in any case of death to require an autopsy, the cost thereof to be borne by the party requesting it; and the deputy commissioner shall have authority to order and require an autopsy and may, in his discretion, withhold his findings and award until an autopsy is held.

440.26 Presumptions.—Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, in any proceeding for the enforcement of a claim for compensation under this chapter, it shall be presumed, in the absence of substantial evidence to the contrary:

(1) That the claim comes within the provisions of this chapter.

(2) That sufficient notice of such claim has been given.

(3) That the injury was not occasioned by the willful intention of the injured employee to injure or kill himself or another.

440.27 Review of compensation orders.—

(1) Orders of the 'commission entered pursuant to s. 440.25 shall be subject to review only by petition for writ of certiorari to the Supreme Court. The petition shall be filed in accordance with rules of procedure prescribed by the Supreme Court of Florida for review of such orders. The division shall be made a party respondent to every such proceeding.

(2) The 'commission may grant a supersedeas or stay upon petitioner giving a good and sufficient bond, as provided in s. 59.13, conditioned to pay the amount of the award, interest and costs, if the petition shall be denied by the court; provided, however, that if the employer has secured the payment of benefits of this chapter to his employees no bond is required.

Note.—See s. 1, ch. 79-312, which abolished the Industrial Relations Commission and transferred all appeals pending before the commission to the District Court of Appeals, First District, effective October 1, 1979.

440.271 Appeal of order of deputy commissioner.—After September 30, 1979, review of any order of a deputy commissioner entered pursuant to this chapter shall be by appeal to the District Court of Appeal, First District. On October 1, 1979, all appeals pending before the Industrial Relations Commission shall be transferred to the District Court of Appeal, First District, and the court shall act on such appeals.

History.—s. 1, ch. 79-312.

440.28 Modification of orders.—Upon a deputy commissioner's own initiative, or upon the application of any party in interest, on the ground of a change in condition or because of a mistake in a determination of fact, the deputy commissioner may, at any time prior to 2 years after the date of the last payment of compensation pursuant to any compensation order, or at any time prior to 2 years after the date copies of an order rejecting a claim are mailed to the parties at the last known address of each, review a compensation case in accordance with the procedure prescribed in respect of claims in s. 440.25 and, in accordance with such section, issue a new compensation order which may terminate, continue, reinstate, increase, or decrease such compensation or award compensation. Such new order shall not affect any compensation previously paid, except that an award increasing the compensation rate may be made effective from the date of the injury, and, if any part of the compensation due or to become due is unpaid, an award decreasing the compensation rate may be made effective from the date of the injury, and any payment made prior thereto in excess of such decreased rate shall be deducted from any unpaid compensation, in such manner and by such method as may be determined by the deputy commissioner.

440.29 Procedure before the 'commission or deputy commissioners.—

(1) In making an investigation or inquiry or conducting a hearing the deputy commissioner shall not be bound by technical or formal rules of procedure, except as provided by this chapter, but may make such investigation or inquiry, or conduct such hearing, in such manner as to best ascertain the rights of the parties. A declaration of a deceased employee concerning the injury in respect of which the investigation or inquiry is being made or the hearing conducted shall be received in evidence and shall, if corroborated by other evidence, be sufficient to establish the injury.

(2) Hearings before the deputy commissioner shall be open to the public and shall be reported, and the division is authorized to contract for the reporting of such hearings. The division shall by rule provide for the preparation of a record of the hearings and other proceedings before deputy commissioners and shall be permitted to charge for transcripts of testimony and copies of any instrument the same fees as are allowed by law to reporters and clerks of courts of this state for like services.

(3) The practice and procedure before the 'commission and the deputy commissioners shall be governed by rules adopted by the Supreme Court, except to the extent that such rules conflict with the provisions of this chapter.

440.30 Depositions.—Depositions of witnesses or parties, residing within or without the state, may be taken and may be used in connection with proceedings under the Workers' Compensation Law, either upon order of the deputy commissioner or at the instance of any party or prospective party to such proceedings, and either prior to the institution of a claim, if the claimant is represented by an attorney, or after the filing of the claim in the same manner, for the same purposes, including the purposes of discovery, and subject to the same rules; all as now or hereafter prescribed by law or by rules of court governing the taking and use of such depositions in civil actions at law in the circuit courts of this state. Such depositions may be taken before any notary public, court reporter, or deputy, and the fees of the officer taking the same and the fees of the witnesses attending the same, including expert witness fees as provided by law or court rule, shall be the same as in depositions taken for such circuit courts. Such fees may be taxed as costs and recovered by the claimant, if successful in such workers' compensation proceedings. If no claim has been filed, then the carrier or employer taking the deposition shall pay the claimant's attorney a reasonable attorney's fee for attending said deposition.

440.31 Witness fees.—Each witness who appears in obedience to a subpoena shall be entitled to the same fees as witnesses in a civil action in the circuit court; however, any expert witness, as defined in Rule 1.390(a) of the Rules of Civil Procedure, who shall have testified in any proceeding under this chapter shall be allowed a witness fee, including the cost of any exhibits used by such witness, in such reasonable amount as the deputy commissioner may determine, not in excess of the rate prevailing in the locality for witness fees for such expert witnesses in workers' compensation proceedings, notwithstanding the limitation provided in s. 92.231.

History.—s. 31, ch. 17481, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 5966(31); s. 9, ch. 29778, 1955; s. 2, ch. 67-554; s. 23, ch. 78-300; ss. 24, 124, ch. 79-40; s. 21, ch. 79-312. cf.—s. 92.142 Compensation of witnesses in various courts.

440.32 Cost in proceedings brought without reasonable ground.—If the deputy commissioner, <sup>1</sup>commissioner, or any court having jurisdiction of proceedings in respect of any claim or compensation order determines that the proceedings in respect of such claim or order have been instituted or continued without reasonable ground, the cost of such proceedings shall be assessed against the party who has so instituted or continued such proceedings.

(1) The deputy commissioner or <sup>1</sup>commissioner may preserve and enforce order during any such proceeding; issue subpoenas for, administer oaths or affirmations to, and compel the attendance and testimony of witnesses, or the production of books, papers, documents, and other evidence, or the taking of depositions before any designated individual competent to administer oaths; examine witnesses, and do all things conformable to law which may be necessary to enable it effectively to discharge the duties of its office.

(2) If any person in proceedings before the deputy commissioner or <sup>1</sup>commissioner disobeys or resists any lawful order or process, or misbehaves during a hearing or so near the place thereof as to obstruct the same, or neglects to produce, after having been ordered to do so, any pertinent book, paper, or document, or refuses to appear after having been subpoenaed, or upon appearing refuses to take oath or affirmation as a witness, or after having taken the oath refuses to be examined according to law, the deputy commissioner or <sup>1</sup>commissioner, as the case may be, shall certify the facts to the court having jurisdiction in the place in which it is sitting which shall thereupon in a summary manner hear the evidence as to the acts complained of, and, if the evidence so warrants, punish such person in the same manner and to the same extent as for a contempt committed before the court, or commit such person upon the same conditions as if the doing of the forbidden act had occurred with reference to the process of or in the presence of the court.

440.34 Attorney's fees; costs; penalty for violations.—

(1) No fee, gratuity, or other consideration shall be paid for services rendered for a claimant in connection with any proceedings arising under this chapter, unless approved as reasonable by the deputy commissioner, <sup>1</sup>commissioner, or court having jurisdiction over such proceedings. Except as provided by this subsection, any attorney's fee approved by a deputy commissioner shall be equal to 25 percent of the first $5,000 of the amount of the benefits secured, 20 percent of the next $5,000 of the amount of the benefits secured, and 15 percent of the remaining amount of the benefits secured. However, the deputy commissioner shall consider the following factors in each case and may increase or decrease the attorney's fee if, in his judgment, the circumstances of the particular case warrant such action:

(a) The time and labor required, the novelty and difficulty of the questions involved, and the skill requisite to perform the legal service properly.

(b) The likelihood, if apparent to the claimant, that the acceptance of the particular employment will preclude employment of the lawyer by others or cause antagonisms with other clients.

(c) The fee customarily charged in the locality for similar legal services.

(d) The amount involved in the controversy and the benefits resulting to the claimant.

(e) The time limitation imposed by the claimant or the circumstances.

(f) The nature and length of the professional relationship with the claimant.

(g) The experience, reputation, and ability of the lawyer or lawyers performing services.

(h) The contingency or certainty of a fee.

(2) If the claimant should prevail in any proceedings before a deputy commissioner, <sup>1</sup>commissioner, or court, there shall be taxed against the employer the reasonable costs of such proceedings, not to include the claimant's attorney's fees. A claimant shall be responsible for the payment of his own attorney's fees, except that a claimant shall be entitled to recover a reasonable attorney's fee from a carrier or employer:

(a) Against whom he successfully asserts a claim for medical benefits only, if the claimant has not filed or is not entitled to file at such time a claim for disability, permanent impairment, wage-loss, or death benefits, arising out of the same accident; or

(b) In cases where the deputy commissioner issues an order finding that a carrier has acted in bad faith with regard to handling an injured worker's claim and the injured worker has suffered economic loss. For the purposes of this paragraph, "bad faith" means conduct by the carrier in the handling of a claim which amounts to fraud, malice, oppression, or willful, wanton or reckless disregard of the rights of the claimant. Any determination of bad faith shall be made by the deputy commissioner through a separate fact-finding proceeding; or

(c) In a proceeding where a carrier or employer denies that an injury occurred for which compensation benefits are payable, and the claimant prevails on the issue of compensability.

In the situations set forth in paragraph (b), the payment of such attorney's fees shall not be recouped, directly or indirectly, by any carrier in the rate base, premium, or any rate filing.

(3) In such cases where the claimant is responsible for the payment of his own attorney's fees, such fees shall be a lien upon compensation payable to the claimant, notwithstanding the provisions of s. 440.22.

(4) Any person:

(a) Who receives any fees or other consideration or any gratuity on account of services so rendered, unless such consideration or gratuity is approved by the deputy commissioner, the 'commission, or the court, or

(b) Who makes it a business to solicit employment for a lawyer or for himself in respect of any claim or award for compensation, is guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 34, ch. 17481, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 5966(34), 8135(11); s. 11, ch. 20672, 1941; ss. 17, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 365, ch. 71-136; s. 119, ch. 71-355; s. 18, ch. 75-209; s. 9, ch. 77-290; ss. 10, 23, ch. 78-300; ss. 27, 124, ch. 79-40; ss. 15, 21, ch. 79-312.

Note.—See s. 1, ch. 79-312, which abolished the Industrial Relations Commission, effective October 1, 1979.

440.35 Record of injury or death.—Every employer shall keep a record in respect of any injury to an employee. Such record shall contain such information of disability or death in respect of such injury as the division may by regulation require, and shall be available to inspection by the division or by any state authority at such time and under such conditions as the division may by regulation prescribe.

440.37 Misrepresentation; fraudulent activities; penalties.—

(1) Any person who willfully makes any false or misleading statement or representation for the purpose of obtaining or denying any benefit or payment under this chapter:

(a) Who presents or causes to be presented any written or oral statement as part of, or in support of, a claim for payment or other benefit pursuant to any provision of this chapter, knowing that such statement contains any false or misleading information concerning any fact or thing material to such claim, or

(b) Who prepares or makes any written or oral statement that is intended to be presented to any employer, insurance company, or self-insured program in connection with, or in support of, any claim for payment or other benefit pursuant to any provision of this chapter, knowing that such statement contains any false or misleading information concerning any fact or thing material to such claim, shall be guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(2)(a) All claims forms as provided for in this chapter shall contain a notice that clearly states in substance the following: "Any person who, knowingly and with intent to injure, defraud, or deceive any employer or employee, insurance company, or self-insured program, files a statement of claim containing any false or misleading information is guilty of a felony of the third degree."

(b)1. Any physician licensed under chapter 458, osteopath licensed under chapter 459, chiropractor licensed under chapter 460, or any other practitioner licensed under the laws of this state who knowingly and willfully assists, conspires with, or urges any person to fraudulently violate any of the provisions of this chapter, or any person who, due to such assistance, conspiracy, or urging by said physician, osteopath, chiropractor, or practitioner, knowingly and willfully benefits from the proceeds derived from the use of such fraud, is guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084. In the event that a physician, osteopath, chiropractor, or other practitioner is adjudicated guilty of a violation of this subparagraph, the 'State Board of Medical Examiners as set forth in chapter 458, the 'State Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners as set forth in chapter 459, the 'Florida State Board of Chiropractic Examiners as set forth in chapter 460, or other appropriate licensing authority, whichever is appropriate, shall hold an administrative hearing to consider the imposition of administrative sanctions as provided by law against said physician, osteopath, chiropractor, or other practitioner.

2. Any attorney who knowingly and willfully assists, conspires with, or urges any claimant to fraudulently violate any of the provisions of this chapter, or any person who, due to such assistance, conspiracy, or urging on such attorney's part, knowingly and willfully benefits from the proceeds derived from the use of such fraud, is guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

3. No person or governmental unit licensed under chapter 395 to maintain or operate a hospital, and no administrator or employee of any such hospital, shall knowingly and willfully allow the use of the facilities of such hospital by any person in a scheme or conspiracy to fraudulently violate any of the provisions of this chapter. Any hospital administrator or employee who violates this subparagraph is guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084. Any adjudication of guilt for a violation of this subparagraph, or the use of business practices demonstrating a pattern indicating that the spirit of the law set forth in this chapter is not being followed, shall be grounds for suspension or revocation of the license to operate the hospital or the imposition of an administrative penalty of up to $5,000 by the licensing agency as set forth in chapter 395.

(c) Any person damaged as a result of a violation of any provision of this subsection, when there has been a criminal adjudication of guilt, shall have a cause of action to recover compensatory damages, plus all reasonable investigation and litigation expenses, including attorney's fees at the trial and appellate courts.

(d) For the purposes of this subsection, the term "statement" includes, but is not limited to, any notice, statement, proof of injury, bill for services, diagnosis, prescription, hospital or doctor records, X ray, test result, or other evidence of loss, injury, or expense.

(e) The provisions of this subsection shall also apply with respect to any employer, insurer, self-insurer, adjusting firm, or agent or representative thereof who intentionally injures, defrauds, or deceives any claimant with regard to any claim. Such claimant shall have the right to recover the damages provided in this subsection.

(f) It is unlawful for any attorney or other person, in his individual capacity or in his capacity as a public or private employee, or for any firm, corporation, partnership, or association to unlawfully solicit any business in and about city or county hospitals, courts, or any public institution or public place; in and about private hospitals or sanitariums; in and about any private institution; or upon private property of any character whatsoever for the purpose of making workers' compensation claims. Any person who violates the provisions of this paragraph is guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(3) Whenever any circuit or special grievance committee acting under the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court finds probable cause to believe that an attorney is guilty of a violation of this section, such committee shall forward to the appropriate state attorney a copy of the findings of probable cause and a copy of the report being filed in the matter.

440.38 Security for compensation; insurance carriers and self-insurers.—

(1) Every employer shall secure the payment of compensation under this chapter:

(a) By insuring and keeping insured the payment of such compensation with any stock company or mutual company or association or exchange, authorized to do business in the state; or

(b) By furnishing satisfactory proof to the division of his financial ability to pay such compensation and receiving an authorization from the division to pay such compensation directly. The division may, as a condition to such authorization, require such employer to deposit in a depository designated by the division either an indemnity bond or securities, at the option of the employer, of a kind and in an amount determined by the division, and subject to such conditions as the division may prescribe, which shall include authorization to the division in case of default to sell any such securities sufficient to pay compensation awards or to bring suit upon such bonds, to procure prompt payment of compensation under this chapter. In addition, the division shall require, as a condition to authorization to self-insure, proof that the employer has provided for competent personnel with which to deliver benefits and to provide a safe working environment. Further, the division shall require such employer to carry reinsurance at levels that will insure the actuarial soundness of such employer in accordance with rules promulgated by the division. Any employer securing compensation in accordance with the provisions of this paragraph shall be known as a self-insurer and shall be classed as a carrier of his own insurance. There is created in the State Treasury a guaranty fund for individual self-insurers authorized under this paragraph, and all such self-insurers, other than individual self-insurers which are public utilities or governmental entities, shall participate in such fund. Said guaranty fund shall operate subject to rules adopted by the division and shall become effective on July 1, 1980.

(2)(a) The division shall adopt rules by which businesses may become qualified to provide underwriting claims-adjusting, loss control, and safety engineering services to self-insurers.

(b) The division shall adopt rules requiring self-insurers to file any reports necessary to fulfill the requirements of this chapter. Any self-insurer who fails to file any report as prescribed by the rules adopted by the division shall be subject to a civil penalty not to exceed $100 for each such failure.

(3)(a) The license of any stock company or mutual company or association or exchange authorized to do insurance business in the state shall for good cause, upon recommendation of the division, be suspended or revoked by the Department of Insurance. No suspension or revocation shall affect the liability of any carrier already incurred.

(b) The division shall suspend or revoke any authorization to a self-insurer for good cause. No suspension or revocation shall affect the liability of any self-insurer already incurred.

(4)(a) No carrier of insurance, including the parties to any mutual, reciprocal, or other association, shall write any compensation insurance under this chapter without a permit from the Department of Insurance. Such permit shall be given, upon application therefor, to any insurance or mutual or reciprocal insurance association upon the said department being satisfied of the solvency of such corporation or association and its ability to perform all its undertakings. The said department may revoke any permit so issued for violation of any provision of this chapter.

(b) No carrier of insurance, including the parties to any mutual, reciprocal, or other association, shall write any compensation insurance under this chapter unless such carrier shall have a claims adjuster, either in-house or under contract, situated within this state.

(c) Any insurer, rating bureau, or agent or other representative or employee of any insurer or rating bureau failing to comply with, or which is guilty of a violation of, any of the provisions of this chapter or of any order or ruling of the Department of Insurance made hereunder is guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.083. In addition thereto, the license of any insurer, agent, or broker guilty of such violation may be revoked or suspended by the department.

(5) All insurance carriers authorized to write workers' compensation insurance in this state shall make available, at the option of the employer, an insurance policy containing a coinsurance provision which shall bind the carrier to pay 80 percent, and the employer to pay 20 percent, of the benefits due to an employee for an injury compensable under this chapter, up to the amount of $2,500 or $5,000. One hundred percent of the medical benefits above $2,500 or $5,000, as the case may be, due to an employee for one injury shall be paid by the carrier. Regardless of any coinsurance or deductible amount, the claim shall be paid by the applicable carrier, which shall then be reimbursed by the employer for any coinsurance or deductible amounts paid by the carrier, and the employer shall be liable for such reimbursement, except for any portion of a claim for medical benefits, up to the employer's liability under the coinsurance or deductible provisions. If a claim or a portion of a claim is for medical benefits, the benefits shall be paid by the employer, and the carrier shall act as guarantor therefor. Payments made by an employer pursuant to a coinsurance provision shall be made within the same time periods as those applicable to a carrier. Prior to issuance of any policy not containing a coinsurance provision, the carrier shall obtain from the employer a written rejection of such provision. No insurance carrier shall be required to offer coinsurance to any employer if, as a result of a credit investigation, the carrier determines that the employer is not sufficiently financially stable to be responsible for payment of such coinsurance amounts. The agent's commission shall be computed and paid on the basis of the policy without a coinsurance provision.

(6) The state and its boards, bureaus, departments, and agencies and all of its political subdivisions which employ labor shall be deemed self-insurers under the terms of this chapter, unless they elect to procure and maintain insurance to secure the benefits of this chapter to their employees, and they are hereby authorized to pay the premiums for the said insurance.

440.39 Compensation for injuries where third persons are liable.—

(1) If an employee, subject to the provisions of the Workers' Compensation Law, is injured or killed in the course of his employment by the negligence or wrongful act of a third-party tortfeasor, such injured employee or, in the case of his death, his dependents may accept compensation benefits under the provisions of this law, and at the same time such injured employee or his dependents or personal representatives may pursue his remedy by action at law or otherwise against such third-party tortfeasor.

(2) If the employee or his dependents shall accept compensation or other benefits under this law or begin proceedings therefor, the employer or, in the event the employer is insured against liability hereunder then the insurer, shall be subrogated to the rights of the employee or his dependents against such third-party tortfeasor, to the extent of the amount of compensation benefits paid or to be paid as provided by subsection (3).

(3)(a) In all claims or actions at law against a third-party tortfeasor, the employee, or his dependents or those entitled by law to sue in the event he is deceased, shall sue for the employee individually and for the use and benefit of the employer, if a self-insurer, or employer's insurance carrier, in the event compensation benefits are claimed or paid, and such suit may be brought in the name of the employee, or his dependents or those entitled by law to sue in the event he is deceased, as plaintiff or, at the option of such plaintiff, may be brought in the name of such plaintiff and for the use and benefit of the employer or insurance carrier, as the case may be. Upon suit being filed, the employer or the insurance carrier, as the case may be, may file in the suit a notice of payment of compensation and medical benefits to the employee or his dependents, which said notice shall constitute a lien upon any judgment or settlement recovered to the extent that the court may determine to be their pro rata share for compensation and medical benefits paid or to be paid under the provisions of this law. The employer or carrier shall recover from the judgment, after attorney's fees and costs incurred by the employee or dependent in that suit have been deducted, 100 percent of what it has paid and future benefits to be paid, unless the employee or dependent can demonstrate to the court that he did not recover the full value of damages sustained because of comparative negligence or because of limits of insurance coverage and collectibility. The burden of proof will be upon the employee. Such proration shall be made by the judge of the trial court upon application therefor and notice to the adverse party. Notice of suit being filed shall be served upon the employer and compensation carrier and upon all parties to the suit or their attorneys of record by the employee. Notice of payment of compensation benefits shall be served upon the employee and upon all parties to the suit or their attorneys of record by the employer and compensation carrier.

(b) If the employer or insurance carrier has given written notice of his rights of subrogation to the third-party tortfeasor, and, thereafter, settlement of any such claim or action at law is made, either before or after suit is filed, and the parties fail to agree on the proportion to be paid to each, the circuit court of the county in which the cause of action arose shall determine the amount to be paid to each by such third-party tortfeasor in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (a) above.

(4)(a) If the injured employee or his dependents, as the case may be, fail to bring suit against such third-party tortfeasor within 1 year after the cause of action thereof shall have accrued, the employer, if a self-insurer, and if not, the insurance carrier, may, after giving 30 days' notice to the injured employee or his dependents and the injured employee's attorney, if represented by counsel, institute suit against such third-party tortfeasor, either in his own name or as provided by subsection (3), and, in the event suit is so instituted, shall be subrogated to and entitled to retain from any judgment recovered against, or settlement made with, such third party, the following: All amounts paid as compensation and medical benefits under the provisions of this law and the present value of all future compensation benefits payable, to be reduced to its present value, and to be retained as a trust fund from which future payments of compensation are to be made, together with all court costs, including attorney's fees expended in the prosecution of such suit, to be prorated as provided by subsection (3). The remainder of the moneys derived from such judgment or settlement shall be paid to the employee or his dependents, as the case may be.

(b) If the carrier or employer does not bring suit within 2 years following the accrual of the cause of action against a third-party tortfeasor, the right of action shall revert to the employee or, in the case of his death, those entitled by law to sue, and in such event the provisions of subsection (3) shall apply.

(5) In all cases under subsection (4) involving third-party tortfeasors, where compensation benefits under this law are paid, or are to be paid, settlement either before or after suit is instituted shall not be made except upon agreement of the injured employee or his dependents and the employer or his insurance carrier, as the case may be.

(6) Any amounts recovered under this section by the employer or his insurance carrier shall be credited against the loss-experience of said employer.

440.40 Compensation notice.—Every employer who has secured compensation under the provisions of this chapter shall keep posted in a conspicuous place or places in and about his place or places of business typewritten or printed notices, in accordance with a form prescribed by the division, stating that such employer has secured the payment of compensation in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. Such notices shall contain the name and address of the carrier, if any, with whom the employer has secured payment of compensation and the date of the expiration of the policy.

440.41 Substitution of carrier for employer.—In any case where the employer is not a self-insurer, in order that the liability for compensation imposed by this chapter may be most effectively discharged by the employer, and in order that the administration of this chapter in respect of such liability may be facilitated, the division shall by regulation provide for the discharge, by the carrier for such employer, of such obligations and duties of the employer in respect of such liability, imposed by this chapter upon the employer, as it considers proper in order to effectuate the provisions of this chapter. For such purposes:

(1) Notice to or knowledge of an employer of the occurrence of the injury shall be notice to or knowledge of the carrier.

(2) Jurisdiction of the employer by the deputy commissioners, the division, the 'commission, or any court under this chapter shall be jurisdiction of the carrier.

(3) Any requirement by the deputy commissioners, the division, the 'commission, or any court under any compensation order, finding, or decision shall be binding upon the carrier in the same manner and to the same extent as upon the employer.

440.42 Insurance policies; liability.—

(1) Every policy or contract of insurance issued under authority of this chapter shall contain:

(a) A provision to carry out the provisions of s. 440.41; and

(b) A provision that insolvency or bankruptcy of the employer and discharge therein shall not relieve the carrier from payment of compensation for disability or death sustained by an employee during the life of such policy or contract.

(2) No contract or policy of insurance issued by a carrier under this chapter shall expire or be canceled until at least 30 days have elapsed after a notice of cancellation has been sent to the division and to the employer in accordance with the provisions of subsection 440.185(7). However, when duplicate or dual coverage exists by reason of two different carriers having issued policies of insurance to the same employer securing the same liability, it shall be presumed that only that policy with the later effective date shall be in force and that the earlier policy terminated upon the effective date of the latter. In the event that both policies carry the same effective date, one of the policies may be canceled instantaneously upon filing a notice of cancellation with the division and serving a copy thereof upon the employer in such manner as the division by regulation may prescribe.

(3) When there is any controversy as to which of two or more carriers is liable for the discharge of the obligations and duties of one or more employers with respect to a claim for compensation, remedial treatment, or other benefits under this chapter, the deputy commissioner shall have jurisdiction to adjudicate such controversy; and if one of the carriers voluntarily or in compliance with a compensation order makes payments in discharge of such liability and it is finally determined that another carrier is liable for all or any part of such obligations and duties with respect to such claim, the carrier which has made payments either voluntarily or in compliance with a compensation order shall be entitled to reimbursement from the carrier finally determined liable, and the deputy commissioner shall have jurisdiction to order such reimbursement; however, if the carrier finally determined liable can demonstrate that it has been prejudiced by lack of knowledge or notice of its potential liability, such reimbursement shall be only with respect to payments made after it had knowledge or notice of its potential liability.

440.43 Penalty for failure to secure payment of compensation.—Any employer required to secure the payment of compensation under this chapter who fails to secure such compensation shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083 and upon a complaint of the division being filed in the circuit court of the county in which said employer may be doing business, such employer may be enjoined from employing individuals and from conducting business until such payment for compensation has been secured. However, the employer, upon written notice from the division, shall have 72 hours to secure such compensation prior to the filing of the complaint by the division. This section shall not affect any other liability of the employer under this chapter.

440.44 Workers' compensation; staff organization.

(1) INTERPRETATION OF LAW.—As a guide to the interpretation of this chapter, the Legislature takes due notice of federal social and labor acts and hereby creates an agency to administer such acts passed for the benefit of employees and employers in Florida industry, and desires to meet the requirements of such federal acts wherever not inconsistent with the Constitution and laws of Florida.

(2) INTENT.—It is the intent of the Legislature that the division assume an active and forceful role in its administration of this act so as to ensure that the system operates efficiently and with maximum benefit to both employers and employees.

(3) EXPENDITURES.—The division shall make such expenditures, including expenditures for personal services and rent at the seat of government and elsewhere, for law books; for telephone services and WATS lines; for books of reference, periodicals, equipment, and supplies; and for printing and binding as may be necessary in the administration of this chapter. All expenditures of the division in the administration of this chapter shall be allowed and paid as provided in s. 440.50 upon the presentation of itemized vouchers therefor approved by the division.

(4) MERIT SYSTEM PRINCIPLE OF PERSONNEL ADMINISTRATION.—Subject to the other provisions of this chapter, the division is authorized to appoint, and prescribe the duties and powers of, bureau chiefs, attorneys, accountants, medical advisers, technical assistants, inspectors, claims examiners, and such other employees as may be necessary in the performance of its duties under this chapter.

(5) OFFICE.—The division shall maintain and keep open during reasonable business hours an office, which shall be provided in the Capitol or some other suitable building in the City of Tallahassee, for the transaction of business under this chapter, at which office its official records and papers shall be kept. The office shall be furnished and equipped by the division. The division, <sup>2</sup>commission, or any <sup>3</sup>judge of industrial claims may hold sessions and conduct hearings at any place within the state.

(6) SEAL.—The division shall have a seal upon which shall be inscribed the words "State of Florida Department of Labor and Employment Security—seal."

(7) DESTRUCTION OF OBSOLETE RECORDS.—The division is expressly authorized to provide by regulation for and to destroy obsolete records of the division and <sup>2</sup>commission.

<sup>1</sup>(8) ADVISORY COUNCIL.—The secretary may designate an advisory council to aid the division in formulating policies, discussing problems, and in assuring impartiality and freedom from political influence in the solution of such problems, related to the administration of this chapter or any other law administered by the division. The members of such advisory council shall receive no compensation for such services, but shall be reimbursed for traveling expenses as provided in s. 112.061.

(9) In the exercise of its duties and functions requiring administrative hearings, the division shall proceed in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act. The authority of the division to issue orders resulting from administrative hearings as provided for in this chapter shall not infringe upon the jurisdiction of the <sup>3</sup>judges of industrial claims.

440.45 Deputy commissioners; Chief Commissioner.

(1) The Governor shall appoint as many full-time deputy commissioners as may be necessary to effectually perform the duties prescribed for them under this chapter. The Governor shall initially appoint a deputy commissioner from a list of at least three persons nominated by the appellate district judicial nominating commission for the appellate district in which the deputy commissioner will principally conduct hearings. The meetings and determinations of the judicial nominating commission as to the deputy commissioners shall be open to the general public. No person shall be nominated or appointed as a full-time deputy commissioner who has not had 3 years' experience in the practice of law in this state; and no deputy commissioner shall engage in the private practice of law during a term of office. The Governor may appoint any former deputy commissioner to serve as a deputy commissioner pro hac vice to complete the proceedings on any claim with respect to which the deputy commissioner had heard testimony and which remained pending at the time of the expiration of the deputy commissioner's term of office. However, no former deputy commissioner shall be appointed to serve as a deputy commissioner pro hac vice for a period to exceed 60 successive days.

(2) Each full-time deputy commissioner shall be appointed for a term of 4 years, but during the term of office may be removed by the Governor for cause. Prior to the expiration of the term of office of the deputy commissioner, the conduct of said deputy commissioner shall be reviewed by the appellate district judicial nominating commission in the appellate district in which the deputy commissioner principally conducts hearings, which commission shall determine whether said deputy commissioner shall be retained in office. A report of the decision shall be furnished to the Governor no later than 6 months prior to the expiration of the term of the deputy commissioner. If the judicial nominating commission votes not to retain the deputy commissioner, the deputy commissioner shall not be reappointed but shall remain in office until a successor is appointed and qualified. If the judicial nominating commission votes to retain the deputy commissioner in office, then the Governor shall reappoint said deputy commissioner for a term of 4 years.

(3) The deputy commissioners shall be within the Department of Labor and Employment Security under the secretary of that department. To assist the secretary in the administration of the deputy commissioners, there shall be created the position of Chief Commissioner within the secretary's office. The Chief Commissioner shall not be subject to the provisions of subsections (1), (2), (4), or (5), but shall be appointed directly by the Governor and shall have had 3 years' experience in the practice of law in this state. The duties of the Chief Commissioner shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

(a) To be responsible for the coordination of the deputy commissioners and to serve as liaison between the deputy commissioners and the Division of Workers' Compensation of the Department of Labor and Employment Security, between the deputy commissioners and the courts, and between all the aforementioned parties and the department.

(b) To serve as a liaison between the deputy commissioners and the division, making certain that all requirements of personnel, office space, equipment, supplies, research material, law books, and court reporters are provided when needed.

(c) To determine the consensus of deputy commissioners as relates to matters of concern to them and to present these views to the division on behalf of the deputy commissioners.

(d) To act as liaison between the courts and the deputy commissioners for the purpose of promoting the workers' compensation jurisprudence and improving the system of disposition of cases at the trial and appellate levels, including, but not limited to, discussions regarding amendments in procedural rules, guidelines for preparation of transcripts on appeal, and dissemination of case law decisions.

(e) To arrange for exchange between the deputy commissioners and the division in matters of mutual interest, including, but not limited to, relations with court reporters, case load distribution, case disposition, needed changes in forms used by the deputy commissioners, and determination of reasons for delays in the issuing of orders.

(f) To serve as liaison with the Division of Workers' Compensation; the Workers' Compensation Section of The Florida Bar; the Workers' Compensation Advisory Council; and the department.

(g) To serve as a "pro hac vice" deputy commissioner in the various parts of the state as determined by temporary changes in case load and as due to annual and sick leave taken.

(h) To assure a blind system of case assignment among deputy commissioners within the various districts and to undertake appropriate measures to keep dockets current for the deputy commissioners.

(i) To be responsible for the training and orientation of new deputy commissioners.

(j) To ensure that administrative matters, including hearing delays, docket scheduling, review of joint petitions after entry by the deputy commissioners, and all matters of case distribution, shall be effectively handled in accordance with this chapter and to report flagrant violations in these matters directly to the secretary and the Governor. In no event shall the Chief Commissioner, in handling these duties, interfere in any way with the judicial discretion of any court, or the quasi-judicial discretion of the deputy commissioners, in the independent decisions on matters before same for decision.

(k) Any and all other matters which he deems necessary for the efficient handling of workers' compensation cases.

(4) Each full-time deputy commissioner shall receive a salary of $4,000 less per year than that paid to a full-time district court of appeal judge, payable out of the fund established in s. 440.50. The Chief Commissioner shall receive a salary of $1,000 more per year than that paid to a full-time deputy commissioner.

(5) The Governor may appoint any attorney who has 3 years' experience in the practice of law in this state to serve as a deputy commissioner pro hac vice in the absence or disqualification of any full-time deputy commissioner or to serve upon a temporary basis as an additional deputy commissioner in any area of the state in which it is determined by the Governor that a need exists therefor; however, no attorney so appointed by the Governor shall serve for a period to exceed 60 successive days.

(6) The division may delegate to its attorneys, examiners, safety representatives, field agents, inspectors, and other legal representatives such powers and authority as it may deem necessary in the administration of this chapter.

440.46 Investigations by the division; refusal to admit; penalty.—

(1)(a) The division shall make studies and investigations with respect to safety provisions and the causes of injuries in employments covered by this chapter, and shall make to the Legislature and employers and carriers such recommendations as it may deem proper as to the best means of preventing injuries. In making such studies and investigations, the division is authorized:

1. To cooperate with any agency of the United States charged with the duty of enforcing any law securing safety against injury in any employment covered by this chapter, or any agency or department of the state engaged in enforcing any laws to assure safety for employees.

2. To permit any such agency or department to have access to the records of the division.

(b) The division and its authorized representatives shall have the power and authority to enter and inspect any place of employment at any reasonable time for the purpose of investigating compliance with this chapter and making inspections for the proper enforcement of this chapter. Any employer or owner who refuses to admit any member of the division or its authorized representative to any place of employment or to permit investigation and inspection pursuant to this paragraph shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

(2) Should an accidental injury occur to any inspector or employee of the division while engaged in his official duties, the division shall be considered an employer under the provisions of this chapter and shall compensate such injured employee or his dependents in accordance with the provisions hereof.

(3) No other claim on account of such accidental injury may be maintained by any person against any employer who has accepted the terms of this chapter, except as herein provided.

440.49 Rehabilitation of injured employees; Special Disability Trust Fund.—

(1) REHABILITATION OF INJURED EMPLOYEES.—

(a) When an employee has suffered an injury covered by this chapter and it appears that the injury will preclude the employee from earning wages equal to wages earned prior to the injury, the employee shall be entitled to prompt rehabilitation services. The employer or carrier, at its own expense, shall provide such injured employee with appropriate training and education for suitable gainful employment and may cooperate with federal and state agencies for vocational education and with any public or private agency cooperating with such federal and state agencies in the vocational rehabilitation of such injured employees. For purposes of this section only, "suitable gainful employment" means employment or self-employment which is reasonably attainable in light of the individual's age, education, previous occupation, and injury and which offers an opportunity to restore the individual as soon as practical and as nearly as possible to his average weekly earnings at the time of injury. If such services are not voluntarily offered or accepted, the Division of Workers' Compensation of the Department of Labor and Employment Security, upon application of the employee, employer, or carrier, after affording the parties an opportunity to be heard, may refer the employee to a qualified physician or facility for the evaluation of the practicality of, the need for, and the kind of service, treatment, or training, necessary and appropriate to restore the employee to suitable gainful employment. On receipt of such report, and after affording the parties an opportunity to be heard, the deputy commissioner may order that the service and treatment recommended in the report, or such other rehabilitation treatment or service deemed necessary, be provided at the expense of the employer or carrier.

(b) The Division of Workers' Compensation shall continuously study the issue of rehabilitation, both physical and vocational, and shall investigate and maintain a directory of all qualified rehabilitation facilities and agencies, both public and private.

(c) Prior to adjudicating an injured employee to be permanently and totally disabled, the deputy commissioner shall determine whether there is a reasonable probability that, with appropriate training or education, the injured employee may be rehabilitated to the extent that such employee can achieve suitable gainful employment and whether it is in the best interest of such individual to undertake such training or education.

(d) When it appears that rehabilitation is necessary and desirable to restore the injured employee to suitable gainful employment, the employee shall be entitled to reasonable and proper rehabilitation services for a period not to exceed 26 weeks, which period may be extended for an additional period not to exceed 26 additional weeks, if such extended period is determined to be necessary and proper by the deputy commissioner. However, no carrier or employer shall be precluded from continuing such rehabilitation beyond such period on a voluntary basis. If rehabilitation requires residence at or near a facility or an institution and away from the employee's customary residence, the reasonable cost of board, lodging, or travel shall be borne by the employer or carrier. Refusal to accept rehabilitation as deemed necessary by the deputy commissioner shall result in a 50 percent reduction in weekly compensation, including wage-loss benefits as determined pursuant to s. 440.15(3)(b), for each week of the period of refusal.

(e) Temporary disability benefits paid pursuant to s. 440.15(2)(a) and (4) shall include such period as may be reasonably required for training in the use of artificial members and appliances, and shall include such period as the employee may be receiving training or education under a rehabilitation program pursuant to paragraphs (1)(a) and (d). Notwithstanding s. 440.02(22), the date of maximum medical improvement, for purposes of s. 440.15(3)(b), shall be no earlier than the last day for which such temporary disability benefits are paid.

(f) Any person who offers to secure employment or help or who gives information as to where such employment or help may be secured and who performs such acts exclusively in conjunction with fulfilling his responsibilities under this chapter to rehabilitate injured or disabled individuals shall be exempt from the provisions of chapter 449, relating to private employment agencies.

(2) LIMITATION OF LIABILITY FOR SUBSEQUENT INJURY THROUGH SPECIAL DISABILITY TRUST FUND.—

(a) Legislative intent.—It is the purpose of this subsection to encourage the employment of the physically handicapped by protecting employers from excess liability for compensation and medical expense when an injury to a handicapped worker merges with his preexisting permanent physical impairment to cause a greater disability, permanent impairment, or wage loss than would have resulted from the injury alone. The division shall inform all employers of the existence and function of the fund and shall interpret eligibility requirements liberally. However, this subsection shall not be construed to create or provide any benefits for injured employees or their dependents not otherwise provided by this chapter. The entitlement of an injured employee or his dependents to compensation under this chapter shall be determined without regard to this subsection, the provisions of which shall be considered only in determining whether an employer or carrier who has paid compensation under this chapter is entitled to reimbursement from the Special Disability Trust Fund.

(b) Definitions.—As used in this subsection:

1. "Permanent physical impairment" means any permanent condition due to previous accident or disease or any congenital condition which is, or is likely to be, a hindrance or obstacle to employment, but not due to the natural aging process.

2. "Merger" describes or means that:

a. Had the permanent physical impairment not existed, the subsequent accident or occupational disease would not have occurred;

b. The permanent disability, permanent impairment, or wage loss resulting from the subsequent accident or occupational disease is materially and substantially greater than that which would have resulted had the permanent physical impairment not existed and the employer has been required to pay, and has paid, permanent total disability, permanent impairment, or wage-loss benefits for that materially and substantially greater disability; or

c. Death would not have been accelerated had the permanent physical impairment not existed.

3. "Excess permanent compensation" means that compensation for permanent impairment, wage-loss benefits, or permanent total disability or death benefits for which the employer or carrier is otherwise entitled to reimbursement from the Special Disability Trust Fund.

(c) Permanent impairment, wage loss, or permanent total disability after other physical impairment.—

1. Permanent impairment.—If an employee who has a preexisting permanent physical impairment incurs a subsequent permanent impairment from injury or occupational disease arising out of, and in the course of, his employment which merges with the preexisting permanent physical impairment to cause a permanent impairment, the employer shall, in the first instance, pay all benefits provided by this chapter, but, subject to the limitations specified in paragraph (f), such employer shall be reimbursed from the Special Disability Trust Fund created by paragraph (h) for 60 percent of all impairment benefits which the employer has been required to provide pursuant to s. 440.15(3)(a) as a result of the subsequent accident or occupational disease.

2. Wage loss.—If an employee who has a preexisting permanent physical impairment incurs a subsequent permanent impairment from injury or occupational disease arising out of, and in the course of, his employment which merges with the preexisting permanent physical impairment to cause a wage loss, the employer shall, in the first instance, pay all benefits provided by this chapter, but, subject to the limitations specified in paragraph (f), such employer shall be reimbursed from the Special Disability Trust Fund created by paragraph (h) for 60 percent of all compensation for wage loss which the employer has been required to provide pursuant to s. 440.15(3)(b) during the first 5 years after the date of maximum medical improvement and for 75 percent of all compensation for wage loss which the employer has been required to provide after the 5-year period following the date of maximum medical improvement.

3. Permanent total disability.—If an employee who has a preexisting permanent physical impairment incurs a subsequent permanent impairment from injury or occupational disease arising out of, and in the course of, his employment which merges with the preexisting permanent physical impairment to cause permanent total disability, the employer shall, in the first instance, pay all benefits provided by this chapter, but, subject to the limitations specified in paragraph (f), such employer shall be reimbursed from the Special Disability Trust Fund created by paragraph (h) for all compensation for permanent total disability which is in excess of the first 175 weeks of permanent total disability compensation.

(d) When death results.—If death results from the subsequent permanent impairment contemplated in paragraph (c) within 1 year after the subsequent injury, or within 5 years after the subsequent injury when disability has been continuous since the subsequent injury, and it shall be determined that the death resulted from a merger, the employer shall, in the first instance, pay the funeral expenses and the death benefits prescribed by this chapter, but, subject to the limitations specified in paragraph (f), he shall be reimbursed from the Special Disability Trust Fund created by this subsection for the last 75 percent of all compensation allowable and paid for such death and for 75 percent of the amount paid as funeral expenses.

(e) Reimbursement for compensation paid for temporary disability or medical benefits.—Subject to the limitations specified in paragraph (f), and when the preexisting permanent physical impairment has contributed to the need, either medically or circumstantially, for temporary disability and remedial treatment, care, and attendance, an employer entitled to reimbursement from the Special Disability Trust Fund for compensation paid for permanent impairment, wage loss, permanent total disability, or death shall be reimbursed from said fund for 50 percent of the first $10,000 paid as compensation for temporary disability and remedial treatment, care, and attendance pursuant to s. 440.13, for the same injury; thereafter, the employer shall be reimbursed from said fund for all sums paid by the employer as compensation for temporary disability and remedial treatment, care, and attendance pursuant to s. 440.13 which are in excess of $10,000.

(f) Reimbursement limitations.—

1. No reimbursement shall be allowed under this subsection unless it is established that the employer reached an informed conclusion prior to the occurrence of the subsequent injury or occupational disease that the preexisting physical condition is permanent and is, or is likely to be, a hindrance or obstacle to employment. However, when the employer establishes that he knew of the preexisting permanent physical impairment prior to the subsequent accident or occupational disease, there shall be a conclusive presumption that the employer considered the condition to be permanent and to be, or likely to be, a hindrance or obstacle to employment, when said condition is one of the following:

- a. Epilepsy.
- b. Diabetes.
- c. Cardiac disease.
- d. Marie-Strumpell disease.
- e. Amputation of foot, leg, arm, or hand.
- f. Total loss of sight of one or both eyes or a partial loss of corrected vision of more than 75 percent bilaterally.

- g. Residual disability from poliomyelitis.
- h. Cerebral palsy.
- i. Multiple sclerosis.
- j. Parkinson's disease.
- k. Vascular disorder.
- l. Psychoneurotic disability following confinement for treatment in a recognized medical or mental institution for a period in excess of 6 months.
- m. Hemophilia.
- n. Chronic osteomyelitis.
- o. Ankylosis of a major weight-bearing joint.
- p. Hyperinsulinism.
- q. Muscular dystrophy.
- r. Thrombophlebitis.
- s. Herniated intervertebral disc.
- t. Surgical removal of an intervertebral disc or spinal fusion.

u. Total deafness.

v. Mental retardation, provided the employee's intelligence quotient is such that he falls within the lowest 2 percentile of the general population. However, it shall not be necessary for the employer to know the employee's actual intelligence quotient or actual relative ranking in relation to the intelligence quotient of the general population.

w. Any permanent physical condition which, prior to the industrial accident or occupational disease, constitutes a 20-percent impairment of a member or of the body as a whole.

2. The Special Disability Trust Fund shall not be liable for any costs, interest, penalties, or attorneys' fees.

3. An employer's or carrier's right to apportionment or deduction pursuant to ss. 440.02(18), 440.15(5)(b), and 440.151(1)(c) shall not preclude reimbursement from said fund, except when the merger comes within the definition of paragraph (b)2.b. and such apportionment or deduction relieves the employer or carrier from providing the materially and substantially greater permanent disability benefits otherwise contemplated in said paragraphs.

(g) Reimbursement of employer.—The right to reimbursement as provided in this subsection shall be barred unless written notice of claim of the right to such reimbursement is filed by the employer or carrier entitled to such reimbursement with the division at Tallahassee prior to 60 days after the order awarding the excess permanent compensation with respect to which such reimbursement is claimed becomes final or, if payment of such excess permanent compensation is made by the employer or carrier without an award, prior to 60 days after the date the first payment of excess compensation for the permanent disability was made. The notice of claim shall contain such information as the division by rule may require; and the employer or carrier claiming reimbursement shall furnish such evidence in support of the claim as the division reasonably may require. For notice of claims on the Special Disability Trust Fund filed on or after July 1, 1978, the Special Disability Trust Fund shall, within 120 days of receipt of notice that a carrier has paid, been required to pay, or accepted liability for excess compensation, serve notice of the acceptance of the claim for reimbursement. Failure of the Special Disability Trust Fund to serve the notice shall be deemed a denial by the Special Disability Trust Fund of the claim for reimbursement. If the Special Disability Trust Fund through its representative denies or controverts the claim, the right to such reimbursement shall be barred unless an application for a hearing thereon is filed with the division at Tallahassee within 60 days after notice to the employer or carrier of such denial or controversion. When such application for a hearing is timely filed, the claim shall be heard and determined in accordance with the procedure prescribed in s. 440.25, to the extent that same is applicable, and in accordance with the workers' compensation rules of procedure. In such proceeding on a claim for reimbursement, the Special Disability Trust Fund shall be made the party respondent, and no findings of fact made with respect to the claim of the injured employee or the dependents for compensation, including any finding made or order entered pursuant to s. 440.20(12), shall be res judicata. The Special Disability Trust Fund shall not be joined or made a party to any controversy or dispute between an employee and the dependents and the employer or between two or more employers or carriers without the written consent of the fund. When it has been determined that an employer or carrier is entitled to reimbursement in any amount, the employer or carrier shall be reimbursed periodically every 6 months from the Special Disability Trust Fund for the compensation and medical benefits paid by the employer or carrier for which same is entitled to reimbursement, upon filing request therefor and submitting evidence of such payment in accordance with rules prescribed by the division.

(h)1. Special Disability Trust Fund.—There is established in the State Treasury a special fund to be known as the "Special Disability Trust Fund," which shall be available only for the purposes stated in this subsection, and the assets thereof shall not at any time be appropriated or diverted to any other use or purpose. The Treasurer shall be the custodian of such fund, and all moneys and securities in such fund shall be held in trust by such Treasurer and shall not be the money or property of the state. The Treasurer is authorized to disburse moneys from such fund only when approved by the division and upon the order of the Comptroller, countersigned by the Governor. The Treasurer shall deposit any moneys paid into such fund into such depository banks as the division may designate and is authorized to invest any portion of the fund which, in the opinion of the division, is not needed for current requirements, in the same manner and subject to all the provisions of the law with respect to the deposits of state funds by such Treasurer. All interest earned by such portion of the fund as may be invested by the Treasurer shall be collected by him and placed to the credit of such fund.

2. Payments to Special Disability Trust Fund.—The Special Disability Trust Fund shall be maintained by annual assessments upon the insurance companies writing compensation insurance in the state and the self-insurers under this chapter, commencing with the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1963, which assessments shall become due and be paid on a quarterly basis at the same time and in addition to the assessments provided in s. 440.51. The division shall estimate annually in advance the amount necessary for the administration of this subsection and the maintenance of this fund and shall make such assessment in the manner hereinafter provided. The annual assessment shall be calculated to produce during the ensuing fiscal year an amount which, when combined with that part of the balance in the fund on June 30 of the current fiscal year which is in excess of $100,000, is equal to the sum of disbursements from the fund during the immediate past 3 calendar years. Such amount shall be prorated among the insurance companies writing compensation insurance in the state and self-insurers. The net premiums collected by the companies on workers' compensation premiums in this state and the amount of premiums a self-insurer, if insured, would have to pay in this state are the basis for computing the amount to be assessed as a percentage of net premiums. Such payments shall be made by each insurance company and self-insurer to the division for the Special Disability Trust Fund, in accordance with such regulations as the division may prescribe. The Treasurer is authorized to receive and credit to such Special Disability Trust Fund any sum or sums that may at any time be contributed to the state by the United States under any Act of Congress, or otherwise, to which the state may be or become entitled by reason of any payments made out of such fund.

(i) Division administration of fund; claims, etc.—The division shall administer the Special Disability Trust Fund with authority to allow, deny, compromise, controvert, and litigate claims made against it and to designate an attorney to represent it in proceedings involving claims against the fund, including negotiation and consummation of settlements, hearings before deputy commissioners and the 'commission, and judicial review. Upon the application of the division or any party in interest, the 'commission may, in accordance with the procedure prescribed in s. 440.25, review orders of deputy commissioners by which the fund may be adversely affected. The division or the attorney designated by it shall be given notice of all hearings and proceedings involving the rights or obligations of such fund and shall have authority to make expenditures for such medical examinations, expert witness fees, depositions, transcripts of testimony, and the like as may be necessary to the proper defense of any claim. The division shall appoint an advisory committee composed of representatives of management, compensation insurance carriers, and self-insurers to aid it in formulating policies with respect to conservation of the fund, who shall serve without compensation for such terms as specified by it, but be reimbursed for traveling expenses as provided in s. 112.061. All expenditures made in connection with conservation of the fund, including the salary of the attorney designated to represent it and necessary travel expenses, shall be allowed and paid from the Special Disability Trust Fund as provided in this subsection upon the presentation of itemized vouchers therefor approved by the division.

(j) Effective dates.—The provisions of this subsection shall not be applicable to any case in which the accident causing the subsequent injury or death or the disablement or death from a subsequent occupational disease shall have occurred prior to July 1, 1955; and the provisions of paragraphs (e) and (f) of this subsection shall not be applicable to any case in which the accident causing the subsequent injury or death or the disablement or death from a subsequent occupational disease shall have occurred prior to July 1, 1963.

440.50 Workers' Compensation Administration Trust Fund.—

(1)(a) There is established in the State Treasury a special fund to be known as the "Workers' Compensation Administration Trust Fund" for the purpose of providing for the payment of all expenses in respect to the administration of this chapter, including the vocational rehabilitation of injured employees as provided in s. 440.49 and the payments due under s. 440.15(1)(e). Such fund shall be administered by the division. The Treasurer shall be the custodian of such fund, and all moneys and securities in such fund shall be held in trust by such Treasurer and shall not be the money or property of the state.

(b) The division is authorized to transfer as a loan an amount not in excess of $250,000 from such special fund to the Special Disability Trust Fund established by s. 440.49(4), which amount shall be repaid to said special fund in annual payments equal to not less than 10 percent of moneys received for such Special Disability Trust Fund.

(2) The State Treasurer is authorized to disburse moneys from such fund only when approved by the division and upon the order of the Comptroller, countersigned by the Governor. He shall be required to give bond in an amount to be approved by the division conditioned upon the faithful performance of his duty as custodian of such fund.

(3) The State Treasurer shall deposit any moneys paid into such fund into such depository banks as the division may designate and is authorized to invest any portion of the fund which, in the opinion of the division, is not needed for current requirements, in the same manner and subject to all the provisions of the law with respect to the deposit of state funds by such Treasurer. All interest earned by such portion of the fund as may be invested by the State Treasurer shall be collected by him and placed to the credit of such fund.

(4) All civil penalties provided in this chapter, if not voluntarily paid, may be collected by civil suit brought by the division and shall be paid into such fund.

440.51 Expenses of administration.—

(1) The division shall estimate annually in advance the amounts necessary for the administration of this chapter, in the following manner.

(a) The division shall as soon as practicable after July 1 in each year, determine the expense of administration of this chapter for the preceding fiscal year. The expense of administration for such preceding fiscal year shall be used as the basis for determining the amount to be assessed against each carrier in order to provide for the expenses of the administration of this chapter for the current fiscal year.

(b) The total expenses of administration shall be prorated among the insurance companies writing compensation insurance in the state, and self-insurers. The net premiums collected by the companies and the amount of premiums a self-insurer would have to pay if insured are the basis for computing the amount to be assessed. This amount may be assessed as a specific amount or as a percentage of net premiums payable as the division may direct, provided such amount so assessed shall not exceed 4 percent of such net premiums. The insurance companies may elect to make the payments required under s. 440.15(1)(e) rather than having these payments made by the division. In that event, such payments will be credited to the insurance companies, and the amount due by the insurance company under this section will be reduced accordingly.

(2) The division shall provide by regulation for the collection of the amounts assessed against each carrier. Such amounts shall be paid within 30 days from the date that notice is served upon such carrier. If such amounts are not paid within such period, there may be assessed for each 30 days the amount so assessed remains unpaid, a civil penalty equal to 10 percent of the amount so unpaid, which shall be collected at the same time and a part of the amount assessed.

(3) If any carrier fails to pay the amounts assessed against him under the provisions of this section within 60 days from the time such notice is served upon him, the Department of Insurance upon being advised by the division may suspend or revoke the authorization to insure compensation in accordance with the procedure in s. 440.38(3)(a).

(4) All amounts collected under the provisions of this section shall be paid into the fund established in s. 440.50.

(5) Any amount so assessed against and paid by an insurance carrier shall be allowed as a deduction against the amount of any other tax levied by the state upon the premiums, assessments, or deposits for workers' compensation insurance on contracts or policies of said insurance carrier.

(6)(a) The division may require from each carrier, at such time and in accordance with such regulations as the division may prescribe, reports in respect to all gross earned premiums and of all payments of compensation made by such carrier during each prior period, and may determine the amounts paid by each carrier and the amounts paid by all carriers during such period.

(b) The division may require from each self-insurer, at such time and in accordance with such regulations as the division may prescribe, reports in respect to wages paid, the amount of premiums such self-insurer would have to pay if insured, and all payments of compensation made by such self-insurer during each prior period, and may determine the amounts paid by each self-insurer and the amounts paid by all self-insurers during such period. For the purposes of this section the payroll records of each self-insurer shall be open to annual inspection and audit by the division or its authorized representative, during regular business hours; and if any audit of such records of a self-insurer discloses a deficiency in the amounts reported to the division or in the amounts paid to the division by such self-insurer pursuant to this section, the division may assess the cost of such audit against such self-insurer.

(7) The division shall keep accumulated cost records of all injuries occurring within the state coming within the purview of this chapter on a policy and calendar year basis. For the purpose of this chapter, a "calendar year" is defined as the year in which the injury is reported to the division; "policy year" is defined as that calendar year in which the policy becomes effective and the losses under such policy shall be chargeable against the policy year so defined.

(8) The division shall assign an account number to each employer under this chapter and an account number to each insurance carrier authorized to write workers' compensation insurance in the state, and it shall be the duty of the division under the account number so assigned to keep the cost experience of each carrier and the cost experience of each employer under the account number so assigned by calendar and policy year as above defined.

(9) In addition to the above, it shall be the duty of the division to keep the accident experience, as classified by the division, by industry as follows:

- (a) Cause of the injury;
- (b) Nature of the injury, and
- (c) Type of disability.

(10) In every case where the duration of disability exceeds 30 days, the carrier shall establish a sufficient reserve to pay all benefits to which the injured employee, or in case of death, his dependents, may be entitled to under the law. In establishing the reserve, consideration shall be given to the nature of the injury, the probable period of disability, and the estimated cost of medical benefits.

(11) The division shall furnish to any employer or carrier, upon request, its individual experience. The division shall furnish to the Department of Insurance, upon request, the Florida experience as developed under policy year or calendar year.

(12) In addition to any other penalties provided by this law, the failure to submit any report or other information required by this law shall be just cause to suspend the right of a self-insurer to operate as such; or, upon certification by the division to the Department of Insurance that a carrier has failed or refused to furnish such reports shall be just cause for the Department of Insurance to suspend or revoke the license of such carrier.

Note.—The cross-reference "440.38(3)(a)" was substituted for "440.38(2)" by the editors to conform to renumbering.

440.52 Registration of insurance carriers; suspension or revocation of authority.—

(1) Each insurance carrier who desires to write such compensation insurance in compliance with this chapter shall be required, before writing such insurance, to register with the division and pay a registration fee of $100. This shall be deposited by the division in the fund created by s. 440.50.

(2) If the division finds, after due notice and a hearing at which the insurance carrier is entitled to be heard in person or by counsel and present evidence, that the insurance carrier has repeatedly failed to comply with its obligations under this chapter, the division may request the Department of Insurance to suspend or revoke the authorization of such insurance carrier to write workers' compensation insurance under this chapter. Such suspension or revocation shall not affect the liability of any such insurance carrier under policies in force prior to the suspension or revocation.

History.—s. 52, ch. 17481, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 5966(50); ss. 17, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 70-30; s. 1, ch. 70-439; s. 23, ch. 78-300; ss. 40, 124, ch. 79-40; s. 21, ch. 79-312.

440.53 Effect of unconstitutionality.—If any part of this chapter is adjudged unconstitutional by the courts, and such adjudication has the effect of invalidating any payment of compensation under this chapter, the period intervening between the time the injury was sustained and the time of such adjudication shall not be computed as a part of the time prescribed by law for the commencement of any action against the employer in respect of such injury; but the amount of any compensation paid under this chapter on account of such injury shall be deducted from the amount of damages awarded in such action in respect of such injury.

440.54 Violation of child labor law.—If the deputy commissioner determines that an injured employee at the time of an accident is a minor employed, permitted, or suffered to work in violation of any of the provisions of the child labor laws of Florida, the employer shall, in addition to the normal compensation and death benefits provided by this chapter, pay such additional compensation as the deputy commissioner may determine according to the circumstances of the case or the seriousness of the violation; however, the total compensation so payable shall not exceed double the amount otherwise payable under this chapter. The employer alone, and not the insurance carrier, shall be liable for the increased compensation or increased death benefits provided for by this section. Any provision in an insurance policy undertaking to protect an employer from such increased liability shall be void.

440.55 Proceedings against state.—Any person entitled to compensation benefits by reason of the injury or death of an employee of the state, its boards, bureaus, departments, agencies, or subdivisions employing labor, may maintain proceedings and actions at law against the state, its boards, bureaus, departments, agencies, and subdivisions, for such benefit, said proceedings and action at law to be in the same manner as provided herein with respect to other employers.

440.56 Safety rules and provisions; penalty.—

(1) Every employer as defined in s. 440.02 shall furnish employment which shall be safe for the employees therein, furnish and use safety devices and safeguards, adopt and use methods and processes reasonably adequate to render such an employment and place of employment safe, and do every other thing reasonably necessary to protect the life, health, and safety of such employees. As used in this section, the terms "safe" and "safety" as applied to any employment or place of employment shall mean such freedom from danger as is reasonably necessary for the protection of the life, health, and safety of employees or the public, including conditions and methods of sanitation and hygiene. Safety devices and safeguards required to be furnished by the employer by the provisions of this section or by the division under authority of this section shall not include personal apparel and protective devices that replace personal apparel normally worn by employees during regular working hours.

(2) The division shall have the power, jurisdiction and authority:

(a) To investigate and prescribe what safety devices, safeguards or other means of protection shall be adopted for the prevention of accidents in every employment or place of employment, and to determine what suitable devices, safeguards, or other means of protection for the prevention of industrial or occupational diseases shall be adopted or followed in any or all such employments, or places of employment, and to make, amend or repeal reasonable rules for the prevention of accidents and the prevention of industrial or occupational diseases.

(b) To ascertain, fix, and order such reasonable standards and rules for the construction, repair and maintenance of places of employment as shall render them safe. Such rules and standards shall be adopted in accordance with chapter 120.

(3) The division and its authorized representatives shall have the power and authority to enter at any reasonable time any place of employment for the purpose of examining any tool, appliance, or machinery used in such employment and of making inspections for the proper enforcement of this section. No employer or owner shall refuse to admit any member of the division or its authorized representatives to any place of employment.

(4) All insurance carriers writing workers' compensation insurance in this state and all employers qualifying as self-insurers under ss. 440.38 and 440.57 shall provide safety consultations to each of their policyholders requesting such consultations. All such carriers and self-insurers shall inform their policyholders of the availability of such consultations and shall report annually on their safety programs and consultations to the division in such form and at such time as the division shall prescribe. The division shall be responsible for approving all safety programs. The division shall aid all insurance carriers and self-insurers in establishing their safety programs by setting out guidelines in an appropriate format. In addition, the division may approve a safety program submitted to it by a carrier or self-insurer.

(5) If any employer violates or fails or refuses to comply with any reasonable rule adopted by the division, in accordance with chapter 120, for the prevention of accidents or industrial or occupational diseases or any lawful order of the division in connection with the provisions of this section or fails or refuses to furnish or adopt any safety device, safeguard, or other means of protection prescribed by the division pursuant to this section for the prevention of accidents or industrial or occupational diseases, after the employer has been given reasonable notice in writing by the division or its authorized representative, not less than 15 days prior thereto, of the specific violation, omission, failure, or refusal charged by the division, or its authorized representative, the division, after notice and hearing in accordance with chapter 120, may assess against such employer a civil penalty of not less than $20 nor more than $100. Each day such violation, omission, failure, or refusal continues after the employer has been given notice thereof in writing as herein provided shall be deemed a continuing violation, and the penalty may not exceed $1,000. The hearing shall be held in the county where the violation, omission, failure, or refusal is alleged to have occurred, unless otherwise agreed to by the employer and authorized by the division.

(6) In estimating the amounts necessary for the administration of this chapter, in accordance with s. 440.51, the division shall also include estimates of the amounts necessary for the administration of this section which shall be made in the manner set forth in s. 440.51; and such amounts as may be needed to administer this section shall be disbursed from the fund established pursuant to s. 440.50 in the manner therein provided. If this subsection or the application of such funds to the administration of this section be declared invalid for any reason, the validity of ss. 440.50 and 440.51 as applied to the provisions of this chapter other than this section shall not be affected thereby.

(7) The division shall appoint and fix the salary of a full-time administrator of industrial safety, who shall be appointed in accordance with the provisions of s. 440.44(4); however, no person shall be appointed to such position unless he either has a degree from a recognized college of engineering and the equivalent of 8 full years' experience in safety engineering or has had the equivalent of 10 full years' experience in safety engineering. It shall be the duty of the administrator of industrial safety, under the direction and supervision of the division, to enforce the safety provisions of this chapter and all rules and regulations adopted by the division pursuant to this section.

(8) The division shall cooperate with the Federal Government so that duplicate inspections will be avoided yet assure safe places of employment for the citizens of this state.

440.57 Pooling liabilities.—

(1) The division shall adopt rules permitting two or more employers to enter into agreements to pool their liabilities under this chapter for the purpose of qualifying as a group self-insurer's fund, which shall be classified as a self-insurer, and each employer member of such approved group shall be known as a group self-insurer's fund member and shall be classified as a self-insurer as defined in this chapter. The agreement entered into under this section may provide that the pool shall be liable for 80 percent, and the employer member shall be liable for 20 percent, of the medical benefits due any employee for an injury compensable under this chapter up to the amount of $5,000. One hundred percent of the medical benefits above $5,000 due to an employee for one injury shall be paid by the pool. The agreement may also provide that each employer member shall be responsible for the first $100 of medical benefits due each of its employees for each injury. The claim shall be paid by the pool, regardless of its size, which shall be reimbursed by the employer for any amounts required to be paid by the employer under the agreement.

(2) The division shall adopt rules:

(a) Requiring monetary reserves to be maintained by such self-insurers to insure their financial solvency; and

(b) Governing their organization and operation to assure compliance with such requirements.

(3) The division shall promulgate rules implementing the reserve requirements in accordance with accepted actuarial techniques.

(4) Any self-insurer established under this section, except for self-insurers which are state or local governmental entities, shall be required to carry reinsurance in accordance with rules promulgated by the division.

(5) The division may impose civil penalties not to exceed $100 per occurrence for violations of the provisions of this chapter or rules adopted pursuant hereto.

440.58 Self-insurer members; payment of delinquent premiums and assessments.—Upon petition of the trustees of the following self-insurers groups: Printing Industry Associates, Allied Gasoline Retailers Association, Florida Plumbing and Mechanical Contractors, Florida State Retailers Association, Automotive Industries of Florida, Florida Nurserymen and Growers Association, Florida Pest Control Association, Florida Wholesalers Association, Florida Electrical Contractors, Florida Home Builders, Florida Restaurant Association, and Florida Nursing Home Association, who entered into agreements with Robert F. Coleman of Florida, Inc., as servicing agent, or any other self-insurers groups similarly situated, the division shall enter its order requiring the employer members and former members of said groups liable therefor to pay all delinquent premiums and all necessary assessments, such payments to be paid to the division and by it disbursed to said trustees to be used for the payment of workers' compensation claims and related compensation expenses.

440.59 Risk management report.—The Division of Workers' Compensation of the Department of Labor and Employment Security shall complete on a quarterly basis an analysis of the previous quarter's injuries which resulted in workers' compensation claims. The analysis shall be broken down by risk classification, shall show for each such risk classification the frequency and severity for the various types of injury, and shall include an analysis of the causes of such injuries. The division shall distribute to each employer and self-insurer in the state covered by the Workers' Compensation Law the data relevant to its work force. The report shall also be distributed to the insurers authorized to write workers' compensation insurance in the state.

CHAPTER 441

EMPLOYEES TRUST BENEFIT PLANS

441.01 Trust for employees.

441.02 Trust for self-employed individuals and others.

441.01 Trust for employees.—A trust created by an employer as part of a stock bonus plan, pension plan, disability or death benefit plan, or profit sharing plan, for the exclusive benefit of some or all of his employees, to which contributions are made by such employer or employees, or both for the purpose of distributing to such employees the earnings or the principal, or both earnings and principal, of the fund so held in trust, shall not be deemed to be invalid as violating any existing law against perpetuities or suspension of the power of alienation of title to property; but such a trust may continue for such time as may be necessary to accomplish the purposes for which it may be created.

History.—s. 1, ch. 29948, 1955.

441.02 Trust for self-employed individuals and others.—No trust created under a retirement plan for which provision has been made under the laws of the United States exempting such trust from federal income tax shall be deemed to be invalid as violating any existing laws against perpetuities or suspension of the power of alienation of title to property or the accumulation of income; but such a trust may continue for such time as may be necessary to accomplish the purposes for which it may be created, may be permitted to accumulate the income until such time as such income shall become distributable to the beneficiary or beneficiaries under the terms of the trust and may according to its terms be made irrevocable and the interests of its beneficiary or beneficiaries therein may be made nontransferable by assignment or otherwise.

443.01 Short title.—This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the "Unemployment Compensation Law."

History.—s. 2, ch. 18402, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 4151(488).

443.02 Declaration of public policy.—As a guide to the interpretation and application of this chapter, the public policy of this state is declared to be as follows: Economic insecurity due to unemployment is a serious menace to the health, morals, and welfare of the people of this state. Unemployment is therefore a subject of general interest and concern which requires appropriate action by the Legislature to prevent its spread and to lighten its burden which now so often falls with crushing force upon the unemployed worker and his family. The achievement of social security requires protection against this greatest hazard of our economic life. This objective can be furthered by operating free public employment offices in affiliation with a nationwide system of employment services, by devising appropriate methods for reducing the volume of unemployment and by the systematic accumulation of funds during the periods of employment from which benefits may be paid for periods of unemployment thus maintaining purchasing power and limiting the serious social consequences of unemployment. The Legislature, therefore, declares that in its considered judgment the public good, and the general welfare of the citizens of this state require the enactment of this measure, under the police power of the state, for the establishment and maintenance of free public employment offices and for the compulsory setting aside of unemployment reserves to be used for the benefit of persons unemployed through no fault of their own, subject, however, to the specific provisions of this chapter.

History.—s. 1, ch. 18402, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 4151(489); s. 1, ch. 20685, 1941.

443.03 Definitions.—As used in this chapter, unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

(1) "Base period" means the first 4 of the last 5 completed calendar quarters immediately preceding the first day of an individual's benefit year.

(2) "Benefits" means the money payable to an individual, as provided in this chapter, with respect to his unemployment.

(3) "Benefit year," with respect to any individual, means the 1-year period beginning with the first day of the first week with respect to which the individual first files a valid claim for benefits, and thereafter, the 1-year period beginning with the first day of the first week with respect to which the individual next files a valid claim for benefits, after the termination of his last preceding benefit year. Any claim for benefits made in accordance with s. 443.07(2) shall be deemed to be a "valid claim" for the purposes of this subsection if the individual has been paid wages for insured work in accordance with the provision of s. 443.05(1)(e) and is unemployed as defined in paragraph (12)(a) of this section at the time of the filing of such claim. Provided, however, that the division may in its discretion provide by regulation for the establishment of a uniform benefit year for all workers in one or more groups or classes of service or within a particular industry when and if it has been determined by the division, after notice to the industry and to the workers in such industry and an opportunity to be heard in the matter, that such groups or classes of workers in a particular industry periodically experience unemployment resulting from layoffs or shutdowns for limited periods of time.

(4) "Calendar quarter" means the period of 3 consecutive calendar months ending on March 31, June 30, September 30, and December 31, excluding, however, any calendar quarter or portion thereof which occurs prior to January 1, 1938, or the equivalent thereof as the division may by regulation prescribe.

(5) "Employment," subject to the other provisions of this chapter, means any service performed by an employee for the person employing him.

(a) The term "employment" shall include any service performed prior to January 1, 1978, which was employment as defined in this subsection prior to such date and, subject to the other provisions of this subsection, service performed after December 31, 1977, including service in interstate commerce, by:

1. Any officer of a corporation.

2. Any individual who, under the usual common law rules applicable in determining the employer-employee relationship, has the status of an employee.

3. Any individual other than an individual who is an employee under subparagraph 1. or subparagraph 2., who performs services for remuneration for any person:

a. As an agent-driver or commission-driver engaged in distributing meat products, vegetable products, fruit products, bakery products, beverages (other than milk), or laundry or drycleaning services for his principal.

b. As a traveling or city salesman, other than as an agent-driver or commission-driver, engaged on a full-time basis in the solicitation on behalf of, and the transmission to, his principal (except for sideline sales activities on behalf of some other person) of orders from wholesalers, retailers, contractors, or operators of hotels, restaurants, or other similar establishments for merchandise for resale or supplies for use in their business operations.

For purposes of subparagraph (a)3., the term "employment" shall include services described in a. and b. above and performed after December 31, 1971, only if:

(I) The contract of service contemplates that substantially all of the services are to be performed personally by such individual;

(II) The individual does not have a substantial investment in facilities used in connection with the performance of the services (other than in facilities for transportation); and

(III) The services are not in the nature of a single transaction that is not part of a continuing relationship with the person for whom the services are performed.

(b) The term "employment" shall include:

1. Service performed after December 31, 1971, by an individual in the employ of this state or any of its instrumentalities (or in the employ of this state and one or more other states or their instrumentalities) for a hospital or institution of higher education located in this state, provided such service is excluded from "employment" as defined in the Federal Unemployment Tax Act solely by reason of s. 3306(c)(7) of that act and is not excluded from "employment" under paragraph (d) of this subsection.

a. "Institution of higher education," for the purposes of this section, means an educational institution which:

(I) Admits as regular students only individuals having a certificate of graduation from a high school, or the recognized equivalent of such a certificate;

(II) Is legally authorized in this state to provide a program of education beyond high school;

(III) Provides an educational program for which it awards a bachelor's or higher degree, or provides a program which is acceptable for full credit toward such a degree, a program of postgraduate or postdoctoral studies, or a program of training to prepare students for gainful employment in a recognized occupation; and

(IV) Is a public or other nonprofit institution.

Notwithstanding any of the foregoing provisions of this subsection, all colleges and universities in this state and recognized as such by this state are institutions of higher education for purposes of this section.

b. "Hospital" means an institution which has been licensed, certified, or approved by the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services as a hospital.

2. Service performed after December 31, 1971, and prior to January 1, 1978, in the employ of this state or any of its wholly owned instrumentalities, provided such service is excluded from "employment" as defined in s. 3306(c)(7) of the Federal Unemployment Tax Act and is not excluded from "employment" under paragraph (d) of this subsection.

3. Service performed after December 31, 1973, and prior to January 1, 1978, in the employ of any political subdivision of this state or any instrumentality thereof, provided such service is excluded from "employment" as defined in s. 3306(c)(7) of the Federal Unemployment Tax Act and is not excluded from "employment" under paragraph (d) of this subsection.

4. Service performed after December 31, 1977, in the employ of this state or any of its instrumentalities or any political subdivision thereof or any of its instrumentalities, any instrumentality of more than one of the foregoing, or any instrumentality of any of the foregoing and one or more other states or political subdivisions, provided such service is excluded from "employment" as defined in s. 3306(c)(7) of the Federal Unemployment Tax Act and is not excluded from "employment" under paragraph (d) of this subsection.

(c) The term "employment" shall include service performed after December 31, 1971, by an individual in the employ of a religious, charitable, educational or other organization, but only if the following conditions are met:

1. The service is excluded from "employment" as defined in the Federal Unemployment Tax Act solely by reason of s. 3306(c)(8) of that act; and

2. The organization had four or more individuals in employment for some portion of a day in each of 20 different weeks, whether or not such weeks were consecutive, within either the current or preceding calendar year, regardless of whether they were employed at the same moment of time.

(d) For the purposes of paragraphs (b) and (c), the term "employment" does not apply to service performed:

1. In the employ of:

a. A church or convention or association of churches.

b. An organization which is operated primarily for religious purposes and which is operated, supervised, controlled, or principally supported by a church or convention or association of churches.

2. By a duly ordained, commissioned, or licensed minister of a church in the exercise of his ministry or by a member of a religious order in the exercise of duties required by such order.

3. Prior to January 1, 1978, in the employ of a nonprofit educational institution which is not an institution of higher education and which would otherwise be employment as defined in paragraph (c) of this subsection.

4. After December 1, 1971, in the employ of a governmental entity referred to in subparagraph (b)2., and after December 31, 1973, in the employ of a governmental entity referred to in subparagraph (b)3., and after December 31, 1977, in the employ of a governmental entity referred to in subparagraph (b)4., if such service is performed by an individual in the exercise of duties:

- a. As an elected official.
- b. As a member of a legislative body, or a member of the judiciary, of a state or political subdivision.
- c. As an employee serving on a temporary basis in case of fire, storm, snow, earthquake, flood, or similar emergency.
- d. In a position which, under or pursuant to the laws of this state, is designated as a major non-tenured policymaking or advisory position or a policymaking or advisory position, the performance of the duties of which ordinarily does not require more than 8 hours per week.

5. In a facility conducted for the purpose of carrying out a program of rehabilitation for individuals whose earning capacity is impaired by age or physical or mental deficiency or injury or providing remunerative work for individuals who, because of their impaired physical or mental capacity, cannot be readily absorbed in the competitive labor market, by an individual receiving such rehabilitation or remunerative work.

6. As part of an unemployment work-relief or work-training program assisted or financed in whole or in part by any federal agency or an agency of a state or political subdivision thereof, by an individual receiving such work relief or work training, except that this subparagraph does not apply to unemployment work-relief or work-training programs for which unemployment compensation coverage is required under a federal law, rule, or regulation.

7. Prior to January 1, 1978, for a hospital in a state prison or other state correctional institution by an inmate of the prison or correctional institution, and after December 31, 1977, by an inmate of a custodial or penal institution.

(e) The term "employment" shall include an individual's entire service, performed within or both within and without this state if:

1. The service is localized in this state; or
2. The service is not localized in any state, but some of the service is performed in this state and
  - a. The base of operations, or, if there is no base of operations, then the place from which such service is directed or controlled, is in this state, or
  - b. The base of operations or place from which such service is directed or controlled is not in any state in which some part of the service is performed, but the individual's residence is in this state.

(f) Services not covered under subparagraph (e)2. of this subsection and performed entirely without this state, with respect to no part of which contributions are required and paid under an unemployment compensation law of any other state or of the Federal Government, shall be deemed to be employment subject to this chapter if the individual performing such services is a resident of this state and the division approves the election of the employing unit for whom such services are performed that the entire service of such individual shall be deemed to be employment subject to this chapter.

(g) Service shall be deemed to be localized within a state if:

1. The service is performed entirely within such state; or
2. The service is performed both within and without such state, but the service performed without such state is incidental to the individual's service within the state; for example, it is temporary or transitory in nature or consists of isolated transactions.

(h) The term "employment" shall include services covered by an arrangement pursuant to s. 443.18 between the division and the agency charged with the administration of any other state or Federal Unemployment Compensation Law, pursuant to which all services performed by an individual for an employing unit are deemed to be performed entirely within this state, if the division has approved an election of the employing unit for which such services are performed, pursuant to which the entire service of such individual during the period covered by such election is deemed to be insured work.

(i)1. The term "employment" shall include the service of an individual who is a citizen of the United States, performed outside the United States (except in Canada and in the case of the Virgin Islands, after December 31, 1971, and before January 1 of the year following the year in which the United States Secretary of Labor approves the Virgin Islands' unemployment compensation law for the first time under s. 3304(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954) in the employ of an American employer (other than service which is deemed "employment" under the provisions of paragraphs (b) or (c) of this subsection or the parallel provisions of another state's law), if:

- a. The employer's principal place of business in the United States is located in this state.
- b. The employer has no place of business in the United States, but:

(I) The employer is an individual who is a resident of this state.

(II) The employer is a corporation which is organized under the laws of this state.

(III) The employer is a partnership or a trust and the number of the partners or trustees who are residents of this state is greater than the number who are residents of any one other state.

c. None of the criteria of subparagraphs 1. and 2. of this paragraph is met, but the employer has elected coverage in this state, or, the employer having failed to elect coverage in any state, the individual has filed a claim for benefits, based on such service, under the law of this state.

2. An "American employer," for purposes of this paragraph, means:

- a. An individual who is a resident of the United States.
- b. A partnership, if two-thirds or more of the partners are residents of the United States.
- c. A trust, if all of the trustees are residents of the United States.
- d. A corporation organized under the laws of the United States or of any state.

3. The term "United States" includes the states, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, and, effective 1 day after the United States Secretary of Labor approves its unemployment compensation law for the first time under s. 3304(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, the term shall include the Virgin Islands.

(j)1. The term "employment" shall also include all service performed by an officer or member of a crew of an American vessel or American aircraft on or in connection with such vessel or aircraft, provided that the operating office, from which the operations of such vessel or aircraft operating within or within and without the United States is ordinarily and regularly supervised, managed, directed, and controlled, is within this state.

2. The term "American vessel" means any vessel documented or numbered under the laws of the United States; and includes any vessel which is neither documented or numbered under the laws of the United States nor documented under the laws of any foreign country, if its crew is employed solely by one or more citizens or residents of the United States or corporations organized under the laws of the United States or of any state.

3. The term "American aircraft" means an aircraft registered under the laws of the United States.

(k) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this subsection, service with respect to which a tax is required to be paid under any federal law imposing a tax against which credit may be taken for contributions required to be paid into a state unemployment fund or which as a condition for full tax credit against the tax imposed by the Federal Unemployment Tax Act is required to be covered under this act.

(l) The term "employment" shall not include:

1. Service performed by an individual in agricultural labor, except as provided in paragraph (n) of this subsection; however, the provisions of paragraph (n) of this subsection shall not reduce the coverage provided under sub-subparagraph d.(III) of this subparagraph. For purposes of this subparagraph, the term "agricultural labor" means any service performed prior to January 1, 1972, which was agricultural labor as defined in this subparagraph prior to such date, and remunerated service performed after December 31, 1971:

a. On a farm, in the employ of any person, in connection with cultivating the soil, or in connection with raising or harvesting any agricultural or horticultural commodity, including the raising, shearing, feeding, caring for, training, and management of livestock, bees, poultry, and fur-bearing animals and wildlife.

b. In the employ of the owner or tenant or other operator of a farm, in connection with the operation, management, conservation, improvement, or maintenance of such farm and its tools and equipment, or in salvaging timber or clearing land of brush and other debris left by a hurricane, if the major part of such service is performed on a farm.

c. In connection with the production or harvesting of any commodity defined as an agricultural commodity in s. 15(g) of the Agricultural Marketing

Act, as amended (46 Stat. 1550, s. 3; 12 U.S.C. s. 114j) or in connection with the ginning of cotton, or in connection with the operation or maintenance of ditches, canals, reservoirs, or waterways, not owned or operated for profit, used exclusively for supplying and storing water for farming purposes.

d.(I) In the employ of the operator of a farm in handling, planting, drying, packing, packaging, processing, freezing, grading, storing, or delivering to storage or to market or to a carrier for transportation to market, in its unmanufactured state, any agricultural or horticultural commodity; but only if such operator produced more than one-half of the commodity with respect to which such service is performed.

(II) In the employ of a group of operators of farms (or a cooperative organization of which such operators are members) in the performance of service described in sub-sub-subparagraph (I), but only if such operators produced more than one-half of the commodity with respect to which such service is performed.

(III) The provisions of sub-sub-subparagraphs (I) and (II) shall not be deemed to be applicable with respect to service performed in connection with commercial canning or commercial freezing or in connection with any agricultural or horticultural commodity after its delivery to a terminal market for distribution for consumption or in connection with grading, packing, packaging, or processing fresh citrus fruits.

e. On a farm operated for profit if such service is not in the course of the employer's trade or business.

f. As used in this paragraph, the term "farm" includes stock, dairy, poultry, fruit, fur-bearing animal, and truck farms, plantations, ranches, nurseries, ranges, greenhouses, or other similar structures used primarily for the raising of agricultural or horticultural commodities, and orchards.

2. Domestic service in a private home, local college club, or local chapter of a college fraternity or sorority, except as provided in paragraph (o) of this subsection.

3. Casual labor not in the course of the employer's trade or business. For the purposes of this subsection "casual labor" shall mean labor which is occasional, incidental, or irregular, not exceeding 200 man-hours in total duration. Duration shall mean the period of time from the commencement to the completion of the particular job or project; however, services performed by an employee for his employer during a period of 1 calendar month or any 2 consecutive calendar months shall be deemed to be casual labor only if such service is performed on not more than 10 calendar days, whether or not such days are consecutive. If any of the services of an individual on a particular labor project are not casual labor as defined, then none of the services of such individual on such job or project shall be deemed casual labor. "Not in the course of the employer's trade or business" shall mean that which does not promote or advance the trade or business of the employer. In order for services to be exempt under this subsection, such services shall constitute casual labor, as defined, and not in the course of the employer's trade or business, as defined.

4. Service performed on or in connection with a vessel or aircraft not an American vessel or American aircraft, if the employee is employed on and in connection with such vessel or aircraft when outside the United States.

5. Service performed by an individual in (or as an officer or member of the crew of a vessel while it is engaged in) the catching, taking, harvesting, cultivating, or farming of any kind of fish, shellfish, crustacea, sponges, seaweeds, or other aquatic forms of animal and vegetable life (including service performed by any such individual as an ordinary incident to any such activity), except:

a. Service performed in connection with the catching or taking of salmon or halibut, for commercial purposes.

b. Service performed on, or in connection with, a vessel of more than 10 net tons (determined in the manner provided for determining the register tonnage of merchant vessels under the laws of the United States).

6. Service performed by an individual in the employ of his son, daughter, or spouse, and service performed by a child under the age of 18 in the employ of his father or mother.

7. Service performed in the employ of the United States Government or of an instrumentality of the United States which is:

a. Wholly or partially owned by the United States.

b. Exempt from the tax imposed by s. 3301 of the Internal Revenue Code by virtue of any provision of federal law which specifically refers to such section (or the corresponding section of prior law) in granting such exemption; except that to the extent that the Congress shall permit states to require any instrumentalities of the United States to make payments into an unemployment fund under a state unemployment compensation law, all of the provisions of this law shall be applicable to such instrumentalities, and to services performed for such instrumentalities, in the same manner, to the same extent, and on the same terms as to all other employers, employing units, individuals, and services. If this state shall not be certified for any year by the Secretary of Labor under s. 3304 of the Federal Internal Revenue Code, the payments required of such instrumentalities with respect to such year shall be refunded by the division from the fund in the same manner and within the same period as is provided in s. 443.15(6) with respect to contributions erroneously collected.

8. Service performed in the employ of a state, or any political subdivision thereof, or any instrumentality of any one or more of the foregoing which is wholly owned by one or more states or political subdivisions, except as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection, and any service performed in the employ of any instrumentality of one or more state or political subdivisions, to the extent that the instrumentality is, with respect to such service, immune under the Constitution of the United States from the tax imposed by s. 3301 of the Internal Revenue Code.

9. Service performed in the employ of a corporation, community chest, fund, or foundation, organized and operated exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, testing for public safety, literary, or educational purposes, or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals, no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual, no substantial part of the activities of which is carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and which does not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distributing of statements), any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office, except as provided in paragraph (c) of this subsection.

10. Service with respect to which unemployment compensation is payable under an unemployment compensation system established by an Act of Congress.

11.a. Service performed in any calendar quarter in the employ of any organization exempt from income tax under s. 501(a) of the Internal Revenue Code (other than an organization described in s. 401(a)), or under s. 521, if the remuneration for such service is less than $50.

b. Service performed in the employ of a school, college, or university, if such service is performed by a student who is enrolled and is regularly attending classes at such school, college, or university.

12. Services performed in the employ of a foreign government (including service as a consular or other officer or employee of a nondiplomatic representative).

13. Service performed in the employ of an instrumentality wholly owned by a foreign government:

a. If the service is of a character similar to that performed in foreign countries by employees of the United States Government or of an instrumentality thereof; and

b. The Secretary of State shall certify to the Secretary of the Treasury that the foreign government, with respect to whose instrumentality exemption is claimed, grants an equivalent exemption with respect to similar service performed in the foreign country by employees of the United States Government and of instrumentalities thereof.

14. Service performed as a student nurse in the employ of a hospital or a nurses' training school by an individual who is enrolled and is regularly attending classes in a nurses' training school chartered or approved pursuant to a state law; service performed as an intern in the employ of a hospital by an individual who has completed a 4-year course in a medical school chartered or approved pursuant to state law; and service performed by a patient of a hospital for such hospital.

15. Service performed by an individual for a person as an insurance agent or as an insurance solicitor, if all such service performed by such individual for such person is performed for remuneration solely by way of commission.

16. Service performed by an individual for a person as a real estate salesman or agent, if all such service performed by such individual for such person is performed for remuneration solely by way of commission.

17. Service performed by an individual under the age of 18 in the delivery or distribution of newspapers or shopping news, not including delivery or distribution to any point for subsequent delivery or distribution.

18. Service covered by an arrangement between the division and the agency charged with the administration of any other state or federal unemployment compensation law pursuant to which all services performed by an individual for an employing unit during the period covered by such employing unit's duly approved election are deemed to be performed entirely within such agency's state or under such federal law.

19. Service performed by an individual under the age of 22 who is enrolled at a nonprofit or public educational institution which normally maintains a regular faculty and curriculum and normally has a regularly organized body of students in attendance at the place where its education activities are carried on as a student in a full-time program, taken for credit at such institution, which combines academic instruction with work experience, if such service is an integral part of such program, and such institution has so certified to the employer, except that this subparagraph shall not apply to service performed in a program established for or on behalf of an employer or group of employers.

20. Service performed by an individual for a person as a barber, if all such service performed by such individual for such person is performed for remuneration solely by way of commission.

(m) If the services performed during one-half or more of any pay period by an employee for the person employing him constitute employment, all of the services of such employee for such period shall be deemed to be employment; but if the services performed during more than one-half of any such pay period by an employee for the person employing him do not constitute employment, then none of the services of such employee for such period shall be deemed to be employment. As used in this subsection the term "pay period" means a period (of not more than 31 consecutive days) for which a payment of remuneration is ordinarily made to the employee by the person employing him. This subsection shall not be applicable with respect to services performed in a pay period by an employee for the person employing him, where any of such service is excepted by subparagraph 9. of paragraph (l).

(n) The term "employment" shall include service performed after December 31, 1977, by an individual in agricultural labor as defined in subparagraph (1)1. of this subsection, when:

1. Such service is performed for a person who:

a. During any calendar quarter in either the current or the preceding calendar year paid remuneration in cash of $20,000 or more to individuals employed in agricultural labor (not taking into account service in agricultural labor performed before January 1, 1980, by an alien referred to in subparagraph 2. of this paragraph).

b. For some portion of a day in each of 20 different calendar weeks, whether or not such weeks were consecutive, in either the current or the preceding calendar year, employed in agricultural labor (not taking into account service in agricultural labor performed before January 1, 1980, by an alien referred to in subparagraph 2. of this paragraph) 10 or more individuals, regardless of whether they were employed at the same moment of time.

2. Such service is performed in agricultural labor if performed after December 31, 1979, by an individual who is an alien admitted to the United States to perform service in agricultural labor pursuant to ss. 214(c) and 101(a)(15)(H) of the Immigration and Nationality Act. Service performed in agricultural labor by an alien individual as described in this subparagraph shall not be considered employment if such service is performed prior to January 1, 1980.

3. Such service is performed by any individual who is a member of a crew furnished by a crew leader to perform service in agricultural labor for any other person.

a. For purposes of this subparagraph, a crew member shall be treated as an employee of the crew leader:

(I) If the crew leader holds a valid certificate of registration under the Farm Labor Contractor Registration Act of 1963 or substantially all of the members of the crew operate or maintain tractors, mechanized harvesting or crop-dusting equipment, or any other mechanized equipment which is provided by the crew leader; and

(II) If such individual is not an employee of such other person within the meaning of paragraph (5)(a).

b. For the purposes of this subparagraph, in the case of an individual who is furnished by a crew leader to perform service in agricultural labor for any other person and who is not treated as an employee of the crew leader under sub-subparagraph a.:

(I) Such other person and not the crew leader shall be treated as the employer of such individual; and

(II) Such other person shall be treated as having paid cash remuneration to such individual in an amount equal to the amount of cash remuneration paid to such individual by the crew leader (either on his own behalf or on the behalf of such other person) for the service in agricultural labor performed for such other person.

c. For the purposes of this subparagraph, the term "crew leader" means an individual who:

(I) Furnishes individuals to perform service in agricultural labor for any other person;

(II) Pays (either on his own behalf or on behalf of such other person) the individuals so furnished by him for the service in agricultural labor performed by them; and

(III) Has not entered into a written agreement with such other person under which such individual is designated as an employee of such other person.

(o) The term "employment" shall include domestic service after December 31, 1977, in a private home, local college club, or local chapter of a college fraternity or sorority performed for a person who paid cash remuneration of $1,000 or more after December 31, 1977, in any calendar quarter in the current calendar year or the preceding calendar year to individuals employed in such domestic service.

(6) "Employing unit" means: Any individual or type of organization, including any partnership, association, trust, estate, joint-stock company, insurance company or corporation, whether domestic or foreign, or the receiver, trustee in bankruptcy, trustee or successor of any of the foregoing, or the legal representative of a deceased person, which has or subsequent to January 1, 1936, had in its employ one or more individuals performing services for it within this state.

(a) Each individual employed to perform or to assist in performing the work of any agent or employee of an employing unit shall be deemed to be employed by such employing unit for all the purposes of this chapter, whether such individual was hired or paid directly by such employing unit or by such agent or employee, provided the employing unit had actual or constructive knowledge of the work.

(b) All individuals performing services within this state for any employing unit which maintains two or more separate establishments within this state shall be deemed to be performing services for a single employing unit for all the purposes of this chapter.

(c) Any person who is an officer of a corporation and who performs services for such corporation within this state, whether or not such services are continuous, shall be deemed an employee of the corporation during all of each week of his tenure of office, regardless of whether or not he is compensated for such services. Services shall be presumed to have been rendered the corporation in cases where such officer is compensated by other than dividends upon shares of stock of such corporation owned by him.

(7) "Employer" means:

(a) Any employing unit which, after December 31, 1971:

1. In any calendar quarter in either the current or preceding calendar year paid for service in employment wages of $1500 or more; or

2. For any portion of a day in each of 20 different calendar weeks, whether or not such weeks were consecutive, in either the current or the preceding calendar year, had in employment at least one individual (irrespective of whether the same individual was in employment in each such day).

(b) Any employing unit for which service in employment, as defined in paragraph (5)(b), is performed, except as provided in paragraph (e) of this subsection.

(c) Any employing unit for which service in employment, as defined in paragraph (5)(c), is performed after December 31, 1971, except as provided in paragraph (e) of this subsection.

(d)1. Any employing unit for which agricultural labor, as defined in paragraph (5)(n), is performed after December 31, 1977.

2. Any employing unit for which domestic service in employment, as defined in paragraph (5)(o), is performed after December 31, 1977.

(e)1. In determining whether or not an employing unit for which service other than domestic service is also performed is an employer under paragraph (a), (b), (c), or (d)1. of this subsection, the wages earned or the employment of an employee performing domestic service after December 31, 1977, shall not be taken into account.

2. In determining whether or not an employing unit for which service other than agricultural labor is also performed is an employer under paragraph

(a), (b), (c), or (d)2. of this subsection, the wages earned or the employment of an employee performing service in agricultural labor after December 31, 1977, shall not be taken into account. If an employing unit is determined to be an employer of agricultural labor, the employing unit shall be determined an employer for the purposes of paragraph (a) of this subsection.

(f) Any individual or employing unit which acquired the organization, trade, or business, or substantially all the assets thereof, of another which at the time of such acquisition was an employer subject to this chapter or which acquired a part of the organization, trade, or business of another which at the time of such acquisition was an employer subject to this chapter, provided such other would have been an employer under paragraph (a) of this subsection if such part had constituted its entire organization, trade, or business.

(g) Any individual or employing unit which acquired the organization, trade, or business, or substantially all the assets thereof, of another employing unit, if the employment record of the predecessor prior to such acquisition together with the employment record of such individual or employing unit subsequent to such acquisition, both within the same calendar year, would be sufficient to render an employing unit subject to this chapter as an employer under paragraph (a) of this subsection.

(h) Any employing unit not an employer by reason of any other paragraph of this subsection:

1. For which, within either the current or preceding calendar year, service is or was performed with respect to which such employing unit is liable for any federal tax against which credit may be taken for contributions required to be paid into a state unemployment fund.

2. Which, as a condition for approval of this chapter for full tax credit against the tax imposed by the Federal Unemployment Tax Act, is required pursuant to such act, to be an "employer" under this chapter.

(i) Any employing unit which has become an employer under paragraphs (a), (b), (c), (d), (e), (f), (g), or (h) of this subsection, and has not ceased to be an employer subject to this chapter, as provided in s. 443.09.

(j) For the effective period of its election, any other employing unit which has elected to become subject to this chapter.

(k) Any employing unit which fails to keep the records of employment required by this chapter and by the regulations of the division shall be presumed to be an employer liable for the payment of contributions pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, regardless of the number of individuals employed by such employing unit. However, the division shall make written demand that such employing unit keep and maintain required payroll records, and such demand shall have been made not less than 6 months before assessing contributions against any employing unit determined to have become an "employer" solely by reason of this paragraph.

For purposes of this subsection, if any week includes both December 31 and January 1, the days of that week up to January 1 shall be deemed 1 calendar week, and the days beginning January 1, another such week.

(8) "Fund" means the Unemployment Compensation Trust Fund created by this chapter, to which all contributions required and from which all benefits provided under this chapter shall be paid.

(9) "Contributions" means the money payments to the Unemployment Compensation Trust Fund, required by this chapter.

(10) "Employment office" means a free public employment office or branch thereof operated by this or any other state as a part of a state-controlled system of public employment offices or by a federal agency charged with the administration of an unemployment compensation program or free public employment offices.

(11) "State" includes the states of the United States, the District of Columbia, Canada, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, and, effective 1 day after the United States Secretary of Labor approves the unemployment compensation law of the Virgin Islands for the first time under s. 3304(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, the Virgin Islands.

(12) "Unemployment":

(a) An individual shall be deemed "totally unemployed" in any week during which he performs no services and with respect to which no wages are payable to him, or "partially unemployed" in any week of less than full-time work if the wages payable to him with respect to such week are less than his weekly benefit amount. The division shall prescribe regulations applicable to unemployed individuals making such distinctions in the procedures as to total unemployment, part-time unemployment, partial unemployment of individuals attached to their regular jobs, and other forms of short-time work, as the division deems necessary.

(b) An individual's week of unemployment shall be deemed to commence only after his registration at an employment office, except as the division may by regulations otherwise prescribe.

(13) "Wages":

(a) "Wages" means all remuneration paid for services from whatever source, including commissions and bonuses and the cash value of all remuneration paid in any medium other than cash. The reasonable cash value of remuneration in any medium other than cash shall be estimated and determined in accordance with rules prescribed by the division.

(b) The term "wages" shall not include:

1. That part of remuneration which, after remuneration equal to $4,200 prior to January 1, 1978, and $6,000 after December 31, 1977, has been paid in a calendar year to an individual by an employer or his predecessor with respect to employment during any calendar year, is paid to such individual by such employer during such calendar year, unless that part of the remuneration is subject to a tax, under a federal law imposing the tax, against which credit may be taken for contributions required to be paid into a state unemployment fund. For the purposes of this subsection, the term "employment" shall include services constituting employment under any employment security law of another state or of the Federal Government.

2. The amount of any payment, with respect to services performed, to, or on behalf of, an individual in its employ under a plan or system established by an employing unit which makes provision for individuals in its employ generally or for a class or classes of such individuals (including any amount paid by an employing unit for insurance or annuities, or into a fund, to provide for any such payment), on account of:

- a. Retirement.
- b. Sickness or accident disability.
- c. Medical and hospitalization expenses in connection with sickness or accident disability.
- d. Death, provided the individual in its employ:
  - (I) Has not the option to receive, instead of provision for such death benefit, any part of such payment or, if such death benefit is insured, any part of the premiums (or contributions to premiums) paid by his employing unit; and
  - (II) Has not the right, under the provisions of the plan or system or policy of insurance providing for such death benefit, to assign such benefit or to receive cash consideration in lieu of such benefit either upon his withdrawal from the plan or system providing for such benefit or upon termination of such plan or system or policy of insurance or of his services with such employing unit.

3. The payment by an employing unit (without deduction from the remuneration of the individual in its employ) of the tax imposed upon an individual in its employ under s. 3101 of the Federal Internal Revenue Code with respect to services performed after June 30, 1941.

(14) "Week" means such period of 7 consecutive days as the division may by regulation prescribe. The division may by regulation prescribe that a week shall be deemed to be "in," "within," or "during," that benefit year which includes the greater part of such week.

(15) "Insured work" means employment for employers.

(16)(a) "Commission" means the Unemployment Appeals Commission of the Department of Labor and Employment Security.

(b) "Division" means the Division of Employment Security of the Department of Labor and Employment Security.

(17) "Educational institution" means an institution (except an institution of higher education as defined in paragraph (5)(b)):

- (a) In which participants, trainees, or students are offered an organized course of study or training designed to transfer to them knowledge, skills, information, doctrines, attitudes, or abilities from, by, or under the guidance of, an instructor or teacher;
- (b) Which is approved, licensed, or issued a permit to operate as a school by the Department of Education or other government agency that is authorized within the state to approve, license, or issue a permit for the operation of a school; and
- (c) Which offers courses of study or training which are academic, technical, trade, or preparation for gainful employment in a recognized occupation.

(18) "Reimbursable employer" means an employer who is liable for payments in lieu of contributions as required by this chapter.

443.04 Payment of benefits.—

(1) MANNER OF PAYMENT.—On and after January 1, 1939, benefits shall become payable from the fund. All benefits shall be paid through claims offices in accordance with such regulations as the division may prescribe. However, each claimant shall report in person to a claims office to certify for benefits which are paid and shall continue to report at least biweekly to receive unemployment benefits and to attest to the fact that he is able and available for work, has not refused suitable work, is seeking work, and, if he has worked, to report earnings from such work, except in a case in which he has returned to work, in which case the last benefits check can be mailed on request of the claimant. The mailing of unemployment benefits to a claimant is specifically prohibited, except as provided in this subsection and in cases of interstate claims and checks claimants do not pick up on a designated day from the claims office. In accordance with rules promulgated under chapter 120, the division shall prescribe the criteria and procedures for mailing checks to claimants who fail to pick them up on the designated day from the claims office. Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to prohibit the division from instituting experimental and limited projects whereby claims checks are mailed; however, the division shall not implement such projects on a statewide basis until a report has been made to the Legislature, and the Legislature has approved such implementation.

(2) WEEKLY BENEFIT AMOUNT.—

(a) An individual's "weekly benefit amount" shall be an amount equal to one-half of his average weekly wage, but not less than $10 or more than $95. Such weekly benefit amount, if not a multiple of $1, shall be rounded off to the next higher multiple of $1. The provisions of this subsection apply only to benefit years beginning on and after July 1, 1979; however, no individual currently eligible for benefits shall be redetermined ineligible pursuant to this section.

(b) The average weekly wages of such individual shall be computed by dividing his total base period wages by the number of weeks in such base period in which he was paid wages for insured work. However, any individual shall be deemed to have been paid wages in the total number of weeks in his base period indicated in the reports submitted to the division by his base period employers but not more than 13 weeks in any calendar quarter.

(c) The provisions of this subsection as herein amended apply only to benefit years beginning on and after July 1, 1975; provided, that no individual currently eligible for benefits shall be redetermined ineligible pursuant to this section.

(3) WEEKLY BENEFIT FOR UNEMPLOYMENT.—

(a) Total.—Each eligible individual who is totally unemployed in any week shall be paid with respect to such week a benefit in an amount equal to his weekly benefit amount.

(b) Partial.—Each eligible individual who is partially unemployed in any week shall be paid with respect to such week a benefit in an amount equal to his weekly benefit less that part of the wages (if any) payable to him with respect to such week which is in excess of $5. Such benefits, if not a multiple of $1, shall be computed to the next higher multiple of $1.

(4) DURATION OF BENEFITS.—

(a)1. Any otherwise eligible individual shall be entitled during any benefit year to a total amount of benefits equal to the product of his weekly benefit amount and one-half the number of weeks in his base period in which he was paid wages for insured work; provided, that such total amount of benefits, if not a multiple of $1 shall be rounded off to the next higher multiple of $1.

2. For the purposes of this subsection, wages shall be counted as "wages for insured work" for benefit purposes with respect to any benefit year only if such benefit year begins subsequent to the date on which the employing unit by whom such wages were paid has satisfied the conditions of this chapter with respect to becoming an employer.

3. The provisions of this subsection as herein amended apply only to the benefit years beginning after June 30, 1960.

(b) If the remuneration of an individual is not based upon a fixed period or duration of time or if the individual's wages are paid at irregular intervals or in such manner as not to extend regularly over the period of employment, the wages for any week or for any calendar quarter for the purpose of computing an individual's right to employment benefits only shall be determined in such manner as may by regulations be prescribed. Such regulations, so far as possible, secure results reasonably similar to those which would prevail if the individual were paid his wages at regular intervals.

(5) EXTENDED BENEFITS.—

(a) Definitions.—As used in this subsection, unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

1. "Extended benefit period" means a period which:

a. Begins with the third week after whichever of the following weeks occurs first:

(I) A week for which there is a national "on" indicator; or

(II) A week for which there is a state "on" indicator; and

b. Ends with either of the following weeks, whichever occurs later:

(I) The third week after the first week for which there is both a national "off" indicator and a state "off" indicator; or

(II) The 13th consecutive week of such period.

However, no extended benefit period may begin by reason of a state "on" indicator before the 14th week following the end of a prior extended benefit period which was in effect with respect to this state, and no extended benefit period may become effective in this state prior to January 1, 1972.

2. With respect to weeks beginning after December 31, 1976, there is a "national 'on' indicator" for a week if, for the period consisting of such week and the 12 weeks immediately preceding it, the rate of insured unemployment (seasonally adjusted) for all states equaled or exceeded 4.5 percent. The rate of insured unemployment, for the purposes of this subparagraph, shall be determined by the United States Secretary of Labor by reference to the average monthly covered employment for the first 4 of the most recent 6 calendar quarters ending before the close of such period.

3. With respect to weeks beginning after December 31, 1976, there is a "national 'off' indicator" for a week if, for the period consisting of such week and the 12 weeks immediately preceding it, the rate of insured unemployment (seasonally adjusted) for all states was less than 4.5 percent. The rate of insured unemployment, for the purposes of this subparagraph, shall be determined by the United States Secretary of Labor by reference to the average monthly covered employment for the first 4 of the most recent 6 calendar quarters ending before the close of such period.

4. There is a "state 'on' indicator" for a week if the rate of insured unemployment (not seasonally adjusted) under the state law, for the period consisting of such week and the 12 weeks immediately preceding it:

a. Equaled or exceeded 120 percent of the average of such rates for the corresponding 13-week period ending in each of the preceding 2 calendar years; and

b. Equaled or exceeded 4 percent.

With respect to benefits for weeks of unemployment beginning after July 1, 1977, the determination of whether there has been a state "on" or "off" indicator beginning or ending any extended benefit period shall be made under this paragraph as if subparagraph 4. did not contain sub-subparagraph a. thereof and the figure "4" contained in sub-subparagraph b. thereof were "5"; except that, notwithstanding any provision of this paragraph, any week for which there would otherwise be a state "on" indicator shall continue to be such a week and shall not be determined to be a week for which there is a state "off" indicator.

5. There is a "state 'off' indicator" for a week if, for the period consisting of such week and the immediately preceding 12 weeks, either sub-subparagraph a. or b. of subparagraph 4. was not satisfied.

6. "Rate of insured unemployment," for purposes of subparagraphs 4. and 5. of this paragraph, means the percentage derived by dividing the average weekly number of individuals filing claims in this state for weeks of unemployment with respect to the most recent 13-consecutive-week period, as determined by the division on the basis of its reports to the United States Secretary of Labor, by the average monthly employment covered under this chapter for the first 4 of the most recent 6 completed calendar quarters ending before the end of such 13-week period.

7. "Regular benefits" means benefits payable to an individual under this chapter or under any other state law, including benefits payable to federal civilian employees and to ex-servicemen pursuant to 5 U.S.C. chapter 85, other than extended benefits.

8. "Extended benefits" means benefits, including benefits payable to federal civilian employees and to ex-servicemen pursuant to 5 U.S.C. chapter 85, payable to an individual under the provisions of this subsection for weeks of unemployment in his eligibility period.

9. "Eligibility period" of an individual means the period consisting of the weeks in his benefit year which begin in an extended benefit period and, if his benefit year ends within such extended benefit period, any weeks thereafter which begin in such period.

10. "Exhaustee" means an individual who, with respect to any week of unemployment in his eligibility period:

a. Has received, prior to such week, all of the regular benefits that were available to him under this chapter or any other state law, including dependents' allowances and benefits payable to federal civilian employees and ex-servicemen under 5 U.S.C. chapter 85, in his current benefit year that includes such week. For the purposes of this subparagraph, an individual shall be deemed to have received all of the regular benefits that were available to him although as a result of a pending appeal with respect to wages paid for insured work that were not considered in the original monetary determination in his benefit year, he may subsequently be determined to be entitled to added regular benefits.

b. His benefit year having expired prior to such week, has been paid no, or insufficient, wages for insured work on the basis of which he could establish a new benefit year that would include such week; and c.(I) Has no right to unemployment benefits or allowances, as the case may be, under the Railroad Unemployment Insurance Act, the Trade Expansion Act of 1962, the Automotive Products Trade Act of 1965, or such other federal laws as are specified in regulations issued by the United States Secretary of Labor; and

(II) Has not received and is not seeking unemployment benefits under the unemployment compensation law of the Virgin Islands or of Canada; but if he is seeking such benefits and the appropriate agency finally determines that he is not entitled to benefits under such law, he is considered an exhaustee, except that the reference in this sub-sub-subparagraph to the Virgin Islands shall be inapplicable effective on the day after the day on which the United States Secretary of Labor approves, under s. 3304(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, an unemployment compensation law submitted to the secretary by the Virgin Islands for approval.

11. "State law" means the unemployment insurance law of any state, approved by the United States Secretary of Labor under s. 3304 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

(b) Effect of state law provisions relating to regular benefits on claims for, and the payment of, extended benefits.—Except when the result would be inconsistent with the other provisions of this subsection, as provided in the regulations of the division, the provisions of this chapter which apply to claims for, or the payment of, regular benefits shall apply to claims for, and the payment of, extended benefits. Such extended benefits shall be charged to the experience rating accounts of employers to the extent the share of such extended benefits paid from this state's unemployment compensation trust fund is not eligible for reimbursement from federal sources.

(c) Eligibility requirements for extended benefits.—An individual shall be eligible to receive extended benefits with respect to any week of unemployment in his eligibility period only if the division finds that with respect to such week:

1. He is an "exhaustee" as defined in subparagraph (a)10.

2. He has satisfied the requirements of this chapter for the receipt of regular benefits that are applicable to individuals claiming extended benefits, including not being subject to a disqualification for the receipt of benefits.

(d) Weekly extended benefit amount.—The weekly extended benefit amount payable to an individual for a week of total unemployment in his eligibility period shall be an amount equal to the weekly benefit amount payable to him during his applicable benefit year. For any individual who was paid benefits during the applicable benefit year in accordance with more than 1 weekly benefit amount, the weekly extended benefit amount shall be the average of such weekly benefit amounts.

(e) Total extended benefit amount.—The total extended benefit amount payable to any eligible individual with respect to his applicable benefit year shall be the least of the following amounts:

1. Fifty percent of the total amount of regular benefits which were payable to him under this chapter in his applicable benefit year; or

2. Thirteen times his weekly benefit amount which was payable to him under this chapter for a week of total unemployment in the applicable benefit year.

(f) Beginning and termination of extended benefit period.—Whenever an extended benefit period is to become effective in this state (or in all states) as a result of a state or a national "on" indicator, or an extended benefit period is to be terminated in this state as a result of state and national "off" indicators, the division shall make an appropriate public announcement.

(g) Computations.—Computations required by the provisions of paragraph (a)6. shall be made by the division, in accordance with regulations prescribed by the United States Secretary of Labor.

443.05 Benefit eligibility conditions.—

(1) An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week only as the division finds that:

(a) He has made a claim for benefits with respect to such week in accordance with such regulations as the [division] may prescribe.

(b) He has registered for work at, and thereafter continued to report at the division, which shall be responsible for notification of the Florida State Employment Service in accordance with such regulations as the division may prescribe; except that the division may, by regulation not inconsistent with the purposes of this law, waive or alter either or both of the requirements of this subsection as to individuals attached to regular jobs; but no such regulation shall conflict with s. 443.04(1).

(c)1. He is able to work and is available for work.

2. Notwithstanding any other provisions in this section, no otherwise eligible individual shall be denied benefits for any week because he is in training with the approval of the division, nor shall such individual be denied benefits with respect to any week in which he is in training with the approval of the division by reason of the application of provisions in subparagraph 1. of this paragraph relating to availability for work, or the provisions of s. 443.06(2) relating to failure to apply for, or a refusal to accept, suitable work.

(d) He has been unemployed for a waiting period of 1 week. No week shall be counted as a week of unemployment for the purposes of this subsection:

1. Unless it occurs within the benefit year which includes the week with respect to which he claims payment of benefits.

2. If benefits have been paid with respect thereto.

3. Unless the individual was eligible for benefits with respect thereto as provided in this section and s. 443.06 except for the requirements of this subsection and of s. 443.06(5).

(e) He has been paid wages for insured work equal to 20 times his average weekly wages during his base period or, for claims filed on or after July 1, 1977, but prior to November 30, 1977, he has been paid wages for insured work equal to 10 times his average weekly wages during his base period, except that no unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits if his average weekly wage is less than $20.

(2) No individual may receive benefits in a benefit year unless, subsequent to the beginning of the next preceding benefit year during which he received benefits, he performed service, whether or not in "employment" as defined in s. 443.03(5), and earned remuneration for such service in an amount equal to not less than 3 times his weekly benefit amount as determined for his current benefit year.

(3) Benefits based on service in employment defined in s. 443.03(5)(b) and (c) shall be payable in the same amount, on the same terms, and subject to the same conditions as benefits payable on the basis of other service subject to this chapter, except that:

(a) With respect to weeks of unemployment beginning after December 31, 1977, benefits shall not be paid based on services in an instructional, research, or principal administrative capacity for an educational institution or an institution of higher education for any week of unemployment commencing during the period between 2 successive academic years, or during a similar period between two regular terms, whether or not successive, or during a period of paid sabbatical leave provided for in the individual's contract, to any individual, if such individual performs such services in the first of such academic years or terms, and there is a contract or a reasonable assurance that such individual will perform services in any such capacity for any educational institution or institution of higher education in the second of such academic years or terms.

(b) With respect to weeks of unemployment beginning after December 31, 1977, benefits shall not be based on services in any other capacity for an educational institution (other than an institution of higher education as defined in s. 443.03(5)(b)) to any individual for any week which commences during a period between 2 successive academic years or terms if such individual performs such services in the first of the academic years or terms and there is a reasonable assurance that such individual will perform such services in the second of the academic years or terms.

(c) With respect to weeks of unemployment beginning after December 31, 1977, benefits shall not be paid to any individual for any week which commences during an established and customary vacation period or holiday recess if such individual performs any services described in paragraph (a) or paragraph (b) in the period immediately before such vacation period or holiday recess, and there is a reasonable assurance that such individual will perform any such service in the period immediately following such vacation period or holiday recess.

(4) In the event of national emergency, in the course of which the Federal Emergency Unemployment Payment Plan is, at the request of the Governor, invoked for all or any part of the state, such plan shall supersede the procedures prescribed by this chapter, and by regulations thereunder, and the division shall act as the Florida agency for the United States Department of Labor in the administration of such plan.

(5) Benefits shall not be paid to any individual on the basis of any service, substantially all of which consists of participating in sports or athletic events or training, or preparing to so participate, for any week which commences during the period between two successive sport seasons (or similar periods) if such individual performed such service in the first of such seasons (or similar periods) and there is a reasonable assurance that such individual will perform such services in the later of such seasons (or similar periods).

(6) With respect to weeks of unemployment beginning on or after January 1, 1978, wages for insured work shall include wages paid for previously uncovered services. For the purposes of this subsection, except to the extent that assistance under Title II of the Emergency Jobs and Unemployment Assistance Act of 1974 was paid on the basis of such services, the term "previously uncovered services" means services:

(a) Which were not employment as defined in this chapter prior to January 1, 1978, and were not services covered pursuant to s. 443.09(3) at any time during the 1-year period ending December 31, 1975; and

(b) Which are:

1. Agricultural labor or domestic service as defined in s. 443.03(5); or

2. Services performed by an employee of this state or a political subdivision thereof, as provided in s. 443.03(5)(b), or by an employee of a nonprofit educational institution which is not an institution of higher education, as provided in s. 443.03(5).

(7) Benefits paid to any individual whose base period wages include wages for previously uncovered services, as defined in subsection (6), shall not be charged to the employer or the employer's experience rating account, to the extent that such individual would not have been eligible to receive such compensation had the state not provided for payment of compensation on the basis of such previously uncovered services, and provided benefits shall be paid for such previously uncovered service only to the extent that the division determines the unemployment compensation fund may be reimbursed for such benefits pursuant to s. 121 of Pub. L. No. 94-566.

Note.—Bracketed word was substituted by the editors for the word "commission" to conform to ch. 69-106, the Reorganization Act of 1969. See s. 17(4) and (8). The bracketed substitution reflects the fact that administrative functions formerly attributed to the Florida Industrial Commission are now performed by the division.

443.06 Disqualification for benefits.—An individual shall be disqualified for benefits:

(1) For the week in which he has voluntarily left his employment without good cause attributable to his employer or in which he has been discharged by his employing unit for misconduct connected with his work, if so found by the division.

(a) Disqualification for voluntarily quitting shall continue for the full period of unemployment next ensuing after he has left his work voluntarily without good cause and until such individual has become reemployed and has earned wages equal to or in excess of 17 times his weekly benefit amount; good cause as used in this subsection shall include only such cause as is attributable to the employer or consists of illness or disability of the individual requiring separation from his employment. An individual shall not be disqualified under this subsection for voluntarily leaving temporary employment to return immediately when called to employment by the permanent employer who temporarily terminated his employment within the previous 6 calendar months.

(b) Disqualification for being discharged for misconduct connected with his work shall continue for the full period of unemployment next ensuing after having been discharged and until such individual has become reemployed and has earned wages not less than 17 times his weekly benefit amount and for not more than 52 weeks which immediately follow such week, as determined by the division in each case according to the circumstances in each case or the seriousness of the misconduct, pursuant to rules of the division enacted for determinations of disqualification for benefits for misconduct.

(2) If the division finds that the individual has failed without good cause either to apply for available suitable work when so directed by the division or employment office, or to accept suitable work when offered to him, or to return to his customary self-employment when so directed by the division, such disqualification shall continue for the week in which such failure occurred and for not more than 5 weeks immediately following such week, or a reduction by not more than 3 weeks from the duration of benefits, as determined by the division in each case. However, disqualification under this subsection shall continue for the full period of unemployment next ensuing after he has failed without good cause either to apply for available suitable work, or to accept suitable work, or to return to his customary self-employment, pursuant to this subsection, and until such individual has become reemployed and has earned wages equal to or in excess of 17 times his weekly benefit amount. The division shall by rule provide criteria for determining the suitability of work, as used in this section. The division in developing such rules shall consider the duration of a claimant's unemployment in determining the suitability of work and the suitability of proposed rates of compensation for available work. Further, after an individual has received 25 weeks of benefits in a single year, suitable work shall be a job which pays the minimum wage and is 120 percent or more of the weekly benefit amount the individual is drawing.

(a) In determining whether or not any work is suitable for an individual, the division shall consider the degree of risk involved to his health, safety, and morals, his physical fitness and prior training, his experience and prior earnings, his length of unemployment and prospects for securing local work in his customary occupation, and the distance of the available work from his residence.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this chapter, no work shall be deemed suitable and benefits shall not be denied under this chapter to any otherwise eligible individual for refusing to accept new work under any of the following conditions:

1. If the position offered is vacant due directly to a strike, lockout, or other labor dispute;

2. If the wages, hours, or other conditions of the work offered are substantially less favorable to the individual than those prevailing for similar work in the locality;

3. If as a condition of being employed, the individual would be required to join a company union or to resign from or refrain from joining any bona fide labor organization.

(3) For any week with respect to which he is receiving or has received remuneration in the form of:

(a) Wages in lieu of notice;

(b)1. Compensation for temporary partial disability, temporary total disability or permanent total disability under the workers' compensation law of any state or under a similar law of the United States.

2. Provided, that if the remuneration referred to in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection is less than the benefits which would otherwise be due under this chapter, he shall be entitled to receive for such week, if otherwise eligible, benefits reduced by the amount of such remuneration.

(4) For any week with respect to which the division finds that his total or partial unemployment is due to a labor dispute in active progress which exists at the factory, establishment or other premises at which he is or was last employed; provided, that this subsection shall not apply if it is shown to the satisfaction of the division that:

(a) He is not participating in or financing, or directly interested in the labor dispute which is in active progress; provided, however, that the payment of regular union dues shall not be construed as financing a labor dispute within the meaning of this section; and

(b) He does not belong to a grade or class of workers of which immediately before the commencement of the labor dispute there were members employed at the premises at which the labor dispute occurs any of whom are participating in, or financing, or directly interested in the dispute; provided, that if in any case separate branches of work which are commonly conducted as separate businesses in separate premises, or are conducted in separate departments of the same premises, each department shall, for the purpose of this subsection be deemed to be a separate factory, establishment or other premises.

(5) For any week with respect to which or a part of which he has received or is seeking unemployment benefits under an unemployment compensation law of another state or of the United States; for the purposes of this subsection, an unemployment compensation law of the United States is any law of the United States which provides for payment of any type and in any amounts for periods of unemployment due to lack of work; provided, that if the appropriate agency of such other state or of the United States finally determines that he is not entitled to such unemployment benefits, this disqualification shall not apply.

(6) For a period of not to exceed 1 year from the date of the discovery by the division of the making of any false or fraudulent representation for the purpose of obtaining benefits contrary to the provisions of this chapter, constituting a violation within the intent of s. 443.22 hereof; provided, that any such disqualification may be appealed from in the same manner as from any other disqualification imposed hereunder; and provided further that a conviction by any court of competent jurisdiction in this state of the offense prohibited or punished by s. 443.22 herein shall be conclusive upon the appeals referee and the commission of the making of such false or fraudulent representation for which disqualification is imposed hereunder.

(7) If the division finds that the individual is an alien, unless such alien is an individual who has been lawfully admitted for permanent residence or otherwise is permanently residing in the United States under color of law (including an alien who is lawfully present in the United States as a result of the application of the provisions of s. 203(a)(7) or s. 212(d)(5) of the Immigration and Nationality Act), provided that any modifications to the provisions of s. 3304(a)(14) of the Federal Unemployment Tax Act, as provided by Pub. L. No. 94-566, which specify other conditions or other effective dates than those stated herein for the denial of benefits based on services performed by aliens, and which modifications are required to be implemented under state law as a condition for full tax credit against the tax imposed by the Federal Unemployment Tax Act, shall be deemed applicable under the provisions of this section, provided:

(a) Any data or information required of individuals applying for benefits to determine whether benefits are not payable to them because of their alien status shall be uniformly required from all applicants for benefits; and

(b) In the case of an individual whose application for benefits would otherwise be approved, no determination that benefits to such individual are not payable because of his alien status shall be made except upon a preponderance of the evidence.

(c) If the division finds that said individual has refused without good cause an offer of resettlement or relocation, which offer provides for suitable employment for such individual notwithstanding the distance of such relocation, resettlement, or employment from the current location of such individual in this state, such disqualification shall continue for the week in which such failure occurred and for not more than 17 weeks immediately following such week, or a reduction by not more than 5 weeks from the duration of benefits, as determined by the division in each case.

(8) For any week with respect to which he has received, or is eligible to receive, from a base period employing unit, benefits from a retirement, pension, or annuity program embodied in a union contract or either a public or private employee benefit program, notwithstanding that the source of the contribution of any moneys to the respective program was the employer or employee or both. However, for any week in which benefits from a retirement, pension, or annuity program as referred to in this subsection are less than the weekly benefits which would otherwise be due under this chapter, he shall be entitled to receive for such week, if otherwise eligible, benefits reduced by the benefits from the retirement, pension, or annuity program, prorated to a weekly basis. For the purpose of this subsection, benefits from the United States Social Security Act, a disability benefit program, a supplemental unemployment benefit program, or any other program not specifically designated either in the union contract or a company benefit program as being retirement, pension, or annuity benefits shall not be disqualifying.

(9) For purposes of this section, misconduct includes, but is not limited to, the following, which shall not be construed in pari materia with each other:

(a) Conduct evincing such willful or wanton disregard of an employer's interests as is found in deliberate violation or disregard of standards of behavior which the employer has the right to expect of his employee; or

(b) Carelessness or negligence of such a degree or recurrence as to manifest culpability, wrongful intent, or evil design, or to show an intentional and substantial disregard of the employer's interests or of the employee's duties and obligations to his employer.

(10) If the individual was terminated from his employment for violation of any criminal law punishable by imprisonment, or for any dishonest act, in connection with his employment, as follows:

(a) If the division or the Unemployment Appeals

Commission finds that the individual was terminated from his employment for violation of any criminal law punishable by imprisonment in connection with his work, and the individual has been found guilty of the offense, has made an admission of guilt in a court of law, or has entered a plea of no contest, the individual shall not be entitled to unemployment compensation for up to 52 weeks, pursuant to rules adopted by the division, and until he becomes reemployed and earns 10 times his weekly benefit amount. If, prior to an adjudication of guilt, an admission of guilt, or a plea of no contest, the employer can show before a hearing examiner or appeals referee that the arrest was due to a crime against the employer or the employer's business and, after considering all the evidence, the hearing examiner or appeals referee finds misconduct in connection with the individual's work, the individual shall not be entitled to unemployment compensation.

(b) If the division or the Unemployment Appeals Commission finds that the individual was terminated from employment for any dishonest act in connection with his work, the individual shall not be entitled to unemployment compensation for up to 52 weeks, pursuant to rules adopted by the division, and until he becomes reemployed and earns 10 times his weekly benefit amount. In addition, should the employer terminate an individual as a result of a dishonest act in connection with his employment and the hearing examiner or appeals referee finds misconduct in connection with his work, the individual shall not be entitled to unemployment compensation.

With respect to an individual so disqualified for benefits, the account of the terminating employer, if such employer is in the base period, shall be non-charged at the time the disqualification is imposed.

443.07 Procedure concerning claims.—

(1) POSTING OF INFORMATION.—Each employer shall post and maintain in places readily accessible to individuals in his employ printed statements concerning benefit rights, claims for benefits and such other matters relating to the administration of this chapter as the division may by regulation prescribe. Each employer shall supply to such individuals copies of such printed statements or other materials relating to claims for benefits when and as the division may by regulations prescribe. Such printed statements and other materials shall be supplied by the division to each employer without cost to the employer.

(2) FILING OF CLAIM.—Claims for benefits shall be made in accordance with such regulations as the division may prescribe.

(3) DETERMINATION.—

(a) In general.—An initial determination upon a claim filed pursuant to subsection (2) shall be made promptly by an examiner designated by the division and shall include a statement as to whether and in what amount claimant is entitled to benefits and, in the event of a denial, shall state the reasons therefor. A determination with respect to the first week of a benefit year shall also include a statement as to whether the claimant has been paid the wages required under s. 443.05(1)(e), and if so, the first day of the benefit year, his weekly benefit amount, and the maximum total amount of benefits payable to him with respect to a benefit year. The claimant, his most recent employing unit, and all employers whose accounts would be charged with benefits pursuant to such determination shall be promptly notified of such initial determination, and such determination shall be final unless within 20 days after the mailing of such notices to the parties' last known addresses, or in the absence of such mailing, within 20 days after the delivery of such notice, appeal or written request for reconsideration is filed by the claimant or other party entitled to such notice.

(b) Determinations in labor dispute cases.—Whenever any claim involves the application of the provisions of s. 443.06(4), the examiner handling the claim shall, if so directed by the division, promptly transmit such claim to a special examiner designated by the division to make a determination upon the issues involved under that subsection or upon such claims. Such special examiner shall make the determination thereon after such investigation as he deems necessary, and after affording the parties entitled to notice an opportunity for a fair hearing in accordance with the provisions of this section with respect to hearings and determinations of appeals referees. The parties shall be promptly notified of the determination, together with the reason therefor, and such determination shall be deemed to be the final decision on the claim, unless within 20 days after the mailing of notices to the parties' last known addresses, or, in the absence of such mailing, within 20 days after the delivery of such notice, appeal is filed with the commission or notice of review is entered by that body.

(c) Redeterminations.—

1. The division may reconsider a determination whenever it finds that an error has occurred in connection therewith, or whenever new evidence or information pertinent to such determination has been discovered subsequent to any previous determination or redetermination. No such redetermination shall be made after 1 year from the date the claim was filed, unless it appears that the disqualification imposed by s. 443.06(6) is applicable, in which case the redetermination may be made at any time within 2 years from the date of the making of such false or fraudulent representation. Notice of redetermination shall be promptly given to the claimant and to any employers entitled to notice thereof in the manner prescribed in this section with respect to notice of an initial determination. If the amount of benefits is increased upon such redetermination, an appeal therefrom solely with respect to the matters involved in such increase may be filed in the manner and subject to the limitations provided in subsection (4) of this section. If the amount of benefits is decreased upon such redetermination, the matters involved in such decrease shall be subject to review in connection with an appeal by claimant from any determination upon a subsequent claim for benefits which may be affected in amount or duration by such redetermination. Subject to the same limitations and for the same reasons, the division may reconsider its determination in any case in which the final decision has been rendered by an appeals referee, the commission, or a court, and may apply to the body or court which rendered such final decision to issue a revised decision.

2. In the event that an appeal involving an original determination is pending as of the date a redetermination thereof is issued, such appeal unless withdrawn shall be treated as an appeal from such redetermination.

(d) Notice of determination or redetermination pursuant to s. 443.06.—Notice of any determination or redetermination which involves the application of the provisions of s. 443.06, together with the reasons therefor, shall be promptly given to the claimant and to any employer entitled to notice thereof, such notice to be given in the manner provided in this subsection, provided that the division shall by regulation prescribe the manner and procedure pursuant to which employers within the base period of a claimant may become entitled to such notice.

(4) APPEALS.—

(a) Appeals referees.—The division shall appoint one or more impartial salaried appeals referees selected in accordance with s. 443.12(4) to hear and decide appealed or disputed claims. Such appeals referees shall have such qualifications as may be established by the merit system council upon the advice and consent of the division. No person shall participate on behalf of the division as an appeals referee in any case in which he is an interested party. The division may designate alternates to serve in the absence or disqualification of any appeals referee upon a temporary basis and pro hac vice which alternate shall be possessed of the same qualifications required of appeals referees. The division shall provide the commission and the appeals referees with proper facilities and assistance for the execution of their functions.

(b) Filing and hearing.—

1. The claimant or any other party entitled to notice of a determination as herein provided may file an appeal from such determination with an appeals referee within 20 days after the date of mailing of the notice to his last known address or, if such notice is not mailed, within 20 days after the date of delivery of such notice.

2. Unless the appeal is withdrawn with his permission or is removed to the commission, the appeals referee, after mailing all parties a notice of hearing at least 14 days prior to the date of hearing, shall affirm, modify, or reverse such determination; provided, however, that whenever an appeal involves a question as to whether services were performed by claimant in employment or for an employer, the referee shall give special notice of such issue and of the pendency of the appeal to the employing unit and to the division, both of whom shall thenceforth be parties to the proceeding.

3. The parties shall be promptly notified of such referee's decision and such decisions shall be final unless, within 20 days after the date of mailing of notice thereof to the party's last known address or, in the absence of such mailing, within 20 days after the delivery of such notice, further review is initiated pursuant to paragraph (c).

(c) Review by commission.—The commission may, on its own motion, within the time specified in paragraph (b), initiate a review of the decision of an appeals referee or determination of a special examiner or may allow an appeal from such decision on application filed within such time by the division or by any party entitled to notice of such decision. An appeal filed by any such party shall be allowed as of right if the examiner's determination was not affirmed by the appeals referee. Upon review on its own motion or upon appeal, the commission may on the basis of the evidence previously submitted in such case, or upon the basis of such additional evidence as it may direct be taken, affirm, modify, or reverse the findings and conclusions of the appeals referee. The commission may remove to itself or transfer to another appeals referee the proceedings on any claim pending before an appeals referee. Any proceeding so removed to the commission prior to the completion shall be heard by the commission in accordance with the requirement of this subsection with respect to proceedings before an appeals referee. Upon denial by the commission of an application for appeal from the decision of an appeals referee, the decision of the appeals referee shall be deemed to be a decision of the commission within the meaning of this paragraph for purposes of judicial review and shall be subject to judicial review within the time and in the manner provided for with respect to decisions of the commission, except that the time for initiating such review shall run from the date of notice of the order of the commission denying the application for appeal.

(d) Procedure.—The manner in which appealed claims shall be presented shall be in accordance with rules prescribed by the commission. Witnesses subpoenaed pursuant to this section shall be allowed fees at a rate fixed by the division, and fees of witnesses subpoenaed on behalf of the division or any claimant shall be deemed part of the expense of administering this chapter.

(e) Judicial review.—Orders of the commission entered pursuant to paragraph (c) of this subsection shall be subject to review only by notice of appeal in the district court of appeal in the appellate district in which the issues involved were decided by an appeals referee, and the commission shall be made a party respondent to every such proceeding, notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in chapter 120. The division shall have the right to initiate judicial review of orders in the same manner and to the same extent as any other party.

(5) PAYMENT OF BENEFITS.—

(a) Benefits shall be promptly paid in accordance with a determination or redetermination regardless of any appeal or pending appeal. However, any employer who, pursuant to the provisions of s. 443.08(4), (5), or (6), is liable for reimbursement payments in lieu of contributions for the payment of such benefits shall be notified, at the address on file with the Division of Employment Security, as to the initial determination of the claim, and the employer shall be given 10 days to respond, prior to the payment of the benefits to the employee.

(b) If a determination allowing benefits is affirmed in any amount by an appeals referee, or is so affirmed by the commission or if a decision of an appeals referee allowing benefits is affirmed in any amount by the commission, such benefits shall be promptly paid regardless of any further appeal, and no injunction, supersedeas, stay, or other writ or process suspending the payment of such benefits shall be issued by any court. However, if such decision is finally reversed, no employer liable for contributions under the contributory system of financing unemployment compensation benefits shall be charged with benefits so paid pursuant to the erroneous determination and benefits shall not be paid for any subsequent weeks of unemployment involved in such reversal.

(c) That portion of paragraph (b) relating to charging an employer liable for contributions shall not be applicable to employers using the reimbursable method of financing benefit payments.

(6) RECOVERY AND RECOUPMENT.—

(a) Any person who, by reason of his fraud has received any sum as benefits under this chapter to which he was not entitled shall be liable to repay such sum to the division for and on behalf of the trust fund, or, in the discretion of the division, to have such sum deducted from future benefits payable to him under this chapter, provided a finding of the existence of such fraud has been made by a redetermination or decision pursuant to this section within 2 years from the commission of such fraud, and provided no such recovery or recoupment of such sum may be effected after 5 years from the date of such redetermination or decision.

(b) If any person, other than by reason of his fraud, has received any sum as benefits under this chapter to which, under a redetermination or decision pursuant to this section, he has been found not entitled, he shall be liable to repay such sum to the division for and on behalf of the trust fund or, in the discretion of the division, shall have such sum deducted from any future benefits payable to him under this chapter. No such recovery or recoupment of such sum may be effected after 2 years from the date of such redetermination or decision.

(c) No recoupment from future benefits shall be had if such sum was received by such person without fault on his part and such recoupment would defeat the purpose of this chapter or would be against equity and good conscience.

(d) In any case in which under this section a claimant is liable to repay to the division any sum for the fund, such sum shall be collectible without interest by a deduction from benefits pursuant to a redetermination as above provided, or by civil action in the name of the division.

443.08 Contributions.—

(1) WHEN PAYABLE.—Contributions shall accrue and become payable by each employer for each calendar quarter in which he is subject to this chapter, with respect to wages paid during such calendar quarter for employment. Such contributions shall become due and be paid by each employer to the division for the fund, in accordance with such regulations as the division may prescribe. However, nothing in this subsection shall be construed to prohibit the division from adopting rules to allow, on a limited basis, at the request of the employer, certain employers to pay contributions or report wages at intervals other than quarterly when such payment or reporting is to the advantage of the division and the employers; provided that such interval for payment of contributions or report of wages shall not be less than quarterly. Contributions shall not be deducted, in whole or in part, from the wages of individuals in such employer's employ. In the payment of any contributions, a fractional part of a cent shall be disregarded unless it amounts to one-half cent or more, in which case it shall be increased to 1 cent.

(2) RATES.—Each employer is required to pay contributions equal to the following percentages of wages paid by him with respect to employment:

(a) Each employer whose employment record has been chargeable with benefit payments for less than 12 calendar quarters shall pay contributions at the rate of 2.7 percent with respect to wages paid on or before December 31, 1971, and at the rate of 1 percent with respect to wages paid on or after January 1, 1972, and at the rate of 2.7 percent with respect to wages paid on or after January 1, 1978, except that no employer whose tax rate is the 1 percent initial rate shall have such rate increased without having the tax rate computed as provided in paragraph (3)(b).

(b) Each employer whose employment record has been chargeable with benefit payments for at least 12 calendar quarters shall pay contributions at the rate of 2.7 percent with respect to employment after December 31, 1937, except as otherwise determined by experience rating provisions of this chapter. For the purposes of this section the total wages on which contributions have been paid by a single employer or his predecessor to an individual in any state within a single calendar year shall be counted to determine whether more remuneration than constitutes "wages" as defined by s. 443.03(13)(b)1. has been paid to such individual by such employer or his predecessor in 1 calendar year.

(c)1. Should the Congress either amend or repeal the Wagner-Peyser Act, the Federal Unemployment Tax Act, the Social Security Act or subtitle C of the Internal Revenue Code, or any act or acts supplemental to or in lieu thereof, or any part or parts of either or all of said laws, or should either or all of said laws, or any part or parts thereof, be held invalid, to the end and with such effect that appropriations of funds by the said Congress and grants thereof to Florida for the payment of costs of administration of the division become no longer available for such purposes, or should employers in Florida subject to the payment of tax under the Federal Unemployment Tax Act be granted full credit upon such a tax for contributions or taxes paid to the Unemployment Compensation Trust Fund, then in such case, beginning with the effective date of such change in liability for payment of such federal tax, and for each year thereafter, the standard contribution rate under this chapter shall be 3 percent per annum of each such employer's payroll subject to contributions. With respect to each such employer having a reduced rate of contribution for such year pursuant to terms of subsection (3) hereof, to the rate of contribution, as determined for such year in which such change occurs, shall be added three-tenths of 1 percent.

2. The amount of the excess of tax for which such employer is or may become liable, by reason of this subsection, over the amount which such employer would pay or become liable for except for the provisions of this subsection, shall be paid and transferred into the Employment Security Administration Trust Fund to be disbursed and paid out under the same conditions and for the same purposes as are other moneys provided to be paid into such fund; provided, that if the division shall determine that as of January 1 of any year, there is an excess in said fund over the moneys and funds required to be disbursed therefrom for the purposes thereof for such year, then, and in such cases an amount equal to such excess, as determined by the division, shall be transferred to and become a part of the Unemployment Compensation Trust Fund, and such funds shall be deemed to be and are hereby appropriated for the purposes set out in this chapter.

(d) In the event that the Federal Unemployment Tax Act is amended to permit credit against such tax in excess of 2.7 percent with respect to any calendar year, payment of the amount of contributions necessary to qualify an employer for such additional credit shall be deemed to be required under this chapter.

(3) CONTRIBUTION RATES BASED ON BENEFIT EXPERIENCE.—

(a) The benefit payments made to any eligible individual shall be charged to the employment record of each employer who paid such individual wages equal to $100 or more within the base period of said individual in the proportion to which wages paid by each such employer to such individual within the base period bears to total wages paid by all such employers to such individual within the base period. Provided, that no benefit charges shall be made to the employment record of any employer who has furnished part-time work to an individual who, because of loss of employment with one or more other employers, becomes eligible for partial benefits while still being furnished part-time work by such employer on substantially the same basis and in substantially the same amount as has been made available to such worker during his base period, whether the employments were simultaneous or successive. Provided, further, that benefit payments will not be charged to the accounts of employers when such employers have furnished the division with such notices regarding separations of individuals from work and the refusal of individuals to accept offers of suitable work as are required by the provisions of this chapter and the regulations of the division, if one or more of the following conditions are found to be applicable:

1. When an individual has left his job without good cause attributable to his employer or has been discharged by his employer for misconduct connected with his work, no benefits subsequently paid to him on the basis of wages paid to such individual by such employer prior to such separation shall be charged to such employer's account.

2. Benefits which are paid to any individual subsequent to the refusal without good cause by such individual of an offer of suitable employment from an employer will not be charged to the account of such employer when all or any part of such benefits are upon the basis of wages paid to such individual by such employer prior to the refusal by such individual to accept such offer of suitable work. (The division shall determine with respect to the payment of all benefits whether this proviso shall be applied without regard to whether a disqualification pursuant to the provisions of s. 443.06 has or may be invoked against a claimant or claimants for benefits.)

(b)1. On and after January 1, 1958, the division shall, notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (d) of this subsection, compute a benefit ratio for each employer not previously eligible therefor whose unemployment record has been chargeable with benefit payments for at least 12 calendar quarters immediately preceding the calendar quarter for which the benefit ratio is computed. Such employer's benefit ratio shall be the quotient obtained by dividing the total benefit payments chargeable to his employment record during the 12 completed calendar quarters immediately preceding the calendar quarter for which the benefit ratio is computed by the total of his annual payrolls (as defined in paragraph (f) of this subsection) for the first 12 of the 13 completed calendar quarters immediately preceding the calendar quarter for which the benefit ratio is computed. Such benefit ratio shall be computed to the fifth decimal place, and rounded to the fourth decimal place, and shall be applicable only for the remainder of the calendar year in which it becomes effective, after which the benefit ratio of such employer shall be computed as provided in subparagraph 2. hereof. Variation from the standard rate of contribution shall be assigned on a quarterly basis to such employers eligible therefor in like manner as assignments made for a calendar year under paragraph (e) of this subsection.

2. The division shall, for each calendar year, compute a benefit ratio for each employer whose employment record has been chargeable with benefit payments for at least 3 calendar years immediately preceding the calendar year for which the benefit ratio is computed. An employer's benefit ratio shall be the quotient obtained by dividing the total benefit payments chargeable to his employment record during the 3-year period ending December 31 of the preceding calendar year by the total of his annual payrolls (as defined in paragraph (f) of this subsection) for the 3-year period ending September 30 of the preceding calendar year. Such benefit ratio shall be computed to the fifth decimal place and rounded to the fourth decimal place.

3. On and after January 1, 1978, the division shall compute a benefit ratio for each employer not previously eligible therefor whose initial tax rate is 2.7 percent and whose unemployment has been chargeable with benefit payments for at least 8 calendar quarters immediately preceding the calendar quarter for which the benefit ratio is computed. Such employer's benefit ratio shall be the quotient obtained by dividing the total benefit payments charged to his employment record during the 8 completed calendar quarters immediately preceding the calendar quarter for which the benefit ratio is computed by the total of his annual payrolls (as defined in paragraph (f) of this subsection) for the first 8 of the 9 completed calendar quarters immediately preceding the calendar quarter for which the benefit ratio is computed. Such benefit ratio shall be computed to the fifth decimal place and rounded to the fourth decimal place and shall be applicable for the remainder of the calendar year. The employer will next be rated on an annual basis using up to 12 calendar quarters of benefits charged and up to 12 calendar quarters of annual payrolls. Such employer's benefit ratio shall be the quotient obtained by dividing the total benefit payments charged to his employment record by the total of his annual payrolls, as defined in paragraph (f), for the quarters used in his first computation plus the subsequent quarters reported through September 30 of the prior year. Each year thereafter the rate will be computed as provided in subparagraph 2. Variation from the standard rate of contribution shall be assigned on a quarterly basis to such employers eligible therefor in like manner as assignments made for a calendar year under paragraph (e) of this subsection.

(c) The standard rate of contributions payable by each employer shall be 2.7 percent.

(d) Employers shall be eligible for rate variations from the standard rate of contributions, as herein-after described, in any calendar year, only if their employment records have been chargeable with benefit payments throughout the 3 consecutive calendar years ending on December 31, of the preceding calendar year.

(e)1. Variations from the standard rate of contributions shall be assigned with respect to each calendar year to employers eligible therefor. In determining the contribution rate, varying from the standard rate to be assigned each employer, adjustment factors provided for in sub-subparagraphs a.-c. will be added to the benefit ratio. This addition will be accomplished in two steps by adding a variable adjustment factor and a final adjustment factor as defined below. The sum of these adjustment factors provided for in sub-subparagraphs a.-c. will first be algebraically summed. The sum of these adjustment factors will then be divided by a gross benefit ratio to be determined as follows: Total benefit payments for the previous 3 calendar years charged to employers eligible to be assigned a contribution rate different from the standard rate minus excess payments for the same period divided by taxable payroll entering into the computation of individual benefit ratios for the current calendar year. The ratio of the sum of the adjustment factors provided for in sub-subparagraphs a.-c. to the gross benefit ratio will be multiplied by each individual benefit ratio below the maximum tax rate to obtain variable adjustment factors; except that in any instance in which the sum of an employer's individual benefit ratio and variable adjustment factor exceeds the maximum tax rate, the variable adjustment factor will be reduced so that the sum equals the maximum tax rate. The variable adjustment factor of each such employer will be multiplied by his taxable payroll entering into the computation of his benefit ratio. The sum of these products will be divided by the taxable payroll of such employers that entered into the computation of their benefit ratios. The resulting ratio will be subtracted from the sum of the adjustment factors provided for in sub-subparagraphs a.-c. to obtain the final adjustment factor. The variable adjustment factors and the final adjustment factor will be computed to five decimal places and rounded to the fourth decimal place. This final adjustment factor will be added to the variable adjustment factor and benefit ratio of each employer and the sum rounded to 3 decimal places to obtain each employer's contribution rate; however, at no time shall an employer's contribution rate be rounded to less than 0.1 percent.

a. An adjustment factor for noncharge benefits will be computed to the fifth decimal place, and rounded to the fourth decimal place, by dividing the amount of benefit payments noncharged in the 3 preceding calendar years by the taxable payroll of employers eligible to be considered for assignment of a contribution rate different from the standard rate that have a benefit ratio for the current year less than the maximum contribution rate, except that in computing the adjustment factor for 1964 the 2 preceding calendar years of noncharged benefits will be used. The taxable payroll of such employers will be the taxable payrolls for the 3 years ending September 30 of the preceding calendar year that had been reported to the division by December 31 of the same calendar year except that in computing the adjustment factor for 1964 the 2 preceding years of taxable payrolls will be used. Noncharge benefits for the purpose of this section shall be defined as benefit payments to an individual which were paid from the Unemployment Compensation Trust Fund but which were not charged to the unemployment record of any employer.

b. An excess payments adjustment factor will be computed to the fifth decimal place, and rounded to the fourth decimal place, by dividing the total excess payments during the 3 preceding calendar years by the taxable payroll of employers eligible to be considered for assignment of a contribution rate different from the standard rate that have a benefit ratio for the current year less than the maximum contribution rate, except that in computing the adjustment factor for 1964 the 2 preceding years' excess payments will be used. The taxable payroll of such employers will be the same as used in computing the noncharge adjustment factor as described in sub-subparagraph (3)(e)1.a. Excess payments for the purpose of this section shall be defined as the amount of benefit payments charged to the employment record of an employer during the 3 preceding calendar years less the product of the maximum contribution rate and his taxable payroll for the 3 years ending September 30 of the preceding calendar year that had been reported to the division by December 31 of the same calendar year, except that in computing excess payments for use in 1964 contribution rate determination the 2 preceding years will be used. Total excess payments shall be defined as the sum of the individual employer excess payments for those employers that were eligible to be considered for assignment of a contribution rate different from the standard rate.

c. If the balance in the Unemployment Compensation Trust Fund as of December 31 of the calendar year immediately preceding the calendar year for which the contribution rate is being computed is less than 4 percent of the taxable payrolls for the year ending September 30 of the preceding calendar year as reported to the division by December 31 of that calendar year, a positive adjustment factor will be computed. Such adjustment factor shall be computed annually to the fifth decimal place, and rounded to the fourth decimal place, by dividing the sum of the total taxable payrolls for the year ending September 30 of the preceding calendar year as reported to the division by December 31 of such calendar year into a sum equal to one-fourth of the difference between the amount in the fund as of December 31 of such preceding calendar year and the sum of 5 percent of the total taxable payrolls for that year. Such adjustment factor will remain in effect in subsequent years until a balance in the Unemployment Compensation Trust Fund as of December 31 of the year immediately preceding the effective date of such contribution rate equals or exceeds 4 percent of the taxable payrolls for the year ending September 30 of the preceding calendar year as reported to the division by December 31 of that calendar year. If the balance in the Unemployment Compensation Trust Fund as of December 31 of the year immediately preceding the calendar year for which the contribution rate is being computed exceeds 5 percent of the taxable payrolls for the year ending September 30 of the preceding calendar year as reported to the division by December 31 of that calendar year, a negative adjustment factor will be computed. Such adjustment factor shall be computed annually to the fifth decimal place, and rounded to the fourth decimal place, by dividing the sum of the total taxable payrolls for the year ending September 30 of the preceding calendar year as reported to the division by December 31 of such calendar year into a sum equal to one-fourth of the difference between the amount in the fund as of December 31 of such preceding calendar year and 5 percent of the total taxable payrolls of such year. Such adjustment factor will remain in effect in subsequent years until the balance in the Unemployment Compensation Trust Fund as of December 31 of the year immediately preceding the effective date of such contribution rate is less than 5 percent but more than 4 percent of the taxable payrolls for the year ending September 30 of the preceding calendar year as reported to the division by December 31 of that calendar year. In determining if a positive or a negative adjustment factor shall be applicable to contributions payable for the calendar quarters in the years 1973, 1974, and 1975, the taxable payrolls for the year ending September 30, 1972, shall be reduced by 30 percent prior to any computation applicable to contributions payable for calendar quarters in 1973; the taxable payrolls for the year ending September 30, 1973, shall be reduced by 20 percent prior to any computation applicable to contributions payable for calendar quarters in 1974; and the taxable payrolls for the year ending September 30, 1974, shall be reduced by 10 percent prior to any computation applicable to contributions payable for calendar quarters in 1975.

d. The maximum contribution rate that can be assigned to any employer shall be 2.9 percent with respect to the calendar year 1963, 3.5 percent with respect to the calendar year 1964, 4 percent with respect to the calendar year 1965, and 4.5 percent with respect to the calendar year 1966 and subsequent calendar years.

2. In the event of the transfer of employment records to an employing unit pursuant to paragraph (g) which, prior to such transfer, was an "employer," the division shall recompute a benefit ratio for the successor employer on the basis of the combined employment records and reassign an appropriate contribution rate to such successor employer as of the beginning of the calendar quarter immediately following the effective date of such transfer of employment records.

(f) As used in subparagraph (b)2., the term "annual payroll" means the total amount of wages for insured employment paid by an employer during the 12-month period ending on September 30 of any calendar year with respect to which contributions have been paid on or before the date on which they became due and payable; and as used in subparagraph (b)1., the term "annual payroll" means the total amount of wages for insured employment paid by an employer during a period of 4 consecutive calendar quarters with respect to which contributions have been paid on or before the date on which they became due and payable. Provided, that where no contributions are payable for a calendar quarter, the term "annual payroll" as used in paragraph (b) shall include only wages paid during such quarter with respect to which contribution and wage reports have been submitted to the division on or before the date on which they became due.

(g)1. For the purposes of this subsection, two or more employers who are parties to a transfer of business or the subject of a merger, consolidation, or other form of reorganization, effecting a change in legal identity or form, shall be deemed to be a single employer and shall be considered as one employer with a continuous employment record if the division finds that the successor employer continues to carry on the employing enterprises of the predecessor employer or employers and that the successor employer has paid all contributions required of and due from the predecessor employer or employers and has assumed liability for all contributions that may become due from the predecessor employer or employers. As used in this paragraph, "contributions" means all indebtedness to the division, including, but not limited to, interest, penalty, collection fee, and service fee. A successor that is already an employer has 30 days from the date of the official notification of liability by succession to accept the transfer of the predecessor's or predecessors' employment record or records. If the predecessor or predecessors have unpaid contributions or outstanding quarterly reports, the successor has 30 days from the date of the notice listing the total amount due to pay the total amount with certified funds. After the total indebtedness has been paid, the employment record or records of the predecessor or predecessors will be transferred to the successor.

2. Whether or not there is a transfer of employment record as contemplated in this paragraph, the predecessor shall in the event he again employs persons be treated as an employer without previous employment record, or, if his coverage has been terminated as provided in s. 443.09, as a new employing unit.

3. The division may provide by regulation for partial transfer of experience rating where an employer has transferred at any time an identifiable and segregable portion of his payrolls and business to a successor employing unit. As a condition of such partial transfer of experience, the regulations shall require an application by the successor, agreement by predecessor, and such evidence as the division may prescribe of the experience and payrolls attributable to the transferred portion up to the date of transfer. The regulations shall provide that the successor employing unit, if not already an employer, shall become an employer as of the date of the transfer and that the experience of the transferred portion of the predecessor's account shall be removed from the experience-rating record of the predecessor, and for each calendar year following the date of the transfer of the employment record on the books of the division, the division shall compute the rate of contribution payable by the successor on the basis of his experience, if any, combined with the experience of the portion of the record transferred. The regulation may also provide what rates shall be payable by the predecessor and successor employers for the period between the date of the transfer of the employment record of the transferred unit on the books of the division and the first day of the next calendar year.

(h) No reduction below the standard contribution rate shall be allowed an employer under the provisions of this section unless:

1. All contributions, interest, and penalties incurred by such employer with respect to wages paid by him in all previous calendar quarters, except the 4 calendar quarters immediately preceding the calendar quarter or calendar year for which the benefit ratio is computed, have been paid; and

2. The employer entitled thereto shall have at least one "annual payroll" as defined in paragraph (f) and unless such employer is eligible for additional credit under the provisions of the Federal Unemployment Tax Act; and in the event the Federal Unemployment Tax Act shall be revised, amended, or repealed, this section shall be applicable only to the extent that additional credit may be allowed against the payment of the tax imposed by said Federal Unemployment Tax Act.

(i) The division:

1. Shall promptly notify each employer of his rate of contributions as determined for any calendar year pursuant to this section. Such determination shall become conclusive and binding upon the employer unless within 15 days after the mailing of notice thereof to his last known address, or, in the absence of mailing, within 15 days after the delivery of such notice, the employer files an application for review and redetermination setting forth his reasons therefor. No employer shall be allowed, in any proceeding involving his rate of contributions or contribution liability, to contest the chargeability to his account of any benefits paid in accordance with a determination, redetermination, or decision pursuant to s. 443.07, except upon the ground that the services on the basis of which such benefits were found to be chargeable did not constitute services performed in employment for him and then only in the event that he was not a party to such determination, redetermination, or decision or to any other proceedings provided for in this chapter in which the character of such services was determined.

2. Shall, upon the discovery of an error in computation, reconsider any prior determination or redetermination of contribution rate after the 15-day period has expired, and issue a revised notice of contribution rate as so redetermined. Such redetermination shall be subject to review, and become conclusive and binding in absence thereof, in the same manner as the determination provided in subparagraph 1. No such reconsideration shall be made after the March 31 immediately following the calendar year with respect to which the contribution rate is applicable, nor shall interest accrue on any additional contributions found to be due until 30 days after the employer is mailed notice of his revised contribution rate.

3. The division may provide by regulation for periodic notification to employers of benefits paid and chargeable to their accounts or of the status of such accounts, and any such notification, in the absence of an application for redetermination filed in such manner and within such period as the division may prescribe, shall become conclusive and binding upon the employer for all purposes of this chapter. Such redetermination, and the division's finding of fact in connection therewith, may be introduced in any subsequent administrative or judicial proceedings involving the determination of the rate of contributions of any employer for any calendar year and shall be entitled to the same finality as is provided in this subsection with respect to the findings of fact made by the division in proceedings to redetermine the contribution rate of an employer.

(j)1. If the division finds that an employer's business is closed solely because of the entrance of one or more of the owners, officers, partners, or the majority stockholder into the Armed Forces of the United States, or any of its allies, or of the United Nations after June 30, 1950, such employer's experience-rating record shall not be terminated; and, if the business is resumed within 2 years after the discharge or release from active duty in the Armed Forces of such person or persons, the employer's experience shall be deemed to have been continuous throughout such period. The benefit ratio of any such employer for the calendar year in which he resumed business and the 3 calendar years immediately following shall be a percentage equal to the total of his benefit charges (including charges of benefits paid to any individual during the period the employer was in the Armed Forces based upon wages paid by him prior to his entrance into such forces) for the 3 most recently completed calendar years divided by that part of his total payroll, with respect to which contributions have been paid to the division, for the 3 most recent calendar years during the whole of which, respectively, such employer has been in business.

2. Provided, that no cash refund shall be made with respect to any adjustment required hereunder, but such refund shall be made by credit memorandum only.

(k) This subsection shall apply only to employers who are liable for contributions under the contributory system of financing unemployment compensation benefits. This subsection shall not in any way be construed to apply to employers who are liable for payments in lieu of contributions as provided in subsections (4) and (5).

(l) The provisions of subsection (2) and of this subsection shall not be applicable to employers using the reimbursable method of financing benefit payments.

(4) FINANCING BENEFITS PAID TO EMPLOYEES OF NONPROFIT ORGANIZATIONS.—Benefits paid to employees of nonprofit organizations shall be financed in accordance with the provisions of this subsection. For the purpose of this subsection, a nonprofit organization is an organization or group of organizations described in s. 501(c)(3) of the United States Internal Revenue Code which is exempt from income tax under s. 501(a) of such code.

(a) Liability for contributions and election of reimbursement.—Any nonprofit organization which, pursuant to s. 443.03(7)(c) or s. 443.09(3)(a) is, or becomes, subject to this chapter on or after January 1, 1972, shall pay contributions under the provisions of subsection (1), unless it elects, in accordance with this paragraph, to pay to the division for the Unemployment Compensation Trust Fund an amount equal to the amount of regular benefits and of one-half of the extended benefits paid, that is attributable to service in the employ of such nonprofit organization, to individuals for weeks of unemployment which begin during the effective period of such election.

1. Any nonprofit organization which is, or becomes, subject to this chapter on January 1, 1972, may elect to become liable for payments in lieu of contributions for a period of not less than 2 calendar years beginning with January 1, 1972, provided it files with the division a written notice of its election within the 30-day period immediately following such date.

2. Any nonprofit organization which becomes subject to this chapter after January 1, 1972, may elect to become liable for payments in lieu of contributions for not less than the period beginning with the date on which such subjectivity begins and ending at the end of the next calendar year by filing a written notice of its election with the division not later than 30 days immediately following the date of the determination of such subjectivity.

3. Any nonprofit organization which makes an election in accordance with subparagraphs 1. or 2. of this paragraph will continue to be liable for payments in lieu of contributions until it files with the division a written notice terminating its election not later than 30 days prior to the beginning of the calendar year for which such termination shall first be effective.

4. Any nonprofit organization which has been paying contributions under this chapter for a period subsequent to January 1, 1972, may change to a reimbursable basis by filing with the division not later than 30 days prior to the beginning of any calendar year a written notice of election to become liable for payments in lieu of contributions. Such election shall not be terminable by the organization for that and the next calendar year.

5. The division, in accordance with such regulations as the division may prescribe, shall notify each nonprofit organization of any determination of its status as an employer and of the effective date of any election which it makes and of any termination of such election. Such determinations shall be subject to reconsideration, appeal, and review in accordance with the provisions of s. 443.15(2)(b).

(b) Reimbursement payments.—Payments in lieu of contributions shall be made in accordance with the provisions of this paragraph.

1. At the end of each calendar quarter or at the end of any other period as determined by the division, the division shall bill each nonprofit organization, or group of such organizations, which has elected to make payments in lieu of contributions for an amount equal to the full amount of regular benefits plus one-half of the amount of extended benefits paid during such quarter or other prescribed period that is attributable to service in the employ of such organization.

2. Payment of any bill rendered under subparagraph 1. shall be made not later than 30 days after such bill was mailed to the last known address of the nonprofit organization or was otherwise delivered to it, unless there has been an application for review and redetermination in accordance with subparagraph 4.

3. Payments made by any nonprofit organization under the provisions of this subsection shall not be deducted or deductible, in whole or in part, from the remuneration of individuals in the employ of the organization.

4. The amount due specified in any bill from the division shall be conclusive on the organization unless, not later than 15 days after the bill was mailed to its last known address or otherwise delivered to it, the organization files an application for redetermination by the division, setting forth the grounds for such application. The division shall promptly review and reconsider the amount due specified in the bill and shall thereafter issue a redetermination in any case in which such application for redetermination has been filed. Any such redetermination shall be conclusive on the organization unless, not later than 15 days after the redetermination was mailed to its last known address or otherwise delivered to it, the organization files its protest thereof, setting forth the grounds for the appeal. Proceedings on such protest shall be in accordance with the provisions of s. 443.15(2), relating to protests of assessments.

5. Past due payments of amounts in lieu of contributions shall be subject to the same interest and penalties that, pursuant to s. 443.15(1), apply to past due contributions.

6. Each employer who is liable for payments in lieu of contributions shall be charged his proportionate share of benefits, and the Unemployment Compensation Trust Fund shall be reimbursed in full.

(c) Authority to terminate elections.—If any nonprofit organization is delinquent in making payments in lieu of contributions as required under paragraph (b) of this subsection, the division may terminate such organization's election to make payments in lieu of contributions as of the beginning of the next calendar year, and such termination shall be effective for that and the next calendar year.

(d) Allocations of benefit costs.—Each employer that is liable for payments in lieu of contributions shall pay to the division for the fund the amount of regular benefits plus the amount of one-half of extended benefits paid that are attributable to service in the employ of such employer. If benefits paid to an individual are based on wages paid by more than one employer and one or more of such employers are liable for payments in lieu of contributions, the amount payable to the fund by each employer that is liable for such payments shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of subparagraph 1. or subparagraph 2.

1. Proportionate allocation when fewer than all base-period employers are liable for reimbursement.—If benefits paid to an individual are based on wages paid by one or more employers that are liable for payments in lieu of contributions and on wages paid by one or more employers who are liable for contributions, the amount of benefits payable by each employer that is liable for payments in lieu of contributions shall be an amount which bears the same ratio to the total benefits paid to the individual as the total base-period wages paid to the individual by such employer bear to the total base-period wages paid to the individual by all of his base-period employers.

2. Proportionate allocation when all base-period employers are liable for reimbursement.—If benefits paid to an individual are based on wages paid by two or more employers that are liable for payments in lieu of contributions, the amount of benefits payable by each such employer shall be an amount which bears the same ratio to the total benefits paid to the individual as the total base-period wages paid to the individual by such employer bear to the total base-period wages paid to the individual by all of his base-period employers.

(e) Group accounts.—Two or more employers that have become liable for payments in lieu of contributions, in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (a) and s. 443.09(3), may file a joint application to the division for the establishment of a group account for the purpose of sharing the cost of benefits paid that are attributable to service in the employ of such employers. Each such application shall identify and authorize a group representative to act as the group's agent for the purposes of this paragraph. Upon its approval of the application, the division shall establish a group account for such employers effective as of the beginning of the calendar year in which it receives the application and shall notify the group's representative of the effective date of the account. Such account shall remain in effect for not less than 2 calendar years and thereafter until terminated at the discretion of the division or upon application by the group. Upon establishment of the account, each member of the group shall be liable for payments in lieu of contributions with respect to each calendar quarter in the amount that bears the same ratio to the total benefits paid in such quarter that are attributable to service performed in the employ of all members of the group as the total wages paid for service in employment by such member in such quarter bear to the total wages paid during such quarter for service performed in the employ of all members of the group. The division shall prescribe such regulations as it deems necessary with respect to applications for establishment, maintenance, and termination of group accounts that are authorized by this paragraph, for addition of new members to, and withdrawal of active members from, such accounts, and for the determination of the amounts that are payable under this paragraph by members of the group and the time and manner of such payments.

(5) FINANCING BENEFITS PAID TO EMPLOYEES OF THE STATE AND POLITICAL SUBDIVISIONS OF THE STATE.—Benefits paid to employees of this state or any instrumentality of this state, or to employees of any political subdivision of this state, or any instrumentality thereof, based upon service defined in s. 443.03(5)(b), shall be financed in accordance with this subsection.

(a)1. Unless an election is made as provided in paragraph (c), the state or any political subdivision of the state shall pay into the Unemployment Compensation Trust Fund an amount equivalent to the amount of regular and extended benefits paid to individuals, based on wages paid by the state or the political subdivision for service defined in s. 443.03(5)(b).

2. Should any state agency become more than 120 days delinquent on reimbursements due to the Unemployment Compensation Trust Fund, the Division of Employment Security shall certify to the Comptroller the amount due and the Comptroller shall, upon approval after a hearing by the Department of Administration, transfer the amount due to the Unemployment Compensation Trust Fund from the funds of such agency that may legally be utilized for such purpose. In the event any political subdivision of the state or any instrumentality thereof becomes more than 120 days delinquent on reimbursements due to the Unemployment Compensation Trust Fund, then, upon request by the Division of Employment Security after a hearing, the Department of Revenue or the Department of Banking and Finance, as the case may be, shall deduct the amount owed by the political subdivision or instrumentality from any funds to be distributed by it to the county, city, special district, or consolidated form of government for further distribution to the trust fund in accordance with this chapter. Should any employer for whom the city or county tax collector collects taxes fail to make the reimbursements to the Unemployment Compensation Trust Fund required by this chapter, the tax collector after a hearing, at the request of the Division of Employment Security and upon receipt of a certificate showing the amount owed by the employer, shall deduct the amount so certified from any taxes collected for the employer and remit same to the Department of Labor and Employment Security for further distribution to the trust fund in accordance with this chapter. This subparagraph shall not apply to those amounts due for benefits paid prior to October 1, 1979. This subparagraph shall not apply to amounts owed by a political subdivision for benefits erroneously paid where the claimant is required to repay to the division under s. 443.07(6)(a) or (b) any sum as benefits received.

(b) The provisions of paragraphs (b), (d), and (e) of subsection (4), relating to reimbursement payments, allocation of benefit costs, and group accounts with respect to nonprofit organizations, shall be applicable also, to the extent allowed by federal law, with respect to the duties of this state or any political subdivision of this state as an "employer" by reason of s. 443.03(7)(b).

(c) Any employer subject to the provisions of this subsection may elect the contribution financing method as provided by law in lieu of the reimbursement financing method provided in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection.

(d) Upon establishing a financing method as provided by this subsection, such financing method shall be applicable for not less than 2 calendar years. Nothing herein shall be construed to prevent an employer subject to the provisions of this subsection from electing to change its method of financing after completing 2 calendar years under another financing method, so long as such new election is timely filed.

(6) PUBLIC EMPLOYERS UNEMPLOYMENT COMPENSATION BENEFIT ACCOUNT.—

(a) There is established a Public Employers Unemployment Compensation Benefit Account which will be maintained with separate accounting as a part of the Florida Unemployment Compensation Trust Fund. All benefits paid to public employees shall be charged to the Public Employers Unemployment Compensation Benefit Account.

(b) Governmental entities subject to the Florida Unemployment Compensation Law under s. 443.03(5)(b) who exercise the option to elect the contributory system of financing unemployment compensation benefits shall have their accounts maintained and shall be subject to the provisions of s. 443.08(1), (2), and (3), except that:

1. The term "taxable wages" shall mean total gross wages.

2. The initial contribution rate shall be 0.25 percent.

3. Any election by an employer to be taxed under this subsection shall be effective January 1 and shall be taxed at the initial rate. Effective January 1 of the following year, the rate shall be computed based on 2 calendar quarters of chargeability and payroll; effective January 1 of the second year after such election, based on 6 quarters of chargeability and payroll; and January 1 of the third year after such election, on 10 quarters of chargeability and payrolls. Each January 1 thereafter, the tax rates shall be computed based on 12 quarters of chargeability and payroll.

4. An employer electing to be taxed under the provisions of this subsection shall make such election not later than 30 days prior to January 1 of the year for which the election is to be effective. Upon electing this financing method, such method shall be applicable for not less than 2 years.

5. Any election under this subsection may be terminated by filing with the division, not later than 30 days prior to January 1, a written notice of termination.

443.09 Employing units affected.—

(1) PERIODS OF LIABILITY.—

(a) Any employing unit which is or becomes an employer subject to this chapter as defined in s. 443.03(7)(a), (b), (c), (d), or (e) within any calendar year shall be subject to this chapter during the whole of such calendar year.

(b) Any employing unit which is or becomes an employer subject to this chapter solely by reason of the provisions of s. 443.03(7)(f) shall be subject to this chapter only during its operation of the business acquired.

(c) Any employing unit which is or becomes an employer subject to this chapter solely by reason of the provisions of s. 443.03(7)(g) shall be subject to this chapter only with respect to employment occurring subsequent to the date of such acquisition.

(2) TERMINATION OF COVERAGE.—

(a) General.—Except as otherwise provided in this section, an employing unit shall cease to be an employer subject to this chapter as of January 1 of any calendar year only if it files with the division, by April 30 of the year for which termination is requested, a written application for termination of coverage and the division finds that the employing unit, in the preceding calendar year, did not meet the requirements of an employer, as defined in s. 443.03(7)(a), (d), or (e). However, the above prescribed time limitation for the filing of such written application may be waived by the division in cases where such time limitation had expired prior to the establishment in the records of the division of the liability of such employing unit. For the purposes of this subsection the two or more employing units mentioned in s. 443.03(7)(f), (g), and (i) shall be treated as a single employing unit.

(b) Nonprofit organizations.—Except as otherwise provided in subsection (4), an employing unit subject to this chapter by reason of s. 443.03(5)(c) shall cease to be an employer so subject as of January 1 of any calendar year only if it files with the division, by April 30 of the year for which termination is requested, a written application for termination of coverage and the division finds that there were no 20 different days, each day being in a different week within the preceding calendar year, within which such employing unit employed four or more individuals in employment subject to this chapter. The timely filing of application may be waived as provided in (a).

(c) State and political subdivisions.—The state and any political subdivision of the state shall remain an employer subject to this chapter for the duration of any employment defined in s. 443.03(5)(b), and shall cease being so subject only pursuant to subsection (4) of this section.

(3) ELECTIVE COVERAGE.—

(a) General.—An employing unit, not otherwise subject to this chapter, which files with the division its written election to become an employer subject hereto for not less than 1 calendar year, shall, with written approval of such election by the division, become an employer subject hereto to the same extent as all other employers as of the date stated in such approval, and shall cease to be subject hereto as of January 1 of any calendar year subsequent to the first calendar year of its election only if, by April 30 of such subsequent year, such employing unit has filed with the division a written notice to that effect. However, at the expiration of the calendar year of such election the division may reconsider such voluntary election of coverage and may in its discretion notify such employer that such employer will not be carried upon the records of the division as an employer, and thereupon such employer shall cease to be an employer under the provisions of this chapter as of January 1 of the year next succeeding the last calendar year during which it was an employer under this chapter.

(b) State and political subdivision.—Any employing unit, including this state or any political subdivision thereof, or any instrumentality of any one or more of the foregoing which is wholly owned by this state or by one or more of its political subdivisions, for which services that do not constitute employment as defined in this chapter are performed may file with the division a written election that all such services performed by individuals in its employ in one or more distinct establishments or places of business shall be deemed to constitute employment for all the purposes of this chapter for not less than one calendar year. Upon written approval of such election by the division, such services shall be deemed to constitute employment subject to this chapter from and after the date stated in such approval. Such services shall cease to be deemed employment subject hereto as of January 1 of any calendar year subsequent to such calendar year only if, by April 30 of such subsequent year, such employing unit has filed with the division a written notice to that effect.

(c) Certain services for political subdivisions.—

1. Any political subdivision of this state may elect to cover under this chapter, for not less than one calendar year, service performed by employees in all of the hospitals and institutions of higher education, as defined in s. 443.03(5)(b), operated by such political subdivision. Election is to be made by filing with the division a notice of such election at least 30 days prior to the effective date of such election. The election may exclude any services described in s. 443.03(5)(d). Any political subdivision electing coverage under this paragraph shall make payments in lieu of contributions with respect to benefits attributable to such employment as provided with respect to nonprofit organizations in s. 443.08(4)(b) and (d).

2. The provisions in s. 443.05(4) with respect to benefit rights based on service for nonprofit organizations and state hospitals and institutions of higher education shall be applicable also to service covered by an election under this section.

3. The amounts required to be paid in lieu of contributions by any political subdivision under this paragraph shall be billed and payment made as provided in s. 443.08(4)(b) with respect to similar payments by nonprofit organizations.

4. An election under this paragraph may be terminated after not less than 1 calendar year of coverage by filing with the division written notice not later than 30 days preceding the last day of the calendar year in which the termination is to be effective. Such termination becomes effective as of January 1 of the next ensuing calendar year with respect to services performed after that date.

(4) INACTIVE EMPLOYERS.—Notwithstanding the other provisions of this section, if the division finds that an employer has become inactive and has ceased to be an employing unit as defined by this chapter for a complete calendar year the division may automatically terminate the account of such employer as of January 1 of any year following a complete calendar year in which such employer has ceased to be an employing unit, and thereupon such employer shall cease to be an employer subject to the provisions of this chapter.

443.10 Unemployment Compensation Trust Fund; establishment and control.—

(1) There is hereby established as a special fund separate and apart from all public moneys or funds of this state, an Unemployment Compensation Trust Fund, which shall be administered by the division exclusively for the purposes of this chapter. This fund shall consist of:

- (a) All contributions collected under this chapter;
- (b) Interest earned upon any moneys in the fund;
- (c) Any property or securities acquired through the use of moneys belonging to the fund;
- (d) All earnings of such property or securities; and
- (e) All money credited to this state's account in the Unemployment Compensation Trust Fund pursuant to s. 903 of the Social Security Act as amended.

All moneys in the fund shall be mingled and undivided.

(2) The State Treasurer shall be the ex officio treasurer and custodian of the fund and shall administer such fund in accordance with the directions of the division. All payments from the fund shall be approved by the division or by a duly authorized agent and shall be made by the Treasurer upon warrants issued by the Comptroller and countersigned by the Governor except as hereinafter provided. The Treasurer shall maintain within the fund three separate accounts:

- (a) A clearing account;

- (b) An Unemployment Compensation Trust Fund account; and

- (c) A benefit account.

All moneys payable to the fund, including moneys received from the United States as reimbursement for extended benefits paid by the division, upon receipt thereof by the division, shall be forwarded to the Treasurer who shall immediately deposit them in the clearing account. Refunds payable pursuant to s. 443.15 may be paid from the clearing account upon warrants issued by the Comptroller as above set forth. After clearance thereof, all other moneys in the clearing account shall be immediately deposited with the Secretary of the Treasury of the United States to the credit of the account of this state in the Unemployment Compensation Trust Fund established and maintained pursuant to s. 904 of the Social Security Act, as amended, any provisions of the law in this state relating to the deposit, administration, release, or disbursement of moneys in the possession or custody of this state to the contrary notwithstanding. The benefit account shall consist of all moneys requisitioned from this state's account in the Unemployment Compensation Trust Fund. Except as herein otherwise provided, moneys in the clearing and benefit accounts may be deposited by the Treasurer, under the direction of the division, in any bank or public depository in which general funds of the state may be deposited, but no public deposit insurance charge or premium shall be paid out of the fund. If any warrant issued against the clearing account or the benefit account is not presented for payment within 1 year after issuance thereof, the Comptroller shall cancel the same and credit without restriction the amount of such warrant to the account upon which it is drawn. When the payee or person entitled to any warrant so canceled requests payment thereof, the Comptroller, upon direction of the division, shall issue a new warrant therefor, to be paid out of the account against which the canceled warrant had been drawn. The Treasurer shall be liable on his official bond for the faithful performance of his duties as custodian of the fund.

(3) Moneys shall be requisitioned from the state's account in the Unemployment Compensation Trust Fund solely for the payment of benefits and extended benefits and in accordance with regulations prescribed by the [division], except that money credited to this state's account pursuant to s. 903 of the Social Security Act as amended shall be used exclusively as provided in subsection (5). The division, through the Treasurer, shall from time to time requisition from the Unemployment Compensation Trust Fund such amounts, not exceeding the amounts standing to this state's account therein, as it deems necessary for the payment of benefits and extended benefits for a reasonable future period. Upon receipt thereof the Treasurer shall deposit such moneys in the benefit account in the State Treasury and warrants for the payment of benefits and extended benefits shall be drawn by the Comptroller upon the order of the division against such benefit account. All warrants for benefits and extended benefits shall be payable directly to the ultimate beneficiary. Expenditures of such moneys in the benefit account and refunds from the clearing account shall not be subject to any provisions of law requiring specific appropriations or other formal release by state officers of money in their custody. All warrants issued for the payment of benefits and refunds shall bear the signature of the Comptroller and the countersignature of the Governor as above set forth. Any balance of moneys requisitioned from the Unemployment Compensation Trust Fund which remains unclaimed or unpaid in the benefit account after the expiration of the period for which such sums were requisitioned shall either be deducted from estimates for, and may be utilized for the payment of, benefits and extended benefits during succeeding periods, or, in the discretion of the division, shall be redeposited with the Secretary of the Treasury of the United States, to the credit of this state's account in the Unemployment Compensation Trust Fund, as provided in subsection (2) of this section.

(4) The provisions of subsections (1), (2), and (3), to the extent that they relate to the Unemployment Compensation Trust Fund, shall be operative only so long as such unemployment trust fund continues to exist and so long as the Secretary of the Treasury of the United States continues to maintain for this state a separate book account of all funds deposited therein by this state for benefit purposes, together with this state's proportionate share of the earnings of such Unemployment Compensation Trust Fund, from which no other state is permitted to make withdrawals. If and when such Unemployment Compensation Trust Fund ceases to exist, or such separate book account is no longer maintained, all moneys, properties, or securities therein, belonging to the Unemployment Compensation Trust Fund of this state shall be transferred to the Treasurer of the Unemployment Compensation Trust Fund, who shall hold, invest, transfer, sell, deposit, and release such moneys, properties, or securities in a manner approved by the division in accordance with the provisions of this chapter; provided that such moneys shall be invested in the following readily marketable classes of securities: Bonds or other interest-bearing obligations of the United States or of the state. Provided further, that such investment shall at all times be so made that all the assets of the fund shall always be readily convertible into cash when needed for the payment of benefits. The Treasurer shall dispose of securities or other properties belonging to the Unemployment Compensation Trust Fund only under the direction of the division.

(5) MONEY CREDITED UNDER SECTION 903 OF THE SOCIAL SECURITY ACT.—

(a) Money credited to the account of this state in the Unemployment Compensation Trust Fund by the Secretary of the Treasury of the United States pursuant to s. 903 of the Social Security Act may not be requisitioned from this state's account or used except for the payment of benefits and for the payment of expenses incurred for the administration of this law. Such money may be requisitioned pursuant to subsection (3) for the payment of benefits. Such money may also be requisitioned and used for the payment of expenses incurred for the administration of this law but only pursuant to a specific appropriation by the Legislature and only if the expenses are incurred and the money is requisitioned after the enactment of an appropriation law which:

1. Specifies the purposes for which such money is appropriated and the amounts appropriated therefor;

2. Limits the period within which such money may be obligated to a period ending not more than 2 years after the date of the enactment of the appropriation law; and

3. Limits the amount which may be obligated during any 12-month period beginning on July 1 and ending on the next June 30 to an amount which does not exceed the amount by which the aggregate of the amounts credited to the account of this state pursuant to s. 903 of the Social Security Act during the same 12-month period and the 14 preceding 12-month periods, exceeds the aggregate of the amounts obligated for administration and paid out for benefits and charged against the amounts credited to the account of this state during such 15 12-month periods.

(b) Amounts credited to this state's account in the Unemployment Compensation Trust Fund under s. 903 of the Social Security Act which are obligated for administration or paid out for benefits shall be charged against equivalent amounts which were first credited and which are not already so charged; except that no amount obligated for administration during a 12-month period specified herein may be charged against any amount credited during such a 12-month period earlier than the fourteenth preceding such period. Any amount credited to the state's account under s. 903 which has been appropriated for expenses of administration, whether or not withdrawn from the Unemployment Compensation Trust Fund, shall be excluded from the Unemployment Compensation Trust Fund balance for the purposes of s. 443.08(3).

(c) Money appropriated as provided herein for the payment of expenses of administration shall be requisitioned as needed for the payment of obligations incurred under such appropriation and, upon requisition, shall be deposited in the Employment Security Administration Trust Fund from which such payments shall be made. Money so deposited shall, until expended, remain a part of the Unemployment Compensation Trust Fund and, if it will not be expended, shall be returned promptly to the account of this state in the Unemployment Compensation Trust Fund.

Note.—Bracketed word was substituted by the editors for the word "commission" to conform to ch. 69-106, the Reorganization Act of 1969. See s. 17(4) and (8). The bracketed substitution reflects the fact that administrative functions formerly attributed to the Florida Industrial Commission are now performed by the division.

443.11 Administrative organization.—

(1) BUREAUS.—

(a) There are hereby created and established in the Division of Employment Security two coordinate bureaus, the Bureau of Employment Services, established pursuant to s. 443.13, and a Bureau of Unemployment Compensation. Each bureau shall be a separate administrative unit and shall be responsible for the discharge of its distinctive functions except insofar as the division may find that such division is impracticable. Each bureau shall pay its proportionate part of the administrative costs for the division.

(b) The director of the division and each of the members of the commission shall receive their salaries from the trust fund created by s. 443.14(1).

(2) OBSOLETE RECORDS.—The division is expressly authorized to provide by regulation for the destruction of obsolete records of the division.

(3) ADVANCES.—The division is authorized and directed to apply for an advance to the State Unemployment Compensation Trust Fund and to accept responsibility for the repayment of such advance in accordance with the conditions specified in Title XII of the Social Security Act as amended, in order to secure to this state and its citizens the advantages available under the provisions of said Title XII of the Social Security Act.

443.12 Division and commission; powers and duties; rules and regulations; advisory council; records and reports; cooperation, etc.—

(1) POWERS AND DUTIES OF DIVISION.—It shall be the duty of the division to administer this chapter; and it shall have power and authority to employ such persons, make such expenditures, require such reports, make such investigations, and take such other action as it deems necessary or suitable to that end. The division shall determine its own organization and methods of procedure in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. Not later than March 15 of each year, the division, through the Department of Labor and Employment Security, shall submit to the Governor a report covering the administration and operation of this chapter during the preceding calendar year and shall make such recommendations for amendment to this chapter as it deems proper.

(2) RULES AND REGULATIONS; DIVISION, SEAL.—

(a) The division shall have the power and authority to adopt, amend, or rescind such rules and regulations as are necessary for the administration of this chapter.

(b) The division shall have an official seal, which shall be judicially noticed.

(3) PUBLICATION OF ACTS AND RULES AND REGULATIONS.—The division shall cause to be printed and distributed to the public the text of this chapter, the regulations and rules adopted by the [division], the division's annual report to the Governor, and any other matter the division deems relevant and suitable, and shall furnish this information to any person upon application therefor. However, no pamphlet, rules, circulars or reports required by this chapter shall contain any matter except the actual data necessary to complete same or the actual language of the said rule or regulation, together with proper notices thereof.

(4) PERSONNEL.—Subject to chapter 110 and the other provisions of this chapter, the division is authorized to appoint, fix the compensation, and prescribe the duties and powers of such employees, accountants, attorneys, experts, and other persons as may be necessary in the performance of its duties under this chapter. The division may delegate to any such person such power and authority as it deems reasonable and proper for the effective administration of this chapter, and may in its discretion bond any person handling moneys or signing checks hereunder; the cost of such bonds shall be paid from the Employment Security Administration Trust Fund.

<sup>2</sup>(5) ADVISORY COUNCIL.—The division shall appoint a state Unemployment Insurance Advisory Council, composed of men and women, including an equal number of employer representatives and employee representatives who may fairly be regarded as representative because of their vocation, employment, or affiliations, and of such members representing the general public as the division may designate. Such council shall aid the division in reviewing the unemployment insurance program as to its content, adequacy and effectiveness and make recommendations for its improvement. Members of the Unemployment Insurance Advisory Council shall serve without compensation, but shall be reimbursed for any travel and subsistence expense incurred, in accordance with the travel and subsistence regulations applicable to employees of the division. The advisory council shall meet as frequently as the division deems necessary, but not less than twice each year. The advisory council shall make reports of its meetings, which shall include a record of its discussions and its recommendations. The division shall make such reports available to any interested persons or groups.

(6) EMPLOYMENT STABILIZATION.—The division with the advice and aid of advisory councils shall take all appropriate steps to reduce and prevent unemployment; to encourage and assist in the adoption of practical methods of vocational training, retraining and vocational guidance; to investigate, recommend, advise, and assist in the establishment and operation, by municipalities, counties, school districts and the state of reserves for public works to be used in times of business depression and unemployment; to promote the reemployment of the unemployed workers throughout the state in every other way that may be feasible; and to these ends to carry on and publish the results of investigations and research studies.

(7) RECORDS AND REPORTS.—Each employing unit shall keep true and accurate work records, containing such information as the division may prescribe. Such records shall be open to inspection and be subject to being copied by the division at any reasonable time and as often as may be necessary. The division or an appeals referee may require from any employing unit any sworn or unsworn reports, with respect to persons employed by it, deemed necessary for the effective administration of this chapter. Information thus obtained, or obtained from any individual pursuant to the administration of this chapter, shall, except to the extent necessary for the proper presentation of a claim or upon written authorization of the claimant who has a workers' compensation claim pending, be held confidential and shall not be published or be open to public inspection (other than to public employees in the performance of their public duties), in any manner revealing the individual's or employing unit's identity, but any claimant (or his legal representative) at a hearing before an appeals referee or the commission shall be supplied with information from such records to the extent necessary for the proper presentation of his claim. Any employee or member of the commission or any employee of the division who violates any provision of this subsection shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083. Provided, however, the division may furnish to any employer copies of any report previously submitted by such employer, upon the request of such employer, and the division is authorized to charge therefor such reasonable fee as the division may by regulations prescribe not to exceed the actual reasonable cost of the preparation of such copies. Fees received by the division for copies as herein provided shall be deposited to the credit of the Employment Security Administration Trust Fund.

(8) OATHS AND WITNESSES.—In the discharge of the duties imposed by this chapter, the division, the appeals referees, the members of the commission and any duly authorized representative of any of them shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations, take depositions, certify to official acts, and issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, and other records deemed necessary as evidence in connection with the administration of this chapter.

(9) SUBPOENAS.—In case of contumacy by, or refusal to obey a subpoena issued to any person, any court of this state within the jurisdiction of which the inquiry is carried on, or within the jurisdiction of which said person guilty of contumacy or refusal to obey is found or resides, or transacts business, upon application by the division, the commission, an appeals referee, or any duly authorized representative of any of them shall have jurisdiction to issue to such person an order requiring such person to appear before the division, the commission, an appeals referee, or any duly authorized representative of any of them, there to produce evidence if so ordered or there to give testimony touching on the matter under investigation or in question; and any failure to obey such order of the court may be punished by said court as a contempt thereof. Any person who shall without just cause fail or refuse to attend and testify or to answer any lawful inquiry or to produce books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, and other records, if it is in his power to do so, in obedience to a subpoena of the division, the commission, an appeals referee, or any duly authorized representative of any of them, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083, and each day such violation continues shall be a separate offense.

(10) PROTECTION AGAINST SELF-INCRIMINATION.—No person shall be excused from attending and testifying, or from producing books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, and other records before the division, the commission, an appeals referee, or any duly authorized representative of any of them, or in obedience to the subpoena of any of them in any cause or proceeding before the division, the commission, or any appeals referee, on the ground that the testimony or evidence, documentary or otherwise, required of him may tend to incriminate him or subject him to a penalty or forfeiture; but no individual shall be prosecuted or subjected to any penalty or forfeiture for or on account of any transaction, matter or thing concerning which he is compelled, after having claimed his privilege against self-incrimination, to testify or produce evidence, documentary or otherwise, except that such individual so testifying shall not be exempt from prosecution and punishment for perjury committed in so testifying.

(11) STATE-FEDERAL COOPERATION.—

(a)1. In the administration of this chapter, the division shall cooperate with the United States Department of Labor to the fullest extent consistent with the provisions of this chapter, and shall take such action, through the adoption of appropriate rules, regulations, administrative methods, and standards, as may be necessary to secure to this state and its citizens all advantages available under the provisions of the Social Security Act that relate to unemployment compensation, the Federal Unemployment Tax Act, the Wagner-Peyser Act, and the Federal-State Extended Unemployment Compensation Act of 1970, or other federal manpower acts.

2. In the administration of the provisions in s. 443.04(5), which are enacted to conform with the requirements of the Federal-State Extended Unemployment Compensation Act of 1970, the division shall take such action as may be necessary to ensure that the provisions are so interpreted and applied as to meet the requirements of such federal act as interpreted by the United States Department of Labor and to secure to this state the full reimbursement of the federal share of extended benefits paid under this chapter that are reimbursable under the Federal Act.

3. The division shall comply with the regulations of the United States Department of Labor relating to the receipt or expenditure by this state of moneys granted under any of such acts and shall make such reports, in such form and containing such information, as the United States Department of Labor may from time to time require, and shall comply with such provisions as the United States Department of Labor may from time to time find necessary to assure the correctness and verification of such reports.

(b) The division may afford reasonable cooperation with every agency of the United States charged with the administration of any unemployment insurance law.

(c) The division shall fully cooperate with the agencies of other states, and shall make every proper effort within its means, to oppose and prevent any further action which would in its judgment tend to effect complete or substantial federalization of state unemployment compensation funds or state employment security programs. The division may make, and may cooperate with other appropriate agencies in making, studies as to the practicability and probable cost of possible new state-administered social security programs, and the relative desirability of state, rather than federal, action in any such field.

(12) DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION.—Subject to such restrictions as the '[division] may by regulation prescribe, such information may be made available to any agency of this or any other state, or any federal agency, charged with the administration of any unemployment compensation law or the maintenance of a system of public employment offices, or the Bureau of Internal Revenue of the United States Department of the Treasury, and information obtained in connection with the administration of the employment service may be made available to persons or agencies for purposes appropriate to the operation of a public employment service. Upon request therefor the division shall furnish any agency of the United States charged with the administration of public works or assistance through public employment, and may furnish to any state agency similarly charged, the name, address, ordinary occupation, and employment status of each recipient of benefits and such recipient's rights to further benefits under this chapter. The division may request the Comptroller of the Currency of the United States to cause an examination of the correctness of any return or report of any national banking association rendered pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, and may in connection with such request transmit any such report or return to the Comptroller of the Currency of the United States as provided in s. 3305(c) of the Federal Internal Revenue Code.

Note.—Bracketed word was substituted by the editors for the word "commission" to conform to ch. 69-106, the Reorganization Act of 1969. See s. 17(4) and (8). The bracketed substitution reflects the fact that administrative functions formerly attributed to the Florida Industrial Commission are now performed by the division.

Note.—Repealed by s. 4, ch. 78-323, effective October 1, 1981, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this paragraph prior to that date.

443.13 State Employment Service.—

(1) The Florida State Employment Service is hereby established in the division. The division shall establish and maintain free public employment offices in such number and in such places as may be necessary for the proper administration of this chapter and for the purposes of performing such duties as are within the purview of the Act of Congress entitled "An Act to provide for the establishment of a national employment system and for cooperation with the states in the promotion of such system and for other purposes," approved June 6, 1933 (48 Stat. 113; 29 U.S.C. s. 49(c)), as amended. It shall be the duty of the division to cooperate with any official or agency of the United States having power or duties under the provisions of the Act of Congress, as amended, and to do and perform all things necessary to secure to this state the benefits of said Act of Congress, as amended, in the promotion and maintenance of a system of public employment offices. The provisions of the said Act of Congress, as amended, are hereby accepted by this state, in conformity with s. 4 of said act, and this state will observe and comply with the requirements thereof. The Division of Employment Security of the Department of Labor and Employment Security is hereby designated and constituted the agency of this state for the purpose of said act. The division is authorized and directed to appoint sufficient employees to carry out the purposes of this section. The division may cooperate with or enter into agreements with the Railroad Retirement Board with respect to the establishment, maintenance, and use of free employment service facilities.

(2) FINANCING.—All moneys received by this state under the said Act of Congress, as amended, shall be paid into the Employment Security Administration Trust Fund, and said moneys are hereby made available to the division to be expended as provided by this chapter and by said Act of Congress. For the purpose of establishing and maintaining free public employment offices, the division is authorized to enter into agreements with the Railroad Retirement Board or any other agency of the United States charged with the administration of an unemployment compensation law, with any political subdivision of this state, or with any private, nonprofit organization, and as a part of any such agreement the division may accept moneys, services, or quarters as a contribution to the Employment Security Administration Trust Fund.

History.—s. 13, ch. 18402, 1937; s. 8, ch. 19637, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 4151(500); s. 12, ch. 20685, 1941; s. 2, ch. 61-119; ss. 17, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 73-283; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 26, ch. 79-7.

443.14 Employment Security Administration Trust Fund; appropriation; reimbursement.—

(1) EMPLOYMENT SECURITY ADMINISTRATION TRUST FUND.—There is hereby created in the State Treasury a special fund to be known as "the Employment Security Administration Trust Fund." All moneys which are deposited or paid into this fund shall be continuously available to the division for expenditure in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, and shall not lapse at any time or be transferred to any other fund. All moneys in this fund which are received from the federal government or any agency thereof or which are appropriated by this state for the purposes described in ss. 443.12 and 443.13 except money received pursuant to s. 443.10(5)(c) shall be expended solely for the purposes and in the amounts found necessary by the authorized cooperating federal agencies for the proper and efficient administration of this chapter. The fund shall consist of all moneys appropriated by this state, and all moneys received from the United States, or any agency thereof, and all moneys received from any other source for such purpose, and shall also include any moneys received from any agency of the United States or any other state as compensation for services or facilities supplied to such agency, any amounts received pursuant to any surety bond or insurance policy or from other sources for losses sustained by the Employment Security Administration Trust Fund or by reason of damage to equipment or supplies purchased from moneys in such fund, and any proceeds realized from the sale or disposition of any such equipment or supplies which may no longer be necessary for the proper administration of this chapter. Notwithstanding any provision of this section, all money requisitioned and deposited in this fund pursuant to s. 443.10(5)(c) shall remain part of the Unemployment Compensation Trust Fund and shall be used only in accordance with the conditions specified in s. 443.10(5). All mon-neys in this fund shall be deposited, administered, and disbursed, in the same manner and under the same conditions and requirements as is provided by law for other special funds in the State Treasury. Such moneys shall be secured by the depositary in which they are held to the same extent and in the same manner as required by the general depositary law of the state and collateral pledged shall be maintained in a separate custody account. All payments from the Employment Security Administration Trust Fund shall be approved by the division or by a duly authorized agent and shall be made by the Treasurer upon warrants issued by the Comptroller and countersigned by the Governor. Any balances in this fund shall not lapse at any time, but shall be continuously available to the division for expenditure consistent with this chapter. The State Treasurer shall be liable on his official bond for the faithful performance of his duties in connection with the Employment Security Administration Trust Fund provided for under this chapter. Such liability on the official bond shall be effective immediately upon the enactment of this provision, and such liability shall exist in addition to any liability upon any separate bond existing on the effective date of this provision, or which may be given in the future. All sums recovered on any surety bond for losses sustained by the Employment Security Administration Trust Fund shall be deposited in said fund.

(2) SPECIAL EMPLOYMENT SECURITY ADMINISTRATION TRUST FUND.—There is hereby created in the State Treasury a special fund, to be known as the "Special Employment Security Administration Trust Fund," into which shall be deposited or transferred all interest on contributions, penalties, and fines or fees collected under this chapter. Interest on contributions, penalties, and fines or fees deposited during any calendar quarter in the clearing account in the Unemployment Compensation Trust Fund shall, as soon as practicable after the close of such calendar quarter and upon certification of the division, be transferred to the Special Employment Security Administration Trust Fund; however, there shall be withheld from any such transfer the amount certified by the division to be required under this chapter to pay refunds of interest on contributions, penalties, and fines or fees collected after June 30, 1947, and erroneously deposited into the clearing account in the Unemployment Compensation Trust Fund. Such amounts of interest and penalties so certified for transfer shall be deemed to have been erroneously deposited in the clearing account and the transfer thereof to the Special Employment Security Administration Trust Fund shall be deemed to be a refund of such erroneous deposits. All moneys in this fund shall be deposited, administered, and disbursed in the same manner and under the same conditions and requirements as is provided by law for other special funds in the State Treasury. Said moneys shall not be expended or be available for expenditure in any manner which would permit their substitution for, or permit a corresponding reduction in, federal funds which would, in the absence of said moneys, be available to finance expenditures for the administration of the Unemployment Compensation Law. But nothing in this section shall prevent said moneys from being used as a revolving fund to cover expenditures, necessary and proper under the law, for which federal funds have been duly requested but not yet received, subject to the charging of such expenditures against such funds when received. The moneys in this fund, with the approval of the Executive Office of the Governor, shall be used by the division for the payment of costs of administration which are found not to have been properly and validly chargeable against funds obtained from federal sources. All moneys in the Special Employment Security Administration Trust Fund shall be continuously available to the division for expenditure in accordance with the provisions of this chapter and shall not lapse at any time. All payments from the Special Employment Security Administration Trust Fund shall be approved by the division or by a duly authorized agent thereof and shall be made by the Treasurer upon warrants issued by the Comptroller and countersigned by the Governor. The moneys in this fund are hereby specifically made available to replace, as contemplated by subsection (3), expenditures from the Employment Security Administration Trust Fund, established by subsection (1), which have been found by the Bureau of Employment Security, or other authorized federal agency or authority, because of any action or contingency, to have been lost or improperly expended. The Treasurer shall be liable on his official bond for the faithful performance of his duties in connection with the Special Employment Security Administration Trust Fund.

(3) REIMBURSEMENT OF FUND.—If any moneys received after June 30, 1941, from the Bureau of Employment Security under Title III of the Social Security Act, or any unencumbered balances in the Employment Security Administration Trust Fund as of that date, or any moneys granted after that date to this state pursuant to the provisions of the Wagner-Peyser Act, or any moneys made available by this state or its political subdivisions and matched by such moneys granted to this state pursuant to the provisions of the Wagner-Peyser Act, after reasonable notice and opportunity for hearing, are found by the Bureau of Employment Security, because of any action or contingency, to have been lost or been expended for purposes other than, or in amounts in excess of, those found necessary by the Bureau of Employment Security for the proper administration of this chapter, it is the policy of this state that such moneys shall be replaced by moneys appropriated for such purposes from the general funds of this state to the Employment Security Administration Trust Fund for expenditure as provided in subsection (1). Upon receipt of notice of such a finding by the Bureau of Employment Security, the division shall promptly report the amount required for such replacement to the Governor and the Governor shall at the earliest opportunity, submit to the Legislature a request for the appropriation of such amount. This subsection shall not be construed to relieve this state of its obligation with respect to funds received prior to July 1, 1941, pursuant to the provisions of Title III of the Social Security Act.

(4) EXEMPTION OF FUND FROM CERTAIN LAWS.—The Special Employment Security Administration Trust Fund provided for in subsection (2) is hereby exempt from the application of any laws of the Legislature of 1949, other than this subsection, and specifically from the application or effect by the continuing appropriations law.

History.—s. 14, ch. 18402, 1937; s. 9, ch. 19637, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 4151(501); s. 13, ch. 20685, 1941; s. 4, ch. 24084, 1947; s. 1, ch. 25206, 1949; s. 11, ch. 25035, 1949; ss. 10, 11, ch. 29771, 1955; s. 4, ch. 59-99; s. 2, ch. 61-119; ss. 17, 31, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 71-215; s. 139, ch. 79-190.

443.15 Collection of contributions.—

(1) PAST DUE CONTRIBUTIONS.—

(a) Interest.—Contributions unpaid on the date on which they are due and payable shall bear interest at the rate of 0.5 percent per month from and after such date until payment plus accrued interest is received by the division. Interest collected pursuant to this subsection shall be paid into the Special Employment Security Administration Trust Fund.

(b) Penalty for delinquent reports.—

1. Any employing unit which fails to file any reports required by the division in the administration of this chapter, in accordance with regulations adopted by the '[division]', shall pay to the division with respect to each such report the sum of $5 for each 30 days or fraction thereof that such employing unit is delinquent, unless the division finds that such employing unit has or had good reason for failure to file such report or reports.

2. Sums collected as penalties under the provisions of subparagraph 1. shall be deposited by the division in the Special Employment Security Administration Trust Fund.

(2) REPORTS, CONTRIBUTIONS, APPEALS.—

(a) Failure to make reports and pay contributions; duty and power of division.—If any employing unit determined by the division to be an employer subject to the provisions of this chapter fails to make and file any report as and when required by the terms and provisions of this chapter or by any rule or regulation of the '[division]', for the purpose of determining the amount of contributions due by said employer under this chapter, or if any such report which has been filed is deemed by the division to be incorrect or insufficient, and such employer after having been given written notice, by registered or certified mail, by the division to file such report, or a corrected or sufficient report, as the case may be, shall fail to file such report within 15 days after the date of the mailing of such notice, the division may:

1. Determine the amount of contributions due from such employer on the basis of such information as may be readily available to it, which said determination shall be deemed to be prima facie correct;

2. Assess such employer with the amount of contributions so determined; and

3. Immediately give written notice by registered or certified mail to such employer of such determination and assessment including penalties as provided in this chapter, if any, added and assessed, demanding payment of same together with interest as herein provided on the amount of contributions from the date when same were due and payable.

Such determination and assessment shall be final at the expiration of 15 days from the date of the mailing of such written notice thereof demanding payment unless such employer shall have filed with the division a written protest and petition for hearing specifying the objections thereto. Upon receipt of such petition within the 15 days allowed the division shall fix the time and place for a hearing and shall notify the petitioner thereof. The division by regulation may appoint special deputies with full power to hold hearings hereunder, and to submit their findings together with a transcript of the proceedings before them and their recommendations to the division for its final decision and determination. Special deputies shall be subject to the prohibition on ex parte communications as provided in s. 120.66. At any hearing held before the division or its special deputy, as herein provided, evidence may be offered to support such determination and assessment or to prove that it is incorrect. However, at such hearing the petitioner shall be required to show wherein that it is incorrect or else file full and complete corrected reports. Evidence may also be submitted at such hearing to rebut the determination by the division that the petitioner is an employer under the provisions of this chapter, and upon evidence taken before it or upon the transcript submitted to it with the findings and recommendation of its special deputy the division may set aside its determination that the petitioner is an employer under the provisions of this chapter or may reaffirm such determination. The amounts assessed pursuant to a final determination by the division hereunder together with interest and penalties shall be paid within 15 days after notice of such final decision and assessment and demand for payment thereof by the division shall have been mailed to such employer, unless judicial review is instituted in cases of status determinations. Amounts due when the status of the employer is in dispute shall be payable within 15 days of the entry of an order by the court affirming such determination. However, any determination by the division that an employing unit is not an employer under the provisions of this chapter shall not affect the benefit rights of any individual as determined by an appeals referee or the commission, under the provisions of this chapter, unless such individual shall have been made a party to the proceedings before the division, or unless such determination of the commission or appeals referee shall not have become final or the employing unit and the division shall not have been made parties to the proceedings before the appeals referee or the commission.

(b) Appeals.—Subject to the foregoing provisions of this subsection, the '[division]' shall by regulation prescribe the manner pursuant to which an employing unit which has been determined to be an "employer" may file an appeal and be afforded an opportunity for a hearing on such determination.

(3) COLLECTION PROCEEDINGS.—

(a) Lien for payment of contributions.—

1. There is hereby created a lien in favor of the division upon all the property both real and personal of any employer who shall become liable for the payment of any contribution levied and imposed upon it by this law for the amount of the contributions due and payable under the provisions hereof, together with interest, costs and penalties; and if any contribution imposed by this chapter or any portion of such contribution or interest or penalty be not paid within 60 days after the same becomes delinquent the division may thereafter issue a notice of lien under its official seal, which notice of lien may be filed in the office of the clerk of the circuit court of any county in which the delinquent employer owns property or has conducted business, and which notice of lien shall set forth the periods for which the contributions, interest or penalties are demanded and the amounts thereof, copy of which notice of lien shall be mailed to the employer at his last known address by registered mail. Provided, that notice of lien may be issued and recorded at the expiration of 15 days from the date assessment becomes final under the provisions of subsection (2). Upon presentation of said notice of lien the clerk of the circuit court shall record same in a book maintained by him for that purpose, and thereupon the amount of said notice of lien, together with the cost of recording and interest accruing upon the contribution amount, shall become a lien upon the title to and interest, whether legal or equitable, in any real property, chattels real, or personal property of such employer against whom such notice of lien is issued, in the same manner as a judgment of the circuit court duly docketed in the office of such circuit court clerk with execution duly issued thereon and in the hands of the sheriff for levy; and such lien shall be prior, preferred and superior to all mortgages or other liens filed, recorded, or acquired subsequent to the time such notice of lien shall have been filed. Upon the payment of the amounts due thereunder, or upon determination by the division that such notice of lien was erroneously issued, the same may be satisfied of record by the division by an acknowledgment under the seal of the division that such lien has been fully satisfied. Such satisfaction need not be acknowledged before any notary or other public officer and the seal of the division together with the signature of the director shall be conclusive evidence of the satisfaction of said lien, which satisfaction shall be recorded by the clerk of the circuit court who shall receive fees for such services as may be fixed by law for the recording of instruments generally.

2. The division may thereafter issue a warrant directed to all and singular sheriffs in the State of Florida, commanding them to levy upon and sell any real or personal property of the employer liable for any amount under this law within their respective jurisdictions, for the payment of the amount thereof, with the added penalties, interest and the costs of executing the warrant, together with costs of the clerk of the circuit court in recording and docketing the notice of lien, and to return such warrant to the division and to pay to it the money collected by virtue thereof; such warrant shall issue and be enforced for all amounts due the division as of the date of issuance thereof, together with interest accruing on the contribution amount due from said employer to the date of payment at the rate provided herein; provided, that in the event of sale of any assets of the employer, priorities under said warrant shall be determined in accordance with the priority established by the notice or notices of lien filed by the division and recorded by the clerk of the circuit court. The sheriff shall proceed upon said warrant in all respects with like effect and in the same manner prescribed by law in respect to executions issued out of the office of the clerk of the circuit court upon judgments of the circuit court and the sheriff shall be entitled to the same fees for his services in executing the warrant as under a writ of execution out of the circuit court, said fees to be collected in the same manner.

(b) Injunction—procedures to contest warrants after issuance.—No writ of injunction or restraining order to stay the execution of such warrant shall issue until a bill praying therefor shall have been filed and reasonable notice of hearing of motion for such injunction has previously been served on the division, nor unless the party applying therefor shall have previously tendered and paid into the custody of the court the full amount of contributions, interests, costs and penalties claimed in such warrant or entered into and filed in said court a bond with two or more good and sufficient sureties approved by the court in a sum at least double the amount of such contributions, interests, costs and penalties, payable to the division, and conditioned to pay the amount of such warrant, interest thereon, and such damages as may be occasioned by the wrongful issuing of said injunction, if the said injunction shall be dissolved, or the bill upon which it may be granted be dismissed. Only one surety shall be required when such bond is executed by a lawfully authorized surety company as surety thereon.

(c) Attachment and garnishment.—Upon the filing of notice of lien as provided in subparagraph (a)1., the division shall be entitled to remedy by attachment or garnishment as provided in chapters 76 and 77, as for a debt due and upon application by the division such writs shall issue out of the office of the clerk of the circuit court as upon a judgment of the circuit court duly docketed and recorded, and such writs shall be made returnable to the circuit court. Provided, however, that no bond shall be required of the division as a condition precedent to the issuance of said writs of attachment or garnishment. Issues raised under proceedings by attachment or garnishment shall be tried by the circuit court as upon a judgment thereof in the manner provided in chapters 76 and 77. Provided, further, that said notice of lien filed by the division shall be of full force and effect for the purposes of all remedies provided for in this chapter until satisfied as provided in this chapter, and no revival by scire facias or other proceedings shall be necessary prior to the pursuit of any remedy herein provided for, and proceedings authorized as upon a judgment of the circuit court shall not be construed as making of said lien a judgment of the circuit court upon a debt for any purpose except as herein specifically set forth as procedural remedies only.

(d) Third-party claims.—Upon any levy made by the sheriff under the authority of a writ of attachment or garnishment as provided in paragraph (c) third-party claims to property involved shall be tried by the circuit court as upon a judgment thereof and all proceedings shall be authorized on such third party claims as provided in ss. 56.16, 56.20, 76.21 and 77.16.

(e) Proceedings supplementary to execution.—At any time after a warrant provided for in subparagraph (a)2. shall have been in the hands of any sheriff of this state and returned unsatisfied the division may make and file an affidavit in the circuit court affirming such fact and also that said warrant is valid and outstanding and also stating the residence of the party or parties against whom the warrant has been issued, and the division shall thereupon be entitled to have other and further proceedings in the circuit court as upon a judgment thereof as provided in s. 56.29.

(f) Photostats.—In any proceedings in any court under this chapter photostats of original records or microfilm copies of records of the Division of Employment Security or the commission shall be primary evidence in lieu of the originals of said records or of the documents which have been transcribed into such records.

(g) Jeopardy assessment and warrant.—If the division has just cause to believe and does believe that the collection of contributions from an employer will be jeopardized by delay it may assess such contributions immediately, together with interest or penalties when due, whether or not contributions accrued have become due, and may immediately issue a notice of lien and jeopardy warrant upon which proceedings may be had as herein provided for notice of lien and warrant of the division. Within 15 days from the mailing of such notice of lien by registered mail the employer against whom such notice of lien and warrant is issued may protest the issuance thereof in the same manner provided in paragraph (a) and further proceedings shall be had upon said protest as therein provided. Such protest shall not operate as a supersedeas or stay of enforcement proceedings until and unless the employer shall have filed with the sheriff seeking to enforce the warrant of the division a good and sufficient surety bond in twice the amount demanded by said notice of lien or warrant conditioned upon payment of the amount subsequently found to be due from the employer to the division by final determination of the division upon protest of assessment. Said jeopardy warrant and notice of lien shall be satisfied by the division in the manner heretofore provided upon payment of the amount finally determined to be due from said employer. In the event enforcement of said jeopardy warrant is not superseded as hereinabove provided the employer shall be entitled to a refund from the fund of all amounts paid as contributions in excess of the amount finally determined to be due by said employer upon application being made as provided in this chapter.

(4) MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS FOR ENFORCEMENT OF COLLECTION OF CONTRIBUTIONS.—

(a) Independently of all other remedies and proceedings authorized by this law for the enforcement of and the collection of contributions hereby levied, a right of action by suit in the name of the division is hereby created. Suit may be maintained and prosecuted, and all proceedings taken, to the same effect and extent as for the enforcement of a right of action for debt or assumpsit, and any and all remedies available in such actions including attachment and garnishment shall be available to the division for the collection of any contribution accruing hereunder; provided that the division shall not be required to post bond in any such action or proceedings; and providing further that nothing herein contained shall be construed as making of said contributions a debt or demand unenforceable against homestead property provided by Article X of the Constitution of the State, the above remedies being procedural only.

(b) Any employer failing to make return or to pay the contributions levied under this chapter, and who has not ceased to be an employer as provided in s. 443.09 hereof, may be enjoined from employing individuals in employment as defined in this chapter upon the complaint of the division in the circuit court of the county in which said employer may be doing business; and such employer so failing to make return or to pay contributions levied hereunder shall be enjoined from employing individuals in employment until such return shall have been made and the contributions shown to be due thereunder paid to the division.

(c) The division or any agent or employee whom it may designate shall have the power to administer an oath to any person in respect to any return or report required by this law or by the rules and regulations of the <sup>1</sup>[division] and such oath made before the division or any authorized agent or employee shall have the same efficacy as an oath made before any judicial officer or notary public of the state.

(d) Civil actions brought under this chapter to collect contributions and interest thereon or any proceeding had herein for the collection of contributions from an employer shall be heard by the court having jurisdiction thereof at the earliest possible date and shall be entitled to preference upon the calendar of said court over all other civil actions except petitions for judicial review of claims for benefits arising under this chapter and cases arising under the Workers' Compensation Law of this state.

(e) The division is hereby authorized to commence action in any other state by and in the name of the division to collect unemployment compensation contributions, penalties and interest legally due this state. The officials of other states which extend a like comity to this state are authorized to sue for the collection of such contributions, interest and penalties in the courts of this state. The courts of this state shall recognize and enforce liability for such contributions, interest, and penalties imposed by other states which extend a like comity to this state.

(f) The collection of any contribution, interest and penalty otherwise due under this chapter shall not be enforceable by civil action, warrant, claim or other means unless within 5 years from the date upon which such contribution, interest and penalty became due and payable as provided by law and by regulations of the <sup>1</sup>[division], a notice of lien with respect to such contribution, interest and penalty was filed for record with a clerk of a circuit court as provided in subsection (3).

(5) PRIORITIES UNDER LEGAL DISSOLUTION OR DISTRIBUTIONS.—In the event of any distribution of any employer's assets pursuant to an order of any court under the laws of this state, including any receiverships, assignment for benefit of creditors, adjudicated insolvency, composition, administration of estates of decedents, or any other similar proceeding, contributions then or thereafter due shall be paid in full prior to all other claims except claims for wages of not more than $250 to each claimant, earned within 6 months of the commencement of the proceeding, and on a parity with all other tax claims wherever such tax claims shall have been given priority. In the administration of the estate of any decedent the filing of notice of lien shall be deemed a proceeding required upon protest of the claim filed by the division for contributions due under this chapter and such claim shall be allowed by the circuit judge. Provided, however, that the personal representative of the decedent may by petition to the circuit court object to the validity of the claim of the division and proceedings shall be had in the circuit court for the determination of the validity of the claim of the division, and, provided further, that the bond of the personal representative shall not be discharged until such claim is finally determined by the circuit court, and where no bond has been given by the personal representative none of the assets of said estate shall be distributed until such final determination by the circuit court; and, provided, further, that upon distribution of the assets of the estate of any decedent the claim of the division shall have priority established in paragraph (1)(e) class five of s. 733.20, subject to the above limitations with reference to wages. In the event of any employer's adjudication in bankruptcy, judicially confirmed extension proposal, or composition, under the Federal Bankruptcy Act of 1898, as amended, contributions then or thereafter due shall be entitled to such priority as is provided in s. 64B of that act (U.S.C. Title II, s. 104(b), as amended).

(6) REFUNDS.—If not later than 4 years after the date of payment of any amount as contributions, interest or penalties, an employing unit who has paid such contributions, interest or penalties shall make application for an adjustment thereof in connection with subsequent contribution payments, or for a refund thereof because such adjustment cannot be made, and the division shall determine that such contributions or interest or penalties or any portion thereof was erroneously collected, the division shall allow such employer to make an adjustment thereof without interest in connection with subsequent contribution payment by him, or if such adjustment cannot be made, the division shall refund said amount, without interest, from the fund. For like cause, and within the same period, adjustment or refund may be made on the division's own initiative. Provided, however, that nothing in this chapter shall be construed to authorize a refund of contributions which were properly paid in accordance with the provisions of this chapter at the time of such payment, except as required by s. 443.03(5)(17); provided further that refunds under this subsection and under s. 443.03(5)(17) may be paid from either the clearing account or the benefit account of the Unemployment Compensation Trust Fund and from the Special Employment Security Administration Trust Fund with respect to interest or penalties which have been previously paid into such fund, provisions of s. 443.10(2) to the contrary notwithstanding.

<sup>1</sup>Note.—Bracketed word was substituted by the editors for the word "commission" to conform to ch. 69-106, the Reorganization Act of 1969. See s. 17(4) and (8). The bracketed substitution reflects the fact that administrative functions formerly attributed to the Florida Industrial Commission are now performed by the division.

443.16 Waiver of rights; fees; privileged communications.—

(1) WAIVER OF RIGHTS VOID.—Any agreement by an individual to waive, release, or commute his rights to benefits or any other rights under this chapter shall be void. Any agreement by an individual in the employ of any person or concern to pay all or any portion of any employer's contributions, required under this chapter from such employer, shall be void. No employer shall directly or indirectly make or require or accept any deduction from wages to finance the employer's contributions required from him, or require or accept any waiver of any right hereunder by any individual in his employ. Any employer or officer or agent of an employer who violates any provision of this subsection shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

(2) FEES.—

(a) No individual claiming benefits shall be charged fees of any kind in any proceeding under this chapter by the commission or division or their representatives, or by any court or any officer thereof, except as hereinafter provided. Any individual claiming benefits in any proceeding before the commission or division, or representatives of either, or a court may be represented by counsel or duly authorized agent, but no such counsel or agent shall either charge or receive for such services more than an amount approved by the commission or division or by the court.

(b) An attorney at law representing a claimant for benefits in any district court of appeal of this state or in the Supreme Court of Florida shall be entitled to counsel fees payable by the division as fixed by the court in either of the following cases:

1. Where petition for review or appeal is initiated by any party to such proceeding other than the claimant, or

2. Where such petition for review or appeal is initiated by the claimant and results in a decision awarding more benefits than did the decision under review or from which appeal was taken.

(c) Attorneys' fees awarded under this section shall be paid by the division out of employment security administration funds as a part of the costs of administration of this chapter and may be paid directly to the attorney for the claimant in a lump sum.

(d) Any person, firm or corporation who or which seeks or receives any remuneration or gratuity for any services rendered on behalf of a claimant, except as allowed by this section and in an amount approved by the division or commission or by a court, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. Any person, firm or corporation who or which shall solicit the business of appearing on behalf of a claimant, or shall make it a business to solicit employment for another in connection with any claim for benefits under this chapter, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

(3) PRIVILEGED COMMUNICATIONS.—All letters, reports, communications, or any other matters, either oral or written, from the employer or employee to each other or to the division or any of its agents, representatives or employees which shall have been written, sent, delivered, or made in connection with the requirements and administration of this chapter, shall be absolutely privileged and shall not be made the subject matter or basis for any suit for slander or libel in any court of the state.

History.—s. 16, ch. 18402, 1937; s. 11, ch. 19637, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 4151(503), 8135(42)-(44); s. 15, ch. 20685, 1941; s. 10, ch. 26879, 1951; s. 4, ch. 57-268; ss. 17, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 371, ch. 71-136; s. 28, ch. 79-7; s. 186, ch. 79-400.

443.17 Benefits not alienable.—Benefits due under this chapter shall not be assigned, pledged, encumbered, released, or commuted and shall, except as otherwise provided in this chapter, be exempt from all claims of creditors and from levy, execution or attachment, or other remedy for recovery or collection of a debt, which exemption may not be waived.

History.—s. 17, ch. 18402, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 4151(504).

443.18 Reciprocal arrangements.—

(1)(a) The division is hereby authorized to enter into reciprocal arrangements with appropriate and duly authorized agencies of other states or of the Federal Government, or both, whereby services performed by an individual for a single employing unit for which services are customarily performed by such individuals in more than one state shall be deemed to be services performed entirely within any one of the states:

1. In which any part of such individual's service is performed, or
2. In which such individual has his residence, or
3. In which the employing unit maintains a place of business, provided there is in effect as to such services an election, approved by the agency charged with the administration of such state's Unemployment Compensation Law, pursuant to which all the services performed by such individual for such employing unit are deemed to be performed entirely within such state;

(b) The division shall participate in any arrangements for the payment of compensation on the basis of combining an individual's wages and employment covered under this chapter with his wages and employment covered under the unemployment compensation laws of other states, which are approved by the United States Secretary of Labor, in consultation with the state unemployment compensation agencies, as reasonably calculated to assure the prompt and full payment of compensation in such situations and which include provisions for:

1. Applying the base period of a single state law to a claim involving the combining of an individual's wages and employment covered under two or more state unemployment compensation laws, and
2. Avoiding the duplicate use of wages and employment by reason of such combining.

(c) Contributions due under this chapter with respect to wages for insured work shall for the purposes of ss. 443.08 and 443.15 be deemed to have been paid to the fund as of the date payment was made as contributions therefor under another state or federal unemployment compensation law, but no such arrangement shall be entered into unless it contains provisions for such reimbursement to the fund of such contributions and the actual earnings thereon as the division finds will be fair and reasonable as to all affected interests.

(2) The division is authorized to make to other state or federal agencies and to receive from such other state or federal agencies reimbursements from or to the fund, in accordance with arrangements entered into pursuant to subsection (1).

(3) The administration of this chapter and of other state and federal unemployment compensation and public employment service laws will be promoted by cooperation between this state and such other states and the appropriate federal agencies in exchanging services, and making available facilities and information. The division is therefore authorized to make such investigations, secure and transmit such information, make available such services and facilities and exercise such of the other powers provided herein with respect to the administration of this chapter as it deems necessary or appropriate to facilitate the administration of any such unemployment compensation or public employment service law, and in like manner, to accept and utilize information, services and facilities made available to this state by the agency charged with the administration of any such other unemployment compensation or public employment service law.

(4) To the extent permissible under the laws and Constitution of the United States, the division is authorized to enter into or cooperate in arrangements whereby facilities and services provided under this chapter and facilities and services provided under the unemployment compensation law of any foreign government may be utilized for the taking of claims and the payment of benefits under the employment security law of the state or under a similar law of such government.

History.—s. 19, ch. 18402, 1937; s. 12, ch. 19637, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 4151(505); s. 17, ch. 20685, 1941; s. 6, ch. 24084, 1947; s. 11, ch. 25035, 1949; s. 1, ch. 29768, 1955; ss. 17, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 13, ch. 71-225; s. 119, ch. 73-333.

443.19 Unemployment Compensation Trust Fund to be sole source of benefits; nonliability of state.—The Unemployment Compensation Trust Fund established by this chapter shall be the sole and exclusive source for the payment of benefits payable hereunder, and such benefits shall be deemed to be due and payable only to the extent that contributions, with increments thereon, actually collected and credited to the fund and not otherwise appropriated or allocated, are available therefor. The state undertakes the administration of such fund without any liability on the part of the state beyond the amount of moneys received from the said Bureau of Employment Security or other federal agency.

1955; s. 2, ch. 61-119.

443.20 Rule of liberal construction.—This chapter shall be liberally construed to accomplish its purpose to promote employment security by increasing opportunities for placement through the maintenance of a system of public employment offices and to provide through the accumulation of reserves for the payment of compensation to individuals with respect to their unemployment. The Legislature hereby declares its intention to provide for carrying out the purposes of this chapter in cooperation with the appropriate agencies of other states and of the federal government, as part of a nationwide employment security program, and particularly to provide for meeting the requirements of Title III, the requirements of the Federal Unemployment Tax Act, and the Act of Congress approved June 6, 1933, entitled "An Act to provide for the establishment of a national employment system and for cooperation with the states in the promotion of such system, and for other purposes" (the Wagner-Peyser Act), each as amended, in order to secure for this state and the citizens thereof the grants and privileges available thereunder; all doubts as to the proper construction of any provision of this chapter shall be resolved in favor of conformity with such requirements.

History.—s. 23½, ch. 18402, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 4151(488), 4151(507); s. 2, ch. 20685, 1941; s. 14, ch. 29771, 1955.

443.21 Saving clause.—The Legislature reserves the right to amend or repeal all or any part of this chapter at any time; and there shall be no vested private right of any kind against such amendment or repeal. All the rights, privileges or immunities conferred by this chapter or by acts done pursuant thereto, shall exist subject to the power of the Legislature to amend or repeal this chapter at any time.

History.—s. 20, ch. 18402, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 4151(508).

443.22 Penalties.—

(1) Whoever makes a false statement or representation, knowing it to be false, or knowingly fails to disclose a material fact to obtain or increase any benefits or other payment under this chapter or under an employment security law of any other state, of the Federal Government, or of a foreign government, either for himself or for any other person, shall be guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084; and each such false statement or representation or failure to disclose a material fact shall constitute a separate offense.

(2) Any employing unit or any officer or agent of any employing unit or any other person who makes a false statement or representation, knowing it to be false, or who knowingly fails to disclose a material fact, to prevent or reduce the payment of benefits to any individual entitled thereto, or to avoid becoming or remaining subject hereto, or to avoid or reduce any contribution or other payment required from an employing unit under this chapter shall be guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(3) Any employing unit or any officer or agent of any employing unit or any other person who fails to furnish any reports required hereunder, or to produce or permit the inspection of or copying of records as required hereunder, or who fails or refuses, within 6 months after written demand therefor by the division, to keep and maintain the payroll records required by this chapter and by the regulations of the division, or who willfully fails or refuses to make any contribution or other payment required from an employing unit under this chapter shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

(4) Any person who shall willfully violate any provision of this chapter or any order, rule or regulation hereunder, the violation of which is made unlawful or the observance of which is required under the terms of this chapter, and for which a penalty is neither prescribed hereunder nor provided by any other applicable statute, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

(5) In any prosecution or action under the provisions of this section, the signature of a person on a document, letter, or other writing shall constitute prima facie evidence of such person's identity if the following conditions exist:

(a) The person gives his name, residence address, home telephone number, present or former place of employment, sex, date of birth, social security number, height, weight, and race.

(b) The signature of such person is witnessed by an agent or employee of the division at the time the document, letter, or other writing is filed.

446.011 Declaration of legislative intent.—

(1) It is the intent of the State of Florida to provide educational opportunities for its young people so that they can be trained for trades, occupations, and professions suited to their abilities. It is the intent of this act to promote the mode of training known as apprenticeship in occupations throughout industry in Florida that require physical manipulative skills. By broadening job training opportunities and providing for increased coordination between public school academic programs, vocational programs, and registered apprenticeship programs, Florida's young people will benefit from the valuable training opportunities developed when on-the-job training is combined with academic-related classroom experiences. This act is intended to develop the apparent potentials in apprenticeship training by assisting in the establishment of preapprenticeship programs in the public school system and elsewhere and by expanding presently registered programs as well as promoting new registered programs in jobs that lend themselves to apprenticeship training.

(2) It is the intent of the Legislature that the Division of Labor of the Department of Labor and Employment Security shall have responsibility for the development of the apprenticeship and preapprenticeship uniform minimum standards for the apprenticeable trades and that the Division of Vocational Education of the Department of Education shall have responsibility for assisting district school boards and community college boards of trustees in developing preapprenticeship programs in compliance with the standards established by the Division of Labor.

(3) It is the further intent of this act that the Division of Labor shall ensure quality training through the adoption and enforcement of uniform minimum standards and that the Bureau of Apprenticeship of the Division of Labor shall promote, register, monitor, and service apprenticeship and training programs and ensure that such programs adhere to the standards.

Note.—Former s. 446.06.

446.021 Definitions.—As used in this chapter, the following words and terms shall have the following meanings unless the context clearly indicates otherwise:

(1) "Preapprentice" means any person 16 years of age or over engaged in any course of instruction in the public school system or elsewhere, which course is registered as a preapprenticeship program with the Division of Labor of the Department of Labor and Employment Security.

(2) "Apprentice" means a person at least 16 years of age who is engaged in learning a recognized skilled trade through actual work experience under the supervision of journeymen craftsmen, which training should be combined with properly coordinated studies of related technical and supplementary subjects, and who has entered into a written agreement, hereinafter called an apprentice agreement, with a registered apprenticeship sponsor who may be either an employer, an association of employers, or a local joint apprenticeship committee.

(3) "Trainee" means a person at least 16 years of age who is engaged in learning a specific skill, trade, or occupation within a formalized, on-the-job training program.

(4) "Journeyman" means a person working in an apprenticeable occupation who has successfully completed a registered apprenticeship program or who has worked the number of years required by established industry practices for the particular trade or occupation.

(5) "Preapprenticeship program" means an organized course of instruction in the public school system or elsewhere which course is designed to prepare a person 16 years of age or older to become an apprentice and which course is approved by and registered with the Bureau of Apprenticeship of the Division of Labor and sponsored by a registered apprenticeship program.

(6) "Apprenticeship program" means an organized course of instruction, registered and approved by the bureau, which course shall contain all terms and conditions for the qualifications, recruitment, selection, employment, and training of apprentices including such matters as the requirements for a written apprenticeship agreement.

(7) "On-the-job training program" means a formalized system of job processes which may be augmented by related instruction that provides the experience and knowledge necessary to meet the training objective of learning a specific skill, trade, or occupation. Such training program shall be at least 6 months and not more than 2 years in duration and shall be registered with the bureau.

(8) "Uniform minimum preapprenticeship standards" means the minimum requirements established uniformly for each craft under which a preapprenticeship program is administered and includes standards of admission, training goals, training objectives, curriculum outlines, objective standards to measure successful completion of the preap-prenticeship program, and the percentage of credit that may be given to preapprenticeship graduates upon acceptance into the apprenticeship program.

(9) "Related instruction" means an organized and systematic form of instruction designed to provide the apprentice with knowledge of the theoretical subjects related to a specific trade or occupation.

(10) "Cancellation" means the deregistration of an apprenticeship program or the termination of an apprenticeship agreement.

(11) "Jurisdiction" means the specific geographical area for which a particular program is registered.

(12) "Division" means the Division of Labor of the Department of Labor and Employment Security.

(13) "Director" means the director of the Division of Labor.

(14) "Bureau" means the Bureau of Apprenticeship of the Division of Labor.

(15) "Chief" means the chief of the Bureau of Apprenticeship.

1446.031 Apprenticeship council; general duties of division.—

(1) There is created a State Apprenticeship Council, advisory to the Division of Labor of the Department of Labor and Employment Security, to be composed of 12 members. The Director of the Division of Labor shall be ex officio chairman of the council except that he shall have voting power in cases of tie votes. The administrator of industrial education of the Department of Education shall be appointed a nonvoting member of the council. In addition thereto, the Governor shall appoint five representatives each from employer and employee organizations, respectively, representing industries having registered apprenticeship programs or in which a need for apprenticeship programs has been demonstrated, whose terms shall run concurrently with the Governor's. Each member of the council shall serve without pay, but shall be allowed necessary expenses, in accordance with state law, incurred in connection with the performance of his official duties.

(2) The Division of Labor shall establish uniform minimum standards and policies governing apprentice programs and agreements. Such standards and policies shall govern the terms and conditions of the apprentice's employment and training, including the quality training of the apprentice with respect to, but not limited to, such matters as ratios of apprentices to journeymen, safety, related instruction, and on-the-job training. The division may adopt rules as necessary to carry out such standards and policies. The council shall meet at the call of the chairman, but no less often than three times per year.

Note.—Repealed by s. 4, ch. 78-323, effective October 1, 1981, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this section prior to that date. Section 11, ch. 79-397, provides that, if this section is repealed in accordance with the intent expressed in the Sundown Act, it is the intent of the Legislature that s. 3, ch. 79-397, shall also be repealed on the same date as is therein provided.

Note.—Former s. 446.08.

446.041 Apprenticeship program, duties of bureau and division.—

(1) BUREAU OF APPRENTICESHIP.—There is created and established within the Division of Labor of the Department of Labor and Employment Security a Bureau of Apprenticeship.

(2) DUTIES OF THE BUREAU OF APPRENTICESHIP.—The Bureau of Apprenticeship shall be administered by a full-time chief who may exercise all powers, duties, and functions vested in the division and bureau by this chapter, except that this provision shall not be construed as a limitation on the authority of the division director, and provided further that all rulemaking and administrative hearing authority shall vest solely with the division. It is the intent of this chapter that the Bureau of Apprenticeship shall directly supervise all apprenticeship programs which are registered with the bureau. To effectuate this intent, the bureau shall:

(a) Administer the provisions of this chapter.

(b) Administer the standards established by the division.

(c) Register in accordance with this chapter any apprenticeship or preapprenticeship program, regardless of affiliation, which meets standards established by the division.

(d) Investigate complaints concerning the failure of any registered program to meet the standards established by the division.

(e) Cancel the registration of any program which fails to comply with the standards and policies of the division, or which unreasonably fails or refuses to cooperate with the bureau in monitoring and enforcing compliance with such standards.

(f) Issue to each registered apprentice, upon completion of training, a certificate of completion.

(g) Develop and encourage apprenticeship programs.

(h) Cooperate with and assist local apprenticeship sponsors in the development of their apprenticeship standards and training requirements.

(i) Cooperate with and assist the Division of Vocational Education of the Department of Education and appropriate vocational education institutions in the development of viable apprenticeship and preapprenticeship programs.

(j) Encourage registered apprenticeship programs to grant consideration and credit to individuals completing registered preapprenticeship programs.

(k) Monitor registered apprenticeship programs to ensure that they are being operated in compliance with all applicable standards.

History.—s. 4, ch. 23934, 1947; s. 3, ch. 28037, 1953; s. 1, ch. 63-153; s. 19, ch. 63-400; ss. 17, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 168, ch. 71-377; s. 3, ch. 72-113; s. 1, ch. 73-283; s. 56, ch. 73-338; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 11, ch. 78-95; s. 32, ch. 79-7; s. 4, ch. 79-397.

Note.—Former s. 446.09.

446.051 Related instruction.—

(1) The administration and supervision of related and supplemental instruction for apprentices, coordination of such instruction with job experiences, and selection and training of teachers and coordinators for such instruction, all as approved by the registered program sponsor, shall be the responsibility of the appropriate vocational education institution.

(2) The appropriate vocational education institution shall be encouraged to cooperate with and assist in providing to any registered program sponsor facilities, equipment and supplies, and instructors' salaries for the performance of related and supplemental instruction associated with the registered program.

History.—s. 5, ch. 23934, 1947; s. 4, ch. 28037, 1953; s. 1, ch. 63-153; ss. 15, 17, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 5, ch. 79-397.
Note.—Former s. 446.10.

446.052 Preapprenticeship program.—

(1) There is created and established a preapprenticeship education program, as defined in s. 446.021.

(2) The Division of Vocational Education of the Department of Education, under regulations established by the State Board of Education, is authorized to administer the provisions of this chapter that relate to preapprenticeship programs in cooperation with district school boards and community college boards of trustees. District school boards, community college boards of trustees, and registered program sponsors shall cooperate in developing and establishing programs that include vocational instruction and general education courses required to obtain a high school diploma.

(3) The Division of Vocational Education, the district school boards, the community college boards of trustees, and the Division of Labor shall work together with existing registered apprenticeship programs so that individuals completing such preapprenticeship programs may be able to receive credit towards completing a registered apprenticeship program.

(4) Veterans who have received discharges other than dishonorable discharges may, if qualified, receive the same priorities given to registered preapprentices.

History.—s. 4, ch. 72-113; s. 57, ch. 73-338; s. 6, ch. 79-397.

446.061 Expenditures.—The Division of Labor shall make necessary expenditures from the appropriation provided by law for personal services, travel, printing, equipment, office space, and supplies as provided by law.

History.—s. 6, ch. 23934, 1947; s. 24, ch. 57-1; s. 1, ch. 63-153; ss. 17, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 73-283; s. 1, ch. 77-174.
Note.—Former s. 446.11.

446.071 Apprenticeship sponsors.—

(1) One or more local apprenticeship sponsors shall be approved in any trade or group of trades by the Bureau of Apprenticeship, upon a determination of need, provided the apprenticeship sponsor meets all of the standards established by the Division of Labor. Need refers to the need of Florida residents for apprenticeship training. In the absence of proof to the contrary, it shall be presumed that there is need for apprenticeship and preapprenticeship training in each county in this state.

(2) A local apprenticeship sponsor may be a committee, a group of employers, an employer, or a group of employees, or any combination thereof.

(3) The division and bureau shall have authority to grant variances from the standards upon a showing of good cause for such variance by program sponsors in nonconstruction trades. The purpose of this provision is to recognize the unique and varying training requirements in nontraditional apprentice-able occupations and to authorize the division and bureau to adapt the standards to the needs of these programs.

History.—s. 7, ch. 23934, 1947; s. 1, ch. 63-153; ss. 17, 35, ch. 72-113; s. 58, ch. 73-338; s. 1, ch. 77-183; s. 7, ch. 79-397.
Note.—Former s. 446.12.

446.075 Federal and state cooperation.—The Division of Labor of the Department of Employment Security is authorized to enter into contracts with the United States Department of Labor, and to assume such other powers and duties as are necessary for the division to act as registration agent for federal apprenticeship purposes, except that the division shall not enforce any federal apprenticeship requirements unless the division first adopts said requirements as a rule. All rules promulgated and administrative hearings afforded by the division because of this chapter shall be in accordance with the requirements of chapter 120.

History.—s. 1, ch. 77-182; s. 33, ch. 79-7; s. 8, ch. 79-397.

446.081 Limitation.—

(1) Nothing in this chapter or in any agreement approved under this chapter shall be construed to invalidate any apprenticeship program or collective agreement between employers and employees setting up higher apprenticeship programs.

(2) No person shall institute any action for enforcement of any apprentice agreement or damages for the breach of any apprenticeship agreement, made under this chapter, unless the person has exhausted all administrative remedies provided by this section.

(3) Any person aggrieved by any decision or act of the Bureau of Apprenticeship may appeal therefrom to the Division of Labor.

History.—s. 8, ch. 23934, 1947; s. 5, ch. 28037, 1953; s. 1, ch. 69-267; s. 1, ch. 73-283; s. 120, ch. 73-333; s. 1, ch. 77-174.
Note.—Former s. 446.13.

446.091 On-the-job training program.—The provisions of this chapter relating to apprenticeship and preapprenticeship, including, but not limited to, standards, programs, agreements, standards, administrative procedures, definitions, expenditures, limitations, council, powers and duties, limitations, ratios of apprentices and job training men on state, county and municipal levels, and functions of the Division of Labor shall be appropriately adapted and made applicable to a program of on-the-job training hereby authorized for persons other than apprentices.

446.092 Criteria for apprenticeship occupations.—An apprenticeable occupation or trade which possesses all of the following characteristics:

(1) It is customarily learned in a trade through a structured, systematic program of on-the-job, supervised training.

(2) It is commonly recognized through industry, or recognized with a positive attitude by changing technology, or recommended by the Florida Apprenticeship Council.

(3) It involves manual, mechanical or occupation at least equal to the whole number obtained, disregarding any remainder, by dividing 5 into the average number of journeymen in that occupation to be employed in the performance of the contract.

2. That he will, when feasible and except when the number of apprentices or trainees to be hired is fewer than four, assure that 25 percent of such apprentices or trainees are in their first year of training. Feasibility here involves a consideration of the availability of training opportunities for first-year apprentices or trainees, the hazardous nature of the work for beginning workers, and excessive unemployment of apprentices or trainees in their second or subsequent years of training.

3. That, during the performance of the contract, he will employ the number of apprentices or trainees necessary to meet requirements of subparagraphs 1. and 2. However, on-the-job training programs shall only be established in nonapprenticeable trades or occupations to meet the requirements of this section.

(b) The contractor agrees to return records of employment by trade of the number of apprentices or trainees, the number of apprentices or trainees by first year of training, and the number of journeymen and the wages paid, and hours of work of, such persons on a form as prescribed by the Bureau of Apprenticeship of the Division of Labor at 3-month intervals. Submission of duplicate copies of forms submitted to the United States Department of Labor shall be sufficient compliance with the provisions of this section.

(c) The contractor agrees to supply to the Bureau of Apprenticeship of the Division of Labor, at 3-month intervals, a statement describing steps taken toward making a diligent effort and containing a breakdown by craft of hours worked and wages paid for first-year apprentices or trainees, other apprentices or trainees, and journeymen.

(d) The contractor agrees to insert in any subcontract under this contract the requirements contained in this section. The term "contractor," as used in such clauses and any subcontract, shall mean the subcontractor.

(4) DILIGENT EFFORT.—If a contractor is unable after a diligent effort to employ the requisite ratio of apprentices to journeymen as required by paragraph (3)(a), he shall make application to the Bureau of Apprenticeship for a certification of his diligent efforts. A contractor who, prior to his failure to employ the requisite number of apprentices and trainees, secures such a certification which is not subsequently revoked shall be deemed to have satisfied the requirements of paragraph (3)(a) and shall not be subject to the civil penalty provided in subsection (6). Before issuing the certification, the bureau shall determine that either:

(a) The contractor will employ on his project a number of apprentices or trainees by craft as required by the contract clauses at least equal to the ratio established in accordance with subparagraph (3)(a)1.; or

(b) The contractor will employ, on all his public work combined in the labor market area of this project, an average number of apprentices or trainees by craft or occupation as required by the contract clauses at least equal to the ratio established in accordance with subparagraph (3)(a)1.; or

(c)1. Before commencement of work on the project, the contractor, if covered by a collective bargaining agreement, gave written notice to all joint apprenticeship committees and to the Bureau of Apprenticeship, or, if not covered by a collective bargaining agreement, gave written notice to the Bureau of Apprenticeship and to all nonjoint apprenticeship sponsors in the labor market area.

2. The notice included at least the contractor's name and address, the job site address, the value of the contract, the expected starting and completion dates, the estimated average number of employees in each occupation to be employed over the duration of the contract, and a statement of his willingness to employ a number of apprentices and trainees at least equal to the ratios established in accordance with subparagraph (3)(a)1.

(5) REVOCATION OF CERTIFICATE.—Failure by the contractor to employ all qualified applicants referred to him from registered apprenticeship or on-the-job training programs, at least up to the number of such apprentices and trainees required by the applicable provision of subparagraph (3)(a)1., shall result in revocation of the certificate by the bureau. This section shall not limit the contractor from exercising its usual method of selection of employees.

(6) CIVIL PENALTY; CONTRACTOR.—The Division of Labor shall assess a civil penalty against any contractor who breaches the terms of the contract clauses required by this section to be contained in that contract or enters into a contract with any other contractor, any state agency, county, or municipality not containing the contract clauses required by this section. Such civil penalty shall not exceed an amount equal to 5 percent of the value of such contract and shall be paid into the General Revenue Fund.

447.01 Regulating labor unions; state policy.—

(1) Because of the activities of labor unions affecting the economic conditions of the country and the state, entering as they do into practically every business and industrial enterprise, it is the sense of the Legislature that such organizations affect the public interest and are charged with a public use. The working man, unionist or nonunionist, must be protected. The right to work is the right to live.

(2) It is here now declared to be the policy of the state, in the exercise of its sovereign constitutional police power, to regulate the activities and affairs of labor unions, their officers, agents, organizers and other representatives, in the manner, and to the extent hereafter set forth.

History.—s. 1, ch. 21968, 1943.

Note.—Former s. 481.01.

cf.—s. 447.15 Railway workers excepted.

447.02 Definitions.—The following terms, when used in this chapter, shall have the meanings ascribed to them in this section:

(1) The term "labor organization" means any organization of employees or local or subdivision thereof, having within its membership residents of the state, whether incorporated or not, organized for the purpose of dealing with employers concerning hours of employment, rate of pay, working conditions, or grievances of any kind relating to employment and recognized as a unit of bargaining by one or more employers doing business in this state, provided that an employee organization, as defined in s. 447.203(11), shall be included in this definition at such time as it seeks to register pursuant to s. 447.305.

(2) The term "business agent" means any person, without regard to title, who shall, for a pecuniary or financial consideration, act or attempt to act for any labor organization in:

(a) The issuance of membership or authorization cards, work permits, or any other evidence of rights granted or claimed in, or by, a labor organization; or

(b) Soliciting or receiving from any employer any right or privilege for employees.

(3) The term "division" means the Division of Labor of the Department of Labor and Employment Security.

History.—s. 2, ch. 21968, 1943; s. 1, ch. 65-396; s. 1, ch. 77-84; s. 35, ch. 79-7; s. 1, ch. 79-89; s. 188, ch. 79-400.

Note.—Former s. 481.02.

447.03 Employees' right of self-organization.

—Employees shall have the right to self-organization, to form, join, or assist labor unions or labor organizations or to refrain from such activity, to bargain collectively through representatives of their own choosing, and to engage in concerted activities, for the purpose of collective bargaining or other mutual aid or protection.

History.—s. 3, ch. 21968, 1943; s. 1, ch. 74-10.

Note.—Former s. 481.03.

447.04 Business agents; licenses, permits, etc.—

(1) No person shall be granted a license or a permit to act as a business agent in the state:

(a) Who is not a citizen of the United States.

(b) Who has been convicted of a felony and has not had his civil rights restored.

(c) Who is not a person of good moral character.

(2)(a) Every person desiring to act as a business agent in this state shall before doing so, obtain a license or permit by filing an application under oath therefor with the Division of Labor of the Department of Labor and Employment Security, accompanied by a fee of $25 and a full set of fingerprints of the applicant taken by a law enforcement agency qualified to take fingerprints. There shall accompany the application statement signed by the president and the secretary of the labor organization for which he proposes to act as agent, showing his authority to do so. The division shall hold such application on file for a period of 30 days, during which time any person may file objections to the issuing of such license or permit.

(b) The division may also conduct an independent investigation of the applicant and, if objections are filed, it may hold, or cause to be held, a hearing in accordance with the requirements of chapter 120.

The objectors and the applicant shall be permitted to attend said hearing and present evidence.

(3) After the expiration of the 30-day period, regardless of whether or not any objections have been filed, the division shall review the application, together with all information that it may have, including, but not limited to, any objections that may have been filed to such application, any information that may have been obtained pursuant to an independent investigation, and the results of any hearing on the application. If the division shall, from a review of the information, find that the applicant is qualified, pursuant to the terms of this chapter, it shall issue such license or permit, and said license or permit shall run for the calendar year for which issued, unless sooner surrendered, suspended, or revoked.

(4) Licenses and permits shall expire at midnight, December 31, but may be renewed by the division on a form prescribed by it; however, if any such license or permit has been surrendered, suspended, or revoked during the year, then such applicant must go through the same formalities as a new applicant.

(5) Grounds for denial, suspension, or revocation of licenses and permits shall include false application.

History.—s. 4, ch. 21968, 1943; s. 1, ch. 26762, 1951; ss. 1, 2, ch. 61-120; ss. 1, 2, ch. 63-139; s. 2, ch. 65-396; ss. 16, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 169, ch. 71-377; s. 153, ch. 77-104; s. 1, ch. 77-116; s. 1, ch. 77-184; s. 1, ch. 77-343; s. 36, ch. 79-7.

Note.—Former s. 481.04.
cf.—s. 455.10 Restrictions on requirement of citizenship.

447.041 Hearings.—

(1) Any person or labor organization denied a license, permit, or registration shall be afforded the opportunity for a hearing by the division in accordance with the requirements of chapter 120.

(2) The division may, pursuant to the requirements of chapter 120, suspend or revoke the license or permit of any business agent or the registration of any labor organization for the violation of any provision of this chapter.

History.—s. 4, ch. 77-184.

447.045 Information confidential.—Neither the division nor any investigator or employee of the division shall divulge in any manner the information obtained pursuant to the processing of applicant fingerprint cards.

History.—s. 2, ch. 77-184.

447.05 Initiation fees; limitation.—Labor unions or labor organizations shall not charge an initiation fee in excess of the sum of $15; provided, that initiation fees in effect on January 1st, 1940, may be continued.

History.—s. 5, ch. 21968, 1943.

Note.—Former s. 481.05.

447.06 Registration of labor organizations required.—

(1) Every labor organization operating in the state shall make a report under oath, in writing, to the Division of Labor of the Department of Labor and Employment Security annually, on or before December 31. Such report shall be filed by the secretary or business agent of such labor organization, shall be in such form as the division may prescribe, and shall show the following facts:

- (a) The name of the labor organization;
- (b) The location of its office; and
- (c) The name and address of the president, secretary, treasurer, and business agent.

(2) At the time of filing such report, it shall be the duty of every such labor organization to pay the division an annual fee therefor in the sum of $1.

History.—s. 6, ch. 21968, 1943; ss. 16, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 153, ch. 77-104; s. 6, ch. 77-110; s. 3, ch. 77-184; s. 37, ch. 79-7.

Note.—Former s. 481.06.

447.07 Records and accounts required to be kept.—It shall be the duty of any and all labor organizations in this state to keep accurate books of accounts itemizing all receipts from whatsoever source and expenditures for whatsoever purpose, stating such sources and purposes. Any member of such labor organization shall be entitled at all reasonable times to inspect the books, records and accounts of such labor organization.

History.—s. 7, ch. 21968, 1943.

Note.—Former s. 481.07.

447.08 Rights of members in armed forces.—Any employee who is a member of any labor organization who, because of services with the Armed Forces of the United States, during time of war or national emergency, has been unable to pay any dues, assessments or sums levied by any labor organization, shall not hereafter be required to make such back payments as a condition to reinstatement in good standing as a member of any labor organization to which he belonged.

History.—s. 8, ch. 21968, 1943.

Note.—Former s. 481.08.

447.09 Right of franchise preserved; penalties.—It shall be unlawful for any person:

(1) To interfere with or prevent the right of franchise of any member of a labor organization. The right of franchise shall include the right of an employee to make complaint, file charges, give information or testimony concerning the violations of this chapter, or the petitioning to his union regarding any grievance he may have concerning his membership or employment, or the making known facts concerning such grievance or violations of law to any public officials, and his right of free petition, lawful assemblage and free speech.

(2) To prohibit or prevent any election of the officers of any labor organization.

(3) To participate in any strike, walkout, or cessation of work or continuation thereof without the same being authorized by a majority vote of the employees to be governed thereby; provided, that this shall not prohibit any person from terminating his employment of his own volition.

(4) To conduct any election referred to in subsection (3) of this section without a secret ballot.

(5) To charge, receive, or retain any dues, assessments or other charges in excess of, or not authorized by, the constitution or bylaws of any labor organization.

(6) To act as a business agent without having obtained and possessing a valid and subsisting license or permit.

(7) To solicit membership for or to act as a representative of an existing labor organization without authority of such labor organization to do so.

(8) To make any false statement in an application for a license.

(9) To seize or occupy property unlawfully during the existence of a labor dispute.

(10) To cause any cessation of work or interference with the progress of work by reason of any jurisdictional dispute, grievance or disagreement between or within labor organizations.

(11) To coerce or intimidate any employee in the enjoyment of his legal rights, including those guaranteed in s. 447.03; to coerce or intimidate any elected or appointed public official; or to intimidate the family, picket the domicile, or injure the person or property of such employee or public official, or his family.

(12) To picket beyond the area of the industry or employment within which a labor dispute arises.

(13) To engage in picketing by force and violence, or to picket in such a manner as to prevent ingress and egress to and from any premises, or to picket other than in a reasonable and peaceable manner.

(14) To solicit advertising in the name of a labor organization without the written permission of such organization.

(15) To undertake through the medium of a card, circular, pamphlet, newspaper or any other medium whatsoever, or by any holding out to the public as officially representing a labor organization without the written authority or contract with such labor organization. Any publication claiming endorsement by a labor organization shall list in such publication the name and address of the organization or organizations endorsing same.

Note.—Former s. 481.09.

447.11 Actions and suits; labor organizations as parties.—Any labor organization may maintain any action or suit in its commonly used name and shall be subject to any suit or action in its commonly used name in the same manner and to the same extent as any corporation authorized to do business in this state. All process, pleadings and other papers in such action may be served on the president or other officer, business agent, manager or person in charge of the business of such labor organization. Judgment in such action may be enforced against the common property only of such labor organization.

447.17 Civil remedy; injunctive relief.—

(1) Any person who may be denied employment or discriminated against in his employment on account of membership or nonmembership in any labor union or labor organization shall be entitled to recover from the discriminating employer, other person, firm, corporation, labor union, labor organization, or association, acting separately or in concert, in the courts of this state, such damages as he may have sustained and the costs of suit, including reasonable attorney's fees. If such employer, other person, firm, corporation, labor union, labor organization, or association acted willfully and with malice or reckless indifference to the rights of others, punitive damages may be assessed against such employer, other person, firm, corporation, labor union, labor organization, or association.

(2) Any person sustaining injury as a result of any violation or threatened violation of the provisions of this section shall be entitled to injunctive relief against any and all violators or persons threatening violation.

(3) The remedy and relief provided for by this section shall not be available to public employees as defined in part II of this chapter.

447.201 Statement of policy.—It is declared that the public policy of the state, and the purpose of this part, is to provide statutory implementation of s. 6, Art. I of the State Constitution, with respect to public employees; to promote harmonious and cooperative relationships between government and its employees, both collectively and individually; and to protect the public by assuring, at all times, the orderly and uninterrupted operations and functions of government. It is the intent of the Legislature that nothing herein shall be construed either to encourage or discourage organization of public employees. These policies are best effectuated by:

- (1) Granting to public employees the right of organization and representation;
- (2) Requiring the state, local governments, and other political subdivisions to negotiate with bargaining agents duly certified to represent public employees;
- (3) Creating a Public Employees Relations Commission to assist in resolving disputes between public employees and public employers; and
- (4) Recognizing the constitutional prohibition against strikes by public employees and providing remedies for violations of such prohibition.

History.—s. 3, ch. 74-100; s. 5, ch. 77-343.

447.203 Definitions.—As used in this part:

(1) "Commission" means the Public Employees Relations Commission created by s. 447.205.

(2) "Public employer" or "employer" means the state or any county, municipality, or special district or any subdivision or agency thereof which the commission determines has sufficient legal distinctiveness properly to carry out the functions of a public employer. With respect to all public employees determined by the commission as properly belonging to a statewide bargaining unit composed of State Career Service System employees, the Governor shall be deemed to be the public employer, and the Board of Regents shall be deemed to be the public employer with respect to faculty and administrative and professional employees and for all other public employees within the state university system not otherwise determined by the commission as properly belonging to a statewide bargaining unit composed of State Career Service System employees. The board of trustees of a community college shall be deemed to be the public employer with respect to all employees of the community college. The district school board shall be deemed to be the public employer with respect to all employees of the school district. The Board of Trustees of the Florida School for the Deaf and the Blind shall be deemed to be the public employer with respect to the academic and academic administrative personnel of the Florida School for the Deaf and the Blind.

(3) "Public employee" means any person employed by a public employer except:

(a) Those persons appointed by the Governor or elected by the people, agency heads, and members of boards and commissions.

(b) Those persons holding positions by appointment or employment in the organized militia.

(c) Those individuals acting as negotiating representatives for employer authorities.

(d) Those persons who are designated by the commission as managerial or confidential employees pursuant to criteria contained herein.

(e) Those persons holding positions of employment with the Florida Legislature.

(f) Those persons who have been convicted of a crime and are inmates confined to institutions within the state.

(4) "Managerial employees" are those employees who:

(a) Perform jobs that are not of a routine, clerical, or ministerial nature and require the exercise of independent judgment in the performance of such jobs and to whom one or more of the following applies:

1. They formulate or assist in formulating policies which are applicable to bargaining unit employees.

2. They may reasonably be required on behalf of the employer to assist in the preparation for the conduct of collective bargaining negotiations.

3. They have a role in the administration of agreements resulting from collective bargaining negotiations.

4. They have a significant role in personnel administration.

5. They have a significant role in employee relations.

6. They are included in the definition of administrative personnel contained in s. 228.041(10).

7. They have a significant role in the preparation or administration of budgets for any public agency or institution or subdivision thereof.

(b) Serve as police chiefs, fire chiefs, or directors of public safety of any police, fire, or public safety department. Other police officers, as defined in s. 943.10(1), and firefighters, as defined in s. 633.30(1), may be determined by the commission to be managerial employees of such departments. In making such determinations, the commission shall consider, in addition to the criteria established in paragraph (a), the paramilitary organizational structure of the department involved.

However, in determining whether an individual is a managerial employee pursuant to either paragraph (a) or paragraph (b), above, the commission may consider historic relationships of the employee to the public employer and to coemployees.

(5) "Confidential employees" are persons who act in a confidential capacity to assist or aid managerial employees as defined in subsection (4).

(6) "Strike" means the concerted failure of employees to report for duty; the concerted absence of employees from their positions; the concerted stoppage of work by employees; the concerted submission of resignations by employees; the concerted abstinence in whole or in part by any group of employees from the full and faithful performance of the duties of employment with a public employer for the purpose of inducing, influencing, condoning, or coercing a change in the terms and conditions of employment or the rights, privileges, or obligations of public employment, or participating in a deliberate and concerted course of conduct which adversely affects the services of the public employer; the concerted failure of employees to report for work after the expiration of a collective bargaining agreement; and picketing in furtherance of a work stoppage. The term "strike" shall also mean any overt preparation, including, but not limited to, the establishment of strike funds with regard to the above-listed activities.

(7) "Strike funds" are any appropriations by an employee organization which are established to directly or indirectly aid any employee or employee organization to participate in a strike in the state.

(8) "Bargaining unit" means either that unit determined by the commission, that unit determined through local regulations promulgated pursuant to s. 447.603, or that unit determined by the public employer and the public employee organization and approved by the commission to be appropriate for the purposes of collective bargaining. However, no bargaining unit shall be defined as appropriate which includes employees of two employers that are not departments or divisions of the state, a county, a municipality, or other political entity.

(9) "Chief executive officer" for the state shall mean the Governor and for other public employers shall mean the person, whether elected or appointed, who is responsible to the legislative body of the public employer for the administration of the governmental affairs of the public employer.

(10) "Legislative body" means the State Legislature, the board of county commissioners, the district school board, the governing body of a municipality, or the governing body of an instrumentality or unit of government having authority to appropriate funds and establish policy governing the terms and conditions of employment and which, as the case may be, is the appropriate legislative body for the bargaining unit. For purposes of s. 447.403 the board of trustees of a community college shall be deemed to be the legislative body with respect to all employees of the community college.

(11) "Employee organization" or "organization" means any labor organization, union, association, fraternal order, occupational or professional society, or group, however organized or constituted, which represents, or seeks to represent, any public employee or group of public employees concerning any matters relating to their employment relationship with a public employer.

(12) "Bargaining agent" means the employee organization which has been certified by the commission as representing the employees in the bargaining unit, as provided in s. 447.307, or its representative.

(13) "Professional employee" means:

(a) Any employee engaged in work in any two or more of the following categories:

1. Work predominantly intellectual and varied in character as opposed to routine mental, manual, mechanical, or physical work;

2. Work involving the consistent exercise of discretion and judgment in its performance;

3. Work of such a character that the output produced or the result accomplished cannot be standardized in relation to a given period of time; and

4. Work requiring advanced knowledge in a field of science or learning customarily acquired by a prolonged course of specialized intellectual instruction and study in an institution of higher learning or a hospital, as distinguished from a general academic education, an apprenticeship, or training in the performance of routine mental or physical processes.

(b) Any employee who:

1. Has completed the course of specialized intellectual instruction and study described in subparagraph 4. of paragraph (a); and

2. Is performing related work under supervision of a professional person to qualify himself to become a professional employee as defined in paragraph (a).

(14) "Collective bargaining" means the performance of the mutual obligations of the public employer and the bargaining agent of the employee organization to meet at reasonable times, to negotiate in good faith, and to execute a written contract with respect to agreements reached concerning the terms and conditions of employment, except that neither party shall be compelled to agree to a proposal or be required to make a concession unless otherwise provided in this part.

(15) "Membership dues deduction" means the practice of a public employer of deducting dues and uniform assessments from the salary or wages of a public employee. Such term also means the practice of a public employer of transmitting the sums so deducted to such employee organization.

(16) "Civil service" means any career, civil, or merit system used by any public employer.

(17) "Good faith bargaining" shall mean, but not be limited to, the willingness of both parties to meet at reasonable times and places, as mutually agreed upon, in order to discuss issues which are proper subjects of bargaining, with the intent of reaching a common accord. It shall include an obligation for both parties to participate actively in the negotiations with an open mind and a sincere desire, as well as making a sincere effort, to resolve differences and come to an agreement. In determining whether a party failed to bargain in good faith, the commission shall consider the total conduct of the parties during negotiations as well as the specific incidents of alleged bad faith. Incidents indicative of bad faith shall include, but not be limited to, the following occurrences:

(a) Failure to meet at reasonable times and places with representatives of the other party for the purpose of negotiations.

(b) Placing unreasonable restrictions on the other party as a prerequisite to meeting.

(c) Failure to discuss bargainable issues.

(d) Refusing, upon reasonable written request, to provide public information, excluding work products as defined in s. 447.605.

(e) Refusing to negotiate because of an unwanted person on the opposing negotiating team.

(f) Negotiating directly with employees rather than with their certified bargaining agent.

(g) Refusing to reduce a total agreement to writing.

(18) "Student representative" means the representative selected by each community college student government association and the council of student body presidents. Each representative may be present at all negotiating sessions which take place between the appropriate public employer and an exclusive bargaining agent. Said representative shall be enrolled as a student with at least 8 credit hours in the respective community college or in the state university system during his term as student representative.

Note.—Subsection (2) was amended by s. 118, ch. 79-222, effective July 1, 1980, to read:

(2) "Public employer" or "employer" means the state or any county, municipality, or special district or any subdivision or agency thereof which the commission determines has sufficient legal distinctiveness properly to carry out the functions of a public employer. With respect to all public employees determined by the commission as properly belonging to a statewide bargaining unit composed of State Career Service System employees, the Governor shall be deemed to be the public employer, and the Board of Regents shall be deemed to be the public employer with respect to faculty and administrative and professional employees and for all other public employees within the state university system not otherwise determined by the commission as properly belonging to a statewide bargaining unit composed of State Career Service System employees, except that such faculty and administrative and professional employees and all other such employees shall have the right, in elections to be conducted at each university by the commission pursuant to its rules, to elect not to participate in collective bargaining. In the event that a majority of such voting employees at any university elect not to participate in collective bargaining, they shall be removed from the Board of Regents bargaining unit. If, thereafter, by election conducted by the commission pursuant to its rules, a majority of such voting employees elect to participate in collective bargaining, they shall be included again in the Board of Regents bargaining unit for such purpose. The board of trustees of a community college shall be deemed to be the public employer with respect to all employees of the community college. The district school board shall be deemed to be the public employer with respect to all employees of the school district. The Board of Trustees of the Florida School for the Deaf and the Blind shall be deemed to be the public employer with respect to the academic and academic administrative personnel of the Florida School for the Deaf and the Blind.

447.205 Public Employees Relations Commission.—

(1) There is hereby created within the Department of Labor and Employment Security the Public Employees Relations Commission, hereinafter referred to as the "commission." The commission shall be composed of a chairman and two full-time members to be appointed by the Governor, subject to confirmation by the Senate, from persons representative of the public, known for their objective and independent judgment, who shall not be employed by, or hold any commission with, any governmental unit in the state or any employee organization, as defined in this part, while in said office. In no event shall more than one appointee be a person who, on account of previous vocation, employment, or affiliation, is, or has been, classified as a representative of employers; and in no event shall more than one such appointee be a person who, on account of previous vocation, employment, or affiliation, is, or has been, classified as a representative of employees or employee organizations. The commissioners shall devote full time to commission duties and shall not engage in any other business, vocation, or employment while in said office. The term of office shall be 4 years, except that, beginning January 1, 1980, the chairman shall be appointed for a term of 4 years, one commissioner for a term of 1 year, and one commissioner for a term of 2 years. In the event of a vacancy prior to the expiration of a term of office, an appointment shall be made for the unexpired term of that office. The chairman shall be responsible for the administrative functions of the commission and shall have the authority to employ such personnel as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this part. Once appointed, the chairman shall serve as chairman for the duration of his term. Nothing contained herein shall prohibit a chairman or commissioner from serving multiple terms.

(2) The chairman and the other commissioners shall be paid annual salaries to be fixed by law. Such salaries shall be paid in equal monthly installments. All commissioners shall be reimbursed for expenses, as provided in s. 112.061.

(3) The commission, in the performance of its powers and duties under part II of this chapter, shall not be subject to control, supervision, or direction by the Department of Labor and Employment Security.

(4) The property, personnel, and appropriations related to the commission's specified authority, powers, duties, and responsibilities shall be provided to the commission by the Department of Labor and Employment Security.

(5) The commission shall make such expenditures, including expenditures for personal services and rent at the seat of government and elsewhere, for law books, books of reference, periodicals, furniture, equipment, and supplies, and for printing and binding, as may be necessary in exercising its authority and powers and carrying out its duties and responsibilities. All such expenditures of the commission shall be allowed and paid upon the presentation of itemized vouchers therefor approved by the chairman.

(6) The commission may, in its discretion, charge for publications, subscriptions, and copies of records and documents. Such funds shall be deposited in a trust fund to be established by the commission and shall be used to help defray the cost of providing such publications, subscriptions, and copies of records and documents.

(7) The commission shall maintain and keep open during reasonable business hours an office, which shall be provided in the capitol center for the transaction of its business, at which its official records and papers shall be kept. The commission may hold sessions and conduct hearings at any place within the state.

(8) The commission shall have a seal for authentication of its orders and proceedings, upon which shall be inscribed the words "State of Florida—Public Employees Relations Commission—Seal", and it shall be judicially noticed.

(9) The commission is expressly authorized to provide by rule for, and to destroy, obsolete records of the commission.

(10) The deliberations of the commission in any proceeding before it shall be exempt from the provisions of chapter 286. However, any hearing held or oral argument heard by the commission pursuant to chapter 120 or chapter 447 shall be open to the public. All draft orders developed in preparation for, or preliminary to, the issuance of a final written order shall be exempt from the provisions of chapter 119.

History.—s. 3, ch. 74-100; s. 7, ch. 77-343; s. 40, ch. 79-7; s. 1, ch. 79-85; s. 189, ch. 79-400.

447.207 Commission; powers and duties.—

(1) The commission shall, in accordance with chapter 120, adopt, promulgate, amend, or rescind such rules and regulations as it deems necessary and administratively feasible to carry out the provisions of this part.

(2) To accomplish the objectives and carry out the duties prescribed by this part, the commission may preserve and enforce order during any proceeding; issue subpoenas for, administer oaths or affirmations to, and compel the attendance and testimony of witnesses; or issue subpoenas for, and compel the production of, books, papers, records, documents, and other evidence. However, in the absence of extraordinary circumstances, no subpoena shall issue which commands the attendance or testimony of any commissioner or any commission employee at a commission proceeding with respect to the performance of official or assigned duties, or the production of books, papers, records, or documents of the commission which have been prepared during the performance of such duties.

(3) If any person:

(a) Misbehaves during a proceeding or so near the place thereof as to obstruct the same;

(b) Neglects to produce, after having been ordered to do so, any pertinent book, paper, record, or document; or

(c) Refuses or fails to appear after having been subpoenaed or, upon appearing, refuses to take oath or affirmation as a witness or, after having taken the oath, refuses to be examined according to law, the commission shall certify the facts to the circuit court having jurisdiction in the county where the proceeding is taking place, which shall thereupon in a summary manner hear the evidence as to the acts complained of and, if the evidence so warrants, punish such person in the same manner and to the same extent as for a contempt committed before the court or commit such person upon the same conditions as if the doing of the forbidden act had occurred with reference to the process or order of, or in the presence of, the court.

(4) Any subpoena, notice of hearing, or other process or notice of the commission issued under the provisions of this part shall be served personally or by certified mail. A return made and verified by the individual making such service and setting forth the manner of such service is proof of service, and a returned post-office receipt, when certified mail is used, is proof of service. All process of any court to which application may be made under the provisions of this part shall be served in the county wherein the persons required to be served reside or may be found.

(5) The commission shall adopt rules as to the qualifications of persons who may serve as mediators and special masters and shall maintain lists of such qualified persons who are not employees of the commission. The commission may initiate dispute resolution procedures by special masters, pursuant to the provisions of this part.

(6) Pursuant to its established procedures, the commission shall resolve questions and controversies concerning claims for recognition as the bargaining agent for a bargaining unit, determine or approve units appropriate for purposes of collective bargaining, expeditiously process charges of unfair labor practices and violations of s. 447.505 by public employees, and resolve such other questions and controversies as it may be authorized herein to undertake. The petitioner, charging party, respondent, and any intervenors shall be the adversary parties before the commission in any adjudicatory proceeding conducted pursuant to this part. Any commission statement of general applicability that implements, interprets, or prescribes law or policy, made in the course of adjudicating a case pursuant to s. 447.307 or s. 447.503 shall not constitute a rule within the meaning of s. 120.52(14).

(7) The commission shall provide by rule a procedure for the filing and prompt disposition of petitions for a declaratory statement as to the applicability of any statutory provision or any rule or order of the commission. Such rule or rules shall provide for, but not be limited to, an expeditious disposition of petitions posing questions relating to potential unfair labor practices. Commission disposition of a petition shall be final agency action and shall not constitute a rule as defined in s. 120.52(14).

History.—s. 3, ch. 74-100; s. 8, ch. 77-343; s. 2, ch. 79-85; s. 190, ch. 79-400. cf.—s. 1.01 defines "registered mail" as including certified mail.

447.209 Public employer's rights.—It is the right of the public employer to determine unilaterally the purpose of each of its constituent agencies, set standards of services to be offered to the public, and exercise control and discretion over its organization and operations. It is also the right of the public employer to direct its employees, take disciplinary action for proper cause, and relieve its employees from duty because of lack of work or for other legitimate reasons. However, the exercise of such rights shall not preclude employees or their representatives from raising grievances, should decisions on the above matters have the practical consequence of violating the terms and conditions of any collective bargaining agreement in force or any civil or career service regulation.

History.—s. 3, ch. 74-100.

447.301 Public employees' rights; organization and representation.—

(1) Public employees shall have the right to form, join, and participate in, or to refrain from forming, joining, or participating in, any employee organization of their own choosing.

(2) Public employees shall have the right to be represented by any employee organization of their own choosing and to negotiate collectively, through a certified bargaining agent, with their public employer in the determination of the terms and conditions of their employment, excluding any provisions of the Florida Statutes or appropriate ordinances relating to retirement. Public employees shall have the right to be represented in the determination of grievances on all terms and conditions of their employment. Public employees shall have the right to refrain from exercising the right to be represented.

(3) Public employees shall have the right to engage in concerted activities not prohibited by law, for the purpose of collective bargaining or other mutual aid or protection. Public employees shall also have the right to refrain from engaging in such activities.

(4) Nothing in this part shall be construed to prevent any public employee from presenting, at any time, his own grievances, in person or by legal counsel, to his public employer and having such grievances adjusted without the intervention of the bargaining agent, if the adjustment is not inconsistent with the terms of the collective bargaining agreement then in effect and if the bargaining agent has been given reasonable opportunity to be present at any meeting called for the resolution of such grievances.

(5) In negotiations over the terms and conditions of service and other matters affecting the working environment of employees, or the learning environment of students, in institutions of higher education, one student representative selected by the council of student body presidents may, at his discretion, be present at all negotiating sessions which take place between the Board of Regents and the bargaining agent for an employee bargaining unit. In the case of community colleges, the student government association of each college shall establish procedures for the selection of, and shall select, a student representative to be present, at his discretion, at negotiations between the bargaining agent of the employees and the board of trustees. Each student representative shall have access to all written draft agreements and all other written documents pertaining to negotiations exchanged by the appropriate public employer and the bargaining agent, including a copy of any prepared written transcripts of any negotiating session. Each student representative shall have the right at reasonable times during the negotiating session to comment to the parties and to the public upon the impact of proposed agreements on the educational environment of students. Each student representative shall have the right to be accompanied by alternates or aides, not to exceed a combined total of two in number. Each student representative shall be obligated to participate in good faith during all negotiations and shall be subject to the rules and regulations of the Public Employees Relations Commission. The student representatives shall have neither voting nor veto power in any negotiation, action, or agreement. The state or any branch, agency, division, agent, or institution of the state shall not expend any moneys from any source for the payment of reimbursement for travel expenses or per diem to aides, alternates, or student representatives participating in, observing, or contributing to, any negotiating sessions between the bargaining parties; however, this limitation shall not apply to the use of student activity fees for the reimbursement of travel expenses and per diem to the university student representative, aides, or alternates participating in the aforementioned negotiations between the Board of Regents and the bargaining agent for an employee bargaining unit.

447.303 Dues; deduction and collection.—

Any employee organization which has been certified as a bargaining agent shall have the right to have its dues and uniform assessments deducted and collected by the employer from the salaries of those employees who authorize the deduction of said dues and uniform assessments. However, such authorization is revocable at the employee's request upon 30 days' written notice to the employer and employee organization. Said deductions shall commence upon the bargaining agent's written request to the employer. Reasonable costs to the employer of said deductions shall be a proper subject of collective bargaining. Such right to deduction, unless revoked pursuant to s. 447.507, shall be in force for so long as the employee organization remains the certified bargaining agent for the employees in the unit. The public employer is expressly prohibited from any involvement in the collection of fines, penalties, or special assessments.

History.—s. 3, ch. 74-100; s. 10, ch. 77-343.

447.305 Registration of employee organization.—

(1) Every employee organization seeking to become a certified bargaining agent for public employees shall register with the commission pursuant to the procedures set forth in s. 120.60 prior to requesting recognition by a public employer for purposes of collective bargaining and prior to submitting a petition to the commission requesting certification as an exclusive bargaining agent. Further, if such employee organization is not registered, it may not participate in a representation hearing, participate in a representation election, or be certified as an exclusive bargaining agent. The application for registration required by this section shall be under oath and in such form as the commission may prescribe and shall include:

(a) The name and address of the organization and of any parent organization or organization with which it is affiliated.

(b) The names and addresses of the principal officers and all representatives of the organization.

(c) The amount of the initiation fee and of the monthly dues which members must pay.

(d) The current annual financial statement of the organization.

(e) The name of its business agent, if any; if different from the business agent, the name of its local agent for service of process; and the addresses where such person or persons can be reached.

(f) A pledge, in a form prescribed by the commission, that the employee organization will conform to the laws of the state and that it will accept members without regard to age, race, sex, religion, or national origin.

(g) A copy of the current constitution and bylaws of the employee organization.

(h) A copy of the current constitution and bylaws of the state and national groups with which the employee organization is affiliated or associated. In lieu of this provision, and upon adoption of a rule by the commission, a state or national affiliate or parent organization of any registering labor organization may annually submit a copy of its current constitution and bylaws.

(2) A registration granted to an employee organization pursuant to the provisions of this section shall run for 1 year from the date of issuance. A registration shall be renewed annually by filing application for renewal under oath with the commission, which application shall reflect any changes in the information provided to the commission in conjunction with the employee organization's preceding application for registration or previous renewal, whichever is applicable. Each application for renewal of registration shall include a current annual financial report, signed by its president and treasurer or corresponding principal officers, containing the following information in such detail as may be necessary accurately to disclose its financial condition and operations for its preceding fiscal year and in such categories as the commission may prescribe:

(a) Assets and liabilities at the beginning and end of the fiscal year;

(b) Receipts of any kind and the sources thereof;

(c) Salary, allowances, and other direct or indirect disbursements, including reimbursed expenses, to each officer and also to each employee who, during such fiscal year, received more than $10,000 in the aggregate from such employee organization and any other employee organization affiliated with it or with which it is affiliated or which is affiliated with the same national or international employee organization;

(d) Direct and indirect loans made to any officer, employee, or member which aggregated more than $250 during the fiscal year, together with a statement of the purpose, security, if any, and arrangements for repayment; and

(e) Direct and indirect loans to any business enterprise, together with a statement of the purpose, security, if any, and arrangements for repayment.

(3) A registration fee shall accompany each application filed with the commission. The amount charged for an application for registration or renewal of registration shall not exceed $15. All such money collected by the commission shall be deposited in the General Revenue Fund.

(4) Notification of registrations and renewals of registration shall be furnished at regular intervals by the commission to the Division of Labor of the Department of Labor and Employment Security.

(5) Every employee organization shall keep accurate accounts of its income and expenses, which accounts shall be open for inspection at all reasonable times by any member of the organization or by the commission.

History.—s. 3, ch. 74-100; s. 11, ch. 77-343; s. 2, ch. 79-89.

447.307 Certification of employee organization.—

(1)(a) Any employee organization which is designated or selected by a majority of public employees in an appropriate unit as their representative for purposes of collective bargaining shall request recognition by the public employer. The public employer shall, if satisfied as to the majority status of the employee organization and the appropriateness of the proposed unit, recognize the employee organization as the collective bargaining representative of employees in the designated unit. Upon recognition by a public employer, the employee organization shall immediately petition the commission for certification. The commission shall review only the appropriateness of the unit proposed by the employee organization. If the unit is appropriate according to the criteria used in this part, the commission shall immediately certify the employee organization as the exclusive representative of all employees in the unit. If the unit is inappropriate according to the criteria used in this part, the commission may dismiss the petition.

(b) Whenever a public employer recognizes an employee organization on the basis of majority status and on the basis of appropriateness in accordance with subparagraph (4)(f)5. of this section, the commission shall, in the absence of inclusion of a prohibited category of employees or violation of s. 447.501, certify the proposed unit.

(2) If the public employer refuses to recognize the employee organization, the employee organization may file a petition with the commission for certification as the bargaining agent for a proposed bargaining unit. The petition shall be accompanied by dated statements signed by at least 30 percent of the employees in the proposed unit, indicating that such employees desire to be represented for purposes of collective bargaining by the petitioning employee organization. Once a petition for certification has been filed by an employee organization, any registered employee organization desiring placement on the ballot in any election to be conducted pursuant to this section may be permitted by the commission to intervene in the proceeding upon motion accompanied by dated statements signed by at least 10 percent of the employees in the proposed unit, indicating that such employees desire to be represented for the purposes of collective bargaining by the moving employee organization. Any employee, employer, or employee organization having sufficient reason to believe any of the employee signatures were obtained by collusion, coercion, intimidation, or misrepresentation or are otherwise invalid shall be given a reasonable opportunity to verify and challenge the signatures appearing on the petition.

(3)(a) The commission or one of its designated agents shall investigate the petition to determine its sufficiency; if it has reasonable cause to believe that the petition is sufficient, the commission shall provide for an appropriate hearing upon due notice. Such a hearing may be conducted by an agent of the commission. If the commission finds the petition to be insufficient, it may dismiss the petition. If the commission finds upon the record of the hearing that the petition is sufficient, it shall immediately:

1. Define the proposed bargaining unit and determine which public employees shall be qualified and entitled to vote at any election held by the commission.

2. Identify the public employer or employers for purposes of collective bargaining with the bargaining agent.

3. Order an election by secret ballot, the cost of said election and any required run-off election to be borne equally by the parties, except as the commission may provide by rule. The commission's order assessing costs of an election may be enforced pursuant to the provisions of this part.

(b) When an employee organization is selected by a majority of the employees voting in an election, the commission shall certify the employee organization as the exclusive collective bargaining representative of all employees in the unit.

(c) In any election in which none of the choices on the ballot receives the vote of a majority of the employees voting, a runoff election shall be held according to rules promulgated by the commission.

(d) No petition may be filed seeking an election in any appropriate bargaining unit to determine the exclusive bargaining agent if a representation election has been conducted within the preceding 12-month period. Furthermore, if a valid collective bargaining agreement covering any of the employees in a proposed unit is in effect, a petition for certification may be filed with the commission only during the period extending from 150 days to 90 days immediately preceding the expiration date of said agreement, or at any time subsequent to its expiration date but prior to the effective date of any new agreement. The effective date of a collective bargaining agreement means the date of ratification by both parties, if the agreement becomes effective immediately or retroactively; or its actual effective date, if the agreement becomes effective after its ratification date.

(4) In defining a proposed bargaining unit, the commission shall take into consideration:

(a) The principles of efficient administration of government.

(b) The number of employee organizations with which the employer might have to negotiate.

(c) The compatibility of the unit with the joint responsibilities of the public employer and public employees to represent the public.

(d) The power of the officials of government at the level of the unit to agree, or make effective recommendations to another administrative authority or to a legislative body, with respect to matters of employment upon which the employee desires to negotiate.

(e) The organizational structure of the public employer.

(f) Community of interest among the employees to be included in the unit, considering:

1. The manner in which wages and other terms of employment are determined.

2. The method by which jobs and salary classifications are determined.

3. The interdependence of jobs and interchange of employees.

4. The desires of the employees.

5. The history of employee relations within the organization of the public employer concerning organization and negotiation and the interest of the employees and the employer in the continuation of a traditional, workable, and accepted negotiation relationship.

(g) The statutory authority of the public employer to administer a classification and pay plan.

(h) Such other factors and policies as the commission may deem appropriate.

However, no unit shall be established or approved for purposes of collective bargaining which includes both professional and nonprofessional employees unless a majority of each group votes for inclusion in such unit.

History.—s. 3, ch. 74-100; s. 12, ch. 77-343; s. 2, ch. 79-100.

447.308 Revocation of certification of employee organization.—

(1) Any employee or group of employees which no longer desires to be represented by the certified bargaining agent may file with the commission a petition to revoke certification. The petition shall be accompanied by dated statements signed by at least 30 percent of the employees in the unit, indicating that such employees no longer desire to be represented for purposes of collective bargaining by the certified bargaining agent. The time of filing said petition shall be governed by the provisions of s. 447.307(3)(d) relating to petitions for certification. Any employee or employee organization having sufficient reason to believe any of the employee signatures were obtained by collusion, coercion, intimidation, or misrepresentation or are otherwise invalid shall be given a reasonable opportunity to verify and challenge the signatures appearing on the petition. The commission or one of its designated agents shall investigate the petition to determine its sufficiency. If the commission finds the petition to be insufficient, it may dismiss the petition. If the commission finds that the petition is sufficient, it shall immediately:

(a) Identify the bargaining unit and determine which public employees shall be qualified and entitled to vote in the election held by the commission.

(b) Identify the public employer or employers.

(c) Order an election by secret ballot, the cost of said election to be borne equally by the parties, except as the commission may provide by rule. The commission's order assessing costs of an election may be enforced pursuant to the provisions of this part.

(2) If a majority of the employees voting in such election vote against the continuation of representation by the certified bargaining agent, the certification of the employee organization as the exclusive bargaining agent for the employees in the bargaining unit shall be revoked.

(3) If a majority of the employees voting in such election do not vote against the continuation of representation by the certified bargaining agent, the certification of the employee organization as the exclusive bargaining agent for the employees in the unit shall be retained by the organization.

History.—s. 2, ch. 79-100.

447.309 Collective bargaining; approval or rejection.—

(1) After an employee organization has been certified pursuant to the provisions of this part, the bargaining agent for the organization and the chief executive officer of the appropriate public employer or employers, jointly, shall bargain collectively in the determination of the wages, hours, and terms and conditions of employment of the public employees within the bargaining unit. The chief executive officer or his representative and the bargaining agent or its representative shall meet at reasonable times and bargain in good faith. In conducting negotiations with the bargaining agent, the chief executive officer or his representative shall consult with, and attempt to represent the views of, the legislative body of the public employer. Any collective bargaining agreement reached by the negotiators shall be reduced to writing, and such agreement shall be signed by the chief executive officer and the bargaining agent. Any agreement signed by the chief executive officer and the bargaining agent shall not be binding on the public employer until such agreement has been ratified by the public employer and by public employees who are members of the bargaining unit, subject to the provisions of subsections (2) and (3). However, with respect to statewide bargaining units, any agreement signed by the Governor and the bargaining agent for such a unit shall not be binding until approved by the public employees who are members of the bargaining unit, subject to the provisions of subsections (2) and (3).

(2) Upon execution of the collective bargaining agreement, the chief executive shall, in his annual budget request or by other appropriate means, request the legislative body to appropriate such amounts as shall be sufficient to fund the provisions of the collective bargaining agreement. If less than the requested amount is appropriated, the collective bargaining agreement shall be administered by the chief executive officer on the basis of the amounts appropriated by the legislative body. The failure of the legislative body to appropriate funds sufficient to fund the collective bargaining agreement shall not constitute, or be evidence of, any unfair labor practice.

(3) If any provision of a collective bargaining agreement is in conflict with any law, ordinance, rule, or regulation over which the chief executive officer has no amendatory power, the chief executive officer shall submit to the appropriate governmental body having amendatory power a proposed amendment to such law, ordinance, rule, or regulation. Unless and until such amendment is enacted or adopted and becomes effective, the conflicting provision of the collective bargaining agreement shall not become effective.

(4) If the agreement is not ratified by the public employer or is not approved by a majority vote of employees voting in the unit, in accordance with procedures adopted by the commission, the agreement shall be returned to the chief executive officer and the employee organization for further negotiations.

(5) Any collective bargaining agreement shall not provide for a term of existence of more than 3 years and shall contain all of the terms and conditions of employment of the employees in the bargaining unit during such term except those terms and conditions provided for in any Florida statute or appropriate ordinances relating to retirement and in applicable merit and civil service rules and regulations.

History.—s. 3, ch. 74-100; s. 13, ch. 77-343.

447.401 Grievance procedures.—Each public employer and bargaining agent shall negotiate a grievance procedure to be used for the settlement of disputes between employer and employee, or group of employees, involving the interpretation or application of a collective bargaining agreement. Such grievance procedure shall have as its terminal step a final and binding disposition by an impartial neutral, mutually selected by the parties. However, an arbitrator or other neutral shall not have the power to add to, subtract from, modify, or alter the terms of a collective bargaining agreement. If an employee organization is certified as the bargaining agent of a unit, the grievance procedure then in existence may be the subject of collective bargaining, and any agreement which is reached shall supersede the previously existing procedure. All public employees shall have the right to a fair and equitable grievance procedure, administered without regard to membership or nonmembership in any organization, except that certified employee organizations shall not be required to process grievances for employees who are not members of the organization. A career service employee shall have the option of utilizing the civil service appeal procedure or a grievance procedure established under this section, but such employee cannot use both a civil service appeal and a grievance procedure.

History.—s. 3, ch. 74-100; s. 1, ch. 74-378; s. 14, ch. 77-343.

447.403 Resolution of impasses.—

(1) If, after a reasonable period of negotiation concerning the terms and conditions of employment to be incorporated in a collective bargaining agreement, a dispute exists between a public employer and a bargaining agent, an impasse shall be deemed to have occurred when one of the parties so declares in writing to the other party and to the commission. When an impasse occurs, the public employer or the bargaining agent, or both parties acting jointly, may appoint, or secure the appointment of, a mediator to assist in the resolution of the impasse.

(2) If no mediator is appointed, or upon the request of either party, the commission shall appoint, and submit all unresolved issues to, a special master acceptable to both parties. If the parties are unable to agree on the appointment of a special master, the commission shall appoint, in its discretion, a qualified special master. Nothing in this section shall preclude the parties from using the services of a mediator at any time during the conduct of collective bargaining.

(3) The special master shall hold hearings in order to define the area or areas of dispute, to determine facts relating to the dispute, and to render a decision on any and all unresolved contract issues. The hearings shall be held at times, dates, and places to be established by the special master in accordance with rules promulgated by the commission. The special master shall be empowered to administer oaths and issue subpoenas on behalf of the parties to the dispute or on his own behalf. Within 15 calendar days after the close of the final hearing, the special master shall transmit his recommended decision to the commission which shall, within 5 working days after receipt thereof, transmit the recommended decision to the representatives of both parties. Such recommended decision shall be discussed by the parties and shall be deemed approved by both parties unless either party, by written notice filed with the commission within 20 calendar days after the date the commission mailed the special master's recommended decision to the parties, rejects the recommended decision. The written notice shall include a statement of the cause for rejection and shall be served upon the other party.

(4) In the event that either the public employer or the employee organization does not accept, in whole or in part, the recommended decision of the special master:

(a) The chief executive officer of the governmental entity involved shall, within 10 days after rejection of the recommended decision of the special master, submit to the legislative body of the governmental entity involved a copy of the findings of fact and recommended decision of the special master, together with the chief executive officer's recommendations for settling the dispute; (The chief executive officer shall also transmit his recommendations to the employee organization; if the dispute involves employees for whom the Board of Regents is the public employer, the Governor may also submit recommendations for settling the dispute to the legislative body.)

(b) The employee organization shall submit its recommendations for settling the dispute to such legislative body and to the chief executive officer;

(c) The legislative body or a duly authorized committee thereof shall forthwith conduct a public hearing at which the parties shall be required to explain their positions with respect to the recommended decision of the special master; and

(d) Thereafter, the legislative body shall take such action as it deems to be in the public interest, including the interest of the public employees involved.

History.—s. 3, ch. 74-100; s. 15, ch. 77-343; s. 192, ch. 79-400.

447.405 Factors to be considered by the special master.—The special master shall conduct the hearings and render his recommended decisions with the objective of achieving a prompt, peaceful, and just settlement of disputes between the public employee organizations and the public employers. The factors, among others, to be given weight by the special master in arriving at a recommended decision shall include:

(1) Comparison of the annual income of employment of the public employees in question with the annual income of employment maintained for the same or similar work of employees exhibiting like or similar skills under the same or similar working conditions in the local operating area involved.

(2) Comparison of the annual income of employment of the public employees in question with the annual income of employment of public employees in similar public employee governmental bodies of comparable size within the state.

(3) The interest and welfare of the public.

(4) Comparison of peculiarities of employment in regard to other trades or professions, specifically with respect to:

- (a) Hazards of employment.
- (b) Physical qualifications.
- (c) Educational qualifications.
- (d) Intellectual qualifications.
- (e) Job training and skills.
- (f) Retirement plans.
- (g) Sick leave.
- (h) Job security.
- (5) Availability of funds.

History.—s. 3, ch. 74-100; s. 16, ch. 77-343.

447.407 Compensation of mediator and special master; expenses.—The compensation of the mediator and special master, and all stenographic and other expenses, shall be borne equally by the parties.

History.—s. 3, ch. 74-100; s. 17, ch. 77-343.

447.409 Records.—All records which are relevant to, or have a bearing upon, any issue or issues raised by the proceedings conducted by the special master shall be made available to the special master by a request in writing to any of the parties to the impasse proceedings. Notice of such request shall be furnished to all parties. Any such records which are made available to the special master shall also be made available to any other party to the impasse proceedings, upon written request.

History.—s. 3, ch. 74-100; s. 18, ch. 77-343.

447.501 Unfair labor practices.—

(1) Public employers or their agents or representatives are prohibited from:

(a) Interfering with, restraining, or coercing public employees in the exercise of any rights guaranteed them under this part.

(b) Encouraging or discouraging membership in any employee organization by discrimination in regard to hiring, tenure, or other conditions of employment.

(c) Refusing to bargain collectively, failing to bargain collectively in good faith, or refusing to sign a final agreement agreed upon with the certified bargaining agent for the public employees in the bargaining unit.

(d) Discharging or discriminating against a public employee because he has filed charges or given testimony under this part.

(e) Dominating, interfering with, or assisting in the formation, existence, or administration of, any employee organization or contributing financial support to such an organization.

(f) Refusing to discuss grievances in good faith pursuant to the terms of the collective bargaining agreement with either the certified bargaining agent for the public employee or the employee involved.

(2) A public employee organization or anyone acting in its behalf or its officers, representatives, agents, or members are prohibited from:

(a) Interfering with, restraining, or coercing public employees in the exercise of any rights guaranteed them under this part or interfering with, restraining, or coercing managerial employees by reason of their performance of job duties or other activities undertaken in the interests of the public employer.

(b) Causing or attempting to cause a public employer to discriminate against an employee because of the employee's membership or nonmembership in an employee organization or attempting to cause the public employer to violate any of the provisions of this part.

(c) Refusing to bargain collectively or failing to bargain collectively in good faith with a public employer.

(d) Discriminating against an employee because he has signed or filed an affidavit, petition, or complaint or given any information or testimony in any proceedings provided for in this part.

(e) Participating in a strike against the public employer by instigating or supporting, in any positive manner, a strike. Any violation of this paragraph shall subject the violator to the penalties provided in this part.

(f) Instigating or advocating support, in any positive manner, for an employee organization's activities from high school or grade school students or students in institutions of higher learning.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsections (1) and (2), the parties' rights of free speech shall not be infringed, and the expression of any arguments or opinions shall not constitute, or be evidence of, an unfair employment practice or of any other violation of this part, if such expression contains no promise of benefits or threat of reprisal or force.

History.—s. 3, ch. 74-100; s. 1, ch. 77-174.

447.503 Charges of unfair labor practices.—It is the intent of the Legislature that the commission act as expeditiously as possible to settle disputes regarding alleged unfair labor practices. To this end, violations of the provisions of s. 447.501 shall be remedied by the commission in accordance with the following procedures and in accordance with chapter 120; however, to the extent that chapter 120 is inconsistent with the provisions of this section, the procedures contained in this section shall govern:

(1) A proceeding to remedy a violation of the provisions of s. 447.501 shall be initiated by the filing of a charge with the commission by an employer, employee, or employee organization, or any combination thereof. Such a charge shall contain a clear and concise statement of facts constituting the alleged unfair labor practice, including the names of all individuals involved in the alleged unfair labor practice, specific reference to the provisions of s. 447.501 alleged to have been violated, and such other relevant information as the commission may by rule require or allow. Service of the charge shall be made upon each named respondent at the time of filing with the commission. The charge must be accompanied by sworn statements and documentary evidence sufficient to establish a prima facie violation of the applicable unfair labor practice provision. Such supporting evidence is not to be attached to the charge and is to be furnished only to the commission.

(2) The commission, or any agent designated by it for such purpose, shall thereupon review the charge to determine its sufficiency.

(a) If upon review it is determined that the charge is insufficient, the commission or its designated agent may issue a summary dismissal of the charge. A charging party whose charge is dismissed by a designated agent may appeal the dismissal to the commission within 20 days after the date of issuance of the dismissal. If the commission finds the charge to be sufficient, it shall reinstate the charge.

(b) If upon review it is determined that the charge is sufficient, the commission shall notify the parties. Each respondent so charged shall thereupon file an answer to the charge with the commission, and serve a copy upon the charging party, no more than 20 days after service of notification of the sufficiency of the charge, unless otherwise allowed by the commission. The commission, in its discretion, may allow a charge or answer to be amended at any time. The commission may also, in its discretion, allow other interested parties to intervene in the proceeding.

(c) Upon completion of the review, the evidence filed with the commission in support of the charge shall be made available upon request in accordance with the provisions of chapter 119.

(3) Whenever a charging party alleges that a respondent has engaged in unfair labor practices and that the charging party will suffer substantial and irreparable injury if he is not granted temporary relief, the commission may petition the circuit court for appropriate injunctive relief pending the final adjudication by the commission with respect to such matter. Upon the filing of any such petition, the court shall cause notice thereof to be served upon the parties and, thereupon, shall have jurisdiction to grant such temporary relief or restraining order as it deems just and proper.

(4) The commission may issue prehearing orders requiring the parties to provide written statements of relevant issues of fact and law and such other information as the commission may require to expedite the resolution of the case. Such orders may further direct the parties to identify witnesses, exchange intended exhibits and documentary evidence, and appear at a conference before the commission or a member thereof, or a designated hearing officer, for the purpose of handling such matters as will aid the commission in expeditiously resolving the case before it.

(5) Whenever the proceeding involves a disputed issue of material fact and an evidentiary hearing is to be conducted:

(a) The commission shall issue and serve upon all parties a notice of hearing before an assigned hearing officer at a time and place specified therein. Such notice shall be issued at least 14 days prior to the scheduled hearing.

(b) The evidentiary hearing shall be conducted by a hearing officer designated by the commission. Said hearing officer may be the commission itself, a member of the commission, or an agent designated by the commission for such purpose, provided that such agent shall be an employee of the commission and a member of The Florida Bar.

(c) Not later than 45 days after the close of the evidentiary hearing, unless extended by the commission with the consent of all parties, the hearing officer shall submit to the commission and to all parties a recommended order which shall include findings of fact and recommended rulings on procedural matters. The recommended order may also include recommended conclusions of law if requested by the commission.

(d) If the hearing was held before the commission or a member of the commission, the commission may elect to issue a final order which is in compliance with s. 120.58(1)(e) and s. 120.59.

(6)(a) If, upon consideration of the record in the case, the commission finds that an unfair labor practice has been committed, it shall issue and cause to be served an order requiring the appropriate party or parties to cease and desist from the unfair labor practice and take such positive action, including reinstatement of employees with or without back pay, as will best implement the general policies expressed in this part. However, no order of the commission shall require the reinstatement of any individual as an employee who has been suspended or discharged, or the payment to him of any back pay, if the individual was suspended or discharged for cause. The order may further require the party or parties to make periodic reports showing the extent to which it has complied with the order. If, upon consideration of the record in the case, the commission finds that an unfair labor practice has not been or is not being committed, it shall issue an order dismissing the case.

(b) If the commission determines that the alleged unfair labor practice occurred more than 6 months prior to the filing of the charge, the commission shall issue an order dismissing the case, unless the person filing the charge was prevented from doing so by reason of service in the Armed Forces, in which case the 6-month period shall run from the date of the person's discharge.

(c) The commission may award to the prevailing party all or part of the costs of litigation, reasonable attorney's fees, and expert witness fees whenever the commission determines that such an award is appropriate.

(d) Final orders of the commission issued pursuant to this section shall be enforced pursuant to the provisions of s. 447.5035 and shall be reviewed pursuant to the provisions of s. 447.504.

History.—s. 3, ch. 74-100; s. 154, ch. 77-104; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 19, ch. 77-343; s. 1, ch. 79-295.

447.5035 Enforcement of commission orders.

—In case of any failure by any employer, employee, or employee organization to comply with any order of the commission, upon application of the commission or, notwithstanding the provisions of s. 120.69(1)(b)1., upon application of any person who is a resident of the state and who is substantially interested in such order, any circuit court of this state shall have jurisdiction to enforce the order pursuant to the provisions of s. 120.69. However, if one or more petitions for enforcement and a notice of appeal involving the same agency action are pending at the same time, the district court of appeal considering the notice of appeal shall order all such actions transferred to and consolidated in the district court of appeal. If a petition for enforcement is filed after the time for filing notice of appeal has expired, the respondent may assert as a defense only that the agency action was not intended to apply to respondent or that respondent has complied with the agency action. Petitions for enforcement filed under this part shall be heard expeditiously by the circuit court to which presented and shall take precedence over all other civil matters except prior matters of the same character.

History.—s. 2, ch. 79-295.

447.504 Judicial review.—

(1) The district courts of appeal are empowered, upon the filing of appropriate notices of appeal, to review final orders of the commission pursuant to s. 120.68. A copy of the notice of appeal shall be filed with the commission. The record in the proceeding, certified by the commission, shall be filed with the court in accordance with the Florida Appellate Rules.

(2) Upon the filing of a notice of appeal, the appropriate district court of appeal shall thereupon have jurisdiction of the proceeding and may grant such temporary or permanent relief or restraining order as it deems just and proper and may enforce, modify, affirm, or set aside, in whole or in part, the order of the commission. The findings of the commission with respect to questions of fact, if supported by substantial evidence on the record considered as a whole, shall be conclusive.

(3) The court may award to the prevailing party all or part of the costs of litigation and reasonable attorney's fees and expert witness fees whenever the court determines that such an award is appropriate. However, no such costs or fees shall be assessed against the commission in any appeal from an order issued by the commission in an adjudicatory proceeding between adversary parties conducted pursuant to this part.

(4) The commencement of proceedings under this section shall not, unless specifically ordered by the district court of appeal, operate as a stay of the commission's order.

(5) Appeals filed under this part shall be heard expeditiously by the district court of appeal to which presented and shall take precedence over all other civil matters except prior matters of the same character.

History.—s. 3, ch. 74-100; s. 20, ch. 77-343; s. 3, ch. 79-295.

447.505 Strikes prohibited.—No public employee or employee organization may participate in a strike against a public employer by instigating or supporting, in any manner, a strike. Any violation of this section shall subject the violator to the penalties provided in this part.

History.—s. 3, ch. 74-100.

447.507 Violation of strike prohibition; penalties.—

(1) Circuit courts having jurisdiction of the parties are vested with the authority to hear and determine all actions alleging violations of s. 447.505. Suits to enjoin violations of s. 447.505 will have priority over all matters on the court's docket except other emergency matters.

(2) If a public employee, a group of employees, an employee organization, or any officer, agent, or representative of any employee organization engages in a strike in violation of s. 447.505, either the commission or any public employer whose employees are involved or whose employees may be affected by the strike may file suit to enjoin the strike in the circuit court having proper jurisdiction and proper venue of such actions under the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure and Florida Statutes. The circuit court shall conduct a hearing, with notice to the commission and to all interested parties, at the earliest practicable time. If the plaintiff makes a prima facie showing that a violation of s. 447.505 is in progress or that there is a clear, real, and present danger that such a strike is about to commence, the circuit court shall issue a temporary injunction enjoining the strike. Upon final hearing, the circuit court shall either make the injunction permanent or dissolve it.

(3) If an injunction to enjoin a strike issued pursuant to this section is not promptly complied with, on the application of the plaintiff, the circuit court shall immediately initiate contempt proceedings against those who appear to be in violation. An employee organization found to be in contempt of court for violating an injunction against a strike shall be fined an amount deemed appropriate by the court. In determining the appropriate fine, the court shall objectively consider the extent of lost services and the particular nature and position of the employee group in violation. In no event shall the fine exceed $5,000. Each officer, agent, or representative of an employee organization found to be in contempt of court for violating an injunction against a strike shall be fined not less than $50 nor more than $100 for each calendar day that the violation is in progress.

(4) An employee organization shall be liable for any damages which might be suffered by a public employer as a result of a violation of the provisions of s. 447.505 by the employee organization or its representatives, officers, or agents. The circuit court having jurisdiction over such actions is empowered to enforce judgments against employee organizations, as defined in this part, by attachment or garnishment of union initiation fees or dues which are to be deducted or checked off by public employers. No action shall be maintained pursuant to this subsection until all proceedings which were pending before the commission at the time of the strike or which were initiated within 30 days of the strike have been finally adjudicated or otherwise disposed of. In determining the amount of damages, if any, to be awarded to the public employer, the trier of fact shall take into consideration any action or inaction by the public employer or its agents that provoked or tended to provoke the strike by the public employees. The trier of fact shall also take into consideration any damages that might have been recovered by the public employer under subparagraph (6)(a)4.

(5) If the commission, after a hearing on notice conducted according to rules promulgated by the commission, determines that an employee has violated s. 447.505, it may order the termination of his employment by the public employer. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a person knowingly violating the provision of said section may, subsequent to such violation, be appointed, reappointed, employed, or reemployed as a public employee, but only upon the following conditions:

(a) Such person shall be on probation for a period of 6 months following his appointment, reappointment, employment, or reemployment, during which period he shall serve without tenure. During this period, the person may be discharged only upon a showing of just cause.

(b) His compensation may in no event exceed that received by him immediately prior to the time of the violation.

(c) The compensation of the person may not be increased until after the expiration of 1 year from such appointment, reappointment, employment, or reemployment.

(6)(a) If the commission determines that an employee organization has violated s. 447.505, it may:

1. Issue cease and desist orders as necessary to insure compliance with its order.

2. Suspend or revoke the certification of the employee organization as the bargaining agent of such employee unit.

3. Revoke the right of dues deduction and collection previously granted to said employee organization pursuant to s. 447.303.

4. Fine the organization up to $20,000 for each calendar day of such violation or determine the approximate cost to the public due to each calendar day of the strike and fine the organization an amount equal to such cost, notwithstanding the fact that the fine may exceed $20,000 for each such calendar day. The fines so collected shall immediately accrue to the public employer and shall be used by him to replace those services denied the public as a result of the strike. In determining the amount of damages, if any, to be awarded to the public employer, the commission shall take into consideration any action or inaction by the public employer or its agents that provoked, or tended to provoke, the strike by the public employees.

(b) An organization determined to be in violation of s. 447.505 shall not be certified until 1 year from the date of final payment of any fine against it.

History.—s. 3, ch. 74-100; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 21, ch. 77-343; s. 4, ch. 79-295.

447.509 Other unlawful acts.—

(1) Employee organizations, their members, agents, or representatives, or any persons acting on their behalf are hereby prohibited from:

(a) Soliciting public employees during working hours of any employee who is involved in the solicitation.

(b) Distributing literature during working hours in areas where the actual work of public employees is performed, such as offices, warehouses, schools, police stations, fire stations, and any similar public installations. This section shall not be construed to prohibit the distribution of literature during the employee's lunch hour or in such areas not specifically devoted to the performance of the employee's official duties.

(c) Instigating or advocating support, in any positive manner, for an employee organization's activities from high school or grade school students during classroom time.

(2) No employee organization shall directly or indirectly pay any fines or penalties assessed against individuals pursuant to the provisions of this part.

(3) The circuit courts of this state shall have jurisdiction to enforce the provisions of this section by injunction and contempt proceedings, if necessary. A public employee who is convicted of a violation of any provision of this section may be discharged or otherwise disciplined by his public employer, notwithstanding further provisions of law, and notwithstanding the provisions of any collective bargaining agreement.

History.—s. 3, ch. 74-100.

447.51 Violations not a ground for municipal recall.—Any violation of this part (Labor Organizations; Public Employees) shall not subject any person to municipal recall and shall not be considered as grounds for municipal recall.

History.—s. 2, ch. 77-279.

447.601 Merit or civil service system; applicability.—The provisions of this part shall not be construed to repeal, amend, or modify the provisions of any law or ordinance establishing a merit or civil service system for public employees or the rules and regulations adopted pursuant thereto or to prohibit or hinder the establishment of other such personnel systems unless the provisions of such merit or civil service system laws or ordinances or rules and regulations adopted pursuant thereto are in conflict with the provisions of this part, in which event such laws, ordinances, or rules and regulations shall not apply, except as provided in s. 447.301(4).

History.—s. 3, ch. 74-100; s. 120, ch. 79-164.

447.603 Local option.—Any district school board or political subdivision, other than the state or a state public authority, may elect to adopt, by ordinance, resolution, or charter amendment, its own provisions and procedures in lieu of the requirement of this part, provided such provisions and procedures effectively secure to public employees substantially equivalent rights and procedures as set forth in this part. Prior to such provisions and procedures becoming law, the public employer shall apply to the commission for review and approval as to whether local provisions or procedures, or both, are substantially equivalent to the provisions and procedures set forth in this part. All public employee agreements now in existence shall remain in effect until their expiration. However, on and after July 1, 1977, no district school board or political subdivision which has not filed an application for approval of local provisions or procedures by the commission on or before June 1, 1977, shall be permitted to adopt the local option provided in this section.

History.—s. 3, ch. 74-100; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 22, ch. 77-343; s. 121, ch. 79-164.

447.605 Public meetings and records law; exemptions and compliance.—

(1) All discussions between the chief executive officer of the public employer, or his representative, and the legislative body or the public employer relative to collective bargaining shall be exempt from s. 286.011.

(2) The collective bargaining negotiations between a chief executive officer, or his representative, and a bargaining agent shall be in compliance with s. 286.011.

(3) All work products developed by the public employer in preparation for negotiations, and during negotiations, shall be exempt from chapter 119.

History.—s. 3, ch. 74-100; s. 23, ch. 77-343.

447.607 Commission rules; powers retained by the Legislature.—The Legislature shall retain the right to approve, amend, or rescind all rules promulgated by the commission pursuant to this part. In the absence of legislative action to the contrary, all rules shall have full force and effect.

History.—s. 5, ch. 74-100; s. 52, ch. 78-95.

447.609 Representation in proceedings.—Any full-time employee or officer of any public employer or employee organization may represent his employer or any member of a bargaining unit in any proceeding authorized in this part, excluding the representation of any person or public employer in a court of law by a person who is not a licensed attorney.

History.—s. 24, ch. 77-343.

- 448.09 Unauthorized aliens; employment prohibited.

448.01 Ten hours of labor a legal day's work; extra pay.—

(1) Ten hours of labor shall be a legal day's work, and when any person employed to perform manual labor of any kind by the day, week, month or year renders 10 hours of labor, he shall be considered to have performed a legal day's work, unless a written contract has been signed by the person so employed and the employer, requiring a less or greater number of hours of labor to be performed daily.

(2) Unless such written contract has been made, the person employed shall be entitled to extra pay for all work performed by the requirement of his employer in excess of 10 hours' labor daily.

History.—ss. 1-3, ch. 1988, 1874; RS 2117, 2118; GS 2641, 2642; RGS 4016, 4017; CGL 5939, 5940. cf.—s. 450.081 Hours of work in child labor law.

448.03 Threatening to discharge employee to compel him to trade with any particular firm or person; penalty.—Any person or persons, firm, joint stock company, association or corporation organized, chartered or incorporated by and under the laws of this state, either as owner or lessee, having persons in their service as employees, who shall discharge any employee or threaten to discharge any employee in their service for trading or dealing, or for not trading or dealing as a customer or patron with any particular merchant or other person or class of persons in any business calling, or shall notify any employee either by general or special notice, directly or indirectly, secretly or openly given, not to trade or deal as a customer or patron with any particular merchant or person or class of persons in any business or calling, under penalty of being discharged from the service of such person, firm, joint stock company, corporation or association shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—ss. 1, 2, ch. 5015, 1901; GS 3233; RGS 5066; CGL 7168; s. 374, ch. 71-136.

448.04 Penalty for officer or agent violating the preceding section.—Any person acting as an officer or agent of any firm, joint stock company, association or corporation of the kind and character as described in s. 448.03 or for any one of them, who makes or executes any notice, order or threat of the kind therein mentioned and forbidden, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 2, ch. 5015, 1901; GS 3234; RGS 5067; CGL 7169; s. 375, ch. 71-136.

448.045 Wrongful combinations against workmen.—If two or more persons shall agree, conspire, combine or confederate together for the purpose of preventing any person from procuring work in any firm or corporation, or to cause the discharge of any person from work in such firm or corporation; or if any person shall verbally or by written or printed communication, threaten any injury to life, property or business of any person for the purpose of procuring the discharge of any workman in any firm or corporation, or to prevent any person from procuring work in such firm or corporation, such persons so combining shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 1, ch. 4144, 1893; GS 3515; RGS 5401; CGL 7542; s. 983, ch. 71-136.

Note.—Former s. 833.02.

cf.—Ch. 544 Combinations against Florida meats.

448.05 Seats to be furnished for employees in stores; penalty.—If any merchant, storekeeper, employer of male or female clerks, salesmen, cash boys or cash girls, or other assistants, in mercantile or other business pursuits, requiring such employees to stand or walk during their active duties, neglect to furnish at his own cost or expense suitable chairs, stools or sliding seats attached to the counters or walls, for the use of such employees when not engaged in their active work, and not required to be on their feet in the proper performance of their several duties; or refuse to permit their said employees to make reasonable use of said seats during business hours, for purposes of necessary rest, and when such use will not interfere with humane or reasonable requirements of their employment, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 1, ch. 4762, 1899; GS 3235; RGS 5068; CGL 7170; s. 376, ch. 71-136.

448.06 Labor problems; mediation and conciliation service; purpose; appointment of mediator and other personnel; appropriation.—

(1) There is hereby created and established a voluntary mediation and conciliation service, the objective of which is the prevention and amicable settlement of labor problems. Such service shall be under the jurisdiction of the Governor who is authorized to appoint, prescribe the duties, title, and fix the salary of one full-time mediator or conciliator and such additional personnel as, in the discretion of the governor, may be required.

(2) The Governor, by and through the mediation and conciliation service, is hereby authorized and directed to promote, assist, and encourage the maintenance of mutually satisfactory employer-employee relationships within the state, and, upon requests of any bona fide party to a labor dispute or in the event of an existing or imminent work stoppage, to proffer services and assistance to both parties in an effort to effect a voluntary, amicable, and expeditious adjustment and settlement of the differences and issues which precipitated or culminated in or which threaten to precipitate or culminate in such labor dispute.

(3) The Governor, by and through the mediation and conciliation service and with the cooperation of other departments under his jurisdiction, shall gather and analyze statistical information relating to labor and industrial relations within the state and in comparison with other states, and make reports and recommendations to the Legislature.

(4) No employee of the mediation and conciliation service, or any other person authorized by the Governor to engage in the performance of duties prescribed by this section, shall be compelled to disclose to any administrative or judicial tribunal any information relating to or acquired from private employers, employees, or their representatives in the course of official conciliation and mediation activities under the provisions of this section, nor shall any reports, minutes, written communications or other documents or copies of documents, and the above-named employees pertaining to such private information be subject to subpoena; and all reports, minutes, written communications, oral conversations, other documents or copies of documents, and the above-named employees, and any other information obtained directly or indirectly in the performance of this service of mediation or conciliation shall be deemed privileged matter and subject to the complete immunities thereby.

(5) The Governor shall include in his legislative budget request the estimated amounts needed for the purpose of effectively carrying out the provisions of this section and the Legislature shall appropriate such amounts as it deems necessary for this purpose. All appropriations for this purpose shall be used at the direction and discretion of the Governor.

History.—ss. 1-4, 6, ch. 57-306; s. 1, ch. 61-29; s. 1, ch. 73-305.

448.07 Wage rate discrimination based on sex prohibited.—

(1) DEFINITIONS.—As used in this section, unless the context or subject matter clearly requires otherwise, the following terms shall have the meanings as defined in this section:

(a) "Employee" means any individual employed by an employer, including individuals employed by the state or any of its political subdivisions or instrumentalities of subdivisions.

(b) "Employer" means any person who employs two or more employees.

(c) "Wages" means and includes all compensation paid by an employer or his agent for the performance of service by an employee, including the cash value of all compensation paid in any medium other than cash.

(d) "Rate" with reference to wages means the basis of compensation for services by an employee for an employer and includes compensation based on time spent in the performance of such services, on the number of operations accomplished, or on the quality produced or handled.

(e) "Unpaid wages" means the difference between the wages actually paid to an employee and the wages required to be paid an employee pursuant to subsection (3).

(2) DISCRIMINATION ON BASIS OF SEX PROHIBITED.—

(a) No employer shall discriminate between employees on the basis of sex by paying wages to employees at a rate less than the rate at which he pays wages to employees of the opposite sex for equal work on jobs the performance of which require equal skill, effort and responsibility, and which are performed under similar working conditions, except when such payment is made pursuant to:

1. A seniority system;
2. A merit system;
3. A system which measures earnings by quantity or quality of production; or
4. A differential based on any reasonable factor other than sex when exercised in good faith.

(b) No person shall cause or attempt to cause an employer to discriminate against any employee in violation of the provisions of this section.

(3) CIVIL ACTION FOR "UNPAID WAGES."—Any employer or person who violates the provisions of this section shall be liable to the employee for the amount of the difference between the amount the said employee was paid and the amount he should have been paid under this section. Nothing in this section shall allow a claimant to recover more than an amount equal to his unpaid wages while so employed for 1 year prior to the filing of his claim. An action to recover such liability may be maintained in any court of competent jurisdiction by the aggrieved employee within 6 months after termination of employment. The court in such action may award to the prevailing party costs of the action and a reasonable attorney's fee.

(4) Nothing in this section shall be applicable to any employer subject to the Federal Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, as amended.

History.—ss. 1-4, ch. 69-5.

448.075 Employment discrimination on basis of sickle-cell trait prohibited.—No person, firm, corporation, unincorporated association, state agency, unit of local government, or any public or private entity shall deny or refuse employment to any person or discharge any person from employment solely because such person has the sickle-cell trait.

History.—s. 3, ch. 78-35.

448.076 Mandatory screening or testing for sickle-cell trait prohibited.—No person, firm, corporation, unincorporated association, state agency, unit of local government, or any public or private entity shall require screening or testing for the sickle-cell trait as a condition for employment, for admission into any state educational institution or state-chartered private educational institution, or for becoming eligible for adoption if otherwise eligible for adoption under the laws of this state.

History.—s. 4, ch. 78-35.

Note.—Also published at ss. 228.201 and 63.043.

448.08 Attorney's fees for successful litigants in actions for unpaid wages.—The court may award to the prevailing party in an action for unpaid wages costs of the action and a reasonable attorney's fee.

History.—s. 1, ch. 78-327.

448.09 Unauthorized aliens; employment prohibited.—

(1) It shall be unlawful for any person knowingly to employ, hire, recruit, or refer, either for himself or on behalf of another, for private or public employment within the state, an alien who is not duly authorized to work by the immigration laws or the Attorney General of the United States.

(2) The first violation of subsection (1) shall be a noncriminal violation as defined in s. 775.08(3) and, upon conviction, shall be punishable as provided in s. 775.082(5) by a civil fine of not more than $500, regardless of the number of aliens with respect to whom the violation occurred.

(3) Any person who has been previously convicted for a violation of subsection (1) and who thereafter violates subsection (1), shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084. Any such subsequent violation of this section shall constitute a separate offense with respect to each unauthorized alien.

History.—ss. 1-3, ch. 77-250; s. 193, ch. 79-400.

449.01 Definitions.—When appearing in this law or in any rule or regulation adopted pursuant thereto the following words shall mean:

(1) "Private employment agency"—any person, firm or corporation, who for hire or for profit, shall undertake to secure employment or help, or through the medium of a card, circular, pamphlet, or other medium whatsoever, or through the display of a sign or bulletin, or by any other holding out to the public, offers to secure employment or help, or give information as to where employment or help may be secured.

(2) "General employment agency"—the business of conducting an agency, bureau, office or any place restricted to the purpose of procuring, offering, promising or attempting to provide employment for persons who want employment in any occupation except in the theatrical or entertainment field.

(3) "Model agency"—the business of conducting an agency, bureau, office or any other place restricted to the purpose of procuring, offering, promising or attempting to provide engagements for models who demonstrate or display a product, such exhibitions not to be in the entertainment or theatrical field or to include vocal participation by the model.

(4) "Nurses registry"—any business restricted to the conducting of an agency, bureau, office or any other place for the purpose of procuring, offering, promising or attempting to provide employment or engagements for nurses of any kind; or any place used as a lodging house for nurses, the keeper of which receives telephone calls or messages of any kind relative to the employment of such nurses and transmits such messages or calls to a nurse lodging in his or her house.

(5) "Domestic help agency"—any business restricted to the conducting of any agency, bureau, office or any other place for the purpose of procuring, offering, promising or attempting to provide employment by placement of domestic help in private homes.

(6) "Baby sitter agency"—any business restricted to the conducting of an agency, bureau, office or any other place for the purpose of placement of baby sitters in private homes.

(7) "Theatrical employment agency"—any business restricted to the conducting of an agency, bureau, office or other place for the purpose of procuring, offering, promising or attempting to provide engagements for persons who want employment in, including but not limited to, the following occupations: circus, vaudeville, theatrical and other entertainment type performances, or of giving information as to where such engagement may be procured or provided, whether such business is conducted in a building, on the street, or elsewhere.

(8) "Agent"—any partner in a partnership, member of a firm, or officer of a corporation, whose partnership, firm or corporation holds a private employment agency license. Also any individual who is the sole owner of a private employment agency.

(9) "Agency employee"—manager, placement clerk, interview clerk, or solicitor of a private employment agency.
